SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

At Clement Home Last Tuesday Evening in Honor of Miss Marion Ellis Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Clement and daughter, Miss Marian, were at home to two hundred of their friends Tuesday evening in honor of the bride of the week, Miss Ellis Gray. The beautiful home was illuminated and decorated with cut flowers and smilax. The guests were invited for different hours some arriving at 8:30 departing at 9:30; some from 9 to 10 some from 9:30 to 10:30; and some later, and it was indeed a moving panorama of beauty and chivalry which passed in procession through the hospitable doorway of this beautiful home. As the guests arrived they were shown first to the cloak rooms, then into the hall and were served with punch, Mesdames Virgil Moore and Cecil Ellis, two charming young matrons presiding there. The introduction to the host, hostesses, guest of honor, and the visitors followed. In the receiving line were the host, hostesses, the guest of honor, the groom to be, Mr. Frank Raymond Edwards, of Gilbert, Minn., his sister, Miss Mary Evalyn Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mr. Edward D. Gray, of San Juan, Porto Rico, only brother of the bride, who came home a distance of 2500 miles to attend the wedding.

Brick cream from a well known Evansville caterer was served with nabiscos to the guests standing in the dining room. An elegant entertainment it was, adding another jewel to Marion's social calendar. One delighted guest remarked, "the girls look prettier, the ladies younger and handsomer, the men and boys better looking than they ever did before to me, in fact its the best looking crowd I ever saw." And that expressed it about right.

D. Woods, the affable banker, who has passed the three score mark, and who is a most untiring worker, is off on a vacation and took advantage of it to visit his daughter, Mrs. Welford White, and children, at Helena, Ark.

No Wonder The State Is In Debt

Frankfort, Ky., June 5, 1913.

At the Wednesday meeting of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission final arrangements were made for taking over the Health Exhibit Car, which was run to a great many towns in the State a year ago. The car is now being altered, and a new exhibit is being installed. In the course of ten days the car will start on another trip through Kentucky. The Commission hopes to keep the car on the road, at least, two years, and reach, if possible, all the available points in the State. A committee of three was appointed to meet at the Capitol next Monday, and engage one or more representatives to travel with the car and explain the exhibit.

CARNAHAN BROS. & DODGE'S SALE

Now On.—Immense Crowds.—Excitement Was at Fever Heat Big Sale Grand Success

The big sale opened at Carnahan Bros and Dodge last Friday was a grand success in every way. Two hours before the doors opened the crowds were at the doors eager to get the real bargains offered by that firm on their entire stock.

Never in the history of Marion could be seen such large crowds of shoppers buying as fast as seventeen clerks to wait on them. If you desire to secure big bargains in every article you had better attend this sale as Saturday night at 11 p. m. closes this big sale forever.

The balloon ascension last Saturday was a grand success, thousands witnessed this grand ascension. Next Saturday at 3 p. m. see the grand twelve foot airship flight. You are invited. Are you coming?

Paducah Visitor to Marry.

Invitations have been received in the city to the wedding of Miss Ellis Gray of Marion, Ky., and Mr. Frank Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., to take place on June 12th, in Marion.

The announcement is of interest in Paducah where Miss Gray has frequently visited. On these occasions she has been the popular guest of Mrs. William Hughes, of the Ellis apartment and of Miss Sarah Sanders of 501 Kentucky avenue.—Paducah Sun.

Freak of Female Snake.

Petersburg, Ind., June 9.—Chester Warner, while playing at the old fair ground saw a large blue racer. He chopped its head off and was surprised to see forty small blue racers crawl out of the body of the snake.

The snake had swallowed all her young when she saw danger near.

A Martyr.

A young man recently ate the ribbons tied around the sandwiches served to him at a party. He was very polite and didn't like to ask what the ribbons were for, and so he ate them. As he had at least four sandwiches, it is estimated that he ate fully three yards of ribbon. We have so often had occasion to point out the blunders made by people that we charitably refrain from saying where this unfortunate young man was from.—Pembroke Journal.

THE "PRIDE OF STETSON"

Marion Girl Captivates Florida Audience

Miss Anna Haynes, the voice graduate, one of the most gifted soloists in DeLand, was quite at her best. "Marie, My Girl," by Aitken; "Two Folk Songs" by Chadwick, and Jefferson's "Mother Dear" was the first group of songs, very daintily done. The heavier number was an Aria from Rossini, "Separation," sung as by an artist but without stage mannerisms, appealing to the audience evoking the heartiest applause. The last group of songs were from MacDowell; "The Swan," A Maid sings Light, and "Long Ago," followed by Herman's "Woogie," leaving the audience with the very best idea of her work and musical temperament. DeLand Fla., Record.

Repton Special.

A pretty little romance occurred in our midst Tuesday afternoon when Virgil Summers of Francis and Miss Pearl Carrier of Morganfield went to Marion and were quietly married by Rev. Yates.

They were accompanied by Miss Bernice Powell a cousin of the bride and Pratt Stanley.

A number of friends came to the train to bid them goodbye, and among them was Mrs. W. K. Powell aunt of the bride who was ignorant of the fact they were eloping, as Miss Carrier had left the impression that she was going to Blacksford to visit relatives and Mr. Summers was supposed to be on his way home consequently Mrs. Powell was very much surprised when instead of going in opposite directions, they all got on the south bound train for Marion. Miss Carrier is a popular young lady of Morganfield and has made many friends on her former visits here. Mr. Summers formerly lived here and is well known.

Their many friends join with us in wishing them a long and happy life.

COL. ROBERTS HAVING A TIME

At Editor's Association, Olympia Springs, Ky., Representing This Paper.

Frankfort June 9.

And how is Judge Nunn in the first question the Frankforter ask. Judge Nunn is certainly a favorite with these people.

The State Journal's "opening" was regardless of expense, they have a wonderfully complete plant, a battery of five linotype machines, folding and printing and binding machines, in fact a most complete printing plant.

Mr. Watterson sends the pleasant good wishes to his boys, of the State Journal Press and every official from the Governor down adds to the congratulations of the day.

It surely was a very full program that the program that the owners of the State Journal pulled off today, with the delightful lunch, their special edition of the Journal and their automobile excursion of 40 miles to Lexington where the guests were met with a special train over the C. & O. to Olympia Springs. Every point was covered. At this moment a band of ten or twelve pieces is making sweet music at Olympia. The supper to-night at the hotel was excellent, the house crowded and everybody pleasantly situated and satisfied.

There was time in the trip from Frankfort to Lexington where a possibility of delay was imminent. We stopped at the Old Taylor Distillery where as per the custom of Kentuckian, nothing was too good for the guest. Forty automobiles were in waiting. 200 guests were taken care of.

Mint juleps, high balls, toddys and all the things that the wickedness of a man named Webb attempted to prevent were in full force. 75,000 barrels of spirituous ferments were in storage when the Press Association reached there. It is diminished sensibly this evening. A more detailed account of the Press Association and its members will follow.—D. C. Roberts.

Mr. Frank R. Edwards, of Gilbert, Minn., and sister Miss Mary Evalyn Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Tuesday afternoon. On this (Thursday) afternoon Mr. Edwards will be united in marriage to Miss Marion Ellis Gray. It will be a home wedding. The ceremony will be performed by Rt. Rev. Father Kellners of the Roman Catholic church of which the bride is a devout member, at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. George Gray on corner main st. and Wilson avenue. Immediately after which they will leave for Chicago and Minneapolis. At the latter place they will visit the groom's parents.

Children of Rev. C. T. Clarke Ill of Ptomaine Poisoning Sunday Night.

Three daughters of Rev. C. T. Clarke, of Smith Mills, were in a serious condition Sunday night of ptomaine poisoning believed to have been caused by eating some canned food. Dr. Roysier worked with the children unceasingly for several hours.

Irene, aged 10, became ill at church while her father was preaching, May Naomi was stricken a few minutes after she left church, and Mag, aged 14 a short time after arriving at home.

They were pronounced out of danger Monday afternoon.—Henderson Gleaner.

Alleges Money Wasted

At State Normal School.

Frankfort, Ky., June 5.—Charges of recklessness and extravagance in expenditure of money appropriated by the state to the Eastern Kentucky normal school at Richmond were made by state inspector and Examiner Sherman Goodpaster in a report to Governor McCreary.

The inspector declares much of the money is spent with no hope of return inform of benefit to students.

The recapitulation shows liabilities of $98,929.08 and available assets of $57,640.10. This was the remarkable condition of affairs, says the report, when the assembly of 1912 appropriated the additional income of $35,000 for the two normal schools with provisions that trustees of schools should not contract obligations for the institution in excess of the money on hand, under penalty of fine and imprisonment. Various items of expenditure are targets for criticism in the inspector's report.

Thanks Mr. Metcalfe.

T. L. Metcalfe the florist at Hopkinsville sent each church here a large bouquet of roses last Sunday which were highly appreciated.

It was children's day at two of the churches and the flowers were especially useful at those places.

Webster County Happenings.

BIG BLACK ALLEY CAT STOPPED WEDDING

Bride Refused to be Married After Eloping When Tabby Crossed Path.

A big, gaunt, black alley cat was the cause of bitter tears and the indefinite postponement of a runaway marriage here when Harry Sanderson, a young coal operator of Dawson, Pa., driving a fast automobile, had out-distanced the car driven by H. A. Albright, father of his fiancée, Miss Julia Albright, and with her was about to enter the home of the minister, where the ceremony was to have been performed.

Sanderson and his bride had a good hour's start on Albright. Just a few minutes before the court house closed the young couple obtained a license. Then young Sanderson called up a minister and made arrangements for the marriage.

Sanderson and his fiancée were about to step onto the front porch of the minister's house when the cat ran directly in front of them, hesitated a second, and then scampered away. Instantly Miss Albright was in tears. Bemoaning the cat's act as an ill omen, she refused to enter the house or have the ceremony performed, and sadly young Sanderson headed his car back to Dawson. —Maysville, Ky., Independent.

Treasurer Opens Mountain Experiment Station Egg Account.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 7.—The state treasurer has opened an account with the Missouri hen and placed to her credit in the vaults the sum of $290.00. While the Missouri hen has been active for years, she has never had to her credit such a balance in the state treasury.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. To The Continental Policy Holder!

I have just purchased of Mr. James T. Hicklin, of this city, the agency of the Continental Insurance Company, for Crittenden and Livingston Counties, and am very glad to find so many policy holders of this Company. I congratulate you upon your wise choice in selecting as old and as reliable a Company as the Continental in which to place your Fire and Tornado Insurance. There are perhaps a few figures in connection with the Continental that might be of interest to you, and they will appear in this space from time to time.

As we have already stated, the Continental was formerly represented by Mr. Jas. T. Hicklin, who succeeded Mr. R. L. Flanary, and it was through no failure upon Mr. Hicklin's part that the agency was transferred, but I paid Mr. Hicklin for the agency. I bought it for two reasons. First, because I KNEW the Continental Insurance Company, and KNEW that you were acquainted with its fair, square methods of dealing with its policy holders. And Second, because I believed you would want your business to remain with just such Company. Therefore, I purchased the Agency and take this method of saying to you that I not only desire, but sincerely believe that you will allow your business to remain with the Continental, and will speak a good word for me to the Continental to your neighbors. You will find me at all times not only ready, but anxious, to serve you in any way possible. Should you want any change made in your policy; should you have a loss; should you make a deal involving the title to your property, please report it to me AT ONCE. You will find me located in the Jenkins building, Room No. 12, Phone No. 239-2. Call me. Rest assured that I will be to see you in plenty of time to renew any policy which may expire, and will put forth my best effort to make our dealings mutual and satisfactory. Trusting that I may have the pleasure of meeting every one of the Continental Policy holders personally within the near future, I am, Sincerely Yours,

"Mighty handsome church building that of the Methodists," said the dentist, "and a wonderfully big audience Sunday week," he continued, "what was it all about?"

"It was all in honor of the graduating class of the Marion High School," replied the mining man, "and if you would attend church occasionally you might get a reputation for piety like the rest of us and not go down to posterity or wherever you finally land as a coco-cola inebriate."

"Seems to me," said the coal miner, "that our mining associate is a whole lot starchier, and is shining around with a high-tail, two button cutaway, grey suede gloves and a general air of haut ton if any of you know what that means."

"We used to have haut ton or something like it fricassed at our boarding house last summer," said the musician, "and it wasn't bad."

"What's the whirl anyhow," said the fat man who was a little late, "why don't somebody get right down to cases and tell us what has been taking place around town."

"That's what I started to do half an hour ago," replied the religious member of the club, "but these hill billies have to untie themselves, they won't stand hitched."

"For the benefit of the members I will ask the doctor to tell us what he observed during the graduating exercises," this from the cocolabo himself.

"Probably some few of you here," said the doctor, "have attended church and know in a way what a church is and what it means, and what it is for. What one would naturally call the orchestra floor in the Methodist building was packed by the flower of the young people of Marion, there loomed up an occasional clover or narcissus blossom and once in a while you saw a real old fashioned sweet pansy blossom. Right in front of the vocalists, the long and the stout of it reclined in rocking chairs and slowly moved backward and forward to a rather undefined tune of their own composition."

"The Marion Orchestra was in full force and accompanied the hymns and chants of the service in splendid artistic form. When, once or twice, they had the opportunity to render their own selections, the effect was superb. This city should do everything in its power to hold together these real musicians even to the extent of arresting and holding them without bail. It certainly would be an almost irreparable loss to lose their musical talents."

"Up in the balconies I noticed some eighteen candidates for Jailor, six or seven for county Judge, and a lot of others who are waiting for Ambassadors; Consuls; District Attorneys; Collectors, or anything else that Ollie James may see lying around loose. Failing in anything of the official life, their wives will work the farm."

"In the chancel there were three of the Marion clergy, the preacher, a clean cut fine looking man who preached as well as he looked. His sermon was listened to with rapt attention and most of us regretted the striking twelve of the School House bell, as that signal causes the speaker to imagine that everybody is then counting the minutes before dinner, and that its time to stop."

"I have been there though," interrupted the lumber dealer, "when no bells went, he kept right along to seventy thirdly and before he reached lastly both dinner and supper were over."

"I would remind the lumber dealer," said the cocolabo, "that for the present he consider himself a deaf mute and act accordingly."

The lumber dealer made the coco cola high sign and after obsequies duly made to the cocolabo he sat down and shut up. "The sermon dwelt especially on sowing and reaping and that one must have good clean seed to secure good clean results." The chemist here interrupted with the remark that the preacher's statement was absolutely true, he also said, "as I look at every member of this club and observe carefully their characteristics, I am positive that forty or fifty years ago there must have been a whole lot of mixed seed, much of it being really worse than unclean." This club members after that sand papering from the chemist took an extra glass of the usual dope.

"The Barbecue that will be dished up on June eighteenth in honor of the re-union of the Pilgrims who accompanied the Ollie James special Inauguration train to Washington, will be under the immediate direction of Will Clifton," said the coal man. "Will is certainly good politics, the Cliftons came over to America by the way of London, Liverpool and Dycusburg sometime in the fourth century and Will has been here in Marion ever since. Outside of Billie Baird he is the oldest resident."

"Until Crooked Creek is dredged and made to give up its secrets no one will have so correct an idea of men and Fords motor cars as Will has, indeed this entire re-union idea and planning, is his work and the way it is carried out from the invitations to the toothpicks shows the handiwork of a real craftsman. Oscar the Chef of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York where the pilgrims tarried on their return home, hits the nail mighty well for a german when he says:—He is the biggest eater I have ever seen in the house."

"All of the goodfellows who accompanied this special train will receive the peculiar invitations in ample time. The form of the bidding is in the shape of a Crittenden County court Summons and the usual penalty for not promptly answering is replaced by the statement if not immediately acknowledged the Night Riders will get the recipient. It is expected that Senator James will be present and say grace."

"Our Marion people are mightily enthused," and the druggist, over their gala week running from June 14 to 20 and it looks as though it would be the biggest affair we have ever pulled off. With decent weather we will have to double up on our coca cola facilities and it might be well to order a lot of citric acid so as to have pure lemonade."

"The 'Quiet cities' in Marion were visited on Decoration day by the kin and friends of the dwellers therein. The masses of beautiful flowers representing the love, wishes and hopes speak a universal language and exemplify the almost passionate, I believe in the communion of saints, the resurrection of the body and the life ever-lasting."

HOPE AND KINDNESS.
(BY MRS. L. M. PATTON.)

We as homekeepers should do all in our power to make our homes what they should be. They may be humble, unpretentious ones; exhibiting no signs of material wealth; but there should be the wealth of mutual affection and sympathy emanating from loving christian hearts. These should be so strong and lasting that no fire can consume, no disaster alienate or destroy them, the home of the heart, the home of childhood, the elysium of riper years, the refuge of old age. What sweet sacred place home should be to all of us. Most of us live very busy lives but we should take time to read and inform our minds. We owe it to ourselves, to our families and those with whom we associate. The reading of pure, good literature broadens our views and gives us food for thought as we go about performing our various duties, and we all should have some flowers, emblems of purity and love. They not only brighten and cheer us many times but we may often remember the rich or poor with these tokens of love. Thus making glad many sad, lonely ones. We may feel depressed and discouraged.

Think there is so little we can do to make the world brighter and better—but we can all find little acts of kindness and love, we can bestow upon those who are hungering much more for these than for bread. Truly riches takes wings and flies, comforts vanish, hopes wither away, but love stays with us always. Love is God, and God is love. So let us give freely of the sunshine of love and kindness, thus making our pathway through life, happier and sweeter. There is scarcely a person who does not carry a burden more or less heavy, hope in the heart makes the burden seem lighter and some how or other we get to the end. May we lose sight of self and do all we can for others; thus making our lives worth living here. May we always be found doing our duty as best we can, and when life is over may we reach the haven of rest prepared for all the good and faithful.

Stories of The Town

Things Serious and Frivolous Talked About on The Streets of the County Hub.

(REPORTED BY R. C. HAYNES.)

"I have always looked upon myself as being as brave as most men," continued Dog-Owner No. 1. "When a boy, although peaceably inclined, I'd always stard my ground and fight my antagonist, even though I got knocked out in the fourth round, rather than run. Even now, I would not hesitate, if occasion called for it, to take up my gun and army canteen and go forth to face the bullets of the enemy in defense of my country. But who would not, gentlemen, show the white feather, so to speak, before the double-quick charge of a mad cow and a crazy cow-driver? Who would not, on such an occasion—with the thought of hydrophobia uppermost in his mind—lay aside all thought of combat and seek safety 'with his back to the field and his feet to the foe'?"

"Notwithstanding reflections like these, after I had gone a short distance I paused and glanced up the road. The cow was making toward me in full tilt and the driver, having lost control over her, was plunging along after the animal with long strides, his hat in one hand and holding to the end of the rope with the other!"

"I looked around me. No friendly tree, up which I might climb, was near; no obliging fence, over which I might leap, was in sight; no cave, into whose dark depths I might hide, was open to me; not even a hollow log, in to which I might crawl for safety, was visible to me. I therefore did the only sensible thing left me to do—I again took to my heels as fast as my legs would carry me."

"As I was plunging on down the road, leaving a blue streak behind me, I heard a jumble of words coming from the mouth of the cow-driver—words which I failed to comprehend the meaning of—followed by a side-splitting Haw-haw-haw! Haw-haw-haw!"

"The dog-don'd scoundrel of a cow-driver!—to be thus laughing at my calamity. It is outrageous, I reflected. The man who wouldn't stir up heel dust in front of a mad cow or a bull affected with hydrophobia, would not run from the Old Boy himself."

"Although I am a member of the Presbyterian church in good standing, I again reflected, I'll get even with that dad-gum'd cow-driver, whether he be Bob Elkins, Jim Hill or Nathan Ward!"

"With these consoling reflections, I plunged on down the road toward home, paying no apparent attention to the impudent cow-driver, and as I rushed on I could hear behind me the plunging of the determined beast in her frantic efforts to lessen the distance between us!"

"Fortunately the road was down-grade, and being by nature long-legged, the tracks I made down that hill were amazingly far-apart and made in remarkably rapid succession, my feet pounding against the roadway and leaving a cloud of dust behind me."

"On I went, head-on, pell-mell, and on came the cow and the cow-driver after me!"

"Glancing back a second time, I saw that the cow had gotten loose from the man and was plunging on unrestrained, the rope trailing in the dust behind her, the cow-driver following in full tilt and making desperate berserk of the rope!"

Meeting Judge Nunn, of the Appellate Court, on the streets the other day and seeing his healthy looking ruddy face and the springy, jaunty step as he chaperoned two most charming ladies to a luncheon function we wondered why more of the business and mentally tired people did not come to our delightful climate for recuperation and the upbuilding of their physical systems. Marion has so much to offer in every way from the health giving ozone of her atmosphere to the dainty breakfasts, delightful luncheons and elaborate dinners coupled with real boulevard streets where the pleasure of driving or motoring is accentuated by cool winds and dustless thoroughfares.

Our Crittenden Springs hotel of a hundred rooms or more with every possible facility for caring for two hundred and fifty guests at least was evidently constructed a few years ago. With our present motor cars, well graded roads and the heavily foliated trees along the drive, that old hollow, blue gum would now be surrounded by eager devotees of the sulphur water habit, the spacious dancing floors of the big building alive with the youth and beauty of the city and countryside, the air vibrant with the "salute all" and the cheerful "allemande left" or "all hands around." Crittenden Springs Hotel, would be besieged for accommodations from all points of the compass. Why not restore, revamp, rejuvenate this once delightful summer resort? Its never to late to mend.

Another sensation in Wall Street, Barrels of water in the shape of inflated values in many securities flowed out and the real water level is not far below the present quotations. Wheat and corn also had its depressed day once more and declined sharply, but everybody is still eating bread produced from wheat and using the dividends from dividend paying securities to buy the flour. This sort of thing will continue we hope for several centuries yet. Certainly the Democratic party is not running the New York Stock Exchange or the Chicago Produce Exchange and really if that questionable honor was theirs, less water in securities and cheaper bread for us all would be a pretty good slogan.

The marriage of Miss Ellis Gray, the youngest daughter of George C. and Mrs. Gray, will be solemnized today. George Gray and his wife are of the class of people who have made the State of Kentucky notable for personal kindness and hospitality; of long residence in Marion, with the truest instincts of the manly man and the womanly woman we each and all tender our respectful and most heartfelt congratulations over the nuptial Mass to be sung today.

Could anything be more deliciously stated than the following invitation from Messrs. Graham Vreeland, President, and James L. Newman, Secretary, of "The State Journal," Frankfort, Ky? "The Kentucky Press Association has accepted an invitation to stop over in Frankfort at 11 o'clock next Monday morning June 9th, on the way to their annual meeting at Olympia and participate in the opening of our new plant to the public. We believe we have the modern plant in the South, not excepting any in the larger cities, and we believe, as a newspaper man, it will be worth your while to inspect a printing establishment like ours, both as to the construction and arrangement of our building and the machinery, which is of the latest models manufactured. We believe it will be of special interest to you because it is adapted to uses of the smaller newspaper.

We will serve buffet luncheon in our plant at noon and have arranged for fifty automobiles in which we shall take all the newspaper men and their families over the most beautiful drive in the State to Lexington, where we have arranged for a special train to take you to Olympia late in the afternoon.

We hope you will be among those present, and shall certainly be deeply disappointed if you fail to come."

A telegram followed the above requesting the photograph of our representative to the Kentucky Press Association for reproduction in the State Journal which was duly mailed. We really hope our Ambassador will remember to always have a pad of paper in his pocket and a well sharpened pencil.

Byran's Growth in Popular Esteem

The characteristic speech which Mr. Bryan made in Baltimore recently explains to a large degree why he has maintained so great a hold on the sympathy of the people. He took occasion to say that the defeats he had met with had not embittered him nor left him nursing any personal enmities and he expressed his satisfaction that Woodrow Wilson should have been able to do what he himself was unable to do.

He uttered a truth when he said that hatreds only injured the man who carried them and his own life proves that he himself as not been corroded by bitterness. To go through the fights Mr. Bryan has gone through and to remain optimistic, cheerful and to harbor no enmities nor petty dislikes is an achievement of living of which few men are capable.

It shows that the really big man cares more for the success of a good cause than he does for the triumph of that cause through himself. Whatever mistake Mr. Bryan may have made he holds his high place in popular esteem because he has never yet put his personal fortunes above his social duty. He has always set his gaze "not on the prize, but the goal."--Paducah News Democrat.

Down here in the Gibraltar we know Senator James as "our Ollie." His battles are ours, and his victories ours. We look on him as having belonged to us before he belonged to Kentucky, and with the pride of district ownership the Gibraltar applauds the appointment of Josh Griffiths.

A Glorious Day.

June 8th was Children's Day at Fredonia C. P. church, and it was a precious good service, rendered by the children who had been skillfully and rightly trained by Mesdames. Smith Lowery, James Ray, Richard Crowe and others. The children all did extra well. It was the general decision of all present, that it was the best exercise they ever heard. The piece spoken by Annie May Elder, was a splendid good sermon in itself. Although it rained all the morning, there was a very large audience present and everyone said they enjoyed the services fine. After the services at the church was over, there was a bountiful dinner was spread under some trees, near by, which was highly enjoyed, especially uncle Billy Lloyd.

A collection was taken up by the children which amounted to $18.08. Bro. Oakley, the pastor, was present and made a good talk, and the choir rendered some splendid music with Miss Virgie Bugg, as organist. Bro. Oakley preached a good sermon in the afternoon on the subject of "Home Training." All in all it was a happy day to all.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Your confidence is what Studebaker seeks to keep Possessing this confidence, we have never tried to produce a cheap wagon. We could, but we don't dare try the experiment. Our constant aim has been to produce the best wagon.

And in living up to this highest standard, we have won and hold—the confidence and good-will of hundreds of thousands of farmers all over the world.

Studebaker wagons are built to last, to do a day's work every day, to stand up under stress and strain and to make the name Studebaker stand for all that is best in vehicles.

Don't accept any other wagon represented to be just as good as a Studebaker. The substitute may be cheaper, but it isn't up to Studebaker standards, and you can't afford to buy it.

For business or pleasure, there is a Studebaker vehicle suited to your requirements. Farm wagons, trucks, business wagons, surreys, buggies, runabouts, pony carriages—each the best of its kind. Harness also—of the same high Studebaker standard.

MISS DEAN CHOSEN

Not Allowed to Rest.

That the office should seek the man, is an old saying which we rarely see verified, but in the case of a young lady we know it is different. Miss Annie Dean, who was assistant high school teacher here the session just closed, did not apply for that, or any other position, in the Marion graded and high school, as she wished to take a rest, and stay at home with her parents, who very much desired her to do so, as she is their only child. When the news reached Prof. McHenry Rhoads, state superintendent of High Schools, he happened to know of a teacher being needed in "mathematics" in the high school at Cynthiana, and recommended Miss Dean without her knowledge. She was interested and notified by wire and asked "will you accept." Some time a girl hesitates at this question and seems shy but when Miss Dean thought of the new $50,000.00 high school building at Cynthiana completely equipped and of the nice salary attached, she said "yes," and will report there about August 15, ready to take charge. Her friends are congratulating her. Cynthiana is a fine city of 6000 inhabitants, of culture and refinement and is in the heart of the blue grass country, between Lexington and Cincinnati, Paris and Maysville.

Remember THAT Feeling

"Blue" Feeling

When you feel discouraged and all the world seems to be against you—that's your system's way of telegraphing you that something is WRONG and needs HELP.

It may be that your liver is tired and refuses to work, or your digestive organs have had too much to do and need care. Perhaps you have been eating the wrong kind of food, and your blood is too rich or impoverished. What you need is a tonic.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

will give the required aid. Tones the entire system. The weak stomach is made strong. The liver vibrates with new life. The blood is cleansed of all impurities and carries renewed health to every vein and nerve and muscle and organ of the body. No more attacks of the "blues." Life becomes worth while again, and hope takes place of despair.

Insist on getting Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Sold by dealers in medicine.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

NOT ONLY IN MARION

Similar Cases Occur Daily in This Vicinity.

Not only here in Marion but in our neighboring towns, the same good story is heard. An encouraging instance from Princeton is given here, and will be read by us with great interest.

J. H. Thompson, plumber, Princeton, Ky., says: "I was troubled for five years by backache and other annoying symptoms of kidney complaint. During the early part of the winter when the cold weather set in, I was sure to have an attack of lame back that made it impossible for me to work for days at a time. I tried many remedies but got no relief. It was just about a year that I was laid up. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. I began taking them and in two days I was back to work, feeling better in every way. I do not have backache now and my health has been greatly improved."

A SECOND STATMENT.

When Mr. Thompson was interviewed on Feb. 3rd, 1912, he added: "I am glad to confirm the public statement I gave some years ago, praising Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever I have had occasion to use this remedy, I have been greatly benefited."

For sale by all dealers. Price fifty cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Tired of Whitewashing.

A lower Illinois editor, declaring he has become tired of wielding the whitewash brush in the matter of obituaries, has decided to reform and tell the truth just once. His comment on the death of a well known citizen in the community follows: "Died-Aged 56 years 6 months and 13 days. Deceased was a mild mannered pirate, with a mouth for whiskey and an eye for booty. He came here in the night with another man's wife and joined the church at first chance. He owes us several dollars for the paper, a large meat bill, and you could hear him pray for six blocks. He died singing: 'Jesus Paid It All,' and we think he is right he never paid anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos casket, and his many friends threw palmleaf fans in the grave as he may need them. His tombstone will be a favorite resting place for hoot owls."—St. Louis Republic.
