OUR COUNTY

Leads in Health as Shown by Vital Statistics of Crittenden County for the Year 1911.

Assuming that the report of deaths are complete in Crittenden county, and we have every evidence to believe that the physicians and undertakers have complied with the law in filing death certificates, the vital statistics for this county show that progress has been made in the fight against preventable diseases. For several years the county board of health and the physicians of the county have made a vigorous campaign for good health, right living and endeavored to secure the co-operation of the people in an effort to prevent consumption, small pox, diphtheria, typhoid fever, measles, whooping cough, Lagrippe, scarlet fever and other communicable diseases.

While it has been impossible to secure official records of the deaths previous to the year 1911, when the Vital Statistics law became operative. A careful inquiry reveals the fact that these diseases are occurring less frequently.

The official records for the year 1911 for the first nine months, show that there have been reported 239 births and 92 deaths. Of these deaths, 23 have been of infants under one year, 5 of children from the age of 1 to 5, and 31 aged 65 and over.

Tuberculosis consumption has been responsible for 16 deaths, typhoid fever 3, Diphtheria and Croup 0, Scarlet fever 0, Measles 0, Whooping Cough 1, Pneumonia, and Broncho-pneumonia 7, Summer complaint of children under 2 years 4, Meningitis 3, Influenza Lagrippe 0, puerperal Septicemia child bed fever 0, Cancer 0, and violence 3, Still births excluded.

The encouraging feature of this report is the relatively low death rate from the common preventable diseases. And while next year or later an unusual prevalence of some of these diseases in surrounding counties or in this county may show a large increase in the death rate, there is every reason to believe that the practice of using individual drinking cups in the schools, the campaign conducted by the physicians of the county of Crittenden and her efficient Board of Health have been instrumental in saving a number of citizens of the county from death and sickness.

The State Board of Health will watch Crittenden County's progress in this fight with great interest in the hope that she may be pointed out as a leader and practical example of what may be done in the protection of the health and lives of people.

Consumption, all forms, was responsible for 18 deaths of every 100 that occurred in the state the first 8 months of the year. This death rate is enormous and constitutes a serious indictment against the intelligence of the state when it is observed that the average rate for 16 states that have a vital statistics law is only 11 1-2 per 100.

It is very gratifying to see the advanced position that Crittenden county has taken in the educational that is being made over the state. The graded and high school of Marion is doing good work as is being done the state, and a high conception of what real teaching means is held by Superintendent J. U. Snyder and his corps of teachers. Systematic work is being done to develop the intellectual, moral, and physical in the young people under their care. We shall use as an example over the state the splendid system in use in the school for the protection of its students.

As a rule schools under ordinary conditions are reduced in efficiency from 15 to 30 per cent on account of preventable diseases, bad colds, Lagrippe, sore throat, diphtheria, whooping cough and scarlet fever. In this institution each teacher is required to report each day the number and name of pupils who are ill, or who have coughs and sore throats, if any, also the temperature of the room several times each day. A child that is ill is isolated if there is any suspicion of a contagious disease. In this way school attendance is kept at its highest point. In addition the rooms are thoroughly ventilated and an abundance of fresh air, the best prevention in the world against colds, Lagrippe and bronchitis—is admitted into the room constantly at the same time keeping an average temperature as shown by the records, of about 68 degrees.

CORN WANTED.

Until further notice we will pay 60cts per bu. for Solid dry shucked white corn and 50cts per bu for snapped corn.

City Tax Supervisors.

Mayor Cochran has appointed the following gentlemen as a board of Equalization for the city of Marion's 1911 tax list, W. T. McConnel, H. V. Stone, John T. Pickens.

National Irrigation Congress.

The 19th National Irrigation Congress will meet in Chicago December 5th to 9th, 1911. One of the principal efforts of this Congress will be to induce the Federal Congress to authorize the United States Government to take charge of and carry to completion the drainage of the Swamp land of this country along the same lines that were pursued in the irrigation of the arid land of the West. There is much swamp land in West Tennessee and along the I. C. R. R. which will receive attention when the National House of Representatives takes favorable action which we have every reason to believe will be done. There will be special rates on all R. R. lines for parties desiring to attend.

As per notice in this paper last Dr. W. L. Heizer supt. of vital statistics of Kentucky spoke at the court House at one o'clock in the afternoon and at School auditorium at 8 o'clock Monday night on the prevention of disease, a most valuable lecture. No admission was charged or collection taken and those who attended felt that it was worth much to them.

ADJOURNMENT.

The lecture on Friday night, Dec. 1, by John E. Gunckel will be worth hearing. He is known as the "Newsboys Friend." He has rescued more boys from the streets than any other man in America. His work is among people of the streets, people who lack the advantages and refinements of home life; and many a good citizen of Toledo and elsewhere owes his success to the kindly words of Mr. Gunckel. The people are urged to hear this great lecture.

Homes are still needed for about one hundred and fifty teachers. A fairly thorough canvas of the town has been made and still we are short of homes. Can we afford to let this great meeting come to town and then fail in our hospitality? Surely we can keep 600 people one night. If we cannot, let us stop boasting of Kentucky hospitality, and stop bragging about our support of the local school.

ADVOCATES

GOOD ROADS

Sensible Advice From Judge Gordon

Judge Gordon delivered some strong arguments in favor of good roads at the Court House Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock in an address of thirty minutes to the farmers many of whom were present, filling the court room. He referred to our good fortune in having the material right at hand, whereas many counties have only what is shipped in from distant places at prohibitive charges for freight and hauling. Judge Gordon's remarks were intended and were calculated to appeal to the higher instincts of his hearers. He appealed to their patriotism, their love of home and family and last but not least that unself love, each man should have for his community and his neighbor. What our forefathers did for us in blazing the way through the wilderness, and their children did in widening and marking these same trails, we should do for our progeny and no greater heritage could be left them and it would be a monument to ourselves greater than one built of whitest marble.

McKinley-Buchanan

On Wednesday afternoon Nov. 22nd 1911 at 3 o'clock at Blackford Ky., at the residence of the Rev. John King, Mr. Thomas McKinley, Jr., and Miss Coatnie Buchanan of Sullivan were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, by the Rev. King, at whose home the ceremony was performed. The groom is a son of Thomas McKinley Sr. and is a sterling young farmer. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Nancy Buchanan and is an attractive young woman and of very handsome personal appearance. The young couple were accompanied by Arthur King of Rodney and Miss Opal Martin of Sullivan. They have many friends who will wish them bon voyage on the sea of matrimony. After the ceremony the bridal party were entertained at the home of the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKinley at Blackford with a sumptuous wedding supper.

Phillips-Berry

Last Night at the home of the brides parents, near Applegates, at 7 o'clock, Miss Inez Berry was united in marriage to Mr. John Phillips of Gladstone. Rev. John King of Blackford officiating. Among those present besides the families of the contracting parties were Messrs. Arthur King, of Rodney, and T. McKinley and wife of Curlew, Ky., and Miss Opal Martin of Sullivan. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Kate Berry and is a lovely girl of 17 summers, and the groom is a son of Robt. Lee Phillips of Hoods School house vicinity. The many friends of the young couple wish them much joy.

EATS WHAT HE LIKES AFTER TAKING FREE SAMPLE

It will be welcome news to dyspeptics to learn of a remedy that, in the opinion of thousands, is an absolute cure for indigestion and all forms of stomach trouble, and, better still, it is guaranteed to do so. The remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

We all know the value of pure pepsin in indigestion, and add to this some exceptional laxative ingredients and you have a truly wonderful remedy. Mr. T. W. Worthy of Forsythe, Ga., got to the point where he could not even eat or digest vegetables and after many years of seeking he found the cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Rudy Kasper of Moline, Ill., was in the same bad predicament with his stomach, took Syrup Pepsin and is now cured.

Hundreds of others would gladly testify.

It is a guaranteed cure for indigestion, constipation, biliousness, headaches, gas on the stomach and similar complaints. A bottle can be had at any drug store for fifty cents or a dollar, but if you wish to make a test of it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will supply a free sample bottle, sent direct to your address. You will soon admit that you have found something to replace salts, cathartics, breath perfumes and other temporary reliefs. Syrup Pepsin will cure you permanently.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Gossip.

As there has been some gossiping going on in our vicinity recently, I have concluded to write my opinion of such a ruinous business and try in my weak way to describe such a wholesale dispenser of idle tales.

A gossip is a first-class curse to any neighborhood, a tattler, one who gathers up and tells idle tales. She is a full sister to the liar and does much of his brother's work. She attends to all his business in his absence, and often does it better than he would do it if at home. You may not picture her in your mind as a hag. Not by any means. She is as often goes in her splendid turnout and rustles in silks, she is charming in conversation, tender to tears, hence her steps to ruin are gradient and sure. She is a mischief maker, and talks wrong things. She is a tattler, a retailer of slanders and has itching ears and a bad heart. She is a dangerous woman, an enemy to all good will. She is compelled to be a hypocrite, she will appear to be your friend and betray you to your next neighbor.

Men are gossips as well as women, but there is this difference, if a man rattles you can hold him personally responsible, but no man wishes to have a controversy or a difficulty with a woman. Men fight, women quarrel. Blows are a more rugged and effective remedy for tale-bearing than words.

Gossiping may not always be intended for evil, but its results are always evil and only evil. It is an abominable habit in every phase of it. Never suffer anyone to visit you or your family who deals in gossip and never gossip yourself, nor suffer your family to do it and you will have no trouble with this domestic scorpion. You had better cut the acquaintance of the best friend you have, than tolerate their gossip one hour. Rebuke it promptly. Stop it at once, if it be at your own fireside, and no matter who attempts it, crush it to death at the start, for it is wicked, vicious, mean, impolite and in every way hurtful. So soon as it is known that this is your habit you will have no further trouble with this peddler. Gossips there come to see you, as do other peddlers, but they will be careful not to display their infamous wares.

This course most rigidly enforced may deprive you of much news, but you will surely find that in this regard that ignorance is bliss and it is "folly to be wise." How the oily tongues of the gossips have blasted the peace of this world! Shun it as you would the ways of perdition.

John E. Pilaut.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

Is the Right Remedy for All
Abrasions of the Flesh.

If the wound is cleaned and the liniment applied promptly, the healing process begins at once and the wound heals from the inside outwardly, thus forming a perfect cure that leaves no scar. If the wound is on the outside too quickly, pus forms under the surface and breaks out into a running sore that is hard to cure and inevitably leaves a bad scar.

Owners of loaded stock prefer this liniment to all others for that reason, and they use it not only on fine animals, but on human flesh, as it does its work quickly and thoroughly.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Refuses Editor's Offer.

Renounces Trust Worth $100,000

New York, Nov. 20.—The complete text of Joseph Pulitzer's will, which was filed for probate today, revealed a provision for the payment of $100,000 to Justice Charles E. Hughes, of the Supreme Court of the United States, if he accepted service as one of the trustees and executors of the estate. This sum to be given in lieu of commissions.

Justice Hughes renounced the trust on the ground that public duties would prevent him from qualifying as a trustee or executor. The four trustees of Mr. Pulitzer's two newspapers, the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, will receive lump sums of $50,000 each, in lieu of commissions, according to the terms of the will. These trustees are George L. Rivers, J. Angus Shaw, Judge Harrington Putnam and Frederick N. Judson.

Plans For Inaugural Take Form at Frankfort

Frankfort, Nov. 20.—The City Council chamber was crowded tonight with both Democrats and Republicans in response to the call issued by Mayor Polsgrove of the meeting of citizens to take steps toward arranging the details for the inauguration of Gov. McCreary on December 12. The result of the meeting was the appointment of the following Executive Committee, which was empowered to appoint all the sub-committees and agree on the details for the inauguration programme: S. French Hoge, Elwood Hamilton, Ben G. Williams, John W. Milan and Percy Haly.

The Executive Committee was directed to take charge of all the arrangements for the inauguration, including committees on Reception, Finance, Parade, Badges, Printing, Automobiles, Carriages and probably others.

The Executive Committee will hold a meeting Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in the office of Judge Ben Williams in the McClure building. At this meeting a chairman and secretary of the committee will be selected and several of the subcommittees appointed.

The committee will communicate with Gov. McCreary and ascertain his wishes in regard to the inauguration ceremonies. It has been stated that the Governor-elect wishes to hold a public reception at the new Capitol in the afternoon of December 12 after the inauguration ceremonies proper have been concluded.

The inauguration will take place at the new Capitol, this being the first time since 1772 that a Governor of Kentucky was ever sworn in other than in the old Statehouse yard in North Frankfort.

Married A Glasgow Girl. Son-in-Law of H. C. Trigg.

Receives Attention in the House of Commons

London, Nov. 20.—In the House of Commons to-day John Dillon called the attention of the Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, to published statements by W. Morgan Shuster, the American Treasurer General of Persia, charging that Great Britain and Russia were obstructing his work and interfering with the independence of Persia.

The secretary promised to deal with the matter in a statement to the House as soon as opportunity offered. Meanwhile, he said, Shuster had been informed that his suggested employment of British subjects in North Persia was bound to antagonize Russia because it would give the impression that Russian influence was being displaced by British, and it was to the interest of Persia that neither Britons nor Russians be appointed to administrative posts on the Persian frontiers.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News understands that Russia is sending another note to Persia, declaring in effect that the exercise of any practical authority by Mr. Shuster, the American Treasurer General of Persia in Northern Persia, will be regarded as an unfriendly act.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN

Shorn of Her Crown of Beauty, Loses in Love and Marriage.

Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald-headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disfigurement?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her crowning glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness and success. Yet, right here in Marion, there are thousands of women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess, which destroys the natural oil of the hair, causing it to split, break and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soaps or preparations which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair loosens, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost any woman may rid herself of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if she will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will either cure dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. We will return your money if you do not find that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is an entire satisfactory remedy that will promote hair growth and overcome scalp and hair troubles; that it will grow hair even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grew hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial and practical test.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store.

Forty-Four Millions

Spent on Good Roads.

Speaking of the advantages of good roads and of what is being done in that direction, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson declared today that nearly $44,000,000 was expended during the present year for good roads in the Southern States alone. The Secretary will speak on the subject at the Good Roads Congress to be held next week in Richmond, Va.

"Through its bureau of good roads," the Secretary continued, "The Department of Agriculture has been stimulating the nation wide movement for better highways, sending out experienced engineers to conduct demonstration work and a force of trained men to give illustrated lectures."

"Reports to the department show that the $44,000,000 spent during the first ten months of the calendar year was divided as follows:

Has Been Reversed.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 17. The Supreme Court of Missouri today reversed a judgement of 50,000, which Sam B. Cook, formerly Secretary of State, had obtained against the St. Louis Post Dispatch for alleged libel.

The suit grew out of an editor-

The court held that the editorial was pertinent and justified and that it was printed in good faith and in the interest of public service.

Madison county, Tennessee, has voted $200,000 road bonds.

White county, Tennessee, has voted a road bond issue of $110,000.

Bad roads cost the people of this country $15 a head, or $1,356,000. Such is the loss according to vital statistics.

England spends $80,000,000 annually on 150,000 miles of road. The United States spends $90,000,000 on 2,150,000 miles of road. American tourists spend $400,000,000 annually in the Old World. Good roads!

Wisconsin has spent $2,862,260 for roads and yet has little permanent road mileage. No system.

MAN EATEN BY A SHARK

Pensacola Harbor Sees Horror Sailor Who Fell Overboard Quickly Gobbled Up.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 19.—Death between the jaws of a monster man-eating shark was the fate of Jules Antoine, an aged seaman, in the harbor here yesterday afternoon. The gruesome sight was witnessed by the crew of the British steamer Alders Gace, on which Antoine was employed as a watchman, and by half a hundred bay men engaged in loading the vessel with lumber.

Antoine evidently had fallen overboard by accident, for the first seen of him was when the shark swam leisurely out from between the ship and the lighter lumber with the body of the man clamped between its jaws, the head and shoulders protruding from one side of its mouth and the legs from the other. For a moment the shark remained on the surface, then sank to arise a moment later with only the head in sight, the remainder of the body apparently having been swallowed.

The shark remained on the surface the second time for nearly a minute and then was seen no more. One of the watchers fainted from the spectacle.

HENRY BEATTIE TO DIE IN THE CHAIR

Wilful, Deliberate and Cruel Murderer, Says Governor Mann of Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 15.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., will die in the electric chair on November 24 for the murder of his young wife, Louise Owen Beattie. The next to the last step in the most sensational murder case in the history of Virginia was taken today when Governor Mann refused to interfere with the sentence of the court.

The governor said: "Though I sympathize very profoundly with the father of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., and would be glad to help him if I could do so, with proper regard for the public's interests, I cannot, with any consideration of these interests, interfere with the due execution of the sentence of the court in the Beattie case."

"I followed that case during the trial, and as its horrible facts developed, regretted that a crime so cruel and malicious should have occurred within this state. That Beattie is guilty of the wilful, deliberate and cruel murder of his wife, I have not the slightest doubt. Nor do I question the wisdom of the necessity of capital punishment in cases where human life has been wickedly and deliberately taken.

"Therefore the judgment of the circuit court of Chesterfield will be carried into effect without interference from me."

William Hodges Mann,
Governor."

TOBACCO TIDINGS.

BY R. F. WHEELER.

THE PRICE.

I have made it the rule to, from time to time, prompted thereto by my sense of duty to members of this association, talk to and consult with men who, prior to the coming of the tobacco trust, were buyers of tobacco on this market for long years. From memory I shall tonight cast in a dialogue form my resolutions of things said by this old buyer or that old buyer at different times having a bearing on the value of the 1911 crop.

"What," I asked last year, "should this 1910 crop bring?"

"This 1910 crop is only about two thirds of a normal crop," he answered, "and the same should bring, if sold under the old system to competitive buyers, from 8 to 9 cents average. But that is no sign of what the trust will pay for the 1910 crop."

It will be remembered the trust stubbornly held out for the 7 cent average, but were finally prevailed on by the selling committee for the association to pay an average of 7 cents for the unfired and 7 1-2 for the fired for wagon delivery.

The reader should bear in mind that the association prized a part say 630 hogsheads, of the 1910 crop, which later was sold for more than the average received for that delivered from the wagon.

"What," I asked an old buyer here recently, "is the value of the 1911 short crop?"

"Taking into consideration the stocks of this type of tobacco on the other side—in Liverpool—which stocks, of this stemming type I mean, are short, and remembering that there is only about 50 per cent of a normal crop, or even say 60 per cent of a normal crop, and keeping in mind that the quality of this crop is away above the average, the value of the crop under competitive conditions would be from $15.00 for the best, down to about $8.00 for trash."

"Under present conditions?" I asked.

"Mr. Elliot and your sales committee have hit upon the only right course as I understand it," he answered. "That committee I understand will name a price, I doubt not, less than the crop is worth, so much preferred is a sale from the wagon. Failing to get that price the committee, without parleying, or dickering or delay, will proceed with promptitude to prize the crop."

So much have old buyers told me. And I go bail the sales committee will name a price on the 1911 crop and agree to leave to any impartial tribunal in this nation as to the reasonableness of said price.—Banks in Gleauer.

Erie, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ### DEAD LEAVES.

Oh, the dead leaves, how fast they fall,
And my youth how vividly they do recall.

And I am thinking of the dear old spring that bubbled beneath the hill,
And the dear old school, so near by, that was nestled among the trees.

And the waving corn fields and the meadow lands, just across the way.
Oh, I am thinking of the dear old play grounds and the happy hearts so young, blythe and gay.

But alas so many of them have gone away, for God called them, and they could not stay.

Oh, I am thinking of the dear old days when we were as young and blythe as they.

But we will soon have passed away, for when Jesus calls. All that they can bestow cannot keep us here below.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Marion People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

William Redd, farmer, Marion, Ky., says: "I was subject to sharp twinges through my loins when I stooped or lifted and was also troubled by a pain in my back. At night I had an acute backache and when I arose in the morning, I was very lame. I tired easily, felt dull and languid and at times was nervous. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I was obliged to arise from three to four times during the night. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store and after using them about three days, I received such great relief that I continued taking this remedy until I was cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. N23-30 No. 1

8 ASSAULTERS PLEAD GUILTY

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 16.

—Much to the surprise of the prosecution, Everett Clark, Scranton Weston and Guy Fritzwater, alleged to have been the leaders of the mob which tarred and feathered Miss Mary Chamberlain on the night of August 7th, last, today entered pleas of guilty to assault and battery when arraigned in the circuit court. Attorneys for the defense pointed out that there was no Kansas statute covering tarring and that they considered it safer to plead guilty to the assault charge than to stand trial. Sentence was withheld until the present term. Having thus disposed of the cases of the three alleged mob leaders the court proceeded with the trial of Sheriff Clark, A. N. Simms and John Schmitt and others who are said to have helped apply the coat of tar and feathers to the pretty little school teacher. A jury was quickly selected and three women called to testify as to Miss Chamberlain's condition on the morning after the episode.

CHICAGO NOBODIENARIAN.

Fernando Jones Dies in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The passing of Fernando Jones who since the days when the Pottawatomie Indians camped on the lake front where Grant Park is now located has been a prominent character in Chicago, bring to mind the incident of this city's life and development. He died at the age of ninety-one years after an illness of one day. During this time he has seen the growth from an Indians camp on the lake front to the second largest city in the United States and the fourth largest city in the entire world. He was the first man to be photographed in Chicago.

When he migrated West it was by wagon rather than railroad. During the recent aviation meet he took particular interest in the development of aerial navigation, and commented on the contrast between his first days on the shores of Lake Michigan and this occasion, when almost on the same spot he saw ten airships sailing at will over the lake front.

Mr. Jones was active in public life throughout his entire career, and his passing is mourned by the entire city.

Mystery of a Sofa Pillow.

Cynthiana, Nov. 20.—There has been a curiosity on display at Renaker's drug store in the nature of what was once a sofa pillow. The pillow was made by Mrs. W. O. N. Fryman, of this city, some ten or fifteen years ago, and was stuffed with wild duck and partridge feathers. On opening the pillow some days ago Mrs. Fryman found the pillow on the inside of the cover to resemble a very exquisite piece of changeable plush or velvet, and was as perfect in texture as the finest piece of woven cloth. It is durable, all efforts to pull it apart or out with one's fingers having failed. Hundreds have viewed it and all are puzzled to know how it was made, many advancing the theory that it was woven by some insect life in the feathers.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

Electricity Grows Wool.

[Chicago Tribune.]

Prof. Silas Wentworth claims that on his experimental farm at Roseville, Cal., electricity has proved capable of doubling the production of lambs and greatly increasing the yield of wool. A flock of sheep was divided, one half being placed in a field under the power wires of an electric company, while the other portion was removed from electric influences. The fleeces of the sheep in the electricaly influenced field were 20 per cent heavier and the lambs were twice as numerous. The astonishing foreign office report suggests a new opportunity for investigation in our own country, where the effects of electricity on vegetation has been for some time receiving attention. The time may yet come when there will be a ready market for cheap current in the service of agriculture.

WEDS WRONG GIRL

Bridegroom's "Misapprehension"
Declared Good Ground in The Case.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 15.—Divorced from the woman he married under the misapprehension that she was his childhood sweetheart, Albert N. Judd walked from Judge Weir's room in superior court, smiling the smile of a free man.

Judd, in retrospective mood one evening, remembered the mud pies he used to make with little Fannie Eastman when they were children in southern Indiana. He wandered into a residence at 318 West Washington street and saw a woman. "Why, it's Fannie," Judd exclaimed, and clasped her in his arms. They went at once to be married.

Then Judd found Fannie wasn't his Fannie at all—his Fannie Eastman—only that she was a Fannie Eastman. Well, she hadn't said she was. Judge Weir thought over the case for a week before giving Judd his divorce. Judd and Fannie were married May 17.

Hogwallow News.

Sim Flinders had the doctor come from Tickville Monday night to see his wife. The doctor did not want to come very badly as he knew he would never get any pay for it.

The ballot boxes for Hogwallow and vicinity being in use at present for something else the voters voted in the state election Tuesday by holding up their hands. When the count was over it was at once seen that McCreary would be elected by an overwhelming majority, every one voting for him except the post-master, who had a reasonable excuse.

The Hogwallow Improvement society has resolved that there should be less courting and more marrying in this vicinity.—Dunk Botts.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES.

By J. B. MCNEELEY.

Nov. 26, 1911.

Nehemiah's prayer. Time, 445 B. C. Motto Text:—"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man, availeth much." James 5:16.

Commit to memory verse 9. Lesson, Neh. 1-11.

Nehemiah went to Jerusalem where he met Ezra, where they co-operated for the material and spiritual good for their people.

Note the sequel:—First, information; second, supplication; third, realization; Information:—First, affection, though far removed from his Jewish brethren, Nehemiah still felt an interest in their welfare and because of his love for his brethren embraced every opportunity to ascertain their needs and condition. His people are suffering great affliction. Verse 3.

Supplication—verse 4.

Information is necessary in order for us to know for what our prayers are offered. A knowledge of the sinner's condition is necessary before we can offer an earnest, fervent prayer for his salvation. So when we know the condition of our people. We can pray for them intelligently.

1. He prays with great earnestness, overcome with emotion, sat down and wept for he mourned certain days and prayed before God in Heaven. Verse 4

2. Solomon's address:—He prayed to the Lord God of Heaven, the great and terrible God, Lord of the covenant divine. Therefore when such a God stretches out his hand we expect a mighty redemption.

3. General petition:—He first asked

God to give attentive ear to the real condition. But we know so little of the psychology of the deity, that the earnest soul will keep on praying.

4. Confession:—The prayer was not one of selfrighteousness. He is not defending his people before the Judge of the earth. He does not base his prayer upon any good thing he had done.

O Lord I beseech thee this day. Then as a female conceived the idea of rebuilding the walls Jerusalem.

What did he do to gain the consent of the King?

His pray is directed towards two objects, the Jews of Palestine, then for himself and his people. He desires a blessing and feels the need of it. He has faith in God, and he is blessed. Repeat the motto text. Make spiritual application. Then pray a blessing upon yourself and people, and God to save the unsaved, have faith and God will hear.

Turks Have up Their Dander Now.

Rome, Nov. 15.—That Turkey is in no mood to accept mediation or stop the war with Italy was shown today when the grand vizier issued a sweeping order that every Italian in Turkey must be expelled from the country within 24 hours.

Every Italian found in Turkey after the 24 hours has elapsed will be considered a prisoner of war and held in a Turkish fortress until peace is declared.

This order is one of the most severe blows Italy has suffered since beginning of the war and will mean a loss of millions of dollars to her citizens living in Turkey.

trained sea lion flopped through a window pane and into an alley. When it felt the snow and sniffed the cold air it appeared in its natural element and started at a lively gait for Lake Michigan. The animal lost in its race for the icy lake water by a small margin. A crowd of men and boys traced the animal and captured it when it was within a minute or two of attaining its goal.

Peanut Farming For The Insane.

Peanut farming may be tried at the insane asylums of Kentucky to solve the problem of giving the insane some employment and it is believed that a large profit can be earned for the State in this way. The idea was suggested by S. A. Pate, one of the officials of the asylum for the insane at Hopkinsville. He tried growing peanuts in the garden back of the buildings, and succeeded in producing 202 bushels of nuts on a tract of less than acre. He believes that the nuts can be grown successfully at the asylum at Lexington and Lakeland, as well as at Hopkinsville.

Letter From Mrs. Dan Stone's Father While at Hot Springs, Ark.

Dear Editor: Since last I wrote you, wife and I stopped on our way here at Bald Knob, Ark., where we found three sisters of J. C. Mason, our nephew and nieces. A number of your readers will remember J. C. Mason, the Christian preacher, who visited us a few years ago and preached for us at Cave-in-Rock. I have not seen my nieces since the close of our Civil War, some forty-five years ago.

But the three days and nights spent with them was full of joy for our family re-union was made one of the noted occasions of Bald Knob. The night before we left, friends and neighbors filled the house to overflow.

ing. And I wish to tell you this,

Arkansas, part of the Mason family, is all songsters, musicians and Christians.

It put me in the mind of fifty years ago when Christianity was not all form, but something which stood for love for all children of men. Don't remember when we ever had a more pleasant meeting and parting.

Wife and I are now at Hot Springs taking advantage of one of the gifts of our creator, the hot water baths of Hot Springs. When our money gives out or we tire of the sights, we hope to return to old Cave-in-Rock.

With best wishes to all our friends. I remain.
