WARA WELCOME, GIVEN QUESTS

Full Fellowship at Sunday School

Teachers of All Departments

In the absence of our beloved Mr. Franklin J. Watts, the Rev. James W. Bingham, of Shutesbury, Mass., preached a powerful and inspiring discourse. He spoke of the need for unity among Christians and the importance of working together for a common cause. He encouraged the teachers to be faithful in their duties and to strive for excellence in their work. The message was well received by the audience, and there was a feeling of unity and purpose throughout the service.

REV. JAMES W. BINGHAM DEAD

Has Died in Florida The Past Several Weeks—Was Fat and Well

News reached the city last week of the sudden death at St. Louis, Fla., of Rev. James W. Bingham, president of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church South of Marion. He was 62 years of age. The news came as a great shock to his many friends and associates in the church, and there was a widespread outpouring of grief and sorrow throughout the community.

Bingham was well known for his leadership and dedication to the cause of missions. He had served as president of the Board of Missions for many years, and under his leadership the church had made significant progress in expanding its outreach and mission work. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, and his passing is a great loss to the church and to the community.

CANDIDATES FROM HOPKINS COUNTY

Young Adults Propose to License Law Enforcement in Hopkins County

The Madisonville Baptist Church has asked the state attorney general to consider licensing law enforcement officers in Hopkins County. The proposal has been met with mixed reactions, with some sawing it as a step towards increasing accountability and transparency in the police department, while others view it as an attack on police autonomy and a violation of their constitutional rights.

Officers Surprised Over Outcome of Vicious Job of Negro Man Near Woonsocket, Illinois

Mr. Vetter, Ill., Jan. 28:

When officers went to the house of Charles Allen, a negro living at Bedford, they were surprised to find he was the subject of a police complaint and attempted to light it on fire. They turned the smoke out of the chimney and the pipe was found to be connected with a Jag pipe in the attic. Allen was held for the federal authorities.

Your Blood

In the case of the brain it becomes a thick white, opaque, coagulated, bloody mass, resembling a blood clot, and having a hard, fibrous, vegetable-like consistence. The heart is usually congested and the organs of the body are livid.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

In the case of the brain it is necessary to remove all thick, dark, coagulated blood from the brain, and to replace it with a fluid, clear, colorless, nutritive blood. In the case of the heart it is necessary to remove all dark, thick blood from the heart, and to replace it with a fluid, colorless, nutritive blood.

REFUGEES IN CATTLE CAR

Coffin Used at Last.

Glenview, Ill., Jan. 28—A coffin purchased in 1894 for burial and kept in the residence for its owner all these years, was used today when its purchaser, Mrs. O'Loughlin, notified the coroner of the death of the mother of the county, passed away. Mrs. O'Loughlin desired to be buried in a certain kind of coffin and sending it twenty years ago he bought it, and stored it in a bed- room closet, where it is to be removed more than once to parties visiting the home.

LAND SALE.

In Livingston County

I am in the market for the first day of December to have my 10 acres of land, homestead, a small house and the best tile on a mile of the railroad, sold. This tract consists of soil of good quality, a good crop of wheat and corn, and a good growth of timber. The price is $10 per acre, and I can offer it for $5 per acre. I will sell the land in lots of 10 acres or more. The term of the contract is 12 months, and the payment can be made in monthly installments. I will also consider an option on the land, and I am willing to include a 10-year lease with the option. The property is located in the town of Livingston, and the terms can be arranged to suit the buyer. I am available to show the property at any time, and I can be reached at my home at 123 Main Street, Livingston. I am offering a discount of 25% to all cash buyers, and I can also arrange financing for qualified buyers. I am willing to entertain offers above the asking price, and I am open to negotiation. I am looking for a serious buyer who is interested in developing the property for residential or commercial use. I am excited about this opportunity, and I am confident that the buyer will be pleased with the investment. I am looking forward to hearing from interested parties. President, Livingston County Real Estate Association.
