GREAT CROWDS HEAR COOPER

Our Faulty Method of Living Produces Ill Health, He Says

Lexington, March 17. L. T. Cooper, the man who created such a favorable impression in the big Eastern cities with his health theories and medicine, has attracted immense gatherings in Lexington, where the famous philanthropist has delivered a series of lectures in connection with his introduction of Tanlac, the medicine that is producing such remarkable results in Central Kentucky.

Probably ten or fifteen thousand have heard Cooper talk during the past few weeks. Possessed of an unusual amount of personal magnetism, Cooper seems to draw his crowds from all walks of life, and from everywhere in the Blue Grass section.

During the course of a recent lecture he said:

"Possibly the most prevalent and distressing condition known to we Americans is chronic catarrh of the mucous membranes. Catarrh of the stomach is the most frequent cause of dyspepsia, and catarrhal conditions in the nose and throat lead to inevitable deafness. Show me a man whose hearing is affected and I will show you a man who is suffering from catarrh."

"Frequently," continued the great student, "the lungs become diseased by the extension of catarrhal inflammation by way of the bronchial tubes to the lung substance."

"The mental and physical state of chronic catarrh sufferers is, indeed, very unfortunate, and it is really surprising to know what an immense number of people are suffering from this universal malady when they think something else is wrong with them."

Cooper then enumerated the numerous symptoms of catarrh, such as an offensive breath, constant sniffing, discharges from the nose, droppings in the throat, frequent sneezing, watery eyes, full head, headaches, depression of spirits, nervousness, unsound digestion, lost appetite, and susceptibility to coughs and colds.

Cooper then told how the faulty methods of living produce rheumatism and kidney complaints. How the body, when the organs falter or fail, fills up with poisons generated by one's own system.

He explained how Tanlac, the miraculous medicine, would combat these conditions, as it had done among the thousands of sufferers in the East, as well as many hundreds in Lexington, who had already used the preparation, and found Tanlac an unfailing source of benefit. "Tanlac," he said, "builds up the constitution weakened by disease and mental and physical overwork, quickens convalescence, and is a sound source of comfort to the aged and infirm."

Tanlac is sold in Marion by J. H. Orme.—Advertisement.

That the Marion Girls handled their part of the program creditably goes with out saying. We bet on that pair of girls in any undertaking they'd make. We have asked the fair speakers to supply us with their manuscripts and if they supply them our readers may see, in some future issue of the "Crittenden Record-Press" the "ammunition" which the "centrals" used to capture the entire delegation at Paducah.

Only Eighteen Counties Fail To Ask Aid.

Frankfort, Ky. Mar. 6.—Only five counties outside a group in the mountains have failed to ask for state aid in building roads this year. Yesterday was the last day upon which, under the act of 1914 levying a road tax of five cents, fiscal courts could apply for their proportion of the state fund, and three notified Commissioner of roads R. C. Terrel yesterday that they desired to come in, making a total of 102 out of 120 counties participating in the distribution this year.

Henderson and Crittenden are the only two counties in Western Kentucky which did not apply. Henderson has to spend $10,000 on a tuberculosis sanatorium and is short of funds for 1915, and besides already has many miles of turnpikes and gravel roads. No other northern counties in the

On The Road.

Our field representative J. B. M. makes the following places: Salem. Well this little city as the readers of Press knows, is the center in Livingston county, doing a thriving business. The R. F. D. No. 1, going out from Salem is raised in the way of mail, and Harry Martin, the carrier is loaded "not for bear" but with mail.

We made a days run over to Blackford, and did good business while there. This little village is situated over in Webster county and appears to be doing a thriving business.

Our next trip was out on route No. 1, from Marion, Noble Hill carrier, this is the oldest R. F. D. in this county. Mr. Hill was the first appointed and he is still holding down the "job."

Then we made a days circle by the way of View and Crayne.

Mr. Jeff Clement of near View is feeding 53 head of fine steers for the market. He has a silo of about 120 ton capacity from which he is feeding them and they are fine and fat. We were at Crayne about thirty minutes, and as usual did some business. Crayne is always on the alert looking for business and she is doing business.

Our next round was out on route No. 4 from Marion W. E. Minner is the carrier. Mr. Minner is very much admired by the patrons.

THOMAS RELEASED.

The J. J. Thomas Case Was Dismissed Wednesday Morning.

The case against J. J. Thomas for secreting money, that has been hanging in the balance of the Court for about four years, and tried before two Juries without a verdict, was dismissed by the Commonwealth, Wednesday morning.

This decision meets with the approbation of the public, many of whom believe he has been punished enough, and as he confessed his sin and made full restitution no one lost a penny. Many are congratulating him on his release.

TELEPHONE NOTICE

The subscribers of the Marion and Salem Home Telephone Exchanges are reminded that their telephone rent was due on the first of the month and payable by the fifteenth of the month.

It is very important that all accounts be settled at once in order to make the discontinuation of telephone unnecessary.

MARCH TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge J. F. Gordon Very Forceful In His Speech To The Jury.

The attention of the Jury was called to the following laws:—Banding together for unlawful intent, his charge on this line was very impressive. Carrying deadly weapons, misdemeanors, destroying of property by burning or otherwise, felony; taking a value of two dollars is a felony, breach of the peace, assault and battery, selling of liquors, this is a prohibition county and the law should be enforced.

Attention was called to the kind of men we send to the Legislature to enact our laws. They should be business men and be interested in our county.

Back to the local option question—a man that will violate this law should be looked after. "Birds of a feather flock together," so they go on the stand and get out of this. Owners of cold drink stands who violate these laws should be given the limit. To stop this public sentiment must be against it, if it isn't the boot-logger and blind tigers are going to thrive.

His entire charge was very strong and impressive and was listened to not only by the Jury but the courtroom was crowded with attentive listeners.

Laws were discussed in regard to smoking cigarettes. The evil of cigarette smoking was especially dwelt on, and young men who smoke them have difficulty in finding employment. The "dope" law and duty of officers was also looked into.

The following were tried and disposed of up to Tuesday.

Bob Adamson and Love for gaming, fined $20. each. Charley and Maggie Hunt, adultery, fine $20. each. Berry Brasher, (Continued on page 8.)

Is nasal breathing impaired? Does your throat get husky or clogged?

MARION PROOF

Should Convince

Every Marion Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy, bids you pause and believe.

The same endorsement by some stranger far away commands no belief at all.

Here's a Marion case. A Marion citizen testifies. Read and be convinced.

"The statement I made some years ago regarding an attack of kidney trouble that I had at that time and that was permanently cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, holds good," says J. E. Glass, farmer, of Marion. "They surely do all that is claimed for them. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to many people who have also been cured of severe cases of kidney and bladder trouble."

SYMPTOMS

Slight Symptoms Sometimes Presage Serious Results.

Don't you feel tired, have you a sallow complexion, constipation, headache, bad breath, sleeplessness or circles around your eyes? If so, you are undoubtedly suffering from liver complaint.

Perhaps you don't feel very badly now, but delay is dangerous. To allow your liver to continue out of order, is to invite a serious chronic illness.

Whenever you have the slightest symptoms of liver trouble, stop it immediately. You can do it harmlessly and mildly by taking LIV-VER-LAX, the natural vegetable compound that is replacing calomel everywhere. It has all the effectiveness, not the effect of calomel. Insist on getting the original LIV-VER-LAX, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, Marion, Ky.

PROF. V. O. GILBERT WOULD HEAD SCHOOL SYSTEM

Announces His Candidacy for Democratic Nomination for SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

His Life Has Been Devoted to the Work

Professor V. O. Gilbert of Franklin, assistant state superintendent, has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state superintendent of public instruction in the August primary election.

Born and reared on a farm, experienced in the hard school of poverty, he early chose teaching for a profession and for over thirty years has faithfully and continuously worked in the public school system. Teaching in country schools, serving as county superintendent, city superintendent, being for more than six years a member of the faculty of the Western Kentucky State Normal, and having been assistant state superintendent for nearly three years and a half, has given him special training for the office he seeks.

During all these years Professor Gilbert has made a thorough study of the conditions and needs of the public schools of Kentucky. His announcement follows:

"To the People of Kentucky: I am a candidate for the office of superintendent of public instruction, career at the age of sixteen in a country school, I have served as best I could as teacher in the rural schools, as county superintendent of schools, as city superintendent of schools, as instructor in one of our state normal schools and as assistant for over three years to the state superintendent of public instruction during the present administration.

"During this long career as a school man, I have never wavered in my devotion to the schools of my native state. It has been and will continue to be my life's work.

"I am familiar with all the duties of the office to which I aspire, and I am familiar with the entire field from actual experience.

"If I am nominated and elected, I pledge myself unreservedly to the following policies:

"First—To administer the office of state superintendent as economically as it can be done, consistent with efficiency.

"Second—To co-operate with the county superintendents of the state, and to aid them in every possible way

PROF. V. O. GILBERT.

subject to the action of the Democratic primary, August, 1915.

"This office is one of the greatest importance to the state, and every man who offers himself as a candidate for it should be able to give satisfactory evidence of fitness for the high position.

"The best evidences of fitness for any school position are devotion to the cause of education and professional training. No man is worthy of the great office of state superintendent whose life has not shown a singleness of purpose in the work of education; and no man can be capable unless he has had a rich experience in the kinds of duties that prepare one for the state superintendency.

These duties are of three kinds: Actual teaching in the public schools, supervision of public schools, and administration of public schools.

"By these standards I am willing to be judged, recognizing that it is the right and the duty of the people to select the candidate best qualified by nature and training for the position.

"In the first place, I want the position and want it intensely, because it is a high honor, because it is a promotion, because it offers a field for faithful service, because I feel that I am competent to perform the duties of the office, and because I will do my very best to merit the confidence reposed in me.

"For more than twenty-two years I have given my life to school work in this my native state. Beginning my in the great work of building up an efficient system of schools. My policy shall always be to help, not to hinder.

"Third—To make the department of education serve the classified cities in every possible way. To this end I shall seek for ways to serve the city boards of education and city superintendents.

"Fourth—To co-operate in every helpful way with the boards of which the state superintendent may be a member.

"Fifth—To the organization of courses of study, so as to adjust the educational machinery and work of the schools to the practical living needs of the community at large, and to hold constantly before the children examples of temperance, culture and good citizenship.

"Sixth—To co-operate especially with the illiteracy commission. The state superintendent is made by law a member of this commission, and I shall most heartily co-operate with the commission in its great work of eliminating adult illiteracy and illiteracy in general.

"My whole heart, my very life, is in the work; I have had the opportunity for all this training; I have done my best wherever I have worked; and I shall redeem to the letter in good faith every promise made or implied in this announcement. Upon this platform I am earnestly seeking the suffrage of the voters.

"Yours for service,
"V. O. GILBERT"

McCHESNEY ENTERS RACE
FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Stands for Constitutional Amendment Submitting
to the People Vote on State-Wide Prohibition of Sale of Liquor.

Says it Must Be Determined Whether They or the Whiskey Interests Shall Rule Kentucky.

With the declaration in favor of Statewide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as the chief plank in his platform, the Hon. H. V.
McChesney, of Frankfort, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the State primary of next August.

Mr. McChesney declares that if nominated and elected, he will urge upon the General Assembly to submit to the people for their ratification an amendment to the Kentucky Constitution providing for State-wide prohibition. In the formal announcement of his candidacy, Mr. Mc-Chesney, who several years ago filled the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of State, promises an abridgement of public expenditures where it can be properly done, and the further advancement of the present progress in educational and agricultural development.

His announcement is as follows:
"To the Democratic voters of Kentucky:
After mature deliberation I have decided to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor in the primary to be held August 7, 1915. In making this announcement it is due those who support I seek that I briefly outline
the policies I advocate.

I am in favor of state wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. If nominated and elected I shall urge upon the Legislature of 1916
the passage of an Act submitting a prohibition amendment to the Constitution to the people for their ratification. In view of the large amount of capital invested in the liquor business, however, I shall favor

careful and rigid inspection of all departments of the State government with this purpose in view.

I congratulate the State on the great development in our public school system in recent years, and if elected I shall use every endeavor to further advance the cause of public education. Having devoted a large part of my life to the cause of the public schools, I am deeply interested in their continued growth.

The increased interest manifested over the State in improved methods of agriculture and in the construction of good roads is very gratifying. If elected I shall aid in every way possible in the furtherance of both of these great interests, so vital to the progress and welfare of the whole people.

I am in hearty sympathy with the progressive spirit which has marked the State's advance along many lines in recent years, and it shall be my ambition if elected to see this spirit yield a still greater fruitage in the agricultural, industrial and commercial development of the Commonwealth.

My record as Superintendent of Public Instruction and as Secretary of State is before the people for their judgment, and I shall enter into no detailed account of my services in these positions. The people of the State are more or less familiar with the record made, and I am willing to risk their judgment of my fitness for the office of Governor on that record.

During my term as Superintendent of Public Instruction the State per capita was increased largely, the teaching force of the State put on a more efficient basis, and other educational progress made. At

H. V. McCHESNEY.

the close of my term I wrote the bill increasing the rural school term from five months to six, and the companion bill providing the funds for the extra months
without increasing the tax rate, and secured
their passage by the Legislature.
As Secretary of State I was a member of the Board which built the new Capitol,
and was also a member of the Board which assessed all franchise taxes, which taxes were very largely increased during that term. The two administrations covered by those eight years marked an era of great prosperity in the governmental affairs of this State—a big state debt was paid off, the rural school term increased to six months, two State Normal Schools established, the State University put on a more comprehensive basis, a new Capitol
built, many other progressive movements fostered, all without increasing the tax rate, and a full treasury turned over to the succeeding administration. I am proud to have had a part in making that record.

During the seven years since I returned from public office I have responded to every call of the Democratic party. I have spent this time, to the serious neglect of my personal affairs, I have stumped the State for my party in every campaign,
giving my time and services to the success of the party's nominees.

My eight years' experience in public office, referred to above, gave me an insight into the affairs of the State government that ought to prove valuable to the Chief Executive. My services to my party since retiring from office perhaps entitle me to some consideration. On this record, as a public officer and as a private citizen,
I have the ability I may possess, I submit my candidacy to the Democratic party of the State. If nominated and elected,
I shall devote my entire time and energy to the discharge of the duties of the office in an effort to promote the moral, educational and business interests of the Commonwealth, to the end that it may become a better place even than it is now in which to live.

Respectfully submitted,

H. V. McCHESNEY.

Forty-six years old, virg, enthusiastic and of a ready wit, Mr. McChesney has made himself one of the best known leaders in Kentucky through his active part in the interests of the party in every campaign since boyhood. He entered public life at the age of 25, when he was elected County Superintendent of Livingston. He was re-elected to that office. Previous to that he had taught in Caldwell, his native
county, Crittenden, where he was reared, Webster and Livingston.

From County Superintendent of Livingston he was promoted to the office of State Superintendent in 1899, running on the Gossett ticket. Four years later he was elected Secretary of State on the ticket with J. C. W. Heckman.

His friendship has been continued
and close since that time. Mr. McChesney was chairman of the speakers' bureau of State headquarters in 1911 and, excepting speeches in the campaign, made many democratic. He stumped the State with Mr. Heckman when the latter was elected
United States Senator.

Probably no public man in the State is in more demand as a speaker on all sorts of occasions than Mr. McChesney, and his life, as well as the welfare of the State, are well known in Frankfort, where he has resided and has been practicing law since leaving State office. He is at present a member of the City Board of Education, a Director of the Y. M. C. A., Vice-President of the Kentucky State Historical Society, and a deacon in the Baptist Church at Frankfort, where he Sunday school.

Candidate For Nomination as Auditor of Public Accounts Is Well Known Farmer and Live Stock Man.

H. H. COLYER, RICHMOND, KY.

I AM A CANDIDATE for the responsible office of Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Kentucky. Recognizing the important consideration given in choosing an official that will measure up to the ability and fitness for this high office, I submit the testimonials of those informed of my private life. To be Auditor of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky is not a new ambition—its honors are supreme and worth fighting for. I am not entering this contest upon the advice of a few local friends. A careful scrutiny by my friends from every section of the state of all the usual political conditions have determined that my representation in this primary is not likely to be a final second. I am a farmer and live stock dealer—I am interested in systemizing of agricultural interests for greater results and less hardships.

My political aspirations have been focused on this office for quite a while. Believing now that the election experience of the Democratic voters of Kentucky in the past has put them "wise" to the dangers and undemocratic system of swapping state offices, inspires me with the belief that the time is ripe and the voters are ready to give to Kentucky's administration what they want in the form of a square deal. I believe in fighting for justice and meriting the honors given. I believe that officials should be required to do as the toiling farmer—earn the emoluments of his office by the sweat of his brow. I believe that when every official of Kentucky has labored hard for an economical administration that the taxpayers will be greatly relieved. I am not for creating more offices, but for dispensing with every one that is superfluous. I began voting temperance, and will continue to do so as long as I have the sovereign right. I am for the election of every Democrat that is worthy enough to win his nomination, and for the defeat of every Republican, whether he won or stole his nomination, as in either case he would be wrong and never right.

If I am elected—which I believe from the public expression I will be—I promise now that the Commonwealth of Kentucky will never have a cause for suspicion of irregular management in my office; and that every employee will be of the highest type of fitness for the duties assigned. I expect to conduct my campaign on purely honorable Democratic principles—I am as much opposed to violating our election laws as I am of every other law enacted by a righteous tribunal. I hope to have the pleasure of meeting with every Democrat in Kentucky between now and the 7th day of next August. When the final results will have been declared I will cherish the memory of my supporters and will fight for Democratic supremacy.

Testimonial From Madison County Democratic Committee.

"In behalf of the Democrats of Madison county, and through many other representative Democrats from other sections of the state, I take pleasure in presenting H. H. Colyer to the Democrats of Kentucky, as a man capable and worthy for the high office of Auditor of Public Accounts which he is now seeking. He is now and has always been loyal and aggressive for the success of Democratic supremacy. His morals and integrity are above reproach. If nominated, we predict that he will lead our Democratic ticket in November.

Respectfully,

"W. A. LANGFORD,

"Chairman Democratic County Committee."

The "Kentucky Register" and "Climax-Madisonian" of Richmond, Ky., say, regarding Mr. Colyer:

"It is a pleasure to endorse a man of Mr. Colyer's worth for any office that he may seek. We have known him long and intimately, and can testify to the splendid quality of his Democracy, and to the value of his services to the party. Especially does it give us pleasure to say something of his value to the newspapers of this section. He has been one of the strongest friends the craft has ever had. He has been a consistent friend of the local publishers, has supported them morally and financially, and has always taken an active interest in the uplift and advancement of the journalistic profession."

Ponce de Leon, the daring explorer, searched among the swamps of Florida for the Fountain of Youth, which the Indians said would restore power and make people young. He did not find it. A Letter From Mississippi.

Okolona, Miss.
Mar. 8, 1915.

Mr. Jenkins:

I am in receipt of a letter from a man in Marion, and also the Press, and notice that the private letter does not speak in glowing terms of the roads in Crittenden county, and some of the news-items in the Press seem as if they were wondering where the roads are the paid tax for, and other writers infer that the language is not printable to express the condition of the roads in Crittenden county.

If you will give me a little space I would like to give you a few comparisons of the old time roads and the good roads we have here now, and something of their cost although I can not go into the details of the cost without looking up the records.

When we came to Okolona three years ago, I would have bought coal at $5.00 per ton rather than haul wood from the farm one and one half miles away, where I had 70 cords cut to make room for a house. One day I bogged down in one of the streets with 800 pounds of coal and had as good team of mules as any in the county. Every street in Okolona and every road leading into the city was a sea of mud and mire. The cotton yards paid as high as 50 cents per bale to haul cotton to the compress, one block away and could hardly get it hauled for that.

This winter has been as bad or worse, but the short time that has elapsed since we came here has marked some wonderful changes in road building. The farmer can pull 40 bales of hay to town with one team and the cotton people just load on all they can get on handy (5 bales, and could pull ten easy enough), and there has not been a day this winter but what I could drive to town in a one horse buggy in some comfort and see the streets lined with automobiles and heavy loaded wagons.

You wonder what has made the change? It is gravel shipped from Illinois, spread on a well graded roadbed and rolled with a heavy roller. The streets are graveled in every direction, and every road leading into the city is graveled. Where this is done and done right, you don't load your team, you just load your wagon. You don't run your Automobile 4 months and then leave it in the garage for 8, but you can run it to the speed limit any day in the year.

The thing that interests most people is: "What do these roads cost? I cannot say any further than from an individual standpoint and that is what interests the masses of the people. I paid $9.30 good roads tax each year for the last two years on 160 acres of land that is assessed as high as any I know of and had about 12 head of cattle and work stock besides. I think at this rate the bonds are to be liquidated in 20 years, but cannot say for sure. However, if the good roads tax go on for 100 years and the roads are kept up to their present standard, here's one to say let 'er go.

You are getting interested in good farming and your paper will do a vast amount of good to the farming interests of the county. Now just give a boost for good roads and guide the old mudboat out of the mire and onto the solid rock. Then your constituents will pay the good roads tax with a smile and they with their posterity, that are yet unborn, will thank God that they were lead by you and your good paper to see the importance of good roads in enhancing the value of their real-estate and for the personal comfort and pleasures of all.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Crider.

A Letter From New Mexico.

Portales, N. M.
Mar. 7, 1914.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.,

Dear Editor:

I know you will be surprised to hear from me again so soon, but I can't stay away any longer. I saw in the Press where Mrs. Joseph Chandler sold $130.00 worth of eggs last year. I say hurrah for Mrs. Chandler, she is a hustler and a good neighbor, but she couldn't get up enough nerve to write me, so she got V. O. Chandler to write a few lines. Many thanks to both of you. I like for my old neighbors to write and tell me how things are in Kentucky. I can't write to all of them but would enjoy a nice letter from any one who cares to write the Record-Press. Tell Mrs. Chandler she beat me selling eggs but she can't near come up with me trying to cook beans. I put them to cook Monday morning and boiled them all day, the next two days I did the same thing then I began to put in some soda. I cooked them until Saturday night, by that time I had them so strong with soda I could hardly stay in the room, and had burnt two dollars worth of coal, so I threw them over to the hogs, they rolled all over the ground and rattled like marbles. Can you beat that, Ida? If you can come out to see me. I never saw times so good in Mexico as they are now. The people are thrashing grain, grain and hauling it to Portales for $1.25 per hundred. Nearly every man threshed from 1400 to 2000 bu. and some had more than that, but I don't want to make it too good for the people wouldn't believe me. Spring is coming and Mr. Newcom is out listing his ground for another crop. He has four large horses to the lister and has his overcoat on. He can drive all day without hitting a stump. Mr. Newcom lists the ground with 4 horses. He does nearly all of his work with four. That makes the work lighter for both the team and himself, for when he uses four horses he rides all the time. When we first came out here the wolves would come right close to the house, and howl at night. They sound so lonesome to me, and I am always meeting 2 or 3 of them when I go to town. I don't like the looks of the old fellows but they always stand still until I go by. This leaves us both well and enjoying life. Well I will write you a little poetry and then I will ring off for a while.

Mighty glad I am a farmer, It's the only life for me From the dawn of morn till darkness

Just as happy as I'm free Like to hear the cow-bells jingle Hear the roosters crow for day Puts a love song in my bosom, Thus my troubles drift away.

Like to hear the old hens cackle, In the barn loft and the stalls, Sounds like fairy strains of music,

Wafted from enchanted halls Big fat turkeys out there strutting

There's a laugh in every breeze, Days grow brighter, life much sweeter, In a farm house 'mong the trees.

Oh! I'm glad I am a farmer When the days are cold and wet Sit around the fire with Eddie, While the other women fret Life is full of love and laughter, When the snow is on the ground, Same way in the summer season, Tho' the rain is pouring down.

When I come home from my neighbors,

Just as tired as I can be Eddie's in the house singing: And I know the songs for me Kind 'o 'pears to me, then brother

Life is worth the woe and pain, Worth the trouble it takes to live it

In a farmhouse by the lane, From your true friend, Mrs. E. L. Newcom, Box 201.

Bellevue, Ohio.—"I was in a terrible state before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back ached until I thought it would break, I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. Would not be without it in the house if it cost three times the amount."—Mrs. CHAS. CHAPMAN, R. F. D. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Former Citizen of Marion Attains Prominence.

The Topeka Daily State Journal says: Sheridan county is represented in the House by a Kentuckian, who, being a Kentuckian, is naturally a Democrat. He was County Attorney of Sheridan up to and including the day before he started to Topeka as representative, one job almost overlapping onto the other. W. H. Clark is the name of this lawyer person, and the reports indicate that his election by a small margin occurred in a Republican county. However, the extra dozen or so whose votes sent him to represent the county should be satisfied with their work, as he has shown ability in his new job. His principal activities have been along legal lines, in which he is particularly efficient, and his legal ability may be due to his early training. Back in Kentucky he studied law in the same office with Ollie James, which was the office of James Senior, one of the leading legal lights of the Blue Grass state. The gentleman from Sheridan made a hit with one faction of the house by the able way in which he hangs it onto speakers of the opposition. He does it with the grace and elegance of a school teacher decorating a Christmas tree—not with long, time killing speeches, but with the pertinent questions injected at the psychological moment.

When Mr. Clark gets through legislating, he will return to Hoxie and enter the general law practice. He has been in the state only six years but has built up an extensive practice in three or four counties around Sheridan before he was elected county attorney.

Up to a late hour this afternoon the tall gentleman from Sheridan has escaped the bonds of matrimony. In Hoxie he is known as an old batch, although he is neither old nor his own cook, and if any of the eligible girls in this town have harpooned him he is keeping quiet about it.

Every boy who plays baseball and who has a secret longing to come under the eye of a scout from the big leagues, ought to have The Youth's Companion, and read the articles on baseball and other sports on the Boys' Page. McGREW ENTERS RACE

Livingston Co., Enterprise February, 18, 1914.

Hon. G. N. McGrew of Bayou has entered the race for representative from this district, subject to the democratic primary to be held August, 7. Many of the leading citizens of this county and Crittenden have solicited him to enter because of his fitness for the position. Mr. McGrew is a good farmer, a splendid christian gentleman, an advocate of development and favors progress in every sense.

His long and useful connection with the State Board of Agriculture has given him ample opportunity to study the needs of rural life, to observe the neglect farmers have suffered from causes which he hopes to be able to remove and to the end, that he may be helpful to his district, he enters the contest.

Mr. McGrew is well known to most of the voters of both counties and they all have confidence in his honesty and ability, hence it would be superfluous for the Enterprise to try to add anything to his good name in making known his desires to be a member of the State Legislature. The next session of the Kentucky Legislature will be an important one for several reasons. If the tax law amendment to the constitution carries at the November election, a tax law will be enacted next winter and in the consideration of its provisions, the interests of rural taxpayers needs to be protected by a man able to meet the issue and fight for fair play and a square deal.

Voters often treat too lightly, the selection of law-makers.

Men of wisdom and experience can serve the people, and make wholesome laws for our government, such a man we believe Mr. McGrew to be, hence, there can be no mistake made in naming and sending him to legislature for us. He is not a partisan, but if elected he will serve the whole people without regard to political affiliations. He cannot be regarded as an office seeker for during his entire life he has been content to remain on the farm and he has made a success of his business.

The Enterprise would be proud to see him honored with a seat in the Lower House of the next legislature because we believe he would serve the people ably, honestly, faithfully and constantly. —Advertisement.

If Rheuma, the wonderful prescription for rheumatism sold by James H. Orme and all druggists, does not cure any purchaser, the druggist will return your money without red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease; because of its shifting nature it often strikes the heart and proves fatal. Any one with even a taint of rheumatism ought to drive it out as soon as possible.

Rheumatism is caused by sluggish, worn-out or over-worked kidneys, which become clogged and fail to eliminate the impurities from the system.

Rheuma acts promptly and directly upon the kidneys; it cleanses them; it absolutely renovates and leaves them in perfect condition, able to do the work nature intended they should do. 50 cents a bottle.

THE PATTON RESIDENCE.

In a recent issue of the Evansville Journal News, Architects Capelle and Thurgood are complimented highly on their success. Among other buildings designed by them is the fine new residence property of Jas. R. Patton which is almost completed. The Journal News says:

"The building is one of the most beautiful modern homes to be found in that section of the state. It is designed in the colonial style and built of dark brown face brick, with stone trimmings. The house is located on a high bluff rising from the Ohio river. The basement extends under the entire house, and contains the hot water heating system, individual water system and electric lighting plant for the house. The first floor is taken up with a large living room, hall, dining room, pantry and kitchen, with a cold pantry. There is also a bed room, bath and separate toilet on this floor. The front porch extends across the whole front of the house, and a terrace along the south side of the house overlooking a large garden and the river.

While we do not desire to detract any from Messrs Capelle and Thurgood's work, we do believe that much of the work is due to the diligence and ability of the contractor, F. B. Heath of Marion Ky. Mr. Heath has so conducted his work that Mr. Patton is well pleased. The building itself stands as a monument of pride to the name of F. B. Heath.

About dusk just before we reached the residence of Mr. Summers, we discovered a lady approaching us with a white straw hat on, which showed the wear of about two Summers, and in fact her whole dressing was made up of odds and ends of different colors, covered with bows and ties of red, white and blue, and we thought, that woman must be crazy, but it was Miss Laura Summers rigged out and going to a tacky party.

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief.
