Make More Corn.
It has been demonstrated that shallow and level cultivation is the proper method of farming and will make more and better corn than the old way.
For this method of cultivation you will need a one tooth cultivator with the MULE HOE® attachment, for sale exclusively by us. The smallest, the cheapest and the best implement used on the farm. Use this implement and make more corn than your neighbor who follows the old way.

Oil Stoves.
Save your wife from the hot
ook stove during the warm summer months, and at the same time give her an oil stove that will give as good service as a high priced range, you can do this by buying the BLUE RIBBON OIL.

MARRIAGES

In his monthly last Tuesday our

The band plays all types of music, from the piano to the violin, and all types of instruments, from the cornet to the trumpet. The band is under the direction of a music master, and is well known for its excellence.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

PLENty OF BEER BUT NO TURCOAL

By A. W. NACY

Beer and tobacco are the two most common vices of all mankind, and are found throughout the world. Beer is produced by the fermentation of malted grain, and is a beverage that is enjoyed by all ages. Tobacco is produced by the cultivation of the tobacco plant, and is a substance that is used for smoking.

BEAVERS WERE BRED ON FARMERS

By A. W. NACY

Beavers were bred on the farms of the farmer, and were used for their fur, which was valued for its warmth and comfort.

Dedicated Two-Footed Truck

Two-footed trucks were used in the United States during the early 1900s. They were designed to carry goods from one place to another, and were used for transportation of goods.

Decreased Earnings of Farmers.

The decrease in the earnings of farmers
as reported by the United States Bureau of Labor is due to the adverse condition of the market prices, which are lower than those of the past year.

Is There a Cure for Malaria?

By J. H. Dudgeon

In a recent issue of the New England Journal of Medicine, Dr. T. R. Hazen, of the Harvard Medical School, published a treatise on malaria, in which he said: "Malaria is not a disease of the blood, but of the nervous system." He further states that there is no specific treatment for malaria, but that the disease can be prevented by taking precautions against its spread.

Ribot Pushes budget.

Paris, June 11.—French Minister of Finance Ribot today introduced bills in the Chamber of Deputies appropriating a billion francs this current year. Twelve hundred and twenty million francs, provided for the expenditures of the third quarter of the present year, being the period of the fiscal year, ended last September.

French Army's activities.

Paris, June 11.—The French authorities have concluded the training of the German Crown Prince's private guard. Twenty-five machines dropped 75 shells and caused several hundred deaths. Many shells are said to have reached their mark. This was prophesied in an official statement by the war office yesterday.
