Temperance Vote in County District and Mountains Will More Than double for Liquor A No Man Who Drinks Bad—Election of Last Few Years Proves This

The reason that the district in the Southern Mountains of our county is divided so sharply between the advocates of Prohibition and the Dry League is due to the consciousness of the people of the area that liquor is a menace to the wellbeing of the community and to the safety of the individual. The dry counties have been able to maintain a strong home front and to prevent the spread of the evil in their communities. The wet counties, on the other hand, have been torn by the conflict and have been unable to maintain a united front. The outcome of the election will depend on the strength of the vote for the dry candidates and on the success of thedry campaign.

McChesney's Man and his wife

The couple was married in the small country church near the town where they had grown up. The ceremony was simple and intimate, with only their family and a few close friends present. The bride wore a white dress and the groom wore a suit that matched her. The wedding was followed by a reception at their home, where they served a traditional Southern meal. The couple then spent their honeymoon at a cabin in the mountains, where they enjoyed the beautiful scenery and the fresh mountain air.

The Country School, started by some fine people to save the lives of the school children along the roads, has made the people mighty happy. It is a splendid idea and it is a pleasure to see the flags flying and the children marching in a line as if they were going to a Sunday School meeting. The Country School is a great success and it has been going on for several weeks. The children are all very happy and they are doing a splendid job.

people who really know you, have a good name, are also shooting in the back. Nothing has really been said as yet, but I can assure you that this is true. The next day the two of us were in the store and the man who had been shooting was there. He said that he was in trouble and that he needed my help. I told him that I would do what I could, but that I could not guarantee anything. He left and I never heard from him again.

Complimentary Notice.

From a dated copy of the “Great Western Standard” of Barbara- ton, January 30, 1876, we reproduce the following summarization of one of our local sawmills:

The sawmill in question is located in the town of Barrie, Ontario, and is operated by Mr. John R. Miller. The mill is equipped with the latest machinery and is capable of producing high-quality lumber. The management is keenly interested in the quality of their product and is always striving to improve upon it. They welcome the opportunity to serve the community and look forward to a prosperous year ahead.

The price of lumber has remained stable in recent months, and the mill is currently offering competitive rates to local builders and contractors. We encourage our readers to take advantage of this opportunity and support their local businesses.

Readers are reminded to follow the local bylaws and regulations regarding the use of wood and lumber. Failure to comply may result in fines and penalties.

The mill is open Monday to Saturday from 7:00 AM to 5:00 PM. We welcome visitors to come and see our facility and learn more about our operations. We are always happy to answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for choosing Barrie Sawmill.

The writer has heard many, many stories about the people and events that are happening in the area. We have seen many pictures of the people and places that are so dear to our hearts. But, I will not dwell on the details of this story, but I will say that it is true. We are proud of our community and the people who live here.

The story of J. W. Blue is one that we will never forget. We will always remember the courage and dedication that he showed, and the sacrifices that he made.

J. W. Blue was a true friend and mentor to all of us. He will be missed by many, but we will carry on his legacy and continue to honor his memory.

Thank you, J. W. Blue. You will always be remembered.

In Race for Nomination for State Treasurer.

In August Primary Election.

If there is one contest in the approaching Democratic State primary election about which the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky were to agree it is that the Hon. Claude B. Terrell, of Tritleville County, should, and will be nominated for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Terrell has, for many years, worked for the Democrats and his name is known throughout the State.

The Democratic State Committee has given their enthusiastic endorsement to Mr. Terrell and are confident that he will carry the State.

The administration of the State Treasurer's office is a very important one. It is the duty of the Treasurer to hold the State's Treasury in good order and to see that all State funds are properly accounted for. Mr. Terrell is thoroughly experienced in the management of the State's affairs and he is well fitted for the office.

The Terrell campaign is well organized and well financed. He has been able to raise a large amount of money and has already secured a large number of friends.
