NEW FEDERAL EDIFICE FOR MARION

Demands of the Post Office For Beyond Present Quarters.

Congressman James Petitioned to Give Us a Government Post Office Building.

That Marion's post office has become too small and cramped for the immense volume of business which passes through it each day has been plain to every one familiar with the conditions for many months. The cancellations here entitle us to a free delivery under the law and as we hope soon to have. The rural routes and the numerous star routes supplied from Marion's post office crowd beyond capacity the room now used. Recently a petition was presented to Congressman James asking to present a bill in Congress before he steps up higher, asking the government to build a federal building here. Mr. James will do so and assured his petitioners that he would leave no stone unturned to accomplish the wishes of his home city. There were several hundred signers representing every phase of life and business in Marion and vicinity, and we confidently predict that the bill will pass and that ere summer, bids will be asked for by the Government for a $20,000 post office for Marion which has been the distributing point for several counties several years.

Der Received for Twelve Wives.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 24.—The latest matrimonial order ever received in the city came from Lansing, Mich., to day addressed Marriage License Clerk Claude Gage, calling for twelve brides of a like number of Michigan men ranging in years from 25 to 60 and ready to begin house-keeping on some of Western Washington's lands as soon as agencies permit. "We want the land and we want the wives," ran the letter. The land question we have already taken up," Gage has written the Michigan man that he will advise him later as to the condition of the matrimonial market.

U-KLUX KLAN LEADERS DIES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Grover, S. C., Jan. 22.—E. R. Sepaugh, prominent in Reconstruction days as a leader in the U-Klux Klan, died to-day at his home here, aged 65. Sepaugh was a division of the clan that attacked Tom Rountree, a negro educator, a year after the war and accepted imprisonment in Yorkville jail four years rather than betray the names of his comrades in the lynching party. He was finally released without trial. Sepaugh carried a bullet in the negro's pistol to his grave.

Chicken Ate A Diamond.

Washington, Jan. 23.—"Champion" a golden Wyandotte cock, prize winner at a number of poultry shows, is dead from eating a diamond. The bird, the property of Henry J. Hunt was entered in the annual exhibition of the Washington poultry and pigeon association. The brilliant stone, a ring on the hand of its owner attracted his attention; he reached out his beak, pecked off the stone, and swallowed it before Hunt could snatch his bird away. An operation and the effects of the chloroform caused "Champion's" death.

NEARLY DROWN ON WAY HOME FROM FUNERAL

Driving Through Ford, Buggy is Overtaken By Ice and Two Fall Into Water.

Returning from the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah E. Casey, at Bethlehem, James Lamaster, living near King's Church, Bullitt county, and his niece, Mrs. Susan Button, had narrow escapes from drowning when an ice floe in Wheeler's Run, one mile southeast of Routt, overturned their buggy and they were thrown into the water Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Button was able to wade to the bank of the creek, which is about four feet deep, but Mr. Lamaster was caught under the floating mass of ice.

Mr. Lamaster was unable to break through the ice or find an opening near the bank of the stream. Mrs. Button upon seeing that her uncle did not emerge from the water, cried aloud for help and attracted William Johnson to the scene. He succeeded in rescuing the man from the icy water and carried him to the Johnson home a short distance away. Mr. Lamaster and Mrs. Button remained at the Johnson home during the night.—Louisville Courier Journal.

A REGULAR LOVE FEAST

Ovation and Banquet to United States Senator Elect Ollie Murray James.

Marion Does Herself Proud in Honoring Her Most Distinguished Son.

There is not a citizen of Marion but what feels in his heart that the welcome given to our distinguished and beloved citizen, United States Senator elect, O. M. James was timely, richly deserved and highly pleasing to the man who has always kept close to the hearts of his home people and has kept them and their welfare upper most in his heart. Last Friday will long be remembered as an historical one in Marion. United States Senator elect O. M. James arrived on the 11 o'clock train and was met by a great out pouring of the people to whom he spoke briefly from the portico of the James Mansion on corner of Depot and College streets. All day long admiring friends were arriving from all points of the compass, to do him honor and to sit at the banquet which was to be the crowning event of a gala day. Seven o'clock was the hour named and at that time over one hundred gentlemen were at the entrance to the banquet hall awaiting the sounding of the gong which was the signal for them to enter and be seated. Each one had been given his ticket and the number of his table and there was no confusion everything moving off in good form. At the plates each guest found beautiful hand painted place cards with the dome of the Capitol and "O. M. J." in monogram and the fac simile of the guests own signature on them which had been prepared by Marion's young artist Herbert Rodgers. The menu which was at each guests plate, and were works of art gotten out at Bourland job rooms in this city and had on the front cover a bust of "U. S. Senator Ollie M. James" which covered the entire page, and on the back cover "Marion's contribution to our country, with pictures of her four most renowned products O. M. James, U. S. Senator elect, W. J. Deboe ex-U. S. Senator, Lee Cruce, governor of Oklahoma, and Thos J. Nunn, Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Inside the cover it read as follows:

BOY LOCKED IN FREIGHT CAR BY "PRACTICAL JOKERS"

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 20.—With both feet and hands frozen, half starved and semi-insane from his physical condition, James Fry, a 17-year-old boy was found in a freight car here to-day.
He had been locked in the car last Tuesday at Peru, Ind., by practical jokers. When the patrolman who found him tried to feed him a roll Fry endeavored to swallow it whole and it was only with the combined effort of four men that he could be held long enough to allow nourishment to be given him.
He was taken to the city hospital and physicians hold out little hope for his recovery.

STARR

Our big snow has left us and left us with plenty of mud and water.

W. S. Wilson visited Jim Gipson and family Sunday.

Lafe Loyd and Frank Crider, of Marion, were here one day last week.

Jim Wilson and Jim Conger were the guests of Joe Hunt and family one day last week.

The Deputy Sheriff, of Marion, was here one day last week on business. He swept things clean as he went. Lookout boys, we had too much Xmas.

Chickenpox and whooping cough is taking the day in our neighborhood.

Mrs. Eva Crider, wife of Frank Crider, died at her home near Marion with pneumonia fever, Jan. 14th, 1912. She leaves a husband six daughters, namely—Gertie Crayne, Mertie Bradley, Ida James, Etta, Vera and Veldar; also three sons—Marsh, who lives in Washington; Guy and Ulice. She was buried at Piney Fork on the 15th. A large crowd attended the funeral. Rev. Boucher preached a very comforting sermon. The bereaved ones have our sincere sympathy.

Chickens Ride Sheep

to Keep Their Feet Warm.

Princeton, Ind., Jan. 22.—Robert Melton, a farmer living near here, reports that during the cold weather the chickens in his barnyard have made a practice of riding around on the backs of his sheep, their feet clutched in the wool and their bodies cuddled down close to keep warm. The chickens would hop down from the sheep only to pick something to eat. Mr. Melton feeds his cattle in two sheds, and he says the chickens, following their practice on the sheep, have now taken to perching themselves on the backs of the cows and riding from one feed stable to another to pick up the grain scattered about, thus getting through the deep snow. He says some times two or three chickens will be seen complacently riding along on the back of one cow.

INHERITS FORTUNE

"Indian Maiden" Heir to Estate
Valued at $160,000.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 21.—Attorneys for Henry C. Simpson, who died in this city three weeks ago, today instituted search for an "Indian maiden" somewhere "in the southwest" who is heirless to $160,000 of the Simpson fortune.

That Simpson was wealthy was not known generally until after his death. His estate amounted to $322,000 and was left in the care of his son, Henry, as executor. After the death of his first wife, more than twenty-five years ago, the elder Simpson is said to have married an Indian.

It is for a daughter by this marriage that the son seeks. The daughter is said to have returned to live with her people, the Navajos.

The Best of Life.

While of life itself or of its origin or destiny we know but little, we do know how we may have it abundantly and make the most and best of it. If we do that, not only shall we have done our entire duty, but we shall have given ourselves the highest present employment of which we are capable, and we may be certain that if there be a future for us beyond these scenes of earth, such a life is the best preparation for it.—The Cincinnati Enquirer.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

COOKING THE LORDLY TURKEY.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
The lord of the winter party or wedding anniversary feast is, of course, the turkey—and know ye, good housewives, one and all, that he can be cooked to a delicious turn by M. Soyer's method of paper bag cooking! In fact, the entire dinner can be prepared and cooked to perfection in paper bags, and after it has been eaten to the last turkey bone and last slice of pumpkin pie, the good housewife will not be confronted by a great pile of pots and pans to be cleaned—a task that has taken the edge off the happiness of many a housewife who has served one of her old-time famous meals for her guests, or her children back home to help the old folks celebrate their anniversary.

Grape fruit, with rum, is, to my mind, the ideal appetizer, but if oysters are insisted upon, put three small raw ones in the middle of the prepared fruit and season with salt, pepper, Worcester sauce and tobacco. Keep the oysters very cold, and add them to the fruit very shortly before serving, thus the two flavors remain distinct to accent rather than to muddle each other.

Salted Nuts.—I made two bags—almonds and pecans—and hereafter shall never buy them ready prepared. The almonds were blanched and dried, the pecans, bought ready hulled, picked over, scalded by pouring boiling water through them in a colander, and instantly dried. Then both were put in thickly-buttered bags, set in a very hot oven for half a minute, then the heat was reduced three-quarters, and the nuts left to brown for ten minutes. They came out crisp and beautiful, needing only a sprinkling of salt.

The Toasted Crackers I prepared were tiny oyster crackers, as fresh as possible. They were put in buttered bag, lightly sprinkled after they were in, with melted butter skimmed clean of froth, then given a tablespoonful of grated Parmesan, which was shaken well through them before sealing the bag. Sealed, it went into a very hot oven, which after two minutes had the heat turned as low as possible. Eight minutes of it made them not quite brown enough—a peep-hole in the bag top assured me of that—so I left them in three minutes longer. A few of them stuck together, but in the main, they looked as good as they tasted.

The Turkey.—Choose him as young, as tender, as fresh as you can. But if by ill chance you must take an old bird, therefore a tough one, then, indeed, you will find in paper bag cooking, succor from the sorrow of toughness. A tough bird will require a lot of grease in the bag with it, also long and slow cooking. But the end will crown the means—he will come forth tender and delicious, also well browned, but not too brown, and simply bursting with juice. Extra care must be taken in trussing him—the down legs and wings beyond any possibility of springing. Tough fowls have a way of stretching out their joints under the influence of heat, that, without this precaution, may make the legs and wings dangerous to the integrity of the bag.

Get the bird in hand early—the night before if possible. If he comes drawn, so much the better; if in a state of nature, pick, draw and singe at once, taking pains to get off all pinfeathers, and cutting out the oil-bag upon the "parson's nose"—otherwise known as the root of the tail feathers. Wash the bird thoroughly in very cold water. If there is the least sour smell, scald out by pouring through boiling soda water, followed by a cold rinse water. Drain well, wipe dry, inside and out, salt very lightly, and hang up in a cold place until morning—outside, unless the temperature is below freezing, or there is danger of thieves, four of two-footed. A city housewife will do well to cover the turkey while thus hanging out with either a loosely fitting grocer's paper bag or a square crash or cheese cloth. This keeps away soot and dust, which, once settled on the skin, defy washing off. Get the stuffing ready before taking in the bird. Dash cold water over and through it before putting in the stuffing, wipe inside and out with a soft, damp cloth, then resalt but very lightly outside and in.
Since the turkey is apt to require the whole oven and long, slow cooking, better put him on early, and take him up before beginning the other things.

Typographical Error.

(Kansas City Star.)

A Kansas editor takes his pen in hand to explain a typographical error that has caused him to spend the greater part of his time out of town since the last issue. He wrote a local news item, noting the return of an eminent citizen who had been in Canada upon a business errand. Another item in the paper recorded the fact that a less distinguished citizen of the town had been taken to the city jail "dead drunk." In the "make-up" of the paper the two items were muddled up by the foreman so that it read in the paper:

"John Smith, one of our prominent business men, returned from an extended visit to Canada today, lead drunk, as usual."

Painful Accident to Trigg County Farmer.

Vernon Bridges, a young farmer living near Maple Grove and son of Henry Bridges, happened to an unusual and very painful accident one day last week. He was out getting up wood, and while fastening a chain to a log the team started and caught his first finger on the left hand between the chain and the log and pulled it off at the knuckle joint, and also so injured the leader that it had to be taken out near the elbow. The young man suffered intense pain, and it will be several weeks before he entirely recovers from the injury. —Cadiz Record.

Montana Newspaper Hails Him as the Standard Bearer of the Democratic Party.

PROGRESSIVE AND ABLE MAN

True Patriot and Morally and Intellectually Fit for the High Position to Which He is Reasonably Sure of Election.

Helena (Mont.) Independent.—The people will name the democratic party's candidate for the presidency. In the next democratic convention there will be no boss whose voice will be heard above the rallying cry of real popular sovereignty; there will be no machine which will interfere with the registering of the people's will.

From Maine to California, from Minnesota to Texas, the delegates who will assemble to name the party's Standard-bearer in the next campaign, will come with but one purpose in view—to restore real democratic government to power in the nation's capital.

In view of this situation, a situation which is most encouraging to the party, it is possible now to forecast the result of the democratic convention, and that forecast points unerringly to the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton university, and governor of New Jersey, for the highest office within the right of any people.

The democratic candidate must be a progressive. Such a man is Woodrow Wilson, whose record in New Jersey has stamped him as one of the most progressive men in public life. The democratic candidate for the presidency must be unafraid and free from all influence of political bosses. Such a man is Woodrow Wilson, who, in his own state, unhorsed a political dictator whose power no one before had shaken.

People Have Faith in Him.
The democratic candidate for the presidency must be essentially democratic. Such a man is Woodrow Wilson, whose political ascendancy has been accomplished only by reason of the faith the people have in him, and who will carry into the high office no secret bargains with those who manipulate politics for private gain.

The democratic candidate must be morally and intellectually fit for the place. Such a man is Woodrow Wilson, whose training enables him to give to the great problems of the day an integrity above question and a mental capacity and a knowledge of public affairs which has probably not been excelled in an executive officer since the days of Jefferson.

In Woodrow Wilson, there is ample evidence of America's ability to develop in each crisis in the nation's affairs a man who is equal to the emergencies of his time. Washington appeared on the scene, when the dissatisfied colonies needed a strong man and a military genius to lead them to national independence. Jefferson came when the new democracy needed a man to take the reins of the government from the hands of an embryo nobility and restore it to the people. Jackson came when the money power first asserted itself in the control of the American government. Lincoln came when the union was about to break upon the rocks of domestic strife.

The Man for the Occasion.
And now, when greater problems than those which confronted Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Lincoln demand courage and ability of almost superhuman character; when from the length and breadth of the land there goes up, as in 1860, the prayer, "God give us a man," when plutocracy is enthroned in high places and when the life blood of the country is being sucked by the vampire of big business; when greed and avarice have been substituted for patriotism and justice; when sporadic and half-hearted attempts to right existing wrongs only aggravate them; when the nation demands again the genius of a Washington, the faith in the people of a Jefferson, the courage of a Jackson and the sublime patriotism of a Lincoln—at such a time as this it is like watching the hand of a beneficent destiny to see Woodrow Wilson loom large on the scene of national politics.

Not only the Democratic party, but the nation, too, is blessed that such a man is available for the presidency.

Let George Do It.
Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, while campaigning strenuously in the interests of the Democratic candidates, came to a small hotel in Sussex County, in the northern section of the State.

The waiter handed the presidential possibility the menu card, but the Governor, tired from the day's campaigning, pushed it away and said:

"Now George, I don't want to bother with that. Take it away and go out and get me a good dinner. Get the best you have. That's all."

The waiter brought in the dinner which the Governor ate. As he was leaving the dining room the waiter said: "Mistah Wilson, if any o' your friends from down at Princeton want can't read neither comes up this way you jest send 'em to George an' I'll take care o' 'em all right."

ELM GROVE

(Delayed from last week.)

Some of our older people say this is worst winter we have had for many years.

J. C. Kinsolving was in the Seven Springs neighborhood Sunday.

J. P. Simpkins, who fell one day last week and broke his jawbone, is slowly improving.

Elzie Campbell and wife, of Seven Springs, were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Penn, Wednesday and were accompanied home by Miss Polena Penn, Mrs. Campbell's sister.

Misses Marie and Corinne Graves visited Miss Luda Kinsolving Saturday afternoon.

Miss Dannie Davis, who was reported better last week, is still confined to her bed.

Joe Clark, of Dycusburg, was in this section Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Glenn, of Marion, is on an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Albert Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McKinney celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary Sunday. Quite a number of their children were present, and a sumptuous dinner was prepared. After seating himself at the table, Mr. McKinney remarked, that "twenty-seven years was a long time between meals."

A few of our young people were delightfully entertained at the home of S. L. Shelby, by the phonograph.

J. W. Penn and family were visiting on the bluff last week.

Herschel Butler was in the Frances neighborhood Sunday.

Sadie Kinsolving was the guest of Mrs. S. L. Shelby, Monday.

Gilbert Brown fell and broke his leg and is suffering very much.

GOOD NEWS

Many Marion Readers Have Heard It And Profited Thereby.

Good news travels fast, and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Marion are glad to learn that relief may be within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. Mary Alexander, Marion, Ky., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for three or four years. Sharp twinges seized me in my back when I stooped or lifted and I was unable to rest well on account of a constant backache. I tired easily, often felt nervous and languid, and was annoyed by headaches and dizzy spells. I was also troubled by a blurring of my sight, and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store and am glad to say that they gave me great relief. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. J1825

Marrying Among the Pilgrims.
The Pilgrimage of Plymouth Rock fame—did not believe in living single long after the death of a wife or husband, says Rev. Mr. Doran, a New England pastor. "The mother of Peregrine White, the first white child born in America, was married to Gov Winslow when she was only 13 weeks a widow and he eight weeks a widower."

Medicines that aid nature are always most effective. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all dealers.

Dead Woman Found

Surrounded by Pets.

New York, Jan. 18.—When the dead body of Mrs. Margaret Wright, 70 years old, was discovered in her home in Brooklyn last night, 35 hungry dogs and cats, which she had befriended were found running about the cold and cheerless house. Since her husband's death, 10 years ago, Mrs. Wright had lived a life of seclusion, friendless animals which she took in and cared for being her only companions.

WATERBURY'S EAGLE EYE SALVE
Good for Nothing but the Eyes

Stops Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a reliable remedy for any kind of horse lameness. Will kill the growth of spavin, curb or splint, absorb enlargements, and is excellent for swellings, fistula and thrush.

Here's Proof.

"I used Sloan's Liniment on a mule for 'high lameness' and cured her. I am never without a bottle of your liniment; have bought more of it than any other remedy for pains." BAILY KIRBY, Cassidy, Ky.
"Sloan's Liniment is the best made. I have removed very large shoe boils off a horse with it. I have killed a quarter crack on a mare that was awfully bad. I have also healed raw, sore necks on three horses. I have healed greasy heel on a mare that could hardly walk." ANTHONY G. HYER, Oakland, Pa., Route No. 1.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is good for all farm stock.

"My hogs had hog cholera three days before we got your liniment, which I was advised to try. I have used it now for three days and my hogs are almost well. One hog died before I got the liniment, but I have not lost any since."

Industrious Hen Hatches Chicks In Zero Weather.

Mrs. William Quick, Fourteenth and Spring streets, Jeffersonville, is the possessor of an industrious hen and a dozen fine little chicks just fresh from the shells. About three weeks ago the hen stole away to the barn, made a nest and began the task of hatching a brood. Zero weather did not affect the ardor of the fowl and yesterday she came off the nest with twelve chickens.

SWears To Engagment To Marry Richeson.

Utah Girl Makes Affidavit of Her Relations With Avis Linnell's Murderer.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 18.—An affidavit made here February 18, 1910, before L. P. Lawton, a notary public, by Miss Patsy Felts of Salt Lake City, daughter of a Kansas city Baptist minister, regarding her relations with the Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, confessed murderer of his fiancée, Miss Avis Linnell, of Hyannis, Mass., was made public here today.

A certified copy of the affidavit has been requested by the States Attorney at Boston for the purpose, it is believed here, of combatting any attempt to save Richeson from the electric chair. It sets forth among other things that Miss Felts became engaged to Richeson, December 29, 1903, when Richeson was a student in William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

READY TO ACT AS PALLBEARERS FOR ENEMY

Senator James Says Democrats Will Officiate at Republican Obsequies.

Senator Ollie M. James was a guest of honor at a reception given last night in the auditorium of The Seelbach under the auspices of the Kentucky Colonels' Club. W. J. O'Hearn, president of the club, presided over the meeting, and Senator James was introduced to the members of the club by Mayor W. O. Head.

"The Democratic party has attended the funeral of every party that has been born in this republic, and it stands ready to act as pallbearer for the Republican party next fall," said Senator James.

Referring to wool tariff schedules, the speaker said:

"This is the only country on the face of the earth that taxes that which means warmth to the human body. Even Russia, brutal, arrogant, uncivilized, levys no tax upon wool."

Senator James describes how the Democratic party inaugurated the movement for the income tax law.

"In my judgment, the income tax law is the fairest law that has ever been written," he said. "It means that the wealth of the country will have to bear its portion of the expense. Thirty States in the Union have adopted the amendment proposed and more are in prospect, and by this time next year, when they are all, or nearly all, in line, to the Democratic party will come the glory for having challenged a mighty army of millionaires." —Louisville Courier Journal.

First of French Monarchs.
History concedes that Clovis I. was the real founder of the French monarchy, although his father, Childeric, held some sort of tribal rule over part of the country which was destined to become France. Clovis was a progressive king and vastly extended his domains during the period of his rule, from 481 to 511. He made endless war on surrounding tribes and took territory right and left by conquest. In 493 Clovis took Paris by storm and thereupon that city became the permanent seat of the French government.

To Crittenden county it was significant when the hand of destiny pointed an index finger to the date Jan. 19th, 1912, for that date marked an event touching almost every life in our county, whose years number under twenty. That event was the closing of our rural schools—a check in the advancement of our children. In our rural schools is the foundation of our future hopes.

The Home Merchant.

A portion of our people seem disinclined to patronize the home merchant except when they can't help it. They will ask a grocer to deliver a yeast cake to their back door. But when it comes to ordering a winters supply of canned goods, they write to some distant department store.

It should be needless to say, that if everyone did thus, we should have stores to rent, fewer opportunities for people to earn a living at home.

On the contrary, if we all bought everything possible at home, our stores could keep even better stocks. It is a great convenience to be able to make selections from a good line of goods at home. This becomes possible where everyone loyally supports the home merchants.

Under such circumstances existing stores could do a larger business, employ more people, and new concerns would start. Every person owning real estate or a business here would see it grow more valuable.

Even the man with nothing would gain. There would be more property to tax, hence more public improvements. With more money in circulation our fraternal societies, churches, and clubs could serve the community more efficiently.

A REGUAR LOVE FEAST.

DEATHS

Mrs. Frank Crider Passes Away.

Mrs. Eva Crayne Crider, died at her home near Marion, Sunday, Jan. 14th, with pneumonia fever. She was sick only a few days. Everything was done for her that the doctor, kind and loving hands could do, but God calls his own from earth to Heaven.

She was born Jan. 9th, 1864. Was married to D. S. F. Crider March 8th, 1881. To this union was born nine children, all of whom are living. Her husband and all of her children were with her through her sickness and at her death, but one son, Marsh, who lives in Washington and could not get here.

We keenly realize that in the death of Str. Crider we have lost a dear wife, a good mother and a true friend. We know too, our loss is her eternal gain. She professed religion and joined the Baptist church at Piney Creek about twenty-five years ago, and a little more than two years ago she moved her membership from that church and united with the C. P. church at Piney Fork where she remained a faithful and consistent member until her death.

The funeral services were conducted at Piney Fork, Monday, Jan. 15th, by the writer after which she was laid to rest in her family graveyard at Piney Fork to await that resurrection morn.

Her Pastor,
CARL C. BOUCHER.

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. J. G. Rochester entertained a few friends in honor of Mrs. R. A. Rodgers, charming guest, Mrs. Wm. Elliott of Henderson, Friday evening with a 6 o'clock dinner. Those seated at the table besides the hostess and her two guests of honor named, were Mrs. O. M. James, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. S. M. Jenkins and Miss Ruby James. The menu was most tempting and served with true Kentucky hospitality. Mrs. Rochester who delights in a graciousness of manner, peculiarly her own, which has won the love of all who know her, was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Nannie, who is just home from Sayre College at Lexington.

BABOON AND FOUR MONKEYS ARE SUFFOCATED IN ATTIC

One baboon and four monkeys owned by Russell Hart, a carnival promoter, were suffocated yesterday in the attic of the residence of Mrs. Anna Stewart, 532 South Eighth street, when they overturned a stove.

The frantic shrieks of the imprisoned animals led to the discovery of the fire. Mrs. Stewart, unable to rescue them from flames and smoke, sounded alarm, but when the fire came it was too late. Hart had gone for some asbestos which intended to place about the stove to prevent a fire. The monkeys were valued at several hundred dollars. The property loss was trivial. —Louisville Times

Revenue Cutter Rescues Tank Steamer.

Wilmington, N. C. Jan. 17.—Having in tow the American tank steamer Northwestern, of Port Arthur the revenue cutter Itasha arrived at Southport today. The Northwestern was picked up help less at sea with her propeller gone, 55 miles southwest of Look-out Shoals. Capt. Berry of the Itasha reports that a storm was in progress at the time the steamer was located, but he finally succeeded in getting a line to her. The tug Lukenbach, which had been sent to assist the northwestern, arrived tonight and will tow her north. The steamer has a cargo of 28,000 barrels of oil. Capt. Berry reports that in his week's cruise he encountered a gale, the severity of which has not been exceeded along the North Carolina coast in sixteen years.

Five Billions Still Remain in Equitable Vaults.

New York, Jan. 20.—There is probably $5,000,000,000 in the vaults of the Mercantile Safe Deposit company, now covered up in the ruins of the burned Equitable building, according to an estimate made by W. B. Brenner, assistant treasurer of the Equitable Life Assurance society which controls the Mercantile concern.

Five billion dollars is nearly twice as much money as is in circulation in the United States. It would pay the national debt, and leave a balance greater than the combined fortunes of John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie and J. P. Morgan. If the five billion dollars were divided among the population of the United States, each person would get more than $50.

There are thousands of boxes in the vaults and the contents include stocks, bonds, securities, cash and jewelry, representing practically the entire assets of about 40,000 individuals, estates and corporations.

Another French Book of hours was sold for $7,200.

The marriage contract of Henry IV. of France and Marie de Medici, written in 1643, brought $50.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach. Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements — to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, HAYNES & TAYLOR, Marion, Ky.

Cardinal Gibbons Witness in Court.

Baltimore, Jan. 17.—For the first time in thirty years Cardinal Gibbons appeared in court as a witness today. He testified at Towson, Baltimore county, regarding the will of the late Joseph Friedenwald, disposing of an estate valued at $4,000,000. A caveat, filed by Moses Friedenwald, a son, alleges insanity as a ground for setting aside the will. The Cardinal said he had known Joseph Friedenwald for nearly thirty years and had never observed any signs of mental weakness.

KENTUCKY'S OFFERING.

It would be a dramatic incident in the history of this marvelous republic if Kentucky should contribute to the Hall of Fame in Washington, statues of Lincoln and Jefferson Davis as two of her most distinguished sons.

The history of Kentucky in the Confederacy was that of a divided house. There are families in Kentucky whose head went to the union and whose sons went to the Confederacy. The war between the states sometimes set brother against brother. W. C. P. Breckenridge had a brother who died a Union Soldier. In a small county in Kentucky a military company flourished before the war. The outbreak caused the company to divide in half—one-half, under the leadership of the captain, went south; the other half, with the first lieutenant in command, joined the Union forces. Both platoons were recruited to their full strength in that county. Later these two companies met in a fight at Lebanon.

Albert Sidney Johnson was a Kentuckian; so also was John C. Breckenridge.

The Crittendens went from Kentucky into the Union armies. In all the eastern counties of Kentucky, like in East Tennessee, there was an overwhelming Union sentiment, but in the great tablelands of the blue grass region and further to the west, for every Confederate there was probably a Unionist. Buckner, the last lieutenant-general of the Confederacy living, still moves about his farm in Hart county. His son, a West Pointer, is an officer in the armies of the United States.

Abraham Lincoln and General Helm married sisters. Helm was offered a high command in the Union army, but he lost his life under the stars and bars on the soil of Tennessee.

In Kentucky there is a monument to Lincoln. His home has been made a temple for patriots. The home of Jefferson Davis will be preserved.

We doubt that the plan of Kentucky's contributing a monument of Lincoln and one of Davis to the national temple of fame will be carried into effect, but if it were carried out it would be a thrilling climax to the civil war history of a state which gave gallant sons to both armies.—Commercial Appeal.

NO CAUSE TO DOUBT

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee.

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Reflux Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Reflux Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. A SENSATION IS NOW PROMISED Lively Testimony in Case of State Revenue Agents.

BOTH SIDES SEEM PREPARED

While Those Behind the Legislative Inquiry Declare They Will Be Able to Reveal Amazing Conditions, the Revenue Agents and Their Friends Say They Have Done Nothing to Cause Them to Shrink.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—Investigation of the state revenue agents, which was begun Monday, promises to bring out some of the liveliest testimony that has been heard in Frankfort for a long time. Those behind the investigation claim that they have some sensational testimony, which will disclose amazing conditions. The revenue agents and their friends say that they are not afraid of the investigation as they have done nothing of which they are ashamed. They also say that they have lively and sensational testimony that they will offer to offset the testimony that may be introduced against them.

The revenue agents say that the investigation will not be one-sided by any means, and that they propose to show a motive for the investigation. There promise to be several angles to the investigation and before it is finished it will involve many men and many measures. The present auditor does not want the office of auditor's agents abolished, although he is willing to have modifications in the existing law made. He does not want to give up the power to collect delinquent taxes by means of his agents and says that the agents are necessary, to a certain extent.

Be this as it may, the fight against the present system of auditor's agents is to be one to the death, and every effort is to be made to have the offices abolished, the middle ground not being considered. In the fight against the auditor's agents, the Louisville Times is taking a big part and has been leading with editorials attacking the system.

A bill will be followed in the senate this week that may solve the problem of how to elect prison commissioners. The bill proposes to have four commissioners, two to be elected at the present session of the legislature, by the legislature and two every two years thereafter, the law expressly stating that no commissioner shall be eligible to succeed himself. It is stated by the author of the bill, that this would give Finley Fogg, who is a candidate for commissioner, a chance to be elected at the present session, as he expected, and will give the other commissioners the remainder of their term, or two years more on the commission. It may be that both sides will accept this solution of the problem; at any rate the members of the legislature will be given a chance to vote for or against it.

Frank Kavanaugh, State Librarian, made his first real speech when he was nominated by the Democrats of the house and senate in joint caucus Thursday night. Mr. Kavanaugh, who has been librarian since the time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, is the most modest and diffident young man in the state, and he surprised everybody by making a speech after his nomination. It was not as though he was caught napping and was given an unexpected nomination. He has had ample time for preparation. He has been working for votes ever since the last caucus which nominated him, four years since, and he had them all corralled; that is all but six out of the 108, and the six really were for him. He was not content with a majority of the Democratic members of the two houses, but went after them all. He was nominated by acclamation, his opponent failing to get anybody to make the nomination against Mr. Kavanaugh.

No effort was made by the prison commission to have a nomination for prison commissioners made at the joint caucus and it is likely that those opposed to the governor appointing the commissioners will lay low and say nothing until the bill comes up in either the house or the senate. It was reported that Eli Brown and his friends would try to have the joint Democratic caucus nominate Finley Fogg for prison commissioner, he being a candidate and this being the term at which an election for that office is scheduled to be held.

But the prison commission seems to have given up the fight. They say they have not quit the contest and have merely adopted another plan of action. It is believed that a change in the method of electing the commissioners is certain, and there will not be any effort to prevent some change. Harvey McCutchen, a member of the commission, gave out a statement which indicated to many that he had quit the fight and would accept whatever was done. Mr. McCutchen says he has not quit, that he is standing by his guns and that he meant only what he said in his card. In that card he said he favored the election of the prison commissioners by the people, declaring that this was the method favored by the Democratic platform, which urged that the people be given a chance to say what they wanted.

In the makeup of the committee to which will be referred railroad bills, the railroads operating in Kentucky were given a black eye, as the men who compose the house and senate committees are known to be antagonistic to the railroad, or certainly not favorable to them. Time was when the railroads had committees favorable to them. In one session of the legislature, that of 1908, not a meeting of the railroad committee in either house ever was held during the entire session, and not a single railroad bill was reported.

But it is to be different this year. In the house of the chairman of the railroad committee is Representative Williams, who was a conductor on the C. & O. railroad and one of the leading members of the trainmen's union. He comes to the legislature pledged to try to establish certain reforms in railroad laws, and will try to have enacted a new employers' liability law which will help those injured in railroad accidents.

Leut. Gov. McDermott, presiding officer of the senate, sprang a new one on the senate last week that has caused more talk than anything that has happened during the present session. He proposed to have the senate adopt a rule providing for the formal and ceremonious entrance of the presiding officer and his staff, the working force of the senate. He suggested that every morning the employees of the senate gather in the private office of the lieutenant governor, and at the hour appointed to call the senate to order, the procession start for the senate chamber. The sergeant at arms was to lead the way, followed by the presiding officer of the senate and with the clerk and assistant clerks following. The sergeant at arms was to announce to the senate:

"The lieutenant governor of Kentucky, the presiding officer of the senate, is about to enter with his retinue."

The senators then were to stand with heads bowed while the lieutenant governor entered and took his seat. This plan did not meet with the approval of those senators to whom it was mentioned, and the proposed resolution was not offered in the senate. Gov. McDermott was serious in making the suggestion, but did not mean to convey that he thought he was better than the members of the senate. He merely wanted all the decorum necessary carried out in the senate.

The senate was all stirred up by reason of adoption of a rule to exclude lobbyists from the floor of the senate. The rule was so drastic that everybody was excluded. The way it applied was shown by a conversation which was had between a senator and Finley Fogg, a member of the prison commission. The senator complained that more ministers had not attended the senate session to open the proceedings with prayer. Mr. Fogg said:

"The reason they don't attend, is because your old rules are so strict they can't get in."

When two of the state officials were refused admission to the senate floor and the clerk of the house also was denied admission, there was a storm of protest and the senators went to work to amend the stringent rule. Dr. C. F. Creel, the Secretary of State, was denied admission when he went to the senate with commissions of notaries public, to have the appointments confirmed by the senate. The rule excluding lobbyists from the floor of the senate still prevails but the rule has been so modified as to permit state officials and former members of the legislature to enter.

The adoption of the rules in the house was marked by the first clash of the administration and anti-administration forces, an outcropping of the race for the speakership. In this fight the speaker was defeated by the man who was his opponent. The followers of Harry Schoberth, of Woodford county, united with the Republicans to beat the rule in the house requiring two-thirds of those present voting in favor of a change to amend the rules or suspend the order of business. Mr. Schoberth opposed the two-thirds rule wanting it left so that a majority could change the order as between the men classed as strictly administration and those known as insurgents.

Kentucky is to have a new mansion for the governor if a bill offered by Representative Hamilton, of Frankfort county, is passed. The bill, one of the first introduced, appropriates $75,000 for the erection of a mansion and specifies that the mansion shall be located on the ground adjoining the capitol.

HOME TELEPHONE CO.

Makes important extensions to its Comprehensive Toll System.

The Home Telephone Company has just completed extensions which places it in position to give its patrons splendid, commercial service to the following places:

Murray, Ky.; Brookport, Ill.; Barlow, Ky.; LaCenter, Ky.; Cairo, Ill.; Mound City, Ill.; Mounds, Ill.

It will be profitable, Mr. Business Man, to use the service to these places. It's fine.

Other extensions are under construction and will be completed at an early date.

Seventy-five thousand subscribers' stations are now connected with the Home Long Distance system within the borders of Kentucky.

Stops Train Dispute

Paralytic Stroke.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 23.—What might have been a terrible railroad accident was narrowly averted near Kingston Spring when the train crew, upon investigating an unusually long stop, found Engineer J. H. McGriff, of this city, unconscious at his post. His last act was to turn off the steam and apply the airbrakes. He had a semi-stroke of apoplexy and his condition continues critical.

.35 Feet of Snow,

North Sydney, N. F., Jan. 22.—Reports have reached here of a blizzard in Newfoundland which is said to be the worst that the colony has ever known. In some districts the snow is said to be 35 feet deep. All traffic is at a standstill and telegraph systems are demoralized. The Anglican church at Little River is reported to have been blown down, and a train of five cars blown from the track. Fears are entertained here for the missing Nova Scotia Steel & Coal company's steamer Wobun, which sailed for St. Johns, N. F., last Tuesday. She should have made the trip in five hours.

Once Quite Enough.

"Did you ever," said one preacher to another, "stand at the door after your sermon and listen to what people said about it as they passed out?" Replied he: "I did once—a pause and a sigh—but I'll never do it again."

Burns to Death in Private Car.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 20.—Guy Stewart, agricultural and industrial agent of the Cotton Belt railroad with headquarters in St. Louis, was burned to death in his private car in a wreck in which trains of three different roads collided at Kelso, Mo., 140 miles south of St. Louis.

The accident occurred at the west end of the yards at the Thebes bridge. When the Cotton Belt train to which Stewart's car was attached, reached the yards it was obliged to stop. A few minutes later an Iren Mountain freight crashed into the Cotton Belt train, which in turn telescoped a Chicago and Eastern freight. Stewart's car was burned. No one else was seriously injured.

WEEKLY FRANKFORT LETTER.

(By Hon. M. F. POGUE.)

Dear Marshall:

We have just closed the third week's labor. Only one bill passed by either house so far, that being the "county unit bill" which was passed by the House of Rep., by a vote of 70 to 19. This was by far the poorest showing that the whiskey and beer forces have ever made; while it looks like a hard fight in the senate. I feel that a majority of that body will stand by the plain declaration of a sovereign people as expressed in both party platforms. Every body who knows any thing at all about politics, is bound to know that the "present county unit law" is the only county unit law we have now, and is the one which both parties meant when they declared for its extension, so in my mind to except a nomination on a platform so explicit and then refuse to carry it out, is party Treason to say the least of it. It would indeed be a great relief to all the parties, politically and individually, and a great saving to the taxpayers of the state to pass the county unit bill and hear of it no more forever.

We elected Ollie again this week, it making the second time, owing to ambiguity of the law; but we all feel like Ollie's good friend W. J. Bryan does about it, that if there ever was "one who deserved electing twice it is Ollie James." I could not attend the Home Coming entertainment to our new Senator, much to my regret, as the county unit bill was scheduled for that day, but I feel that his many friends did him all the honors possible.

The Senate Tried to change its iron clad rules so as to allow ex-members the privilege of the floor, the vote was a tie and the doughty little Lieut. Governor voted NO. If any of the "interests" ever dreamed that Edward McDormott would be "easy," they reckoned without their hosts; because the Democratic platform is to him a sacred compact between the party of Jefferson and Jackson, and the sturdy confiding people of the commonwealth.

There is much good roads talk but nothing tangible yet; every measure so far proposed is receiving criticism.

Redistricting of any kind reflects only a faint shadow which has but little show ever to become a substance. If either political party were to turn the matter over to the other to adjust as it pleased even without a request or protest, I feel that the selfishness of the politician in office, and their friends could never agree how to divide the spoils with the fellow who had aspirations for the future.

NEW SALEM.

The coldest weather we have had in twenty-five years.

Travel of all kinds have been stopped for three weeks.

The snow was from ten to twelve feet deep.

No farm work done except keeping up fires.

J. A. Mahan has two sick children.

Miss Marion Richards is teaching out the winter term of the New Salem school. Her sister, Miss Maude taught until Christmas.

The farmers who owned sheep tells us that 75 per cent of the lambs born have frozen to death.

Mrs. Ode Conyer has been quite sick for the past ten days.

Scores of birds have perished during the zero weather.

One of our neighbors found a bunch of quails huddled in the snow, and he walked two miles to borrow a wagon sheet to throw over them so he could capture the whole layout. He made the throw and the last bird escaped. We did not hear what he said and are glad we did not.

Bro. Boucher failed to fill his last appointment at New Salem on account of the blizzard.

The water wagon started out Jan. 1st., loaded down to the guard and had it not been for the three weeks' zero weather just past, we believe 50 per cent of the load would still be on board; but alas, that three weeks did the work. They fell off from one to five every time the wagon encountered a snow drift until the wagon was empty except one old gray headed cuss, and he is sitting astride of the rounds of the wagon and swears he will stick on until she gets to Alaska.

Our old friend Maj. James Smppskins happened to a very painful accident during the last cold spell. He fell and broke his cheek bone. He says he will soon be up again. Better be a little careful, Major.

Tom Burklow has moved to the widow White's farm for this year.

We were glad to see our old friend Sam Wolford out on Broadway the other day.

About two-thirds of the tobacco sold and delivered at fancy prices.

Bee Cloyd has moved to the Herrigus place near Crooked Creek bridge. T. L. Gass and wife, of Cairo, Ill., who have been visiting W. H. Thurman and family, left Saturday for their home. Mr. Gass is a night-watch at A. B. Fisher's factory.

W. E. Fritts has moved in his new house.

Our school closed Friday at Brown schoolhouse. Miss Jennie Clement taught a good school.

Miss Minnie Corley closed her school Friday at Oak Grove.

Hiram Horning visited Santford Stephens Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Reed died Jan. 18th, after a short illness. She leaves a small baby.

Joseph Hurst and family visited his brother, Victor Hurst, last week.

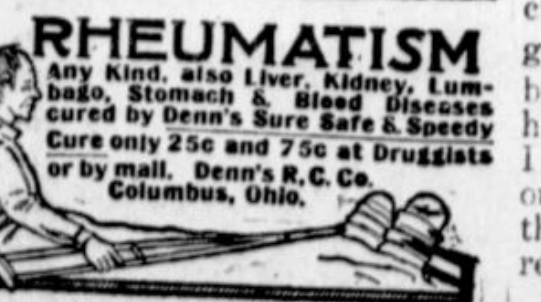

Alley Fritts, a son of Henry G. Fritts, died Monday Jan. 15th, with spinal meningitis.

Charlie Paris will move his saw mill to Ike Myers' farm shortly.

W. C. Carnahan received a telegram Saturday stating that his father, the venerable George Carnahan, was seriously ill. He and his family left at once for Blackford, the home of his parents, to attend his father's bedside. Letters received by friends in the city state the elder Mr. Carnahan is affected with something akin to blood poisoning in one of his legs, and his family are quite uneasy about him.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers, who for several months have stopped at the Gill House, leave this week for Louisville. Mrs. Myers came to this city a stranger but found herself among the surroundings of her ancestors. A Tennessean by birth, her maiden name was Bigham and her father, who was a first cousin of Rev. James Bigham, of Florida, was a graduate of Old Cumberland college of Princeton, where many of our forefathers were in school. The ancestral home of the Bigham family is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins.

Mrs. Mary A. Jenkins of Ed-dyville, who had been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Smith in Atlanta, Ga., during November and December arrived here Friday to be the guest of her son, S. M. Jenkins. She came from Atlanta via Louisville to attend the Silver Jubilee of the Rev. Mother Superior, of Sisters of Mercy and was their guests for two weeks within the sacred walls of St. Catherine's Convent, on East Broadway in that city.

HEATH-RITCH.

W. R. Heath and Miss Linnie Ritch, of the Weston section, were united in marriage at high noon, Wednesday Jan. 24th, by Rev. W. T. Oakley.

The handsome young couple were accompanied by Marvin A. Truitt and Miss Gustava Ritch. After the ceremony all returned to their homes.

The groom is a son of Powell Heath, and the bride is a daughter of Berre Ritch, and both are popular where known. Much joy go with them.

Lillydale School Closed.

Our school closed Jan. 19th, 1912, and those who were present seemed to enjoy themselves very much. We had some good spelling and excellent essays from the smaller scholars. The monthly grades have shown up well. This speaks well for the teacher and pupils.

Miss Sue Moore, our teacher, who is well up to teaching, has taught us a good school. We hope she will ever be crowned with success.

The trustee and some of the patrons were present, and gave a talk at the close of the exercises. The school closed with good interest. We would have been glad if Miss Moore could have taught another month for us. I will close with best wishes to our ex-teacher, and Editor of the Record-Press and its many readers.

Wind 35 Miles an Hour, Snow Four Feet Deep, Weather 24 Below Zero.

Wellsford, Kansas, Jan. 18, 1912
Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

We have had the worst snow I ever saw, this snow began falling the 19th of Dec. and is still on the ground from 3 to 4 inches deep and there was a week that it registered from zero to 24 below and wind 35 miles an hour you may bet it made everything hunt for shelter. Feed is awful short, I fear stock will get hungry before grass comes next spring. Please find post order for $1.00 for this post.

Respectfully,
I. N. Young
