HENDERSON BOY
KILLED SUDDENLY

Of the 53 victims killed, 29 were men, 22 were women, and 2 were children.

The victim was identified as John Henderson, a 22-year-old man from Henderson, New York.

The cause of death was determined to be multiple injuries caused by the impact of the train.

Henderson was a popular member of the community, known for his work in the local library and his involvement in the local church.

Schaefer was one of the first to arrive at the scene, and immediately began administering first aid to the victim.

Unfortunately, despite his best efforts, the young man died shortly after being transported to the hospital.

Schaefer has beeninterrogated by the police, who are currently investigating the circumstances leading to the fatal accident.

The investigation is ongoing, and no further information is available at this time.

HENDERSON BOY KILLED SUDDENLY

On the 53rd anniversary of the death of his father, John Henderson, a young man from Henderson, New York, was killed in a tragic accident.

According to eyewitnesses, the young man was walking on a portion of the tracks when he was struck by a train.

The train, which was carrying goods from Henderson to Buffalo, was traveling at a high speed at the time of the accident.

The young man was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital, and his body was released to the family for burial.

His father, John Henderson, a well-known and respected member of the community, died in a similar accident on December 23rd, 1929.

The family of the late John Henderson has requested that the community come together to honor his memory and remember his commitment to the community.

We will be holding a memorial service on December 23rd, 1933, at 3:00 p.m., at the Henderson Community Center.

All are welcome to attend.

John Henderson's Funeral Service

On December 23rd, 1933, the family of John Henderson will be holding a funeral service at the Henderson Community Center.

The service will begin at 3:00 p.m., and will be followed by a reception in the community center.

We encourage all members of the community to attend, and to remember the legacy of John Henderson.

The family of John Henderson

In proportion to the population of the United States, there is not nearly so much interest in the war as there has been in the future of the country. A great deal of the old spirit of the Civil War has been turned away, and the public opinion is against it. If we are to have a large war, it must be by the people of the United States, not by foreign nations. It is a dangerous and unwise course to enter into any kind of war.

Mr. MURPHY, Jan. 23, 1843.

The news wire business is growing daily, and the number of newspapers has increased. The competition is keen, and the publishers are forced to keep up with the demand for news. The wire service has become an integral part of the newspaper business. It allows for a faster and more accurate delivery of information. The technology behind the wire service has improved, making it more efficient. The cost of wire news has decreased, making it more accessible to a wider audience. The wire service has had a significant impact on the way news is reported and consumed.
