NUMBER 14

INTEREST IN MINING CIRCLES BECOMING LIVELIER EVERY DAY.

Everything Now Indicates the Recognition of Old Crittenden as the Richest Fluor Spar, Lead and Zinc District in the World and soon to More than Double All former Outputs.

The Editor of this paper has been taken to task quite frequently of late, because of a lack of mining news in these columns. Now Mr. Editor has said nothing to the writer of these notes about it, nor made any complaint: but we think we understand his side of the case. All questions have two sides you know.

The most an Editor can do when he is rapped on, is to look pleasant. Editors come nearer really carrying out certain famous scriptural injunction than any other class of mortals. They have to. No other course is open. The scriptural injunction referred to is turning the second cheek when smitten on the first. If Editors would always bristle up and take notice to everything their lives would be one whirlwind battle from the editorial sanctum to the grave. Therefore we remark that the lack of mining news in these columns is the fault of mining men and those interested in this mining district. Instead of giving the news to the paper the rule has been to hide it from the Editor and he is generally the last man to find out about a new mineral strike, an unusual production of some mine or any other news that would be of interest. If the mine workers, mineral men and all those interested in this mining field will write Mr. Calmes, telephone Mr. Calmes, coat sleeve Mr. Calmes and give him the news he will print and be glad to do so. It is too much to expect him to go forth armed with a pistol to hold up and a crow bar to open the mouths of those who have news to give. If each one who has the betterment of this district at heart will co-operate in these matters things will look better and be better.

A certain prominent mineral man who has been interested in this district for a number of years and who comes as near knowing all about fluor spar mining as it is possible for one man to know said today. "One year ago I had 10,000 tons of spar and could not sell it at any old price while now if I had 10,000 tons of any old kind of spar I could sell it in 10 days at my price." This is a straw which shows which way the spar winds do blow. The price of spar is like bakers yeast, it tends upward.

Mr. Edward F. W. Keiser a Louisville lawyer who has other Louisville capitalists interested with him will start prospecting work on the Crittenden Springs property inside of 30 days. It will be remembered that this is the Company that bought outright the mineral rights on the old Crittenden Springs property from Mr. John W. Wilson for the sum of $5,000.00 cash. The Columbia vein crosses this property. Spar and zinc carbonate have been found. Mr. Wilson still owns the farm and by the way it is one of the best farms in this country.

This paper was taken to task about the article appearing last week in that nothing was mentioned therein about the Commodore Mining Company. The remarks appearing at the head of this column are pertinent here. We have to know about things before we can write about them. I understand that is not always the rule; but in mineral matters in the RECORD-PRESS it is the rule. We would rather be right than President of a Mining Company, and of course some sap head will say that we will never be either.

The Commodore Mining Company is now operating one of the greatest spar mines in this district. It is claimed by good judges that they have more ore in sight, that is blocked out underground, than any other mine in the district. A strong optimism coupled with push, energy and money has carried this mine on until the cash money returns are now coming back into the pockets of the owners. They certainly deserve commendation. The Commodore Mining Company have 400 tons number one gravel spar in Marion on the railroad yard ready for shipment. This Company is now mining from 20 to 35 tons of spar daily. Their mine is equipped with the very latest machinery some of which is an innovation to the district. Their washing apparatus is different from any other. They use shaker screens and from the spar is fed onto a hand picking belt three feet wide which is the only one we know of anywhere. They have sunk to a depth of 100 feet and are still going down. The spar at the bottom is better than any above and the vein is 8 to 25 feet in width. From three to seven wagons are in daily use hauling the ore to the railroad. The Company is owned by Louisville Capitalists. They first started on the J. C. B. McMican land. This property is not operated now. Those in the Company at this time are Mr. Edward F. W. Keiser, Theo. Keiser, Leo. Klerer, Fred Lenhardt, and Henry A. J. Pulus. The mine is under the direct management of Mr. J. B. White a practical mining engineer. Mr. J. W. Wilson of this place is traffic manager and attends to the office work in Marion.

Rumor. It is rumored, mind you merely rumored, that the old Lucile property located on the railroad here in Marion, which produces a good grade of spar, is being opened up right away and put on a working basis. The Harth Bros., of Caseyville and Paducah are the main owners and backers of this enterprise. We have not been in communication with them nor do we have any knowing, therefore we tag this piece of news the way it looked when it passed us.

We are more than pleased to report that the Sunnybrook Mining Company, operating the old Keystone lease, under the very able management of Mr.

EVERYBODY WELCOME!

Geo. Roberts of this place, has all the water pumped out of their mine. They also have taken out 30 feet of mud in the bottom and now propose to lift spar by October 1st. This mine is equipped with all of the latest machinery, two new boilers, air compressor, new hoist, two new Cameron pumps and everything that goes to make a good mine. This mine has been and will be one of the best producers in the district. The spar shows a wide vein at the bottom and in quality it equals that produced by the Memphis. Mr. Geo. Roberts was in full control and at one stage of the game of equipping this mine and getting the volume of water out he telegraphed New York for a Cameron pump to be shipped immediately by express. The express tolls amounted to $112.00. Mr. Roberts has associated with him some Chicago people in this enterprise. This bit of information was not furnished by Mr. Roberts. He is one of the most retiring and bashful men in the field when the subject of his own properties and operations are under discussion. At such times getting information out of Geo. Roberts is like drawing a rusty 20 penny nail out of a seasoned oak plank.

Mr. Geo. Cramer our noted Evangelist Mineral man had over 500 people in attendance at his meeting at the Tabb Mines last Sunday and then the next day, Monday, he mined and then the next day, Monday he mined and raised over 80 tons of fluor spar. Brother Cramer endeavors to follow that part of the scriptures where it says "What thy hand finds to do, do it with all thy might." "He says it is needful to mix scripture and fluor spar, especially in this territory. He thinks this kind of mixing or fluxing has been neglected in the past.

Mr. Richards of the American Mining Company operating a lease on the Mathews land near Francis, this county, left last week for St. Louis rather hurriedly. He writes it is a new girl Mary Jane. His wife and he will be back here as soon as convenient. Both mother and baby doing well.

Mr. James Henry and Mr. Henry Butler well known mining men attended the State fair at Louisville last week. They went to Louisville primarily to interview Mr. Rice the tobacco man and see if they could obtain a lease on the Eaton property. We understand they secured this lease and will soon open up on this property that has lain idle so long. This is the property that Mr. Wesley Eaton sold to Rice and others for $6,000.00 cash. The indications are that this will prove a good property.

Mr. John Harpendening passed through here a day or two ago on his way to Memphis, Tenn., to meet some mining capitalists who want to buy or lease his lands near Memphis. They have struck it rich all around his field and we understand he has been offered a large sum for his holdings.

Mr. W. Murray Sanders owner of the LaRue and Miller mines, both zinc proposition, left last Saturday for Chicago.

Mr. Ross Givens, owner of the Corn Mines has moved to Salem, so as to be near his work. Mr. Givens is one of the old timers in the mining game in this district. He has been interested in mining property in this county for a number of years. Like the Louisville people of the Commodore Mining Company Mr. Givens has displayed wonderful patience and nerve and held on to his property and believed in it until now his reward is coming to him in a substantial way. And after all that is what counts in any business under the sun. A man will invest $10,000.00 in the dry-goods business and if he clears twenty per cent per year he thinks he has done well. Yet the same man will invest $500. or $1000.00 in the mining business in Crittenden county and expects to make $10,000.00 or $15,000.00 each and every year. Such business cannot be done in Crittenden county nor in any other mining district. Of course occasional strikes seem to prove the contrary, but they are not the rule. It takes as much sound business judgment to run a spar mine as it does to run a dry goods store, and it might pertinently be added that it takes as much money for one as the other.

Mr. Henry Hammack the popular salesman for the Belknap Hardware Co. of Louisville, took Misses Hortense Calmes, Anna Haynes and Clara Hammack on his trip to Shady Grove and Tribune last Saturday which proved a great treat to them.

REV. JAS. W. BIGHAM

Rev. Jas. W. Bingham, an erstwhile citizen of Marion, owning nice property here yet, now a resident of Ocala, Fla., is here on a visit to old friends and relatives. He is the oldest man living today, born in Marion, having been born two years after Crittenden was made a county. And yet, he is but 66 years old and looking much younger. We count him a well preserved, fine looking, if not handsome gentleman, with the sunlight of God's love beaming out from his face and very popular where ever he is known. His years rest lightly upon him and from his healthy appearance and sunny disposition he is likely to live to be a hundred years old. He is in Dawson at present to remain for a few days.

Dr. S. W. Paris, of Fulton was a visitor in Marion yesterday.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Interesting News From the National Capital of the Greatest Country on Earth.

Washington, September, Beginning September 21, day of the calendar end of summer, will begin a series of cabinet meetings at which all the stages of the presidential family are expected to be present and discuss executive matters as in committee of the whole on the state of the union, as it were.

The meeting will last several days, and at it each member will make report of his achievements during the summer. President Taft it is understood, will discuss with the cabinet the main features of his forthcoming annual message to Congress.

The White House convention should be an unusually interesting cabinet event, drawing to its deliberations members from all parts of the country and from beyond its confines. Secretary of State, Knox, who has been spending the warm period at his summer home at Valley Forge, Pa., will report on the international relations of the United States, particularly with reference to Nicaragua.

Secretary of War Dickinson, who is now on his way home-ward from the Orient, is expected to be on hand with an up-to-date report on the Philippines status as well as on the Pacific Islands possession of the United States. Attorney General Wickensham and Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor will report their conclusions with respect to Alaska, where they have been together for some weeks investigating particularly the efficacy of the land laws for the big territory. Secretary of the Treasury MacVeag and Postmaster General Hitchcock will report on the prospects for the successful operation of the postal saving bank system. Secretary Balinger will be in the consultation with reference to conservation events and possibly in view of recent developments in his controversy with former Forester Gifford Pinchot, something important may occur affecting his future connection with the Taft administration.

As the White House meeting will be but little over a month prior to the congressional elections, it is to be expected that the president and the cabinet will take into earnest consideration condition of the campaign and do what may seem best to promote the election of a Republican majority in the House.

The defeat of Senator Julius C. Burrows by Representative Chas. E. Townsend for the term in the Senate beginning March 4th next is one of the most notable events of this year's political mutations. Of the seventy-three years of his life Mr. Burrows has spent thirty-three in Congress, eighteen as a member of the House and fifteen as a Senator. His first term was in the Forty-third Congress, when James G. Blaine was Speaker of the House. He has been in Congress continuously since 1873, with the exception of two years he was a leading member of the House, serving prominently as a member of the Ways and Means Committee and as Speaker Pro-tempore. He came to the Senate in January, 1895, and has been one of the strong members of that body, having been for many years chairman of the committee on Privileges and Elections and a member of the Finance Committee. The friends of Senator Burrows had hoped in the event of his re-election that he would succeed to the chairmanship of the Finance committee upon the retirement after next March of Senator Aldrich, as the Michigan Senator ranks next to Aldrich. Next in line of promotion in order of seniority on the committee is Senator Penrose.

The Finance committee consists of fourteen members, nine of whom are Republicans and five credited to the Democrats. Since the last apportionment of members Senator Daniel has died. After next March, when there will be another adjustment Senate committee membership, six other Senators will have been eliminated, Aldrich, Hale and Flint by voluntary retirement and Burrows by defeat on the Republican side and Money by voluntary retirement and Taliaferro by defeat on the Democratic side. The remaining members in the order of seniority will be Penrose, Cullom, Lodge, McCumber and Smoot. Republicans, and Baily and Simmons, Democrats.

The Deep-Waterway Convention at Providence was a highly successful affair, was well attended and marked by enthusiastic renewal of expressions of devotion to the broad and comprehensive policy of river and harbor improvement inaugurated by the River and Harbor Congress at its last session. The interest and zeal of the members of the minor organizations proving of vast help to the parent body. The next meeting of the Deep-Waterways association will be held in Richmond, Va.

More cement was made and used in the United States in 1909, according to the U. S. Geological Survey statistician, than any preceding year, and the price per barrel was lower than ever. The production in 1908 was 52,910,925 barrels, valued at $44,477,653; the production in 1909 was 64,196,386 barrels, valued at $51,232,979. The increase was chiefly in the output of Portland cement 62,509,461 barrels valued at $5,510,385, as against 51,072,612 barrels in 1908, valued at $43,547,679.

The Geological Survey calls attention to the availability of low grade phosphate rock making of exceeding importance, the discovery of enormous phosphate deposit in Idaho, Wyoming and Utah, many of which are on government land, the total area of public phosphate lands now withheld from entry being two and a half million acres. The areas examined contain more than 267,000,000 tons of high grade phosphate rock, very little of which has yet been mined, and it is probable that the deposits extend far beyond the areas examined, forming perhaps the largest phosphate field in the world.

YOU TAKE NO RISK

Our Reputation and Money is Back of This Offer.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in his sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. But it is equally important to know what to give the child in the emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid tonic that families have been using for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is necessary for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to be found for children. They like its taste and you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used it, Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. F. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their one family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For a request the doctor's address is Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 1500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

OLLIE M. JAMES ISSUES STATEMENT

As Member of Ballinger Investigating Committee—Says Champ Clark Next Speaker.

FROM LOUISVILLE HERALD.

Congressman Ollie M. James, who is a member of the Ballinger Investigation Committee, is out in a scorching statement in reply to the report issued by Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, issued Tuesday at Chicago. Mr. James declares that the members of the committee favorable to Ballinger are afraid to make public their report until after the November election. He says that he is satisfied that the report by Senator Nelson and his colleagues will be a whitewash for Secretary Ballinger and for the reason they fear to make it public until after the election.

MUCH WROUGHT UP.

Mr. James arrived in Louisville this afternoon from his home at Marion. He had just finished reading the statement issued by Senator Nelson and the big Congressman was considerably wrought up to say the least. It was after he had finished the Nelson statement that Mr. James got busy and gave to the press a statement in which he holds up the Republican members of the Investigating Committee to ridicule and also charges them with political cowardice.

The statement is printed below DIDN'T WANT TO REPORT.

The report issued by Senator Nelson and his colleagues yesterday in Chicago is only positive proof of what we say demonstrated at Minneapolis, and that is that they did not desire to make a report upon the Ballinger case until after the election. Their attempt to prevent a report was restored to by breaking the quorum. Senator Root arrived in New York on the 6th of this month. The committee did not meet until the 9th to pass upon the reports. He could easily have been in Minneapolis if he had so desired.

Senator Flint stated to the committee positively that he would not be present. This statement was made when we adjourned in Washington in June to meet in Minneapolis on the 5th. Representative Olmstead was in Maine making Republican speeches. Of course, he thought this was more important than attending to his official duties. He might plead, however, in mitigation of his absence to the minority, the result of the Maine election.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

Representative Denby was absent engaged in attempting to defeat an Insurgent for the Senate, in which he was likewise unsuccessful. The rest of us were there; five of us were ready to do business. We adjourned five days waiting for the others. We had a duty to perform, and we performed it. The statement made by the gentlemen that the meeting called for September 5th in Minneapolis was for the purpose of considering and discussing what the report to be made three months thereafter should be, is far aside from the truth. It was specifically agreed when we adjourned in Washington to meet in Minneapolis on September 5th that it was for the purpose of making up our report and giving it to the public.

Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, was the only member of the committee who protested against the agreement to make the report public. The gentlemen now are estopped to urge that we were meeting in Minneapolis for the purpose of making up a report which was not to be given to the public until Congress assembled. If this statement be true, what did we go to far away Minneapolis at great expense to the taxpayers for the purpose of doing that which we could have done in Washington without any expense at all?

NO ONE FOOLED.

Such a diatribe as issued by the gentleman cannot fool any one. We owed it to the people to give this report to them. If Secretary Ballinger is innocent of the charges preferred these gentlemen ought to have the courage to say so and not allow him to rest under a cloud until after the election or until Congress assembles, and upon the other hand, if Mr. Ballinger, as trustee and guardian of many millions of people's property, was an unsafe official and unfaithful to the people the quicker it was given to the public the better.

The fact that an election would be held in two months might be urged as a political excuse but neither a patriotic nor an official reason. From the temper of the article issued by the gentlemen, I am fixed in the firm belief that they will not report until after the election, and the report which they will very much wish to be forgotten before another election.

IN TOUCH WITH COLLEAGUES.

Mr. James will be in Louisville several days, but he is keeping in touch with his colleagues on the committee who are unfavorable to Ballinger. Mr. James insists that the original action of the committee when the Democratic members, with the aid of an "Insurgent" Republican, adopted a resolution severely censuring Mr. Ballinger, is legal. He says that the action of the committee at that time was regular and that it will be accepted by the American people.

"The result of the election in Maine and the State primaries in Washington and elsewhere go to prove that the American people are done with this administration," said Mr. James. "Ballinger has been repudiated in his own State, where Representative Poindexter, an 'Insurgent,' was nominated by a majority exceeding 40,000."

PREVAIL EVERYWHERE

"The same conditions prevail everywhere," Mr. James continued. "The people will again come into their own. The next House of Representatives will be Democratic beyond all question, and such measures will be enacted that the Democrats will be returned to power in 1912, when we will elect a President and control both branches of Congress. This year, however, we will gain a few Senators, elect a majority of the members of the House of Representatives and install Champ Clark as Speaker. Mr. Clark's election is certain and he will be installed without opposition."

THE STATE JUNIORS AT LEXINGTON

Perfect Class Organization By Electing Officers—J. S. Golden President

The junior class of State University was the first class that: institution to perfect its organization for the ensuing collegiate year by the election of class officers. The "12's" met in the University chapel at noon and the election resulted as follows:

President—James Stephen Golden, Arts, Barbourville.

Vice President—Miss Irene Hughes, Arts, Maysville.

Orator—Gray N. Rochester, Arts, Marion.

Secretary—William S. Theising, Mining Engineering, Covington.

Treasurer—H. M. Walker, Agriculture, Rectorville.

Foot Ball Manager—D. W. Hart, Arts, Pisgah.

There were about eighty-five members present and the election was contested enough to be interesting although only a short time was taken in the selection of the officers.

Mr. Golden, who is a student in the College of Arts, is one of the most popular men in the university and there was little surprise at his selection. He will, according to custom, lead the Junior Promenade which is one of the most elaborate social functions of the year.

Miss Irene Hughes is a very popular student in the College of Arts and will make an excellent assistant to the new president in the management of class affairs.

Mr. Theising is a mining engineer and Mr. Walker is a student of the college of agriculture. Both have many friends who congratulate them on receiving their new homes.

Mr. Rochester has already shown his worth as an orator and will, we have no doubt, fill his new office with credit. He is also a member of the Varsity baseball team and a student of Arts and Science.

Mr. Hart is a good athlete and is well chosen for his new place. He is also a student of the Arts and Science and a "sub" on the Varsity basketball team of last year with good chances of making the team this season.

CLEVER WOMEN

Always Keep Their Hair Fascinating and Free from Dandruff.

Almost everybody in Marion knows that there is no preparation for the hair can compare with Parisian Sage.

It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

It puts radiance and luster into that dull, lifeless hair that many women possess, and does it in a few days.

On March 25, 1910, Lulu D. Fix, of Raphine, Va., wrote: "Parisian Sage is a wonderful hair restorer; it stopped my hair from falling out and stopped my scalp from itching; also cured the dandruff."

Parisian sage is sold by Haynes & Taylor for 50 cents a large bottle.

FASCINATING HAIR

Every Woman Who Uses Parisian Sage Has plenty of it.

Parisian Sage will greatly improve the attractiveness of any person's hair in a few days. It will do more: it will rid the scalp of every particle of disgusting dandruff; it will stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed preparation, delightfully refreshing, and free from grease or stickiness. It will make hair grow.

Sold and guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor for 50 cents a large bottle. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

HENDERON & MADISONVILLE FAIR

Judge C. C. Givens Doing All He Can To Make Both Fairs a Success in Every Way.

Judge C. C. Givens has announced that he will give Fall Agricultural Fairs at Henderson, October 11 to 15, and at Madisonville, October 18 to 22. Fifty Dollars at each fair is offered for tobacco and Thirty Dollars at each fair for corn exhibits and liberal premiums for all classes of farm products. The usual racing and ring show features will be given.

October is usually a very pretty season. The farmer's products are matured and they have leisure time to attend. Judge Givens always gives good fairs, and he ought to be able to give better fair in October than in July.

The farmer that is a member of the Farmers Union and does not live up to his obligations and its teachings is not the man he pledged himself to be neither is he the kind that has helped make the organization a success. The Farmers Union has been made a success under the greatest difficulties and the members who assisted in the first organization and who have stood loyally by it through all the trying ordeal can be trusted as its best friend and success having crowned their efforts, thousands of women and children in Kentucky need to look upon them as their greatest benefactors--once lost, but found hungry, but now fed, in tatters and rags, but now clothed and their children allowed time from the "patch" to attend school, able to live like freemen instead of slaves. And now since so much has been attained, why for a minute allow a disloyal thought to enter your brain? Knowing the various organizations have forced the Trusts to terms it is now the proper thing for them to put men in the field pledging more for the present crop than the organization can pay or have been paying, and they are doing it, and truly they are going to make victims of some week kneed farmers who perhaps are looking only at the present, instead of the past and future. God forbid that we may ever be forced to take the prices for tobacco, prevailing in every district, before these organizations were brought into existence. The organization member that rests in the belief that the Trusts are dead is deceiving himself and his friends. They are but trying to break your head with the same club with which you forced them into submission. To put emissaries in the field with sufficient slickness of tongue to show you that the organization is not paying the farmers as good prices as he would receive if there were no organization, is one of the tricks by which the Trust hopes eventually to wreck the organization, and the man who listens to such an argument or at least influenced by it, needs for a punishment just such low prices as of former years and a return to bondage if it were not for his wife and innocent children. Of course you need not expect smooth sailing all the time. But by standing by your organization and its officers as you promised, the old ship will successfully land the 1910 crop in the best harbor, where looking back over your tempestuous voyage, the fact of your having been loyal will bring you sufficient reward.

CUMMINS ACCUSED BY RIPLEY

Holds Roads Should Be Given Fair Deal and Not Treated as Malefactors.

(From the Record-Herald, Chicago, July 30th, 1910.)

Chicago, July 29.—To the Editor: The Record-Herald of July 24 printed an excerpt of Senator Cummins' Peabody, Kan., Chautauqua speeches of July 23. I should like to ask Senator Cummins some questions through the press, and ask if The Record-Herald will print the following:

E. P. RIPLEY.

Atchinson, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway System, President's Office, Chicago, July 25—Hon. Albert B. Cummins, Des Moines, Iowa, My Dear Sir:

In your Chautauqua speech at Peabody, Kan., on the 24 inst., you are reported as saying:

"I am not opposed to the railroads. No man who values the public welfare can be hostile to the railroads, but justice to all means to pay the righteous dues as fixed by the laws of trade by competition or through society. The railroads of the country are capitalized at $17,000,000,000. The highest estimate I have ever heard placed on the actual amount of independent capital put into their roads was $8,000,000,000. There is nearly nine billions dollars of impure and adulterated water. You have to pay more than you ought to pay for the service you get in order to pay dividends on this vast capitalization. The railroads charged excessive rates and accumulated a surplus and this they put back into the roads in improvements and they now ask you to pay additional interest on this surplus, secured by extortionate rates. In ten years the railroads added $3,500,000,000 to their capitalization in betterments and extensions without the investment of a single penny of independent capital."

"When Congress met a bill came from the Attorney General. I regret to say that the Attorney General forgot that he was Attorney General for 90,000,000 people. But, he remembered his long law practice in New York, when his chief business was to tell the corporation how to evade the law. This bill provided for the repeal of the anti-trust law under which the traffic associations were broken up and allowed all agreements to go into effect at once. This was a plain repudiation of the Republican platform. Aldrich, in the committee room, said the bill should pass without changing of a letter or the dotting of an 'I,' but as the bill passed the Senate its own mother would not recognize it. If it had not been for men like Senator Bristow the bill as it came from the committee would have passed the Senate."

"Senator Aldrich has vigorously opposed all regulation of the railroads by Congress ever since the bill to create the interstate commerce commission was introduced in 1887. I was born and always have been a Republican, but I cannot and will not follow the leadership of a traitor to his party and the people."

DISLIKE ALDRICH BILL

I hold no brief for Senator Aldrich. The bill he introduced in Congress was in no sense in the interest of the railroads—on the contrary, it was intensely disliked by them. According to your account he has sins enough to answer for—and he certainly should be absolved from the sin (in your eyes) of having in any manner favored the railroads—it is true that the so-called "administration bill" was shown to some of the railroad presidents after it was drawn—and it is also true they unavailingly protested against its terms. Also, the Attorney General should be eliminated from the condemnation which attaches in your opinion to every one who is disposed to be fair to the railroads; if Mr. Wickersham has favored the railroads in any way it has not been observed by those most affected. There was in the bill only one thing that could by any possibility be considered as favorable to the railroads, viz: the right to make legal agreements as to rates—a proposition recommended by Roosevelt, by the interstate commerce commission, and inserted, I believe, in your party platform. A right also, which all unprejudiced students of rail-economics realize as being a necessity. This—the only desirable features of the "administration bill"—was eliminated by you and your friends.

You say that the railroads of the United States are capitalized at seventeen billions and that you have not heard it claimed that they represent an actual investment of over eight billions; that the remainder nine billions represents money earned by the railroads ("extorted from the people" is your way of expressing it) and invested in the properties. Also, that in ten years (you do not say what ten years) the railroads issued securities of the face value of three and a half billions, without the investment of a single penny of original capital.

FIGURES ARE DISPUTED

If you had cared to make a fair statement instead of an inflammatory and partisan speech you would have stated that of the seventeen billions of nominal capitalization only thirteen and a half billions is in the hands of the public; you would have stated that substantially 20 per cent. of this capitalization paid no return and that the entire return on outstanding capital was 5-35-100 per cent. These figures were just as readily obtainable from the report of the interstate commerce commission as those you selected for your purposes—if you had cared to tell the whole truth. I do not think it would be possible to ascertain at this date just how much "original investment" has gone into our railroads. Millions on millions have been lost sight of; millions wiped out by foreclosure. Yet I am willing to venture my opinion against yours that this "original investment" far exceeds the eight billions you allow, but even if we admit this distorted view the earnings were less than 10 per cent on this eight billions.

We know (and you know, because you have admitted) that the existing capital probably does not exceed the cost of reproduction. Your idea therefore seems to be that the railroads alone of all the industries of the country are not to be permitted to share in the country's prosperity and growth, though they have been the chief means of creating it; that those who risked their money in railroad securities in the early days are entitled to no profits beyond simple interest; that although the Kansas farmer has seen his land advance in value four or five hundred per cent due to the building of the railroad, he should contribute to its support nothing more than interest on the "original investment"—regardless of the risk the investor took and of the years when his return was nothing. Permit me to ask how you reconcile this position with the statement that you are "not opposed to the railroads?"

WHAT IS A FAIR RETURN
Permit me to ask also (again assuming the correctness of your theory as to the amount of original investment) what you would consider a fair return on this eight billions of dollars? We have seen that at present the return is less than 10 per cent on this amount. Manifestly, you believe everything that is earned should be paid out in interest and dividends because any earnings that are put into the property are, according to your theory, not to be reckoned with as giving additional value.

All the moneys heretofore earned have been earned in accordance with the laws of the land—the money clearly belongs to the owners of the property; they could have paid it to themselves in dividends had they so desired; if, instead of so doing, they decided to re-invest it in the property, taking securities in return, you propose to confiscate it. Yet you are "not opposed to the railroads."

I should like your authority for the statement that in any ten years of the life of this country the rail roads have issued $3,500,000,000, of securities for betterments and extensions representing no actual cash outlay. The vagueness of the statement makes it impossible to refute it by actual figures, though I know it is untrue. A very little study of the facts would satisfy you that there are few industries in the United States that have received as small returns in the last twenty years as the railroads, whether figured on present value or on your alleged actual cost. There are a few conspicuous examples of prosperity due to favorable locations and rapid development, just as such cases will be found in all kinds of business, but you cannot legislate for these alone.

FOR FAIR REGULATION

It is a truism that the country cannot prosper unless the railroads are prosperous, yet it seems necessary to remind you of it. Not a day passes that we are not called on (in Kansas, for instance) to spend money for which we know we shall get no return. We are asked to pave streets, to elevate tracks, to build new stations and a thousand and one other things that add nothing to our revenue, but which are demanded by the public safety and convenience. Most of these things should be paid for out of earnings but what if the earnings do not permit?

I am no foe to railway regulation—on the contrary, I have always favored it—but thus far it has not been undertaken with a judicial spirit. The subject has been approached upon the theory that the railroads were malefactors, and the regulation has taken the form of persecution, with Senator Cummins and his friends as chief persecution. You have at last succeeded in placing the entire responsibility for railroad earnings upon the shoulders of the seven men composing the interstate commerce commission, plus the railway commission of forty-five states, more or less; you have succeeded in depriving the owner of the properties of any considerable voice in their management, while accepting no responsibility as to results. Yet you and those who vote with you, will ultimately be held responsible if the conditions you have brought about are not satisfactory to the public, as they certainly cannot be. Do not misunderstand—the railroads will do the extent they are permitted—but the limitations are not of their making.

Your truly,
E. P. RIPLEY.

GOOD WAY TO USE HYOMEI FOR CATARRH

Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me) from a bowl of steaming water each night before retiring a great aid in curing stubborn cases.

Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a teaspoonful of Hyomei, cover head and bowl with a towel, and breathe through nose and mouth the pleasant, medicated, antiseptic and healing vapor that rises.

This method relieves that stiffness at once, and makes your head feel fine. You can get a bottle of Hyomei at druggists everywhere or at Haynes & Taylor's for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle Hyomei Inhalant.

But bear in mind that a Hyomei outfit which includes inhaler and bottle of Hyomei costs $1.00.

Hyomei is guaranteed to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, asthma and croup, or money back. Try it on that generous basis.

TOLU

Mr. Editor, as we have not been heard from for some time, we will try to make a little report.

Health is very good in this section at present. No serious illness as we know of.

Carpenter Stone, and Jno. Shomaker returned from Mt. Vernon last week where they had been engaged in building an elevator.

James Wright, of Fords Ferry neighborhood was in Tolu Sunday.

Lee Wright, who has been in bad health for several years has returned home, and is much improved.

Mr. Elvis Croft is building a house on Mr. T. J. Wrights farm.

Miss Agnes Burns who has been spending the summer with her parents in Livingston county, and recently visited friends in this place, returned to Henderson last Monday.

The stork left a fine boy at Charlie Wright's Sept. 1st.

A fine boy made his appearance at Jim Ingrams recently.

Rev. Robin Shoemaker and Tracy Harris entered school at Elkton Sept. 5th.

Miss Byrd Stevenson is attending the Marion high school.

Mr. Peyt Shepard has returned from a Western trip.

Mr. Richard Knight is now engaged as driver for Anthony Thomas' livery stable.

Work was begun on the new school house at this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McDowell, Dr. and Mrs. Ollie Lowery returned from the Louisville fair Saturday.

Mr. Bob Lowe and daughter, Miss Royce were guests of friends in this place and Sheridan recently.

Mr. Orman Sills and Miss Sara Clark, of Cedar Grove visited their cousin Mrs. Shoemaker last week.

Quite a number of young people from this place attended the meeting at Hebron this week. The meeting was conducted by Rev. R. C. Love assisted by Revs. Adams and Threlkeld.

LAND FOR SALE

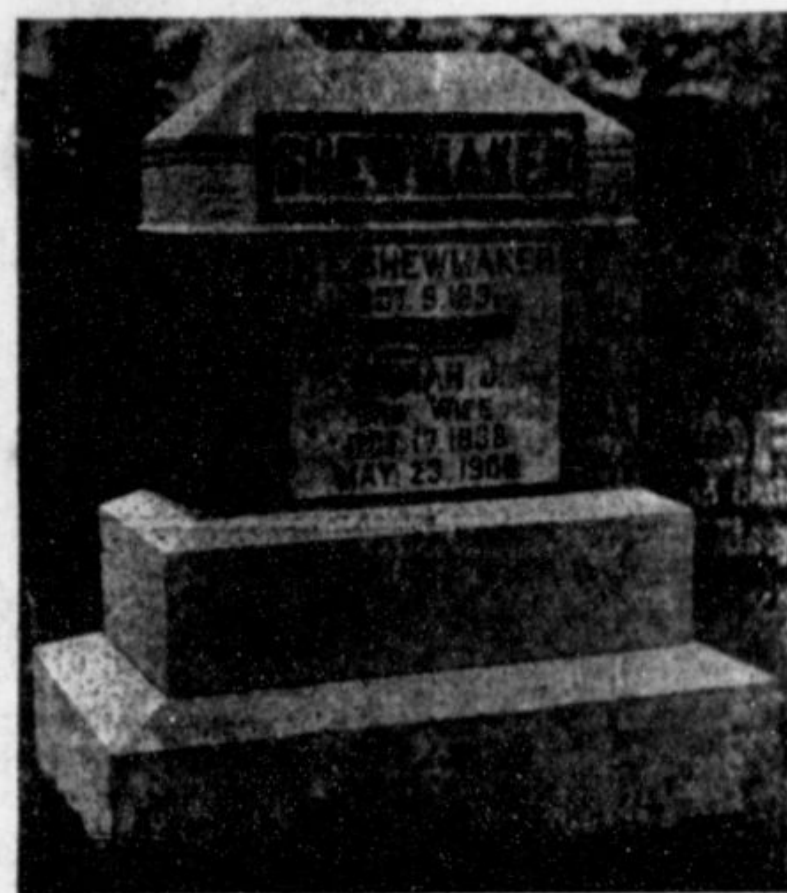

For sale 103 acres of land on Salem and Dycusburg road 4 miles from Salem in high state of cultivation. 8 to 1200 lbs of tobacco to the acre. 12 acres in timber. One dwelling house, 1 tenant housesmok-house, 5 hen houses, 2 stock barns, 1 tobacco barn, 110 fruit trees, well watered; more land can be bought joining, all at a bargain. J. S. HODGE.

The above is a picture of the Wellington piano to be given away October 29, to the lady securing the greatest number of votes in the Record-Press Prize Contest.

For fear the Company we first traded with would not give us such a piano as we wanted the winner to have, especially as they refused to ship it before the contest was over, that it might be inspected, we ordered this one through the Yates Bros. Agency here and it is now on exhibition at the Yandell-Gugenheim Co's store.

Remember the next count comes off next Saturday week for the ten dollars in gold to be given the one making the greatest gain since the count in July.

Prospective Buyer—Why do you say Henry & Henry's is the best place for me to buy a monument?
Our Customer—Because their work is in a class by itself. You can tell their work as far as you see it.
P. B.—In what way? What do you mean?
O. C.—On account of the lettering and the artistic way they arrange the lettering. A good monument can be spoiled by a poorly arranged inscription; look at Henry & Henry's work the next time you visit the cemetery; then look at the others; you can see the difference.
P. B.—I never thought of that, I'll look.

Notice the Lettering on the Monument Above.

OUR TOBACCO TIDINGS

Prospects Good for one of the Best Crops in both Yield and Quality.

Good members, as is their middle-of-September habit, are asking me daily:

"What will be the committee's price on the 1910 crop?"

"I don't know," I answer. "The district committee has held only one meeting. At that September 3rd meeting matters of more pressing importance than naming a price for the 1910 crop were up for consideration. The books were ordered closed by October 1. The committee will meet again a few days thereafter, if not before. The committee will come into possession of information not available before October 1. Meanwhile every member of that committee is daily conferring with members regarding the quantity and quality of the crop, and also consulting members on this question of price. The Hopkins county committeeman is in consultation with the members resident in that county. And so in the other counties. Every single one of the committee will take it as a favor if only members will, in person or by letter, tender their views on this subject of price, or on any other subject for the good of the Association."

"The members of the district committee," I continue, "are sober, serious, practical farmers of wide experience. Three of the committee are a little the rise of sixty. The other two, while not so old in years, will average 95 to 98 at examination time in that same class. A committee against which no taint of exorbitant prices will ever be charged; a committee as firm as fair; a committee that will, after deliberation and conference, name a price for the 1910 crop, and then, sale, or no sale, confidently look to members for unanymous support."

And the composite reply of members to the foregoing may be worded like this:

"You should assure the committee of the loyal support of Henderson county members in this matter of price-making. We in greater degree than ever before, will endorse the acts of the committee and uphold its hands. Let the committee, informed of all the surroundings, name a remunerative price for the 1910 crop, and then, come weal or woe, let the rank and file of members close ranks right behind the leaders."

"If only members all over the district manifest the same spirit and courage," I conclude, "it is as good as settled that members will realize a remunerative price for the 1910 crop."

EXTRA GOOD QUALITY.

It is the business of the district committee and the officers of the association to investigate all the facts relating to the 1910 crop. Together this knowledge systematic investigations are pushed in every county of the district by canvassers for pledges by county committeemen and volunteer members of the association. To illustrate: Manager Elliott has made a number of trips by auto through Union county and Henderson county for the express purpose of sizing up the crop. He has been through Hopkins, Webster and Crittenden right recently gathering data.

He sums up the results like this: "In point of quality—average quality—the 1910 crop is the best for years. With no mishap in the next three weeks to the late cutting, the association will offer a crop of very high average quality. And the percentage of low grade and indifferent tobacco will be smaller than for several years. And we'll have more fired tobacco than for several years, and that alone insures quality."

Confirmatory of the foregoing estimate is the following from the Morganfield Sun:

TOBACCO CROP ONE OF THE BEST EVER RAISED IN THE COUNTY

Mr. H. T. Dean and Road Supervisor, Buckman were in the city yesterday and both agreed that the 1910 crop of tobacco was one of the best ever raised in Union county. "I have been over a great deal of the country," said Mr. Buckman, "and practically all of the crop has been cut. The acreage is smaller than usual, but the quality is fine."

"Practically all of the tobacco raised in the county this year," said Mr. Dean, "has been pooled. I have not been over all the country, but nearly all the farmers I have talked with say they are going to fire their tobacco. There will be much more fired tobacco this year. I think, than usual. This meant better prices and will enable the association to dispose of the crop more readily."

AFTER SUFFERING FOR YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I was sick for years while passing through the Change of Life and was hardly able to be around. After taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I gained 20 pounds, am now able to do my own work and feel well."—Mrs. Ed. LA DOT, Park Rapids, Minn.

Brookville, Ohio.—"I was irregular and extremely nervous. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have become regular and my nerves are much better."—Mrs. R. KINNISON, Brookville, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it, free and always helpful.

ELK FLOUR SOLD ON PROOF—NOT CLAIMS

If you do not find Elk Flour all that we say it is, you will have your money back—you will have lost nothing.

If you do find Elk Flour to be more economical—much superior in quality to any other flour—then you can't know it any too soon.

We might argue in advertising—just as other advertisers do—that our product is "best."

But Elk Flour really has the superior quality—which enables us to permit Elk Flour itself to convince you of its own superior quality, right in your home.

We make Elk Flour from the best grade of Crittenden county wheat and connected with the fact that we have the latest improved machinery for cleaning and our mills absolutely perfect from top to bottom it is no wonder that Elk Flour is so popular in every home.

We buy wheat only for our own consumption, hence buy the best. Mills that speculate in wheat frequently get mixed wheat in their best brands. This is averted with us.

Buy the best, THE ELK.

A HOUSE BUILT OF LUMBER FROM ONE TREE

fourteen-room, two-story-and-a-half house, built entirely of the lumber from a single tree, was recently finished at Elma, Wash.

The tree, according to The Pathfinder, was a giant Douglas fir. It was marvelous straight, and when scaled was found to contain 40,000 feet of serviceable lumber.

The tree was cut into six logs, the first or butt being twenty-eight feet in length. Inside the bark the stump measured seven feet and nine inches in diameter. The distance to the first limb of this tree was 100 feet, and the total height of the tree was over 300 feet.

At the standard price of $25 a thousand, the lumber was worth more than $1,000. Elma is in the midst of the great fir timber belt on the west slope of the Cascade Mountains.

HOME ENDORSEMENT

Hundreds of Marion Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Marion people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Marion reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

William Redd, farmer, Marion, Ky., says: "I was subject to sharp twinges through my loins when I stooped or lifted and was also troubled by a pain in my back. At night I had an acute backache and when I arose in the morning, I was very lame. I tired easily, felt dull and languid and at times was nervous. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I was obliged to arise three or four times during the night. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store and after using them about three days, I received such great relief that I continued taking them until I was cured."

For sale by all dealers—Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States.

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE It is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

"Sure Cure"

"I would like to guide suffering women to a sure cure for female troubles," writes Mrs. R. E. Mercer, of Frozen Camp, W. Va. "I have found no medicine equal to Cardui. I had suffered for about four years. Would have headache for a week at a time, until I would be nearly crazy. I took Cardui and now I never have the headache any more."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

The pains from which many women suffer every month are unnecessary. It's not safe to trust to strong drugs, right at the time of the pains. Better to take Cardui for a while, before and after, to strengthen the system and cure the cause. This is the sensible, the scientific, the right way. Try it.

OBITUARY

Jesse Victor, son of J. W. and M. E. Hughes, was born Feb. 12, 1905 and died Saturday evening Sept. 17, 1910 and was consequently in his sixth year. He was baptized July 23, 1910 by Rev. J. R. King.

He endured his sickness with the greatest of patience. When noticed that he was dying some one said, "He is dying." He to talking and said quite a number of things. He looked around over the room at all who were present, and said to some of them standing by, "We've all got to die." Thus his last sermon was preached: trying to comfort them standing around his bed.

His choice songs which he sang were: "The Old Time Religion," "No not One," "Just Because He Loved Me So," "I Would not be Denied," "I Love to Walk With Jesus." And when he and his mamma were alone he would say "Mamma sing 'Mansions Prepared' so I can sing tenor. He had learned the tenor to the chorus from a boy who helped sing in the choir.

He liked to go to church and would pay strict attention to the preacher and the singing. He was five years, seven months and five days old.
