THE NATIONAL MONTHLY MAKES

Creditable Mention of Mrs. Ollie M. James, wife of our Distinguished Congressman.

In the September number of the National Monthly, under the head of "Women of the Democracy at Washington," appears the picture of Mrs. Ollie M. James. After speaking in high compliment of Mrs. Jos. W. Bailey, wife of Senator Bailey, of Texas, pays the following high compliment to the wife of our loved Congressman of the proud Old First District:

"The Lone Star State, however, has a long ways to go if it means to wrest the palm from Kentucky when it comes to a question of beautiful and fascinating women. Kentucky has grown up with the idea in mind that its horses and its women—not to mention another celebrated product—are the finest in the world. An Kentucky rarely goes away in its judgment of any one of the three. So Mrs. Ollie James, wife of Representative James of the First District of the 'blue grass' State, may easily account for her popularity among the members of the Congressional contingent in Washington.

Mrs. James has been an official hostess nearly six years, which period covers her married life. She is one of the most fascinating women in public life and thoroughly enjoys the Congressional seasons in Washington. Before her marriage to Mr. James, Mrs. James was Miss Ruth Thomas of Marion, one of the best cross country riders in the state famed for its horsewomen. She dearly loves everything that takes one outdoors and sweeps victory her way on the tennis courts or golf links any time her fancy dictates. In the past few years Mrs. James has ridden but little because of ill health but she is a fine judge of horses and of women—two traits Kentucky never fails to give as a dowry to its sons and daughters.

When Mrs. James was just six years old her father, who was a prominent Methodist minister, was called to another town. Mr. James, who at that time, had no idea that one day he would be a power for his party in the national legislature, hardly knew the mite of a little girl who was afterwards to be his wife. His sister and the elder sister of little Ruth Thomas were close friends. So when after many years had gone by Ruth Thomas returned to live at Marion, her former home, her sister renewed her friendship with the James family one day in a railroad station when Mr. James was about to leave town on a political mission. The elder Miss Thomas presented Mr. James to her younger sister and the first seeds of a friendship which was to lead to a more serious affection were sown. Mrs. James received the greater part of her education at the West Kentucky College. She is full of life, talks with fascinating animation, has fine features and a keen sense of humor. She is exceedingly fond of reading and, like all other women, of her husband's party politics, is well informed on all subjects of importance, whether political or otherwise. Mrs. James joined Mr. James in Washington the day the special session of Congress adjourned and after visiting New York and Atlantic City, will return to their home in Marion about the first week in September.

A Great Meeting of The Baptist at Walnut Grove.

The Ohio River Association met with Walnut Grove Baptist church, Aug. 18th, 19th, and 20th. The introductory sermon was preached by Eld. W. C. Pierce from the commission as found in Matt. 28:18 and ably presenting it in its Breadth of Authority, Breadth of Command and Breadth of Promise. The reading of the reports from the churches and enrolling the members occupied the remaining part of the forenoon.

The reports show a gratifying progress along all the lines of church work. The membership increased over last year 268 and the contributions about $300.00, while peace and harmony prevail among the churches generally. Much Missionary enthusiasm was awakened by the stirring addresses of visitors and members and one young man expressed a call to missionary work abroad.

The report and discussion on temperance demand State-wide prohibition and rigid enforcement of present local option laws.

The Association was delighted to have as visitors the following brethren:—Dr. H. B. Taylor, of the State Board of Missions; Dr. Maddox, of the Minister's Aid Society; Dr. J. C. Midyett, of the Ohio Valley College at Sturgis; Dr. C. W. Knight, pastor at Morgantown; Dr. W. D. Howell, of the Cyclone Secretary of State Missions; and Dr. J. A. Be net, representing the Western Recorder.

Walnut Grove church and community are an ideal place and people for an Association and abundantly provided for the comfort and pleasure of all that attended.

The pastors and messengers return to their churches with renewed zeal and purpose to extend the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ.

The meeting next year will be with Crooked Creek church near Marion. A Sunday School union was planned and committee appointed to arrange for meeting fifth Sunday in October. R. A. L.

Conference at Lexington For Discussion of Tuberculosis.

The joint Committee from the various Anti-Tuberculosis Association in the State which have been engaged for the past few weeks in perfecting plans for the organization of a State Association, has announced that all preparatory arrangements have been made and a conference between representatives from each county in the State will be held late in September, at which definite action will be taken.

Two Minor conferences have already been held between officers of the six Associations which have already been organized, and the September meeting was arranged in order that the needs of the State might be considered, from the view point of the citizens of every city and county. The proposed meeting will be held in Lexington and a very interesting and instructive program has been arranged, it is said, which will cover a period of two days. Some of the best known specialists of the county will be invited and the number of spirited laymen, as well as medical men, who have signified their intention of attending, has already insured a most interesting convention.

Say! Mr. farmer when in town come around. HUBBARD.

WOMEN AS TEACHERS--AND WHY NOT?

Men are Useful as Teachers, to be True, but Women, all Things Considered Accomplish More

Every year the percentage of female teachers employed in the common schools in Daviess county increases while the percentage of males correspondingly declines. What is true in Daviess is true in every county in Kentucky and what is true in Kentucky is true in every state in the union. Various causes are assigned for this change in the ratio of teachers as regards sex. Some contend that the salaries paid teachers are so low that they have failed to attract the men who qualified themselves for the teacher's vocation, and they have sought other pursuits in which the returns for their services are more remunerative. This is no doubt true in many instances, because the teachers of Kentucky have been a poorly paid class. The man with education sufficient to teach in the schools has accomplished enough to better his financial condition in other fields, therefore he abandoned school work and left the training of the children of the country to the women.

Woman has so well proved her fitness for the training of youth that most of the states have ceased to limit her usefulness along that line to the schoolroom, but have made her eligible to the office of county school superintendent. Some states have even made her eligible to the office of state superintendent of public instruction, and in most states she is allowed to serve on the board of education and county boards of examiners.

Recently Mrs. Ella F. Young, aged 62, an experienced teacher, was chosen superintendent of the Chicago schools. The place not only has control of Chicago's great school system and the several hundred thousand children which attend them, but will draw the salary of $10,000 a year. The selection of Mrs. Young to the place she is to fill is causing much comment and the larger part of it too is more favorable than otherwise.

One of the best editorials we have read on the subject of woman's great value in the education of children of the land was printed in the Memphis Commercial Appeal. The following are paragraphs from the editorial mention:

Why shouldn't a woman be superintendent of schools? Why shouldn't a woman be on the board of education?

Nine-tenths of the public school teachers in Memphis are women. Nine-tenths of the training the child gets in the home is from the mother. The school would merely be the complement of the home.

Men are useful as teachers, to be true, but women, all things considered, accomplish more than men do. In some cities there is a disposition to prevent married women from teaching in the schools.

A married woman who has reared half a dozen children is better fitted as a teacher than if she had no children.

A Fine Apple.

S. S. Gass, of near Marion, was exhibiting a fine apple Wednesday from one of his young trees, that measured fifteen inches in diameter and weighed twenty-two ounces. The apple was a beautiful one and said to be a fine keeper and of splendid flavor.

Is An Old "Reb" SHW.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 22.—A real unconstructed rebel was discovered today. He is Col. G. N. Saussey, of Sylvester, Ga. Gov. Brown recently named Saussey Colonel on the governor's staff and the adjutant general mailed the old soldier his commission together with the oath of allegiance to Georgia and the United States. Col. Saussey erased the word "blue" wherever it appeared in the regulations for the uniform and substituted the word "gray." Then he erased the oath to the United States constitution entirely and wrote:

"I am a Confederate soldier, still on parole, and while pledged not to again bear arms against the United States, I have never taken the oath of allegiance and while God gives me life, I never will."

Announcements.

We are authorized to announce Judge THOS. J. NUNN, as a candidate for Appellate Judge of this, the First Appellate Court District, subject to the action of the Democratic Party. Primary, first Tuesday in November, 1909.

The Oracle at Dawson will be sold for debt on Sept. 25th. It takes money to run a newspaper.

A minute report of the Institute will appear in Tuesday's issue of the Record-Press. All desiring extra copies will call during the week and let the fact be known.

What is the matter with the candidates for the various offices of Crittenden county. As yet there have been no announcements, and surely they do not mean to make the race without announcing.

Ice is not only a luxury, but a necessity during the hot months of the year. Do without everything you can, but don't deprive your family of ice. The families who use it have less sickness than those who do and the $1.50 to $3.00 a month is buying health much cheaper than going to a doctor for it. Water is not good in summer without ice. Buy it and be healthy and happy. You buy ice after you get sick, so why not buy it and avoid the sickness.

Good bread has much more to do in making home pleasant than any one thing can and it takes good flour to make good bread. We are glad to say this flour is made by the Marion Milling Co., your mills and you should be proud of them. They absolutely put out the best flour we ever saw. Don't think you are compelled to go from home to get good flour, when you have the best at your own door and besides a home enterprise. This is no paid editorial but just a desire on the part of the Editor to remind the people of Crittenden and surrounding counties of what we have in Marion. Candidly the first thing I fell in love with when I came to Marion was the pretty women and the first thing my wife fell in love with was the flour and now since she is here I agree with her.

PART OF GAME.

Not many of our readers are likely to be deceived by the accounts that are appearing every few days in certain Louisville papers failures and evils of local option in various towns and counties in Kentucky. It is known that a worker on the staff of these papers is assigned to the job of discrediting the cause of prohibition and of all efforts to eliminate the saloon. The accounts to purport to come from the various towns. It is doubtful whether the correspondent goes to these towns, and if he does it is for the definite purpose of finding and fixing facts that will make it appear that the saloon is needed to save a town! The man is paid to do this and his pay depends upon the showing he makes.

No one who is informed will be deceived by such tricks. It may be well enough to recall that the Courier-Journal has pretended to favor local option which it is now trying to discredit.

The desperation, the mortal fear, that has seized the forces that back the saloon in Kentucky is every encouraging. They seem to have lost the sense of decency and to have cast caution to the winds. They are very long on figures and very short on facts. Their most gifted advocate entertains us all--when his irreverence and blasphemy do not shock us--by the skill which he conceals impotence of argument behind eloquence of phrase. It is most gratifying to find how generally the "rural press" stands for the progress of the campaign against saloons. These papers might have money for supporting the cause of the saloon but they prefer to serve the cause of righteousness and temperance. The city press may try to bluff and ridicule but it is evident enough that the country editor has his city contemporary on the defensive. And not by any means do all the city papers serve the saloon.

It is a good day in Kentucky; a day for courage and hope, for winning work against this giant evil--Baptist World.

This is not the first occasion, neither will it be the last, in which the country press has wrought the utter rout and discomfiture of the city newspapers. As a general rule, the country editor is reasonably honest, reasonably intelligent and reasonably true to his convictions. He frequently makes mistakes--but they are honest ones. The compliment of the Baptist World is neither ill-timed nor misplaced--for about all a country editor receives in this world is occasional praise and a steady stream of criticism--Glasgow Times.

Amen! Mr. Watterson, one of the greatest and brightest men of his age and editor of the leading political paper of the United States, is trying to lead the Democrats to victory and the people of Kentucky to--in his stand for the saloon. But the people of Kentucky are aroused and for a certainty, the man or politician favoring the saloon interest against the interest of the overwhelming majority of the great common people, will be forced to take his seat in the rear.

THE FRAZER FAMILY OF NEAR DALTON, KENTUCKY.

Realizing that they had been blessed to the limit of God's goodness in the gift of twelve children, all living and all highly respected men and women who with their respected parents appear in the above picture the proud father and mother concluded for once since their birth to have them home at a family reunion, which took place at their home near Dalton, Ky., July 11th, 1909, when the above picture was made. Surely there are few parents in Kentucky so fortunate as to rear to noble man and womanhood, an even dozen children to call them blessed. The reunion was a happy and long-to-be-remembered one with every member present and in splendid health.

born Jan. 1st, 1868; Dr. T. Atchison, a highly respected physician, of Marion, and president of the board of health, born Nov. 12th, 1869; Isaac S. born Nov. 7th, 1871; Jun. S. born Nov. 1875; Thadens A. born Nov. 18th, 1880; Wm. A. born July 3rd, 1884; Clifton R. born Oct. 19th, 1887; and Geo. P. born May 1st, 1890.

Three of the twelve children were born in January, 1 in May, 1 in July, 2 in October, and five in November. If there be a more remarkable family than this in Kentucky let their pictures appear.

Citizens Life Insurance Company.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 24th, '09.
Record-Press, Marion, Ky.
Dear Sir:--I am pleased to advise you that the total amount of stock subscriptions received at the close of this bulletin was $534,740.

I am in receipt of a letter from Mr. Helm Bruce, General Counsel of the Citizens' Life Insurance Company, who is traveling with Mrs. Bruce in the far West. While his letter is personal, there is one paragraph which I would like to quote as follows:

"One day I was standing at a little railroad station (Laguan) on the Canadian Pacific when I fell into a chance conversation with a man who turned out to be from Oklahoma, and when he learned I was from Louisville, the first question he asked me was, 'How about that big life insurance company that the Citizens Life people are forming?' Of course I told him what was being done. It sounded very strange to hear such a question way up in the Canadian Rockies."

I predict that the time is not far distant when not only the people of the far West but other sections of the country are going to take an interest in the Citizens' National, like the people of Kentucky and the South are now doing.

Fourth Killing in Henderson.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 22.--The fourth killing within a few days here was recorded Sunday, when Jeff Watson was shot through the head and killed, and Henry Hall is under arrest charged with the shooting.

Hall is 22 years of age. He had attended an ice cream social in the country with his father. Watson had been drinking and knocked a man down. The elder Hall criticized him, and then Watson then knocked Hall down. Hardly did Hall touch the ground until a pistol shot rang out and Watson toppled over dead, with a pistol ball hole clear through his head. Young Hall was placed in jail and denies the shooting. The coronor's jury held that the killing was not justified.

There have been four murders in Henderson within a few days, and a number of shootings where the victims almost died from the wounds. It is the worst reign of lawlessness that the city has known for years and the city is thoroughly aroused and anxious to do something to check the reign of crime.

Will you kindly note the fact that the most killings and the most lawlessness is where the most whisky is sold.

STURGIS.

Rev. M. L. Dyer at Kuttawa.

Rev. M. L. Dyer, pastor of the M. E. church at Sturgis, has been conducting a successful revival service at Kuttaw, the home of dear Bro. Coward who, with his good wife, were so universally loved by the people of Sturgis, but for the past nine months so afflicted from an attack of blood poison, as to have been near death for most of the time. The thoughtfulness of Bro. Dyer in helping a man so worthy will not be forgotten by the people where ever he is known, for which he already has his reward, as thirty souls have been brought to Christ during the time.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

The Board of Stewards of the M. E. church at Stugis met last week agreed to use their influence to have Rev. M. L. Dyer returned to them this fall for his second year.
