SURPASSING- LY BEAUTIFUL

Was Wedding Ceremony of Miss Verna Pickens and Mr. Maurie Boston.—Enrancing Scene.

At the Methodist church in this city on Tuesday afternoon Nov. 17th. at 1:30 o'clock the marriage ceremony of Miss Verna Adair Pickens, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Pickens Sr. and Mr. Maurie Nunn Boston, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Boston all of this city, was celebrated before a distinguished audience, of relatives and friends of these popular young people, which completely filled the vast auditorium and wings of the great edifice, which is so admirably adapted for such occasions. It was a yellow and pink wedding and the decorations which were profuse, were in these colors, huge bouquets of yellow and pink chrysanthemums being everywhere in evidence, the altar, chancel and balconies being completely hidden and in a most artistic and attractive way. Miss Sarah Woods presided at the organ and delighted the assembling audience with an "Overture of Tancredi" by Rossini, after which Mrs. Marshall Jenkins rendered "Chant du Berger" by Monseur de-Colas, on the Italian Harp followed by "Twilight Reveries" by Paul da Cella, also on the Harp the rich full tones of which filled the church.

A "Sextette from Lucia" by Miss Woods on the organ, completed an auti nuptial musical programme of exquisite sweetness which entertained the audience until the arrival of the bridal party, which was announced by Miss Woods with "Lohengrins bridal chorus" as Mr. Willard Utley, of Eddyville and Miss Katherine Yandell proceeded to the chancel by different aisles, meeting and passing in front of the altar. They were followed by Mr. Douglas Clement and Miss Maude Flanary and Mr. Wm. Maurie Nunn and Miss Madeleine Jenkins in same manner, these attendants forming in trios on each side of the altar making as pretty a picture as one would care to see as the gentlemen dressed in conventional black, were bunched with the young lady attendants, some costumed in pink with yellow bouquets and some attired in yellow with pink bouquets, and each of whom wore dainty little bride's maid's caps.

Miss Louise Taylor the beautiful little niece of the bride was the flower girl and as she tripped fairy like down the aisle she scattered roses in the pathway of the bride. At the same time Master Samuel Gugenheim who was the ring bearer proceeded to the chancel and he and little flower girl stood on either side of the officiating clergyman Rev. Henry V. Escott who had approached from the rear and had taken a position in front of the altar where he stood awaiting the arrival of the high contracting parties.

The bride who was queenly in her elaborate wedding dress entrain wore a flowing veil of tulle and bridal wreath of orange blossoms and carried an immense bouquet of brides roses. She was accompanied by her maid of honor Miss Lucile Kirkpatrick, of Greenville, Ky., a strikingly

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY

J. ELLIOTT BAKER.

With this issue we are authorized to announce the Hon. J. Elliott Baker, our popular County attorney, for Commonwealth's Attorney of this, the Fourth Judicial district, comprising the counties of Hopkins, Caldwell, Crittenden and Livingston.

Most all our readers are well acquainted with Elliott Baker, some possibly better than the writer, but for the benefit of those of the district who do not know him as they should, it is but right that we, in a way, give a sketch of him in order that all may know something of his ability and worthiness, especially since he is, so far, the only Caldwell countian offering for a district office.

Born in the hills of old Caldwell, this rising and distinguished young attorney has had his ups and downs, especially in his boyhood days in an effort to obtain an education, and as everybody knows, from observation, it is no easy thing for a boy reared in the plow shares, to secure more than an ordinary education. However, by a determined effort, Elliott Baker is one of those who did his best, and as a result, he was soon in the school room, not as a pupil, but teacher. It was at this point he decided that he would like to be a lawyer, believing that he could make a better lawyer than a teacher, so he entered the study of law, at Lebanon, Tenn., and like many who have attended the noted old institution of that city, he secured his diploma, and came back home and after being admitted to the bar for the practice of law, he became a full-fledged lawyer.

Shortly after entering the practice of law he was elected City Attorney of Princeton, and served in a most satisfactory way, and believing he could make a better County Attorney than a City Attorney, he asked for that office, and is now serving his third term, in a way that has proved satisfactory to his constituents, and as in the case of aspiring to the County Attorneyship, he believes he can make a better Commonwealth's Attorney, hence his announcement in this issue of his home paper for that office.

During his official career he has developed into a good speaker, and has championed the cause of the Democratic party, not only in his home county, but in various sections of the State. He is clever socially, and prominent fraternally.

As Democrat of the truest kind, we recommend him to the Democracy of the Fourth Judicial district as worthy of careful consideration, and bespeak for him, if nominated and elected, a record as Commonwealth's Attorney none will have cause to criticize.—Princeton Leader.

Mr. Clark's Box Supper a Success.

Quite a crowd attended the Box Supper, given by Mr. Clark at Colon, on Saturday night last. All spent some time in conversation, after which the boxes were sold by Mr. Henry Phillips, to the highest bidder. After all had joined in relieving the boxes of their contents, a splendid recitation was delivered by little Miss Edna Belt, in her childish yet impressive way entitled, "How the Elephants Obtained their long Proboscis."

A report of the proceeds which amounted to $6.35 was made by their teacher, after which we all departed for our respective districts.

Mrs. Clara Brown, of Tolu, was the guest of her brother, Dr. J. D. Threlkeld, last week. Mrs. Brown spent the summer in Colorado and only recently returned home.

THE SCHOOLS OF CRITTENDEN

Are Congratulated by Prof. Charles Evans, Who is Still Interested in Our Education.

The following are extracts from a letter from Dr. Charles Evans, president Central State Normal School, Edmond, Okla., to one of Crittenden county's teachers:

"Permit me to congratulate you on the splendid work you are doing at the School Tournaments and Fairs this year. The country school is the hope of America. The brain and brawn of the people who live near the soil, have made or unmade all the nations of the past; they will continue to make or unmake the nations of the future. The farmer or one who tills the soil, and perhaps the miner bringing the mineral resources of the nation to light are the only producers. The hope of the earth must lie in the enlightenment and master power of these. Therefore, it is axiomatic that if any shall have education; if any people must have the best school houses and the most capable teachers, these must have them. They have had the poorest thus far. This is because they have lacked in leadership. Poor pay, poor training begot poor teachers, while apathy and sloth fell down about the schoolhouse and school desk of the country child; but the light is breaking. A new day is on and I am pleased above measure to know that in Crittenden county a great fire of interest an enthusiasm has sprung up. This is due to its teachers going out for more training to universities and normal schools and coming back with enlarged vision and replenished zeal.

The best blood in the nation runs in the veins of such teachers and when they see things like this they proceed to put them into execution. So have arisen these comparative tests, contests, school fairs, athletic meets, declamatory contests and intellectual struggles of every sort.

It has been my pleasure to keep in touch with Crittenden county education all my life, but never before has there been such evidence shown to me that the whole country is afire with interest and fast moving to the front for school betterment as is presented now.

Please present my high tribute to the teachers for carrying out the things they undertake. Say to the teachers of the county that they promised that they would keep their educational zeal burning before the people through the Crittenden Record-Press. Do not forget to beg them and pray them in my name to keep this up as teachers and leaders of their respective communities. Away out here in Oklahoma, I read every item of school news, and when your big double headlines flamed forth about the "School Fair," I fairly shouted, "Great Ceaser, I must go!"

Take this message to my friends of former days, say to them they are accomplishing more than they know. Tell them to keep up this Community Center Work. Let them make every school house a blazing light attracting the people through spelling matches, school fairs and contests of every kind. Out of this well grow renewed interest, better salaries and modern buildings and apparatus."

CROWN PRINCE WAVERED AND LOST BATTLE

Failure of Heir to Hold Center Forced A Retreat of Entire Line. Six German Princes Killed.

FLED TO THE FATHERLAND

Russians Have Enveloped the Left Wing of the Austrian Army.—Big Battle Near Poland.

OTHER WAR ITEMS OF INTEREST

London, Nov. 18.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following:

It is now admitted semi-officially but not yet mentioned in the official communications that it was in the failure of the German Crown Prince to hold his position in the center which compelled a retreat along the whole line.

While Gen. von Hindenburg on the left and the Austrians on the right were both maintaining their positions, the Crown Prince army was fleeing back to the Fatherland.

The Russians poured in between the wings thus left in danger and attacked them, each on two sides, forcing them to scramble back to the frontier and losing terribly all the way.

The excuse made in Germany of bad roads is ridiculed here since, aitho bad roads, the Russians accomplished marvels in marching. The Russians, unlike the Germans, do not depend upon the resources of the country they are traversing, but bring ample provisions with them.

It appears that six Germans Princes were killed in this battle three of the Lippe family and one each of the House of Hesse, Waldeck and Reuss.

To Ask for Troops And Loan.

London, Nov. 18.—It is reported to the parliamentary lobbies that Premier Asquith will ask Parliament's sanction for the raising of 1,000,000 additional troops for the purposes of the war.

Much interest is shown in the financing of the war. It is understood the Government intends to issue a war loan of $1,000,000, 000 or more, probably at 4 per cent, and redeemable within ten years. It is estimated that Great Britain is spending $35,000,000 weekly on the war, and in addition to the war loan the Government may propose to raise a further $250,000,000 by increasing the income tax to half a crown on the pound. This would provide for the necessary expenditure till next March, the end of the financial year.

Annihilated By Servians.

Nish, Servia, Nov. 17.—via London, 11:57 a. m.—The six battalions of Austrian infantry, with quick firing guns, which crossed the Danube near Szde-revo, under cover of artillery fire on November 9, having been annihilated by a Servian counter attack, according to official information given out in Nish today.

All the men not killed, wounded or drowned in the Danube fell into our hands, the Servian announcement continued. We made 2,000 prisoners and cap-

RETAIN CONTROL IN SENATE

Reports Indicate Democrats Have Retained Good Balance of Power in Upper House.

New York.—Reports from states which elected United States senators indicated that the Democrats still retained a good balance of power in the senate.

Complete returns show the following Democrats elected to the senate:

Oscar W. Underwood, Alabama; Marcus A. Smith, Arizona; James P. Clarke, Arkansas; Duncan U. Fletcher, Florida; Hoke Smith (long term), Georgia; Thomas W. Hardwick (term ends 1919), Georgia; J. C. W. Beckham (long term), Kentucky; Johnson N. Camden (term ends March 3, 1915), Kentucky; R. F. Broussard, Louisiana; William J. Stone, Missouri; Lee S. Overman, North Carolina; Thomas P. Gore, Oklahoma; Ellison B. Smith, South Carolina; John Walter Smith, Maryland.

Nine Republicans.

Complete returns show the election of the following Republicans to the senate:

Frank B. Brandegee, Connecticut; James H. Brady, Idaho; Albert B. Cummins, Iowa; Jacob H. Gallinger, New Hampshire; James W. Wadsworth, New York; Asle J. Gronna, North Dakota; Warren G. Harding, Ohio; Boies Penrose, Pennsylvania; William P. Dillingham, Vermont.

At Washington, President Wilson was informed by the Democratic national committee that James D. Phelan, Democrat, had been elected in California, and that Senator Shively and Thomas, Democrats, had been re-elected in Indiana and Colorado. Other reports, however, placed all three seats in doubt, with Republicans still claiming victories.

In California, Representative Joseph R. Knowland, Republican; James B. Phelan, Democrat, former mayor of San Francisco, and Francis J. Heney are candidates for the seat of Senator Perkins. No indications of the re-election of Gov. Hiram Johnson gave the Progressive leaders hope that the remainder of the ticket would be elected.

WOMEN WIN IN TWO STATES

Montana and Nevada Give Votes to Women—Official Vote Necessary to Decide in Former.

Chicago.—Women suffrage leaders rejoiced when belated returns indicated that votes for women apparently had been granted in two of the seven states voting on the question, with a third state still in doubt. First returns had indicated defeat of the voting franchise to the women in all states concerned.

Montana and Nevada, according to the latest returns, granted votes to women, while Nebraska showed such a small vote against the proposal that the women claimed the state. Missouri, Ohio and North and South Dakota refused to grant equal suffrage.

In Montana the official count will be necessary to decide the outcome, but the women have a slight lead on unofficial and incomplete returns.

In Nevada, which seems won to the cause of equal suffrage, 165 precincts out of 249 gave 3,619 votes for women's votes and 2,569 against.

The effect of women's votes on prohibition indicated that women do not unanimously oppose saloons. Women failed in two Pacific coast states to turn out saloons. California and Washington voted for the first time on the question of prohibition, and in both the voting of women is comparatively a novelty. The vote in favor of retaining the saloons was large in both states.

The California proposed amendment was very drastic and would have prohibited the manufacture of wines, one of the chief industries of the state.

The severances of the proposed law is given by leaders of the Anti-Saloon league as a possible reason for the defeat of the measure.

The women of California probably aided in passing a law to close all resorts with women inmates. Early returns indicated that segregated vice quarters in California would be voted out.

Walsh Leads.

Boston.—Gov. David I. Walsh, Democrat, was leading, according to returns from three-quarters of the state in the election, but it was uncertain whether the Democrats again had obtained other places on the state ticket.

The smallness of the Progressive vote, which last year gave the party second place in the state, was a feature of the election. In the first 836 election districts compiled the total for Joseph Walker, the party nominee for governor, was but 22,516, as against 92,519 for Charles S. Bird, who headed the ticket a year ago.

Congressional figures were slow in coming in. Early returns indicated little change in the complexion of the Massachusetts delegation.

Democrat for Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb.—There seemed little doubt that John H. Morehead, Democrat, had been re-elected governor over R. Beecher Howell, Republican. Returns from the suffrage amendment indicated the result would be close.

Minnesota Elects Democrat.

St. Paul.—Minnesota apparently has elected Congressman Winfield Scott Hammond, Democrat, governor over Wm. E. Lee, Republican, by between 25,000 and 40,000.

SHERMAN WINS IN ILLINOIS

Roger Sullivan Turned Down by Voters of Illinois—Sherman Has Majority of 6,000.

Chicago.—Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, was re-elected to the United States senate over Roger C. Sullivan, Democrat, by an estimated plurality of 6,000 or more.

Raymond Robins, Progressive, was a poor third.

With only 300 small rural precincts to hear from and an average plurality of 22 to the precinct for Sherman outside of Chicago, Sherman's downstate lead was 62,631, as against a plurality for Sullivan in Cook county of 56,539.

Sherman's gain in downstate counties was steady. The missing precincts are well scattered. Nearly all the votes in the southern part of the state, normally Democratic, have been recorded.

The latest figures showed Sherman 358,477, Sullivan 351,438, Robins 183,831.

Sherman's plurality with 242 precincts missing 6,989.

TWO WET AND FOUR DRY

Ohio and California Retain the Open Saloon—Prohibition in Arizona. W. C. T. U. Encouraged.

Chicago.—Four of the six states that voted on prohibition, according to latest returns, decided to forbid the sale of alcoholic beverages, and two voted to retain saloons.

Ohio and California kept their saloons, while Washington, Colorado, Oregon and Arizona closed theirs.

Unofficial returns from Arizona show that saloons were voted out, the women adding materially in reaching this result.

The vote on saloons in Colorado is so close that the result is in doubt, but the prospects to be heard from are mostly outside the cities. Prohibitionists say later returns from farming counties will doom saloons.

Ohio retained saloons by a good majority and adopted a home rule amendment that was recognized as a saloon measure.

Missouri defeated the county unit system of local option, which precluded the rural vote on saloons in option elections.

PROHIBITION LOSES IN OHIO

Gubernatorial Election in Ohio Is Still in Doubt—Women's Suffrage and Prohibition Lose Out.

Cincinnati, O.—With a large number of rural precincts still to be heard from, the race for governor of Ohio remained in doubt. Frank B. Willis, Republican, was showing steady gains. Political observers predicted that it would require almost the complete vote before a definite result could be announced, but that indications, based on estimates rather than actual figures, showed a trend toward Willis.

Gov. James M. Cox, Democrat, neither would concede defeat nor claim election.

The election of Warren G. Harding, Republican, to succeed Theodore E. Burton, Republican, in the United States senate; the decisive defeat of both the woman's suffrage and the prohibition amendments, and the probable passage of the "home rule" amendment, an act alleged to favor the "wet" interests, is the result thus far indicated in the Ohio election.

SHIVELY WINS IN INDIANA

Entire Democratic Ticket Re-elected in Indiana—Shively's Plurality About 20,000—Progressives Third.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Incomplete returns from the election in Indiana indicate the re-election of United States Senator B. F. Shively by a plurality of about 20,000, and the entire Democratic state ticket, headed by Homer L. Cook for secretary of state. The Progressives ran a poor third. Indiana's solid congressional delegation was broken, the Republicans winning in the Seventh and in the Tenth districts.

The outcome in the Second, where a strong fight was made against Congressman W. A. Cullip, and the Sixth, was still in doubt, with both the Democrats and Republicans claiming victory.

Wilson Loses at Home.

Trenton, N. J.—President Wilson's home congressional district, the Fourth, elected Elijah C. Hutchins, Republican, to succeed Congressman Allan B. Walsh, Democrat, by about 2,000 plurality.

Meager returns indicate strong Republican gains throughout the state, and the Democrats probably will have no more than four or five of the 12 congressmen. In the present delegation are 10 Democrats. The Democrats probably will retain their majority in the state senate, but apparently have lost control of the assembly.

McDermott Elected.

Chicago.—Early returns indicated the election of James T. McDermott (Democrat), who resigned from congress when the famous Mulhall charges involving him were made, as congressman from the Fourth Illinois district.

Smoot Wins in Utah.

Salt Lake City.—First Utah returns on senatorial candidates give Smoot (Republican) 1,908, Moyle (Fusion) 1,725. The vote indicates Republican and Democratic gains and Progressive losses.

Argentina Will Protest Seizure.

New York, Nov. 17.—Argentina's exhibits for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, it became known Thursday, were on the steamer Vandeyck, which the German steamer Karlsruhe captured on October 27, off the Brazilian coast. The Vandeyck's passengers were landed at Para, Brazil on November 2. It is thought here the Germans sank the steamship after removing the beef and coffee which composed part of her cargo.

The Lamport and Holt line owner of the Vandeyck, is preparing to send a protest to Washington and to the Argentine Government that the vessel was owned by neutrals and was in transit between neutral countries.

London Excited When Concrete "Fortress" Is Found in Suburb

London, Nov. 17.—London has been greatly excited by the report that a German owned music printing plant in Willesden, a prominent manufacturing suburb of London, has an immense building whose heavy concrete foundations, floors and roof are well adapted to the use of siege guns.

Twenty of the German employees of the firm were taken into custody and military experts are studying the building carefully. Meantime the excited public is fully convinced that the plant was designed to act as a German base for attack upon London proper. The building unquestionably occupies a strategic position. It stands high with a clear range to Crystal Palace, Willesden Junction, where two main lines entering London center, is but a short distance from the plant.

A Triumph Of Peace.

While Europe is being torn and ravished with sword and cannon, the states of our Union are being drawn into closer fellowship. The very knowledge of the awful carnage abroad arouse a feeling of mutual sympathy and dependence among our own people.

The "Buy a Bale" movement is the expression of this feeling in a practical effort to relieve our brothers in the cotton States from a distressing condition brought about by a foreign war. One of the agencies that has contributed in a large measure to the success of this movement is the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa; This Company is accepting cotton at ten cents a pound from the dealers of the Southern States, in payment of accounts, both old and new, and is thereby enabling scores of dealers to pay their old accounts, and replenish their depleted stocks.

But this Company has not confined its sympathies and support to our own shores. It has headed a movement to send a shipload of cornmeal to starving Belgium. Iowa is the greatest corn producing State in the Union, and this year has one of the largest crops in the history of the State, and the farmers are receiving the highest price known for years. So the Chamberlain Medicine Company proposes to the people of Iowa that they celebrate Thanksgiving this year by sending a shipload of golden grain to the widows and orphans, to the homeless and helpless of Belgium. They have contributed the first carload toward making up this shipload and have taken the matter up vigorously with the Governor of Iowa, and with the various interest concerned, and have also proposed to President, Wilson that that the federal government furnish a vessel for the free conveyance of the food.

HOW FAR IS MADISONVILLE?

Not So Far That the Statements Of Its Residents Cannot Be Verified.

Rather an interesting case has been developed in Madisonville. Being so near by, it is worth publishing here. The statement is sincere—the proof convincing:

L. R. Woolfork, Madisonville, Ky., says: "I had severe attacks of back-ache. Often when I sat in a chair for awhile and tried to get up, sharp twinges caught me across my back and kidneys. In the morning it was impossible for me to stoop to put on my shoes. I had other symptoms of kidney complaints. I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills after reading statements given by people here in town, whom I knew, who had received great relief from them. I got a supply and they cured me. I always carry a box of Doan's Kidney Pills with me and a few doses now and then keep me in good health."

RE ENDORSEMENT.
On February 23, 1912, Mr. Woolfork said: "I have seldom had to use Doan's Kidney Pills since they cured me some years ago. You can use my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills." Price 50c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Woolfork had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 1119-26

Kaiser Rushes Men East.

Rotterdam, Nov. 17.—According to the Courant's correspondent, great bodies of German troops are being withdrawn from Belgium for use against the Russians. One correspondent says:

"Many trains carrying cavalry infantry and artillery have left Brussels and Louvain for Germany, with the cars marked in chalk: 'To Russia!'"

CRAZE FOR ELEPHANT SKIN

Leather Manufacturers Are Finding It a Hard Matter to Meet the Increasing Demand.

Elephant skin is very beautiful. Moreover, it is durable. But it is hard to get.

The price of a large elephant is not small, and, besides that, elephants do not grow within a stone's throw of our front doors. So the leather manufacturer that contracted to furnish many elephant-skin bags at a given time would probably find himself under a big burden. He must wait until some tame, pet elephant, so to speak, dies.

Elephants are unusual enough, so that many of them, after they die, are stuffed and put in museums. Hence a named elephant, one that has been popular during life, will seldom fall into the hands of leather dealers. It is for the poor and wandering denizens of the circus and traveling animal shows to end up on the counters of the fashionable leather goods shops.

Such is the fate of half a dozen elephants that were overtaken in the awful floods in Indiana last spring. They were purchased by one of the famous dealers in silver and leather goods and converted into many wonderful bags and other trinkets. Among these are small elephants covered with real elephant hide, with ivory tusks, standing on little ivory slabs.

DIRIGIBLE BALLOONS.

The dirigible balloon is by no means a modern invention as many people seem to think. As a matter of fact, as long ago as 1784 General Meusnier proposed the construction of an elongated balloon which might be propelled through the air. Experiments were made with it by two brothers named Robert, who made several ascents and attained a speed of three miles an hour, though the method of propulsion was only aerial oars worked by hand. Nothing further was attempted until 1852, when Henri Giffard built dirigibles which, by means of a light steam engine, he propelled at nearly seven miles an hour, and since then various experiments have been made which ultimately ended in the wonderful triumph of Zeppelin. — New York Press.

DON'T ALL ANSWER AT ONCE.

Of course one has been hearing things all one's life, but did one ever hear of a family that moved out of a house and left it clean?

ONE SECRET KEPT.

We once knew a girl who could keep a secret. She was engaged to a young man for three months before he suspected it.

DRAMA OF DIRT.

Madge—The plays of today are not worth going to see.

Marjorie—But look at what you hear!—Judge.

"It means nothing, my son."
"Well, zero weather means a whole lot, don't it?"

WOMEN AND THE RIGHT TO VOTE

Should Be Given Time to Exercise Franchise.

LITTLE TROUBLE FOR THEM

By VIRA BOARMAN WHITEHOUSE.

ONE objection made to woman suffrage is that women will not have time to vote. Miss Alice Back, representing the anti-suffragists and speaking as a working woman before a congressional committee in Washington, December, 1912, said: "We do not want the vote principally because we feel that we have quite enough to occupy our time now, regardless of politics."

Joseph G. Pyle in a leaflet read before the same congressional hearing explained that for the farmer's wife "voting is a hardship too great to be endured. Aside from the preliminary preparations, she must go to the polls, often in inclement weather, walking or riding several miles to get there;" but, above all, it is the wife and mother living at home, whose domestic duties are supposed to leave her no time to vote.

The view that voting takes a very great deal of time seems to be a general one among the anti-suffragists. But men who vote assert that the actual time spent in a polling booth, even at the most crowded election, does not exceed half an hour and is usually not more than ten minutes.

Elections Infrequent.

Elections are not daily or even frequent occurrences, as these objections to women voting would seem to suggest. In some places the municipal, county, state and federal elections are all held on the general election day—the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. In other places the local elections are held in the spring. There are at times special elections, as, for instance, the recent one of April 7 here in New York state to determine whether or not there should be a constitutional convention. Such special elections are rare and seem to arouse little interest.

There are also, since the passage of the law providing for direct nominations, primary elections, at which the enrolled members of each political party ought to vote. But when every kind of election is taken into account the most conscientious citizen is not called to the polls more than two or three times a year and the actual time spent in voting does not exceed at the most liberal allowance an hour or two a year.

All men of course do not vote. In the presidential election of 1912 the total number of those voting was less than 15,000,000 while the number eligible to vote was over 24,000,000. The proportion of men voting at this election was somewhat smaller than at the preceding ones.

It is not lack of time, however, that keeps so many men from the polls. It is rather lack of interest. No business or work can be an excuse for this failure of the duty of citizenship, as in thirty-nine states election day is a legal holiday, on which no business is conducted.

A Large Class.

Working women now form a very large class in this country. It is estimated that there are about 8,000,000 of them. They would have, of course, the same facilities for voting as are given to workmen. Factories, shops and business offices are closed on election days.

The farmer's wife has grown up as a country girl in the open air. In her youth she probably walked each day to school and back and each Sunday to church. She will not be daunted by a distance of a few miles to do a duty which will bring her in return such great interests.

Rich women with servants to relieve them of household work and nurses or governesses to take charge of their children have time for whatever takes their fancy. It is, of course, particularly the wife and mother in the home who, it is believed, will have no time to vote. Men count eight hours as a day's work, but her mysterious duties are supposed to keep her permanently a prisoner within her four walls. If it is indeed true that such women are so hard driven, day after day, that they cannot even make any arrangement to leave their work for an hour or two a year, should not such a condition be changed?

Large Property Holders.

It would be unendurable to think that the conditions of society bear so heavily upon women that they cannot leave their duties even for the few minutes necessary for voting and that their lives, in spite of easy means of communication and cheap daily papers, are so cut off from all communal interests that they have no chance for forming political opinions.

LOOKING ON BRIGHTEST SIDE

It Would Seem From This That the World Is Undergoing Something of an Improvement.

London fog is reported to be growing less unpleasant, and a contemporary refers to a "marked improvement in their quality." If this euphonious way of talking of the nuisances of life becomes general we may shortly expect the following: Talking with a one-legged sailor at the docks yesterday, we learned that of late years there has been a marked improvement in the quality of the sharkbites supplied in the Indian ocean. Not only are the creatures quicker off the mark, but a great deal more snapp has of late been introduced into the performance from start to finish.

It is pleasant to be able to report a marked improvement in the quality of the squalls of our neighbor's baby. The pauses during which one feared that the child would choke are now of less frequent occurrence, and the loud shrieks are timed to coincide less exactly with our struggles with particularly tricky sentences. Greater accomplishment, too, is being shown in the tremolo passages. Our wife also reports a marked improvement in the quality of the hawks in our neighborhood. The clothes prop which one of them recently thrust in the doorway to prevent the closing of the door proved to be easily breakable when the door was slammed, and the portion left inside burned quite easily and saved at least one shovelful of coal.

London pedestrians are loud in praise of the marked improvement in the quality of the mud supplied by our motor buses. It is now comparatively rare to meet a man who spends more than two hours daily in brushing his clothes, and many of the best people have been able to reduce the wages of their valets in consequence. Few things have pleased us so much as the recent marked improvement in the quality of the colds and influenza in the metropolis. In fact, since the insurance act, more than one man has laid up with them of his own accord, and found the time of his incapacitation pass quite pleasantly.

This general amelioration in the conditions of life was first observed in the summer, when a marked improvement was noticed in the insects supplied at all the leading picnics. Tea a la midget proved itself for the first time a far from unpleasant beverage, and even the wasps in the jam seldom got as far as the esophagus—a kindly abstention that has won them the respect of all true nature lovers.—London Opinion.

Unexpected Gift.

He was a shy young man, but in his heart there raged a consuming passion for the fair Florence. On his way home from the city he managed to scower his courage up sufficiently to enter a jeweler's shop and purchase a small gift for the lady of his heart.

This, he hoped, would pave the way to the popping of the great question.

That night he called at her house and found her alone. Producing a small, square box from his pocket, he said nervously:

"I have ventured to bring you a small present, Miss Finn, but I am afraid that perhaps it will not fit your finger. Will you try it on?"

"Oh, dear," said the girl, blushing most becomingly, "this is quite unexpected! Why, I never dreamed that you really cared enough—"

Poor fool! Instead of grasping the opportunity in both hands, he opened the box and produced a thimble! Then the thermometer dropped about ten degrees.

New Post-Glacial Lake.

A new post-glacial lake has been discovered at the mouth of the River Tyne, in England. The lake stands about 100 feet above sea level and covers a square mile. Its existence was discovered apparently as the result of excavations during quay building. The series of deposits begin about 55 feet above sea level, and are 25 feet thick in places. A peculiar series of "concretions and stalactite infiltrations" were found in the sands and clays, and many specimens of vegetable remain in situ 20 feet below the surface. Post-glacial lakes, or their remains are more or less abundant all over the area originally covered by the great ice sheet of the glacial epoch, so that the mere discovery of the old beaches of another is not a thing of great geological importance. The location of this "Tyne-mouth" one and its height above sea level give it special interest, however.—New York Evening Post.

Autographs on a Rubbish Heap.

The discovery of some valuable autograph letters is reported from Algiers (Sardinia). A quantity of rubbish had been recently discharged on a heap in a field, when an army lieutenant who chanced to be passing by caught sight of what appeared to be Garibaldi's signature on a letter. He proceeded to examine a number of letters among the rubbish, and found that they were all genuine autograph letters written by Garibaldi, Cavour, Mazzini, King Carlo Alberto, King Victor Emmanuel and others, bearing mainly on the history of the period 1820 to 1860, and subsequent expert examination is reported to have established the fact that the documents are of real historical value apart from their obvious interest as autographs.

It is stated that the letters belonged to the family of Piccinelli, a house quite recently extinct, which played an important part during the wars of Italian independence.

Record By Wheat And Corn Crops in United States.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The important farm crops of the United States this year are worth $5,068,741,000, or $104,000,000 more than the value of the same crops last year, notwithstanding a loss of $118,000,000 sustained by cotton planters on lint alone as a result of the European war.

Preliminary estimates of the important farm crops announced today by the department of agriculture and statistics of the average prices paid to producers on November 1st, indicate that this year's wheat and corn crops are the most valuable ever grown in the United States that the wheat and apple crops are record harvests, and the potato crop is the second largest ever raised.

The huge wheat crop and the increased price of that cereal, the large corn and apple crops, and the increased price of oats, barley and rye, more than offset the big loss in the value of the cotton crop resulting from the war.

VALUES OF CROPS.

The value of the important crops, based on the average prices paid to producers on Nov. 1 and their values last year follow:

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna." This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

torney of this the 4th judicial district,

The State Journal says:—

Hugging a pretty young married woman, whom he did not know, on the street last night might have cost Joseph Granruth, 27 years old 504 North Lakewood avenue, a jail term had not the young woman herself made a plea for leniency at the Eastern Police Station.—The Baltimore Sun.

What a place in which to live.

They call Philadelphia the City of Brotherly Love, but what's brotherly love to the milk of human kindness which flows so strongly in the veins of the beautiful matron that she forgives the bumptious hugger who confesses in court that she was "so darned pretty I simply could not resist the temptation."

"Back, back, back to Baltimore."

The RECORD-PRESS is asked the reason for the apparent jubilation of the democratic officials representing Kentucky at the national capital based upon the elections of November third.

The inquirer adds: "The democratic party prior to this election had a positive majority in the House of 141, the November voting shows a decrease of 125, leaving a scant 14 or 15, hardly a decent working limit. The Senate is still democratic by about the same majority as before the election. The election of Penrose to the Senate from Pennsylvania and Uncle Joe Cannon to the House from Illinois by quite tremendous majorities suggests to Sen. Ollie James that they are the logical candidates for President and Vice President on the republican ticket for the next presidential election. The Courier Journal seconds the idea and publishes the ticket under the log cabin insignia of the republican party. What is the joke?"

To the man up a tree the democratic party received one of the biggest thrashings it has had for many years. In looking over the election results one cannot see much ground for democratic enthusiasm."

Replying to the above the RECORD-PRESS would suggest to the inquirer that he compare the off year election results as affecting the party in power with that of the opposition. It is a matter of record that either party responsible for a change in the national tariff, good or bad as it affects the country will suffer a loss of prestige, hence a number of votes, this fact is notorious and is shown in the records of all off years so called. Again the country that is the voters became restive, possibly indignant over the many difficulties the commerce of this country has met with. As a matter of fact the party in power always suffers from untoward happenings, even here in Crittenden county we were told and told as matter of fact by men who to all appearances were quite sane and reasonable, that the drouth was caused by the election of President Wilson. It is as difficult to satisfy many of us as it is to predict the findings of a Petit Jury in a case at law.

So far as the next republican presidential election and its candidates are concerned, the RECORD-PRESS has no possible interest, we would consider it questionable taste to interfere in their household affairs. We are, and will be quite busy in our own kitchen, arranging to serve the Wilson menu in 1916.

handsome brunette, and together they approached the altar as the groom and his best man Mr. Marvin Seyster, of Smithland, Ky., came in from the south entrance and met them at the altar the bride taking the groom's arm as they faced the minister. The ceremony was most impressive and beautiful, two rings being used, one the gift of the groom to the bride and the other from the bride to the groom. During the ceremony Mrs. S. M. Jenkins one of the state's most talented harpist and one of her most beautiful matrons rendered "Call me thine own" with a sweetness of touch all her own, seldom equalled and never excelled. As the subdued tones echoed through the edifice many expressions of delight were heard in the audience. At the conclusion of the ceremony the couple kneeled, as the divine guidance and blessing was asked and as they left the altar Mendelsohn's wedding march peeled forth from the organ where Miss Sarah Woods presided completing the most beautiful and elaborate wedding ever witnessed in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Boston left immediately after the ceremony for New Orleans, La., on a bridal trip which will embrace several cities in the south. They will return to Marion for Thanksgiving. These young people are known and loved by every one here. Both are highly connected. The groom is not only attentive to business but is a general favorite in church and social circles. The bride who is a lovely christian girl, a worker in her church and Sunday school is possessed of all the graces and talents which are so necessary to make home happy, and they start on life's most important mission with brightest prospects and many good wishes from hosts of friends.

Old Fashioned Revival At The Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

It is seldom in this day and time of worldliness that an old fashioned revival can be carried on with such splendid results as are being obtained at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this city. There has been about twenty professions up to this time, and the pastor Rev. J. T. Barbee is greatly encouraged. Rev. Gwynn of Tennessee is doing the preaching and song evangelists Vaughan and Tallicut are leading the singing which is an interesting feature at each service and notwithstanding the inclement weather the house has been filled to standing room most every evening.

Fred Lemon's Stable Burns.

The stable of Fred Lemon, the Maple street merchant, was destroyed by fire about 11:30 Wednesday night. The origin of the fire cannot be accounted for. A spark from a passing train may have set the hay on fire, as a train passed shortly before the alarm was given. Several tons of hay, chops and fertilizer stored in the building were destroyed and also a lot of work harness. Mr. Lemon estimates his loss at $500. He had no insurance.—Providence Enterprise.

Cookseyville Meeting.

On Monday night, Nov. 2nd., we began our meeting with Cookseyville church. We found the church in good working order and in fine shape for the meeting. Some twenty or more went forward for prayer at the first service.

The meeting continued ten days and nights with twenty-nine professions of faith and twenty-seven additions to the church, twenty by experience, four by restoration and three under watch care. On Thursday we buried thirteen with Christ in baptism, seven candidates not being ready for baptism at that time.

The meeting closed with the service at the water, but there was such a revival on, that two souls were happily saved in the community that night after the closing of the meeting and we hope many others will follow.

Elder W. W. Pugh, of near Princeton, did the preaching to the delight of all. Edward Wood all, of Crayne, had charge of the music, and did his part well. We found both of these brethren to be sweet spirited christians and noble work fellows.

Some of the noblest people of our country are found in this community. Our band of young folks here cannot be excelled. We are rejoicing over the success of this meeting.

Changes feed into tonic—Makes it result

Whitesburg, Ky., Nov. 17.—Perhaps a record breaker for the number of children born to one set of parents in Kentucky is that just made by Mr. and Mrs. John Kiser, of Camp Branch, Ark., a few miles west of here in this county, the parents of 23 children, the 23rd child having just been born. In the number they have three sets of twins. Mr. Kiser is still on the sunny side of 50, while Mrs. Kiser is only about 46.

Shipping from San Francisco to the canal jumped from $1,6,000 in August to $4,243,000 in September, and rose another million in October. New York lost most of the cargoes including wheat, barley, onions and prunes.

DEMOCRATS APPRECIATE WORK OF CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN RHEA

HON. THOMAS S. RHEA

In the placing of credit for the splendid Democratic victory in Kentucky on Tuesday, the major portion is being handed to Thomas S. Rhea, of Logan county, State Treasurer who led the fight for Beckham and Camden as Chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee. It was an old time Democratic victory, probably the greatest in Kentucky in thirty years, the majority going above anything given the party in that long time, and Mr. Rhea was the recipient of hundreds of telegrams complimenting him on his leadership and campaign management for the party.

It is conceded that the overwhelming result was largely due to organization, in getting the people aroused and to the polls to vote. Chairman Rhea has long been known down in the Third Congressional district as a campaigner, but this was his first experience covering so much territory. He brought the methods of organization which made him so successful in county and district politics into the state fight. He devoted every energy to the work, selecting his own campaign committee and all of his assistants and personally directing every move that was made. Not content with running one special train through Kentucky bearing a national character, Mr. Bryan, as the star speaker, he conducted another on a more extensive scale, which carried only Kentuckians as speakers and campaigners. This proved more successful than the first and did much to arouse the voters to the necessity for turning out on the day of election. County and precinct campaign committees were everywhere named early in the contest, and were kept in touch with the State organization and its speakers' bureau to the end that every section of Kentucky had its Democratic speakers urging upon the people the necessity for going to the polls and voting to uphold President Wilson and his peace policies for the American people.

The one feature of Chairman Rhea's campaign which particularly stands out in the political battle just won was in his handling of the political situation in the city of Louisville and the Fifth Congressional district. Confronted when he undertook to make the party campaign with the fact that the head of the ticket had lost Louisville in the primary last August, and coming out of that city in the election of Tuesday with over twelve thousand majority for that nominee, Democratic hats are off to their chairman. Further, he had to deal with the fact that Louisville had had the habit for several years past of only weakly supporting Democratic candidates and very often giving a majority against them at the polls. Out of all this he brought a result that far surpassed the expectations of those who were associated with him in the fight, the largest Democratic majority the Fifth district has given in over a quarter of a century.

The same clever methods that brought this about in Louisville served as well in pretty nearly every section of the state in the election of Tuesday. Every Congressional district worked harmoniously with the State Chairman, and in every one of them the vote was nearly such as it would have been with local races on in the counties.

That the victory just achieved paves the way for Democratic success in the State election of next year is the opinion of the party leaders and every one conversant with political affairs in Kentucky. It demonstrates, they say, that the party is harmonious and united.

COLDS

An up-to-date remedy for colds. That is what Peruna is. In successful use over 50 years.

Colds are caught in many ways: Ill ventilated rooms; rooms that have direct draughts; crowded rooms; damp houses; stuffy school rooms; offices ill heated.

A dose of Peruna at the right time, at the first symptom of cold, before the bones begin to ache, before the sore throat manifests itself, or the cough, or the discharge from the nose, just a dose or two of Peruna before these symptoms begin is generally sufficient. But after the cold is once established with the above symptoms prominent, a bottle of Peruna, or maybe two, will be necessary.

"For several years I have been troubled with colds at each change of season. I took Peruna and have not been troubled with the slightest cold this entire season." Mr. Harry Fisher, 1928 Mosher St., Baltimore, Md.

"I give the children Peruna if they have a cold, and it always relieves them." Mrs. E. D. Hayes, 1937 Grand Hill Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"When I feel a cold coming on I take a little Peruna, and it does me good." Mr. Charles S. May, 12 Water St., Ossining, N. Y.

"No family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for colds." Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burnside Springs, Ky.

RHEUMATISM SOON BECOMES CHRONIC

The Result of Tired Kidneys Failing to Expel Poisonous Waste Matter.

Tired, over-worked kidneys allow poisonous uric acid to remain in the blood instead of expelling it from the system. That is the cause of chronic rheumatism. The disease gets into some joint, or group of muscles and settles there, and only strenuous treatment will dislodge it.

Rheuma softens the uric acid crystals lodged in the joints and muscles, causing the terrible pains, and passes them out of the system through the kidneys and bowels.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. Unless it is pure the organs become diseased. Rheum purifies the blood and the kidneys then regain their natural activity.

J. H. Orme and all druggists sell Rheum at a price so inexpensive that it is folly to be without it.
