BIG FIRE SWEEPS SEVERAL B'LDINGS

Fire of Unknown Origin Burns Out
Two Business Houses and Two Residences on N. Main St.

CAME NEAR BEING LARGER.

Last Friday night, just before midnight, the fire alarm whistle called the fire fighters from their downy beds of ease, to fight a stubborn blaze which had broken out in the Pierce produce brick building on north Main street. The building was occupied by C. R. Newcom, Grocery and Produce dealer on the ground floor and Valentine Threlkeld's colored barber shop up stairs, also the colored Lodge and sleeping rooms. Opinions differ as to where the fire started, some say it originated up stairs, others downstairs. The produce building was soon a mass of flames and quickly gutted and the flames leaped to the large frame stable owned by Pierce & Son and occupied by Eskew Bros. and extended the entire length of the block on the south and to John B. Grissom's residence on the north, both of which were quickly devoured. The fire then seized for its prey McConnell's frame building on the south and Seldon Hughes' house on the north occupied by S. S. Woodson and both were soon reduced to ashes. The grocery stock of C. R. Newcom and, in fact, all the contents of the brick produce house were lost, but all the live stock and harness, and most of the feed and vehicles in the stable were saved. The people turned out well and helped the poor sufferers save their household goods, and but little furniture was lost. A telephone pole which burned down came near striking City Marshal Loyd and had it done so he would have been instantly killed. He dodged sufficiently to miss the pole but the cross arm hit his leg, almost breaking breaking the bone and he was scratched considerably by the wires. He was assisted to an empty buggy standing near and two townsmen grasped the shafts and drew him to his home where he has since been confined to his bed and where his physicians say he must remain for ten days longer. Thos. McConnell, the merchant, received a severe cut over his eye and there were several others who narrowly escaped injury. Fred Hughes, colored, came near being roasted alive in his bed.

Before the carnival of the fire was checked the money loss was heavy: Pierce & Son, stable, $4000, insurance, $1000. J. P. Pierce, produce house, $4000, insurance, $2000. J. B. Grissom, residence, $1500, insurance $900. Seldon Hughes, residence, $900, insurance, $500. W. T. McConnell store room, no insurance. C. R. Newcom, loss on stock and fixtures, $2000, insurance $1500. The Marion Electric Light & Ice Co., suffered the loss of much service wire, several poles and other items. As soon as the wires burned into, the plant was closed down until the section involved could be cut out, after which service was resumed in all other parts of the city, with an intermission of only one hour. As soon as material could be hauled up from the company's depot the repairs were rushed and completed in 12 hours from

Men! The Maker's Guaranty Goes With the Clothes We Sell

THINKING men no longer buy their clothes in a haphazard way. They consider not only the price and the retailer's claim of quality and service—but the maker as well.

It means a lot of difference, in the quality you get in your Fall suit or overcoat, whether the maker is actually known to be behind his products or hides identity behind the retailer, thus escaping public responsibility. In offering these—

KIRSCHBAUM CLOTHES

We stand ready to meet every claim we make. The maker's "All Wool" guaranty is iron-clad. We know there is not a thread of cotton in any KIRSCHBAUM garment we sell.

The fact that every KIRSCHBAUM suit and overcoat is hand-tailored from fabrics shrunk and reshrunk, was a clinching factor in our choosing the KIRSCHBAUM line. We know absolutely that our customers will be satisfied,

That they can walk out of our store any day with garments that will be as well-shaped and as perfect in style six months hence under ordinary wear, as on the day of purchase.

All our styles are individual and authoritative. Perfect in cut, color and weave. The KIRSCHBAUM label means your money back should you find any imperfection in fit, cut or fabrics.

BEAUTIFUL WED- DING WEDNESDAY

Grand "Thanksgiving Eve" Event
Was The Marriage of Miss Ina
Price to Mr. Virgil Moore

ARE VERY POPULAR COUPLE.

Wednesday morning at the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. the marriage ceremony of Mr. Virgil Yandell Moore and Miss Dorothy Ina Price was solemnized in a most impressively beautiful ceremony. Promptly at 9:30 o'clock, the bridal party arrived and the sweet tones of Lehegrin's Bridal Chorus pealed forth in sweetest tones from the piano where Mrs. Marshall Jenkins presided, announcing the fact to the audience which taxed the capacity of the church. Mr. N. G. Rochester and Miss Elmer Carr led the march, followed by Prof. V. L. Christian and Miss Ellis Gray, then came Miss Allie Mae Yates the maid of honor with the four beautiful little flower girls, Misses Roberta Moore, Elizabeth McAdams, Vivian Yates and Gladys Baker. The bride was given away by her father Rev. Jas. F. Price, and they came down the left aisle and met the groom and his best man Mr. W. H. Townsend of Lexington, Ky., at the altar, they having marched down the right aisle. In front of the altar the groom accepted the bride from her father and they stood facing the pastor, Rev. Wallace W. Clift who united them with the beautiful ritual of the Presbyterian Church. It was one of the prettiest weddings ever seen in Marion. The bride who is one of Marion's brightest and sweetest girls wore the bridal veil over her wedding dress of white satin charmeuse entrain and carried on her arm a bouquet of bride roses. The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Allie Mae Yates, the maid of honor was gowned in white silk marquisette over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. Miss Ellis Gray, one of the bridesmaids wore satin and carried pink bride roses. Miss Elmer Carr of Evansville, the other bridesmaid, wore dove drop beaded satin and also carried on her arm a large bouquet of pink bride roses. The four flower girls were dressed in pink silk mulle and each carried a swinging basket of white and pink chrysanthemums. The church was decorated in pink and white the color scheme of the wedding and the mellow glow of the white satin electric lights enveloped in pink added to the entrancing scene. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents, where the bride donned her traveling dress, after which they proceeded to the 11 o'clock train and departed for Louisville Lexington, and other points in the east on a bridal tour. The bride who was born and reared here and is unanimously loved was the recipient of bridal gifts innumerable, comprising the beautiful useful and ornamental usually presented on such occasions. When they return from their bridal trip they will go to house keeping in their lovely house on Depot street which the groom recently purchased and which is furnished for them even to the minutest detail. The start on their matrimonial voyage is with the brightest prospects and the best wishes of a host of friends.

PASTOR RUSSELL IS CHALLENGED

A Complete Answer to the Query, "Who Ordained Him?"

The Whole Subject Clarified For the Public Benefit—Clergy and Laity Unscriptural Terms.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17.—As always, Pastor Russell got the crowds today. We report his discourse on Ministerial Ordination and Titles. Very evidently it is a reply to an attack recently made upon him by a Mr. W. T. Ellis, field editor of The Continent, and alias, the "Religious Rambler." Ellis claims that Pastor Russell's ordination as Pastor is fraudulent. The address shows that Pastor Russell fully understands the situation. He fully justified his position before his vast audience and showed up the "Rambler" editor in the unenviable light of either being ignorant of the subjects discussed, or attempting to deceive the public. His text was, "Not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead" (Gal. 1, 1). He said:—

The time has come for telling the people what the Bible teaches respecting ordination to teach and preach. The doctrine of Apostolic Succession started in the second century A. D. The bishops claimed that they had the same authority that Jesus gave to the twelve Apostles. Upon this claim they ordained the inferior clergy.

This principle is wholly unscriptural. According to the Bible, the Church of Christ is not composed of two parts, clergy and laity. Jesus declared, "All ye are brethren; One is your Master, Christ." St. Paul shows that in the early Church the ministers were the servants of the flock. They were of the people, chosen by them for the stretching forth of the hand.

Many of the reformers coveted the titles accorded the Catholic clergy. They did not care to tell the congregation that its word was supreme, and that its ministers were merely its servants. Others, realizing that these titles were unscriptural, declined to use them; preferring to be called pastor. My Bible Student associates, knowing my objection to the title "Reverend," address me as Pastor. I am the elected Pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle congregation, and also of the London Tabernacle congregation, and I fail to see ground for criticism in this respect, nor do I attack Christian brethren who accept other and unscriptural titles.

Must Pastors Be Ordained?

Ordination is necessary to the office of pastor. The question is, What constitutes an ordination to preach amongst the people of God?

This question has received various answers. The Roman, Anglican and Greek Churches, claiming Apostolic Succession, declare that authorization to preach must come through their apostle-bishops, and have not allowed Protestant ministers to enter their pulpits—until the Episcopalians, about a year ago granted this concession. Of course, if their proposition were correct, I am just as much unordained as all other Protestant ministers—and no more so.

Each denomination at its beginning was opposed by all others; yet each taught that the clergy were separate from the laity. Only since the organization of the Evangelical Alliance (1846) have the different sects of Christendom acknowledged each other's ordinations. Each denomination makes use of such ceremonies as it deems proper. If, therefore, the congregation of Christian believers in Brooklyn and London ordain or appoint me as their pastor, it is their own choice what ceremonies, if any, shall accompany that ordination. Who can dispute this? No Protestant denomination, surely; for their own ordinations are on this very basis.

The subject of ordination seems to have fallen into confusion during the Dark Ages. St. Paul particularly emphasizes the fact that he did not receive his commission as preacher and Apostle of Christ from his brother Apostles, but by Divine authorization. This is the Scriptural principle underlying the true ordination to the ministry of the Gospel.

No denomination claims that the ordination of its ministers either made or kept them perfect. All admit that there have been sad failures amongst the so-called ministers. Neither do they claim that ordination insures their ministers superior discernment of Divine Truths. On the contrary, it has injured the clergy by making many of them doublehearted and worldly, contrary to the spirit and teachings of Christ and the Apostles; and the laity by leading them to conclude that merely secular matters should engage their attention.

The True Ordination.

Finally the Pastor showed the true ordination to be the impartation of the Holy Spirit. Whoever receives this has God's authority to be His ambassador and mouthpiece. Such show the work of the Holy Spirit regenerating their minds and hearts, giving them insight into the Scriptures, and enabling them to be God's mouthpieces, ministers of His Truth.

Joe G. Cannon Retired.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 18.—Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the house, has been defeated for re-election. Frank T. O'Hair, Democrat, according to revised returns from the district, has won by a plurality of 800 votes. Iroquois county, the largest in Cannon's district, went against him for the first time in years, and it was that plurality for O'Hara shown on the revised figures there that gave the Democrats their victory.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscription list of "The Marion News," has with this issue, been turned over to "The Record-Press," and they agree to fill out the unexpired time of those who do not already take their paper, without receiving one cent of compensation therefor, which, to say the least of it, is very kind of Mr. Jenkins. We told our readers when the list was turned over to "The Weekly Globe" that we did not know how long the Globe would continue to be published, and we are now informed that it's life is spent. However, whether that information be true or otherwise we are not undertaking to say, but at any rate the Subscription list of "The Marion News" has been turned over to "The Crittenden Record-Press" and until the expiration of your subscription, we feel safe in saying you will get your paper.

One other thing. The writer very much appreciates Mr. Jenkins' kindness in this matter, and sincerely trust you may likewise appreciate it to such an extent that at the expiration of your subscription you will renew the same.

Again assuring each of you of my sincere appreciation of your favors in the past, at the same time expressing to you again my regrets that The News did not prove to be a profitable undertaking. I am sincerely

In Memory.

Z. C., the little son of Willie and Corrine Pilaut, was born Oct. 11th, 1911, died Nov. 9th, 1912; aged one year and twenty-eight days. He was a bright sweet babe, loved by all who knew him. Thus over another home the shadow of a little grave has fallen and left that home sad and lonely.

This beautiful baby life was so precious, so fraught with blessings to his parents, that he seemed a flower of Paradise permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side, then recalled to its naturess skies, leaving the earth road for them dark and lonely, indeed.

Weep not, dear parents, for your babe is waiting and beckoning you to come, where parting is no more. He will meet you, cheer and greet you, when you reach that other shore.

THE NEW VEGETABLE

A Combination of The Beet And Potato—Said to Be Very Prolific.

A news dispatch from Oregon reports a large crop of the new vegetable, the "beetato," a combination of the beet and potato. This latest addition to human foods is said to be very prolific and of delicious flavor.

It is not long since Burbank found a way to make the cactus edible. The cactus is a desert plant. It need not surprise us if in some such way man should discover the kinds of food of which he was deprived when Adam and Eve were expelled from the garden. The record is (Gen. 3:22) that if man could have had access to those foods he would have been able to "put forth his hand and eat and live forever." In disfavor with God it has been a blessing that man could not do this, for he was created to live in harmony with his Creator and could not be truly happy under any other conditions.

These wonderful food discoveries, together with modern irrigation works, remind us of the prophesy of Joel 2:21, 22, "Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice, for the Lord will do great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the trees beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength."

They also remind us of the great Messianic prophesy of Isa. 35, "The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. The glory of (the forests of) Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of (the fruitful hillsides of) Carmel and of the vale of Sharon. Say to them that are of a fearful heart (those losing faith in God and thus losing all hope in life) be strong, fear not. Behold your God will come . . . and save you (out of your troubles, even including poverty and death.) Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then the lame man leap as an hart and the tongue of the dumb sing."

IN MEMORIAM.

On the 24 day of Oct. 1912, just at the close of day, just at sunset when everything was sad and still, when the little birds had closed their sweet songs for the day, the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Emily Brown and took her life mate, uncle Jimmy Brown away.

A loved one from our home is gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our home That never can be filled.

The vacant place; the empty chair, We see them day by day. And oh! it fills our hearts with care, Since our father went away.

Oh! how he will be missed. He was a true, honest christian and a good church worker. But weep not dear wife and children for he is with the angels. Sorrow and suffering he will know no more. And all I can say to the bereaved ones, you can meet him in his happy home above. Weep not as those that have no hope; weep not for your loss, is his eternal gain.

He was born in Warren county, Tenn., Oct. 30th, 1814; died Oct. 24th, 1912. His remains were laid to rest in the Freedom cemetery, where he always said he wanted to be buried. He leaves a wife and seven children, three step children and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

We have lost our darling father, He has bid us all adieu, He has gone to live in Heaven, And his form is lost to view.

Oh, that dear one, how we loved him Oh, how hard to give him up, But an angel came down for him And removed him from our flock.

Precious father he has left us, Left us, yes forever more, But we hope to meet our loved one On that bright and happy shore.

Lonely the house and sad the hours Since our dear one has gone, But oh, a brighter home than ours, In Heaven is now his own.

A Daughter-in-law,
L. S. B.

DEATHS

Mrs. Isabel Cook Flanary, the venerable relict of the late John A. Flanary, who preceded her to the grave in 1885, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Laura Howerton, where she has lived since the death, of her son, R. L. Flanary, four miles from the city on the Morganfield road Saturday morning at 12:40 o'clock of uremic poisoning. Mrs. Flanary was born in this county near Fords Ferry, Dec. 28, 1825, and lacked therefore only a few weeks of rounding out her 87th year. She had the misfortune to fall and break her hip a few years ago, which rendered her almost helpless, but otherwise her general health was good, remarkably so, for one of her age. She had not been ill and was up and able to be about the room and to enjoy her meals on the day preceding her death, and undressed herself as late as five o'clock, when she complained of feeling badly and then the family discovered she had a rigor. After they wrapped her in warm blankets, she lapsed into unconsciousness from which they were never able to arouse her and although Dr. Clement was hastily summoned, his skill was of no avail, and he soon informed the family that her sleep was the "sleep of death." She lingered until 20 minutes of 1 when she quietly and peacefully breathed her last.

The funeral was held and the interment took place Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the new cemetery, Rev. Martin E. Miller officiating.

Mrs. Flanary was a woman of quiet and refined manners and had been a Christian since childhood, holding her membership at Dunn Springs Baptist church at the time of her death. She is survived by two brothers, H. M. Cook, of this city, and Levi E. Cook, of Fords Ferry, and one sister, Mrs. Snyder Wilborn, wife of Richard M. Wilborn, of this city, and by one daughter, Mrs. Laura Howerton, of the county, and three sons, Gordon, of Dallas, Texas; D. C. (Kit), of Houston, Texas, and Henry, now of California but recently of Memphis, Tenn. She has twelve

SAVE YOUR HAIR

While You Have Hair to Save.
Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Every woman who is obliged to wear false hair or man, a toupee, feels that it is a misfortune. What makes the burden so doubly hard to bear is the knowledge that the loss of natural hair could, in most instances, have been easily avoided. The arch enemy of good hair is the dandruff germ. This is now a well established scientific fact. There is one remedy on the market which, used regularly, will kill the germ and keep out every trace of dandruff. This remedy is Newbro's Herpicide long known as the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer. By keeping the scalp clean, Herpicide not only prevents the hair from falling out but allows it to grow as nature intended. Begun in time and its use persisted in, this valuable remedy insures a nice healthy head of hair. Herpicide imparts a life and luster to dull, dead, brittle hair making it thick, fluffy and beautiful. Don't wait. Begin now to save your hair. It guarantees the one dollar size bottle.

Lindsey G. Whitt, son of Geo. L. Whitt, one of our best families of the Frances section, died in St. Louis, Mo., Saturday night Nov. 23rd, at 10:40 o'clock of kidney trouble. The remains were brought to Mexico, Monday on the noon train and were taken to the Presbyterian church at Frances, where Rev. A. J. Thompson preached the funeral, after which the interment took place at the Whitt family burial ground. The deceased was born April 3rd, 1886, and is survived by four brothers; Henry, Ira, Allie and Forest, and two sisters, Mesdames B. F. Walker, Jr., and Milt Yandell, all of this county. His father and one of his brothers went to St. Louis last week to see him but found him unconscious and beyond human aid. They remained till the end came and accompanied the remains to his old home, where they were laid to rest on the old farm where he first saw the light.

Mrs. Caroline Clement Dean, wife of J. N. Dean, the venerable octogenarian of the Iron Hill section, died at her home Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock of the diseases incident to old age, she had been in poor health for sometime but the end came unexpectedly to her family and friends.

Mrs. Dean was the daughter of the late Granville Clement and a sister of the late Marion Clement of the Weaton section and was in 76th year, she is survived by her husband and seven children, 1 daughter. Mrs. Ida Morse of this county and 6 sons, Ed, Joe and Marion of this county, Robt of St. Louis, Mo., James B. and W. A. (Sandy) of Detroit, Texas. She was a member of the Southern Presbyterian church here and had been for many years.

The funeral will be this (Thursday) morning at Sugar Grove church. Rev. H. V. Escott officiating. The interment will be at the Allen grave yard.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER. Thomas Brooks Fletcher, who is to lecture here, was formerly a newspaper editor of note, and he is starting on his eighth year as a lecturer. He is the youngest man of similar renown on the American lecture stage. He is pronounced to be the leader of the younger lecturers and thinkers of this generation.

Reports from the lecture course committees that have engaged him class him among the most distinguished orators of the present time. He has been substituted for the late Senator John P. Dolliver, and at Findlay, O., recently he was substituted for the famous Ben B. Lindsey of the juvenile court of Denver, Colo., and this was his second appearance before the Findlay audience within eight months. He has lectured in nearly every state in the Union, and his success has been as remarkable in Massachusetts and the New England states as it has been in Iowa and the west. He has appeared before some of the largest college and university courses everywhere, and there are few places where he has not been recalled for the second or third lecture, which would indicate that we are to have, perhaps, one of the greatest addresses ever delivered in this city.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER.

It is remarkable that a man should be able in so short a time to lecture on the same platform with Dr. S. Parks Cadman, Newell Dwight Hillis, Wendling, Gunsaulus, John Temple Graves and many other distinguished men of great intellect and be able to share honors with them in oratorical ability and be pronounced by the audiences the equal of the most dramatic orators of the time.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is to appear on the Lyceum course of the Marion City Schools, Tuesday, Dec. 3. He is one of the highest priced lecturers on the American platform. Those who have found fault with our course because there are not enough great lectures in it will not have cause for disappointment in Fletcher. The three lecturers who are to come this year are as high class and as high priced as we can afford. People ought not to expect a William Jennings Bryan for twenty seven and a half cents.

An Ancient Knife.

L. H. Adams, while visiting his nephew, Frank Adams, last week presented him with a pocket knife, which bore the following inscription, "John C. Adams, died Aug. 18th, 1855." Frank prizes the knife very highly, as his uncle, L. H. has preserved it in a chamois skin pouch since the death of his brother, J. C. Adams, 57 years ago. The knife is perfectly preserved and is a splendid one.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE FIVE MARION PRECINCTS.

The grand old Democratic party has won a great victory. Wilson and Marshall will be inaugurated President and Vice President on the 4th of next March, and in due time a Democrat will be appointed Postmaster at Marion. The Hon. O. M. James, our Senator-elect, wants to endorse the choice of the Democrats of his home town for this appointment, and the Democratic voters of these five precincts will be given a chance to express their choice. An election will be called, the chairman of the Democratic Committee will hold this election, and to you, the democratic voters, I take this means of announcing that I am a candidate for this important and responsible office believing I can give you acceptable service. I don't claim that the party owes me much, I have, in an humble way, tried to be faithful to my party and my friends; voting, working and giving; voting always for our standard bearers, working for party success and giving my mite in furnishing the necessary means to pay her expenses. And now I do most earnestly ask your vote. I have voted straight for 35 years, and this is my first time to ask any favors at your hands. I promise if you elect me and I get the appointment, to give you and the whole people the very best service possible. I can't win unless my friends give me their help, and I urge you to get out and do what you can to help me and I will appreciate it more than words can express.

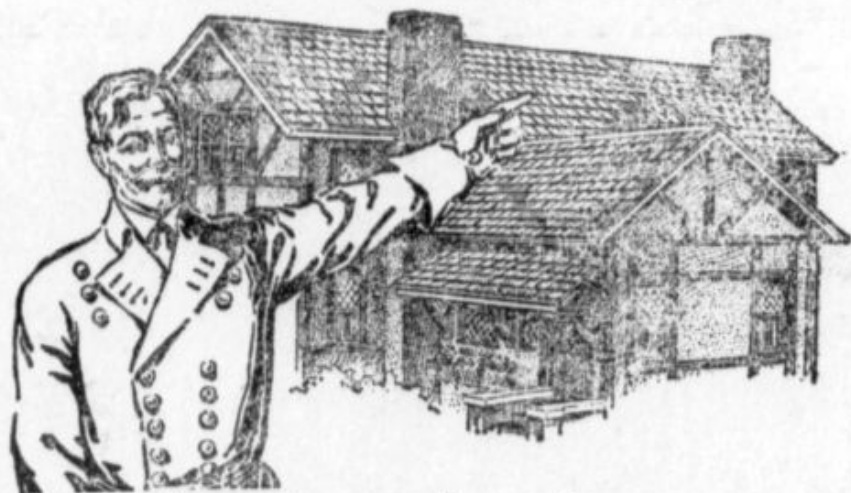

Very Respectfully,

Record Broken in Connection With Chicago Stock Show.

With its $75,000 offered in prizes and its entries closed, the International Live Stock Exposition, which will be held on the dates of November 30 to December 7 inclusive at the Union Stock yards, Chicago has broken all records in every department in regard to the number of exhibits. Every breed of cattle, sheep, swine and horses will be represented on a much larger scale, the arrangements for the show have been better provided for, and the great Stock Show of 1912 will go down into history as the most comprehensive, the most complete, the most modern advanced and up to date of all the exhibitions, wonderful as they have been, which have preceded it. Such a statement of facts as this, is positive proof of the importance of the event and how it is regarded by the stockmen of the country.

It not only offers to breeders, feeders farmers and others who are interested in the live stock industry a school of analysis but a free and liberal education in everything that a stockman requires, and present to the sons of these men an opportunity for obtaining that information, and insight into the stockman's business, so necessary, so indispensable to them in after years.

Breeders, feeders and farmers who are developing a business of the kind, or who have already developed one, and who have sons ready to step into their shoes when they shall have cast them off, and put upon them the slippers of ease and restfulness, owe to these young men the privilege of seeing this extraordinary Exposition, and imbibing that knowledge without which they will be sorely handicapped when they come to compete with those who have taken advantage and profited by the opportunities it affords.

Money spent in attending this Show is money invested in gilt edged security that will return interest at the rate of one hundred per cent.

Educational Teaching.

I believe every teacher in Crittenden county while working upon the crude material of childhood to fix them up for future life and to make men and women of honor and honesty, have abandoned the old idea of "teaching for the money" and have utilized the methods of arousing the child's mind to a higher degree of intelligence and morality. We used to hear them say, "Just so I get the coin." But now you hear, "I want to reach the highest point of learning for my pupils, and the principles of education are sought in human nature. This nature is organic, consisting of physical, intellectual and moral capabilities, ready and struggling to develop themselves. The function of the educator is both negative and positive: he must remove impediments to the learner's development and he must also stimulate the exercise of his powers. Self-development begins with sensation received through the senses. These sensations lead to perceptions which register in the mind as conceptions, or ideas constitute the basis of knowledge. Self-activity is the necessary condition under which mind educates itself and gains power and independence. Practical aptness depends more on exercise than on knowledge. Knowing and doing must, however, proceed together. The chief aim of education is the development of the learning powers. All education must be based upon the learners operation. This is the true basis of all knowledge. What the learner has gained through his own observation has become actual possession. The learner's growth necessitates advancement from the near and actual to the more remote, hence from the concrete to the abstract from particulars to generals and so on, from the known to the unknown. Coordination and correlation of studies. These terms mean respectively, deciding what studies shall be given equal rank in your course of study and what studies are naturally related. The solution of this problem is largely dependent upon the theory of instruction you pursue. This leads each to reinforce the other, increase the pupil's interest in his work, gives him a better understanding of the subject and strengthens his power of volition. Interest manifested by children needs to be directed by the teacher. Children are most easily interested in what they know something about. Therefore in selecting subjects for young children, you should have due regard for what they already know. Children are not interested in what they cannot understand, therefore each lesson should be a preparation for that which is to follow, and the grade of work should be kept well in the capacity of the children. A general notion, as its formation, requires the use of all mental powers, and is much more difficult than the formation of industrial notions. When a new idea is received it is compared with other ideas already in the mind and classified. But the main idea is to arouse the mind to thought. How many parents are having their children educated to make future citizens of greater Kentucky? Let's get interested in our school. It's yours—are you helping push along? Do you ask them what they learn, and if they have good lessons? Do you ever go out and stay all day at your school and see how your children and your neighbor's children are getting along? Do you know you have a right to do this and it is your duty to do it? Some say, "Well, any thing will do me." As long as you say this, you will get anything. As long as you don't help, Kentucky is going to rank 39th in educational work. Some say, "Things happen." They do, if you make them happen. Let every body put a shoulder to the educational wheel and make things happen.

—J. C. HARRIS.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF MARION AND VICINITY

To the Democratic voters and to my friends of the 5 Marion Voting Precincts, I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the Office of Postmaster at the Marion Post Office and humbly ask you as a friend and one of you to please consider my candidacy and extend to me your support and influence according to your confidence in my worthiness.

I fully appreciate the fact that I am asking a great deal of you in asking for your support for this office and especially at this time when many of you doubtless have other friends that would like to have your help and under other conditions I would not want or try to presume on your friendship, but being disabled from doing farm work or any other kind of manual labor, I am forced to hunt some other kind of work to make a living for myself and family and beg to assure you that no one would appreciate your support or try harder to prove himself worthy of the trust than I and if you see fit to elect me as your choice for this office, I promise you that my appreciation shall be proven by a faithful performance of the service you demand.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM COLEMAN FOSTER

Marion Boy Making Good At Lexington.

Nov. 16th 1912.

Mr. Marshall Jenkins,
Kind Sir:—

Prof. Weaver with the help of the students and faculty of this University, has organized a University Press Association for the purpose of making known to the state the work and aims of this University and of getting the entire state in touch with the University.

This work is carried on by assigning to each member a certain building of the University which he is to visit daily and obtain the news of special interest. He places this news on a board in the association room and while there he chooses any event which he thinks will be of interest to his home paper. This association will endeavor to make this news profitable to the papers represented.

I noticed a few weeks ago in the Record-Press an article in regard to the probable successor of Dr. Scovell. Dr. Kastle has been chosen for that office and has held his first faculty meeting. I thought that possibly this would be of interest to the readers of the Record-Press so I submit to your consideration an article in regard to Dr. Kastle and his work as director of Experiment station and Dean of Agriculture, and ask to represent your paper in this association.

Thanking you for considering this matter and hoping to receive a favorable reply, I beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully
Coleman Foster,
149 Washington Ave.,
Lexington, Ky.

PROF. JAS. H. KASTLE.

Prof. Kastle has been chosen as Director of the Experiment Station and Dean of Agriculture.

The executive committee of Kentucky State University selected Prof. Jas. H. Kastle as director of the Experiment Station and Dean of the College of Agriculture of State University, to succeed the late Dr. M. A. Scovell. The choice is made subject to the ratification by the board of trustees at its meeting in December. Dr. Kastle is a Kentuckian and loves Kentucky people. He was born in Lexington, Jan. 25, 1864. He entered State College in 1880 and graduated in 1884, as the valedictorian of his class and winning the Governor's medal in scholarship. He later attended John Hopkins University where he took in succession the honors offered by that University.

Dr. Kastle having completed his college education accepted a government position and carried on practically the same work in Virginia that Dr. Scovell did in Kentucky. Dr. Scovell recognizing his ability persuaded him to give up his position in Virginia and take up work in Kentucky.

Since then he has been offered twice his former salary to re-enter the Government service. He has refused and has remained in Kentucky. Dr. Kastle has devised a very sanitary expedient for rural residence, which the State Board of Health is now introducing in Kentucky.

As a chemist Dr. Kastle is not excelled in the entire country. His many friends received the announcement of his appointment with much gratification, as he was regarded by every one as the man most capable of carrying forward along the same broad scientific lines the work begun by the late Dr. Scovell. It is the prediction of all, that under his administration both the agricultural college and the Experiment station will do a great work.

TO THE DEMOCRATS Of The Five Marion Precincts.

YOU WILL SOON BE CALLED UPON TO NAME IN A STRAIGHT WAY YOUR CHOICE FOR POSTMASTER OF THIS CITY.

I ASK YOUR SUPPORT, YOUR VOTES AND YOUR GOOD WILL. I HAVE GROWN UP AMONG YOU, SHARED YOUR JOYS AND YOUR SORROWS. I WOULD LIKE THIS POSITION AS POSTMASTER AND I ASSURE YOU THAT IF I RECEIVE THE APPOINTMENT YOU WILL HAVE GOOD SERVICE, AND A MODEL POSTOFFICE.

YOUR FRIEND,

JOHN W. WILSON.

Juicy Plums To Be Handed Out by the Democrats.

Beginning March, 1913, all of the federal patronage in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia—the same rule will apply to all the states—will be dispensed by democratic senators and representatives in congress and democratic national committee-men, state chairmen and minor party officers.

The rule followed by national administrators in the dispensing of offices is that the members of congress shall control the post office patronage in their respective districts while it is the prerogative of the senators to recommend postmasters in such of the congressional districts as are represented by the minority party.

The senators also control, as a rule, the naming of collectors of customs and internal revenue, United States district attorneys and marshals, etc.

To illustrate, in Kentucky, beginning with the Wilson administration, all the democratic members of the house will be allowed to pick the post masters in their own districts, while senator-elect Ollie M. James will be the arbiter in the district carried by the republicans—the 10th and 11th. In Kentucky there are 118—6 of the first, 27 of the second, and 85 of the third class.

PAY OF POSTMASTERS.
Postmasters of the third class receive from $1,000 to $2,000 a year, of the second class from $2,000 to $3,000, and of the first class from $3,000 to $6,000.

The terms of some of the incumbents soon will begin to expire, and very likely the rush for the succession will begin immediately.

New Nickel Will

Have Indian Head.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—The design of the new nickel to supplant the 5-cent coin now in circulation will be perfected by Secretary of the Treasury McVeigh within a few weeks. George E. Roberts, director of the mint, and S. E. Frazer, of New York, an artist, who is working on the design, conferred with secretary today.

An Indian head will adorn the face of the coin, and the figure of a buffalo the reverse. The design is intended to honor the disappearing Indian and buffalo, linked together in American history.

Dr. S. S. Dalton Missing.

Esq. Chas. T. Riley of Tolu received a letter from his brother in-law, Dr. Dalton of this place, dated, Nov. 20, 1912, stating that he wanted him to take charge of his business and make a settlement, that he was in trouble, ruined and tired of living, that dying was easier for him than living; that he was going to end his life and not to worry about his death. He was staying at the home of Mr. John Franklin where he was well liked and well treated. He suddenly disappeared from there on that date leaving his clothing and all his belongings in his room. It is feared that he has sought some secluded spot and executed his threats.

Dr. Dalton came to our town about one year ago to practice in the veterinary work. His skill in his work, his fair dealings, and his uprightness won for him many true and lasting friends here. He married a Miss Parker at Hampton. They separated a few weeks ago and domestic troubles have brought this calamity on him and the worst is feared. He has not been located.

The Dr. has had the sympathy of the people here through all his trouble.

Writtenberry of Sturgis and the bride is the eldest daughter of B. B. Nelson, a highly respected citizen of this community and is a bright, active young lady and her friends are unnumbered. She was beautifully dressed in a frock of satin with Alice blue whipcord and was very attractive. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served to friends too numerous to mention. The couple left Monday morning for Sturgis where a well prepared dinner awaited them. Those who accompanied them were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brantley, Mr. Claude Nelson and Misses Florence and Lola Nelson, brother and sisters of the bride, Misses Elva Hatley, Selda King, Corda King, Corda and Rosa Arfack.

The young couple left Tuesday morning for Dekoven where they will make their future home.

They have the best wishes of the writer for a long, happy and prosperous life: and we pray that when, All of life's troubles are over, And mortal life shall cease, They shall gain a home on the golden shore, Where joys and blessings never cease. L. G. E.

the time the first fire alarm sounded, thus restoring service to the section damaged in time for lights that afternoon.

The Marion Home Telephone Exchange suffered a much more severe loss from the fire. Nearly 200 feet of cable through which the subscribers in the northwest part of town are served, burned down. When the messenger wire carrying the cable, burned in two, it fell for several hundred yards, carrying several poles with it.

Early the same morning, Supt. Obenchain put men to work setting poles and clearing the wreckage. Three men were sent from Paducah on the first train, also 300 feet of cable and 1000 feet of messenger wire was expressed at considerable cost.

The work of repairing the cable was carried on almost without stop, until 9:30 Sunday night at which time service was restored to all the subscribers working through it, making a lapse of 39½ hours from the time the fire burned down sufficiently to permit work.

The total cost to the company will be nearly $300.00, and had not Supt. Obenchain taken matters in charge so promptly and managed them so systematically, the delay would have been much longer and inconvenience to patrons much greater.
