SALE OF CRITTENDEN

County Tobacco--Goes to W. G. Head & Son of Madisonville.

At ten o'clock last night the tract was signed in this office for the sale of all the Crittenden Association tobacco. W. G. Head & Son, Madisonville, are the purchasers, million pounds or more at same price, seven cents average. All of which will be delivered at Marion, a sale cleans up all the Association's 1909 crop. Cable the same England. And now Manager Head may turn his attention to that 60 bushels of unsold 1908 crop, for which he has proven him a great man; very great considering all adverse circumstances on front of him.

Crittenden county has fallen into hands. Mr. W. G. Head did business here in Henderson for years and enjoys the respect and confidence of Henderson county farmers. Henderson county farmers will hit it all right.

INSTRUCTIONS.

Members are anxiously expecting instructions and are daily scanning the Times column for details. And editor of that column must explain just why a this writing it is possible to give explicit details. The District Committee meets again Monday to arrange all the preliminaries to insure the smooth running of deliveries. Until every preliminary is agreed on between the committee and the purchasers, definite instructions as to all details cannot be given.

On yesterday at noon I furnished the Evening Journal certain instructions gathered from Secretary Thompson and Manager Kibler. But before the Journal went to press we learned of a trade by the Imperial Company and the Gallagher Company that rendered necessary a modification of the instructions furnished to and by yesterday's Journal.

By the trade referred to it is now settled that the Gallagher Company will operate the factories at Roberts and Corydon. Of course it does not matter in the slightest essential that the trade was made by the Imperial and Gallagher to the Association, but it does affect the instructions furnished of the Journal. Wherefore I shall in today's Gleaner begin over again and tell members all I can to date, Monday night.

The District Committee has hit upon the best plan for the delivery of crops yet devised.

To illustrate, every farmer delivering tobacco to the city of Henderson must bring samples of his entire crop to headquarters and he will be told by the Association's representative where to take his entire crop. He will not be required to drive his wagon to headquarters. He simply comes one time with his samples and is directed to the purchaser who gets his entire crop. For instance, he will be told to take his crop to the Imperial or to Gallagher or to John H. Hodge or to any other purchaser. In this way every farmer will know where his entire crop goes. In this way farmers will get included promptly. The will not be kept here for three or four days, as was sometimes the case last year.

Next week the Association representative will be here at headquarters ready to assign crops to purchasers. Farmers may come along then, not sooner, and be assigned. But, mark you, the foregoing applies to Henderson county tobacco, all of which must come to headquarters at Henderson, the samples, I mean, to be assigned. Even the tobacco that goes to Roberts must be assigned from Henderson.

The Corydon district tobacco, under the trade referred to above, must, I understand, come to the Imperial, here in Henderson. For the Gallagher Company will receive only Union county tobacco at Corydon.

Secretary Thompson has just handed me the boundaries of that part of Union county which, under the sale, must deliver tobacco to Corydon and Henderson.

Let Union county members read the same carefully.

Beginning at a point in the Webster and Union county line in the road running from Hearin's store to Bardley, and thence from said point to Bardley, thence with Bardley and Morganfield road running through Cullin, to Morganfield, Ky, thence with I. C. railroad to Henderson and Union county line, thence with Union and Webster line to the beginning.

Remember all the Association tobacco within the bounds written above has been sold the Gallagher Company and may be delivered at Corydon or Henderson.

Further instructions concerning Union county tobacco, without the boundaries named, will be given after the committee meets to-morrow.

WEBSTER COUNTY TOBACCO

I invite a close study of the following regarding deliveries of Webster county tobacco. I have just received it from Secretary Thompson and Webster county members may rely on its accuracy.

AT PROVIDENCE

About 3,200,000 pounds to the Imperial and Gallagher from the Clay Providence and Dixon magisterial districts.

AT SEBREE

About 2,500,000 pounds to the Imperial, (three factories) from the Dixon and Sebree magisterial districts.

AT SLAUGHTERSVILLE

The Slaughter'sville magisterial district to the John H. Hodge Tobacco Company.

AT HENDERSON

About 800,000 pounds of Webster county tobacco is to be delivered at Henderson to the Imperial Tobacco Company.

They set aside the old Clark house for this tobacco.

I cannot say to day positively, that tobacco will be received next Monday, the 13th. Later this week after the committee and purchasers agree on the opening day, I will make public the opening day.

JAMES STANBERRY

Mashed to Death by Sand-bank Cave-in--Something of His Life.

Jim Stanberry, about thirty years old, was mashed to death in the Tradewater sand bank, belonging to the West Kentucky Coal company. Mr. Stanberry, with Burnham and others were getting out sand for the company, when the roof gave way, falling upon Stanberry and Burnham. Mr. Burnham was caught by the lower part of the body and was almost free when others arrived on the scene. After he was extricated by Messrs John Hammett and Todd, they all began to remove the sand from off Stanberry, who was covered beneath four feet of sand. He was dead when taken from the pit. Mr. Stanberry has lived among us for years and has been a quiet, unassuming citizen, and his death, in such a manner, is a shock to the entire community. —Star's News Democrat.

James Harrison Stanberry was born in Crittenden county, Kentucky, July 28, 1878. He professed faith in Christ and united with the Mt. Zion church in the fall of 1900. Died November 30, 1909. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. U. G. Hughes in the church at Mt. Zion and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place, by the side of his father, Francis M. Stanberry, who was buried there one year ago. He leaves an aged mother, several brothers and sisters and a host of friends to mourn his death. He was a farmer and lived in the Baker church neighborhood, where he and his brothers cared for and supported his widowed mother in her declining years.

He was a noble young man and the grief-stricken mother and brothers and sisters have our sympathy in their sad bereavement.

What Is It?

It is the old Anglo-Saxon name for Dandruff and it's a good one. If you have dandruff you have lost out and the first remedies that are prescribed at dandruff are working persistently night and day and sooner or later will reach the very life of your hair and destroy its vitality. Then you'll be bald—Bald to stay—for not even the wonderful rejuvenating properties in Parisian Sage can grow hair after the hair bulb is dead. Parisian Sage cures Dandruff. Haynes & Taylor, the druggists, sell it—recommend it and guarantee it; only 50 cents a large bottle and your money back if it fails to cure Dandruff, Falling Hair and Itching of the scalp.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE MET AT PADUCAH

Last Wednesday And Issued A Formal Call For A Primary To Nominate A Candidate For Congress.

LILLIE M. JAMES IS THE ONLY CANDIDATE.

The First District congressional committee met yesterday morning at the Palmer house and issued a formal call for a primary for the nomination of a candidate for congress from this district on March 5, 1910. February 24 was placed as the limit for entries and if there has been no one but Lillie M. James announced by that date, the committee will meet again on February 24 and declare him the Democratic nominee. No other entry is expected by the committee as Mr. James, and he will undoubtedly be elected wholly without opposition. The resolutions in which the plan of procedure was embodied provided that the chairman, Henry Lawrence, of Trigg county, should be empowered to fix an entrance fee for participating in the primary.

The meeting was held in the parlors of the Palmer house and was attended by some of the most prominent Democrats of the first district. The counties of the district were represented either in person or by proxy, those in attendance being, Carlisle, Hon. Len Owens, of Arlington; Calloway, Hon. W. L. Christman; Caldwell, Hon. J. H. Stevens; Crittenden, Representative Marion Pogue; Fulton, Hon. Mott Ayers; Graves, Hon. W. A. Frost; Hickman, Hon. R. L. Smith; Livingston, Hon. L. Mitchell; Lyon, Hon. R. J. Doome; Marshall, Hon. D. J. Fisor; McCracken, Hon. W.

room turned over to the committee and other invited guests. Gathered around the board, which was presided over by Mr. James, were twenty-three of the strongest Democratic party workers in this end of the state. Those who partook of Mr. James' hospitality were: Representatives Houston Brooks, Eugene Graves, Frank Moore and George Reid; General Lawrence, Jo McClure, of Graves county; Zeb Stewart, Hon. Jacob Corbett, of Ballard county; Robert Hille, Judge Alben Barkley, Bob Smith, D. M. Fisor, Hon. S. H. Wadlington, of Lyon county; Hon. Lew Owen, of Carlisle county; Hon. John H. Steves, Hon. L. Mitchell, of Livingston; Hon. H. F. Green, Hon. John McWaters, Hon. John L. Smith, Hon. Jim Lemon, Hon. George Wilson, of Union county, and H. J. Doome. After the luncheon Mr. James was called on to give a benediction and, without hesitation, said: "Gentlemen, I know of no greater or more worthy benediction to pronounce on a Democrat than simply to call him a Democrat." Along the same lines Mr. James drew an analogy between the Republican party and other national mistakes, and after a few minutes of graceful rhetoric concluded by thanking the Democrats assembled for their support in the past and expressing a desire that he might still be considered worthy of it in the future.

One of the most prominent of the Democrats present was Representative George S. Wilson, of Sturgis, Union county. Mr. Wilson is a young man, but only a few minutes conversation with him shows the innate strength of character that is in the man. Mr. Wilson is one of the more prominent Democrats of his section, and is a candidate for the speakership of the next house of representatives. He will go to Frankfort with the solid backing of every first and second district representative, and was shaking hands and renewing acquaintances with those present yesterday. Mr. Wilson is the only candidate for speaker west of Louisville and stands the best show of election of any in the race. Too, he is a good man; one that is strong enough and with backbone enough to do right at the right time. He will, if elected, be a distinctive gain, both in politics and personality, for west Kentucky, as well as the whole state. Here's hoping he gets it.

Some wit at the dinner table called the bunch assembled "The James Family" and the name seemed to be peculiarly appropriate, for, as Mr. James expressed it, the Democrats of this end of the state come as near to being one big family as any big body in the country.

WORK FOR CONGRESS.

Defects In Pure Food Law to be Remedied At Next Session.

CANNING METHODS IMPROVED

When Congress meets in December, one of the questions to be thrashed out will undoubtedly be the revision of the pure food laws to meet the demands of the general body of consumers for still further improvements in the methods in vogue in many food factories.

One of the points overlooked in the original act was the treatment of peaches and apricots in canning plants. It is the practice of many canneries to immerse peaches in a boiling solution of caustic soda and allow the fruit to stew in this chemical until the skins of the fruit are eaten loose. The fruit is then put through several washings until the skins are washed away. This process is about a cent and a half or two cents a can cheaper than peeling by knife. Those who are calling attention to this chemical treatment say that the use of the lye is not the worst feature of the process, contend that in order to use this cheap peeling process it is necessary to use green and unripe fruit for canning. Ripe fruit will not stand the lye-process but becomes discolored and disintegrated in the caustic soda. The little flavor which the unripe peaches have is killed by the lye treatment so that the result is a woody, tasteless, canned peach which depends for flavor on the syrup which is added in the canning process.

The way to tell a lye-peeled peach is to wash away the syrup and then taste the fruit. If it is tasteless and pulpy, the chances are it is a lye-peeled peach.

In the several washings to which the peach is subjected after it is peeled by lye, most of the chemical undoubtedly washed away but if any of it is left the consumer gets it with his fruit.

Congress did not mention this subject in the pure food laws, consequently the canners who use this method are not compelled to state the fact on their labels. The present agitation has for its purpose the enactment of a measure to remedy this defect.

If this movement proves successful every canner will have to state on his label if the peaches he used were peeled by caustic soda or any other chemical. That of course will put the question right up to the consumer. If they would as soon eat fruit which has been soaked in lye they can do so. Many of course will prefer to have their fruit handled in the good old fashioned kitchen way, by knife peeling, which also means much for the quality of canned fruit by keeping intact the original fruit flavor.

The last two years have seen a great advance in the methods used in various canneries and with the new law a still further advance in the direction of wholesome production will be assured. When the processes employed in canneries are known to be perfectly wholesome, there will be a greater use of canned fruits and the final result will be profitable for all concerned, including the farmer who will get a greater market for his product.

that from the tone of its Salutatory and its bright clean appearance is destined to prove one of the best friends the farmers ever had in all this section of Kentucky.

The paper is published under the head of The Liberty Publishing Co., Incorporated, with J. L. Newton, Pres.; M. B. Tapp, First Vice Pres.; A. H. Harris, Sec. Vice Pres.; J.
C. Stamp, Sec'y.; L. T. Yancey, Treas.; with Wm. Chesterfield, L.
T. Yancey, J. W. Cooper, F. E.
Taylor and J. J. Perry as directors.
The business manager is J. J. Perry and from the bright appearance of the first issue he makes both, a good manager and Editor. We bid the new launchers upon the Journalistic world a hearty welcome. Their first issue ranks a head of any of our exchanges.

Miss Hattie M. Ritchhouse, Superintendent of the Hardie county, Ill., Schools, in a two column article in the Hardie Co., Era takes the Illinois State Journal to task for making Hardin, a pauper county by having lost the right to the public school funds. One paragraph of the State Journal reads thusly:

WILL LOSE SHARE OF FUNDS.
"Next year the district having only five months of school will lose its share of the State fund. Year after next it will be dissolved and its territory added to some adjoining district or districts. This is the penalti-ty it must pay for being poverty stricken."

Miss Ritchhouse claims this to be false and that while the county is by no means what she would like it, is far from losing its hold upon the school fund.

Let old Hardin be blessed with a railroad or two to help rich mineral lands and the plucky School Superintendent will have the tables turned on the defamer of one of the grandest counties in the State.

There are more children of school age outside of schools in Kentucky than there are attending the schools, according to the school statistics which are being prepared by Superintendent of Public Instruction J.
G. Crabbe for his biennial report to the General Assembly.
The report shows that there are daily average attendance at the public schools 311,192 children, while the number of those not attending any school is 417,664. The report, among other things, shows the value of school houses and grounds in the State to be $8,545,337.82; total number of teachers, 11,027; number of district libraries, 1,459; value of county libraries, $29,768; total amount of money received from all sources for school purposes, $5,174-297 95.

The night cars on the traction line from Evansville to Princeton, Ind., was last week boarded by a band of drunken marauders and the mortarman and conductor were beaten into insensibility from which one of them will die. Gibson county has a county line saloon where they can come over and load up with the stuff that deprives good men of their lives, makes homes desolate and over-runs the jails where it is sold with a class of men that are made devils by it. Now these trains are unescorted to run with officers aboard. Surely this is enough to make the good people of Vandenberg county rise up and empty the damned stuff into the Ohio river.

The thing most needed in mineral circles in Crittenden county is for J.
P. Morgan or some one else with millions of dollars, to buy a control-ing interest and turn a vast combine.

It seems a pity that Crittenden is recognized as the richest county in fluor spar, lead and zinc in the United States and appreciated so little at home.

Mining interests here will be growing skyward by the time the buds begin to burst in the Spring.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

To Our Friends Customers and General Public--We wish to state that the "Home Telephone Company" has gone to the expense of making their line into Fredonia, Ky.
Metallic and will say that the service now is fine. And that their toll station is now located in our drug store where same is always at your service, the Company has added a nice telephone booth where you can step into and make all your conversation strictly private.

We have gone to some trouble in getting all this fixed just as we wanted it before stating to the public the new addition and convenience we have for them in our drug store.
"Our aim is to always have the best for the least money" and we think we have it in the Home Telephone Co., and we trust that the public will appreciate our efforts in this and will show us their appreciation of same by using this line when they have cause to go out of town talking.

We wish to give you a few rates to towns that are often called up from this point. For a five minutes conversation, you can talk to Marion, Blackford, Clay, Dixon, Providence, Lisman, Shady Grove and many others for fifteen cents. Madisonville, Henderson, Paducah, Ky., and others too numerous to mention, for twenty five cents. Hopkinsville, Ky., and surroundings for thirty cents.
Owensboro, Ky., and others for thirty-five cents. Louisville, Ky., day rate eighty cents, after 6 o'clock p. m., forty cents.

You can get rates to any town that the Home Telephone reaches in a very few minutes either by calling

Central at Marion, Ky., or by calling our drug store here at Fredonia, and same will be furnished gladly.
We also wish to state to our friends and customers that we will be glad to transfer any message that you may want us to, where you have not got this phone but have another that reaches our store. But will not be responsible for any errors that may be made in the transferring of same.
But will always do our best to handle correctly. Moore's Drug Store

STEAMER PARK CITY SINKS IN THE KENTUCKY RIVER

Craft Strikes Obstruction While Backing From Landing And Bottom Torn Away Causing Her to Settle Rapidly.

Ramming to make up some part of fourteen hours lost from her schedule, the steamer Park City, owned by the Kentucky River Transportation Company, struck a reef or bank-on snag in the Kentucky river at Glen Mary this morning at 8 o'clock and sank within three minutes.
The boat's bottom was torn from her, but her crew got off in time. A big cargo of whisky went down with the boat--700 cases of bottled goods.

and 195 barrels. That there were no passengers aboard, and the crew were able to leave the boat in time is regarded as extreme good fortune by rivermen who have heard of the wreck. She lies in the middle of the stream in thirty feet of water.

Had not General Manager Charles V. Williams and Mrs. Williams left the boat at Tyrone yesterday morning and come home by train, the wreck might have had its tragic side, as Mr. and Mrs. Williams made the trip up Kentucky river, and only left the boat at Tyrone because business matters of importance awaited Mr. Williams in Louisville. The lost fourteen hours decided him to come in by train. Mrs. Williams debated for some time whether or not to remain aboard the Park City, finally deciding to accompany Mr.
Williams because there were no passengers aboard, and she was lonely.

When seen in her apartment in the Kentucky apartments this morning, Mrs. Williams was suffering considerable nervousness, but was thankful that she had escaped the danger of the disaster. Mr. Williams had hastened back to Glen Mary, which is a few miles above Drennon Springs, in probably the most dangerous stretch of the river.
Mrs. Williams was unable to tell what amount of insurance was carried on the boat, but was positive that it would not cover the loss, as the Park City had been off the ways but a few days, and was on her first trip after having been put in complete repair.

Obituary.

Dennis Carlton, son of J. C. Carlton, was born in Livingston county, Ky., Dec. 31st, 1888. Died, Nov.
24th, 1909, at 8 o'clock p. m. Just before the dawn of manhood and on the verge of a beautiful Thanksgiving day, God called for Dennis and took him from the tender and loving hands of father, mother and friends, who had cared for him during his days of suffering with typhoid fever.
For nearly thirty days he lay in bed waiting patiently for the last, and in the gloom of the shadow of death, he professed faith in Christ, and said, "Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." After giving this message of consolation to his parents and friends he crossed the dark river of death, to arise no more until judgment day.
He was laid to rest in the Crayne cemetery on Nov. 25th, Thanksgiving day. A large crowd assembled at the church to take the last look at

Despair and Despondency
No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.
It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good" as the others. It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cure. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper cover, in handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dennis, on earth and hear the parting words of consolation so beautifully and tenderly spoken by Revs.
W. T. Oakley and M. E. Miller.
Bro. Miller said in part, "There are three words that should be blended into one: Mother, Home and Heaven, these words are so closely allied it is hard to tell where the one begins and the other ends, each speaks volumes within themselves to the weary soul and leads to a higher and brighter life."
Like the Prodigal son, Dennis returned unto his Heavenly Father and there found safe retreat under the shadow of His wings.
We feel then at rest Dennis, we yield to our Creator and say,
"Thou art our God to Thee we commend our spirits."

TRUTH ABOUT CATARRH

Sensible Methods Will Cure It.
Haynes & Taylor Guarantee Hyomei to Cure Catarrh.

Catarrh can never be cured by taking medicines into the stomach nor by sprays, atomizers or douches.
Intelligent physicians have long ago discarded such ideas and not one of them would be worth consideration were it not for the fact that unscrupulous persons prey upon the ignorance of the people in regard to new discoveries.

Catarrh is caused by germs and just as long as these germs thrive in the folds, crevices, nooks and corners of the mucous membrane that line the nose, throat and chest, just so long will you have a catarrh.
There is only one way to cure catarrh, and that is to kill the germs.
There is only one remedy that will kill the germs when it gets where the germs are and that is Hyomei.

Hyomei is made chiefly from Australian Eucalyptus and Eucalyptol combined with other germ killing antiseptics. Just breathe it in through the hard rubber inhaler that comes with each outfit and relief is immediate. Used regularly for a few weeks Hyomei (pronounced High-ome) will cure chronic catarrh.
Complete outfit $1.00 at Haynes & Taylor and leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including

To Buy Furs.

W. B. Stenbridge.

Sulphur, the Great Germicide.

What does the health department or a physician do in a house where there has been Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Consumption or some form of contagious disease? They disinfect—burn sulphur in every room, nook, corner and cranny. Ask them why, and they will say "To kill the germs of the disease."

Very well, if sulphur will kill disease germs in a room or house, won't it kill them in the human body, if the sulphur can be applied or given in a way that will permit it to penetrate as thoroughly and completely as the sulphur fumes?

But the human lungs cannot stand sulphur fumes and as stated before, fumes of sulphur (powdered sulphur) are not efficacious. Then the only other thing is to find some way of applying sulphur to the human body so that it will penetrate the entire system and reach the cause of the trouble.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur does this. It reaches instantly and permanently relieves all forms of skin complaint, eczema, erysipelas, pimples, running sores, tetter, ring worm, chaps, roughness, redness or skin blotches. Sample bottle sent post paid to
