FIVE THOUSAND HEAR COOPER

Exhibited Watch Valued at $3,500
Given Him By Grateful Father.

Lexington, Ky., Mar. 25.
It is estimated that five thousand Lexington people heard L. T. Cooper, the man who created such widespread attention in the East, one evening recently. Cooper explained to the vast crowd his theories on health and hygiene, accompanied by a unique demonstration of his celebrated preparation Tanlac, which he is personally introducing in the larger American cities.

In connection with his visit to Kentucky, Cooper said: "I shall remain in Kentucky for only a short time. However, I shall give to the people of this section of the country the same benefits of my study and my medicine that I have given the multitudes of New York, where I have been busy during the past year helping the hundreds of thousands of suffering humans in that great city.

"While here I will prove to every one how easy it is to guard against the inroads of ill-health by guarding your health as carefully as you do some other features of your daily lives.

"Catarrhal affections of the head, nose, throat and stomach, as well as the kidneys, produce a stuffed-up condition of the vital organs, and nine times out of ten this trouble is responsible for most of the ill-health of we present day Americans. Faulty methods of living are back of this all, but it is never too late to correct our faults.

"Tanlac, the wonderful medicine that I am introducing to correct this condition, I believe to be the best thing of the kind on the American market today. This fact has been proven throughout the great Eastern cities, as well as right here in Lexington, where hundreds of people are already realizing the surprising results from its use.

"They all testify that Tanlac has a peculiarly grateful effect, seems to go right to the desired spot, warms up the entire system, and gives great strength and development where it is most needed—correcting all of the ills and weaknesses which come from years of misuse of the vital and digestive organs."

Cooper then exhibited a handsomely engraved gold watch, studded with forty-seven perfectly cut diamonds, which is valued at $3,500, that was given to him as a token of appreciation by a prominent jeweler, whose son was relieved by Tanlac.

The celebrated Tanlac is sold exclusively in Marion, Ky., by Jas. H. Orme.—Advertisement.

THE TELEPHONE A SUCCESS.

Miss Mayme Bryant's Paper on "The Telephone" Read
At Paducah.

The following was read at Operator's meeting at Paducah. "The vastness of the Telephone System is ever a source of wonder to me. We of modern times have become so used to great inventions that we accept the most astounding feats almost with indifference, thinking more of the convenience it means to us, than of the years of toil and thought it has taken to bring about these wonderful inventions.

Should we stop to consider the labor it has taken to perfect one call over the wires, we would prize even more than we do, this very convenient instrument we call "The Telephone."

In business, sickness or pleasure it is ever ready to serve us uncomplainingly. The business man cannot afford to be without one from a financial standpoint; the people not being in touch with him, would naturally forget him. No home is complete without one, for it is like adding a cheery and dependable member to your household.

As the cost is so light and the returns so great: they are as they should be, fast becoming as essential in the American home as the Sewing Machine.

In such a business as Telephony there can be no failure but "here's hoping" more success and greater prosperity to our friend "The Telephone."—Mayme Bryant.

ANOTHER MARION MAN IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Dr. R. L. Moore Announces For Republican Nomination For State Treasurer.

In this issue will be found the announcement of Hon. R. L. Moore of Marion, as a candidate for Treasurer of Kentucky, subject to the primary the first Saturday in August. Mr. Moore is a law partner of former Senator W. J. Deboe, has been president of a bank for ten years, and is a gentleman of high order. We call special attention to what the Lexington Leader says of him, editorially copied in this issue of the Republican.—Glasgow Republican.

Dr. R. L. Moore of Marion, Ky.—Ollie James' home town—who, was in the city last week, is the first to shy his castor into the ring for the Republican nomination for state treasurer, his formal announcement having been given to the press yesterday. If nominated and elected he will become a member of the State Board of Valuation and Assessment in conjunction with the state auditor and secretary of state, which shows that he will have other important duties besides handling the state's finances.

Dr. Moore, who is 54 years old, is one of the leading Republicans of western Kentucky. He was born and reared on a farm, educated in his home schools and graduated from the Universities of Louisville and Chicago. He began the practice of medicine in 1882 and continued this about fifteen years. In 1902 he began the practice of law and is one of the leading lawyers at the Marion bar. He served as president of the Marion bank for ten years, and for ten years was vice president of the Farmers Bank at that place. He is also an elder in the Presbyterian church. Dr. Moore's experience as a banker eminently fits him for the office of treasurer, and being a good business man, will be a valuable addition to the Board of Valuation and Assessment, something that is badly needed at this time. The state of Kentucky, and those having business with the Board of Valuation and Assessment have a right to demand the nomination and election of good men to fill those offices, especially when it

CRACKSMEN ROB SMITHLAND P. O.

Money And Stamps To Amount
Of $300. Secured By The Thieves.

Smithland, Ky., March 23.—More than $300 in stamps and money was secured by cracksmen who early this morning blew open the safe of the Smithland postoffice. The thieves made a clear "get away" leaving no clue behind them. A pick and monkey wrench used in breaking into the postoffice building were stolen from the Brandstetter store next door.

The theory of officials here is that the safe blowers came here from Paducah, making the trip by river in a gasoline launch. Postoffice inspector Fred Ashton arrived from Paducah this morning to investigate the case.

Mrs V. Y. Moore Charming Entertained In Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Arthur Watkins was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Norwood Five Hundred Club, complimenting Mrs. V. Y. Moore of Kentucky. The house carried out the idea of Saint Patrick's birthday in the decorations. A crocheted centerpiece was given as the game prize, a cut glass hair receiver and an embroidered towel were also prizes. Her guests were:—Mrs. V. Y. Moore, Mrs. J. M. McLaughlin, Mrs. J. H. Newman, Mrs. B. C. Rickman, Mrs. J. W. Morrow, Mrs. C. H. Johns, Mrs. J. N. Neal, Mrs. J. L. Leslie, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. A. Boyer, Mrs. O. H. Cowden, Mrs. J. M. Moss, Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, Mrs. T. G. is taken into consideration that all of the franchises of the state come under the jurisdiction of that board. Dr. Moore, who is a good speaker, will be able to take care of himself on the stump and enter the race with a strong following. — Lexington Leader of March 17th 1915.—Advertisement

H. V. MCCHESNEY FOR GOVERNOR

Following Is A Strong Editorial
From The Gifted Pen
Of John L. Smith.

Harry V. McChesney, former citizen of this city announced for Governor last Saturday. His public career began here in 1893 when he was elected Superintendent of county schools, to which office he was elected second time.

McChesney favors state-wide prohibition and wants the people to have an opportunity to vote on a constitutional amendment that shall prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicants in Kentucky.

This declaration has created commotion among the liquor forces whose operations have been driven from over one hundred counties of this state. In reality this question need not alarm anyone for the people have a right to vote on this question and decide it for themselves. Why should any candidate for a state office refuse the submission of question to the voters? Are we not a sovereign people? Livingston county decided that prohibition is a good thing, so, if it is good for Livingston county, is it not good for every other county in the state? Let the whole people decide.

If the sale of whiskey and beer is good for McChesney county, it looks like it would be good for Livingston. The plain fact is, it is not good for any community. But the question now hinges on whether or not, the people will be given an opportunity to register their votes for or against this destructive evil. The battle is on and it will be fought out this year. It just as well be settled now as any other time, and it will be settled right.

We need not mention the evils of intemperance. The trail of misery that has followed in its wake, the blighted lives and ruined homes testify to its deplorable effects upon depraved humanity.

Harry McChesney has a right to favor state-wide prohibition and he has the courage to so declare. His life has been free from liquor contaminations. He is a sober man, an honest man and he ranks with Kentucky's foremost leaders in progressive politics and statesmanship. He never assumed a position he could not successfully defend before the people. In the declarations set out in his announcement, he touches a chord in the breast of thousands of good people all over Kentucky, people whose rights have been trampled upon by the worst evil and enemy to humanity ever allowed to run rough-shod over a free democracy. The people themselves will have now an opportunity to record their votes for a man who offers them a right they have been denied, the right to vote on state-wide prohibition.

The issue will be closely drawn and all the ground covered by the waging warriors, but the people are supreme and by them will this great question be settled at the ballot box.

A McChesney club was organized at the Court House last Saturday night.—Livingston Banner. Adv.

DISCUSSION OF FARM FLOCK.

Another Interesting Discussion Of "The Farm Flock" By One Who Knows.

In this article I want to again call attention to the house, housing and breed you select.

Build good comfortable quarters then get good foundation stock or eggs from a laying strain of the kind you like best, then look well to the little things; for this counts for more in the chicken business than in any thing we've ever tried.

Grit, oyster shells, charcoal and fresh water should be kept before the fowls all the time. Plan this Spring and summer to raise a variety of grain to feed this fall. Kafir corn and millet, cut when good ripe are good. Sunflower seed should be fed to the hens while in the molt.

Do not feed grain on bare ground but rather in deep litter.

Never allow your fowls to roost in trees or drafty places at the barn. If they persist in roosting at the barn they should be protected from the cold winds by planks, shock fodder, or baled straw. Nor must they be allowed to run out in cold mud or snow, keep them housed.

Build any kind of house you like, so it is warm and snug on North, East and West sides, on South side make plenty of openings. Plan to get all the sunshine possible in these openings by letting them extend to the floor and up to near the top.

Nail one inch mesh poultry netting over windows. Make a light door frame and cover with same netting to hang inside of the wooden doors.

Windows should be provided with curtains, (grass sacks ripped open will do fine for these)

Place the dropping board directly under the roost poles, let it extend to back wall, supported by cleat, and out 1-2 inches past roost poles.

This should be movable in order to be kept clean.

Now friends I have made this as plain as I can. Evidently from the questions I have asked, some of the readers of my former article did not understand this part of it. Dirt floors are alright if kept perfectly dry, if not use plank floors by all means.

Do not count too high on stock or eggs shipped from a distance. Our experience is we do just as well perhaps better, by buying from responsible parties near home. Frequently eggs are kept on hands 3 or 4 weeks, perhaps longer, then shipped to the farmers for hatching purposes, the result is a poor hatch and weaklings. Eggs for hatching purposes should be fresh, not over two weeks old.

Eggs should be gathered once each day, in frosty weather oftener, and each egg we get is marked with the day, month and kind very often the No. of pen, and in this way have no trouble in picking out the fresh eggs. None are set or shipped that are over twelve days old.

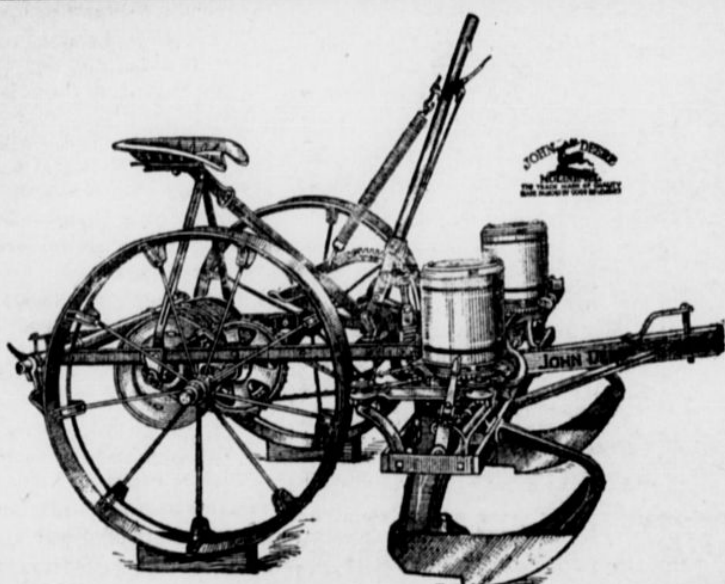

Now brother farmer, if you find anything in this article that appeals to you put it into practice, if you don't cast it in the waste basket.—J. B. Carter.

When Anybody Finds a Cure He Is Generally Willing To Tell His Neighbor

¶ The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has been done.

¶ The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials continually.

ANEMIA—Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Peruna to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any run-down condition of the system."

SPRING COLDS—Mrs. Rhoda Stufflebeam, Bunch, Iowa: "A spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna, I am a well woman today."

CATARH—Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice."

SPRING TONIC—Mrs. Wm. McRobert, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in spring Peruna tones up the system, acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest."

¶ How did they hear of Peruna?

¶ Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation of grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.

SCHILDKRET'S HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA.

Schildkret's Hungarian Orchestra is making a transcontinental tour under Redpath management this season. Mr. Schildkret has appeared widely on both the Chautauquas and Lyceum courses for more than eight years past, everywhere greeted with a degree of enthusiasm seldom tendered a musical organization.

The Schildkret Hungarian Orchestra is probably more widely known today than any other Hungarian orchestra in this country. As a director Samuel Schildkret can get as much music out of six men as many directors will get from an orchestra of ten.

Mr. Schildkret and his orchestra first became known during the World's fair, Chicago. The members had then just recently come to this country from their native land, and their work was attracting considerable attention when.

through Mrs. Potter Palmer, chairman of the woman's committee of the World's fair, they were engaged for the Columbian exposition. Mr. Schildkret and his men have not only played at the home of Mrs. Potter Palmer, but also at the homes of Mrs. Marshall Field and other social leaders.

While in Washington Mr. Schildkret played at the Washington Park Club at an event attended by Miss Alice Roosevelt. He has also played before many other notable people.

Mr. Schildkret has studied the wants of the Lyceum and Chautauquas and has an appreciation of just the kind of concert program that will best please. His audiences often reach a high pitch of enthusiasm on account of the vim, life and fire which he puts in all renditions. In addition to this, he is one of the finest flute soloists in America, and his solos on this instrument are a feature of every program. There are also other solos as well as trio and quintet numbers.

SYMPTOMS

Slight Symptoms Sometimes Presage Serious Results.

Don't you feel tired, have you a sal-low complexion, constipation, headache, bad breath, sleeplessness or circles around your eyes? If so, you are undoubtedly suffering from liver complaint.

Perhaps you don't feel very badly now, but delay is dangerous. To allow your liver to continue out of order, is to invite a serious chronic illness.

Whenever you have the slightest symptoms of liver trouble, stop it immediately. You can do it harmlessly and mildly by taking LIV-VER-LAX, the natural vegetable compound that is replacing calomel everywhere. It has all the effectiveness, not the effect of calomel. Insist on getting the original LIV-VER-LAX, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, Marion, Ky.

How can man learn to know himself? Never by meditating, but by doing. Endeavor to do thy duty, and thou wilt at once know what in thee lies.—Goethe.

Never to tire, never grow cold; to be patient, sympathetic, tender; to look for the budding flower and the opening heart, to hope always; like God to love always—this is duty.—Amiel.

Mankind worships success, but thinks too little of the means by which it is attained—what days and nights of watching and weariness; how year after year has dragged on, and seen the end still far off.—H. M. Field.

"If a man thinks every one is against him, he will treat them so they will be. If he thinks everyone is a friend, he will treat them nice and they will be friends. If a man is suspicious of everyone they will be suspicious of him. You get just what is coming to you, good or bad, that's sure. Stop fighting everybody, if you keep it up you'll sure get licked sometime good and plenty."—Buster Brown.

"The trees formed the first temples of the gods, and even at the present day the country people, preserving in all their simplicity their ancient rites, consecrate the finest of their trees to some divinity. Indeed, we feel ourselves inspired to adoration not less by the sacred groves, and their very stillness, than by the statutes of the gods, resplendent as they are with gold and ivory. Each kind of tree remains immutably consecrated to some divinity; the beech to Jupiter, the laurel to Apollo, the olive to Minerva, the myrtle to Venus and the poplar to Hercules."—Pliny.

DEATHS

Miss Nina Barnes died suddenly Sunday morning of asthma, with which she had suffered for some time past. Although she was in ill health and quite frail for some time, her sudden death was a great shock to the community as she had many warm friends and sympathizers in her afflictions. She was a daughter of Wm. Barnes, who died many years ago, and whose widow later became the wife of J. L. Hibbs of Birdsville, and who died in recent years in this city.

She is survived by one brother James M. Barnes of Tolu, Kentucky, and two sisters, Miss Della Barnes of this city and Mrs. Lemah Nunn, wife of Judge Clement S. Nunn, of the Court of Appeals of Frankfort, Ky. The funeral service at the residence at 2 o'clock and at the New Cemetery was conducted by Rev. J. B. Trotter of the First Baptist church. The pall bearers were United States Senator, O. M. James of Washington, D. C., W. B. Yandell G. M. Crider, J. M. Freeman, T. H. Cochran and Judge J. W. Blue, all of this city. There were many beautiful flowers and an immense gathering of friends which filled the house to overflowing, many of whom accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Mrs. Nancy Milliken died at Benton, Ills., March 8th 1915, aged 81 years. Her husband preceded her to the grave several years ago. Her surviving children are:—L. J. Milliken, Henry Milliken of Benton, Ills., James Milliken of Decatur, Ills., Mesdames Jasper Denham of Macedonia, and Joel A. C. Pickens of this city.

MARION PROOF

Every Marion Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy, bids you pause and believe. The same endorsement by some stranger far away commands no belief at all. Here's a Marion case. A Marion citizen testifies. Read and be convinced.

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak.
"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N. Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. The doctors said I had poor blood and what I had was turning to water. I took different medicines which did not help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED CHACE, R. No. 2, Macedon, N. Y.

The Change of Life.

BELTSVILLE, MD.—"By the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I have successfully passed through a most trying time, the Change of Life. I suffered with a weakness, and had to stay in bed three days at a time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I am praising it for the benefit of other women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. W. S. DUVALL, Route No. 1, Beltsville, Md.

For 50 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.
Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary Mahan was born Dec. 21, 1854 and died Feb. 15, 1915. In 1877 she was married to Mr. B. F. Mahan. To them were born nine children, but four of them were called home in their infancy to God who gave them. She leaves two daughters, Miss Alma Mahan and Mrs. Ora Ramage, three sons, Messrs. Luke, Claud and Lonnie Mahan. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Martha Barnes, Mrs. Lue Barnett, and three brothers, Messrs. Jiles, Fate and Bent Aliey. All live in this state with the exception of one who is a resident of Missouri.

She was at one time a member of the Baptist church at Good Hope, but later moved her membership to Hampton. At the time of her death she was residing at the home of her married son Lonnie, near Hampton.

Her death was due to a fall she received just three weeks before she died. All was done to relieve her suffering that loving hands could do, but God saw fit to take her from us. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Martin of Hampton. The interment took place at the Foreman Cemetery, Feb. 16, 1915.

She has left us and our hearts and homes are desolate, but death is the gate that opens out of earth toward the home in the Heavens. While we have lost a loyal friend and loved one, and Heaven gains a brighter jewel, and while we sorrow here she rejoices in her eternal home, where death never enters and where partings are never known. Only a few fleeting months or years at most and we will meet our loved one in that Home Sweet Home.

Grieve not dear children, Mother cannot come back to you, but you can go to live with her through all eternity.

She will welcome us again when the pearly gates unfold, never to say good-bye any more, no more heart aches, no more pain, no more care—but rest; peace and heavenly joy for evermore.

Thirteen Days And No Sunday.

"For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears we would know therefore what these things mean." Nearly everything is strange if closely studied. The one hundred eightieth longitude, with some variations, west from Greenwich, England is the International Date Line, where the days begin and end. When it is Sunday east of this line, it is Monday west of it, and so on for the other days of the week. Should we cross this line from the east to the west, it would set up our time one day; or should we cross it from west to east it would set our time back one day. Were you just east of this line during the whole of Monday and remain there until the very last moment of the following Saturday, at the expiration of that last moment, cross this line to its west side where it is Monday, remain there for six days, the last of these six days will be Saturday, at the very last moment of which, cross back to the east side of this line where it is still Saturday. So you have spent thirteen days and no Sunday.

By crossing the International Date Line at the proper moments it may be possible for a person forty years old to have only one birth-day. It might have been possible for two live friends to have shaken hands, it being different days and different years, and even different centuries for these friends at the time of the hand shaking. Place one friend just west of the International Date Line January 1, 1900, place the other friend on the east of this line at the same time. The time west of this line, while the friends were shaking hands was Monday Jan. 1st, 1900, and at that time east of this line was Sunday December 31, 1899. It is on the same principle that you politicians who go up to Washington city to apply for a Governmental job find when you arrive there, that your watch is one hour too slow. Is this not strange? W. B. DAVIS.

RELIGION IN EDUCATION

By CHARLES F. THWING, LL. D.
(President of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, O.)

I am not a Catholic; but I sympathize with the Catholic in his demand that education be made religious.

Such are some of the suggestions regarding the character of the religion which I believe should be taught in American schools and colleges. Such, too, is the religion which the Bible presents. It is the religion, sociological: "So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another." It is the religion personal: "What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God?"

In the presentation and teaching of such a religion, broad without being thin, fundamental and essential, both Catholic and Jew and Protestant should agree and co-operate.

FASTINGS AND FEASTINGS PROPER AND IMPROPER

"When Ye Fast, Be Not Hypocritical."

Right and Wrong Views of Fasting. The Bible's Teaching—The Spirit of Fasting—Spiritual Feasting at the Same Time—Hygienic Value of Fasting—Spiritual Advantages.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Nashville, Tenn., March 14.—Pastor Russell gave two addresses here today. We report the one on Fastings and Feastings, from the text, "When ye fast, be not of a sad countenance."—Matthew 6:16.

The discourse began with a discussion of the Lenten season. Although not of Divine command, the custom appeals to many. Like every good thing, it is misunderstood and perverted by the majority, because not spiritually minded. To many of these it is a command, the neglect of which would bring upon them the disapprobation of friends, and the observance of which would bring them some Divine favor or some relaxation from proper punishment for their sins—they know not what. Of such perfunctory fasting, displeasing to God and valueless to the individual—hypocritical fasting—the speaker gave an illustration. An acquaintance who professed to observe Lent, was instructed to drink but one cup of coffee daily during the fast, and compromised with his conscience by drinking his usual amount of coffee from a bowl!

Nothing is more contemptible in God's sight than a hypocrite, the Pastor declared. Honesty is the one quality which all pleasing to God must possess, no matter how weak and fallen by heredity. Jesus condemned hypocrisy more than any other sin.

Although nothing in the Bible suggests a Lenten season, the Apostles commend fasting. St. Paul wrote, "Approve yourselves in fastings," and "in fastings often." Evidently fasting is in the nature of self-sacrifice—not a thing commanded, but a voluntary offering of the soul to God, with a view to greater efficiency in God's service or to greater control over our bodies in the interests of our spiritual New Nature.

Appropriate Lenten Thoughts.
The Pastor then pointed out the practical value of fasting during Lent. On hygienic grounds alone it is of great advantage, particularly to the well fed, to refrain from eating as liberally of meats, sweets, pastry, etc., as they were inclined to eat during the colder weather. Boils, pimples, liver derangements, fevers and doctor bills would be greatly lessened as a result.

Next the speaker discussed the spiritual side of the question. He showed that the Christian may advantageously take a much deeper spiritual meaning out of Lent. He may recall the Savior's experiences during the forty days preceding His crucifixion. He may remember that just before His crucifixion Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper and indicated that date as the proper one for its annual commemoration amongst His followers, as was the custom in the early Church. He may remember sympathetically the Redeemer's trials at this season, and reflect that all Jesus' followers covenant to share His Cup of suffering, in sympathy, misunderstanding, misrepresentation, slander, abuse and death and that from the very first this season seems to have been a time of special trial amongst Jesus' followers.

These considerations might well move God's people to the observance of a fast during the period preceding the anniversary of their Redeemer's death. In so doing, from a desire to draw near to God, they would certainly contribute a share toward that end.

A study of the Prophet Daniel's fast gives valuable hints as to proper fasting. He confined himself strictly to the things which his system absolutely needed for the maintenance of mental and physical strength, ate nothing superfluently and avoided dainties.

The Christian's Perpetual Fast.
Fasting applies, not only to food, but to everything; it signifies self-denial of the desires of the flesh, so the intent that the spiritual nature may be strengthened. The true Christian lives a life of daily self-denial. Such mortification of the flesh, self-denials of the various inclinations of the flesh in the interests of the New Creature, are all fastings. The whole tenor of the Scriptures is to the effect that Christians are spiritually advantaged by allowing the Holy Spirit to rule in their mortal bodies—to the restraining of their natural inclinations, tastes, preferences, appetites, which the Scriptures declare are all vitiated more or less by heredity.

Thus, as the Bible tells us, the Christian is constantly at warfare with himself—his new nature warring a good warfare against the old nature. In this conflict he is to come off an overcomer; and his victory will not be complete until he is actually dead according to the flesh and until, as a New Creature, he shall have experienced the blessings of the Resurrection of the spiritual nature.

BLACKFORD

(delayed from last week.)

After remaining silent for a week or two, we come to the front again with a willing mind, but only a few off-hand remarks.

A brighter day seems to be dawning and the farmers, around here, are preparing for another crop. From the amount of work already done during the past week, shows that they appreciate pretty weather.

The Sunday School at the Methodist church is now budding and will, if no hindrance occurs, be in full bloom by grass-hopper time. While there are Sunday Schools at the other two churches—Baptist and Presbyterian—the one at the Methodist church seems to be in the lead.

The mad-dog scare has subsided to some extent at this hamlet.

At the home of John M. Metcalfe, on the 21st, ult., was born a boy baby. The new arrival has been named Royce Woodware. Also on the 2nd, instant, at the home of Samuel L. Woodson, a charming little girl first saw light. The latter arrival has been christened Willie Pauline. This very readily shows that the Blackfords believe in complying with the injunction—"multiply and replenish the earth."

Well, yes, neighbors, "Rambler," of Rodney, and "Little Rose," of Belmont, the answer to question No. 2, is correct. A watch is right. As you have become interested enough to answer No. 2, we shall try to be honest enough to tell what we think the answer to No. 1, is parents. As Adam had no earthly parents, we believe that parents is the correct answer to question No. 1. Now, neighbor, "Rambler" concerning the question, "Whom did the sons and daughters of Adam marry?" That is quite a complicated proposition. By blending Profane and sacred history we might be able to frame an answer that would be conjectural to the more skillful, therefore, we have decided to wait and give others, who read your question, a chance to tell what they have to say concerning the matter, before we tackle the thing. This is a good question and we are glad that you propounded it.

WHAT DOETH JEHOVAH REQUIRE?

Matthew 7:24-29—March 29.

"What doeth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?"—Micah 6:8.

JESUS sought to impress upon His hearers that it was not sufficient to hear that a Kingdom of God was coming to bring blessings to the world, and that a Kingdom class was being called to be Messiah's joint-heirs in that Kingdom. Action would be necessary on their part if they would attain this high privilege which God had granted them.

Jesus gave an illustration, saying that those who heard His Message and obeyed it would be like a wise man who built upon the rock, where rains would not wash away the foundation. The storms of life and the great crisis, death, are sure to come. Amidst these trials there will be calmness, security and confidence for such as have accepted the Lord's arrangement and have walked to the best of their ability in Jesus' footsteps.

"The Rock of Christ Jesus."

"Other Foundation Can No Man Lay."

On the other hand, Jesus intimated that many who heard His words and expressed great appreciation of them, would fail to take the proper steps to attain the glorious Kingdom privileges which He presented. They would allow custom, habit, love of pleasure, love of ease, the spirit of the world, to hinder them, from making full devotion of themselves to God. Such did not build their faith upon the proper foundation.

Perhaps some built upon the Law, and thought to commend themselves to God by their own endeavors, without the imputation of Christ's merit. Such would be greatly mistaken. Other foundation can no man lay than that which God has laid—Jesus Christ. His death is our redemption-price; and His appearance in glory as our Advocate is to make good our unintentional shortcomings.

With all such, the day of trial will surely come; and their faith structure, being without proper foundation, will give way. They will suffer loss of all their hopes. This, however, does not signify, as many once supposed, that they will go to eternal torment. Evidently nearly all Christians, misled by the creeds of the Dark Ages, have read into God's Word things which it does not contain.

Compare St. Paul's Parable.
The Apostle Paul used a similar illustration. Those building upon that foundation with the gold, silver and precious stones of Divine Truth—developing faith and character in harmony with the Divine requirements—will suffer no loss in the great trial day at the end of this Age. But others who build with the wood, hay and stubble of human tradition and self complacency, will have their entire faith structure consumed.—1 Corinthians 3:10-15.

Nevertheless the Apostle tells us that even these, if they have built upon Christ, will themselves be saved, yet so as by fire. They will be what is termed a tribulation class, described in Revelation 7:14-17. The class building with gold, silver and precious stones, will be a Little Flock, a Royal Priesthood. But the class building upon the Rock without proper materials will be the Great company, the antitype of the Levites. They will serve God through the priestly class.

"The People Were Astonished."
No wonder the people were astonished at such doctrines as Jesus set forth! His teachings had a positiveness quite different from the speculations and wonderings of the scribes and Pharisees. So it is always with the Truth. Wherever there is confusion and mystery, we may be sure that there is error and ignorance. Hence the necessity that all who preach Christ should have the anointing, or ordination to preach, which God alone gives through the begetting of the Holy Spirit.

Our Golden Text.

The Prophet Micah addressed our Golden Text to the people of Israel, and therefore his message was given from the standpoint of the Law. Nevertheless no Jew ever fulfilled the Law except Jesus, because all except Him were fallen and imperfect. He alone was "holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners."

During Messiah's Millennial Kingdom, this same Law given to Israel through Moses will be given to the whole world of mankind through Messiah. The requirements will be to do justly, to love kindness, to walk humbly with God. The reason why Messiah's ministration of this Law will be a success, while Moses' ministration was a failure so far as bringing any one to perfection was concerned, is that Messiah's Kingdom will be fully prepared and authorized to forgive sinners and to help them back to the image and likeness of God, originally represented in Father Adam. The right to thus forgive sin and lift the sinner out of degradation, belongs to Messiah, by virtue of His sacrifice.

Bryan Will Speak For

H. V. McChesney.

William Jennings Bryan will come to Kentucky to speak in behalf of the candidacy of H. V. McChesney, aspirant for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, according to statements made by McChesney's supporters last night.

The date for Mr. Bryan's speaking has not been fixed but will be announced as soon as the Secretary knows definitely the outcome of arrangements being made for speaking engagements in other sections of the country.

If possible, the McChesney men say, Mr. Bryan will come to Kentucky just prior to the holding of the primaries, and in all likelihood will speak in Louisville.

Adherents of Mr. McChesney say that in Mr. Bryan they have obtained a valuable aid in advancing the Statewide prohibition idea in Kentucky. They are depending on him to bring into the fold recalcitrant members of the party who are arguing the unwisdom of State wide legislation.

In the forthcoming issue of "The Commoner," edited by Mr. Bryan, the Nebraskan discusses the recent victory of the "wets" in Ohio asserting that the victory of the liquor forces in the Buckeye state is but temporary, adding that "the people stood for the deceptive cry of 'home rule' once but they will not fall easy prey to the sordid interest again." According to Mr. McChesney's friends Secretary Bryan in his Kentucky speech will discuss conditions obtained in Ohio urging that situation as an argument for Mr. McChesney's nomination.—Louisville Herald Mar. 22, 1915.—Advertisement.

You can do it with Rheuma, a scientific prescription that acts at once on kidneys, stomach, liver and blood; dissolves the uric acid and causes rheumatic agony to vanish.

Read this proof: "After treatment by three doctors, without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of rheumatism by using two bottles of Rheuma. It is now two years since I used the remedy and I am still as well as ever. Previously I was a cripple, walking with crutches."—Judge John Barhorst, For. L. Ramie, Ohio.

Jam H. Orme thinks well enough of Rheuma to offer it on the "no-cure no-pay" plan at 50 cents.

Is There No Remedy?

There seems to be an organized band of safe blowers. It is a very common occurrence to hear of some robbery or burglary in different parts of the country and our only safeguard is "a dog" and if he fails the guilty parties go free with all their booty and plan another raid in some distant section or another state and then circle around in their nefarious work. About the time we settle down for a quiet rest, thinking "Everything is safe on the Potomac" our ears are startled by another bomb. A safe is blown to pieces, the news is flashed over the wires, "The Robbers make their escape"—Question: Is our government powerless? Can these desperadoes be reached by the strong arm of the law?
