HOPKINSVILLE TOBACCO BOARD

Holds Regular Meeting and Passed Resolution to Have Tobacco Restrictions Lightened.

At a regular meeting of the Hopkinsville Tobacco Board of Trade, held Nov. 3rd, 1915, the following resolution was passed, calling upon President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, and the Senators and Congressman of the Export Tobacco District, to take such steps as may be necessary to bring about a modification of the "Order in Council," so that tobacco, a non-contraband agricultural product, may be shipped to neutral countries in Europe without restrictions for re-exportation, in order that tobacco may reach its final destination into Germany and Austria.

WHEREAS: The type of tobacco grown in Western Kentucky and Western Tennessee, known as the "Dark Export Tobacco," has a home demand for only about 25 per cent of said crop, and whereas the remainder of the crop is dependent entirely upon the various European countries for a market, and whereas the countries of Germany and Austria buy and consume annually 32 per cent of all the tobacco grown in Western Kentucky and Tennessee.

And Whereas, the tobacco bought by Germany and Austria are the best types and qualities produced in the Dark Tobacco District, commanding the highest prices, it is absolutely essential to the welfare of the tobacco growers of the several States that they be permitted to continue their tobacco subscriptions have been transactions with the said countries, as the failure to supply them not only leaves a surplus of tobacco so purchased by Germany and Austria being of the highest grade, largely fixed price on all the remaining crop.

And Whereas, the tobacco growers have suffered very materially since the outbreak of European war by reason of interference on the part of Allies in the shipment to many and Austria of tobacco which is a non-contraband agricultural product and cannot be classed or made into food, or munitions of war, and still further handicapped by the reason of the restrictions upon tobacco shipped to neutral countries only upon condition that the said tobacco is not re-exportation, and to be summed wholly within said neutral countries.

NOW THEREFORE, be resolved that we, the members of the Hopkinsville Tobacco Board of Trade, being citizens of United States of America that we are being unjustly, and that farmers and tobacco growers are made to suffer, and do hereby pray the Government for protection earnestly petition President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, and Congress of the United States take such steps as may be necessary to give us immediate relief or the suffering of our tobacco will be intensified during coming winter and spring.

We respectfully submit above petition in our own name and in the name of all farmers and tobacco growers of this entire country, confidently believing our government will protect us.

Death List in Kansas Storm.

Kansas City, Nov. 11.—The number of dead in the wind storm which swept over central Kansas early last night, wrecking hundreds of homes in its course through several towns, remained at eight tonight. Communication with all but a few outlying sections of the stricken district was re-established late today.

Although the damage was greatest in Great Bend, estimated at $500,000, and where a path three blocks wide was cut by the tornado, reports tonight show that Ziba, Kan., a town of 200, was the most thoroughly wrecked of the towns in the storm's course. Every building in Ziba is said to have suffered. Three persons were killed there and several injured. Two were killed in Great Bend.

Great Bend late today began clearing up the debris. A company of the Kansas national guard assisted in pulling down dangerous ruins. The city is without light or water. Hoisington, Kan., was also supplied with the light from the Great Bend electric power plant.

Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 11.—Waucoma, seventy-five miles northwest of here, was struck by a tornado early today. The Catholic church was demolished and the parochial school badly damaged. Scores of residences and other buildings were damaged. The property loss is estimated at nearly $100,000. No one was injured.

Pheasant Pays Chickens A Visit.

On going into the poultry yard Friday afternoon Mrs. Gwendolin Ford Love, of near Sheridan, Ky. was surprised to find a strange bird with brilliant plumage walking proudly among her flock of brown leghorns.

The bird did not show a disposition to fly away, so Mrs. Love called her husband and together they viewed the beautiful creature until their curiosity overcame them and they approached too near, causing the bird to take flight. It flew only a short distance from the yard, alighted, and walked calmly and proudly away. The bird was about 3 feet from beak to end of tail, the tail forming one-half the length. The body was about the size of a leghorn hen, the head and neck were a rich green color, resembling that of a duck with a ring of white feathers at base of neck. The body and tail were copper colored with metallic luster. Its walk was proud and stately. The chickens did not seem frightened at their visitor, but would back away when it approached too near. Mrs. Love consulted an encyclopedia on returning to the house, and found the appearance of the visiting bird and the copper pheasants of Japan to be the same.

Have any hunters, trappers or nature students in Crittenden county any knowledge of this bird? If so let us hear from you. We're interested in this bird.

MORROW WILL NOT CONTINUE

Accepts as Final Election Return Showing Victory of A. O. Stanley by 300.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 16.—The election of former Congressman Augustus Owsley Stanley, of Henderson, democrat, as governor of Kentucky, was conceded in a statement issued tonight by Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, republican gubernatorial candidate in the election of Nov. 16. Mr. Morrow also set at rest the spread rumors that the republican might contest the election of Mr. Stanley before the legislature.

Until tonight republican campaign managers had claimed victory for Mr. Morrow. Returns from the 120 counties of the state showed a plurality for Mr. Stanley of slightly more than 300 votes.

Mr. Morrow's statement, part, was as follows: "After eight days of the closest election the state ever known is at an end. Official count now discloses Stanley's election by a small plurality, and however or by what methods obtained, I shall accept it as final.

"To plunge the state into contest before the legislature would retard its progress, stop its development and create strife and bitterness. The welfare of Kentucky, its people and its material prosperity is above the ambition of any man or the success of any party.

"The next year will see enacted an anti-lobby law, a corrupt practice act to protect the ballot and the public, and a scientific and equitable tax law. And in all the departments of state there will be an awakening and a guard placed over the expenditure of the people's money. Believing I will have been instrumental in procuring these results I feel that I have not labored in vain."

By F. S. LOYD:

Dan Patient says: A man knows many cuss words there are in the vocabulary when he gets his face nicely lathered and then discovers that one of the children have been using his razor to sharpen pencils.

Miss Mattie Smith says: When a girl reads her first letter from a boy she can feel a ring on her finger almost taste her wedding.

Mr. Elder says: A fool single imagines that it takes two to make an argument; but a married man knows better.

Mr. hears funny conversation on the cars. A friend said to Oskar: "Say, Oskar, who is that woman on the other side of the car?"

"That's my wife," replied Oskar. "Why you're not looking." "Don't have to."

Mr. Allie Bug did not go to church last Sunday. She asked her daughter Mandy what was the text for morning. Mandy—It was never said, don't worry, you will get the text. Mother, puzzled when she saw Mr. Oakley asked him for the text at morning and his reply was "And hold the comforter shall come unto you." That settled it.

Women Hoot Men Who Would Dodge Service.

Liverpool, Nov. 17.—Nine hundred Irishmen who intended to sail for New York Saturday on the Cunard Line steamship Saxonia were prevented by the Steamship company from taking passage. The company declined to permit them to sail after there had been several stormy encounters with street crowds, which took the view that able-bodied men should not be permitted to evade liability to military service in this manner. The arrival of the Irishmen in Liverpool drew a crowd outside the steamship offices. Two Irishmen were knocked down by women. Others were set upon and decorated with white feathers.

Ignoring cries of "Cowards!" "Traitors!" and refusing to listen to the appeals of a recruiting sergeant, the Irishmen marched to the dock. When they arrived there the Saxonia's firemen, witnessing the street encounters and catching the spirit of the crowd, informed the steamship company they would not leave with the Saxonia if the Irishmen were permitted to sail.

The company, after a brief meeting, upheld the firemen and refused permission to sail to all British of military age. It was stated in addition that the same course would followed in the future on all Cunard liners, and that it was hoped other lines would follow the same procedure.

Where Women Vote.

Women do not vote in Germany. They do vote in New Zealand and have for years. In Germany two babies out of every 1,000 die under one year of age. In New Zealand less than seventy die under one year. Where is the home best protected—where women can vote or where they can not?—Exchange.

Beyond The Limit.

The knocker traveled to the gates of hell And hammered hard that he might enter in; "Who comes?" said Satan, "Speak up—quickly tell The cause of all this wild, unearthly din."

"Up there on earth they had no use for me," The Knocker said, "and Heaven scorned me, too— And so, friend Satan, I have come to thee, So let me in—my tongue has work to do."

"What is a Knocker?" Satan bent to hear— "In every friend I tried to pick some flaw"

"Go!" shrieked the Devil, "get it out from here— There are some limits even Hell must draw."

Advice Given to Young Couple.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 16.—William Joseph Corboy, of Chicago, and his bride, who was Miss Eileen Mary Dunne, eldest daughter of the governor, left here late yesterday on their honeymoon. It was understood they were going to St. Louis and then go east from there to the secret spot they have chosen. They are to be gone three weeks.

At the executive mansion dancing continued long after the departure of young Mr. and Mrs. Corboy. Miss Mina Dum was being rallied by her friends today because she caught the bride's bouquet.

HOMELY ADVICE BY PRIEST.

Vicar General Timothy Ekey who officiated at the wedding, is a veteran priest with a country-wide reputation for common sense sermons, spiced with shrewdness of Irish wit and delivered with homely eloquence. The good father was at his best with the young folks bowed to his admonition, and to the final words for such occasions held some advice of his own.

"Be patient, both of you he said. 'Have consideration for the other. If you disagree and you are likely to, though you don't now think it possible—don't both try to talk at the same time.' Here the governor laughed out.

"Each of you has contracted an obligation," father Ekey continued. "It is more than ordinary obligation. It involves attention to matters which persons may not think important but which have much to do with happiness.

PARTNERS IN THE HOME.

"The husband must supply the wife with the things that are necessary to sustain life if course. But that is not all. He is a partner in the making of the home. When your work for day is done, the proper place for you is the home. Don't spend your evenings at the club, a rendezvous for bachelors—no substitute for a good home. It's intended only for those who haven't something better."

Gov. Dunne laughed as new son-in-law received his monitions. Mrs. Dunne brushed away a suspicion of a tear as she listened smilingly to the priest's declarations.

Addressing himself to the bride, the monsignor said:

"As the wife, you are obliged to give respect to the wishes of your husband. Know at all times what goes on in your home. Keep a tab on the place from garret to cellar."

COST OF THE WAR

Editor of London Economist Says The British Spend $25,000,000 A Day and Perhaps More.

Leeds, England, Nov. 16.—Francis W. Hirst, editor of the London Economist, speaking here last night on the financial situation, severely criticised military waste. He said that if Great Britain hoped to bring Germany to terms through economic pressure she needed more than anything else wise and courageous financial leadership. Mr. Hirst estimated that while Great Britain was spending £5,000,000 ($25,000,000) on the war daily, Germany was spending £4,000,000 ($20,000,000) and France, Russia and Austria £2,500,000 ($12,500,000) each, and Italy £1,500,000 ($7,500,000).

TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear more forcibly, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, thousands of them right here in Kentucky, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, heals inflammation and ulceration.

A strong, healthy woman instead of a tired and ailing one! Sounds like a miracle, doesn't it? But it isn't. It's only the ordinary, every-day work of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—just the work that it was made for.

It's a woman's medicine, carefully compounded for her by an experienced physician, and adapted to her delicate organism. It makes weak women strong, suffering women well.

GAME AND FISH COMMISSION IS AFTER VIOLATORS OF STATE LAWS

Over Five Hundred Men Convicted For Violations—English Pheasants Liberated By Commission Are Protected For Number of Years

A Kentucky trainer and two of his champion bird dogs.

Frankfort, Ky.—(Special.)—The Game and Fish Commission since the last report has convicted 551 men for violation of the law. They took the chance of beating the wardens. How much better it would have been for them to have taken out their license. They would have had the satisfaction of feeling that they were helping the enforcement of law and contributing to better game conditions and were not cheaters.

The money collected for sale of hunters' license has been, and is being, economically spent for the enforcement of the laws and the restocking of the fields and streams with game and fish.

The Commission is taking this means of again warning the hunters, not only to take out their license, but to always carry them when hunting.

English Pheasants.

The 2,500 English pheasants liberated by the Commission are protected for a number of years, and a warning is hereby given to every one who kills these valuable and costly birds, that if caught, he will be prosecuted. Now, Mr. Hunter, if you see a strange bird do not run your legs off to destroy it, but take every possible means not to injure it yourself, and do not let an opportunity escape you to urge others to do likewise. These pheasants were bought with your money, so see that they are protected until they increase sufficiently to allow shooting.

Conditions in Other States.

In other states where conditions are not so ideal as here they now have pheasants in plenty. It is up to you, Mr. Hunter, to do your part to help the Commission protect them. Get busy. Your wardens will be in the field every day during the hunting season and for a considerable time before, to see that each hunter has his license, and that the "Sooner" is curbed in his selfish desire. Please help the wardens, remembering that they are working for and not against you. We want to enlist the active cooperation of every man in Kentucky who has a hunting license in protecting your own game from the cheater. We want you to realize that it is you who are being cheated by the game hog, the pot hunter and the chap who hunts out of season without a license. Our wardens are doing effective work. However, the state is large and unless the sportsmen and farmers report the infractions of the hunting laws, either to the wardens or to the State Department, some violators are bound to escape.

Hunters Themselves Lose.

What we wish to impress upon the sportsman who takes out his license and obeys the law, is that every violator is cheating him. Those who set about to deplete the game supply unwarrantably, either for gain or through greed, or who hunt out of season, to some extent succeeds in robbing the licensed hunter of the benefits for which he spends his money in purchasing his license. If the sportsmen can get the idea clearly into their minds that the law is for their protection as well as for the protection of the landowner and the conservation of valuable food supply, and that the violators of game regulations is beyond the law, a cheater against whom every man's hand should be raised, it will not be long until we shall again see the fields and forests full of game and Kentucky affording some of the best field sport in the country.

Now, Mr. Hunter, won't you help by setting a good example and spreading the sentiment for obedience to the law wherever you go? Condemn the unlawful hunter and the pot hunter and try to show him the light. If he does not take kindly to your suggestions, report the violation of the law to the wardens in your county and the office of the Commission at Frankfort. Boost the game and thereby make more pleasure for yourself and at the same time increase the value of the license for which you pay. The money you pay for your license is your contribution towards the enforcement of the law and the propagation of game. Get behind your money with your personal influence and conditions are bound to improve.

Lawful to Kill.

Quail, rabbits, squirrels, woodcock, wild duck, wild goose, can be shot from November 15 to January 1.

Unlawful to Ship.

It is unlawful to ship quail, native pheasant, or wild turkey within the State of Kentucky at any time, but these birds, when lawfully killed and in possession of the hunter, may be carried by the hunter, or in the baggage cars, when properly marked. When shipping rabbits, squirrels, or wild ducks, within or without the state, the package should be plainly marked, giving the contents of the package, and the name and address of the consignee as well as that of the consignor.

It is unlawful to ship any game out of the state, or the hides of fur-bearing animals, without clearly marking the package as above directed. To ship unmarked is in violation of the interstate laws, and is punishable in the federal courts by a heavy fine and imprisonment.

Remember that it is unlawful to ship either within or without the state, by freight, express, parcels post, or any common carrier, any quail, native pheasant, or wild turkey.

Now, Mr. Hunter, you will say if approached that you intend to get your license before hunting. It is necessary to purchase your license from the county clerk of the county in which you reside. There will be many hunters in the fields on the opening day, November 15. What would be the condition at your county clerk's office if you waited until November 14 to get your license? There would be congestion. You would stand in line many hours waiting your turn and then possibly go away without it. You had made your arrangements to go hunting early the next morning and would go ahead without your license. Mr. Game Warden would happen along and you would be distressed and embarrassed. Why take a chance?

Paper Shell Pecans.

One of the most beautiful things in nature I know of is a paper shell pecan tree in the yard of Mr. P. C. Wolfe, near Ceredo, this county. The tree is about 30 years of age, the top is about 35 feet in diameter and the trunk is perhaps 25 inches at the stump. In the past 20 years it has produced 19 crops of as fine quality of the famous paper shells as one would find on their native beach in the black belt of Texas. This fine tree brings us the following facts for our farmers with pecan land and careful measurement would allow 70 of these trees to the acre. This tree will show over 200 pounds of pecans to the crop; 70 such trees would bring a yield of 14,000 pounds of this nut, at the low price of 10c per pound it would make a yearly income of $1,400.00 per acre and would grow a good crop of cow pea hay or a fine growth of grass each year.—La Center Advance.

The French advance toward the North is said to be continuing uninterruptedly today, with a British contingent on the right wing.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

HEALTH IS WORTH SAVING, AND MARION PEOPLE KNOW HOW TO SAVE IT.

Many Marion people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mrs. W. H. Kelly, 517 O'Neal St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I suffered from weak kidneys and had sharp pains across the small of my back and in my sides. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a box and was greatly benefited. Since then I have used several boxes and never failed to get relief. Another of the family has also taken them with good results."

Second Baptist Church
Revival Closes.

We closed a very successful meeting at the Second Baptist church Sunday night the 14th, five having found their Lord precious during the meeting.

Rev. R. A. Barnes did the preaching to the delight and instruction of all, he being a teacher of unusual ability.

At the close of the meeting the pastor led six obedient ones into the pool where they were ed their appreciation by contributing $45.12.

Hosea C. Paris, Pastor.

Thursday eve, was a rainy eve,
but when the Bennett wedding party from Marion, Ky., arrived at Cedar Point they found the home of the bride beautifully decorated. The guests in waiting, Dr. O. C. Cook, of Marion, and Mrs. H. H. Peibanks, of Equality Ill., acted as escorts to the bride and groom.

The bride was dressed in white silk and trimmings to match, and she looked very charming as they entered the beautiful parlor, leaning on the arm of the groom.

Elder R. Robinson, of Marion, Ky., in his own pleasant way soon tied the knot with a very impressive ceremony. Soon after ward they were invited out to the dining room, where everything that the appetite could wish awaited the bridal party. Mr.

the youngest daughter of the late Judge Jno. Tyre, started they will be at home to their

A Message To The People
From Edward D. Stone.

A Word To The People:

The next session of the General Assembly will convene on Tuesday after first Monday in January, 1916.

If any of my constituents wish to consult or advise with me in regard to any measure, I would be glad to converse with them, and after January 2nd, I can be found every day of the session at the State Capitol, protecting and defending the interest of the people, holding no party prejudice. But striving for a better welfare of the people, for I am the people's servant, elected by the voters to protect the people as a whole.

I am thankful to the voters of all political belief for their support, faith and confidence. And I will try to the utmost to comply with the expectation of the people. I was informed recently that it was circulated a few days before the election, that I voted for a bill to provide for white and colored children to attend school together. Record shows that such a bill was not introduced. And of course I did not vote for such a Bill. And would not under any consideration. It was also circulated that I came home during the session on a free pass. Record shows that it was a falsehood. My people and friends know that it is untrue.

Now, my friends, if the author of those false statements would only spend a portion of his time in seeking for the truth, instead of trying to mislead the people by false reports, he would earn the salary he is drawing from the public treasury.

I remained every day of that session in the Capitol City at my post, and will be present every day of this session doing my official duty.

Your obedient servant,
Adv. Edward D. Stone.

row and Treadway. The election of Treadway for representative of McCracken county is now assured. The two precincts which were in dispute were Di-egels and the Plow Factory, both

IN MEMORIAM

W. E. McNeely was born Nov. 6th, 1868, died Nov. 6th, 1915, 47 months and 4 days. He was married to Woodruff Dec. 24th, 1890. Union was born two children, in infancy, the other, now twelve years of age. He professed faith in Christ in 1896 and joined the Presbyterian church in 1901. He lived a consistent life until the Master called him home to join the blood-wash in Heaven. He took part in business, each day and said, "I must leave in your hands, be faithful." The remains were carried to Princeton, where the funeral was held by Rev. J. T. Barbee at the land Presbyterian church in the presence of a large sympathetic audience assisted by Rev. W. T. Oakley, pastor. The floral offerings were beautiful. If flowers are an expression of our appreciation of Bro. McNeely, it is so true we all loved him. He was a true husband, a loving father and good neighbor. Bro. McNeely loved his church; he fell at his post attending prayer meeting Thursday night, and was carried home. In the death of Bro. McNeely the church, Sunday school and prayer meeting, have lost a strong hold; the home, a great comforter, as well as a loving, sweet spirited husband and father. He lived for his family, church and neighbors. He helped everyone that would let him. We, the pastor and church session of Fredonia, Ky., Cumberland Presbyterian church, offer the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our dear Heavenly Father to remove by death our dear friend and pleasant, faithful worker, W. E. McNeely, a ruling elder of the congregation.

RESOLVED: That in his death the church, Sunday school and prayer meeting, have lost one among its best and one who always came with a smile and glad heart to his class.

RESOLVED: That we humbly bow to the will of "Him, who doeth all things well."

Be it further resolved that we offer to his bereaved family our deepest sympathy and implore them not to weep for Bro. McNeely, but rejoice that he is at rest and some sweet day we shall see him again.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast, Thereby his love o'er shaded, Sweetly his soul does rest."

PROCLAIMS THANKSGIVING DAY: WILSON LAUDS YEAR OF PEACE.

Designates Date And Speaks of the Blessings Vouchsafed to the United States.

President Wilson, in a proclamation designating Thursday, November 25, as Thanksgiving Day, calls attention to the fact that the United States has been at peace while most of Europe has been war.

"We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have to deal," said the president.

The text follows:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of changes which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing to us.

"Another year of peace has been vouchsafed us; another year in which not only to take thought of our duty to ourselves and to mankind, but also to adjust ourselves to the many responsibilities thrust upon us by a war which has involved almost the whole of Europe. We have been able to assert our rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have had to deal, and while we have asserted rights, we have been able also to perform duties and exercise privileges of succor and helpfulness which should serve to demonstrate our desire to make the offices of friendship the means of truly disinterested and unselfish service.

"Our ability to serve all who could avail themselves of our services in the midst of crises has been increased, by a gracious Providence, by more and more abundant crops; our ample resources have enabled us to steady the markets of the world and facilitate necessary movement of commerce which the war might otherwise have rendered impossible; and our people have come more and more to a sober realization of the part they have been called upon to play in a time when all the world is shaken by unparalleled distress and disasters.

"The extraordinary circumstances of such a time have done much to quicken our national conscientiousness and deepen and confirm our confidence in the principle of peace and freedom by which we have always sought to be guided. Out of darkness and perplexities have come firmer counsels of policy and clearer perceptions of the essential welfare of the nation. We have prospered while other peoples were at war, but our prosperity has been vouchsafed, as we believe, that we might the better perform the functions which war rendered it impossible for them to perform.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 25th day of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and of the Independence of America, one hundred and fortieth.

"By the President,
WOODROW WILSON,
ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State."

Nearly 2,000 Women Now Serving With Serbian Army.

London, Nov. 9.—"There were nearly 2,000 women in Serbia's army when I left, and more women soldiers were being organized," said Dr. Gruitch, a Serbian doctor, now in London, today. "The women are not in special battalions. Some of them wear the complete uniform of a soldier for the sake of comfort, while others wear skirts with a blue tunic. The younger women go with their brothers or their husbands.

"The women are of every class of the population and we cannot prevent them from serving. They inspire the men, with whom they march side by side, and with whom they eat and serve shoulder to shoulder in the trenches. These women are not afraid. Nobody in Serbia is afraid, and the women in the ranks do not lose their nerve under fire.

"We realize the great power of our friends in the war. Every soldier feels that we are only a part of a world army, and if it is necessary that our army shall be lost—all, it is only a part. There is time yet to save Serbia, but assistance for her cannot come too quickly."

PUMP IN THIS CISTERN IS GOING MOST OF TIME

Gibson County Apple Raiser Has Scheme for Storing Cider.

Princeton, Ind. Nov. 17.—A big cistern brim full of sweet cider is the latest innovation for Gibson county. It's a real cistern and real cider, too. It is at the home of Albert F. Dougan, four miles southwest of this city.

Mr. Dougan found he had an immense apple crop and that he would be at a considerable outlay to buy barrels for the cider it would produce. So he hit upon the idea of digging a cistern and putting the cider into it. The cistern is done and there are now 185 barrels of fine cider in it that promises to keep sweet for several months. A pump, with tightly fitting connections, has been installed and the cider is pumped out of the same like water.

It is needless to say that all autoists passing that way stop to get a drink from Mr. Dougan's cistern.

THE Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. If not sold your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of 50c. One small bottle is a month's treatment and a dozen bottles is a permanent cure. Send for testimonials from this and other sources. Rhyme Minus Writer's Name Is Worthy A Signature.

The following bit of rhyme was picked up on the streets of Buena Park, Anaheim's little neighbor to the west. The Plain Dealer tried to learn the writer's name, but so far has failed. However, I will insert the verses here, and should be care to claim his due he will know where to call:

We have an onz our neighbors few,
Good people from every State,
But what they are and what they do,
Their names ne'er indicate.

We have some Mills that do not grind,
Some S. Sales that never weigh,
A Page to learning not inclined,
A Black as fair as day.

A Marsi with pure atmosphere,
A Hall that has no room,
A Rose though standing many a year
Was never known to bloom.

A Kee to fit no lock we find,
A Chase not run by hounds,
A Roller to walking much inclined,
A Little that has no bounds.

We have a Hunt that brings no game,
A Cook that can not bake,
A Dyer in coloring arts no fame,
A Glass that is opaque.

We have a Martin that cannot fly,
A Hart ne'er known to beat,
A Bacon we can never fry,
A Hay the cows won't eat.

We have a Cole that will not burn,
A Wood not found in trees,
A Klahn that really makes no fun,
An Ice ne'er known to freeze.

We have some Stars set in no crown,
Bat shine all through the day,
A d when a night the sun goes down,

They hide their light away.

A Trap with neither spring nor hook,
A Newcombe that is not new,
A Kay not found in any book,
A Shoemaker that makes no shoe.

We have some Brooks that run no way
A Hardin that is not hard,
A Potter that never worked in clay,
A Deuce without the card.

There's one more riddle yet for you,
Unravel it who can,
We have among our neighbors true,
A lady who is a Mann.

Now, we submit these written lines,
Which in poetry do not rank,
And while there's some pretense at rhyme,
In meaning they are blank.

Bulgarians Try To Surround The French.

London, Nov. 17.—A division of 25,000 Bulgarians is attempting to envelop the French force in the Valandovi region, according to information from Bulgarian sources, obtained by a Greek outpost in the Belasika mountains at the junction of the Greek Serbian and Bulgarian frontiers, says a Reuter dispatch from Saloniki. Heavy artillery and rifle fire has been heard at the outpost station.

A number of Bulgarian shells are reported to have fallen on the railway north of Guevgeli but allied re-enforcements are passing Guevgeli regularly, it is asserted. A Serbian official is quoted as declaring the Serbs are holding firm at Babuna. At one point more than 1,000 Bulgarians were caught between a cross fire and annihilated.

An important British contingent was landed Saturday at Salonika, where additional landing facilities have been granted the allies after negotiations with the Greek authorities.

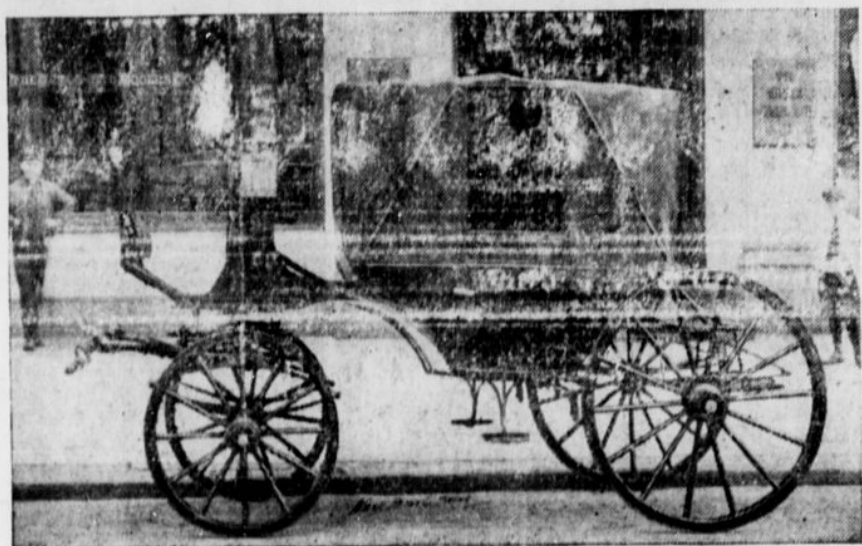

ARLINGTON MERCHANT FEELS BETTER

Friedrich Redeker, a business man of Arlington, Ill., was a victim of stomach and digestive troubles. He went to a hospital for an operation for another trouble. When he recovered from the operation he found his stomach trouble worse and his heart affected.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. He got his appetite back and gained in strength right away. He wrote:

"I owe you some words of congratulation for your stomach remedy. I could not eat anything but soft food and the bloating from gas got so bad that at one time I had a fainting spell for three hours. I went to one of your Chicago drug stores and got your remedy. I took the remedy and the next morning was relieved. I am getting stronger and can eat anything that comes along."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfied, money will be returned.

A CARRIAGE THAT SAVED AN EMPRESS.

A Philadelphia carriage builder has just completed a repairing and renovating job on a vehicle which once played a prominent part in getting an empress out of the country over which her husband had ruled, into another and which promised her, if not her former high estate, at least a place of security and repose.

The vehicle referred to is a four-seated, covered landau, formerly the property of Dr. Evans, the famous American dentist, who gained such repute in Paris as to be summoned to Court to serve royalty in his professional capacity.

It was after the battle of Sedan in the war between Prussia and France, and when rumors of the impending fall of the reigning dynasty became insistent, the wife of Napoleon III, the beautiful Empress Eugenie, was advised that it would be to her best interests to leave the capital on short notice, and in as quiet a manner as possible. In view of the secrecy necessary to get the Empress safely out of France, regular methods of travel were out of the question. It was then that Dr. Evans, the American dentist, was appealed to, and he formed a plan of escape which was successfully carried out.

On the night of the fifth of September, 1870, the doctor provided a closed landau, to which the Empress was conducted. She acted the part of an invalid patient; a Dr. Crane took the role as her physician; Dr. Evans pretended to be a brother of the patient, while Madame Lebreton, Eugenie's laid-in-waiting, was the nurse. In this manner the party reached the open country on the road to Havre without having been subjected to undue suspicion or examination.

The landau was taken as far as Mantz, when it was exchanged for a lighter carriage, to which fresh horses were attached. The party crossed the English channel on September 8th, and the Empress was joined later by members of her family on English soil. Eugenie has resided in that country ever since the establishment of the latest French republic, her present address being Farnborough Hill, Farnborough, England.

The carriage to which the Empress owes her escape from Paris remained in the possession of Dr. Evans, in Paris during his lifetime, but was brought to America recently to be placed in the Evans Memorial Museum, in Philadelphia, for which the doctor provided in his will. Dr. Evans was a Philadelphian.

COL. COYNE TALKS OF OWN CONDITION

Prominent Louisville Contractor Says He Was Improved by Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17.—Col. Joseph Coyne, one of the best known general contractors in the South and builder of many miles of hard surfaced streets and roads in and around Louisville, who resides at 438 South Fifth Street, this city, has added his words of commendation to those of thousands of others. Praising Tanlac, he said:

"My kidneys have annoyed me for a number of years. I suffered great pain as a result. I also suffered periodically from rheumatism, the condition affecting various parts of my body. I walked with great difficulty and could not use my hands naturally. I suffered from a pain in the ball of my foot fully ten years. That pain has disappeared.

"My kidneys are greatly improved and my rheumatism has virtually disappeared. My strength has returned and my appetite and sleep have improved. I feel vigorous and healthy and attribute the change to the use of Tanlac only. The medicine is all right, I recommend and commend it."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is now on sale in Marion at J. H. Orme's drugstore and in Blackford at A. T. Brown's drugstore. Advertisement.

T. B. CROMWELL

In Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer Explains Slump In Democratic Vote.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 16.—It was conclusively shown by the result of the regular election for the State offices Tuesday, Nov. 2 that it was a mistake to have ousted National Committeeman Urey Woodson, State Chairman R. H. Vansant and Committeeman W. Bridges White and Ab Rhea from positions of honor in the Democratic party organization at the state convention in Louisville on August 31.

The resentment of the friends of those four men was aroused by that action and it was used as a cover from which agents of "invisible government," the Anti-Saloon League, representatives of corporations and other interests seeking special privilege, preachers, Sunday School Superintendents and others passed the many bladed knife used so ruthlessly upon A. O. Stanley to the support of Edwin P. Morrow, his republican adversary.

When the proposition was put to Stanley a couple of days before the Louisville convention, he expressed opposition, but the demand was so strong and the arguments of Judge Allie W. Young and others so convincing that he finally yielded, believing that he was in the position of one compelled to choose between men who had not been his friends at the primary election on Aug. 7 and other men whom he felt he could not afford to displease at a critical stage in the preparations for the regular election.

An analysis of the vote will show that Stanley received approximately 40,000 less than the total Democratic vote at the primary and that Morrow received approximately 80,000 more than the total Republican vote at the primary. Stanley's primary vote was 107,585, while that cast for Messrs Harry V. McChesney, Edward J. McDermott and Henry M. Bosworth aggregated 98,786, making a total of 206,371. The Republican vote at the primary was 77,482; Morrow receiving 68,645 and Latt McLaughlin 8,837.

Doubtless many of those 40,000 Democrats remained at home but the returns show that others of them voted for Morrow, and they were influenced to do so through dissatisfaction growing out of the action at the convention and through representations that had been made to them by state-wide prohibition advocates and agitators.

Aside from the speeches made by Senator J. C. W. Beckham and the very earnest, whole-hearted effort on the part of Harry McChesney in behalf of the ticket, the Democrats had little assistance from the leaders of the McChesney and the McDermott camps. McDermott people in Owensboro and the Fourth district are accused by the Stanley leaders with having openly fought him.

The Fifth District majority for Stanley is all that could reasonably have been expected, and it is a testimonial of the loyalty of the organization which is headed by Messrs Frank McGrath and James P. Whallen. Stanley counseled by several of his advisers just after the primary election to destroy the Louisville organization in retaliation for the activity of Mayor John H. Buschmeier against him, but he would permit no such action. Instead he entered into an agreement with Frank McGrath which gave him proper representation in the state convention. The result of Tuesday's election shows the wisdom of Stanley's determination to deal fairly with his enemies at Louisville, just as it shows that there would have been no question of his winning had he not been compelled to make choice between the ouster of Woodson, Vance, White and Rhea or the loss of certain influential friends who had been with him in the fight for the nomination, and to whom he finally yielded against his better judgment.

Many of the Stanley followers are charging that General Percy Haley worked quietly in conjunction with Dr. Norman A. Palmer, of the Anti-Saloon League, and that Sam Shackelford, upon whom Stanley had made open war before the primary, set in his works against the man from Henderson. The returns from the Tenth District disclose no activity on the part of former Chairman Vansant in behalf of Stanley, while his downfall in the Second Congressional District, especially at Owensboro, is being charged to Urey Woodson.

Quotes Prophet Ezekiel

to Justify Plan For Defense.

Washington, Nov. 16.—President Wilson finds support in the scriptures for his policy of national defense, and in a letter to Seth Low, who wrote the President commending his Manhattan speech, quotes verses from the 33rd chapter of Ezekiel.

In a letter made public at the White House, the President said: "I am particularly gratified that you should fully concur in the position I took in my speech to the Manhattan Club. There is a quotation from Ezekiel which I have had very much in mind recently in connection with these important matters. It is the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth verses of chapter 33:

"2. Son of Man, speak to the children of Thy people, and say unto them, when I bring the sword upon a land, let the people of the land take a man of their coasts and set him for their watchman,

"3. If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land he blow the trumpet and warn the people;

"4. Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head,

"5. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be upon him; but he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

"6. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not upon the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take away any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

tion, was kind and obedient to his parents and loved everybody. He leaves a mother, father, three sisters and two brothers to grieve his loss. God's angel came and took him away from his peaceful home on earth, to dwell in that glorious mansion above, where sickness, sorrow nor death never comes.
Oh! dear mother grieve not over this precious one. We know it is hard to give him up but it is God's will that he cannot stay here with you, but only prepare to meet him on that blissful shore.

A precious one from you has gone,
A voice you loved is stilled,
A vacant place is in your home,
Which never can be filled.

He was buried in the left hand corner of the front yard Friday, Nov. 5th, at three o'clock, p. m. May God be with you till we meet again. Raymond.

Wild Geese Take City.

(Maysville Ledger.)

Thursday night about 11 o'clock the residents of this city were awakened by the cries and quacking of a flock of wild geese which had become lost, and being attracted by the lights of this city, had alighted in our midst. The square about the courthouse seemed to be the center of attraction, and was filled with the wild fowls, several of which were caught by people residing in that neighborhood.
After awaking all the geese evidently found their bearings, as they rose and flew away in a northern direction almost as suddenly as they came.
