CANDIDATES HAVE A LIVELY SCRAP

In Commonwealth's Attorney Race
At Princeton Speaking Monday.

LAFFOON MAKES ATTACK

On Young Who Defends Himself
And Makes a Counter Attack.

The speaking at Princeton Monday turned out to be a real hot affair and has been the general theme of talk in Princeton and Caldwell county, and news of it has spread to the other counties. Below will be found a synopsis of the "scrap" between Laffoon and Young and will convey a fair idea of the general nature of the debate and the result.

In reporting the speeches The Hustler has tried to be absolutely fair and tell as nearly like it happened as possible and we believe every man who heard it will say the report is substantially correct.

In discussing the speeches in a crowd on the streets of Princeton Tuesday morning, a gentleman said: "They have been trying to tell me that Ed Young was too young and inexperienced for this office, but I would hate for him to skin me in a prosecution like he did that big fellow in that speech yesterday."

Laffoon's Speech.

Mr. Laffoon opened the speaking and said in substance that Ed Young was not running with the expectation of winning but in the interest of Baker. That he was not competent to fill the office if he got it. That he had never done anything to amount to anything. That his father, Jim Young, is rich and all he does is to walk around Madisonville eavesdropping. That all Ed had to do to get money is to ask his father for it.

He said Ed was well bred on his mother's (Laffoon's) side but the less said about the breeding on his father's side the better.

He said Ed was posing as a temperance man, but that he acted as a challenger for the "wets" in one of the elections in Madisonville and his father Jim Young was "wet" and was sued for slander in connection with the same election, and went on the appeal bond to contest the election.

He said Judge Givens was also backing Ed Young and talking about his (Laffoon's) attitude on the temperance question, but that Givens' record on the temperance question is summed up by his (Givens) making a fight for the "wets" in Madisonville, and then later making a fight for the "drys" and then making a fight for the "wets" in Henderson. He said Givens was sore at him because he voted against Givens for Congress.

He said the Hustler, a would-be newspaper, was not in reality a newspaper, but had been used principally as an organ to bolster up somebody connected with it who was running for office.

He referred to Judge Givens as "Spotted Horse Biddle," "Givens, the Hippodrome Driver," "Fair Fakir," and other expressions like these.

He paid his respects to Mr. Baker, claiming in a general way that he (Laffoon) was the best qualified man on the track and could meet any republican they put out in joint debate and put him out of commission.

Young's Reply.

Mr. Young apologized for being forced to discuss personalities but that Laffoon had forced him to do so—that Laffoon had made a similar speech at Marion and Wilson's Warehouse picnic during his (Young's) absence elsewhere in the district.

He said Laffoon's attack upon his father was unmanly, that his father is not running for commonwealth's attorney. He said his mother died when he was six years old and his father had been both a father and mother to him. He had been a good father and he proposed to defend his good name. He said his grandfather and his people were reared in Caldwell county and the

JUDGE BLUE THROWS DOWN THE GAUNTLET

EMPHASIZES HIS POSITION
AS TO LAW AND ORDER

He Is The Man of the Hour.
All Honor To Such A Man

Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: The race between Mr. Gibson and myself is rapidly drawing to a close.

The office of Circuit Judge, is, to my mind, the most important office within the gift of the people.

The rights of the people to property, life, and liberty should be protected, and to that end, the Circuit Judge, of all men should come into the office free from any entanglement or obligations that would prevent him from dealing out equal and exact justice to all persons who come into court.

I am under no obligations to any man, organization or class of men, and have no entangling alliances of any kind. It is my purpose to see that the law is enforced, the guilty punished, and the innocent protected. I have tried to conduct my canvass upon the high plane that such an office demands, and have so far, refrained from mentioning some things that perhaps should have been mentioned sooner. My reason for doing so being that I hoped the people would, of themselves, see the trend of matters, and take warning. But some things have developed in this race that demand plain speaking, and I am convinced that it is for the good of the Democratic party that I should call your attention to them.

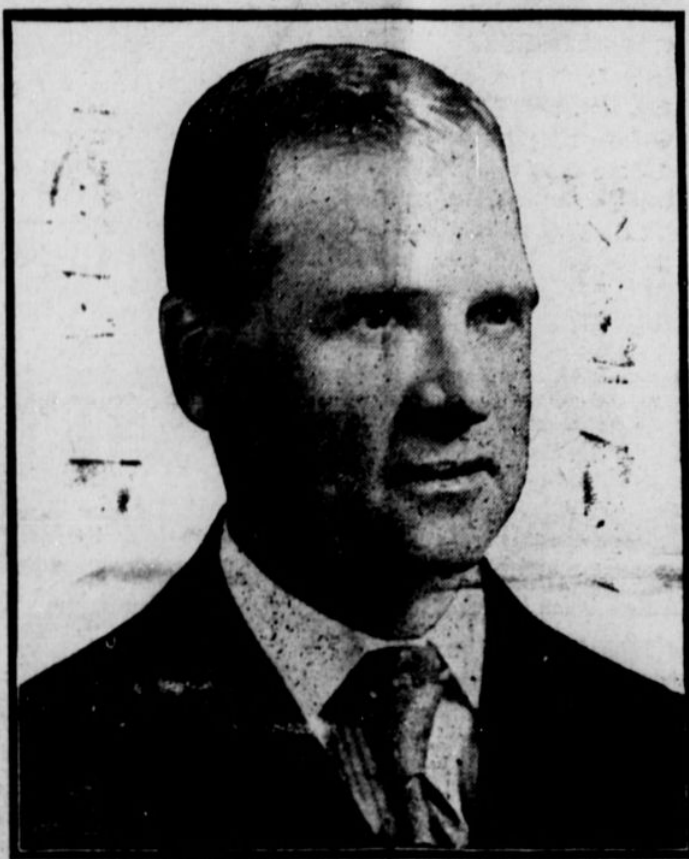

The Democratic party cannot afford to be made a tool of, by any organization for any purpose, and when an attempt is made to use the party for a purpose, it becomes a living, vital issue of more importance than all other issues, and the people should forever settle it, and show that the Democratic party stands for law and order, and for equal rights to all and especially privileges to none.

I must say that I have for some time seen indications of the trend of things to the matter of which I am going to speak, but have been hoping that it would be seen and corrected without the necessity of making it public, but, after a careful survey of the field during the last few weeks, I am convinced that the people are not fully awake to the true condition that exists.

You all know that several years ago there was an organization created throughout Western Kentucky known as the night riders. I realize that many good men throughout this district became associated with this organization, believing, at the time, that it was necessary, for the protection of their interests, to become members. After the organization became active, many of the members saw their mistake, and many things were done that did not meet with their endorsement but their mouths were closed by their obligations, and they kept silent; they have no desire to keep up

Democrats Asked To Ratify Governor's Appointment of Judge C. S. Nunn

JUDGE C. S. NUNN, OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Successor to his father and appointed by the Governor on recommendation of all the judges of the court. The appointment is effective until this election.

Judge Nunn asks the people at the Democratic Primary, August 7th next, to ratify the Governor's appointment and elect him to serve the remaining three years of the term given up by his father.

Since his appointment the duties of the office have kept Judge Nunn almost constantly at Frankfort, so that he has had but little opportunity to make a personal canvass of the eighteen counties composing the district.

AMERICAN SHIP IS TOR- PEDOED

OF SCOTLAND COAST BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

London, July 25.—The American ship Leelanaw, from Archangel for Belfast with a cargo of flax, was sunk off the northwest coast of Scotland by a German submarine. The crew was saved by taking to the boats in which they made their way to Kirkwall.

The Leelanaw was torpedoed on July 25.

The steamer left New York May 17, with a cargo of cotton consigned to Russia by way of Gothenburg. The vessel was detained at Kirkwall while inquiries were made as to the possibility of getting her cargo to Russia as Sweden forbids the export of cotton. The ship was released June 26 with permission to proceed to Archangel where the cotton was discharged and a cargo of flax was loaded for Belfast.

On account of being unable to get all the news into the regular edition we will issue a four page supplement tomorrow.

NO PEACE UNTIL CALAIS AND WAR- SAW ARE CAPTURED

Final Plans to Crush out Opposition and End the War
Are To Be Made.

Paris, July 27.—Before going to Potsdam to confer with his Generals, Kaiser Wilhelm held a crown council in Berlin, according to a telegram from Copenhagen.

The Emperor, it is said, declared that Germany could not undertake to negotiate with her enemies until Warsaw and Calais had been captured.

With Generals von Hindenburg and von Falkenhayn, it is said, he drew up final plans to end the war, which the Emperor must terminate before next Christmas.

Falls And Breaks Three Ribs.

Albert McConnell was severely hurt by getting a fall Tuesday. He stepped on the wheel of a wagon standing in front of the platform at the Marion Milling Company's plant and the team moved just at that moment causing his foot to slip off the hub, throwing himself violently against the platform breaking three of his ribs and other wise bruising him up considerably.

He suffered great pain Tuesday night, but unless complications come up will soon be himself again.

FIELD COVERED WITH DEAD

1,000 Were Killed and 2,000
Wounded Near Monterey.

Laredo, Texas, July 27.—Fighting between Villa and Carranza troops in the vicinity of Icamole and Villa Garcia, near Monterey, during the past ten days has resulted in the loss of at least 1,000 dead and twice that number wounded, according to American passengers arriving here from Monterey today. The casualties it is said, are about equally divided.

The battle field is described as covered with dead men and horses, while sanitary conditions are said to be very bad, little effort having been made to dispose of human and animal carcasses.

School Suffrage in Rural

The next school elections in which the women of the rural districts will have the privileges of voting will be held the first Saturday afternoon in August, from one to five o'clock, at the School house sub-district, in which the term of the trustee expires this year. The officers of election are chosen by the voters at the opening of the polls.

(This does not apply to the graded school districts.)

THE QUESTION OF LOCAL TAXATION

On the first Saturday in August, also, many sub districts will vote on the question whether or not a special local school tax is to be levied. Such a question can not be voted on unless fifteen days notice has been given by written or printed handbills posted up in at least five of the most public places in the sub-district.

Women in rural districts do not register.

County Superintendents are not elected until November, 1917.

News And Truths.

Mr. Newman said in his withdrawal from the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor that the race is now between the "driest of the dry" and the "wettest of the wet." Let every reader take notice and bear that in mind. McChesney is the "driest" of the dry and the rest of the candidates, who are in the running, are the "wettest" of the wet. No man is a friend of prohibition who votes for any candidate except McChesney. Advertisement.

AUSTRIA AGREES TO SPARE CHURCHES

Provided Italians Will Not Use Them For Military Purposes.

"Vienna, July 27.—The Papal Nuncio Count Scapinelli, on behalf of Pope Benedict, has communicated to the Austria government his fears concerning the fate of churches and monuments in the Italian coast towns, and especially the famous sanctuary at Loreto.

"The Austrian government replied that it would carefully spare all the structures, and especially the sanctuary, provided the Italian military authorities refrained from using the churches and monuments for military purposes or to cover the movement of positions."

PINEY CAMP MEETING.

The annual camp meeting at Piney C. P. Church, about six miles east of Marion, in Crittenden county, Ky., will begin on Friday before the second Sunday in August, and will include two Sundays. Rev. H. M. Guynn, of Humboldt, Tenn., will do the preaching. He will have with him his singer, C. M. Callicott, of Union, City, Tenn.

Brothers Guynn and Callicott need no introduction to the people of this community, as both are well known here and loved by every one who knows them. Brother Guynn is an Evangelist and Preacher of more than ordinary ability and power, and will expect to have the co-operation of all christians.

Brother Guynn asks that the announcement be made that he will be in said meeting to continue not less than ten days and longer if necessary. He advises that the meeting will not close before the third Sunday night, (which is the second Sunday of the meeting) and wants the campers all to arrange for this much time, as the meeting will not close sooner than the above time stated.

Brother Guynn goes without price, but the people in all cases have taken care of him with their free will offerings and we feel sure they will do so in this meeting. All are invited to attend.

Naval Program of Japan To Call For $90,000,000

Tokio, July 28.—Four super-dreadnaughts, two scout boats, 24 destroyers, eight submarines and parent ship for seaplanes—that is the naval increase program, according to usually well-informed newspapers, which will be introduced in the next session of the Diet. No official statement is made by the government but the public accepts this statement as approximately true. The necessary credits, estimated at 190,000,000 yen or $90,000,000, would be spread over a period of 4 years from 1916.

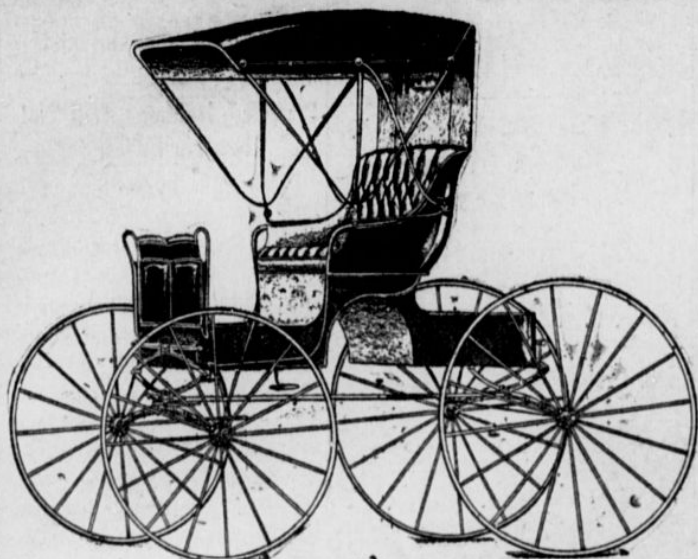

The original plan prepared by the national defense council last year was understood to have been eight battleships, eight battle cruisers, six scout ships, 64 destroyers and 24 submarines during a term of eight years.

LOYD'S BRAIN LEAKS.

By F. S. LOYD.

Albert Elder says the trouble with my wife is that she either believes too much or not enough.

Phil Deboe says maybe you don't know it, but all the devils do not wear horns and red union suits; and all the villians do not wear silk hats and black mustashes.

Ed Baker says man will always be regarded as woman's superior as long as he has sense enough to wear clothes that button up in the front.

Uncle Dock Green says never talk unless you have something to say.

Jim Woodall went into Copher's one county court day to get his dinner, then he remembered he did not have any coffee, and he dashed over to the other counter. When he returned with his coffee his chair was occupied by uncle Billy Loyd: "Look here, Bill, you've got my chair."

"How do you know it is your chair?"

"Because I can prove it," said Jim.

"How?"

"By the seat of your pants, you are sitting on my pie."

A certain restaurant man had a sign hung out in his front door which read as follows: "Eat one of our famous pies and you will never eat anything else."

Roe Patterson says "Blessed is he who keeps his troubles to himself."

Grant Bugg says some fellows are as quick as lightning and just about as flashy.

Sigsby Loyd said: "I hinted to Miss Arnella Patton that I was in the matrimonial market."

"Did she take the hint?"

"In a way. She said I would have to go to par before she would take any stock in my declaration."

Simon Heath says most of us imagine that if we were only fixed like other people, we wouldn't have a blame thing to worry about.

Dick Crowe says a fat man would rather get fatter than go hungry, but it is different with a fat woman.

Grant Bugg says after all, a man is only a boy, who has lived long enough to realize that there is enough pie and ice cream in the world to go around.

Miss Mattie Smith says when you come to think it over just right, it isn't the germs that makes kissing dangerous.

Oscar Hibbs says it would save several people a whole lot of trouble if we reversed the order of things and fixed them so that it would cost $200.00 to get married and $2.00 to get a divorce.

Ed Baker says it is funny how scared a man can be of germs when he is asked to use a cup attached to a water fountain; but he never bothers about germs when he hoists a glass of beer in a saloon.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver, which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by James H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

These Chickens Found Guilty.

The following paragraph is taken from the poultry raising department of the current issue of Farm and Fireside:

"F. M. Sackett, of Stevens Point, Wis., had a garden. His neighbor, H. K. West, had chickens. The gardener charged the chickens with ravaging his beds. The poultryman refused to believe in his fowls' guilt. One day the chickens came home dangling from their beaks cards on which were such confessions as this: 'I have scratched in Mr. Sackett's garden.' To the cards were attached fine silk threads to the other end of which were fastened kernels of corn from Mr. Sackett's garden!"

Hon. Jas. D. Black, of Knox County, for Lieutenant-Governor, Will Add Strength to the Democratic Ticket in November

(Editorial in Adair County News.)

The time has come when Democrats should begin to think about the November election, and the candidate who will add most strength to the ticket.

Judge James D. Black of Knox county, for Lieutenant-Governor, is the only candidate for a position on the Democratic ticket from the Eleventh Congressional District. He is a first class lawyer and a gentleman who takes much interest in public affairs, and is a successful business man.

Judge Black was for several years President of Union College of Barbourville, and is one of the recognized educational leaders of the State. He was appointed First Assistant by Attorney General James Garnett in January, 1912, and served in this capacity until he was forced to resign on account of ill health. He was the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Eleventh District in 1896 and made an active canvass of the district in that memorable campaign. In 1900 he became a candidate for Governor against J. C. W. Beckham, but withdrew before the convention. He was Grand Master of the Masons of Kentucky in 1888.

Judge Black has always been an open advocate of all moral and progressive measures. He is popular throughout the Eleventh District, an attractive speaker, and if he is nominated for Lieutenant-Governor he will do more to counteract the strength of the Republican nominee for Governor in this district than will any other man who could be selected. The Democrats of Adair county know Judge Black and his qualifications for the office of Lieutenant-Governor. From the expressions which we have heard we believe that they will receive the unanimous vote of Adair county in the August primary.

The remains were interred in the Caldwell Springs cemetery the following day; Rev. Barnes conducting the funeral services. Little Ernestine was the joy and light of fond parents' and grandparents' hearts; this being the only child in the home and was loved so fondly, but weep not parents, little Ernestine has gone to that haven of rest to beckon loved ones to come to her where God has said: "I will wipe away all tears from your eyes."

Mrs. Fannie Travis and daughter, Mrs. Nellie Perkins, of Emmaus; Floyd Simpkins and family and Master Allie Travis were visiting M. L. Patton and family Sunday.

Rev. Willis Crouch, the pastor of Seven Springs church, preached here all last week at night. Large congregations gathered at every service. Rev. Crouch is an earnest, faithful worker and seems to have the presence of the holy spirit with him to aid him and thereby the services were interesting at every coming together. We are proud to have such a man as Rev. Crouch as a pastor, for he has an influence for good, and is a bright young minister, and we predict for him success in his chosen work to the ministry to which he is devoting much of his time, and may the Lord continue to bless his work and may he be the means of winning many precious souls to Christ, is our prayer.

Miss Fannie Wring, of Marion, attended services here last week.

A Safety First Slogan.

Never in the history of Kentucky should the voters display good sound judgment of the horse sense kind in the selection of a State ticket, especially so as to the selection of Democratic nominees.

In the gubernatorial contest we have four candidates from which to select a nominee, and of the four candidates Henry M. Bosworth, of Fayette county would make a race in the final election that would insure success. His record is one that none could assail as evidenced by the manner the other candidates have treated his candidacy. None have dared assail him because his record as a champion of the people's cause is above reproach. The other three candidates have been engaged in a war of words in denunciation of the strongest terms, using such epithets as grafters, corporation lobbyists, election fraud attorneys, etc. but in no instance has any of the candidates assailed Henry Bosworth, because they couldn't do it and substantiate the facts of any accusation. The other candidates are using cold facts on each other, backed by evidence in black and white.

It is claimed by some that Bosworth can not speak, and it is all to his credit and good name, especially so if he were the wind-jamming kind, like Stanley and McChesney. Talk is cheap as is clearly evidenced by the kind of sop that the voters are now being handed by these wind-jammers who are resorting to every method possible in an effort to deceive the voters and get them away from Bosworth, a man of action. Henry Bosworth's nomination and election would mean a business administration in behalf of all the people, because no professional lobbyists and political manipulators, corporations, interests of a questionable or designing kind are behind him. He has conducted his campaign upon a high plane and met the people on the level, face to face, and as a result the silent voters and thinking people are for him, and in this race as the case in all other races, he has perfected an organization that will count on August 7, sufficient to win the nomination. It has always been the cry that Bosworth could not win in any of his races, yet when the ballots were deposited and counted he was in the lead. So if there be any friends and admirers who have been deceived into the belief that he could not win, they should stop and think over his record as a vote getter. Now and then we hear of a fellow leaving him and seeking a band-wagon, but while this is the case with the band wagon climber, the good solid business-like voters are rallying to the standard of Bosworth. Away with the band wagon chaser, so long as the silent business advocate stays with Bosworth, he will come out of this campaign a winner. Stop, listen and think Mr. Voter, the nomination is not half of the story in this campaign, the final election is the bone of contention. It is said, and none dare deny it, that Henry Bosworth is the strongest man to nominate. Safety first should be the slogan in this campaign. —Princeton Leader

Judge J. W. Blue is gaining ground all along the line and great enthusiasm is being displayed by his friends and admirers all over the district. Visitors here from Caldwell, Hopkins and Livingston counties, during the past week, have brought the most flattering reports of how he is gaining. Crittenden county always has been all right for John Blue. We believe you could count on your hands, the good Democrats in the county, who will not vote for him. Whenever a man like John Blue is turned down, there is something wrong with the voters. There is nothing wrong with the man. He is not only a christian gentleman, who his every day's walk in life proves but he will also make a just Judge whom Marion and Crittenden county will delight to add to her galaxy of great men after the November election. "Judge" Blue sounds alright to us here in old Crittenden, and don't you forget it.

Ex-Senator H. M. Froman, of Carroll county, is a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, subject to the democratic voters as may be expressed in the August primary. He is a practical farmer and stock raiser and for several years has been a member of the State Board of Agriculture. If nominated and elected he promises to select a west Kentucky man for one of the important places of the Agricultural department and by this means to reach this end of the state with more of the benefits of progressive farming.
With world wide markets for farm products, with record-breaking prices for cereal crops foreign demands reaching immense proportions and population increasing at a rapid rate, rural and general prosperity seems certain if this section makes the desired effort and produces the crops. To do this, farmers need all the help that they can get from the State Department of Agriculture, and to render this assistance, a practical farmer is needed at the head of this State Department. I have known Mr. Froman for several years and heartily indorse him for the nomination he seeks because of his superior fitness for the office and I make this personal appeal to my friends and the democrats of west Kentucky to support Mr. Froman on the 7th of August next for Commissioner of Agriculture.

Respectfully,
JOHN L. SMITH,

Jesse Olive, Postmaster At Marion.

The delayed commission of Jesse Olive as Postmaster at Marion arrived last Thursday morning July 22nd, and Mr. Olive took charge next morning, Friday July 23rd. He is assisted by Miss Effie Deboe in the money order department, she being the only one on the old force now on duty. Former Postmaster C. H. Wilson, of Sturgis, Miss Ivy Swisher, of this city, and Isom Morse, of Deanwood, compose the remainder of the force. All are capable and each one will do all he or she can to facilitate the quick delivery of the mail and to otherwise serve the public in an acceptable manner. Patrons of the office should bear in mind the curtailed allowance, both in salary and clerks hire recently decided upon at this office by the Post Office department, and should therefore be patient with the new Postmaster and his assistants, at least until they get their "hands in."

The office under the Management which has just ceased was able conducted. Four clerks being allowed by the government and paid by "Uncle Sam". Mr. Olive hopes by extra hard work to hold the service up to the high standard of efficiency, also he has new and partly in experienced help.

McCHESNEY THE MAN FOR VICTORY IN NOVEMBER

Temperance Vote In Country Districts and Mountains Will More Than Make Up For Liquor Men Who May Boit—Elections of Last Few Years Prove This

The liquor candidates and the liquor organs in their desperate efforts to stem the rapidly increasing strength of Mr. McChesney, and to prevent, if possible, what seems to be his probable nomination as the Democratic candidate for Governor in the August primary, have been industriously circulating the report that if he is nominated he can not be elected in November. They base this statement upon the idea that the whiskey, and beer Democrats would not vote for him, or for any other dry Democrat, if he is nominated. In other words, they admit that, although the liquor Democrats will take a very active part in the primary against McChesney, they will not hesitate, if he is nominated, to bolt his nomination and vote for the Republican ticket. There is some truth in that threat, for that is just what they have been doing for many years. Most of them do not seem to be bound, by any sense of honor or obligation, to support the nominee after they have taken part in the primary. Admitting to be true their purpose to bolt if Mr. McChesney is nominated, and that is what this talk amounts to when they say he could not be elected, let us see whether or not it is to be feared.

The people of Kentucky remember very well that in the Senatorial primary last year, the same kind of talk and threats were used against Governor Beckham. Mr. Stanley, the liquor candidate for the Senate then, as he is the liquor candidate for Governor now, used the same argument; we did the same liquor newspapers. What this argument amounted to in effect was that, if Beckham was nominated, the whiskey and beer Democrats would bolt him, while if Stanley should be nominated he would get all of those votes and also the votes of the temperance Democrats, who would be too honorable and too good Democrats, to bolt the party nominee after they had taken part in the primary. The result of that primary should be fresh in the memory of Kentucky Democrats. With all the power and wealth of the distilleries, the breweries, and the saloons back of him, Stanley was defeated by a substantial majority. Beckham was nominated and a large majority of the liquor Democrats did bolt him in the November election. It is necessary only to look at the returns from that election to demonstrate it. In all of the cities and liquor centers Beckham ran considerably behind the rest of the Democratic ticket. Even in Louisville, which he carried by a large majority, he ran nearly 2,500 votes behind the majority of the Democratic nominee for Congress; in Kenton county (city of Covington) he received 1,859 votes less than the vote for the Democratic nominee for Congress; in Campbell county (city of Newport) he received 1,632 less; in Fayette county (city of Lexington) which he should have carried by 1,200, he carried by only 197; and so it was in every city where there was a liquor vote. Even in Henderson county, Mr. Stanley's home, Governor Beckham ran about 200 or 250 votes behind the ticket, even though Stanley made a speech there before the election, ostensibly for the ticket, but it happened that in the five or six places where he did speak in that campaign, Beckham, the nominee, lost votes, for Stanley's speeches were not intended to help him. Notwithstanding all of this defection and bolting, Governor Beckham was over his Republican opponent, Governor William, by 32,000 majority, the largest majority given to any Democratic candidate in 25 or 30 years. So the threat of Mr. Stanley and his whiskey and beer supporters proved to be futile and empty.

It is the same old trick they are trying to work again on the Democrats this year. But it will fool only the unthinking or the ignorant. Mr. McChesney is undoubtedly the strongest candidate the Democrats can nominate for Governor. He will be elected beyond doubt; he may lose many very wet Democrats in the liquor centers, just as Beckham did last year, but he will more than make it up in the country districts and in the mountains. He is receiving the assurances of thousands of temperance Republicans and Independents that they will support him, if he is nominated over Mr. Morrow, who is well known as a wet man. It is so easy for Mr. Stanley to argue that, because the Republicans will nominate a wet candidate for Governor on a wet platform, the Democrats should do the same thing, and get into a race with the Republican ticket to see which can bid the highest for the whiskey and beer votes of the state. The people of Kentucky are not going to elect as Governor of the state a liquor trust man, and Mr. Stanley might well stand aside. The people know that their chance to beat the wet Republican candidate is with Mr. McChesney as the Democratic candidate. He will be nominated and elected.

ENDORSEMENT

To The Voters And Fellow Democrats Of The Fourth Judicial District.

We the undersigned, Officers of Caldwell County, Kentucky, feeling quite an interest in nomination and election of the Hon. J. Elliot Baker to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Fourth Judicial District, cheerfully endorse Mr. Baker's candidacy, and not only do we suggest that Mr. Baker is deserving of such favorable consideration at hands of Democratic voters of this District, but also feel that his character as a man, qualifications and ability as an officer are such as would do credit to the position he seeks. He was born here in Caldwell county, and from a poor country boy he has struggled against odds to attain the success he enjoys and which he so justly deserves. He is an able lawyer, true to every trust, a faithful servant of the people, a gentleman and a friend to all at all times. We have nothing to say against Mr. Baker's opponents, but knowing Mr. Baker as we do, we take it upon ourselves to commend him to the voters of this entire District; which we do without his knowledge or consent, and trust and feel that you will bear out our endorsement, and that he will receive such nomination and election, which at the time appears to be well assured.

TURKEY GIVES UP LAND TO BULGARIA

And Entente Allies Are Uneasy Over The Situation Between Turkey And Bulgaria.

London, July 26.—Some uneasiness is being caused in diplomatic circles of the entente allies by the report not yet officially confirmed, that Turkey has ceded to Bulgaria the Turkish portion of the Fedegatch railroad. Sofia reports this session will have no effect on Bulgarian neutrality, but the belief is expressed here that Turkey would not be likely to give up such valuable territory without the promise of substantial aid from Bulgaria to Turkey, Germany and Austria in the world war.

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Flurence, So Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. JANSEN, Box 8, Allyn, Wash.

A GROSS INJUSTICE DONE PRESIDENT WILSON

By Liquor Interests of Kentucky.—
Suppression and Misrepresentation of His Letters.

It is not true that the President is on the side of the Distillers, the Brewers, the Rectifiers and the Saloon keepers, as has been claimed by the liquor organs and the liquor candidates.

The liquor people many months ago began the effort to make it appear that President Wilson was on their side in the fight on that question in Kentucky. In this they have done him a great injustice and have misrepresented the facts. It has been interesting and amusing to observe certain liquor organs and liquor candidates, who bitterly opposed the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, and who have never been in sympathy with him, suddenly turn from their former attitude towards him and become so fulsome in their praises of him. Recognizing his great popularity in the country and in this State, they have in this campaign sought to hold him up as a champion of the liquor cause, and have represented him as being opposed to the movement in favor of having the next General Assembly submit this question to a vote of the people.

As a basis upon which to claim him as an advocate of their cause, they took up the Shannon letter and published it extensively, and had it read by their candidates from the stump. The Shannon letter was written by Governor Woodrow Wilson in May, 1911, in regard to the situation in New Jersey. New Jersey then was an extremely wet State and there was no unit under which the people could have a vote on the question in that State. The temperance organization, therefore, started out with the plan to get a local option law adopted that provided for a comparatively small unit; so Governor Wilson in his letter to Shannon favored this local option law, and really took his position on the side of the temperance forces in that State.

Two months later, in answer to a letter from Mr. Grogan, of Texas, Governor Wilson wrote to him, and in that letter he made it clear that in his opinion each State should settle this question for itself, according to the conditions in the State. He went further and said that while he was not familiar with the conditions in Texas, it might be that State-wide prohibition would be both desirable and practicable in Texas, or in any other State of relative homogeneity.

The President by his letters has shown that he recognizes the principle in which each State must settle this question for itself, because there may be considerable differences in the conditions in various States. The people in New Jersey were not ready for a State-wide fight. In Texas and Kentucky there is no doubt but that they are ready, and so far as Kentucky is concerned, there is no doubt that if the people get a chance to vote upon it, they will, by an overwhelming majority, adopt it. That is why the liquor organs and interests are so viciously at this time agitating the movement to give the people a chance to vote upon it.

The temperance people of Kentucky did not bring the President's name into the fight. They did not wish to see him embarrassed in any way by this question when his mind was so completely absorbed in dealing with grave national and international measures. They never published the Grogan letter until long after the liquor people had been using the Shannon letter and heralding it as representing the President's attitude in Kentucky. It is unfair to him and it is contrary to the facts that he should be held up as being on the side of the distillers, the brewers, the rectifiers, and saloon-keepers in this contest in Kentucky. He has always been on the moral side of every question that came up, and if he should express himself directly upon the Kentucky situation, there is no doubt but what he would take the same position that he did in regard to Texas. We are publishing that letter below, in order that the people may have a chance to read it. The liquor newspapers have refused to publish it and the liquor candidates are afraid of it.

Wilson's Grogan Letter.

"Executive Department,
State of New Jersey.

July 5, 1911.

"My Dear Mr. Grogan:—You mistook me if you thought I was treating your first letter as a communication from a politician, or if you supposed that I was trying in any way to avoid the important question you put to me. The reply I made was in all sincerity. I believe that for some States State-wide prohibition is possible and desirable, because of their relative homogeneity; while for others I think that State-wide prohibition is not practicable. I have no reason to doubt, from what I know of the circumstances, that State-wide prohibition is both practicable and desirable in Texas. In my reply to you I was only trying to state what I think should always be kept in mind—the wide divergence of conditions which make it impossible to reply to any single question like that of prohibition in terms which would fit the whole country. "With much respect, cordially and sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON.

"Mr. E. W. Grogan, Byers, Texas.

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

THE ISSUE.

The question for the Democratic voters to decide in the August primary is whether the combined whiskey and beer interests of the State shall rule Kentucky, or if the people shall conduct the affairs of the State. Stanley, one of the candidates, has always stood with those interests whenever any questions affecting the liquor trust have come up, and in this race he has the solid backing of the liquor people.

McChesney, on the other hand, believes that the liquor question should be taken out of politics, and in order to hasten the day when this shall be true, he expresses himself strongly in favor of submitting the question of State-wide prohibition to a vote of the people. If this is done the question will be taken out of the hands of the legislature, and this body can then devote its time to other questions that are of great importance to the people of the State and which too long have been allowed to drift, by the continued meddling of the liquor interests in all questions coming up in the Legislature. The time is now here to get rid of the pernicious influence of the liquor element by casting your vote for H. V. McChesney for Governor.

PEORIA WOMAN PRAISES REMEDY

Mrs. Tilla Conard Tells Remarkable Experience After Suffering for Months.

Mrs. Tilla Conard lives at 307 Morgan Street, Peoria. She suffered from stomach trouble for months. Nothing seemed to give relief. One day she visited a sister who resides in Bloomington, and upon urgent advice consented to try one bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy. This, in her own words, is the story of her experience—read it.

"For a number of months I suffered terribly with pains in my stomach; would fill with gas and belch for an hour at a time. I had pains in my side which at times I thought would kill me. I was under the doctor's care for four months, but got no relief at all. One day while in Bloomington my sister persuaded me to take a bottle of your remedy. To say the results were wonderful would be putting it mildly. After the first dose my pain left me, my appetite improved, my skin became clear again and I felt like a new woman."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

IMMENSE CROWD

Heard Great Speech From McChesney Last Monday in Cadiz.

Candidate for Governor Arouses Much Enthusiasm and Makes Many Converts in Trigg.

Hon. Harry V. McChesney bounded in to Cadiz last Monday as "happy as a bare-foot boy dashes into the cool grass in the spring." His foot had not more than touched the concrete pavement before he began a hand-shaking that demonstrated that this "man of the people" has learned the valuable lesson "to carry sunshine under the crown of his hat." He did not follow the habit set by former politicians of "hiding himself away to a hotel room and there in seclusion with a few friends, lay plans to defeat the will of the people."

When the time came for his afternoon speech, to a well filled house and many standing, in a manner seldom equaled and never surpassed he awakened an enthusiasm that was a marvel to his supporters. He did not talk of "babbling brooks," nor deal in "steretyped humbug," but spoke straight home to the hearts of men. From the opening sentence to the grand peroration, he held his audience under his mastery control.

The effort had all of the characteristics of a great speech. Pathos and humor abounded. Facts and logic were united in inseparable connection. The arraignment of the "liquor traffic" was terrific, but the dissection was performed with a master hand. The reply to his political opponents was overwhelmingly convincing, but free from every taint of bitterness and was delivered with the "McChesney smile" that "never comes off." It was the consensus of opinion that no better vote-making speech was ever delivered in Cadiz.

Mr. McChesney was introduced by Hon. Alex Wallace, of Cerulean Springs.—Cadiz Record.

THE CAT SKINNER.

That Russellville speech of McChesney's ought to hold down Mr. Stanley a while. It was the best, most decent, graceful castigation any man in Kentucky politics has received lately and he cannot get around the facts related. Be brought it on himself by the unjust criticism of McChesney. Stanley's stock in trade is abuse and vilification and his speeches if not abusive would be stale and flat. McChesney is a mild mannered man with a smile for everyone but when he has to skin a cat—"shore" skin him good and proper.—Park City Daily News.

McChesney In "Wet Christian."

(Cadiz Record.)

A Christian county citizen, visiting Trigg recently, was interviewed on the "race for Governor." His conclusions may bear being considered. He said, "Boys, this prohibition question is going to eat a figure, and don't you forget it." Why shouldn't it? The "booze-boodlers" practically bought the "wet" verdict over the efforts of the best citizenship of the county. McChesney stands for that which is best in politics. He is entitled to the support of all good citizens.

PICKED UP AT THE MCCHESENEY SPEAKING.

(Cadiz Record.)

"Best political speech that I ever heard," was the comment of a man who didn't seem to have a dry thread on him. "McChesney certainly made votes today," said a fellow who was mopping the dripping perspiration from a red-hot face.

"It sholy was hot up there, but I didn't mind it. could'er sat another hour," was the remark of a staunch McChesney man.

"Well, they told me that he was a good one, but he beat the band," came from an "on the fence," but who will climb down on the right side.

Did you ever hear a better one? "I was frequently heard in the crowd after the speaking and then the fellows would say, 'McChesney will carry Trigg county by a big majority.'"

"He smiled, but he cut deep," was the opinion expressed by more than one who cheered the speaker as he used the "political knife."

"A big crowd to hear McChesney," and then added the speaker, "and McChesney captured the whole business. It certainly was a good humored speaker and a jolly crowd."

"The best vote-making speech ever delivered by a politician in Cadiz," was the sober judgment of a very sober man.

"He pitched his speech on a high plane and never let it drop," was the thoughtful expression of a thinking hearer.

"Back of the speech was a consecrated life" was the opinion of a good reader of character.

"He did not have to amend a single sentence from the beginning to the close," came from a man who admires clear thinking and correct speaking.

"He handled the newspapers and letters with better effect that I ever heard any man," was what a note-taker remarked.

The speaker seems to have too much "good goods to deliver" to stop for applause. When it did come, it was hearty and spontaneous. No man ever spoke to a more appreciative audience.

THE ISSUE IS PLAIN.

The main issue in the Governor's race in the coming Democratic primary on August 7 has become so plain that every intelligent citizen in the State should understand it. It has come to a question as to whether the people of Kentucky or the whiskey and beer trusts are to control the political affairs and government of our State. It has been evident for some years that we can not hold an election of any kind without the active and pernicious interference of these interests in politics. They undertake to control every branch of the public service, in order that they may extend the market for the sale of their products, and to establish saloons in as many places in the State as possible. The County Unit law has done some good but the liquor interests continue to fight and defy that law, and if they should get into power in Kentucky they would undoubtedly undertake to repeal it, just as they did with a similar law in Indiana a few years ago.

There is only one certain way that the liquor interests can be put out of politics in Kentucky for good. That is by electing to office men who are pledged to work in favor of a constitutional amendment submitting the question of State-wide prohibition to the voters. If the people are given an opportunity to vote on this question there will be no doubt of the result. Whiskey will go and go for all times.—Shelby News.

Hon. H. V. McChesney Speak Of Russellville.

Russellville, Ky., July 5.

In his speech here today Hon. H. V. McChesney, Democratic candidate for Governor, replied to an attack made on him by Mr. Stanley in his speech at Bowling Green last Monday, Mr. McChesney said:

"The distinction of having developed the most notorious gang of gamblers, saloon-keepers, thugs, dive-keepers, crooks and ballot box stuffers the world ever saw belongs to Terre Haute, Ind. And when they were haled before the Federal Court for their crimes they engaged Mr. Stanley as their chief attorney. The horrible rottenness of the case and the result of the trial are matters of history. With his clients in the Federal penitentiary, where they were long overdue, and his big thumb in his pocket, Mr. Stanley comes back to Kentucky, and with the liquor interests at his back parades over the State criticising me because a small public service company pays me twenty dollars to attend to its small taxation matters for a year. I concede that every criminal has the right to employ a lawyer to defend him—even the Terre Haute knaves had this right; but I am not willing to concede that the lawyer who finds this class of practice to his liking shall pose as a censor on the ethics of the profession.

In his Bowling Green speech last Monday Mr. Stanley, the candidate of the liquor interests in the race for Governor, criticised the character of my practice because I make a specialty of taxation matters and represent number of the smaller public service companies of the State before the Board of Valuation and Assessment at the capital. The law gives these companies the right to a hearing before the Board when they desire it, just as any citizen is allowed a hearing before the county supervisors when his assessment is made higher than he thinks is just, and so the practice is clean legitimate; and I am not answering Mr. Stanley's attack upon the idea that the character of my law practice needs any defense, only to show who this man is that seeks to divert attention from the real issue of the campaign by a resort to the usual methods of cheap demagoguery.

I have made seventy-one speeches in this campaign, and until today I have not mentioned Mr. Stanley's connection with the Terre Haute cases, and would not have done so but for this unwarranted attack on me at Bowling Green.

This is the same Mr. Stanley that voted Henderson County against the County Unit plank in the platform convention at Louisville four years ago, and tried to induce the McLean County delegation to bolt its dry instructions and vote wet; he is the same Mr. Stanley that voted against the Webb-Kenyon bill in Congress, and who now loudly proclaims himself a temperance man. With defeat staring them in the face the liquor interests and their candidates are growing desperate, hence Mr. Stanley's Bowling Green outbreak.

In the summertime.
When the south wind is blowing.
And sweet flowers are in bloom
The trees nod their heads so knowing.
They seem to know of lands,
So far, so far away,
And of the foreign people,
And the strange things they say.

They seem to know of rivers,
That flow so lazily by,
With shores covered with pebbles
That charm a fellow's eye.
They seem to know of fairies,
As dainty as a shell,
And if the trees could talk,
What pretty tales they'd tell.

How To Get Rid Of Thistles.

A contributor to the current issue of Farm and Fireside says: "I killed the Canada thistles in my meadowland by burning the brush that had been trimmed from some apple trees. About the 10th of June I put the brush on the thistles and burned it. The next day I went over the burned ground with a spike-tooth harrow, then I sowed grass seed and rolled it down. I had no more trouble with the thistles."

A NEW SKIN.

Snakes throw off their outer skin once a year. Human beings change their skin perhaps nine times in a year; that is, they have a new skin about once a six weeks.

The value of a clean skin in maintaining health is not properly understood by the majority of people. Cleanliness is a part of health. You cannot be healthy unless you are clean not only externally, but also internally.

The blood should also be assisted occasionally, like the skin, in throwing off poisons so that the system may not get clogged and leave a weak spot for disease germs to enter the system. When the blood is clogged, we suffer from what is commonly called a cold.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and eradicates the poisons that breed and feed disease. It is best for scrofula, eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions that mar and scar the skin. Pure blood is essential to good health. The weak, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience is commonly the effect of impure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery not only cleanses the blood of impurities, but it increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and it enriches the body with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

Take it as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter in the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys and drive it from the system through the natural channels.

RIGHT HERE IN KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky.—"For all of ten years I have depended on Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. My husband and I both use them. They are the best remedy for biliousness and constipation. I am a practical nurse and I know what I say. I gladly recommend them."—Mrs. A. CHADWICK, 2405 Bank St.

Constipation causes and seriously aggravates many diseases. Then regulate stomach, liver and bowels by taking Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

A Cow With A Wonderful Record.

The following account of the record made by a Holstein cow of Delavan, Wisconsin, is taken from the current issue of Farm and Fireside:

"She gave four ten-quart pails of milk a day for three hundred days. She yielded enough butterfat to make four pounds of butter a day for a milking year of three hundred days. Figure it yourself—14,612 pounds of milk, and 1,116 of butterfat. Allowing a 20 per cent overrun, this enormous yield of butterfat makes nearer four pounds and a half a day than four."

THE lobbyists and corporation representatives are against Henry Bosworth for Governor. Why? LABOR LEADER IS AMONG TESTIFIERS

Charles Peetz Tells How Tanlac Brought Him Ready Relief.

Louisville, Ky., July 28.—Here is what Charles Peetz, prominent labor leader, of 101 West Market street, this city, has to say about Tanlac, the premier preparation, and the benefits he derived from the use of the medicine:

"I have been in a half-sick condition for months. I was all run-down, nervous, and had no appetite. My stomach was out of order and my digestion was bad. I often had headaches and was depressed in spirits.

"I find that Tanlac just exactly suits my case. After using the medicine about a week or ten days, my appetite and digestion are much better. I now sleep better and feel stronger in every way."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, that proved such a boon to Mr. Peetz and hundreds of others in Louisville and Kentucky, is now being taken with the most beneficial results by many of our citizens right here in Marion. It is an excellent spring tonic, blood purifier and tissue builder.

Tanlac can be obtained in Marion at J. H. Orme's drugstore, and in Blackford at A. T. Brown's drugstore.

Don't delay buying a DE LAVAL Cream Separator a single day longer

IF YOU ARE SELLING cream or making butter and have no separator or an inferior one, you are wasting cream every day you delay the purchase of a De Laval.

THERE CAN ONLY BE TWO real reasons for putting off buying a De Laval; either you do not really appreciate how great your loss in dollars and cents actually is or else you do not believe the De Laval Separator will make the savings claimed for it.

IN EITHER CASE THERE is one sensible answer: "Let us set up a machine for you on your place and SEE FOR YOURSELF what the De Laval will do."

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO risk, and over a million other cow owners who have made this test have found they had much to gain.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO wait. Let the De Laval Separator start saving cream for you RIGHT NOW.

IF YOU WOULD REALLY like to know just how much more cream you can get with a De Laval let us set up a machine for you on your place and have you try it out for yourself.

Candidates Scrap

people know whether they bore a good name, notwithstanding Laffoon's insinuations against their breeding.

Speaking about running in the interest of Baker, Mr. Young referred to the fair propositions he had made Laffoon to leave their candidacy to the Madisonville bar, democrats of Madisonville or Hopkins county, thus having only one candidate from Hopkins county, and that Laffoon had treated them with contempt.

He said that it is true he acted as challenger in one election in the Elk precinct for the "wets." It was the year he was reading law in Laffoon's office and eating at his table and thought Laffoon was all of it. Laffoon was campaign manager for the "wets" and asked him (Young) to act as challenger to see that no illegal votes were cast, and he did so, but since that time he had lined up with the temperance forces and stood true to them in the legislature. He said Laffoon came to Frankfort and sought to induce him to vote against the county unit candidate for speaker, told him he could get "fixed" and that he would be a fool if he didn't do it.

In answer to Laffoon's statement that Judge Givens was sore at him (Laffoon) because he voted against Givens for Congress, Mr. Young said the trouble between Givens and Laffoon dated further back than that. He said he remembered during the whiskey fight when Laffoon was campaign manager for the whiskey side that Givens charged through the paper that Laffoon was getting $2,000 for his services introducing that whiskey speaker at the opera house who said the teachings of Jesus Christ favored the open saloon, and herding all these negroes for weeks to his office, etc. That Laffoon replied through the Madisonville Journal he wasn't getting that much, and Judge Givens replied that if he wasn't getting that much for such work he had sold out too cheap. So it might be something of this sort that made Rube vote against Givens. He said he knew nothing about Givens ever making a fight at Madisonville for the "wets," but he did know in three elections in Madisonville Judge Givens and The Hustler championed the "dry" side and in all three the "drys" won. "Givens is not running for commonwealth's attorney, and it is but just for me to say for him that" the "temperance people of Madisonville know what he did for them in those elections, and that he stood squarely with them throughout, and that Laffoon fought for the whiskey side in every election," said Young.

Young asked Laffoon why it was that none of the ministers of the district are supporting him (Laffoon) and said they must have a reason.

Young contended that Laffoon was getting rattled because he saw the hand writing on the wall and in making these vicious attacks on himself, his father and Judge Givens, Laffoon was grabbing desperately in the hope of stemming the tide that has set in against him.

Mr. Baker's speech, of course, was not involved with the discussion between Laffoon and Young and no attempt is therefore made to report it.

the organization, the conditions that caused it having passed away. Its work is now past history and should be buried and forgotten. Many others stood by the organization in sympathy, if not by active help, and seem disposed to keep it alive. We have to-day, in this district, an organization commonly called "Possum Hunters," and this organization has been in active operation in some of the counties within the past year. For some reason these organizations, and nearly every member of them, so far as I know, throughout the district are actively opposed to my election. You can go into every county of the district, and where you find a member, you will find that he is against me.

I had rather be defeated a thousand times than to take any obligation that would bind me, in any way, to protect the guilty or to do aught as Judge but equal Justice to every one according to the light that God may give me, and I promise you here and now that, if I am elected, it is my purpose to do everything in my power to put an end to possum hunting and like offenses in this district, and, to that end, I shall endeavor to have Jury Commissioners, who will select juries, who will see that this law is enforced in every particular.

Gentlemen, the fight is on, the lines are drawn. I have not made the fight, it has been made against me. These organizations are against me, and I call upon all of you, who love the law, and want your families, and your property, and your lives protected, to stand by me and help me to win this fight.

The good of the Democratic party, your wives, your children, your all, demand that you wake up to the conditions that are confronting us. I do not ask you to take my word about these matters. Open your eyes, look around you, and see if I am not telling you the truth.

I have confidence in the people, and I am confident that you will stand by me.

Complimentary Notice.

From a delayed copy of the "Kentucky Standard" of Bardstown, Ky., dated June 17, we clip the following complimentary notice of one of our boys:

The Commencement exercises of the Bardstown Graded and High School began Tuesday evening with a reception by the High School to the Graduates.

As is usual the exercises of this school are extended over a week's time, the large number of pupils causing it to be impossible to crowd the closing exercises into one evening's entertainment. Our town has one of the best and most thorough Graded and High Schools in the State and the splendid corps of teachers employed, zealously labor in the children's behalf, and are more than repaid by the results manifested in each and every scholar.

The address to the Graduates was delivered by Hon. V. Y. Moore, of Madisonville, Ky., his subject being "The Debt We Owe."

The writer has heard many addresses to graduating classes and by men of national reputation, but perhaps none more practical or better delivered. Not many summers have passed since the speaker left the classic walls himself judging from his youthful looks, yet he spoke with the abandon and fluency of a Chautauqua Veteran. Mr. Moore had a message, a real live message to the people of Kentucky—and he delivered it with the force and fluency that captivated the vast crowd that packed the hall.

No synopsis could do justice to the address or speaker, it would have to be heard to be fully appreciated. In the fervor and fluency of the speaker, the listeners forgot his youth and dwelt upon his vigorous and refreshing message.

Prof. Neblett made no mistake when he invited Mr. Moore to deliver this address.

Camp Meeting

The annual Camp Meeting at Kuttawa Mineral Springs, will open Thursday evening, August 12, and continue for 10 days.

The Camp Meeting Committee is taking special care to make the meeting this year a success. There will be excellent music, led by a competent singer, and the best of preaching. The names of preachers who will preach during the meeting will be announced later.

The Management this year will be in the hands of Rev. A. J. Thomson, of Kuttawa, who will endeavor in every way to make the meeting pleasant and helpful to all who attend. The place is an ideal one for such a gathering. There is an abundance of water and shade and no dust. Those who come on trains will find conveyances at the depot to take them to the Springs and return at moderate prices. We want the meeting to be something in the way of a Re-union and a home coming for Lyon county people. Everybody cordially invited to attend these services.

DEANWOOD

Dr. Frank Walker of Farmersville visited his fathers family here last week. He made the trip in his new automobile.

Elder T. L. Walker and Rev. Robinson of Shady Grove are conducting a tent meeting at this place.

The young people enjoyed an ice cream supper at John Birchfield Friday night.

The liquor dealers plead that if their "Great Industries" in this state, are destroyed by State Wide Prohibition that they will be thrown out of employment and have no means of making a living. Are they so helpless and weak that they can't make a living as others do? If that be the case, this state has charitable institutions for the helpless and can better afford to support them in this manner rather than have their atrocious business continued. This calls to our mind a dream that a member of this vicinity had not long ago which ended in an unexpected manner and which he related as follows. "A few weeks ago I read in one of the large daily papers a bitter and violent speech against State Wide Prohibition by a distinguished Kentucky politician.

As I slept that night I dreamed a unique dream. I dreamed that my earthly career had ended and I was on trial before the Great Just Judge (who is called St. Peter by some) of all our good and evil deeds. I was required to give my name, my place of abode on earth, my occupation and the age in which I lived. St. Peter took a very large book informing me as he did so that if my good deeds were more than my evil ones that I would be permitted to go in at the right hand, but other wise I would be taken to the left. After a time my name was found and my account posted up. Said St. Peter "Such an account as yours I have not had before for centuries, for your good and evil deeds number exactly the same and before I can act I must look up a precedent." But at this moment a loud knocking was heard at the front entrance and an attendant was sent to answer.

He returned and told St. Peter that a very distinguished looking being was demanding admittance and a room with all the modern improvements including a fire escape. St. Peter said he never heard of such nerve before (remember that this is a dream) and turning to me said I might stand aside until this case was disposed of. The new arrival was admitted and strode forward saying as he came that he had an awful trip and must have but here St. Peter interrupted to say no more of that. I have been running this for several million years and you will do as I say. Give your name, your place of abode on earth, your occupation and the age in which you lived. He gave his name and to my great surprise it was the distinguished politician whose bitter speech against State Wide Prohibition I had read in the paper. St. Peter took the large book and began to look for his name but after a long search failed to find it. Several attendants were called to assist in finding it, but with out success. Every book was searched carefully again, but the name was not there and St. Peter finally gave up the search, and sat with a worried look on his face. After a long meditation he told an attendant to have the Head Architect to come in who promptly did so. Said St. Peter I have a case the like I never had before. I have a being here whose name is not on the book. He cannot be sent to the left because there are no evil deeds against him neither can he go in at the right hand for there are no good deeds to his credit. The only plan I have is for you to build a new place out and out for him. The Architect said he would do his best but that he would like to hear him talk some before he began the work. St. Peter asked the politician if he would make a talk. He replied that it was in his line of business exactly and at once launched into the "booze" speech, word for word, that I had read in the Courier Journal. As he warmed up he grew more violent in his language. He said that Prohibition did not prohibit that McChesney was a hypocrite and a humbug and as he came to the "Personal Liberty" part of his speech, His Satanic Majesty (the devil) came tip toeing up to the rear of the room with his hand behind his ear listening intently. However he soon slunk away muttering to himself "that fellow is not in my line for say what they may of my subjects no one has every said that one of them is a fool." When the speech was ended I saw a pleased look come over St. Peters face and he said; this speech has made a puzzling case an easy matter. Turning to me, he said, as he pointed to the south east, you take this fellow back this way, take him away back to the very back field, the old Thorn field; when you get there take down the bars and turn him in with the DONKEYS. When you get back from the trip I will give you credit for one more good deed and this will allow you to go in at the right hand: and thus ends my dreams.

Pastor Gets $25 A Jump.

The Rev. Robert Van Meigs, pastor of the First Baptist church here raised $805 from a congregation, about 4,000 strong, where with to compensate Evangelist E. G. Grabill. He gave in return for each $25 donation an exhibition of agility by leaping over the pulpit stand.

Prior to starting his money raising campaign, the Rev. Mr. Meigs prepared for rushing tactics. Ushers with pads of paper and pencil were stationed at various points on the floor, in order to lose no time in noting the names and amounts as they were announced. Then he went into the pulpit minus his regulation black coat and with his shirt sleeves rolled above his elbows.

It will cost just $25 a throw to see me leap over the Bible stand, the Rev. Mr. Meigs declared. When the first $25 subscription was announced the preacher gave a loud shout of joy, ran to the pulpit, laid his hands upon and leaped over it after the manner of most approved athletics. Before the evening's task had accomplished he had repeated this performance something like a score of times.—Muskogee, Okla., Dispatch to the New York Times.

BLACKFORD

Well, no, Blackford is neither dead nor morally lost but wishes to be heard from during the month of July, therefore, we shall endeavor to chronicle a few events which transpired since our last communication.

Our good friend, J. H. Watson, a former I. C. railroad conductor, was here a few days since enroute from Providence to Princeton.

Wm. Henry Towery with a crew of laborers, of Shady Grove, are threshing wheat for the farmers in this part of Webster county.

On Sunday the 11th inst., was born to Mrs. Tina Adelia Greer, wife of James Moses Greer, a son, weight ten pounds, and has been named Norman.

W. Milton Babb, Mathew N. Crowell and John L. Reynolds contemplate spending a few days at Dawson Springs during the month of August.

Our reliable druggist, Ashley T. Brown, has had steel ceiling installed in his drug store which adds much attractiveness to his place of business.

Two of our hustling carpenters, J. R. Hazel and G. W. Crowell, are erecting a business house on 3rd street for M. A. McCarthy.

W. C. Perry, wife and son, Clarence, also W. T. Sipes and wife, of Washington, D. C., are over in this part of Kentucky spending their vacation with relatives and friends. W. C. Perry and W. T. Sipes have government positions at Washington City.

When you see a man, who has any occupation, who claims that never made any mistakes, that is sufficient evidence to prove that he never has done much business of any kind.

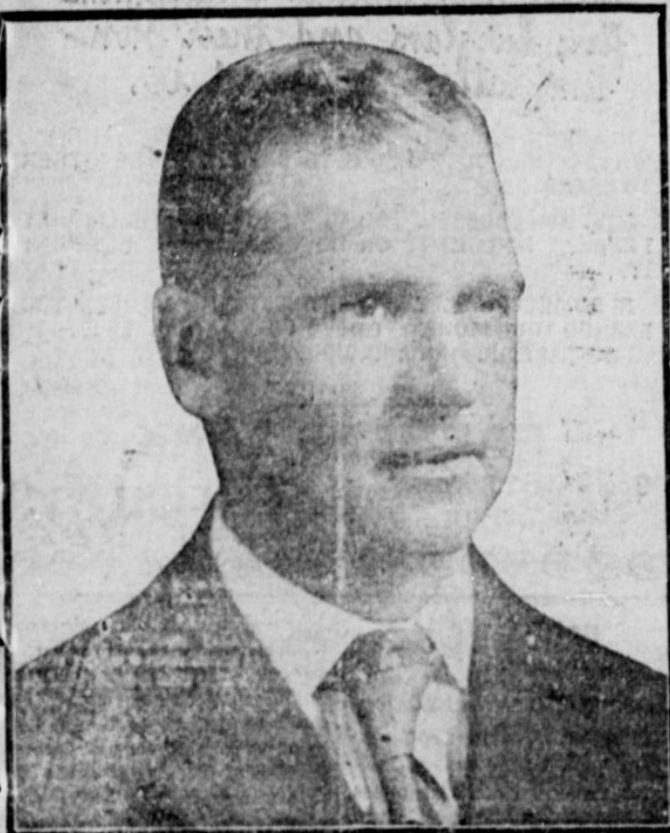

Mrs. George S. Woodson is critically ill at her home on North Dye street. Dr. Ben H. Price is the attending physician.

Miss Ruth Cook, of Hebron, Crittenden Co., spent a few days last week with the family of her uncle, George H. Nunn.

If the season continues favorable, there is an excellent prospect for good crops in this part of the world.

Democrats Asked To Ratify Governor's Appointment of Judge C. S. Nunn

JUDGE C. S. NUNN, OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Successor to his father and appointed by the Governor on recommendation of all the judges of the court. The appointment is effective until this election.

Judge Nunn asks the people at the Democratic Primary, August 7th next, to ratify the Governor's appointment and elect him to serve the remaining three years of the term given up by his father.

Since his appointment the duties of the office have kept Judge Nunn almost constantly at Frankfort, so that he has had but little opportunity to make a personal canvass of the eighteen counties composing the district.

CROWDS SO BIG HAS TO SPEAK TO OVERFLOW

Three Thousand People Hear H. V. McChesney At Murray.

COURTHOUSE FILLED

Mayfield Welcomes Candidate At Night Meeting With Enthusiasm.

Murray, Ky., July 26.—The biggest crowd ever assembled here at a political speaking greeted H. V. McChesney, when he spoke here this afternoon. He was billed to speak in the big Circuit Court room of the new Calloway county court house, but the crowd was so large that he cut short his speech inside and went to the court house steps, where he addressed over 3,000 people that had gathered in front of the building and clamored for him to speak to them outside.

The audience was as attentive as it was large, and left no doubt as to where Calloway county's immense Democratic vote will go in the August primary. McChesney's friends since the ovation he received are estimating his majority in this county at more than 2,000.

He was introduced to the audience in the court room by Zeph Conner and to the crowd outside by Rainey T. Wells.

STARTS TOUR OF GRAVES.

McChesney Made Four Speeches In That County Monday.

Mayfield, Ky., July 26.—Fresh from an ovation in Murray that evidently made him superior to the exhausting effects of two speeches in an afternoon, H. V. McChesney arrived here this afternoon and found Mayfield ready to welcome his message to Democracy with the same responsive spirit. A crowd that an average Saturday night could not duplicate, gathered in the county seat of Graves, and some 800 people tried to crowd their way into the Circuit Court room to hear, many had to turn away for lack of room. He was introduced by Hon. M. D. Holifield.

Tomorrow McChesney will tour the county, making four speeches during the day. There are 6,000 votes in Graves county, which has a candidate for Appellate Judge, Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, two candidates for State Senator and two for Representative, and a big vote is expected to be polled. The chances for McChesney to carry this county by a handsome majority are good and his tour is expected to cinch it for him.

TALKS LIKE A WINNER.

All the candidates have spoken here and a marked distinction between the character of speech made by McChesney and his opponents, particularly Stanley, is that McChesney speaks as "vote getters," not only in the primary but in the fall election. If he is campaigning everywhere

BELIEVES STANLEY WILL STAY IN RACE

FRIENDS SAY HE WILL NOT WITHDRAW IN INTEREST OF McDERMOTT

A. O. Stanley, will not be withdrawn from the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Members of the local Stanley organization denied with all the emphatic vigor of vernacular English the rumor that he would be withdrawn and his strength thrown to Lieutenant Governor McDermott, following the statement in the Louisville press from Mayor Buschmeyer, representing the city and county Democratic organization, that Stanley's continuance in the race simply is dividing the "wet" vote and making McChesney's nomination more certain.

Stanley's supporters insisted that he is stronger than McDermott, notwithstanding the evident overwhelming strength of McDermott in Louisville, Covington and Newport. They spoke unkindly, even discourteously, of the Lieutenant Governor, and declared that if McChesney is nominated the blame will be laid at McDermott's door.

BOTH SIDES BITTER.

Reports from Louisville show Stanley and McDermott supporters getting farther and farther apart. Behind the Lieutenant Governor is the solid organization of the city and county Democracy. Behind Stanley is the opposition to the organization, which has struggled futilely against it in every primary race for years. The personnel of the contending forces is the same as it was in the last municipal primary and probably will be in the next.

Bosworth, who has opened headquarters in the Watterson hotel, Louisville, is outside the controversy, and McChesney is leaving the two factions to quarrel it out; but the Stanley and McDermott men are figuratively at one another's throats, making threats and uttering warnings of the dire consequences of splitting the "wet" vote.

DIVERGENT VIEWS.

J. P. Edwards, candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Stanley slate, gave an interview, in which he said people in Louisville, who would be most seriously hurt by State-wide prohibition should leave McDermott and support Stanley. Mayor Buschmeyer in a published statement said reports secured from out in the State showing that Stanley is losing ground; that Frank Fehr and other leading liquor producers are supporting McDermott, and if the small handful of men engaged in the business, who are keeping Stanley on the track would drop him and go to McDermott, the latter could defeat McChesney.

Peter Lee Atherton, prominent distiller of Louisville, took issue in the papers yesterday afternoon with Mayor Buschmeyer and declared that Stanley is the strongest of the two, adding, "The business men of Louisville and Kentucky generally are waking up to the fact that they have a red-hot fight on their hands to defeat Mr. McChesney, the State wide prohibition candidate for governor. They have been slow to wake up to this fact, but they are now, I believe, fully

How Hannibal's Elephants

Were Transported.

To support the theory that all men are born and not trained to their particular tasks in life, we have the following story from one of our old engineers, which he told me of himself:

"I was one of the younger members of the engineering corps of Hannibal's army when he crossed the Alps. I was then considered quite a promising young genius, as I had been of service in several very delicate tasks. One morning Hannibal came to me with his face clouded by a troubled and gloomy look. 'John,' he said, 'I am in trouble again, you have helped me out several times, come around here and see what you do for me this time.' As we walked around to the place he explained that in one of the most difficult places that he had found, he came upon a long deep defile, which he could not avoid or cross without a bridge. They had easily constructed a bridge for the men, horses and baggage; but no material was available to make a bridge for the elephants. 'And' he added sadly, 'I hate to lose my elephants, I can't spare them.' I found that he had described the situation accurately. For a moment I was stumped. The altitude was so great that no strong timber could be found. At a point just above us I noticed that the hill—which we had just descended—was unusually steep and that a few feet of level ground intervened it and the gulch that we were to cross. The opposite side was a little lower than our side. This immediately suggested a plan. I had a heap of snow raised on the brink. A saucer shaped surface was carefully rounded out between it and the hill. The snow was then pressed into a very compact mass. I then poured water over it, which froze in a few minutes. The side of the hill and the trough were dug over until they were as slick as glass. A mound of loose snow was heaped up on the opposite side. The unsuspecting elephants were led to the top of the slide where their feet were suddenly from under neath them. They shot down the icy slope with meteoric speed. The impetus of their descent and the altered course over the concave surface hurled them easily across the chasm and landed them in the center of the snow bank. The strain on the ice mound was terrible; but it held till the last elephant struck it, when it fell heavily down into the gulch; but the elephant passed in safety. The elephants were a little nervous when first led out of their snow beds, but otherwise, were in perfect condition. Thus I finished in two hours, a task, which the experienced engineers had, vainly endeavored to accomplish during the last two days.

Hannibal was so elated at the success of the enterprise that he promoted me to a position over several of the older engineers. And it was their jealous scheming that brought me to the bow wows, as you see me now. Huh! this job of running a saw-mill engine can't begin to compare with the jobs that I used to have." And the old engineer turned away in disgust at the unfair treatment which he had received from the world.

A Seven Months' School Term With Increased Salaries For Teachers Per Month

HAMLETT'S RECORD IN OFFICE

BARKSDALE HAMLETT

WILL BE THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

Barksdale Hamlett, of Christian County, the leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, declares for Kentucky a seven months' school term, with a per capita of $5.25, an increase of 75c over last year.

The establishment of a seven months' school term with the increase of the teachers' salaries, and without an increase of taxation, is the greatest educational achievement in the history of Kentucky, as well as the greatest financial achievement. The man has taken rank as an expert—a wizard—of finance among the leaders of the Commonwealth.

When he went into office four years ago, there was a deficit of several hundred thousand dollars in the treasury of the school fund. He re-adjusted completely the system of school finance in such a way as to pay off the deficit; to increase the per capita from $4.00 to $5.25; to pay the teachers promptly every month—a thing never done before in the history of Kentucky; and to accomplish the end for which he has labored for eighteen years, that of giving to the people of Kentucky a permanently established school system with a term of seven months.

While State Superintendent of Public Instruction, he has established new precedents, serving personally as a leader in the field. He has given to the people of Kentucky a school free and accessible to every child, in every rural district in Kentucky. His personal leadership has brought about improved facilities in the office of every County Superintendent in Kentucky.

He secured a rational and effective compulsory attendance school law, by which the attendance in the public schools of Kentucky has increased more than 35 per cent, placing Kentucky in the foremost ranks of the States of America for educational and industrial progress.

The Course of Study prepared by Mr. Hamlett as Superintendent of Public Instruction, embracing the elements of agriculture, domestic sciences and mechanical arts, is a recognized guide for the conduct of the schools not only of Kentucky, but for many other States.

He has accomplished the establishment of county high schools accessible located in every county in Kentucky.

He has stood for and promoted the employment of and accomplished for the schools of Kentucky the services of teachers of the highest scholarship, character and personality.

Under his administration of the public school system of Kentucky, there has been a vital co-operation of all factors looking to the improvement of Kentucky's industrial conditions.

He has lent his best efforts to the building of good roads and to securing the consolidation of schools wherever and whenever practicable, that the greatest good might be accomplished at the least possible cost to the people.

One of the chief functions of the office of Secretary of State is membership on the State Board of Education. In this capacity he will continue to give his best efforts and services to the cause of education.

As a member of the State Board of Valuations and Assessments, as a member of the Sinking Fund Commission, and as a member of the State Printing Commission, Mr. Hamlett will serve the people and conserve their finances as he has done in the management of the school funds of the State, and if the people will elect others like him on these boards, Kentucky will soon be out of debt and her finances be in a most prosperous condition.

A young man at the age of thirty-six, having served faithfully for four years in one of the most important positions of trust in the gift of the people of Kentucky, he now seeks the endorsement of his party if the people think he has served them well. If his record has been good, if his services have been worth anything to the State of Kentucky, then the people of Kentucky will certainly elect him Secretary of State.

HIGH UP IN HIS PROFESSION

Professor V. O. Gilbert Everywhere Recognized as an Educator of Note.

It's all over but the shouting insofar as the nomination for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction is concerned, and Prof. V. O. Gilbert will undoubtedly be the winner. This elegant gentleman from Simpson county is a citizen of whom Kentucky may well be proud. He is one of her State builders, who has spent his life moulding her children into magnificent men and women who will reflect honor upon her in the future. Thirty years of active work in harness are credited to him and he knows more about educational matters in the commonwealth and is more thoroughly abreast of the time than any man in his profession. Politicians from all sides are unanimous in their estimation of this man, and admit his wonderful fitness for the office he seeks. He is a scholar, and administrator of affairs, a speaker of convincing eloquence, and one of the hardest workers in our public schools. There is no detail of the business of education with which he is not familiar. He knows the statutes of every school and college in our borders, he understands exactly how the funds set apart for educational purposes should be expended and taking him all in all he will add undoubted strength to the ticket

McCHESNEY THE MAN FOR VICTORY IN NOVEMBER

Temperance Vote in Country Districts and Mountains Will More Than Make Up For Liquor Men Who May Bolt—Elections of Last Few Years Prove This

The liquor candidates and the liquor organs in their desperate efforts to stem the rapidly increasing strength of Mr. McChesney, and to prevent, if possible, what seems to be his probable nomination as the Democratic candidate for Governor in the August primary, have been industriously circulating the report that if he is nominated he can not be elected in November. They base this statement upon the idea that the whiskey and beer Democrats would not vote for him, or for any other dry Democrat, if he is nominated. In other words, they admit that, although the liquor Democrats will take a very active part in the primary against McChesney, they will not hesitate, if he is nominated, to bolt his nomination and vote for the Republican ticket. There is some truth in that threat, for that is just what they have been doing for many years. Most of them do not seem to be bound, by any sense of honor or obligation, to support the nominee after they have taken part in the primary. Admitting to be true their purpose to bolt if Mr. McChesney is nominated, and that is what this talk amounts to when they say he could not be elected, let us see how true or not it is to be feared.

The people of Kentucky number very well that in the Senatorial primary last year, the same kind of talk and threats were used against Governor Beckham. Mr. Stanley, the liquor candidate for the Senate then, as he is the liquor candidate for Governor now, used the same argument; so did the same liquor newspapers. What this argument amounted to in effect was that, if Beckham was nominated, the whiskey and beer Democrats would bolt him, while if Stanley should be nominated he would get all of those votes and also the votes of the temperance Democrats, who would be too honorable and too good Democrats, to bolt the party nominee after they had taken part in the primary. The result of that primary should be fresh in the memory of Kentucky Democrats. With all the power and wealth of the distilleries, the breweries, and the saloons back of him, Stanley was defeated by a substantial majority. Beckham was nominated and a large majority of the liquor Democrats did bolt him in the November election. It is necessary only to look at the returns from that election to demonstrate it.

In all of the cities and liquor centers Beckham ran considerably behind the rest of the Democratic ticket. Even in Louisville, which he carried by a large majority, he ran nearly 2,500 votes behind the majority of the Democratic nominee for Congress. In Kenton county (city of Covington) he received 1,889 votes less than the vote for the Democratic nominee for Congress; in Campbell county (city of Newport) he received 1,632 less; in Fayette county (city of Lexington) which he should have carried by 1,200, he carried by only 197; and so it was in every city where there was a liquor vote. Even in Henderson county, Mr. Stanley's home, Governor Beckham ran about 200 or 250 votes behind the ticket, even though Stanley made a speech there before the election, ostensibly for the ticket, but it happened that in the five or six places where he did speak in that campaign, Beckham, the nominee, lost votes, for Stanley's speeches were not intended to help him. Notwithstanding all of this defection and bolting, Governor Beckham was over his Republican opponent, Governor Wilson, by 32,000 majority, the largest majority given to any Democratic candidate in 25 or 30 years. So the threat of Mr. Stanley and his whiskey and beer "ars proved to be futile and empty.

It is the same old trick they are trying to work again on the Democrats this year. But it will fool only the unthinking or the ignorant. Mr. McChesney is undoubtedly the strongest candidate the Democrats can nominate for Governor. He will be elected beyond doubt; he may have many very wet Democrats in the liquor centers, just as Beckham did last year, but he will more than make it up in the country districts and in the mountains. He is receiving the assurances of thousands of temperance Republicans and Independents that they will support him, if he is nominated over Mr. Morrow, who is well known as a wet man. It is no use for Mr. Stanley to argue that, because the Republicans will nominate a wet candidate for Governor on a wet platform, the Democrats should do the same thing, and get into a race with the Republican ticket, to see which can bid the highest for the whiskey and beer votes of the state. The people of Kentucky are not going to elect as Governor of the state a liquor trust man, and Mr. Stanley might as well stand aside. The people know that their chance to beat the wet Republican candidate is with Mr. McChesney as the Democratic candidate. He will be nominated and elected.

TOM RHEA HAS PROVEN FRIEND TO TAXPAYERS OF KENTUCKY

Played Important Part In Forcing Large Corporations to Pay Their Just Proportion of Taxes and is Best Qualified In Every Way for Auditorship

It is natural and proper that the Democrats of Kentucky should take a deep interest in the selection of their candidate for Governor on August 7, but they should not allow that race to overshadow all others and cause them to neglect or overlook other important races. Especially should they give their attention to the Auditor's race, for that position ranks in importance next to that of Governor.

The Auditor is the head of the fiscal affairs of the state and the head of the important Board of Franchise Assessments which fixes the franchise valuations upon which all corporations doing business in the state must pay taxes. The work of that board is of far-reaching importance to the people, and, above all others, the Auditor, who presides as chairman of the board, should be a man well equipped and trained for its difficult duties, and one who is incorruptible and fearless, ready to compel the corporations to pay their just part of the revenues of the state, without being unduly influenced by any corporation or persons.

Such a man is Thos. S. Rhea, who is asking the nomination from the Democratic party, and there is not a man in Kentucky better qualified for the position or more deserving of the support of the Democrats. As State Treasurer for nearly four years in the present administration, he has been a member of that board and a leading spirit in its splendid work. With his intelligent and active assistance, the franchise assessments upon corporations have been so increased that the state is now receiving several hundred thousand dollars more in revenue every year than ever before. The board has increased the franchise valuation upon all corporations from $48,000,000 to $132,000,000. Four of the largest railroad companies, whose assessments were raised, have carried it into the courts; and, if the courts uphold the action of the board, the large increase in revenue, together with the large increase from other corporations, which have not contested the raises, will be a great help to the taxpayers, and in a reasonable time aid materially in paying off the indebtedness of the state.

In the four years of this administration, the increase of revenues from the increased assessments of those corporations, which have not made contests, will amount to a sum to the state far in excess of a million dollars; and the increase of revenues from the same sources to the counties, cities, towns and school districts will amount to about two million dollars for the same period. Should the courts uphold the action of the board in regard to the four railroad companies, it would add about one million dollars more to the state, and about two million dollars more to the counties, cities, towns and school districts in the same four years.

No man has had more to do with this great work than Tom Rhea, and no man now seeking a nomination for a state office is better prepared than he to render useful and valuable service to the state and to the people in the next four years. No other man seeking this office has ever had the slightest experience with its duties. Some of his enemies, at the beginning of this campaign, undertook to criticize him and his record as an official, but they had to quickly abandon such attacks, because the published facts clearly disproved their misrepresentations. In the next administration, Mr. Rhea would prove himself a tower of strength to the state in the conduct of its revenues and fiscal affairs.

As a Democrat and party worker, there is not a blot upon his record. Four years ago, when he was on the state ticket as the nominee for Treasurer, he added great strength to the ticket, as was shown by the increased majority of 2,500 given in his judicial district alone. Last fall, in the Senatorial and Congressional races, he was chosen by the Democratic State Committee as Campaign Chairman, and under his intelligent and successful management and organization, the Democratic majority in the state was increased to 32,000.

Tom Rhea has always been true to the party and its nominees. He has never bolted nor sulked when things did not go his way in primaries or conventions. The Democratic party in the campaign this fall needs him upon the ticket. No other man can give it greater strength or do more to insure its success in the November election. He is a man of pleasing and attractive personality, free from malice, kind, considerate to all, a temperate and temperance man, never having touched a drink of alcoholic liquor in all his life, and, all in all, he is a man worthy in the highest degree of the confidence and support of all good citizens.

The Democrats of the state could not find a better man to nominate for any office than Tom Rhea, and, if the signs indicate anything, he will be the nominee for Auditor by a handsome majority in the primary on August 7.

Picnic Turned to a Holocaust.

Washington, July 28.—Sixteen hundred persons perished according to an estimate in the first official report from the Chicago Life-Savers to Coast Guard headquarters here today.

By the capsizing of the excursion steamer Eastland while warping from its wharf with more than 2,400 employees of the Western Electric Company and their relatives and friends on board, bound for a pleasure trip across Lake Michigan.

After working ceaselessly all day and far into the night, the bodies of 842 victims of the catastrophe, most of them women and children, were collected from temporary morgues and taken to the Second Regiment Armory. When these bodies had been tagged Coroner Hoffman, taking into consideration estimates of bodies thought to be in the hold of the steamer lying on its side in the river, and in the stream itself, said he hopes that the total dead would not exceed 1,000.

The Eastland, said by marine architects to have been topheavy and ballasted in an uncertain manner, turned over inside of five minutes after it began to list, pouring its gala passengers into the river or imprisoning them in its submerged hull.

Stanley, The Liquor Interests' Choice.

Mr. Stanley is recognized as the first choice of the liquor men of the state in the Governor's race. No man in Kentucky has a cleaner record on the whiskey side than he. By every vote he has cast in Congress, by his work and influence in the Democratic Convention of 1911, by his race for Senator last year, he has assisted the whiskey and beer interests and fought every temperance measure. Citizens of Kentucky will find, if they only take the trouble to look, that the liquor crowd is solidly back of him and that every vote that they can control will be given to him.

Mr. McChesney is recognized as the champion of the people of Kentucky and stands squarely on the other side of the liquor question from Mr. Stanley. He has been a total abstainer all of his life. Every vote he has cast has been against the domination of the liquor interests. On every opportunity he has worked in behalf of the people against this great monopoly. He makes no straddle.

Aside from the whiskey question Mr. McChesney is easily the best qualified man for the high position of Governor of Kentucky. Measure the candidates from any standard, for their integrity, for their uprightness, for their ability, for their training and experience, for their knowledge of the State's business; take any qualification you will that a man filling the Governor's chair should be endowed with and you will find that Mr. McChesney stands head and shoulders above any other man in the race. (Continued from page 1) as he is here, his primary campaign speeches will help relieve him of the necessity of going back over the whole trail in the fall: for he is winning Republican as well as Democratic support. A Democrat who has made more political speeches in the last ten years for other candidates of the party than any other leader in the party, and making a Democratic speech, he refrains from abusing Republicans, but invites them to join the Democratic ranks since their party organization has gone on record as voting against giving the people a chance to settle the liquor question by voting on a constitutional amendment.

Stanley in his speech here, insulted Republicans and criticized the present Democratic administration, which the nominee of the party will have to answer for in the fall. McChesney spoke like a man who expects to be nominated, and therefore, is anxious to have the support of as many as he can induce in the general election. Advertisement.

Democratic Editors See Victory for Claude B. Terrell In Race for Nomination for State Treasurer In August Primary Election.

If there is one contest in the approaching Democratic State primary election about which the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky seem to be agreed it is that the Hon. Claude B. Terrell, of Trimble County, should and will be nominated for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Terrell has made a runaway race of it from the day he entered the contest. His especial fitness for the office he is seeking has appealed to the Democratic editors of every section of Kentucky, and they have done much to mold the sentiment of their communities in his favor by informing the people as to the character of the man and his qualifications for public service. Herewith are quoted brief paragraphs taken from editorials of newspapers published in every section of Kentucky. It would require not less than two pages of a newspaper to publish in full these unsolicited words of commendation of Mr. Terrell and his candidacy:

The Calloway Times: He has served three terms in the Legislature, two as Speaker, and is a clean, fair-minded, sober and discreet man. He will poll a splendid vote in this county next month.

The Ballard County Advance: Mr. Terrell is a man well equipped for this important office and will make a splendid official. He is a man you like better the more you see him.

Paducah News-Democrat: He is a substantial business man, and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him, and has many friends in this section of Kentucky who will give him their support.

The Princeton Leader: While here Mr. Terrell met a large number of our people and made a very favorable impression. He is well equipped from an official standpoint to fill the office of State Treasurer.

Fulton Daily Leader: He is a staunch Democrat, is familiar with the public affairs of the State by virtue of his commanding position the past few years in the legislature and is well fitted in every way to make the people of Kentucky a faithful State Treasurer and guardian of the funds of the commonwealth.

Clinton Gazette: Mr. Terrell has made a reputation as a man who is to be depended upon to do exactly what he promises to do.

Arlington Courier: A better man cannot be found for this place. He is self-made, public spirited, and a friend to the working man.

Mayfield Messenger: He is a great friend to education and a constant fighter for good roads. With him as State Treasurer the people can be assured that the affairs of that office will be conducted honestly and according to law.

Bowling Green Times-Journal: Mr. Terrell will add strength to the ticket selected next month, and it is gratifying to know that his nomination is a certainty.

Bowling Green News: The press of the state is loud in its praise of him as a Democrat, a high-class gentleman and an honorable incorruptible man of fine business and executive ability and one who never has and never will betray a trust either in private or public life.

Todd County Progress: Mr. Terrell enjoys a wide acquaintance in the state, made a splendid Speaker of the House, and is a man of winning personality.

Smith's Grove Times: The county papers over the state are giving Terrell their support, and it is likely that he will carry the state by a larger majority than most candidates.

Cloverport News: He is a man who has made good in all his public trusts. He is a man well equipped for the office he is asking.

Springfield Sun: The manner in which he conducted the affairs of his great trust as Speaker won for him many strong friends over the state, who are now endeavoring to endorse his valuable service.

New Haven Echo: He is of the younger set of business men and possesses the push that has always been lacking in the state, and has been so much needed.

Shepherdsville News: He helped to enact more constructive laws than any other Speaker who has presided over the House in fifty years. He is by far the ablest and strongest man seeking the Treasurership.

Breckenridge News: The Big Sandy News pays a very fine compliment to Claude B. Terrell. The beauty about it is that 'tis true.

CLAUDE B. TERRELL

Kentucky Standard: He has been closely associated with the educational interest of the state for many years, and popular education has no stronger advocate.

Hartford Herald: He is splendidly qualified, as his service in office has brought him close to the interests of the people.

Estill Tribune: He is a conservative business man in whom the people can trust with implicit faith and his loyalty and work for Democratic success entitles him to recognition by the party.

Danville Messenger: Mr. Terrell has gained much strength over the state, especially during the past two weeks, and his nomination seems assured.

Henry County Local: His career has been prominent and noteworthy of the sterling character of this splendid young man. It behooves the Democrats to remember him on election day.

Owenton News-Herald: It should be a pleasure to Owen County Democrats to cast their votes for him. He will make a safe and efficient Treasurer.

Woodford Blue Grass Clipper: None of the candidates are receiving more favorable mention. From every quarter come reports of the great favor in which his candidacy is held.

Louisville Evening Post: Mr. Terrell is running on a record that seems invincible. His friends say the nomination is certain, and the honor will be most fully and properly bestowed.

Louisville Journal of Labor: Citizens of Kentucky should certainly appreciate his efforts and evidence their appreciation by nominating this splendid worker for the public good. He is meeting with great success daily and his candidacy grows in public favor constantly.

Boone County Recorder: His prospect for receiving the nomination is very good. He is a Sixth District boy, and we are all for him.

Falmouth Pendletonian: His greatest strength is where he is best known, which is the strongest evidence of a man's worth, and for this high office he has no superiors.

Carrollton Democrat: All who know him seem to be for him. Trimble County is fated to have a representative among our state officials the coming four years.

Grant County News: There is no blot on his escutcheon as a lawmaker and a faithful servant of the people, and he now comes with clean hands seeking a state office. We have no doubt he will reflect credit.

Uniontown Telegram: Besides his ability which qualifies him to efficiently conduct the duties of Treasurer, he is a native Union countian, which makes a strong appeal to us.

Seabree Banner: The ticket needs strength to win in November, and Claude B. Terrell will add much along that line. Webster County voters can well afford to support him.

Pembroke Journal: Terrell looks like a winner. He has the support of the leading newspapers of the state. In all official positions he has served his constituents faithfully.

Big Sandy News: In Eastern Kentucky Mr. Terrell is very strong. No citizen who wants clean men in important offices will make any mistake in voting for him.

Hazel Green Herald: No Democrat can possibly make a mistake in voting for Terrell, for he has been tried in many positions of honor and trust and never yet has he been found wanting.

Robertson Advance: He does not permit politics to make of him a selfish or biased man. He is able to take care of the Treasurer's office, and he will carry this county.

Ewing Enquirer: He is widely known as a man of ability, as a promoter of the good roads movement and all educational matters. He is worthy of the support of any man who wants to place the right man in the right place.

Russell Times: Democrats want men nominated that will bring strength to the ticket in the general election. They will make no mistake in nominating Terrell for Treasurer.

Whitesburg Mountain Eagle: As State Treasurer he will be "at home," and besides doing much good for his constituents he will be in part repaid for the excellent work he has already done for Kentucky.

Pike County News: A most excellent gentleman and fully qualified for the office he seeks.

Keenon For Clerk.

R. W. Keenon is a candidate for Clerk of Court of Appa. subject to Democratic Primary, August 7, 1915. He has had 4 years experience as Deputy Clerk in this office, is now County Attorney of his county, and a member of State Executive Committee.

Mr. Keenon recognizing the rights of the First district to consideration in State affairs, has elected as his chief deputy, in event of his election, William Henderson Circuit Court Clerk of Ballard county.

The First District having no candidate for Democratic nomination at August primary should stand solidly for Mr. Keenon, which is in effect voting for Mr. Henderson.

Since the First district furnishes a large part of the Democratic votes it is but a fair deal that it should share in the patronage and more, a distribution of nominees and men locally interested will assist in polling the entire strength of the party at November election.

Ballard county appeals to the entire Democracy of the First Congressional district to stand with her in this fight for one of her worthy sons.—Ballard Yeoman. Advertisement.

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

MCCHESNEY AT HOME.

H. V. McChesney returned last night from a strenuous week on the stump to spend Sunday with his family. He made fourteen speeches during the week and was enthusiastic over the progress of his campaign. He said each week since he started over the State, the crowds where he has spoken have increased in size and the interest has grown.

He spoke yesterday at Williamstown and Dry Ridge. At the county seat of Grant he was introduced to a crowd that filled the Circuit Court room by the Rev. G. P. Simmons, pastor of the Christian church. The opera house at Dry Ridge was packed when he arrived there and was introduced by B. N. Harrison. His reception in both places, he said, was gratifying.

Mr. McChesney will go out to the First district Monday and after a speech at Murray, Calloway county, he will make a whirlwind campaign over Graves. Both Calloway and Graves are big counties with an immense Democratic vote—State Journal Frankfort, Ky.

Look Into The Records And Habits Of The Candidates.

The liquor interests of Kentucky claim to be in favor of the county unit laws of Kentucky because they know the State is overwhelmingly dry and that the people are itching for a chance to vote that way. Also, because the present laws permit them to ship liquor into the dry counties. No temperance man should allow himself to be fooled into voting for the candidates of the liquor interests because they claim to be for the county unit. Before you make up your mind in the Governor's race look carefully into the records and habits of all the candidates and find who the liquor people are supporting.—Big Sandy News.

SOME REASONS

Why V. O. Gilbert Should Be Elected State Supt., of Schools.

1st. Because he is now, and has been for 25 years an honest, earnest worker in the public schools of the State.

2nd. He has served as a county school teacher, as county superintendent, as city superintendent and for more than six years as a member of the faculty of the Western Normal School, and will have four years experience as assistant State Superintendent at the end of the present term.

In all of these places he has made good, and these years of experience has equipped him for the duties of this responsible office.

3rd. He is intensely Democratic believing only in the aristocracy of merit.

4th. He is sincerely sympathetic, because his experience has taught him the trials and difficulties of the student, the teacher and county and city superintendent. No further appreciation of this fact can be shown than the hearty, voluntary support that is coming to him from his former students and scores of county and city superintendents.

5th. He is a constructive organizer, and an able executive, as is evidenced by his success in all the various positions he has held.

6th. He is really anxious to render a service, and considers offices public trusts and all public officials servants of the people.

7th. His private life is without a blot, and worthy of imitation by every boy and girl in the State, whom he hopes to serve.

WHO'S GOING TO PAY?

Kentucky's State Debt is Now $2,355,167.00—
State-Wide Prohibition Will Deprive the State of $700,000.00 a Year—Where Will It Come
From?—Political Office Seekers Care Not
For State Debts—They Are After the Jobs

A little more than a year ago the County Unit Law was enacted, as the definite policy of both the Democratic and Republican parties in Kentucky. Under its provisions 106 counties now have prohibition as fully as they could have under State-wide prohibition. As a political issue the liquor question was thought to be settled. As a moral issue it was settled in accordance with the wishes of temperance people all over the State. Each county can vote out saloons when the people living in them want to do so.

Some politicians, desiring an exciting issue to aid them in obtaining control of the business and political affairs of the State, resurrected the liquor question, and proclaimed State-wide prohibition the paramount issue. Indirectly, therefore, the question will be voted upon at the primary, to be held August 7, because one of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor has made that issue a fundamental part of his political program.

It is well that the voters know and consider some of the facts that vitally affect the welfare of the state, and of themselves as citizens and taxpayers, before voting to tear up our economic system. Many ridiculous and false statements have been made by political prohibitionists, calculated and intended to deceive the voters. But here are facts that no truthful man can deny:

CONDITION OF THE STATE
TREASURY

On June 30th, 1915, one month ago, the condition of the State finances was as follows:

Outstanding interest bearing warrants $3,209,589.00
Cash in treasury 854,422.00
Leaving a deficit, or debt, bearing interest 2,355,167.00

The interest on this debt at 5 per cent is $117,758 a year. The debt is growing larger all the time. Both principal and interest are becoming an increasing burden upon the taxpayers.

REVENUES

The entire amount of revenue paid annually by all forms of the liquor business to the State treasury, to the counties and to the cities and towns of Kentucky, is as follows:

State revenue $700,000.00
Revenue to the city of Louisville 631,000.00
Revenue to cities and towns other than Louisville 414,000.00
Revenue to counties from application of the county tax 200,000.00
$1,945,000.00

While only $700,000 of the nearly $2,000,000 derived from the liquor business is paid directly to the State treasury, yet the $1,245,000 paid to the cities, towns and counties of the State are of great financial assistance to them, and in this way undoubtedly promotes the prosperity of the State.

To say nothing of the revenues to cities and counties, if the $700,000 paid by the liquor business direct to the State treasury be thrown away, as will be the case if State-wide prohibition is adopted, the State deficit, or debt, must at once be increased by that amount, making it over $3,000,000 the first year, and this state debt must continue to increase at the rate of more than a million dollars a year unless til other property in the State is taxed sufficiently to pay off the huge accumulated debt and also provide the additional revenue necessary to make up the constant loss and bear at the same time the current running expenses of the State government. Nothing is plainer than that.

No kind of sophistry or soft-sapistry can fool intelligent people in regard to these facts.

FALSE STATEMENTS ANSWERED.

It has been claimed by the political state-widlers that state-wide prohibition will save the people money by reducing crime, pauperism, and insanity, thereby reducing the cost of criminal prosecutions. Facts and authentic statistics utterly disprove these statements. They point to Kansas as a shining example of prohibition. The following facts, taken from government statistics, prove conclusively that Kansas is not the state-wide paradise it is claimed to be:

Number of PRISONERS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 90.94
Nine license states (average) 73.54
Number of PAUPERS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 43.49
Nine license states (average) 25.42
(These nine states are all agricultural states similar to Kansas.)
Number of INSANE PERSONS per 100,000 population:
Kansas 172.3
Seventeen license states (average) 124.3
Number of DIVORCES per 100,000 population:
Kansas 286
Thirty-one license states (average) 183.5
Number of DIVORCES granted to wives for cruelty per 100,000 population:
Kansas 24.3
Twenty-four license states (average) 14.1

The relative number of savings accounts is often quoted as a basis of comparison as to the prosperity of different states. The report of the Comptroller of the Currency shows that on June 4, 1913, Kansas had 1448 savings depositories for each 100,000 population. Twenty-seven license states had an average of 9,260 savings depositories per 100,000 population. These twenty-seven states are agricultural states similar to Kansas. So Kansas shows no better than other states in that respect.

DEATH RATE AND DRUNKENNESS.

A few comparative figures from other states may be interesting. North Carolina and Maine, "dry" states, show respectively a death rate of 47.3 and 15.3 per 100,000 population. Ninety-five per cent of the product of Kentucky distillers is shipped out of the state, bringing into our business life a constant stream of foreign money.

Practical men, knowing that nothing can be gained for temperance, morality or economy, are determined to stand by the present system of local, county self government, and not destroy or drive from the state the countless millions of tax-paying capital and property that now constitutes one of the state's chief industrial assets. To encourage a policy of confiscation and destruction of state revenues, by nominating candidates pledged to such a program, means to the taxpayer nothing more nor less than the following necessary shifting of the tax burden:

- (1) IF FARM LANDS PAY IT, THE TAX ON FARMS MUST BE INCREASED 50 PER CENT.
- (2) IF LIVE STOCK HAS TO PAY IT, THAT CLASS OF PROPERTY MUST BE TAXED THREE TIMES WHAT IT IS AT PRESENT.
- (3) IF THE MERCHANTS OF THE STATE WERE TO PAY IT THEIR TAXES MUST BE FIVE TIMES WHAT THEY ARE NOW.
- (4) IF RAILROADS ARE TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE DOUBLED.
- (5) IF MINING PROPERTY IS REQUIRED TO PAY IT, THEIR ASSESSMENT MUST BE MORE THAN 100 TIMES WHAT IT IS NOW.

No one class of property owners will have to bear all this burden of taxation, but it must fall upon each and every taxpayer in the state with more or less severity. Will it pay to listen to the demand of office seeking politicians, who themselves pay little or none of the taxes, but who simply want fat offices, and are using the state-wide prohibition issue as a false campaign cry to get votes for their own advancement and personal profit?—Adv.

A Straight Primary.

Stanley is against State-wide; McChesney is for it, and the Democrats of Kentucky will make known their decision in a free primary on August 7—not in a packed and liquor controlled convention such as the Republicans pulled off at Lexington. Every Democrat will have a voice in the matter—not just one-sixtieth of them as the Republicans did.

We wish again to emphasize the fact that Democrats should keep their eyes open this fall. It is easy to see which way the wind is blowing. Stanley is being backed in the primary by the liquor interests of Kentucky, and he may be sincere in believing that he would receive the support of this powerful organization in the fall election. But Stanley will not get the support of that organization, even if nominated. The liquor interests have come to realize that the Democratic party is the party of the people and that they cannot control it, therefore, they have decided to give the Democratic party the go-by. They want Stanley nominated on the teen license states show a smaller death rate, the average being 12.9 per cent. Memphis, "dry," afforded in 1912 the distressing spectacle of 64 murders per 100,000 population; Milwaukee, "wet," had only 4. Atlanta, "dry," in 1912, had 39 murders per 100,000 population; Philadelphia, "wet," had 2; Chicago, "wet," 9; Topeka, "dry," 3; in 1910, 1 arrest for drunkenness for every 64 residents; Cincinnati, "wet," 1 for every 267 residents.

The prohibition state of Maine is constantly referred to as a shining example of the results of state-wide prohibition. In Portland, their chief city, the arrests for drunkenness increased from 1,567, in 1901, to 4,533, in 1912. During that time the population increased 16 per cent, while the arrests for drunkenness increased 300 per cent. So far as Portland is concerned prohibition does not seem to prohibit.

OUR NEIGHBOR STATES.

Right at our doors, Tennessee, with a $12,000,000 state debt, and state-wide prohibition, has had an increase of acts of criminal prosecutions in six years of more than double what it was under the local option license system. The financial condition of Nashville, the capital city, is such that its bankrupt affairs may have to be placed in the hands of a receiver.

It is known to all men that West Virginia, which has had state-wide prohibition for only one year, is practically paralyzed financially for want of money to pay the current expenses of the state. During the same time the number of prisoners in the Charleston jail, in the capital city of the state, increased from 29, on May 1, 1914, to 92, on May 1, 1915. This, too, disproves that state prohibition saves costs of criminal prosecutions.

B SIDES THE ABOVE FACTS, THE THOUGHTFUL MEN MUST NOT FORGET THAT STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION WILL WIPE OUT $5,500,000 PAID ANNUALLY BY KENTUCKY DISTILLERS FOR GRAIN; THAT $2,200,000 PAID ANNUALLY AS WAGES WILL CEASE TO BE PAID; THAT $2,400,000 NOW PAID ANNUALLY FOR COAL AND BARRELS WILL NO LONGER BE EXPENDED; THAT THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION DOLLARS ANNUALLY PAID IN INTEREST BY DISTILLERS AND CREWERS TO KENTUCKY BANKS WOULD NO LONGER BE ADDED TO THEIR EARNINGS, AND THAT $60,000,000 BROUGHT INTO KENTUCKY ANNUALLY FROM OUTSIDE THE STATE WILL CEASE TO FLOW INTO OUR BUSINESS CHANNELS.

Ninety-five per cent of the product of Kentucky distillers is shipped out of the state, bringing into our business life a constant stream of foreign money.

Practical men, knowing that nothing can be gained for temperance, morality or economy, are determined to stand by the present system of local, county self government, and not destroy or drive from the state the countless millions of tax-paying capital and property that now constitutes one of the state's chief industrial assets.
