... HEADQUARTERS For ... Santa Claus!!

Christmas is the one time of all the year when the spirit of giving comes into every heart. And then comes the question, where to go to find the largest stock from which to make the best selection. This is quickly answered. "ORMES".

He has one of the finest Drug Store to be found in any Second-Class Postoffice town in Kentucky, and his beautiful stock is in accord with the surroundings. Every article has been carefully selected and is calculated to please you and that his beautiful store is full of busy, anxious buyers every day, is evidence of its attractiveness. His show cases, well filled with beautifully decorated Japanese wares, of every description and design and the numberless other articles of with a beauty, makes it plain indeed why Santa Claus has made it his headquarters.

The largest and handsomest assortment of Teddy Bears ever brought to Marion.

JAS. H. ORME.

PROPOSED CREAMRY FOR MARION.

The J. E. Crider Creamry Company Propose to Start One If Proper Inducements Are Offered.

The J. E. Crider Creamry Company, of Fredonia, Ky., have expressed a willingness to start a creamery here if the farmers will contract to furnish them milk from five hundred cows. They have made a decided success of the project at Fredonia so much that they are unable to keep pace with their orders.

If they should be encouraged by the people of Marion by the gift of a site for their plant and exempt from taxation for a reasonable period, it will prove of untold value to Marion and the farmers of Crittenden county. This company proposes to pay the farmers for their milk in one cent of the price paid by Evansville, which after the expressage is paid, would mean a great deal more than Evansville prices.

This is not mere idle talk, but a business proposition coming straight from business men. They mean every word they have authorized us to say and if you desire to be further instructed call at the Record-Press office or see Eskew Bros.

Mrs. Charles T. Baker, who has been with friends in the city, left Monday for her home in Wabash, Arkansas.

ABSOLUTELY WITH IT WARNING GAME

The Explosion Which Wrecked the Mine and Converted It Into a Living Tomb

CLAY, Ky., Dec. 13 — After thirty hours' desperate struggle, the rescuing party searching the Baker mine at Clay for the bodies of the seven entombed miners, returned with them last night. The bodies were not disfigured and had not been reached by the fire. Indications are that the men were overcome by gas. They were found pretty far back in the workings, as if, after hearing the first explosion, the men had run in search of a place of safety. The rescue party was headed by T. J. Norwood, state mine inspector, and Thos. Long, a deputy. The inquest will be held to-day. The coffins were already at the mine and preparation had already been made for the funerals.

Just before the explosion eighty of the men had come out, it being Saturday and pay day, else the loss of life would have been terrible.

These mines, including several others at Wheatcroft and Sturgis, with offices at Sturgis and headquarters at New York, who have prided themselves on having the safest mines with fewest accidents.

In fact this is the first accident they have had, and it from causes unheard of in the history of the oldest experienced miner.

The explosion is the harder to account for from the fact that it occurred in No. 9, which is more than one hundred feet below the No. 11 vein, where the seven men met death, and having been abandoned, was full of water. It was in this flooded mine that this strange but fearful explosion took place.

The first thing wrong noticed at the top of the mine was in the boiler house when engineer Williams noticed that the engine was "creeping." He called to his fireman to shut the engine down. The fireman was unable to do anything with it and the engineer started over to help him, when the column of water shot out of the shaft and toppled over against their building. There was a tremor of the earth, a quivering of all the timbers of the shaft, the sound of rushing waters, and suddenly there appeared above the surface a mighty column of water, carrying its burden of timbers, coal and ordinary debris of a mine. Straight towards the sky shot the great column of water—up, up until more than a hundred feet it towered—towered for only the fraction of a second when it divided into two parts; one part falling over to the southwest, striking the boiler house, full sixty feet away, moving it from its foundation. The other column spent its force in the opposite direction with less destructive property in its path. The water in its mad rush made a complete wreck of the mine.

The news of the fearful disaster was phoned Superintendent W. H. Cunningham's office at Sturgis and forth with he loaded up many things he knew would be needed and with a fearless crew boarded one of their big engines and in a very short time was at the scene of the disaster and foremost in the brave effort to save the men entombed. But they were doomed.

NOTICE TO THE STEMMING DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

From W. R. Rankin, Member of The District Board for the County of Crittenden.

The District Board of the Stemming District Tobacco Association has sold all of the Association's tobacco in Crittenden County to W. G. Head & Son, of Madisonville, Ky., to be delivered at the Jarvis factory in Marion, Kentucky.

In order to make this sale it was agreed that the purchasers of this tobacco should receive all tobacco already stripped in large hands, as stripped, but in regard to that part of the crop not already stripped, it was agreed that the same should be tied in medium sized hands, and it is necessary for good members to faithfully and cheerfully aid the District Board in carrying out the terms of the contract, and we think all good members will cheerfully abide by this provision of the terms of the sale.

Messrs. Head & Son will open their factory for the reception of tobacco on Tuesday, December 14th, and receive up to and including the 23rd, when the factory will be closed till January 4th, 1910, when it will again be opened to receive tobacco, and it is hoped that it will not again be necessary to close down till all the crop has been delivered.

Let us again urge good members to do all they can to deliver this crop in good condition and according to contract.

Respectfully,
W. B. RANKIN,
Member District Board Crittenden County.

THE WOOL GROWERS OF EACH COUNTY

Are Requested To Meet In Their Respective County Seats On Saturday, December 18th.

The time for the annual wool clip is not over four months hence. Heretofore, with the exception of a few local pools, we have sold our wool separately and have permitted three or four middle men to make each from one to three cents per pound from its sale, thereby, losing us not less than five cents per pound. There are from ten to fifteen million pounds of wool clipped annually in this State and if it were pooled and sold direct to the manufacturer it would cost him no more and save our farmers not less than a half million dollars annually.

To effect this saving we must have a well organized pool and to handle the 1910 wool crop we have no time to lose in perfecting this organization. It is proposed to organize the Kentucky Wool Growers Association under the laws of Kentucky which permit farmers to pool their crops and to be ready for business by the first day of January, 1910.

All wool growers are urgently invited to meet at the court house in Young-Starkey.

At the residence of I. N. Young near Wellsford, Kan., their only daughter, Miss Fannie, and John W. Starkey were united in marriage. A large number of relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony which was performed at 6 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 24th, 1909, Rev. McKibben officiating. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served to all present.

The bride and groom have lived in this community nearly all their lives and have been very highly esteemed. They both are of very excellent families. The bride is a graduate of Haviland Academy and also took a business course at the Hutchinson Business College. For several months she was in the employ of the Anderson General Merchandise store at Wellsford and was highly appreciated. She is a beautiful and very attractive young lady of amiable disposition and strength of character.

Mr. Starkey, while having received a business education, prefers farming and will reside on the old home place East of Wellsford and will enjoy the beautiful new home that has recently been built. He is a strong, pure young man and is worthy of the confidence and esteem by which he is held by all who knew him.

The wedding was a time of joy and good fellowship in which family relations were blended in a pleasing and appreciative manner.

The young couple received many beautiful presents and were remembered by friends who were unable to be there as well as those present. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

WEALTHY GIRL KIDNAPED ON WAY TO CHURCH

BARBER SAW TWO WOMEN PLACE GIRL IN WAGON AND DRIVE AWAY

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 9.—Almer daughter of Frederic Kelter, general solicitor for the Frank Fehr Brewing Company, left her home, 507 East Broadway, at about 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning to attend high mass at St. John's church, at Clay and Walnut streets, and up till a late hour last night she had not returned. The Police Department was notified after the family had given up all hope of the child returning home, and every patrolman and detective on the force was instructed to join in the search. Besides these more than two dozen friends of the family were searching streets and alleys in the hope that she might be found, but not even the slightest clue could be obtained and many are of the opinion that she has been kidnaped. The parents are certain she was kidnaped.

George Teasard, a barber, saw two women place some little girl in a wagon at Jackson and Broadway yesterday and drive away. It is believed to have been the Kelter child.

All detectives and police of the city are working on the case. All ferries, trains, suburban lines are being watched.

William Augustus, a postman, saw Alma on Hancock and Gray streets at 9:45 yesterday, and she was going north; never reached the church, where she had started to mass, on Clay and Walnut streets. Presence of a heavily veiled woman at child's grandmother's, Mrs. Kelter, 310 East Broadway yesterday has not yet been explained. The parents who are wealthy, are prostrated.

IN MEMORIAM.

Nettie Mitchell Moore was born April, 1878, and died November 22, 1909. She was married March 20, 1907, and in the same year professed faith in Christ and became a consistent member of the Clay street M. E. church South, Henderson, Ky.

When the tired pilgrim of mature age crosses the boundary of time into a glorious eternity, we think the rest must be inexpressibly sweet after having borne the burden and toil of the day until the eventide.

But when we think of Nettie passing away in the joyous springtime of her youth, like a flower that bloomed in the morning and withered ere its petals had been touched by eye's declining shades—when we think of the happy home, the faithful husband and the bright anticipations of the future, we are led to know that "God's ways are not our ways," and that sometime we shall understand. He "holds the keys of death," and since she, in her last days, expressed such peaceful resignation to His will, we may well believe that the flower has only been transplanted into the paradise of God, where henceforth it may safely dwell in fadeless bloom.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. E. Miller at Salem, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Here were assembled many former associates and schoolmates to pay the last sad tribute of respect to the departed, to think loving thoughts of the sunny, kind-hearted companion of other days, to drop a tear of sympathy for the bereaved and of pity for her early death.

The Crittenden Record-Press

N. E. CALMES Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter February 9th 1909 at the postoffice at Marion, Kentucky, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

CASH ADVERTISING RATES:
25¢ per inch S. C. to Foreign Advertisers.
50¢ per inch S. C. to Home Advertisers.

Locals 100¢ per line in twelve point type.

If the people were as ready to give the poor devil of an Editor the dollar for his paper as they are to condemn him if he should fail to publish free just even one birth, one death, one obituary or card of thank, all the Weddings, the tobacco tidings, what the Society of Equity, Farmers' Union, the Stemming District Association, lodges, churches and preachers are doing, saying nothing about taking care of all the graveyard notices and the space expected by Uncle Sam for recuperating his army, poor fellows, together with numberless other things, there would be cheer and comfort around his fire on Christmas morning as well as your own. Perhaps his little wife would look as happy and sweet as your own in her neat modest dress and the faces of the sweet children. God bless them, would be wreathed in happy smile, and could repeat for you,

"Away in the manger
No crib for his bed,
The little Lord Jesus
Lay down His sweet head,
A star in the sky
Looked down where he lay
The little Lord Jesus
Asleep in the hay."

And the poor father could go to church in a decent suit of clothes without having to buy one leg of his trousers at a time, coming back to as happy home where the queen of all the earth to him, had in waiting for him and his happy little flock, just such a meal as can be enjoyed but once a year.

When a man came in the other day with an article of material benefit to the writer and those concerned, asking if we charged any thing for it we, in our desperation said so, of course not. Everything free from Genesis to Revelations and Jerusalem to Maine save county commissioner notices and Fiscal Court statements. So realizing that it takes a whole lot of money to run a good county newspaper walk in the first time you go to town and hand in a dollar and quit borrowing your neighbor's paper and even then criticizing it if it does not suit you.

Does advertising pay? For answer, we will say that everywhere, the best business men advertise. And surely it pays or they would not do it.

One of the most thrifty firms in the State is the Sturgis Dry Goods Company at Sturgis, Ky., owned by C. T. Wallace and Tom Holt, two men who, having started poor, owe their success to liberal advertising. In nearly every issue of their town paper, the News Democrat, they have from one to two pages, and every time you go in their store you will find it full of anxious buyers. They are now giving away a fine piano and the last issue of the paper devoted one page alone to the picture of the box in which this fine instrument was shipped.

Go there any day in the week and you will find men, women and whole families, from Crittenden, Webster and all parts of Union county taking advantage of the good bargains advertised. Certainly this is proof enough that advertising pays. Then too, to make it pay the better they keep every article they advertise and sell it at the price advertised—in every instance "making good what they say."

Ask them if advertising pays. I have charged them $30.00 for a page ad two weeks and $20.00 for bills of a ten days sale and have seen them take over the counter in a single day, more than one thousand dollars, three per cent of one day's sales paying for the advertising.

It is twenty miles from Marion to Sturgis and twenty miles from Sturgis to Marion, and it is but seven days from Christmas to New year while from New Year to Christmas there are 353 days. See, Mrs. Mary G. Greanlea, of Los Angeles, Cal., sends answer to the Hardin & Miller piano puzzle recently printed in the Record-Press. These pianos are sold here by Yates Bros. Surely this shows that advertising pays.

The Court of Appeals has decided that James H. Parrish must serve five years in the penitentiary for wrecking the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company.

Read well, the various ads in the Record-Press this week and next and profit by it. The man who advertises deserves your patronage.

President Taft will shortly visit Louisville.

A little child was drowned in a horse trough the other day while the father was attending the funeral of its mother.

The Lili House for 1910.

I am still in the hotel business in Marion for the New Year, at the place where I am now located. I have a host of customers I am very proud of—the reliable farmers of Crittenden, Livingston, Caldwell, Lion, Webster and Union counties, also a nice mineral and commercial patronage.

Call and see me when in Marion. I am the same congenial hostess I have been for the past 11 years. My beds are not surpassed, and my table is furnished with the best the market affords. I certainly appreciate your liberal patronage and will welcome you at any time. Thanking you for future custom, I am

MEETING OF THE MUSIC CLUB

With Miss Nelle Sutherland on Saturday Afternoon, Dec. 11.
A Much Enjoyed Event.

Miss Nelle Sutherland charmingly entertained the Music Club Saturday afternoon, December, 11th, at her home on Salem street.

The life of the famous musician and composer, Engleman, was the subject for discussion, and a number of selections from that gifted man were discussed.

The program was as follows:

Heart Bowed Down..... Engleman Vocal Solo: Mrs. Fannie Walker, Apple Blossoms..... Engleman Instrumental Solo: Miss Allie May Yates.

Behind the Scenes..... Engleman Flute Solo: Miss Mira Dixon.

Festal Array..... Engleman Mrs. S. M. Jenkins and Miss Ina Price.

Reading, Benorie a Scotch Ballad—Miss Willett.

As In Days of Old..... Selected Vocal Duet:—Mrs. Jas. L. Travis and Miss Bernice Driskill.

Just For The Fun Of It..... Selected Instrumental Duet:—Mesdames S. M. Jenkins and W. V. Haynes.

Quarter from Rigoletto..... Engleman

The program was very charmingly rendered, and each selection was much appreciated by the audience. Besides the members of the Club, the following visitors were present: Misses Willett, Dixon, Driskill, and Mrs. J. H. Orme. Miss Willett and Bernice Driskill were enrolled as members of the Club.

Delightful refreshments of cream and cake were served.

Miss Sutherland proved herself a very charming hostess, and the afternoon was very much enjoyed by all those present.

Birthday Celebration.

On last Sunday, the 12th, the seventy-third anniversary of Mr. G. G. Hammond's birthday was celebrated in a way and manner long to be remembered by all present. The affair was planned by his good wife who, aided by the children in St. Louis, Evansville and Marion, gave this great old man the surprise of his life, as he knew nothing of what was to take place until the train brought the visitors and they were deposited despite the inclemency of the weather, in two bus loads at the home of dear old father and mother. All that Mr. Hammond did know was that he had, for several weeks been fattening as fine a 'possum as was ever caught out of Crittenden woods, that he expected his wife to prepare for what turned out to be a great feast day. All the boys and their wives, came loaded with every thing nice that man or woman's mind could conceive of, oysters, asparagus, celery, lettuce, a variety of grapes, nuts, candies etc., aside from a nice suit of clothes and overcoat for father and nice dress for mother. It was a happy occasion and a happy lot of children and grand children that made it.

The children were:
Mrs. C. O. Shanklin, of East St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson and children, Mrs. James Loftis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hammond and Luke Hammond, all of Evansville and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young and Harry Hammond, of Marion. The only visitors were Miss Gertrude Gantner, of Evansville, and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Calmes.

The long table groaned under a load of every good thing to eat known to a good housewife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond can well feel proud of such children, every one of them, men and women were handsome and intelligent. Mrs. C. O. Shanklin is conducting a prosperous business in East St. Louis, while each of the children in Evansville are either in business or holding prominent positions.

Surely it is consoling to this grand old couple to know, that in their old age, they are so loved by their children.

May they live to see many more such birthdays.

"Got 'im from Bob Foster."

"Oh, the Big Gray that holds his head 15 feet in the air."

"Yes. You see I—"

"But, Bob, how'll you get up on 'im? There's no fence high enough for you to use as—"

"Why, you see, Jim, I just climb up on the barn and then jump off onto the horse."

"But you can't get—"

MEMBERS

In Crittenden County May Begin Delivering Tobacco December 15th.

UNION COUNTY.

Union county members may begin delivering also Monday the 13th of December.

The Union county tobacco set apart by notes and bounds to Gallaher may be delivered at Corydon or Henderson. And members living in the bounds described need not come to headquarters with samples.

And Union county tobacco set of the bounds described may, beginning Monday, go to Morganfield, need for distributors' tickets. Union county now. The factory, Uniontown will not be open for present. Due notice will be given of the opening of that factory.

WEBSTER COUNTY.

Deliveries to begin at Seabree Monday, the 13th, to the Imperial Co. On the same day John Hodge will receive at Slaughter. On the same day the Gallaher Company will be ready for tobacco. Providence. But the Imperial Company will not be ready to receive Providence until the 27th of Dec.

And just here the committee rect me to say that while the Imperial will operate a factory at Y no Association tobacco will be delivered to that factory. The members, therefore, who live in Hopkins county contiguous to Marion will deliver their tobacco to the Imperial Company at Providence. that is the way the Hopkins county tobacco belonging to members contiguous to Nebo has been sold, therefore the Association will be no grader at Nebo. The truth is Imperial has set apart that farm wherein to handle tobacco from non-members in Hopkins county and around Providence. And it has been amicably arranged that the Imperial will, beginning the 27th, receive only Association tobacco. Providence. Good members in Providence and Nebo, I am sure will approve of this arrangement, thereby is friction, in so far as it be, precluded.

CRITTENDEN COUNTY.

Members of Crittenden county may begin delivering to W. G. R. & Son at Marion on the 14th continue until the 23rd inclusive after which no more tobacco will be received at Marion until January.

GRADERS ATTENTION.

All of the new graders recently pointed for Henderson county report at headquarters at 10 a. for instructions.

NO DELIVERIES SATURDAY. Throughout the approaching season of deliveries no tobacco will be received by any of the purchasers Saturdays, save only the left tobacco from Fridays.

Secretary Thompson particularly requests that members deliver tobacco in the same name throughout season. If that member begins John Smith, let him deliver whole crop as John Smith, and not John Smith and Jack Smith. J. C. Smith. By delivering in name a multiplicity of accounts be avoided.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-clotheable and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers, a handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Kodol

For Dyspepsia and Indigestion

If you Suffer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Belching, Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, etc., a little Kodol will Relieve you almost Instantly

Kodol supplies the same digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach. Being a liquid, it starts action at once. Kodol not only digests your food, but helps you enjoy every mouthful of food.

You need a sufficient amount of this wholesome food to maintain strength and health. But this food must be digested thoroughly, otherwise the pains of indigestion and dyspepsia are the result. When your stomach cannot do its work properly, take something to help your stomach. Kodol is the thing that will give the stomach complete rest. Why? Because Kodol does the work as a strong stomach, and sets it in a natural way.

So, don't neglect your stomach. Don't become a chronic dyspeptic. Keep your stomach healthy and strong by taking a little Kodol. You don't have to take Kodol all the time. You only take it when you need it.

Kodol is perfectly harmless.

TRUTH ABOUT CATARRH
Sensible Methods Will Cure It.
Haynes & Taylor Guarantees Hyomei to Cure Catarrh.

Catarrh can never be cured by taking medicines into the stomach nor by sprays, atomizers or douches. Intelligent physicians have long ago discarded such ideas and not one of them would be worth consideration were it not for the fact that unscrupulous persons prey upon the ignorance of the people in regard to new discoveries.

Catarrh is caused by germs and just as long as these germs thrive in the folds, crevices, nooks and corners of the mucous membrane that line the nose, throat and chest, just so long will you have catarrh.

There is only one way to cure catarrh, and that is to kill the germs.

There is only one remedy that will kill the germs when it gets where the germs are and that is Hyomei.

Hyomei is made chiefly from Australian Eucalyptus and Eucalyptol combined with other germ killing antiseptics. Just breathe it in through the hard rubber inhaler that comes with each outfit and relief is immediate. Used regularly for a few weeks Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) will cure chronic catarrh. Complete outfit $1.00 at Haynes & Taylor and leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI
(PRONOUNCED HIGH-O-ME)
Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

To Buy Furs.

Sulphur, the Great Germicide.

What does the health department or a physician do in a house where there has been Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Consumption or some form of contagious disease? Fumigates it—burns sulphur in every room, nook, corner and cranny. Ask them why and they will say "To kill the germs of the disease."

Very well, if sulphur will kill disease germs in a room or house, won't it kill them in the human body, if the sulphur can be applied or given in a way that will permit it to penetrate as thoroughly and completely as the sulphur fumes? But the human lungs cannot stand sulphur fumes as stated before, fumes of sulphur (powdered sulphur) are not effective. Then the only other thing is to find some way of applying sulphur to the human body so that it will penetrate the entire system and reach the cause of the trouble. Lattell's Liquid Sulphur does this; it stops itching instantly and permanently relieves all forms of skin complaint, eczema, erysipelas, pimples, running sores, tetter, ring worm, chaps, roughness, redness or skin blemishes. Sample bottle sent post paid to any address for 10c. Rhuma-Sulphur Co., St. Louis, Mo.

A LETTER FROM ONE OF OUR CUSTOMERS TO A FRIEND.

Senath, Mo., June 6, 1906.

FORCED INTO EXILE.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung racking cough, that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for coughs and colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Jas H. Orme and Haynes and Taylor.
