For Your Figure

there are many

Gossard Corsets

at $2, $2.50, $3.50, $5, $6.50, $7.50 and to $25

Once you have observed the style, wearing quality, comfort and value of the original Gossard front-lacing corset, your corset problem will be ended forever. It is worn by millions of women, and advocated by thousands of physicians, dressmakers and couturiers. You are invited to see the new models authorized by The H. W. Gossard Co. in their

6th Semi-Annual Proclamation of Authoritative Corset Styles Fall and Winter 1915-16

The importance of being correctly fitted to your new Gossard before selecting your new suits and dresses cannot be emphasized too much.

This importance is fully recognized in this store. Here, thanks to the inherent qualities of the Gossard, and to the great care paid to correct corset fitting, faulty figure lines are improved and good lines are maintained. Nothing is left to the imagination. What the Gossard does for you is at once apparent.

Fall models are not extreme. All are youthful in effect. And in addition to their hygienic and exclusive style features, the new Gossard corsets offer a selection of materials that are at once smart and beautiful.

It will be a pleasure to give you a trial fitting at your convenience. When may we expect you?

HOW WE MAY BE A HELP TO PUBLIC SCHOOL

Live Subject Discussed at Prayer
Service at Methodist Church
Wednesday Evening

1915 TO BE OUR BIGGEST YEAR

1. Teach the pupil the value of an education and don't destroy that teaching by keeping him out of the school for one half a day to do some job of work about the house or run a few errands.
2. Help the truant officer enforce the law. Our courts have decided that a child has a right to all the public school can give, and it is a crime against both child and State to deny him that right.
3. Send your children to school at the beginning of the school term that they may not be embarrassed and handicapped in their effort to keep up with their classes.
4. Regular and punctual attendance. To fail in this is a great drawback to the school and an injustice to the pupil.
5. Help the faculty of the school in the maintenance of discipline. Parents should weigh both sides of any difficulty that may arise between pupil and teacher and refrain from any criticism of the teacher in the presence of the pupil.

6. Exercise of parental authority in the home will be a most wholesome training for the school room. If children are not taught to respect law and authority in the home, they will respect neither the authority of the school room nor the laws of their country.

7. Give the teachers something to push against and let that something be a faithful co-operation upon the part of parents in compelling their children to study their lessons.

8. Encourage your children to be systematic—to form habits of study.

Shield them from dissipation, which disqualify them for their school work.

We have it upon reliable authority that the propensity of some parents to let their children attend cheap shows is most hurtful to the doing of their best work in the school room.

Parents sometimes complain at teachers because their children do not learn, when, in fact, it is the fault of the parent and not the fault of the teacher.

A quotation from "The Advance," clipped from the S. S. Reporter, the official S. S. organ of our state, reads:

"A body of Cleveland men investigated moving picture shows of that city and found 40 per cent of the 290 films examined unfit for children to see; 14 4-10 per cent represented robbery, 13 1-10 per cent murder, 8 2-10 indecent suggestions, 5 8-10 domestic infidelity. Others represented loose ideals of marriage, kidnapping and suicide. They also found that 21 per cent of the evening audiences were under 18 years of age. A chief of police reports that many criminals who come under his charge confess that their fall came as a result of reading exciting tales of crime. This is unquestionably true. Others trace their fall to pictures representing scenes of violence or to theatrical performances representing strife, robbery or licentiousness."

9. Don't make your children afraid of their teacher. Don't threaten them with their teacher. The authority that parents should exercise and the training that the home should supply can not be transferred to the teachers of the Public School.

Old Cemetery Fund Committee- man Addresses Those Interested

Whereas I have been appointed as one of your committee to look after the Old Cemetery at Marion, Ky. We find it in a very bad condition, the fence is nearly all down and stock is running over the graves, and breaking down some of the tombstones, so the committee has thought best to put a new wire fence around the entire cemetery, on the line of cemetery and to make it beautiful.

We hope to be able to make it a cemetery that Marion will be proud of when work is done, and those that contribute of their money for this purpose will be glad to see it when completed.

Don't think we will misuse your money, not a penny will be used only for the beautifying your loved ones resting place.

This being true are you not interested enough in your old home and town cemetery to help us liberally in this work?

Whereas I was appointed as solicitor and receiver, as you know it will be impossible for me to see you all, that will want to contribute to this noble work, I take this opportunity, through the Crittenden Record-Press that you might be able to see and help in a great cause. Also remember that the Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Your Bro.,
J. T. TERRY.

An Apple a Year Old Gets Trip to State Fair.

R. I. Nunn sent to the Ky. State Fair for exhibition an apple of the wine sap variety purchased last fall from J. M. Dean of the Oak Hall community it being one of a number of bushels which Mr. Nunn put up for winter use. The apple is considerably over a year old and was in a perfect state of preservation, and is probably the oldest apple in the Commonwealth.

MEMORY'S STORE-ROOM.

 In memory's dusty attic,
 Where now I never stray,
 'Midst rafters hanging cobwebs
 I've stored my dreams away,
 Who knows about the treasures
 That lie forgotten there,
 Where lurks the gay intruder,
 Who lingers on the stair?
 They are so few, my treasures—
 A baby's half-worn shoe,
 A battered silver locket,
 A doll no longer new.
 But should I stir the cobwebs
 That help me to forget,
 My heart would leap with memories
 And, knowing, feel regret,
 And so in memory's attic—
 Not in a fairer room—
 I store my dearest treasures
 To live in dust and gloom.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headache, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrient gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

My back always ached more intensely at night and in the morning, I felt very lame. I tired easily, was languid and nervous and had headaches. KENTUCKY, ATTENTION!

"There is no greater patriot—not even the soldier on the battlefield—than the man who battles with the stubborn soil and makes it yield for the support of the nation." We have in Kentucky a power of dominion in our resources that will make the power that comes with strategy, brute force and armament insignificant. If we know what we have and use it wisely, we will make others dependent upon us.

The stomach is the center of the body from which radiates our vitality, strenuousness, our fighting strength. A healthy stomach turns the food we eat into nourishment for the blood stream and the nervous system. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery refreshes and tones up the stomach walls. Removes the poisonous gases from the system.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the liver, bowels and kidneys.

Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day at any medicine dealer's; it is a powerful blood purifier and tonic. Depend upon this grand remedy to give you the kind of blood that makes the skin clear, the mind alert, the vision keener and puts ambition and energy into the entire body. Contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Its ingredients are made public and printed on wrapper. It's a pure alternative extract made with glycerine from native roots and herbs.

Sold by medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial box of tablets.

DIVINE JUDGMENT THEN DIVINE MERCY

God's Plan For Human Deliverance Not Yet Completed.

Divine Law of Retribution—Man's First Judgment Day—Death Sentence Against the Race—Redemption Through Another's Death—A New Trial For Mankind—Second Trial Individual, Not Racial—To Last a Thousand Years—Outcome Glorious.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Portland, Me., August 1.—Pastor Russell gave a very interesting discourse here to-day on the text, "Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world?"—1 Corinthians 6:2.

The speaker averred that the Bible clearly teaches that to some extent national judgments and punishments have progressed for centuries, but that individual reckonings with Divine Justice are for the future—except as violations of Nature's laws continually bring retribution. God does not ignore sin. For six thousand years He has punished the world daily. The penalty specified in the Bible is death; and our race is dying at the rate of one hundred thousand every twenty-four hours. Sickness, sorrow and pain are all parts of the dying process.

This penalty is not graded according to moral differences amongst men. Divine Justice merely decided that Adam had forfeited his life, and that none of his children could be born under conditions satisfactory to God. Adam's death sentence passed by heredity upon his children, irrespective of their degrees of sinfulness. Justice took no note of the method of their dying, but merely of the fact that they must die. Similarly, human laws provide certain penalties for certain crimes, irrespective of the different conditions of the culprits. God could have allowed the race to perish under that death sentence. Then there would have been neither future life nor future judgments for them; for death is the extreme penalty of Divine Law. But He purposed something better than annihilation for humanity. He purposed their redemption from death.

The first step in this redemptive work was Jesus' death as a corresponding price for Adam, the original sinner, through whom death came upon mankind. This redemptive work was not with a view to saving people from a fiery Hell of eternal torture; for there is no such place, according to Scripture. Jesus' death was to get mankind out of the Bible Hell—the tomb—the death state—Sheol, Hades. To bring Adam and his race back from the tomb signifies their resurrection. The theory that nobody is dead—that those who die merely change their form and live more fully—is in direct conflict with the Bible. Christ died to recover mankind from death—to make possible their resurrection.—Romans 6:23; Ezekiel 18:4; 1 Corinthians 15:21-23.

Another Day of Judgment.
The Pastor then discussed the coming Judgment Day. It will not be a time of punishment for Adam's sin; mankind have already been punished for this in the dying processes. Nor will the coming Judgment punish Adam's race because of their inherited weaknesses; those were all included in Christ's redemptive work. The Judgment Day signifies merely another trial for Adam and his posterity, different from the first trial in that it will be individual, not racial.

Up to the time of Christ, God merely left mankind under the death penalty without any suggestion that well-doing or ill-doing would have any bearing upon their future. The only exception to this rule was the little nation of Israel, Abraham's family. To Abraham came the first declaration of God's Purpose. (Galatians 3:8, 16, 29.) He was informed that God purposed another Judgment Day, in which Abraham's Offspring would be the great Judge, to bless all mankind.

Another feature of the Divine Plan made it expedient for God to reveal certain parts of His Program. He desired to select two classes from amongst mankind before He began the work of human uplift. In His dealings with Abraham's posterity, He found amongst them some faithful characters, suitable to His future purposes. These and other Ancient Worthies are referred to in Hebrews 11.

Selecting Judges For the World.
The speaker further explained that during the Gospel Age God has been selecting another class, spirit-begotten ones, to be perfected on the spirit plane, made like their Redeemer. While the Ancient Worthies will be God's earthly representatives, samples of human perfection during the world's Judgment Day, the Judges will be Christ and the Church. To these God purposes to turn over the whole world of mankind, living and dead. Messiah will be backed by Divine Power in His work of rescuing humanity from their fallen condition.

For a thousand years the world's judgment will progress. Satan will be bound; evil will then be restrained. The reward to well-doers will be gradual growth in knowledge, in grace, in mental, moral and physical strength. The punishment to evil-doers will be a cutting off from life—the Second Death.

LOYD'S BRAIN LEAKS.

By F. S. LOYD:

Phil Deboe says when you hear a man bragging that he never made a mistake in his life you can bet he isn't a married man.

Ed Baker says if some of the June brides had to do it all over again they would select April 1st as a more appropriate wedding date than June 1.

Albert Elder says why shouldn't a man spend his evenings at home for the next few weeks when he can have such a good time taking up and putting down carpets with his wife.

George Crider says there is not much difference between the man who hasn't any brains and the man who doesn't know how to use what little he has.

Ed Baker says talk about married life making a man bald, why ten years after the happy day the bride who could plait her hair and sit on the ends of the plaits is going around the kitchen with her crowning glory done up into a little knot about the size of a 5-cent baseball.

Tom Jones says to Miss Mattie Smith: "Are we still supposed to be engaged?" "O, yes, Tommie, all engagements made in the summer are understood to continue in force until after Christmas."

Ed Baker says: The woman who hasn't any does more worrying over her complexion than the woman who has one.

Uncle George Stallions said to Uncle Billie Lloyd: "Why what in the world has become of your watch? The one you used to have had a handsome silver case."

"I know it did, but circumstances alter cases."

Albert Elder says: The only thing I know about Higher Criticism is that my wife often bawls me out until I feel about as low-down as a bed-bug bug.

Uncle Guss Bentley says: If men would work as much as they talk we would all have money.

Sam Watson says: "When I remember that there are nearly 2,000,000 people in the world, I wonder why trouble happens to pick me out and make me a Goat."

Uncle Dock Green says we are all inclined to be very careful when it's too late.

Sam Howerton says you can whitewash a man's character but if he doesn't look out the black will weave through every now and then.

Albert Elder says: The girl who can afford silk stockings isn't going to sign any petitions demanding that the car steps be lowered.

HIGH GRADE SILOS
Made of Long Leaf Pine and Oregon Fir

A Few Reasons Why You Should Buy a "Louisville" Silo

- 1 Because it is easy to erect.
- 2 Because we guarantee every part of it.
- 3 Because our silo is second to none on the market.
- 4 Because it is a silo on which each and every feature has been tested and is not an experiment.
- 5 Because all our doors are made of California red-wood, which shrinks and swells less than any wood on the market.
- 6 Because our doors are easy to remove and replace, and cannot stick or bind.
- 7 Because we own our own patents, and do not have to pay any royalty, thus saving the farmer from $15.00 to $25.00 on his silo.
- 8 Because the hoops can be adjusted from the ladder front of frame without the necessity of climbing all around the silo on a ladder.
- 9 Because we are in the silo trust.

The Louisville Silo is the Farmer's Bank.

Old Friends Meet at Jolly Dinner Party.

Mrs. J. D. Threlkeld entertained at a Noonday luncheon Saturday in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Browning of Smithland who was her guest. Among those present were: Mesdames R. H. and D. Woods, Harriet Donakey and R. N. Foster. A pleasant day was spent which was in the nature of a reunion of old friends, as Mrs. Donakey and Mrs. Browning were when girls school mates of Mrs. Havana Woods, and attended the "Old Science Hill Academy" at Eddyville which in anti-bellum days was presided over by Prof. Perkins, afterward a well-known minister of the Old Presbyterian church in this city.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom and mercy, has taken from us our beloved sister and co-worker, Mrs. Finie Griffith.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Woman's Missionary Society of Siloam Methodist church that, in her death we have suffered an irreparable loss; the community and church a faithful christian worker, the husband a devoted wife, the children a loving mother.

Second: That we deeply sympathize with the family in their great bereavement, and commend them to the loving care of our Father, who doeth all things well.

It is hard to give her up, but we know that our loss is her gain. Let us try to be more faithful and do more for the work she was so interested in. Let us be brave and true to God and follow the example that she set before us in the beautiful life that she lived.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. A. P. Love,
Mrs. Dancie Donakey,
Mrs. Maggie Love,
Mrs. Lillie Flanary,
Committee.

THE OLD CEMETERY FUND

S. Hodge, of Princeton, First Non-Resident to Respond.

Princeton, Ky.,
Sept. 15, 1915.
Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.
Dear Sir:

In answer to yours of the 11th, inst., I enclose you a check for two dollars to be added to the Old Cemetery Fund. Cannot do more now as I am 81 years of age.

Yours truly,
S. Hodge.

The editor is proud to report the above from an octogenarian, a resident of Princeton, but formerly of Marion.

The second response came from Mrs. W. R. Short, formerly Miss Ida Fowler, a daughter of the late Gus Fowler, and a granddaughter of Dr. Leigh, whose remains are buried in the old cemetery and whose grave is marked by a beautiful marble shaft.

Mrs. Short now resides on one of the fashionable avenues in the most select residential part of St. Louis and is a wife and mother whose ancestors Marion is proud to claim as former residents. Her letter follows:

5635 Cabanne Ave.,
St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Mr. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.,

Enclosed find check for $5.00, which it gives me great pleasure to send and you can count on me for this amount yearly, toward keeping up the Old Cemetery.

Very truly,
Mrs. W. R. Short.

The third response from non-residents came from big hearted Rufe Stinson, whom everybody, most, here remembers and loves. Rufe is a Marion product and is proud to tell everyone he was bred in old Kentucky.

Carmi, Ill.,
Sept. 15th., 1915.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.,

Dear Marshall:

Enclosed please find check for $15.00 for the old cemetery fund. Will be glad to contribute each year for the up keep of this cemetery. Am very sorry indeed to read in the "Press" the deaths of Mrs. Crider and Mrs. Griffith.

Your Friend,
Rufus Stinson.

Birthday Dinner.

Quite an enjoyable affair was the surprise birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butler Sunday Sept., 5th., 1915, that being the date of Mr. Butler's 60th., birthday.

The day dawned bright and fair as if nature had intended it for just such an occasion and at an early hour the children of the above named happy pair began to arrive until all were present except one, Mrs. Allie Summers, of Texas, each bringing a well filled basket of all the good things to eat.

The children present were Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Butler and little son James Albert, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Butler and daughter, Laura, of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Butler and son, Henry Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler; Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Waddell, of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Ryan and son, Carter; there being eighteen present.

After all had arrived the sumptuous repast was partaken of and the afternoon spent in pleasant conversation and music.

One regret of all was the absence of Mrs. Butler's mother, Mrs. Susan Glenn, of Marion, she being away visiting.

Each left wishing they might meet each year for many years to come on just such a pleasant occasion.

W. H. Cardin an octogenarian of the View section was here Monday and renewed his subscription to the Crittenden Record Press for the 35th, time. Mr. Cardin is not in the best of health. He is one of the County's best men.

GLENDALE

It was with great sorrow that the news of the death of Mrs. T. E. Griffith rapidly spread over this neighborhood last week. She was well known in the neighborhood before her marriage as she taught school at this place. She with her husband have lived at the Griffith homestead on the bluff for 43 years. Try to imagine how one that has been in the one home for so long will be missed. Eye cannot scan anything in the home but that it is a reminder of one gone forever. O, the many many heart aches that time must heal. It has been "Tom and Finie" a long time, one neighbor remarked. While hearts are grief stricken here she no doubt is greeting loved ones on the other shore. May God bless the family and the entire connection.

A Time for Common Sense.

The comparatively modest plans for army and navy increase which Mr. Taft puts forth involve an added expenditure of $150,000,000 a year, making the total annual cost of the army and navy in excess of $400,000,000.

The greatest revenue ever produced by the Aldrich-Payne tariff was only $300,000,000. To carry out Mr. Taft's suggestions would involve the expenditure on the military establishment of the United States of all the revenue that could be raised by the highest tariff the country ever imposed, plus all the receipts from the present income tax, plus all the receipts from the corporation tax.

Yet Mr. Taft is one of the conservatives in the way of military preparedness. In the minds of the war-scare lobbyists, he can be little better than a pacifist. The program that he proposes would make the total war expenditures of the United States—past and wars to come—greater than any nation ever bore in time of peace. The program that the war-scare lobby proposes would bankrupt the United States treasury. No government could raise the revenue to support the kind of military establishment it demands except at the point of a bayonet. The impudent insistence of this lobby increases from day to day, and its operations by the time congress meets are not likely to fall short of a national scandal.—World.

Sailing Vessels Coming Into Us.

Liverpool, Eng.—The demand for steamships for Government purposes has forced the shipping trade back on the long rejected sailing vessel. Many of these which were chartered when steamer rates were at their highest, are now arriving at British ports. The Mersey river is full of tapering spars and rigging not seen for about fifty years. The Asia, just arrived, was built fifty years ago, the Staut is 45 years of age, the Erbrin, under the Norwegian flag, just in from Gulf ports, making the journey in 35 days is 28 years old, while several others range from 29 to 38 years.

The Law of the Road.

"When a vehicle is overtaken by another vehicle, the driver of which desires to pass the other, the driver of the former, upon being informed of such desire, should bear to the right, and the driver of the latter to the left, until the latter shall have passed. Any driver failing to do so shall be fined ten ($10) dollars."—(Section 61, State Road Law.)

This section of the road law may be invoked against drivers who imagine that making way for the driver of the faster vehicle is a matter of courtesy and that those who have no inclination toward courtesy need not be courteous.

Geese Wear Tar Boots.

Petrograd.—Vilna, the Russian city which has figured extensively in the operations of the retreating armies from the Warsaw district, is probably the only place in the world where geese are shod.

The Vilna district is celebrated for producing geese, which are sold by thousands in distant markets. In normal times, great flocks are driven by the goose-herds to the famous goose-fair or market at Warsaw, 200 miles distant. To prevent the birds getting footsore on the long journey, they are made during the late autumn to walk through tar, and then through fine sand. The geese are thus provided with a perfect fitting pair of boots, in which they can comfortably make the long tramp to market.

Kipling Praises French

Women and Cannon.

London.—Rudyard Kipling, who has just returned from the Western fighting front, pays a tribute to the glorious bravery of the French women, who, he says in the Daily Tribune, virtually "love a war."

The trenches, he says, are built and drained as if France realized the war was to continue for five years, and the army is made up of hard fighting men, full of health and vitality, whom he saw on parade. But it is on the "75" he rhapsodizes, declaring its work beautiful and its breech mechanism a dream of simplicity and efficiency.

Persian City is Taken by British.

London, Sept. 14.—Because of the killing of two British officers near Bushire, Persia, and the Persian government's failure to punish the tribal chiefs concerned, who, it is declared, were assisted by Germans, Bushire, a city of upward of 15,000 population on the Persian gulf, was occupied by the British without opposition August 8, according to advices of Reuters.

Conditions in Persia are going from bad to worse, the advices add. The Persian central telegraph line has been cut since August 15 and the road from Bushire is completely blocked. The gendarmerie, it is declared, are unpaid and dissatisfied, and fighting is reported among the tribes outside of Kashan, between Teheran and Ispahan.

Since the attack on the British consul at Ispahan last month a critical situation has arisen, according to the advices and steps to be taken in connection among the entente powers.

Where War is Unknown.

There is one place in the world which has probably not yet heard of the war. This is the British Island of Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic. The secretary to the British Postmaster General recently stating that the island has not received a mail since the outbreak of hostilities. The island is dependent on chance communications from the Cape of Good Hope, 1,500 miles away. The inhabitants number about eighty, and are mainly descendants of ship-wrecked sailors. They are of mixed origin—English, Scotch, Irish, American, Dutch, Italian, Asiatic and negroes.—New York Times.

London.—"All I want is now for the Germans to torpedo the ship and then I may get back my sight," were the farewell words of the Canadian soldier named Chambers, who was returning with other Canadian soldiers to his home, as he was leaving the hospital Thursday to join the Hesperian.

Chambers, as had been related had lost the sight of both eyes through gas fumes at the front but discovered after the explosion that sank the Hesperian that he had regained the sight of one eye. Surgeons had told Chambers that a sudden shock was necessary to restore his sight and it did.

Noted Methodist Divine Dead.

Dr. Gross Alexander, book editor for the Methodist Episcopal church, south, and editor of the Methodist Quarterly Review died suddenly in Los Angeles Monday of apoplexy. Dr. Alexander left Nashville on July 29, going to California, whence he was called by the serious illness of his daughter. He never seemed better physically and never in brighter spirits than upon the eve of his departure.

Dr. Alexander was a very useful man, and was, perhaps, the ripest scholar in the Southern Methodist church. Born in Scotts ville, Ky., June 1, 1852, he was educated in the Louisville university, the Drew Theological seminary in New Jersey and Emory college, Oxford, Ga.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

345 British Munition

Factories Controlled.

London.—David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, announces that 345 establishments have been declared "controlled establishments" under the munitions of war act. As a result of this control the profits of employers are limited. Any excess over such a limit becomes payable to the national exchequer.

"By this provision," says Mr. Lloyd-George, "parliament is assured that sacrifices made by workmen are made for the nation as a whole, and not for the advantage of individuals. On the other hand, during the period of the war, any rules or shop customs which have the effect of limiting the output of munitions are suspended in controlled establishments."

Need Leeches.

Paris.—France needs leeches. Drug stores and hospitals both military and civil have only a small stock left. Large quantities of the gray and green variety were formerly procured from leech breeders in southern Germany and Austria. France now depends upon her colonies in Algeria and Morocco for her supply, where the "Dragon" and "Trout" species of inferior quality are raised.

The Gironde marshes in the south of France were formerly a center of this lucrative industry, but the mobilization of the breeders has caused a great decrease in the supply. The use of leeches has been obviated to a great extent by the treatment given in the many therapeutic institutions, and it is estimated that France will soon have all it requires of these useful medical auxiliaries.

Away Out In The Country.

Away out in the country, where there is no ceaseless roar Where it's eight miles to the railroad and it's three miles to the store.

There is hope and there is pleasure and perhaps some maiden there.

Has contrived to make somebody think her fairest of the fair.

Away out in the country, where the fragrant lilies blow

There are people who have never seen a moving picture show; But they may not need your pity, though the thrills they have are few;

They may go to bed untroubled by such cares as come to you.

Away out in the country where the woods are full of song

And the hens are cackling loudly and few men are going wrong.

There are people who are never filled with fear or discontent When the grocer wants his money or it's time to pay the rent.

Away out in the country, where no mobs disturb the peace There are people who are happy, though their neighbors' gain increase.

There are men and there women who believe life is sweet,

Though they aren't busy spending all, on what they wear and eat.

ASSERTS SHE WAS AFRAID OF SHADOW

Miss Underhill Says Tanlac Has Relieved Her of Nervousness.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 15.—"I was so nervous I actually was afraid of my shadow," Miss Christian Underhill, assistant manager of the soda fountain at the Herman Straus Company's store, this city, told friends recently when relating her experience with Tanlac, the premier preparation.

"I had all sorts of hallucinations and worried about all kinds of trifles," Miss Underhill continued. "I knew that I was suffering from excessive nervousness and was in a terribly run-down condition. I tried many medicines without being benefited. I decided to try Tanlac. To say I was benefited would be expressing myself in too mild a manner. I was astonished at the result. After taking only a few doses I noticed a marked improvement. My entire nervous system seemed to have undergone a wonderful change. My sleep became restful and refreshing and my appetite reappeared."

"Really," she laughingly added, "I ate so ravenously that I was afraid my board bill would be raised."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is now on sale in Marion at J. Orme's drug store; and also at A. T. Brown's, at Blackford. Advertisement.

HOW WE MAY AID OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL.

10. Let the Church hold up before the young the advantages of an education and thereby support the work of the Public School.

11. Let the Public School faculty, Sunday School teachers and pastors hold a monthly council for the purpose of united effort in solving the problems of school life.

12. Destroy the ideal that unless parents made of their sons professional men that their life is a failure. Manual labor is honorable, and an education is essential to any and all vocations of life.

13. Organize a junior civic league to teach the children to help keep our city beautiful, clean and healthful.

14. The school board should show PERSONAL INTEREST in the work of their teachers.

The public school teacher does not receive adequate compensation for services rendered.

A little commendation would soothe the smart and would be a compensation that money could not buy.

15. Pray for the teachers and superintendents, the board of education and the educational interests of our city.

They are trying to make men and women and useful citizens out of our children.

If it is right to pray for Presidents, Governors and officers of the law; if it is right to pray for our country, is it not right and our duty to pray for that which has so much to do with shaping the destiny of our country?

16. Help to develop a healthy school spirit in the community. Our schools are equal to the best and we have a right to be proud of them. Inspire the children with this pride and impress them with the greatness of their opportunity and privilege.

17. Patrons should frequently visit the school, become acquainted with the teacher and see other work of the school. A little personal interest will be most wholesome for both teacher and pupil.

18. Organize a Parent-Teachers League and hold public meetings at the school auditorium.

This league should meet monthly and discuss the needs of the school and the problems of mutual interest to both parents and teachers.

Many difficulties arise out of the lack of understanding one another. Sometimes people dislike others simply because they are not better acquainted.

19. Invite the teachers to your home that they may become better acquainted with the child in its home life, and thereby increase the influence and efficiency of the teacher.

20. Patrons should not be so sparing with their words of commendation. It will encourage both teacher and pupil.

"Words fitly spoken are like apples of gold in pictures of silver."

Don't criticize a few faults when so much good could be found.

It takes an artist to make even a poor picture; most any simpleton can besmear it with mud.

Be a booster and not a knocker—"Knockers never win and winners never knock."

If things are not what they should be, there is a way to remedy them.

We do not advocate a friendship that is blind. The truest friendship does not palliate a wrong nor cover with flattery. Emerson has said, "My truest friend is he who knows what I am capable of and makes me do it," and it is written in God's word, "Faithful are the wounds of a friend."

A Father Who Had to Take His Hat Off to His Son.

In the September American Magazine appears a remarkable article entitled, "Youth Leads the Way," which gives an account of the tremendous recent advances in agriculture which are directly attributable to the work of boys and girls who are members of corn clubs, and other agricultural clubs throughout the United States. In the article appears a brief story of Jerry Moore, of South Carolina, who, at the age of fifteen, became the world champion corn grower. How Jerry's achievement affected another boy is told in the following extract from the article:

"Dr. Bradford Knapp, who succeeded his late father as head of the Farm Demonstration Service, tells another story of a reluctant parent: A freckle-faced South Carolinian of the Young Generation type teased for an acre, to emulate Jerry Moore. But the father thought there was some trick back of Jerry's achievement. He at last consented to allow the boy to grub an acre near a forest, pull the stumps, remove the stones, and work it.

"When the crop was harvested the boy's measured eighty bushels, and the old man's, adjoining measured only eight! Ever since then," says Doctor Knapp, "the old man has been going to farmers' institutes with that boy, sitting on the front seat and saying: 'Look what me and John went and done.' But he is now growing more corn, a boy showing him how."

Marconi Has Uncanny Machine.

New York.—Guglielmo Marconi, to whom humanity is indebted for the wireless telegraph, made it known here that the time is almost here when, if he chooses to give to science the secret of a new apparatus he has invented, it will be possible for persons on one side of a solid partition to observe what is happening in the adjoining room.

The possibilities for evil involved in this amazing invention have made its discoverer reluctant to make it known to the world until he is fully acquainted with all its uncanny qualities, and he admitted today that it might be some time before he would feel justified in giving a demonstration to his fellow-scientists.

The apparatus in its present state resembles a camera. When placed against a wall or floor it renders transparent the material against which it rests, permitting its user to observe objects or persons on the other side.

The information reached Washington through a copy of the letter of the ambassador to his government. Its bearer was an American citizen, Archibald, traveling under an American passport. "By reason of the admitted purpose and intent of Dumba to conspire to cripple legitimate industries of the people of the United States, and by reason of the flagrant violation of diplomatic propriety in employing an American, protected by an American passport, as secret bearer of official dispatches through lines of enemy of Austria-Hungary, the president directs me to inform your excellency that Dumba is no longer acceptable to the government of the United States as the ambassador of his imperial majesty at Washington.

"Believing the Imperial Royal government will realize that the United States has no alternative but to request the recall of Dumba on account of his improper conduct, the government of the United States express its deep regret that this course has become necessary and assures the Imperial Royal government that it sincerely desires to continue the cordial and friendly relations existing between the United States and Austria-Hungary."

This enterprising firm will put in no bill against the committee for this work, it being their donation to the "Old Cemetery fund" which was founded this week and is growing rapidly.

DEATHS

Mr. J. H. Clement who has been very critically ill of typhoid fever for several weeks died at his home on Monroe St. Wednesday evening at 9:25. He leaves a wife, a mother, Mrs. Essie, Clement, of Marion; three brothers, Messrs. Walter, Denzen and Auberdeen; and four sisters, Mrs. Willie Hill and Misses Kattie, Clara and Grace Clement.

His remains will be taken to Marion this afternoon and the funeral be held at Chapel Hill, conducted by Rev. M. E. Morse of here, and Rev. J. W. Thompson, of Marion.

Mr. Clement had not lived in Sturgis long and was employed with the West Ky. Coal Co. From the beginning of his illness his symptoms were serious, every attention was given him by way of the attending physician and nurse, as well as his wife and mother whose devotion was untiring.

The deceased was born in November 1890 which makes him but 25 years old, just beginning really to grasp the full responsibilities of manhood. The greatest sympathy is felt for his loved ones and his untimely going away deeply regretted by all who had the good fortune to know him.—Sturgis News Democrat.

Wm. Stewart aged 77 years died suddenly Monday night near Piney Post Office and his remains were laid to rest at Sugar Grove Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and one son, John who lived on the place. He was a half brother of

J. L. Stewart and sisters of this city and of Gus Stewart and Mrs. Martha Baker of Mo., and of Mrs. J. J. Martin of Sullivan, Ky.

Sarah Belle Travis, aged 29 wife of O. Louis Clark of Repton vicinity died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of child-birth. Mrs. Clark gave birth to a daughter at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and did not rally but passed away a few hours later, the child being born dead. She was married 6 years ago to Mr. Clark on Oct. 23rd next. The funeral was preached at Pleasant Hill by Rev. Hosea Paris and interment at same place.

Commendable Generosity by Leading Monument Firm in This End of the State

Henry & Henry, the marble men have consented to reset all the tomb-stones and markers in the "old cemetery," which have fallen over, and to cement those which have been broken off, and straighten up those which are leaning. This will add much to the appearance of this sacred spot, in which lie buried many pioneers of this vicinity placed there long before Marion was born. This enterprising firm will put in no bill against the committee for this work, it being their donation to the "Old Cemetery fund" which was founded this week and is growing rapidly.
