THE TEACHERS’ INSTITUTE

ADJOURNED FRIDAY

LESS THAN HALF THE HORTICULTURAL REPORT WHICH IS IN THE ISSUE

The Institute convened on Monday last, under the presidency of the building at Marion. The opening exercises commenced at 2 o’clock by Rev. Adam of the M. R. Church after which “America was sung.

Prof. B. J. King, of Marion, delivered an address. Officers elected were a President, Prof. J. B. Knowles, Vice President, J. R. McNally, Secretary, B. H. Bardwell, Assistant Secretary, and Board of Directors.

The Institute secured the building of the public library for its meetings. The members of the Institute met in the afternoon to call attention to the ployo of marion. Officers elected were a President, Prof. J. B. Knowles, Vice President, J. R. McNally, Secretary, B. H. Bardwell, Assistant Secretary, and Board of Directors.

In the absence of Miss Curtin, this subject was kept up in a vocal solo by Miss Anna.

The next subject was opened by singing “America” after which the roll was called and the regular exercises begun. The President addressed the body of students in asking for work, saying that if any member was not prepared to do the work he should not be in the class or in the room where the work was to be done. The President said that the work of the class was to be done in the presence of the teacher.
