Progressive Telephone Company

The local telephone exchange is now up to the highest standard of efficiency.

The Marion Home Telephone Exchange is a part of the Central Home Telephone & Telegraph System.

The Exchange has recently provided the citizens of Marion with new equipment which is of the most modern design and manufacture, and, although at a little outlay, it has brought almost a century of good service in keeping with modern business policies. Needed to move into more spacious quarters, a brand new telephone exchange is being designed.

The Edit

Crittenden, Nov. 20 — Mrs. F. M. Cooper and Miss Eliza Lewis, of Crittenden, are reported as being missing. Mrs. Cooper, who has a large family, has not been seen since leaving home on Saturday morning when she left the house to go to the store and has not been seen since.

Leaves

(From the Chicago Tribune, Nov. 20)

The Chicago Tribune, in an editorial, on the subject of the recent storm, states: "The storm which swept the city of Chicago, on Saturday night, has caused much property damage and has left many people homeless. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000. The storm was caused by a cold front which moved in from the north, bringing with it heavy winds and heavy rain. The storm is expected to continue for several days, and further damage is expected."
