The Hoppers are of the tilting type, and the plates can be changed without emptying the seed. Heavy, case-hardened clutch. Don't fail to talk planters with us before buying.

Canton Disc Harrow

You can't go wrong in buying the Canton. It's one of those old reliables, good as gold, and stronger than anything else of the kind made.

Two levers, always within reach, and you can run each gang at a different angle if you wish. Has hard maple bearings, oil-soaked, easily and cheaply replaced when they wear out. The bearings are also dust-proof. Heavy T bar arch; it will not bend and there is no danger of straining it. The manufacturers back it up with an unqualified guarantee. That shows what they think of it—and that's why we sell it; it is the best one we can buy.

Girls

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sick for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss CECILIA M. BAUER, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

"I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss MINNIE SHAEVER, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything.

"I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person. "I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss ELLA McCANDLESS, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Robs Dead Body of a Gold Watch.

Covington, Ky., Feb. 20.—Just after an unidentified man had been struck and killed on the L. & N. road, near the south end of the Eleventh street bridge, a stranger slipped out from between two cars, ran to the body before anyone else reached it and stole a watch from the dead man's pocket.

The story was substantiated by the fact that the watch was gone and the chain was hanging loose when the body was taken to Sweetmann's morgue.

Dear Sir:—Please send me the Crittenden Record-Press, and also have the Princeton Leader sent to me for one year.

I was reared in the house directly on the line between Crittenden and Caldwell counties, consequently both papers shine with equal luster in our home, and some times I am almost persuaded that they out shine "The Garden West."

HER 21 SONS SAW THE PLAY

A Whole Row Was Occupied in a London Theatre by One Family.

London.—An elderly woman entered the dress circle of the Kennington Theatre the other night and quietly took her seat in the centre of the row. Her hair was silver gray, her face ruddy and strong, though sweet. With her were two men.

Presently other men came in and grouped themselves around her. They came in such numbers that the audience could not but notice and wonder. By the time the curtain rose the little party numbered twenty-two.

The woman was Mrs. Corfield of Lincolnshire, and the men were her twenty-one sons, four of whom wore His Majesty's uniform. She sat through the performance, and none was more ready and generous with her applause than the smiling woman with the benign yet forceful face.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Where They Get On.

Some time ago a German was riding out on the Hill City branch of the Union Pacific. Paradise, Kan., is on that branch. The German afterwards remarked: "Vat kind of a country is this, nohow? Ven the drain reached one town, the brakeman yelled Paradise, and no one got off. Purty soon he yelled Hell City, and everybody gets off."—Kansas City Journal.

A GREAT DISCOVERY

Certain Ingredients That Really Promote Hair Growth when Properly Combined.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment, and also creates a clean, healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin, although not a coloring matter of dye, is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color, when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp.

These ingredients in proper combination, with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well-defined nourishing properties, perhaps the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles.

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients, in combination with other extremely invaluable medical agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff, and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any vitality left in the roots, it will positively cure baldness, or we will refund your money. If the scalp has a glazed, shiny appearance, it's an indication that baldness is permanent, but in other instances we believe baldness is curable.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93 per cent of cases where put to practical test.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike, and we think, in every particular, better than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Marion only at our store—The Rexall Store. GIRL SCALDS TO DEATH

Four-Year-Old Fell Into Tub of Water.

Paris, Tenn., Feb. 19.—Mary, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Sparks, fell into a tub of scalding water at the family residence yesterday. Although her entire body was scalded, the clothing sticking to the flesh, she lived several hours and remained conscious, asking for medicine to relieve the intense suffering. The remains were interred at Cottage Grove burying ground today.

AVOID HARSH DRUGS

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subjected to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing, and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principle ingredient is odorless, tasteless, colorless. Combined with other well-known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge, nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons, and aged people, as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in three size packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store.

Five million four hundred thousand dollars for improvements in the Ohio river is the second largest item in the rivers and harbors appropriation bill for the new fiscal year. It was completed Saturday by the house committee. It carries a total of only $25,965,010. The smallest amount since 1894.

Invitation to Signers of Recent Petition.

The petition recently circulated bearing upon the heating and ventilating of the Marion city school was signed by seventy six citizens of Marion and vicinity. The heating plant has been inadequate as every one knows. The fact that school closed for a week on account of cold weather is proof to the public that the heating plant was not working well. As to the other object of the petition the public is not so well informed. Out of the whole seventy-six who signed the petition, not one has ever been inside the schoolhouse to investigate the ventilation; not one has ever discussed the problem with the superintendent with a view to improvement over the system employed. If any of the signers have studied schoolroom ventilation, they have never given the superintendent or any of the teachers the benefit of that knowledge.

We welcome constructive criticism, that is, the criticism that carries with it a remedy for the fault indicated. But when a body of teachers have been accused of "Reckless exposure of the pupils to the elements," as charged in the petition, it does seem that the better part of wisdom would prompt an investigation before signing and filing such a petition. But since it is signed and filed, I want to repeat an invitation that was first given, the morning school opened, Sep. 5, 1910. That invitation has been repeated a score of times since. That is this: all patrons and all friends of the school at any time and thus cooperate with the teachers, so that we shall be of mutual assistance in the common cause of education. I want to repeat it in the hope that more parents will visit the school and see things for themselves. I want to repeat it too, because none who signed the petition had ever come to visit and investigate, nay even, some signed it who have not been inside the school house since I have been here. not even to a public entertainment. Others signed it who have not had a child in school since I have been here. Still others signed it without reading it or knowing its terms. The petition promised that its signers "will be glad to help".

How much will each give to install sanitary closets and thus protect the health of the pupils? How much will each give to make the physical surroundings of the child equal in excellence to his training and course of study?

We know the problem of ventilation is a big one; but it is one that cannot be dodged. We must either ventilate or suffocate. With all the "reckless exposure to the elements" how many epidemics have we had among school children during the last two years? How does the health of your child at school compare with the health of your child at home? How can one tell where another's cold is contracted? Think seriously of these questions and remember the invitation; come and see for yourselves.

Yours for better health,
— Jas. U. Snyder,
Sup. City Schools.

LIFE'S CLOSE

For Valentine Dorr—Good Man
And Prominent Citizen Passes Away.

R. F. Dorr, the furniture dealer and undertaker, received news last week of the death of his brother at Princeton. The Princeton Leader has this to say of him.

Mr. Dorr was a lifelong citizen of Caldwell county. He was a member of the Christian church at Lewistown, and was seventy-six years of age.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Nancy Blacklock, who died in 1870. His second was Miss America McElroy, who died in 1897. Of thirteen children, eight survive. A rare attraction is An Every-day Girl, which comes to the Opera House on Monday night, March 4th. The play is a love story, so dear to womankind, but told in a manner entirely new to the stage; told with a powerful effect but without offense, in speech, act, or innuendo and abounding in the little human touches that awaken sympathy and bring the spectators into confidential relation with some appreciable measure of the happy truth of life. The play is from the pen of Thomas Hopkins. In this work Mr. Hopkins has made intelligent use of the salient points of his subject, skillfully adjusting the widely contrasting relations of the dominant persons of the group and so arranging the action that the play moves with reassuring celerity.

"I WILL ACCEPT!" SAYS COL. ROOSEVELT

Mighty Boom For Teddy to be Launched. Platform as Well as Nomination Involved.

New York, Feb. 26. — "I will accept the nomination for President if it is tendered me, and I will adhere to this decision until the convention has expressed its preference" is Col. Theodore Roosevelt's reply to the letter of seven Republican Governors asking him to stand for nomination.

The eagerly awaited reply was given out tonight at Col. Roosevelt's offices here during his absence on a trip for Boston. It was unexpectedly brief, but definite. It follows:

New York, Feb. 24, 1912. — Gentlemen: I deeply appreciate your letter, and I realize to the full the heavy responsibility it puts upon me, expressing as it does the carefully considered convictions of the men elected by popular vote to stand as the heads of Government in their several States.

I absolutely agree with you that this matter is not one to be decided with any reference to the personal preferences or interests of any man, but purely from the standpoint of the interests of the people as a whole.

I will accept the nomination for President if it is tendered to me, and I will adhere to this decision until the convention has expressed its preference. One of the chief principles for which I have stood and for which I now stand, and which I have always endeavored and always shall endeavor to reduce to action is the genuine rule of the people, and therefore, I hope that so far as possible the people may be given the chance through direct primaries, to express their preference as to who shall be the nominee of the Republican presidential convention. Very Truly Yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Seven Western Governors assembled at Chicago two weeks ago and drafted a letter to Col. Roosevelt, asserting that there was a popular demand for him to be President again, and urging him to declare himself as to whether he would accept the Republican nomination, if "it came unsolicited and unsought."

Buy at Home.

Down in Oklahoma the other day a man went into a store to buy a saw. He saw the kind he wanted and asked the price. It was $1.65 the dealer said.

"Good gracious," said the man, "I can get the same thing from Sears, Roebuck & Co. for $1.25."

"That's less than it cost me," said the dealer, "but I'll sell it on the same terms as the mail-order house—just the same."

"All right," said the customer. "You can send it along and charge it to my account."

"Not on your life," the dealer replied. "No charge accounts. You can't do business with the mail-order house that way. Fork over the cash."

The customer complied.

"Now two cents for postage and three cents for money order."

"What—"

"Certainly, you have to send a letter and a money order to a mail-order house you know."

The customer inwardly raving kept to his agreement and paid the nickel.

"Now 25 cents expressage."

"Well I'll be—" he said but paid it saying: "Now hand me that saw and I'll take it home myself and be rid of the foolery."

"Hand it to you? Where do you think you are? You're in Oklahoma and I'm in Chicago and you'll have to wait two weeks for that saw."

Whereupon he hung the saw upon the peg and put the money in the cash drawer.

"That makes $1.67," he said.

"It has cost you two cents more and taken two weeks longer to get it than if you had paid my price in the first place."

An Everyday Girl, which appears at the Opera House, Monday evening, March 4, is well acted by a capable cast including Miss Bisnette in the role of Rose Norton, about whom the story of the play is woven. The play is teemed a romantic comedy drama, and while it is true that many scenes reach hysterical depths of emotion, it is happily relieved by an original vein of mirthful comedy, banishing an otherwise sombre tone, and relieving the heavy East Lynnhish atmosphere one might expect. The play is well stayed, and the scenic environment is both pleasing and attractive.

THE HALL OF FAME.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON—first secretary of the treasury and Federalist leader.

Born in the West Indies, Jan. 11, 1757; died New York July 12, 1804. Description of a West Indian hurricane attracted favorable notice and obtained him education in New York. Pamphlets against the British made him a figure among the patriots. Was a member of Washington's staff in the Revolution; also participated in the capture of Yorktown. Wrote most of the Federalist papers and led for a strong central government in the constitutional convention. Washington's first secretary of the treasury, in which position he exhibited genius in organizing the nation's finances. Started the protective tariff system. Blocked Aaron Burr's plans and was killed by Burr in a duel.

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Physicians Lack Knowledge.

By GEORGE W. COTTIS.

We may provide all the restriction we wish, we may provide hospitals and enact laws, but we are making bricks without straw unless we provide for fundamental, early diagnosis. I am not afraid to say that 75 per cent of the practicing physicians in New York today are unable to diagnose incipient tuberculosis, that a majority of them do not correctly diagnose even quite advanced cases and that some do not make a proper diagnosis even after death. So it will be a step in advance if we can procure expert physicians to examine patients in each county without expense. And if we can have early diagnosis by these expert physicians, these expert diagnosticians, the smaller counties of the state will be greatly benefited, for they are sadly in need of such assistance.

Philosophic Tea.

The famous Adam Smith had all the proverbial absentmindedness of the philosopher. An amusing story of him is told in Mr. Fyvie's book, "Noble Dames and Notable Men of the Georgian Era." "Mr. Damer, it appears, called one morning upon the Scottish philosopher just as he was preparing his breakfast. As they talked the learned man took a piece of bread and butter in his hand and, after rolling it round and round, popped it into his teapot and poured the boiling water upon it. Damer watched with quiet amusement without drawing attention to this peculiar proceeding, and presently he had his reward, for when Adam Smith poured himself out a cup of this queer decoction and tasted it he quite innocently remarked to his visitor that it was the worst tea he had ever met with."

Unjustly Accused.

Andrew Carnegie, when talking about the Scotch dialect once, said: "Scotch dialect is a lingo hard to understand, and it often causes awkward mistakes. Once an American divine spent Christmas in a highland inn. On Christmas morning he gave the maid a tip of a sovereign, and he said, looking earnestly at her, for she was a pretty maid:

"Do you know, Kathleen, you are a very good looking lassie?"
"Of course Kathleen was pleased, but, being modest, she blushed like a rose and answered:

"Ah, na! Ah, na! But my kissing, sir, is beautiful!"

"The divine frowned.
"Leave the room, you wicked young baggage!" he said sternly.
"He didn't know, you see, that most Kathleen had been simply praising in her highland dialect the superior charms of her cousin Janet of Peebles."

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—A plan to raise a fund of $10,000,000 for the support of aged clergymen of the Presbyterian church may be the outcome of a conference which is being held between a sub-committee of the general assembly and the board of managers of the fund for the support of ministers more than 70 years old.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. The Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Dr. J. C. Smith's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting on the blood and removing the cause of the disease, and curing the patient without building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100,000 Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MINE OWNERS PROTEST.

Arbitrary Allotment of Cars the Cause of the Kick.

Madisonville, Ky., Feb. 28.—Because of the rating placed on their output by the Illinois Central Railroad Company, Western Kentucky coal operators are complaining. The new rating, giving the assumed output of mines along the road, is the basis for the grievance. It greatly reduces the number of cars to be furnished mines in western Kentucky, all the mines on this division of the road, with one or two exceptions, having been reduced. It is said that some of the reductions run as high as 43 per cent that of the Greenville Coal Company being reduced that figure. One big company was reduced from 2,100 tons per day to 1,500.

The matter of the right of the railroad thus to fix the output of the mines by limited the supply of cars will be called to the attention of the Kentucky railroad commission.

FACTS AND FICTION

Experiences of Marion Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Marion is true. Read it and compare evidence from Marion people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Marion, will endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Emma Weldon, Salem St., Marion, Ky., says: "Kidney trouble annoyed me for five years and greatly affected my health. My back was lame and pained me most of the time. I had headaches and often could hardly see. None of the remedies I tried gave me any benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store. The effect of this remedy was marvelous, as in two months I was free from kidney trouble. My only regret is that I did not hear of Doan's Kidney Pills sooner, as it would have saved me much expense and misery."

We Live Too Fast for Diaries.
"When the inner history of the crisis is told by the private diaries of the day," remarks the "Observer," in reference to the rather amusing political situation of the moment. Well, we stop there with the query: Is there a private diary? Is there a man in this hurried age who goes home and sits down, tired with action, faces the splendid industry of the diary, and makes it up?—London Chronicle.

Chest pains and a dry, hacking cough should be treated with BAL-LARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP taken internally, and a HERRICK'S RED PEPER POROUS PLASTER applied to the chest. Buy the dollar size Horehound Syrup; you get a Porous Plaster free with each bottle. Sold by Jas. H. Orme.

Water in the Desert.
Yapp, the English naturalist, who has explored the mountain ranges of the Malay peninsula, reports the fact, not generally known, that in several species of bamboo the hollow internodes—the parts of the stems between the joints—are stored with large quantities of naturally filtered water. The knowledge of this fact might be of great service in an emergency.

When BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is rubbed in rheumatic aches and pains, it reaches the spot quickly and the relief is very gratifying. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Jas. H. Orme.

Pony's Longing for Home.
Three years ago a woman farmer in Wales sold a pony to her son, who resides some twenty-five miles away between Rhuddlan and Rhyi. The pony has for the third time found its way back to its former home, manning to unfasten two gates in order to do so.

SENTIMENT OF COUNTRY SHOWN

Editorial Comment Proves Woodrow Wilson Is Almost Unanimous Choice for President.

GROWS STRONGER EVERY DAY

Democratic Party Has Opportunity of Signaling Its Return to Power With the Election of an Ideal Chief Executive.

Significant Missouri Comment.
Independence (Mo.) Examiner—The Clinton Democrat remarks: "Many Missourians would be glad to see Champ Clark President; others would prefer Jos. W. Folk; but if the nomination has to leave this State nine out of ten Missouri Democrats would prefer Gov. Woodrow Wilson. This is very significant."

Sinister Purpose Apparent.
Raleigh (N. C.) News-Observer—When you read a New York paper complimenting some Southern man or State for "Conservatism" in the same article that it opposes Woodrow Wilson, it may be well to look and see to what party and business interest the aforesaid paper belongs.

Michigan for Wilson.
Marquette (Mich.) Minn. Journal—The New Jersey candidate has a big following among the Democrats of Michigan and stands a fair show of having the Wolverine delegation in the National convention ranged behind his banner.

Wisconsin Seeing the Light.
Milwaukee (Wis.) Journal—Just go ahead and nominate Taft, with Wilson the opposing candidate, and see what happens to the Grand Old Party right here in Wisconsin. There'll be the worst grade-crossing horror that ever happened north of Neenah.

See Wilson as Next President.
Roswell (N. M.) Record—The Republican newspapers are afraid of Woodrow Wilson for 1912 and their fear is made manifest in a variety of ways. Since the election of last week when New Jersey did not do so well as it might have done, these papers have taken occasion to renew their attacks on Wilson. But, nevertheless, Woodrow Wilson will be elected president of the United States next year.

His Worth Recognized.
Long Branch (N. J.) Record—Pictures of great men adorn the editorial sanctum of Editor H. P. Bennett at the Press office. There you will find photos of statesmen of the past, present and future. Governor Wilson, of course, is in the limelight. Instead of putting Wilson's name under the portrait he has placed there these words: "A Man."

General Trend Toward Wilson.
Winder (Ga.) News—According to the sentiment of the country, as shown by interviews in newspapers as well as editorials, the trend toward the nomination of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for the presidency is growing stronger every day.

They Are Afraid of Him.
Ottawa (Kan.) Republican—It is a significant fact that the Taft newspapers all have a special antipathy for Woodrow Wilson. They make a prominent display of every item of news that seems to favor any other candidate for the Democratic nomination. Wonder why?

Wilson Boom Overshadows All.
Boston (Mass.) Traveler—The Woodrow Wilson boom nowadays is making several other presidential detentions sound like muffled poptons.

Would Draw From Republicans.
Fresno (Cal.) Herald—The nomination of a man like Woodrow Wilson on the Democratic ticket will bring to its support all the really progressive strength of the Republican party.

People for Wilson.
Huntsville (Ala.) Times—Woodrow Wilson is the most favorably talked of presidential candidate in the running. This is because the people are for him.

Highest Type of Democrat.
Houston (Tex.) Chronicle—Signs are multiplying on every side that Woodrow Wilson is the best man for the Democrats to put up, because he is the highest type of Democrat, an American of the character and caliber of the country's elder statesmen whose names illuminate the pages of our history.

Appeals to Thinking People.
Springfield (Vt.) Reporter—Governor Woodrow Wilson recently said in a public address: "The immediate thing we have got to do is to resume popular government." Irrespective of past party affiliations, or party prospects, this is a pronouncement that will appeal strongly to a great many thinking people. Is it one that the Republican leaders in Vermont and elsewhere can afford to ignore?

And He Has Something to Say.
Knoxville (Tenn.) Sentinel—An exchange is perturbed with fear that Woodrow Wilson may talk too much. The veiled meaning of this hint is that it is wiser for a candidate to whisper his attitude to the trusts than to take the public into his confidence. However, we can see no objection to public discussion so long as one has anything to say.

WILSON'S CAREER AN INSPIRATION

Young Men of the Country May Well Look Up to Him as Master of His Calling.

AS EDUCATOR AND EXECUTIVE

In Particular, His Record as the Governor of New Jersey Shows Him Worthy of Highest Position in the Gift of the People.

It would be hard to find a school boy over the age of twelve years who has not heard of the name of Woodrow Wilson.

Woodrow Wilson was born in Staunton, Virginia, December 28th, 1856. His father was the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson and one of the most influential churchmen of the south.

At the age of two years his father moved to Augusta, Georgia, where he took charge of one of the largest and most influential churches in the south. Augusta was then a city of about 15,000 inhabitants, and it was here that the boyhood of the future governor of New Jersey and president of Princeton was spent.

Rev. Wilson moved to Columbia, South Carolina, in the Autumn of 1870 and became a teacher in the Southern Theological Seminary which position he held for four years. Woodrow continued to attend school, but most of his training was under the direct supervision of his father, and in spite of his late years to start at books he soon qualified for college and at seventeen he was sent to Davidson College, North Carolina.

Princeton Training Valuable.
In the autumn of 1875 he entered Princeton, where he graduated with the class of 1879. His going north to college was fortunate, for it gave him at an impressionable age an opportunity to understand the northern, as well as the southern, point of view.

In the autumn of 1885 he was called to the chair of history and political economy in Bryn Mawr College. This he held for three years, when he was called to a similar position in Wesleyan University. He remained there two years and was called to his alma mater, Princeton, as professor of jurisprudence and political economy. Later in 1902 he was elected president of Princeton—the second oldest university in the United States. He took his Ph. D. degree on examination in 1886, submitting as his thesis "Congressional Government." This is considered the highest degree conferred by institutions of learning.

When Dr. Wilson came to the presidency of Princeton he had been known as a scholar, author and public speaker, but he was untested as an executive.

In his presidential office he carried out the idea of leadership which he pronounced in his first book, and has held ever since, in office and out of office. He proposed something at Princeton that was a radical change from the old way; it was the complete reorganization of the university in such a way as to bring into daily communication and companionship representatives of all classes and of the faculty. The proposal was against the tradition of Princeton, for it lent toward breaking up the self-elective clubs. "It sounded a startling note of democracy and pointed out broad ways by which the youth of the country could be brought up for the service of the country."

Young Men Look Up to Him.
Woodrow Wilson has been an inspiration to many young men who have looked up to him as a master of his calling—always helpful to others, as individuals and as a body politic. He copies after no one and individual thought is traceable in every essay and book that he wrote, but always regardless of the rights of others. The reforms he has inaugurated since he has been governor of New Jersey—probably the worst corporation-ridden state in the union—has put him prominently before the world. All over the country thoughtful men are writing and saying that he will be the Democratic nominee for the presidency when the convention convenes next summer. He is by nature and adaptation the fittest man for that office to be found in the United States.

This section was visited by one of the worst floods in ten years, Sunday evening. Considerable damage to fences.

When the curtain rises on the first act of An Everyday Girl, which is the attraction at the Opera House next Monday evening, March 4th, you will instantly be struck with the loveliness of the scene, as well as the pretty naturalness. The quaint old grandmother sorting her washing, the shiftless colored lady helping her, and the happy-go-lucky boy Johnnie, are all introduced at once to act as a background for Rose Norton, the girl about whom the story of the play is centered, and is so creditably pictured by Miss Bisnette. The love story of the play is very strong and forms the groundwork of the plot, thus making it simple and direct, strongly emotional, with intense dramatic situations. The play so abounds with comedy of a wholesome natural style. In fact An Everyday Girl is just what you want to see.

R. A. McDaniel of Irma was here Friday and bought a nice, new organ from Yates Bros. for his son who has quite a talent, it is said for music. That's right, friend McDaniel, give the boy a chance in music.

Thief Takes $10,000 in Jewelry.

New York, Feb. 14.—A frightened woman rushed into an uptown police station to report that a robber came into her husband's jewelry store on Stanton street shortly before midnight, as she was about to lock up for the night and got away with $10,000 worth of cash and jewelry.

The robber entered and said he wanted to "look over some baby rings." Mrs. Markham showed him several and was about to wrap up the one he selected, when the fellow drew a revolver, caught her by the throat and locked her up in a rear room. A few minutes later she broke out, but the man had escaped with the contents of the safe. Her husband was away at the time.
