Corset fittings in moving pictures

Mayo & Custance have arranged the Rev. Theatre for a special matinee for their special matinee which will be limited to women only. This show will be a great disappointment to their male patrons, but at the same time the show is for the benefit of the film of direct interest to all the women. It will be shown in all the theaters in the city.

Corsets are to be continued in all the ladies' departments. Some early returns were due on the last date of the week, but many others are to be expected on the last day of the month.

WESTERN

Well Xmas is gone and New Year is here. Let us all make the year 1925 a bright and mammoth year.Ajaxes are plenty dull in our little town at present.
The Ohio River is not a river and all the boats are running.
Mrs. J. W. Bennett who has been quite sick is at the writing.
Marie and Kennie Wise sent Xmas to his grandfather
Mr. W. R. Hallock at Long town.
Love trends of Hearnite Miss is missing Southern at the moment.
Hunt for Mr. Goo, Biloxi's native straight to work why?
He wanted a six weeks visit with relatives.
Misses Vera and Lillian Bennett have returned home from a six weeks visit with relatives.
Homer Hearn and family have moved from Geo, Hopkins farm to A. H. Hallock.

We had a very nice Christmas tree at our Church Christmas Eve and several present.
Sue Williams and family and Bill Frost and family have returned from Shreve, Miss.
Mary Will Wynn and daughter Lucile spent a few days last week with her mother Mrs. Eliza Riddle and Misses Clarise Wills and Children and Mrs.
Missus Garrett spent part of the Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Riddle.
I was ring of wishing all a happy New Year.

LEVIAS

Levias Christmas was a pleasant event in our little town.
We were happy by prens
from loved ones and goods
wishes to all.
Ray Davison and wife entertin
their friends at their home.
Dec 23, who assembled around their round wood fire to turn the season to local glee until dinner was announced. Then each one was ready to quit their game to enjoy the many good things on the menu.
There were sixty-six present
and all seemed to enjoy the day.
Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Flood of Shreve were visitors at C. C. Be court from Wednesday until Sun day.

Mrs. P. J. Gillies returned
some Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fasselt called their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B.
Carter Saturday.

Mrs. Laura Franklin is visiting friends and relatives in Marion and Bryan this week.

Gid Taylor lost a very fine cow
last Saturday morning.

Clement Ryan and Miss Gilles of Clay, Ky., were visit
in Levias last week.
Miss Bonnie McClure at home
for the holidays.

Mrs. Dona Snyder visited her mother last Monday.

The man of Lawrence Franklin and C. C. Bobbitt were well received.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price and son visited Mrs. L. L. Price Fri day to help out friend and many other good things which were enjoyed by all.

Mary, Maggie and Harry Mc
Kinner were visitors at Home.

Laurena Franklin Sunday.

After spending Xmas with her parents and grandparents H. L.
Lafler returned to her school Sunday afternoon.

The many friends, classmates of the elegant home of Mrs. Mary Franklin to minister her with Missus Saturday Dec 26.

"Not Mary," who is always far and wide for 24 hours, hostility was caused all pres
to feel perfectly at home.

When the guests arrived they were greeted by the musical,
and smartly dressed present at the door, which seemed to enlighten the more than 20.

Missus Dole Lord and Allen Heinze did some excellent work with violin and guitar while the former furnished the accompaniment.

Some played rock and the children played hide and seek.

Such hours of pleasure had not been enjoyed by the writer for many years. It seemed the old times when the families gather round the fires of their neighbors to enjoy each other's company.

Wishing each and everyone a blessing Xmas and happy New Year and a prosperous year for the near 40 Press I am ever your loving friend.

A Bad Case of Nasal Catarrh Cured By Persulm.

That year of enervation was the year of enervation for me. I had a bad case of nasal catarrh that was causing me a lot of trouble. I was constantly sneezing and my nose was constantly running. I tried all sorts of remedies, but nothing seemed to work. I was at my wits' end when I heard about Persulm.

Persulm is a herbal supplement that is said to be effective in treating nasal catarrh. I decided to give it a try. I started taking it every day and after a few days, I noticed a difference. My sneezing decreased and my nose stopped running.

I continued taking Persulm for a few weeks and my nasal catarrh disappeared completely. I was amazed at the results. I couldn't believe how quickly it worked. I highly recommend Persulm for anyone suffering from nasal catarrh.

Nervous?

No, Walter! You're not nervous. You're just a little bit anxious. It's normal to feel a bit anxious sometimes. Just take a deep breath and relax.

BRADENTON, FL

BRAIN LEAKS

Racy Bard's granddaughter was packing her handbags for home to take her new husband back to his parents. "Don't worry, dear," she said, "I'm sure they'll love you." "Oh, thank you, dear," said Racy, "I'm sure they will. But remember, I need my books." "Oh, don't worry," said the granddaughter, "I'll make sure they're taken care of." Ina few minutes, Racy had her handbags packed and was ready to leave.

"Do you think he'll like me?" asked Racy, as they were walking out the door. "I'm sure he will," said the granddaughter, "he's a nice man. I'm sure you'll be happy with him." Racy nodded, "Thank you, dear." As they walked out the door, Racy turned to her granddaughter and said, "Don't forget to bring my books." The granddaughter smiled, "Of course, dear. You'll need them." Racy smiled, "Thank you, dear." As they walked down the street, Racy thought to herself, "I'm sure he'll like me."

New Year's Eve

DR. MILLER, Pastor
DR. W. S. PERRY, Supt. S. S.

In Memory

On New Year's Eve, January 1st, 1914, when all was on the quiet, the lights of another day gave up their brilliance in the home of Mrs. H. M. Cline and placed their most humble position in the store of the Veiled Virgin. Ekleiptic required its passage in the air, while earth was covered with the snow of the New Year. This earth will once more turn around the sun as the year 1914 will end, only to be visited by another. We must now be humble students of life. For the experience we gain in life we must be thankful, and we may look up to God for our future. Who can tell what the future will bring to us.

SIOPO'S CHAPEL

Making fires and getting wood is the occupation of the people. The spiritual life of the Sionpa's Chapel will be much more occupied with the city, and the people have a spirit of bustling to keep the community alive.

BOUNTY

E. R. Clary and F. E. Y. Clary of the nation's capital were among the visitors. Mrs. E. M. Clary attended, and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clary were present. The New Year's Eve was a grand way to come to the New Year.

CIRCULAR CHAPEL

We are happy to report that the Circular Chapel will be open for business. The Rev. J. L. Sibley was present, and the services were conducted by Rev. E. R. Clary and F. E. Y. Clary of the nation's capital.

Nearby News

In honor of Mrs. Clara Faxon, who has been a woman of the town for many years, we wish to extend our congratulations. She is a good woman, and we wish her all the happiness in the world.

Mules Wanted!

We will be in Marion on next County Court Day, Monday, Jan. 11th, and want mules 8 to 10 years old.
