"Wet Prohibitionists."

(Caldiz Record.)

Our old friend Parish Meacham, at Gracely, is entitled to the credit of originating the phrase which leads this notice. When twitted with the statement that certain prohibitionists would stand for a certain liquor candidate he said, "Yes, but them's our wet prohibitionists." Parish knew that no "true-blue" would stand for a liquor defender. McChesney will count on Gracely's vote.

McCHESNEY CONFIDENT OF SUPPORT OF MOUNTAINS

That the mountain district of Kentucky will vote practically solid for him in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the August election was the opinion expressed by Harry V. McChesney, of Frankfort, after speaking at Richmond, Madison County, during Saturday afternoon, where he was greeted by an overflowing crowd which packed the courthouse to hear him. He declared himself confident, too, of his nomination and election.

M. L. Conley, of Cannel City, one of the most prominent business men of Eastern Kentucky, declared that "as between liquor and state-wide prohibition the mountains of Kentucky will vote overwhelmingly for prohibition." He offered his congratulations to Mr. McChesney on the warm welcome the candidate has been receiving and addressed him as "Governor."

During the past week, Mr. McChesney, accompanied by Mrs. McChesney, has spoken in Laurel, Bell, Whitley and Knox counties. He declared that he expected to receive eighty to eighty-five per cent of the vote of Southeastern Kentucky.

A special from Richmond, says: "Hon. Harry V. McChesney, today created a great deal of laughter by poking fun at his two leading opponents because of the position they have taken against State-wide prohibition."

"My two leading opponents profess to be Democrats and believe in popular government," said McChesney, "and yet they take the position that the people of Kentucky of voting on the prohibition question ought not to be given the privilege of doing so."

McCHESNEY HAS ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS

It is a well known fact that almost every large daily newspaper in Kentucky is dominated by the liquor interests and for this reason the general public is not able to keep posted on the progress of McChesney's campaign. They will not print facts about these meetings that show what a large following Mr. McChesney has. They want to keep the public in ignorance of the fact that he is leading all other candidates.—Big Sandy News.

It is unfortunate that any man should take a position against prohibition, but it is ridiculous for a man calling himself a Democrat to take the position that the people ought not to have the right to vote on any question when the constitution gives them the right.

McChesney had a great crowd today at the court house where he was introduced by the Rev. E. B. Barnes, pastor of the First Christian church of this city.—The Bourbon News, Paris.

THE ELIZABETH-TOWN NEWS.

WITH COL. HARRY SOMMERS AS ITS EDITOR SAYS BOSWORTH'S NOMINATION ASSURES SUCCESS.

Says Bosworth Has Record For Loyalty To Duty Unequaled By Championing Cause Of The People.

Realizing that to insure Democratic success at the general election in November, that the very best man obtainable must be placed at the head of the ticket, Democrats of Kentucky are flocking to the standard of Henry M. Bosworth, who has made a record as a State official unequalled by any. The fact that Bosworth is the only candidate for nomination upon whom all factions of the party can unite, after the primary election in August, and that he has been supported throughout his campaign by Democrats who think more of their party and its principles than of securing offices, has rendered it imperative that those who have been endeavoring to have the rank and file of the party to go rainbow chasing, rally to him.

His advocacy of the people making the platform of the party, instead of attempting to dictate the principles upon which the candidates must run, has placed him far above the petty office seeking class of candidates, and his record as Sheriff, Treasurer and Auditor has proven conclusively that he is a constructive statesman and is the man that Kentucky so badly needs at the head of her affairs during the coming four years.

As Auditor, Henry M. Bosworth proved he possesses the qualifications to fill the exalted position of Governor. During the three years he has served as Auditor he has collected $2,408,977.44 more in revenue, the most of which was paid by corporate interests than any of his predecessors ever did for the same length of time, and would have had old Kentucky clear of debt, which was left by the Republican administration, but for the creation of new appropriations by the two last General Assemblies, which failed to make any provisions to take care of these appropriations. Unlike any of his predecessors, who dared not attack the method of the assessment of corporations, he demanded that the corporations pay their share of the taxes, and as a result has lightened the burden of the smaller taxpayers of the State, by increasing the revenue of the State above mentioned. Because of this action upon his part he now has arrayed against him the powerful corporate influence, and they are resorting to every subterfuge to eliminate him from the race. They are even endeavoring to lead the people to believe he is not in the race; that the race is between two of the other candidates, but despite their desperate efforts he is recognized as the leading candidate throughout the State, and as the logical man for the Democratic party to place at the head of its ticket this fall.

When, as Sheriff of Fayette county, he performed his duty by going into a railway coach crowded with Republican soldiers, and arrested Caleb Powers, charged with the murder of Gov.

APPROVE RECORD OF JUDGE NUNN

People Appreciate Work on The Bench by Worthy Son of Distinguished Father.

Friends of Judge C. S. Nunn all over the State will be glad to hear the favorable reports from Western Kentucky in his race for re-election as Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Though this is his first candidacy in the district, he is widely known, and the friends of his distinguished father, Judge T. J. Nunn, are rallying loyally to his support, and claim that he is entitled to the Democratic nomination under established custom as an indorsement of his excellent record as Judge during the short time he has served on the bench. As successor to his father, whose health was broken in the public service, Judge Nunn has had something over a year's experience in the Court of Appeals, during which time he has made good, not only to the people of Western Kentucky, but the people of the whole State. This experience, together with his legal learning and vigorous aptitude for the important work of the bench, make him a valuable member of the court, and he has done his full share in disposing of its crowded docket.

A Western Kentucky man spending last night in Louisville. When asked about the race, said: "I am a farmer, not a politician, but the Democrats down my way see in Clem Nunn the old Judge over again—an able and respected Judge, and a faithful friend of the people. They think he should be endorsed for the unexpired term, and I predict he will be an easy winner."—Louisville Post.

Goebel, he was recognized as a man of sterling qualifications and character and one needed by the people of the State. He was then elected Treasurer and through the trying panicky times of a Republican administration kept the State out of debt by his astuteness to financial affairs, and now, when the State is in such sore straits financially and commercially he is to be again called upon to champion the cause of the rank and file of the people.

Bosworth's declaration that he is a Democrat and will stand upon a Democratic platform made by the people, and the fact that he is cleanhanded, against whom no one can hurl criticism and not controlled by third house has made him the Moses of Democracy this year.

Bosworth has the indorsement of the Rev. J. W. Porter, the only Democratic Vice President of the Anti-Saloon League, who says: "His temperance sentiments are all I could ask, and the genuine temperance Democrats will support him solidly."

If the Democrats want to win in November and uphold the hands of President Wilson and be assured that the affairs of the State will be administered for the benefit of the people, and that the people's wishes in every regard will be carried out Henry M. Bosworth is the only man to be nominated for Governor.—Elizabethtown News.

State Treasurer.

Hon. Claude B. Terrell, candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer, made an enviable reputation as Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives in 1912 and 1914. He has served three terms in the Legislature, and the fact that he was elected presiding officer for two terms is proof of his high standing. Only a fairminded, clean man can repeat in this high position. Mr. Terrell is all that and more. He is a substantial, practical, able man, with a wide experience in business of various kinds, which facts will be of much service to him in dealing with the affairs of the State. He is a farmer, merchant and banker. The office of Treasurer carries with it a membership of the State Sinking Fund Commission and also of the State Board of Valuation and Assessment. These important boards have general charge of the financial affairs of the State, and they also fix the franchise values of corporations for purposes of taxation. Mr. Terrell has an intimate acquaintance with these matters, gained through his experience in the Legislature. He is above reproach in every way, sober, incorruptible and dependable. He takes his duties seriously as a State officer and works earnestly to bring about the greatest good to the largest number of citizens.

In eastern Kentucky Mr. Terrell is very strong. All who served with him in the General Assembly have brought back to their districts the most favorable reports of him as a gentleman and as a worthy public servant. In the Big Sandy Valley Mr. Terrell is well known by reputation and also has many personal friends, who are working for him solidly. No citizen who wants clean men in important places will make any mistake voting for Claude Terrell for State Treasurer.

The Drug Habit.

Little did the makers of the federal drug law realize the bomb shell they would explode.

Many states had laws regulating the use of "dope" and there was reason to believe that they were making at least a partial enforcement of these laws.

There was no way that the ordinary citizens could realize the extent of the drug habit. Few paid any attention to the federal drug law until it went into effect March 1st, supposing that it was merely a perfunctory piece of legislation.

But almost instantly it was discovered that the use of drugs had become nation wide and exceedingly common.

It was shown to be a terrible thing especially in the large cities where hospitals are being filled with the human wrecks of men and women no longer able to get the "dope" they crave and where men and women are even committing suicide in insane desperation.

The pitiable condition of these victims justifies the steps that are being taken in the cities to open hospitals and afford relief to the poor human wrecks who have drifted into the vise of drugs and dopes.

A cure is possible for the poor victims, and when they are brought to freedom, to self-reliance and manhood again they will bless the federal law that brought them freedom even though it has been at a cost of great temporary suffering.

The enforcement of the law by

Uncle Sam shows how futile it is for the states to attempt regulation of these matters. When Uncle Sam takes hold he does things. —Henderson Gleaner.

A World Old Struggle On

The Fields Of Troy.

Though the course of empire is westward in modern times, the nations are still fighting in the North Sea, where England won the mastery of the waves from Spain and Holland, and in and about the Dardanelles, where Agamemnon led the heroes of a youthful Greece against the hosts of Ilium, where Xerxes crossed with his million Persian into Europe where the fate of the naval empire of splendid Athens was decided by the disastrous defeat of Aegospotami, where the first Christian Emperor Constantine founded a new capital, and where a later Asiatic invasion gave the Ottoman empire a foothold in Europe for more than five hundred years.

The farthest backward glance of the historian was called when the news came that French ships were cruising off the mouth of the classic Scamandre flowing in Mount Ida's shadow, and that landing party of the Allies had captured eight thousand Turks on the storied plains of Troy. It seems almost unbelievable that in the year 1915, after thirty centuries, another titanic struggle is in progress in the land of Homer's Iliad. As one reflects upon this return of history to its earliest sources, Agamemnon, Achilles, Ajax, Odysseus, Hector, Priam, Laocoon, Cassandra, the bewitching Helen and the other crowning figures of the great epic seem to emerge from the realm of legend and stand forth in actual historical verity. Even the gods who played an unseen part in the mighty contest appear to become more than symbols as the mind travels back to a war that was traced to the jealousy of other goddesses when Paris awarded the apple to beautiful Aphrodite.

The researches of Schliemann and others have shown that nine previous cities and civilizations flourished and fell on the site of ancient Troy. This implies that the struggle of East and West in that historic arena has not merely been one of three thousand years but was witnessed even in the remotest times. And

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

now this world-old struggle for expansion between Europe and Asia is once more to be fought to a temporary finish.

What will the lasting finish involve if Japan should succeed in her scheme of reducing China to the position of vassal while the nations of Europe are busy with their own more pressing concerns? If Japan is left free to harness the mighty though unskilled Chinese giant, to train and employ five hundred millions born to obey and endure hardship, there will be possible still another Asiatic invasion of Europe—not merely across the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus but over the whole dividing line that may readily tread down and sweep over even the German war machine.

History persistently repeats itself. The present conflict between Europe and Asia in and about the storied region of ancient Troy will not be the last and may not be the greatest.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died at her home on Grand Avenue, Mancos, Colo., June 28th, 1915, in her 26th year, Mrs. Victoria Butler, wife of R. K. Butler, and daughter of L. N. Sisco.

Mrs. Butler had been in failing health for some time, and eighteen months ago they left their home near Marion, Ky., and went west in hope of checking that dread disease, consumption. But alas! All that love or money could do was of no avail. Oh, the dear good friends at Mancos, how tenderly and faithfully they cared for her in the six months she was confined to her bed. Every wish was gratified and when she fell asleep in Jesus, Blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to weep. She was laid to rest in the Mancos cemetery amid a profusion of floral offerings. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church by the pastor, J. Cox; and undertaker, Ames, of Durango.

She leaves a husband and four little boys, her parents, five sisters, three brothers and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. A beautiful flower plucked in her womanhood. God's will be done. It is hard to give her up, but God knew best. She is standing on yonder bright shore, waiting to welcome us home. Weep not, dear husband, for her sufferings are over. She cannot come back to us, but what a consolation, we can go to her. Oh! It is sad to live here without her, there is a vacant chair which never can be filled, but we know she is safe in that eternal home with God and His angels, where there is no sickness or death.

Vic is sleeping, calmly sleeping, in a new made grave today, while we are weeping, sadly weeping for the dear one gone away; she is singing, sweetly singing in the paradise above, where celestial courts are ringing with the melody of love. Vic is blooming, brightly blooming mid the fairest flowers of light in the garden of sweet Eden where the flowers never blight. Vic is waiting, ever waiting. For the friends she loved the best, She will gladly hail their coming. To the mansions of the blest. One by one the lord will call us As our labor here is done, And then as we cross the river, She will meet us one by one. Brother and sister, gone to that chime Wait for the others, coming some time; Safe with the angels, white as the snow. Watching for dear ones, waiting below.

Darling wife, light of the home, Looking for someone beckoning come, Bright as the sunbeam pure as the dew, Anxiously looking, husband for you. Her sister, GLENN.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live.

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."

Alfalfa Remedy Chases The Blues. Chicago, July 20.—At the concluding session of the institute of homeopathy today, alfalfa as a remedy for indigestion and mental depression was recommended by Dr. Alexander L. Blackwood, of Chicago. He told of experiments made with the new remedy at a Chicago hospital.

"During the past year observations were made of the action of alfalfa on seventeen persons," he said. "All of them noted that they grew so hungry that they could scarcely wait for their meals. Their minds were clear and bright, all bodily functions were stimulated and it was impossible to have the blues."

The alfalfa is converted into a tincture and administered internally. Its use—according to Dr. Blackwood—was accompanied by an immediate delightful feeling well-being, increased appetite and great improvement in weight.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

Superintendent Barksdale Hamlett has announced that sufficient funds are in the school fund to allow seven months' schools all over Kentucky this fall.

Every patriotic American is a man who is not niggardly and selfish in the things he needs that make for human liberty and the rights of man, but wants to share it with the whole world. And he is ever so proud of the great flag as when it means for other people as well as himself the symbol of liberty and freedom.—President Woodrow Wilson.

Arnold Driskill son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Driskill of this city had his left leg crushed and the bone broken in two places near the thigh Monday afternoon, when it was caught between the sweep and the plunger of a hay baler which he was operating on his fathers farm near the city limits on the Shady Grove Road. He stepped over in front of the sweep to get some screws or bolts out of the tool box, why he did not remove his leg clear of the machine was an oversight he will not soon forget. Several hands were assisting him in the baling and as soon as his plight was seen they rushed to his aid. He was extricated from his perilous position and placed on a litter of Straw in the shade, and a messenger rushed to town to get aid and to notify his parents.

Several physicians who were found promptly responded to the call and were soon on the ground to assist his father, who is himself a noted rail-road surgeon.

It was decided to take him to the home of his parents and to await development, as it was the opinion of those present that the limb could be saved.

Five o'clock Tuesday afternoon was set as the time to dress the wound and make further examination but when the hour arrived the matter was postponed on account of a derangement of his stomach and bowels, until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock when a careful dressing was given the wound and it was examined from every view point and the physicians concur in the belief that his limb can be saved.

Octogenarian Takes A Tumble.

Mrs. Mary A. Jenkins, the venerable mother of S. M. Jenkins, who has been a guest in his family several weeks, lost her balance and fell from a porch Saturday morning but miraculously escaped serious injury. Aside from a sprain in her right foot she was not seriously hurt. Although 83 years of age and past, she is recovering rapidly from the shock. The porch from which she fell is about two feet above the ground, and as she tottered she undertook to save herself from falling by grasping a wash-stand, but it not being nailed down fell out into the yard also. Her family and friends hope she will soon be out.

REGAINS FORMER LIFE AND ENERGY

Miss F. B. Robinson Tells How She Benefited From Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., July 21st.—Miss Finnie B. Robinson, of the millinery firm of Robinson & Blomer, at 1628 West Market street, this city, a successful and widely known business woman, says she found relief from Tanlac after trying other remedies with no permanent benefit.

"I was in a rundown condition," she explained recently, "and I seemed to have very poor circulation. I suffered from severe headaches, and my sleep was uncertain. I was nervous and lacked energy."

"I tried different physicians and different remedies, without getting any real relief. One day a friend said to me, 'Why not get a bottle of Tanlac? Every-one says it is fine.' I feel that I owe a great deal to the person who suggested that to me. My trouble has disappeared since I began taking this medicine. I am full of energy and vigor, eat heartily, and sleep like a child. My nerves are in fine shape, and my friends have noticed what a change has come over me. Tanlac did it all, and I am glad to say so publicly."

Tanlac, the peerless preparation, is of special value for its tonic qualities. In cases of languor, poor appetite, sleeplessness, faulty circulation, catarrhal troubles and rheumatism it has proved of remarkable benefit, as scores have testified.

This remedy is now on sale in Marion at Jas. H. Orme's drug store; and in Blackford, at A. T. Brown's store.—Advertisement.

FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT

R. S. EUBANK

The man whose sympathies are with children, and whose greatest activities have been exercised in improving educational conditions for the country child. His County School Board law has made possible the education of country children, through the County High School, while residing under their parents' roof, and it conserves the people's money by bringing educational opportunity to them. This law has done more to remove the public schools from politics than any other one law on the statutes. The people are with Mr. Eubank in the race for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, because his heart is with them, and his best efforts have been directed in their behalf. He has used his own time and paid his own expenses while securing the passage of measures which has benefited the public schools.—Adv.
