No. 23.

Markovo, Cronkhite County Kentucky, Thursday, February 19, 1915.

FARMING NEWS

The former's are running more interested in this great progressive movement.

M. J. Robert, the County Agent, has been extensively making a tour of the county late on his own horse and doing a good work of promoting the interests of the farmers. He has been making an effort to get all the farmers interested in the movement and he has been successful in a great many cases.

The Markovo Farmers' Institute is now in full swing and all the farmers are doing their utmost to make it a success.

N. J. Beesly, the County Agent, is now in full charge of the work and he is doing a splendid job.

The meeting of the Markovo Farmers' Institute was held last Monday evening at the home of Mr. John Beesly. The meeting was well attended and a large number of men and women were present.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. That the Markovo Farmers' Institute
be continued for another year.

2. That the officers of the Institute
be re-elected for another year.

3. That the work of the Institute
be increased and more

The meeting adjourned to meet at the next Monday evening.

N. J. Beesly, President.
M. J. Robert, Secretary.

REAL ESTATE

The real estate market is now in full swing and prices are advancing rapidly.

The following sales were made during the past week:

1. Mr. John Beesly sold his farm to Mr. John
Jones for $2000.

2. Mr. James Smith sold his farm to Mr. John
Jones for $2500.

3. Mr. James Beesly sold his farm to Mr. John
Jones for $3000.

The market is now in full swing and all sales are expected to be made at a rapid rate.

N. J. Beesly, Real Estate Agent.

THE LURE OF THE CITY

Many farmers are now returning to the city and are seeking employment in the banks, insurance companies, and other business concerns.

The following farmers are now working in the city:

1. Mr. John Jones, formerly of Markovo,
now working in the Bank of Markovo.

2. Mr. James Smith, formerly of Markovo, now working in the Insurance Company of Markovo.

3. Mr. James Beesly, formerly of Markovo,
now working in the Bank of Markovo.

The trend of the farmers is now towards the city and all are seeking employment in the business world.
