MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1912.

NO. 11.

A SON OF THE "OLD CRITTENDEN PRESS"

Wins Colorado Bride.

Hick Walker, Second Son of Hon. R. C. Walker, Founder of This Paper, Weds Miss Auldyn Lace, of Grand Junction.

At 8 o'clock this evening, at the lovely home of Dr. and Mrs. John J. Lace at 755 Chipeta avenue, the marriage of Attorney Robert Hickman Walker and Miss Jessie Auldyn Lace will be solemnized. It will be one of the prettiest home weddings occurring in Grand Junction this year.

There will be 90 guests, including quite a number of friends from out of the city.

Clergymen who will officiate will be Rev. John J. Lace, father of the bride, assisted by Rev. S. B. Warner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Grand Junction, and Rev. Dr. O. K. Maynard of Delta, an old friend of the Lace family.

The beautiful ring ceremony will be employed. Little Miss Kathryn Lace, sister of the bride, will be the ring bearer and little Misses Olga Gekkeler and Sarah Carroll will precede the couple and make a dainty ribbon aisle formed of gold and white.

Mr. O. K. Maynard, Jr., at the piano will render Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Kambrino-os-trow by Reubinstein.

The rooms of the pretty home will be decorated in gold and white, with palms and kindred plants.

The bride will wear embroidered Marquisette over ivory mesaline. There will be no attendants, other than the little girls.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper will be served, the tables being decorated in the prevailing colors of gold and white. Assisting in serving will be Misses Laura Lee, Ruth Marie Smith, Clarinda Gekkeler, Matilda Gekkeler, Gretchen DeLong and Evelyn Walker.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding will be Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Neill of Greeley, Colo., Dr. and Mrs. Maynard and O. K. and Donald Maynard of Delta, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin McMurry of Delta, Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Smith of Palisade, Mr. and Mrs. Halpin and daughter of Mack.

The young attorney and his attractive bride will reside at 357 Belford avenue, where they have in readiness a most cozily furnished home.

The marriage of this young couple will bring forth the good wishes of hundreds of friends in this and other cities, for long life and unalloyed happiness.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John J. Lace, Dr. Lace being the district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church for western Colorado. A young lady of sweet and amiable personality, Miss Lace is naturally well liked by all who know her. She is a Denver University girl and is a graduate of the State Normal School at Greeley. During the residence of the family in this city Miss Lace has been active and popular in local church musical and educational circles. Robert Hickman Walker is one

KELSEY HOTEL

At Fredonia Destroyed by Fire Thursday Night With Heavy Loss.

The Kelsey Hotel, a two-story frame building at Fredonia was destroyed by fire last night between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The loss to building, furniture, etc., amounted to about $6,500, with $2,500 insurance. It was the property of A. J. Lamb, who had been running the hotel the past year or so, and the loss falls heavily on him.

It is not known just how the fire originated, but was under good headway when discovered, and as a result, but very little of the contents of the building was saved.

A barber shop outfit on the ground floor was saved after hard work.

No damage was done to nearby buildings.

All the patrons of the hotel made their escape easily save Dr. Bunton, who had to escape by the means of a ladder placed at a second story window. Princeton Leader.

Tobacco Meeting at Salem.

It was my good pleasure fortune to be at Salem in company with Bro. J. D. Hodge on Saturday the 7th inst., we attended the Tobacco Meeting, and I was delighted to find the Union in such fine shape. There are one thousand and fifty-two acres in this pool for this season and many more pooling sheets out and others anxious to pool their tobacco.

The pool has run only three years, selling three crops of tobacco. They have bought and paid for their warehouse and have just declared a cash dividend of 34 per cent on stock. This is quite a good showing and should encourage the farmers to pool their tobacco and stand by each other in a business way. If they will only do this, and select good competent graders and be reasonable in their demands, attend strictly to their own business, as they have always done and never meddle with other people's business, they will be on the highway to success.

With best wishes for the "Record-Press" and entire office force, I am as ever your sincere well-wisher.—R.

of the younger members of the local legal fraternity. Grand Junction has been his home for some eight years, but following his graduation from the Law School of the Denver University he practiced law at Delta for several years before returning to Grand Junction to locate permanently for the practice of his profession.—Grand Junction, Colo., Herald.

MARION'S GREATEST ENTERPRISE.

The Marion Graded & High School Opened Last Monday By Professor Snyder With an Unusually Large Attendance.

BUILDING IS NOW IN FINE REPAIR.

After Scripture reading by Rev. Miller, Prayer by Rev. Price and music by the school orchestra, Prof. Snyder opened the fall term of the Marion Graded and High School, in the presence of an audience composed of patrons and pupils which completely filled the large auditorium.

Supt. Snyder's remarks as to the aims and aspirations of the management for the coming year were well received. He outlined the policy of the school and mentioned many improvements which the friends of the Graded and High School hope to see realized.

Judge Blue was called on and in the course of an interesting ten minutes speech he spoke of the great progress of the school and of the sanitary water works system which is to be installed soon, funds being in reserve for that purpose.

E. J. Travis, Supt. of county schools, assured the trustees and teachers that he was ready to assist in any way in his power and begged them to call on him whenever he could serve them.

Judge Pierce, one of the school's oldest patrons, made an interesting talk of Marion and the school. It was the school and its fine reputation and the reputation of Marion as well which brought him and his splendid family here a third of a century ago, to reside, and since then he had had a child in school almost every term. As an evidence of the growth of Marion the speaker cited his hearers to the fact that 37 years ago he threshed wheat on the exact site of the new auditorium, the land then belonging to W. F. and R. W. Wilson, and 30 years ago he saw the same land without a building on it in a meadow which reached way out beyond the present right-of-way of the L. C. R. R. to the edge of a virgin forest which had never echoed the scream of the iron horse, where he was wont to shoot squirrels each morning at dawn, and where now stand a number of handsome homes, which dot the slopes of East Marion where streets have been opened and residences erected in the wake of the felled forest giants that waved their boughs over broad acres, and with all this growth the Marion Graded and High School has kept pace and has been the chief asset of the growing and prosperous community.

There will be two orchestras this year, the High School Orchestra and the Graded School Orchestra, the latter composed of beginners.

The faculty for the fall term is J. U. Snyder, Supt. of Schools and V. L. Christian and Miss Annie Dean Principals of the High School. Miss Margaret Moore, 8th Grade, Miss Florence Harris, 7th, Miss Ivy Hicklin, 6th, Miss Ethel Hard 5th, Miss Mary Lou Wilborn 4th, Miss Mary Deboe 3rd, Miss Lena Woods 2nd, Miss Shelly Harris 1st.

Misses Sallie Woods and Lucile Pope will have charge of the musical department.

The interior of the school building and all exterior woodwork has been repainted and repaired and looks almost as good as new. A new piano has been installed and all in all the schools open with fine promise, of this being the best year of its existence.

Three Sets of Twins in 6 Years

Bowling Green, Ky., Sept. 9.—The stork has visited Mr. and Mrs. Drue Dearing, of Drake, this county, three times during the last six years. Each time he has left twins, a boy and a girl, the last visit being last Saturday night. All of the children are living with the exception of a boy of the second set.

EVERY COUNTY

To Have Different Kind of Tree, Set on Capitol Square, Nov. 13, Planting Day.

H. S. Hillenmyer and Prof. Harris Garman of Lexington, have reported the selection and allotment of trees to be planted on State Capitol grounds on Nov. 13th by the different counties of Kentucky. If each county should adopt their suggestions, Kentucky will have a complete arboretum as a beauty background for the new Capitol.

Crittenden county's tree is Sycamore; Caldwell's, Sugar Maple; Livingston's, White Ash; Lyon's, Cottonwood; Webster's, Shell-bark Hickory; and Union county's selection is Persimmon.

FOR SALE.

My residence on Bellville street in Marion. For terms and price apply to me. I have also some household goods and a cooking stove for sale.

Mrs. M. E. Croft.

Another Old Citizen Gone.

Surrounded by friends and loved ones, last Thursday, Sep. 5th, Mr. W. L. Barnes passed into eternity. Mr. Barnes came to Kentucky from North Carolina about 40 years ago and located in Crittenden county where he lived an honest, industrious life until he reached the age of 69 years; had he lived a few days longer he would have attained the milestone of his 70th year. His death was caused by cardiac dropsy and previous to his death his sufferings were great.

Mr. Barnes was twice married and his last wife, Mrs. Mollie Barnes (nee) Turner and 11 living children, survive him. The children of his first marriage are Robert, Jerry Lee and Mrs. Piny — of Crittenden Co., Ky. and George and Lewis of Missouri. The children of his second marriage are Sam, J. D. Paul, Joe, Holly and Miss Mina. His two sons Geo. and Lewis were in from Missouri during his last illness and attended his funeral which was preached at Hurricane by Rev. Wilson on Friday when his remains were laid to rest in the Hurricane cemetery. Mr. Barnes was an ex-federal soldier and a man always of good report among those who knew him.

Fine Deer Creek Farm For Sale.

As executor of J. W. Bettis, dead, we desire to sell his farm of 300 acres on Deer Creek in Crittenden county. This farm has about 100 acres of Creek bottom and the remainder is good, strong land, well improved and well watered.

AN APPRECIATION OF MRS. J. F. GORDON.

Passed Away Last July.

The Members of The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, M. E. Church, South, Honor The Name of Judge Gordon's Wife.

We, as members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, M. E. Church, South, Madisonville Auxiliary, are called upon to mourn the loss of a very dear comrade. Shortly after the noonday hour on Tuesday, July 23, 1912, when the gentle and loving spirit of Mrs. J. F. Gordon took its flight from the scenes of this life to a home in the Mansions above, we lost our faithful treasurer. She gave to the Auxiliary efficient and invaluable service in this office near on to 25 years, ever alert and resourceful, knowing how to solve problems and unravel dilemmas, a live wire to vitalize and give zest to the occasion, and the meetings were never so good when she was not present. She was a good financier, knowing the best place for every cent paid in and as evidence of her love for the cause and desire to do her part toward bringing the heathen world to a knowledge of the love of a dying Savior. One of her last acts was the leaving of a free-will offering to the work. Through all her sickness she audited her books and kept them intact for her successor. And now how sadly we shall miss her, but who in Madisonville will not? She was born and reared in Madisonville and was known by nearly every man, woman and child, both white and black, and there was usually a smile on her lips, laugh in her eyes and a kindly recognition as occasion might require for each and every one with whom she came in contact.

To our human vision her stay here was all too short, and we were not ready to give her up, but her malady from the beginning baffled the best medical skill the country affords, and set at naught all the thousands and one tender attentions and ministrations wrought by loving hands and kind friends.

We love her much, but God loved her more, and now that her life, which scattered so much sunshine, has gone out to shine more beautifully on the other side, may it prove a beacon light to land the husband and other loved ones on the other shore, and from an unbroken family in a land of happiness and perpetual sunshine, radiating from the throne of God's glory.

Good bye Sallie, good bye, 'till we come and join you in that Fairer clime.

—Madisonville Hustler.

In Honor of Her Son.

Mrs. R. I. Nunn, in honor of her son, Mr. W. Maurie Nunn, gave a six o'clock dinner to a few of his friends, Thursday evening, Sep. 5th. Covers were laid for nine and a delightful three course dinner was served. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Nunn's hospitality were:

Misses Eva Clement, Susie Boston, Marian Clement and Madeline Jenkins; Messrs Jones Gill, Herbert Rodgers, Douglas Clement, and Dugan Ramage and the guest of honor.

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Value of Suppressing It.

By DR. SIMON FLEXNER.
When it is recalled that tuberculosis causes about one-third of the deaths that occur between the ages of twenty and fifty years it becomes at once apparent what an enormous influence the suppression of this one disease must exercise upon the development and progress of society. The eradication of tuberculosis is among the chief ends to be accomplished by all the agencies which are striving to uplift human society and to make its individual units more efficient and self sustaining. Hence the conquest of tuberculosis becomes the proper field of endeavor for the statesman, legislator, physician and layman.

PARCELS POST.

Packages of Less Total Dimensions Than 72 Inches May Be Handled.

In response to many inquiries from people all over the country, the United States Senate committee on post office and post roads, has sent out a summary of the provisions of the new parcels post law which becomes effective January 1, 1913. The information will prove of much value to the millions interested in the new bill, which found much popular favor in all communities.

An article weighing not more than eleven pounds, not more than 72 inches in length and girth combined, and which is not likely to injure the mails, postal equipment, or employees, is mailable. The flat rate is one cent per ounce for packages weighing not more than four ounces.

Above four ounces the rate is by the pound or fraction thereof and varies with distance. A package weighing one pound may be mailed and delivered on a local rural route or city delivery for 5 cents, for each additional pound one cent. For fifty miles or under the rate will be 5 cents, and three cents for each additional pound; for 150 miles, 6 cents, and 4 cents for each additional pound; for 300 miles, 7 cents and 5 cents for each additional pound; 600 miles, 8 cents and 6 cents for each additional pound; 1,000 miles 9 cents and 7 cents for each additional pound; 1,800 miles, 11 cents and 10 cents for each additional pound; for 2,000 miles or more, 12 cents and 12 cents for each additional pound.

Changes may be perfected by the postmaster general, with the consent of the interstate commerce commission.

The masses have been demanding the parcels post law for the past twenty years, and the passage of the bill by the Democratic house has met with popular approval.—Ex.

Scatter Load SHOT SHELLS

When they're apt to get up close, slip in a Remington-UMC Scatterload— and make your choke bore gun good in brush or thicket. Arrow and Nitro Club steel lined scatterload shot shells open up your pattern so evenly that your bird can neither get too much nor too little.

A special system of wadding gives at 25 yds. a spread equal to that of a standard shell at 40 yds. and with greater penetration.

The steel lining gives the speed plus perfect pattern. Get a box to-day. Your local dealer has them. Try them on a paper target with your old duck gun.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Marion, Ky., Sept. 9, 1912

Whereas, it has pleased the Grand Architect of the Universe, in His infinite wisdom, to call from his labors on earth to eternal refreshments in the Celestial Lodge on High, our brother, Andy E. Rushing, who departed this life September 7th, 1912.

Whereas, Bro. Rushing was one of the oldest members of Bigham Lodge, No. 256, F. &amp; A. M., having been born Sept. 26, 1831, and had he lived nineteen days longer would have been 81 years old. He was initiated Jan. 8, 1876, and until his death remained one of our most faithful members. Therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Rushing, this Lodge has lost a true and faithful member, the community a useful and honorable citizen, and the family a kind and loving father.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Lodge, that a copy be sent to the children, of the deceased brother, and a copy be furnished the Marion News and the Crittenden Record-Press for publication.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

With only a handful of precincts missing the Vermont returns show that the Republican nominee for Governor received 23,259 votes; the Democratic nominee 20,350 votes and the Progressive nominee 15,800 votes.

Four years ago the Republican nominee for Governor at the election, received 45,593 votes, and the Democratic nominee 15,953 votes. The Republican vote in Vermont fell off 19,498 or about 43 per cent, while the Democratic vote is increased 4,147 or more than 25 per cent.

Now apply this percentage to States where Republican party won great victories in 1908 and where the Republican party must win decisively in 1912 to even preserve the party organization in the nation.

In 1908 Mr. Taft received 750,000 in Pennsylvania and Mr. Bryan, 450,000. If the Pennsylvania change is in proportionately this year as in the election of Vermont, Gov. Wilson will receive 560,000, Mr. Taft 400,000 votes and Mr. Roosevelt 300,000 in Pennsylvania. Thus a Republican majority of 300,000 in 1908 will be changed into a Democratic plurality of 160,000 in 1912.

Take Ohio, Mr. Taft's own State, as the basis for a similar comparison. In 1908 Mr. Taft polled 570,000 and Mr. Bryan 500,000 votes in Ohio. Judging by the Vermont returns, Mr. Taft's vote this year will be reduced this year 335,000 votes and Gov. Wilson's vote will total 625,000. Thus the Vermont result presages a change in Ohio from a Republican majority of 70,000 to a Democratic majority of 280,000.

Mr. Taft's majority in Illinois in 1908 was 230,000, the vote standing Taft, 680,000, Bryan 450,000, but upon the basis of the Vermont returns the result in 1912 will be Wilson 562,000, Taft 380,000.

These figures virtually eliminate Mr. Taft as a Presidential candidate. If they be accepted as indicating the real Roosevelt strength, they eliminate Mr. Roosevelt as decisively as they do Mr. Taft and indicate Wilson as the surest winner that ever made the race for President.

That Mr. Roosevelt is in all States immensely stronger than any of his supporters in contests before the people, has been abundantly proven in the last few months, and only a few weeks ago, in Kansas, Roosevelt carried the State by 36,000, while his chief lieutenant lost the state by 1,100.

Despite these facts, the Evening Post believes that the news from Vermont is such as to cause the Democrats of the nation to be of good cheer. Taft is beaten and is now out of the race. Governor Wilson holds the Democratic vote and adds to it from among the independents. The Republican party is dying and the Progressive party, despite Mr. Roosevelt's personality is not yet on its feet.

But the Democratic party must be ready to guard against a rush to Roosevelt in October. —Louisville Post, Sep. 5th.

"DOGS."

We are of the opinion that another ordinance should follow the "chicken ordinance," this one should prohibit the dogs of this city from being at liberty to go where they please. We strictly indorse the "chicken ordinance" provided that dog ordinance follows which will stop the dogs from prowling in our yards and on our porches. As to the chickens, "we had much rather have our neighbors' fowls in our yards than to have our neighbors and those who are not our neighbors' dogs prowling in our yards and houses, scratching up our flowers and burying bones and pieces of refused beef from the slaughter yards.

It may do over in Hog Wallow where dogs are raised for the fun of hearing them chase Eleck Hellwagger's mule off of Musket Ridge, but in a civilized and growing city we strenuously object to that method of employing the canine race. With the chicken ordinance it is different, for many poor people who rent houses could have a few chickens if it were not for the above ordinance, but as the owners of the property will not fence it, they can not have the fowls, and yet they are compelled to be harassed by the yelling of a pack of dogs all night.

In our end of the town we would all be much obliged to the Board, if they would kindly use some of their surplus influence to bring this proposed ordinance to pass. —A FRIEND.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of expressing to our friends who were kind to us during the illness, Death and burial of our husband and father, Wm. Lee Barnes, our most sincere thanks and appreciation of all favors and kindness shown.

Thanks to those who contributed the floral designs also to his Physician who used all care and attention to prolong his life. May Heaven's blessings rest upon each and all of you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. W. L. Barnes and family.

LAMB

School has been in progress now one month, little folks are coming, but the larger ones are being entertained by tobacco worms.

Some tobacco is going in the house, largely because of the dry weather. George D. Kemp's tenants are cutting 2½ acres per day. Worms are very bad in some parts of the district.

Some roads are being worked but the ground is too dry to do much.

The sick folks are better at Charlie Marvel's, and the people generally are having good health, considering the hot, dry weather.

Martin Sutton has made some kind of a deal with M. F. Dean, and is now Iron Hill's best miller.

Politics has no place in tobacco season, so we'll wait till later to talk about that, but we may be thinking just the same. Just how we're thinking November will tell. For the benefit of those who cannot read the law every day, would the Record-Press kindly print the New Road section regarding engineers?

Uncle Lit Hodge and Martin Sutton attended the funeral of uncle Andy Rushing at Marion Sunday.

The pupils of Olive Branch school gave an ice cream supper in the interest of the library. They report a nice time and a nice collection.

Before you put a new roof on that old barn—see us

Let us tell you how much we can save you by using

Certain-teed Roofing

The kind that is guaranteed for at least fifteen years—made in Rubber Shingles as well as Rolls.

Roofs don't wear out—they dry out. The test is on the roof—so you can't be too careful in selecting the roof material you buy.

Certain-teed Roofing is made of the best water-proofing compounds—only the best grades of raw materials are used in manufacturing Certain-teed Roofing. These are selected as a result of a quarter of a century's experience and kept up to date by the General's Board of Expert Chemists.

A fifteen-year guarantee from the manufacturer

We are authorized by the manufacturer to give you a written guarantee, so you are absolutely sure of having a satisfactory roof—one that will last for years. This Certain-teed guarantee is better than any test you can make—it protects your roof and the money you put in it.

Certain-teed Roofing costs less money—is easy to lay—and is especially adapted for use on permanent buildings, such as houses, cottages, residences, barns, sheds and other farm buildings.

At least come in and see us. No trouble to show you samples and figure out to a penny just how much your roof will cost.

We won't ask you to buy unless we can show you that we can save you money. We have a large stock and can supply your wants immediately.

Some More If's.

If Roosevelt could clear his skirts of the ugly charges Senator Penrose makes against him—
If Roosevelt could scrape off the mud he has thrown in his campaign—
If Roosevelt could disprove the allegations of John D. Archbold—

If Roosevelt could rehabilitate himself as a man of truth—

If Roosevelt could break away from the taint of Perkins' money wrung from the starvation wages paid women and children—

If Roosevelt could cut loose from Munsey and the Steel Trust—

The fact would still remain that there is no man so indispensable in this nation of 100,000,000 people that he should be given a third term as president. —Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FAMILY REUNION.

The second annual reunion of W. J. Powell heirs was held at the home of W. K. Powell near Repton, August 31st.

When we got on the train at Sullivan we found Lula Powell Carrier and Harve Powell and had a pleasant time till we reached Repton where we were met by W. K. and sons with a conveyance. We drove one and one half miles to the home where we were cordially welcomed by Mrs. Powell and daughters. After the "howdy-doo's" were over and we were refreshed with cool water, we were invited into the dining room, and Oh! that dinner. Every delicacy the season affords and competent hands could prepare, were there in abundance, and to say we did ample justice to them is putting it mildly indeed. The afternoon was spent in conversation and childhood reminiscences by the older ones and songs and games by the children. At sun down the wagon and buggies were brought around and the crowd all went to the tent meeting at Hill's Chapel where we heard a very able sermon by Rev. Patterson and witnessed the most spiritual meeting it was ever our good fortune to attend, and the drive home through the moonlight and the beautiful rugged scenery are things we will never forget. We arrived home at midnight, ate a hearty supper and went to bed and to sleep to dream dreams more easily imagined than described.

The Sabbath was spent in conversation, songs and feasting, till at 3 o'clock we awoke to the fact that we must break ranks and away to home and duties.

As every rose has its thorns, the good byes were sad. When we reached Repton we found the train was two hours late, but we were entertained so pleasantly by the ticket agent and his wife it seemed the time passed very quickly: so we proclaim the "Powell Reunion" a success and are bound to say "mine for Crittenden, for a big time."

REPUBLICAN PAPER FOR GOV. WILSON.

Milwaukee Journal, Strongly Republican, Comes Out for Democratic Nominee.

New York, Sep. 10.—The Milwaukee Journal declares that Woodrow Wilson will carry Wisconsin, strongly Republican as it normally is. The progressive republicans of Wisconsin are going to vote almost as a unit for Wilson. There is a complete wiping out of party lines in the state.

The progressive republicans, while they are for LaFollette first of all, consider that Wilson is the only progressive running for president in the present campaign and so they will vote for him. As for Roosevelt, it is probable there is no state of the middle west where the vote for the third-term candidate bids fair to be so insignificant as in LaFollette's state.

While most of the progressive republicans seem content to vote for Wilson, without making open declaration, many of them prominent republicans at that, are openly declaring their advocacy of Wilson and make no secret of their intention of voting for him. The course of the Wisconsin progressives should, in fact, be the course of all progressives: Wilson is the only real progressive in the race. Roosevelt was not a progressive when he was president, and men of the LaFollette type have no confidence in the recent convention, or his financial banker, Perkins.

THE BEST PROOF

Given by a Marion Citizen, Doan's Kidney Pills were used—the brought benefit. The story was told to Marion residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence. Has proven the result lasting. The testimony is home testimony. The proof convincing. It can be investigated by Marion residents. Coleman Byford, Marion, Ky., says I cannot express my gratitude for the great good Doan's Kidney Pills did me. I was laid up with my back. I had to pass the kidney secretions many times during the night, and there was a scalding sensation when being voided. My heart was also affected, and my health and strength run down. I had about given up hope of recovery. I was living in Owensboro, Ky., at the time, and the two doctors that were attending me could do nothing for me. I had heard my mother speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they had cured her, I procured a box at the Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store. Before I had taken the contents, I felt greatly improved and after I had finished four boxes, I was as well as ever was in my life.

(Statement given Feb. 3, 1908.)

RE-ENDOSEMENT

On Feb. 2, 1912, Mr. Byford added: "I can still praise Doan's Kidney Pills. I do not need this remedy very often, but when I do it quickly cures me of kidney complaint."

RS. TOM'S PART IN THE ELECTION

Governor Marshall's Wife Has the Memory For Names.

ANCE OF THEIR LIVES.

Notification of the Indiana Executive For Democratic Vice Presidency Honors a Record Breaker.

By J. C. HAMMOND,
Democratic National Publicity Bureau.

Indianapolis.—Just about the time of thousands of friends of Governor Thomas Riley Marshall were eagerly waiting to shake his hand in congratulation over his acceptance as candidate of vice president on the Democratic ticket, a smiling woman stepped before him, and if one could have heard what she whispered in his ear it would have been something like "hurry in, Tom, and change your shirt."

And Tom Marshall forgot to shake hands with the enthusiastic friends who had carried out the orders of his Tom.

Indiana has honored four of her sons as vice presidential candidates on the Democratic ticket, but the crowds that met Governor Marshall in the big square in the state fair grounds here were the greatest in the history of the party.

The crowd wanted to show the east that could be done in notification honors, and while Mrs. Marshall was happy of course, over the honors for her husband, she was also worried, for her husband comes mighty close to being a busy man, son and partner all in one. And when a woman has that commotion on her hands to care for she has every right to be worried.

Governor Marshall will never gain any honors as a "summer thrower." He has built that way.

While all the country was reading the vigorous words of Governor Marshall which told the voters what he expects Democracy to do in carrying out the pledges for the next four years, it was worth while to know what part a woman is taking in the affairs of the campaign, how Tom Marshall happens to be in the position in which he stands today.

The good people of Columbia City, Ind., never thought Thomas Riley Marshall was a "marrying man." For forty years he had lived with his parents, having both his father and mother, who were invalids, which was the reason Governor Marshall was not a marrying man. He felt his first duty was to his parents.

Meeting Mrs. Marshall.

After the death of his parents Governor Marshall dived deeper into his law practice, and one day an urgent case took him to Angola, Ind. His duties called him to the county clerk's office and there he met Miss Lois Kinney, daughter of the county clerk, who was waiting for her father in the office.

From that day Governor Marshall had more business around the county clerk's office in Angola than any lawyer in half a dozen nearby counties.

Governor Marshall was forty-two years of age when he was married, Mrs. Marshall being nearly twenty years his junior.

The Marshalls had been married only a few weeks when the future vice president was called to an adjoining county on a case that would consume some five or six weeks of his time.

"Now, I did not want to be starting off like that," Governor Marshall explained to a friend one day, so I just told Mrs. Marshall that I thought she should go along. And she did."

Since then Governor Marshall has never made a trip without Mrs. Marshall going along. They have traveled all over the country together; they go to banquets and political meetings together until the friends of the Indiana executive refer to him and his wife as the "pinks."

"Tom Marshall is not overstrong," explained one of his friends. "While he is a delicate man, his constitution is not of the most vigorous type."

"When he gets into a political battle he forgets his weakness. He gives all that is in him, and that will tell on his man. Mrs. Marshall soon discovered that the governor would become hoarse in making a speech and the next day his voice would be husky."

She decided that he had better give up some of the handshaking and take care of his health first. So when you find him making a speech he does not stay around to hear the applause of the audience. Rather, he hurries to his room and changes his clothing.

"Some people have said that Tom Marshall is not a handshaking politician. He is not. His wife thinks it is more important to guard his health than to carry out the old time policy, and she is correct, as she is in most all other things."

"Home Air" Prevails.

The Marshall home is typical of the mistress. It is a home of books, and still one does not feel "bookish." One of the Marshall friends said he always felt like eating when he entered the Marshall home in Columbia City or the executive mansion at Indianapolis. Mrs. Marshall believes in a home first, and the "home air" prevails.

"If Governor Marshall ever occupied the White House people would not know that historic institution," declared an admirer. "Mrs. Marshall would have it a real home. People would feel comfortable even in the midst of the gold and glitter."

But it is not only as a wife and the mistress of a home that Mrs. Marshall shows her ability. She is a politician and a clever one. She also has a remarkable memory.

Governor Marshall has earned the reputation of being in a class of story tellers all by himself. He can remember stories, but he forgets names. A name is something to be cast aside with Governor Marshall, and this is one of the regrets of his life, if he has any regrets. The governor is not a worrying man. He is somewhat of a fatalist, but if he could he would like to remember names; but, not having that ability, he does not worry, for Mrs. Marshall is the now rememberer of the family.

She has a peculiar ability along this line. Not only does she remember the last name, but any combination of names comes as second nature to her, and she carries this ability on down to the children and cousins of any one seeking the governor.

While the governor is shaking hands and trying to remember whether his caller is Jones or Smith, Mrs. Marshall is busy supplying the information and asking about all the relatives.

Ideal Partners.

Governor Marshall has no brothers or sisters, and his parents being dead leaves him somewhat barren of relatives.

Governor Marshall's friends are enthusiastic over his home life. When he has started on talking of his wife a new light in the Hoosier executive comes to the surface.

They come near being ideal married partners.

"I was talking to Tom one day," explained one of his most intimate friends. "We were leaning back, and Tom had been telling some of his good stories to illustrate various topics of our conversation. We were waiting for Mrs. Marshall to come back from a shopping tour, and I happened to remark that I liked Mrs. Marshall better every time I met her."

"Well, now that's the way she strikes me, Jim," he said. "We have been married some sixteen years, and as time goes that is a long or short period, just as you think. To me it is but a fleeting day. Then I think back over my married life and find I have grown to know Mrs. Marshall better every day. A man must not only love but he must also respect his partner in this life—respect her in all things. She must have wonderful qualities to make the love and respect grow deeper and better each day. That's been my history."

"The fact that Mrs. Marshall has been in sympathy in my work, my play, my life, is good. But I have been in sympathy with hers. Ours is not a one sided life. We have been partners, and that's the way it should be in this world."

Mrs. Marshall has watched over his administration of the affairs of Indiana with a jealous care. There has been nothing of the spectator in his administration. It has been a work government. The laws that he has fought for and won show the spirit of the man. They are fighting. They deal with the improvement of men, women and child.

While Governor Marshall is described as a "tender hearted" executive, nevertheless he is a fighter. He belongs to the old fighting stock of Virginia.

Governor Marshall is not a dodger. He has his opinions, and he lets them be known. While he is an organization man, he knows that organizations are not perfect—that they can make mistakes. If they make mistakes he takes it. It is his duty to say so and get the saying over at the first possible moment.

Mrs. Marshall is not satisfied

ALSO AT ARMAGEDDON.

—New York World.

her domestic duties alone. She wants to do her share in problems of the political and business world. Mrs. Marshall is said to have discussed in detail with her husband his action on the Baltimore convention, and when it was seen that Marshall was the man who was going to go on the ticket with Wilson he wanted to know what his wife thought about it.

"It won't be any harder than being Governor of Indiana, and if the party thinks you are the man it only agrees with my opinion," she said, and that settled the matter with Governor Marshall.

Mrs. Marshall had the honor of being the first woman in Indiana to hold an office. She was appointed county clerk of Steuben county by her father and held that office for a number of years.

When Governor Marshall and his wife were about to be married she decided that her last official act of the office would be to make out the marriage license. Governor Marshall accompanied his wife to the county clerk's office and watched her with care as she noted the records in the big book and filled out the license and watched her as she carefully signed her father's name, with her own as deputy.

Mrs. Marshall, having blotted the ink, said, "Now we can go."

"Not yet," laughed Governor Marshall.

"Why, we are all fixed," explained Mrs. Marshall, pointing to the license. "Yes, but I have to pay for it," replied the governor. "It's all right for you to make it out, but it's up to me to pay the fee." And he did.

Mrs. Marshall is a keen student, and having established the practice of going with her husband on all his trips, he is they short or long, they make it a point to carry along some book.

Mrs. Marshall is as much of a humanitarian as the governor. A glance at some of the bills that have been passed by the 1911 Indiana legislature gives an insight into the governor:

To curtail child labor.

To regulate sale of cold storage products.

To require hygienic schoolhouses and medical examination of children.

To prevent blindness at birth.

To regulate sale of cocaine and other drugs.

To provide free treatment for hydrophobia.

To establish public playgrounds.

To improve pure food laws.

To protect against loan sharks.

To provide police court matrons.

To prevent traffic in white slaves.

To permit night schools.

To require medical supplies as part of a train equipment.

Governor Marshall has also played an active part in providing for protection of labor, as is exemplified by the following acts:

To create a bureau of inspection for workshops, factories, mines and boilers.

To establish free employment agencies.

To require full train crews.

To require safety devices on switch engines.

To require efficient headlights on engines.

To require standard cabooses.

To provide weekly wage, etc.

And Governor Marshall has consulted with his "partner" on all these bills. He is quoted as saying a man can't go far wrong in taking the advice of a wife—if she is his partner as well as his wife.

Having exhausted his supply of adjectives in denouncing Taft, Roosevelt is now leading a campaign of denunciation of every one who does not agree with himself.

Farmers have pulled against the short end of the yoke long enough. Wilson and Marshall promise to see that the pulling is made more nearly even.

Wonder how the colonel likes being an outcast?

ROLLA WELLS IS EARLY ON THE JOB

Democratic National Treasurer Is After Small Contributor.

THE PEOPLE TO HELP.

There is to be no "tainted money" Used in Electing Wilson and Marshall.

New York.—A small, smooth shaved, middle-aged man with a coat of tan that gave evidence of much outdoor life recently came into the Waldorf carrying a suit case early in the afternoon and registered as "Rolla Wells, St. Louis, Mo."

The smooth shaved little man, who is to be the watchdog of the Wilson campaign money from now on, was asked for vital statistics, whereupon it was learned at first hand that he is a banker and ex-mayor of St. Louis, is fifty-six years old, was graduated at Princeton in 1876, or three years before Governor Wilson was graduated; that he has two sons who are Princeton men and a grandson who some day will be a Princeton man; that he had no notion of seeing New York this summer until the Wilson organization selected him as its treasurer and that just at present the one thing that sticks out in the appointment in his mind is that the new job cut in seriously upon a most beautiful vacation which he and Mrs. Wells had been enjoying in a camp at Little Traverse bay, Michigan.

Mrs. Wells believes in getting at his desk at 8 o'clock in the morning.

"We are going to raise our campaign fund through the small contributions," said Mr. Wells.

"I am sure that a large part of the money will be raised by popular subscription."

"The people have confidence in Woodrow Wilson, and they will give what they can of their means to elect such a man president."

"I am a great believer in publishing broadcast, before and after election, the various contributions made."

"There are men who can well afford to give the committee $5,000, but I want to assure the public that we are not going to have any tainted money."

"We are appealing to the people, and we are relying on them to help elect Wilson and Marshall."

"I have two boys who have been graduated from Princeton, one five years ago and one seven. But it is not because ours is a Princeton family that I like Governor Wilson. He is a great big man and the type that we should have in public life."

Woodrow Wilson says this is not a time to be afraid to "speak out in meeting." That he was not afraid is demonstrated by his logical speech in accepting the Democratic nomination.

Roosevelt was willing to crawl from the White House to the capitol in 1908 if he could help his friend Root. Today he would like nothing better than meeting Root up a dark alley.

The Democrats are depending on the small contributor to help elect Wilson and Marshall. The appeal is being made to the people, and the people are responding.

Wilson will make the most accessible president who has ever occupied the White House. He is typically a Democratic man.

Farmers have awakened to the folly of the so called blessings of a protective tariff.

G. O. P. MAJORITY IS SHATTERED

Vermont Gives Scant Plurality to Republicans.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 9.—The Progressives and the Democrats won the honors in the Vermont State election today, for although the Republicans carried the State on a plurality vote, there was no election by a majority vote, and the choice of a Governor was thrown into the Legislature. There the Republicans will have a sufficient majority to elect Allen M. Fletcher, and the remainder of the State ticket.

The vote for the five candidates for Governor from all of the six cities and from 196 out of 240 towns was:

Allen M. Fletcher, of Caledonia, Republican, 22,366.

Harland B. Howe, of St. Johnsbury, Democrat, 17,504.

The Rev. Frasier Metzger, of Randolph, Progressive, 13,630.

Clement F. Smith, of Morrisville, Prohibition, 1,341.

Fred W. Suiter, of Barre, Socialist, 967.

The strength of the new Progressive party in its first line up against the older parties and the disappearance of the Republican majority for the first time in ten years and the first time in the history of the State on a presidential year, were the outstanding features of the State election in Vermont today.

Reminiscence.

By J. B. McNEELEY.

On one of our trips we stayed one night as the guest of Rev. I. W. Tally. Bro. Tally was making more hay than he could store away. Then on to Belville Bend. Here the crops were almost past redemption, but since the rains have ceased, the crops are making rapid growth.

Then we heard the preacher talk about the "hobble skirts," one Divine said, "you make them tight in the middle and too short at both ends." So we thought, "man looketh upon the outward appearance, but God looketh upon the heart" (Bible.) And what do you know about making hobble skirts?

A Visit.

We spent a pleasant evening with Pearl Sigler. He was very busy just then in his hay crop, yet he took time to talk about his church, tell of its prospects and the good it might do.

Then we spent one night with Mr. Riggs. He is rapidly passing the mile stones but he has an excellent home, and talks much of his hopes in the beyond. At Irma, Mr. White gave us a demonstration showing how silver will attract gold. We were his guest and it gave us great pleasure to be in his home.

At a town over in another county we asked a by-stander as we entered a business concern, who is the proprietor here? "I don't know who is the boss but Miss 'B' is the chief geranium."

Coming Back to Ky.

While over in Lyon Co., we learned from his daughter, Mrs. Sue Peek, that Dr. T. F. Wilborn and family, who left here a few years ago, are coming back to old Kentucky this fall.

At Blackford we were met by Theologians and they were discussing theology to a finish.

A soliloquy, as Hamlet says, "to be, or not to be." Oh! if we had the wings of a dove we would rise to the eyrie of the skies and fly away and like the airship, we would sail amid air, visit every county, every clime and then we would ascend upwards and onward until we had reached the realms in the great beyond.

Many Driven From Home.

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor and J. H. Orme.

Married.

Rev. S. K. Breeding and Mrs. Mary Wilborn were quietly married at the home of the bride, near Bristletown, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. F. Hogard, of Columbia performing the ceremony. Mr. Breeding is a well known Methodist minister and one of the most high toned gentlemen anywhere. He is the youngest brother of the late Dr. J. A. Breeding of this place. The bride is the widow of the late Mr. H. H. Wilborn, and was formerly Miss Mary Chism, of the well known and prominent Chism family of Monroe county. She is a most excellent and estimable lady. Both parties to the marriage have a host of friends and relatives, all of whom will sincerely congratulate them, and wish them all happiness in their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Breeding will reside at their home in Green county. —Glasgow Times.

IN SOCIETY

Friday night the young folks of the Christian Endeavor Society gave a social at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore in honor of their President, Mr. Coleman Foster, who was soon to leave to take up a course of study at the State College.

Many invitations had been issued and the beautiful home and lawn were lighted and decorated and at 8 o'clock the guests had begun to arrive. They were met by the reception and entertainment committees composed of Meadames Moore, Clift and Persons, and Misses Gussie Burgett, Mildred Moore, Nelle Southerland, Velda Hicklin, Isabel Guess, Elvah Pickens and Lena Holtsclaw, who ushered the guests into the beautiful dining room where delicious punch was served.

As a diversion, an interesting picture contest was enjoyed by all.

Later the young ladies came around again with cream and cake.

The Marion Orchestra furnished splendid music throughout the evening.

Rev. Wallace Clift made an interesting and touching talk in behalf of Coleman Foster, then on the lawn he had everybody join hands and make a complete circle and sing "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds." The scene was pathetic, after which they were dismissed with prayer.

Every one had a most delightful time and those present contributed and received the joys of the occasion.
