BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

Popular Marion Girl United in Marriage To Well Known Louisville Business Man.

The social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Mary Flannery to Mr. Paul A. Taylor, of Louisville, solemnized at the beautiful Flannery residence on Salem street at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Nov. 30th, Rev. Chandler officiating.

The guests were welcomed and received by Misses Nannie Rochester and Frances Hite and Mrs. Creed A. Taylor.

The house was beautifully decorated with smilax and ferns, an improvised altar was arranged in one corner before which the bride and groom stood, attended by Miss Ruth Flannery, maid of honor, and Mr. C. L. Taylor, of Nashville, Tenn., best man.

Preceding the ceremony "Some where a Voice is Calling" was played by Mrs. S. M. Jenkins on the harp and Miss Madeline on the flute. Piano music was rendered during the ceremony by Miss Gwendoline Haynes, in soft sweet tones.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for Louisville, where they will make their home.

The bride and maid of honor were tastefully gowned in blue broadcloth tailored suits and black hats. The bride wore a lovely corsage bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, while the maid of honor wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

The happy couple left on the 11 o'clock train for Louisville where the groom and an apartment furnished ready for their occupancy. They carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends here where the bride has grown to womanhood and is greatly beloved as attested by the great number of beautiful gifts presented to her at this happy time.

Mrs. Gwendoline Ford Love who saw the ring-neck pheasant and set in such a nice article about the bird should have been given credit for the article but as her name wasn't signed we overlooked it. It was going her the credit. She has received numerous replies and commendations on her description of the strange bird.

HOPES OF MANY TOWNS BLASTED

No Chance To Obtain Postoffice Buildings for a Number of Kentucky Places.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Postmaster General Durlison has laid down a rule for the construction of postoffice buildings which has suspended plans for buildings in a number of Ohio Valley towns and cities.

When the Treasury Department calls upon the Postmaster General for information about the needs of the service in the particular town for which the purchase of a site has been authorized, this rule is cited:

"In this connection I desire to invite your attention to this department's view that government-owned quarters should not be provided for postoffice purposes exclusively unless the rental paid by the government is as much as $1,000 a year, and then only when either the gross postoffice receipts amount to as much as $15,000 per annum or the population to as much as $5,000."

Under the Postmaster General's rule it would be impossible to carry out public building plans for the following Ohio Valley towns in Kentucky and Indiana:

Indiana—Bluffton, deficiency of population; Clinton, deficiency of receipts; Decatur, deficiency of population; North Vernon, deficiency of both population and receipts; Rochester, deficiency of both population and receipts; Warsaw, deficiency of population.

Kentucky—Barbourville, deficiency of both population and receipts; Central City, deficiency of both population and receipts; Elizabethtown, deficiency of both population and receipts; Eminence, deficiency of both population and receipts; Falmouth, deficiency of both population and receipts; Glasgow, deficiency of both population and receipts; Harrodsburg, deficiency of both population and receipts; Hodgenville, deficiency of both population and receipts; Lancaster, deficiency of both population and receipts; Madisonville, deficiency of both population and receipts; Marion, deficiency of both population and receipts; Pikeville, deficiency of both population and receipts; Paducah, deficiency of both population and receipts; Trenton, deficiency of both population and receipts.

A Tree Shot Full of Bullets. Teachers Who Attended F. D. E. A.

When the "Old Cemetery" was cleaned up recently John D. Travis agreed to take out, at his own expense for the wood, one large dead elm tree, the great white limbs of which hung menacingly over the marble memorials, threatening them with destruction and any passer by with death. The tree was an immense one in height and probably five feet around. In order to get it down without breaking any of the slabs many of them had to be moved temporarily. When down the tree was sawed into stovewood lengths and hauled to Mr. Travis' woodyard where he spends his odd hours when not attending to his work at the "power house" in splitting the blocks ready for the cooking stove. He found the trunk and many of the branches shot full of bullets of the types used by soldiers during the Civil War.

Many old residents now recall the fact that the Union soldiers used the grove in and around this Old Cemetery as a camp, it being near the big spring on the old mill lot. They no doubt used this tree as a target, and this explains the presence of the bullets one of which we have on our desk at the Crittenden Record-Press office.

MANN MINE CASE FINALLY DECIDED

Litigation Involving Half-Ownership In Valuable Zinc Mine In Livingston County.

In the rendering of a decision for the plaintiffs in the suit of Morton vs. Langenbach, by Judge J. F. Gordon, of Madisonville, Ky., sitting in a special session of the Livingston county circuit court in Paducah yesterday Attorneys Berry & Grassham won a litigation which had been bitterly fought in the Kentucky courts for about two years and which concerned the half-ownership of a zinc mine in Livingston county which is said to be one of the most valuable zinc deposits in the United States. The court awarded the plaintiff, A. J. Morton, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, judgment for spar sold and on hand, since the mine was opened several years ago, to the value of about $10,000, adjudged a half interest to still be his and ordered the property sold for division.

The case was conducted for Morton by Attorney C. C. Grassham, of Berry & Grassham, a m. Judge William Marble appeared in court as co-counsel. Opposing Grassham was Attorney John W. Blue, of Marion, Ky; Judge Charles H. Wilson, of Smithland, and Attorneys Wheeler & Hughes, of Paducah.

The history of the property involved is one of litigation. In 1890 A. J. Morton came to Livingston county from Canton, O., and near Lola bought a mineral lead from W. H. Mann, which he began to mine under the firm name of Langenbach & Morton. Litigation immediately set in in the state court of Livingston county and Paducah federal court. Mann was old and childish and when he released his interests his relatives set up claims against Langenbach & Morton. Mann also did this and set up claim in addition against the people to whom he had released interests before Langenbach & Morton got the mine. No judgment was found until 1913, the court finally holding that Langenbach & Morton held superior right against all parties. Langenbach still lived in Canton. Morton had moved to Chattanooga and later to Fort Smith, Ark.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

Tests Made Here In Our Cuts To Prove the Experiment Stations Given Report

The following demonstration may prove interesting to readers of the Crittenden Record-Press, having been held out on the farm of Mr. Hunt, two miles from Marion on the Shady Grove road. whole field was plowed last year and subsoiled with a shovel plow for corn, and good seed bed was prepared before the corn was planted. ginning on the east the first acres were treated with 200 lbs. of 16 per cent acid phosphate broadcast. In the center of field were five 20 row test plots with the rest of the field was treated with phosphate in the row. The treatment and yield of the plots were as follows:

Plot No. 1, 200 lbs. 16 per cent acid phosphate, broadcast, 50 lbs. in row; 49 bu. 4 lbs. per A. Gain 9 bu. 24 lbs.

Plot No. 2, 200 lbs. 16 per cent acid phosphate, broadcast; 47 bu. 66 lbs. per A. Gain 8 bu. 14 lbs.

Plot No. 3, 50 lbs. 16 per cent acid phosphate, in row; 43 bu. 4 lbs. per A. Gain 3 bu. 63 lbs.

Plot No. 4, no fertilizer; 39 bu. 52 lbs. per A.

Plot No. 5, 100 lbs. 16 per cent acid phosphate, broadcast, 50 lbs. in row; 45 bu. 69 lbs. per A. Gain 6 bu. 17 lbs.

On an acre and a quarter of the field, cut off by a very small branch, he used 660 lbs. of cotton seed meal and phosphate, mixed 2 to 5. This piece yielded 55 bu. to the acre. Gain over no fertilizer of 15 bu. 20 lbs.

This corn was given level cultivation during the whole season. This proves what acid phosphate will do in Western Kentucky.

Mr. John Hodge reports that he used 1 ton of 16 per cent acid phosphate, broadcast, on 10 acres of corn that increased his yield 10 bu. to the acre in the same field over that with no fertilizer. This bears out what the Experiment Stations say about the use of acid phosphate.

From one Experiment Station Report we get these figures, the average taken from 12 years experiments. We have received

STRINGS UP NEGRESS TO MAKE HER CONFESS

Woman Brings Charges Against One of The Number She Recognized.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 21.—Anne Gray, a colored woman who lives on the farm of E. C. Cayce, south of town, came here today and reported to officers that last night four masked men came to her house about 10 o'clock and charged her with having knowledge of the whereabouts of $120 that was taken a few days ago by a highwayman from J. L. Cardin and that when she declared she knew nothing of it, they took her outside and placed a rope around her neck and swung her up three or four times. When she still declared her lack of information they threw her in a nearby creek, then pulled her out and took her back to the house and beat her severely.

She declared the men resembled the blacksmith about midnight and when her husband, Thomas H. Gray, came home he found her lying on the floor and when he asked her what had happened she said she did not know.

The husband and wife were a black and white couple and lived on a farm about two miles from the town of Woodbury.

Witness my hand the 5th day of November, 1915.

Quite a Curiosity.

A tomb stone locked in the close embrace of a tree is one of the curiosities in the "old cemetery." The tree which is three or four feet around, has grown right on the grave at the head and so near the stone that it has enveloped it and has raised it up in the air and at an angle of about 30 degrees. The grave is that of George Witherspoon, grandfather of Mrs. M. M. Wilson, of this city, who died in the early forties, which would indicate that he had been buried there nearly three quarters of a century. Any effort to dislodge the tree from the tomb site would be disastrous to either as only destruction could separate them.

GOLDEN WEDDING

(Sherman Daily Democrat, Nov. 18, 1915.)

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Moore of this city, are no doubt among the very happiest people in Sherman today, for they have gathered about them at their painted home on South Travis street all of their children and their two grandsons. The event is the celebration of the Golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

For fifty years they have traveled along life's eventful journey side by side, and all this time they have been residents of Sherman.

Just fifty years ago Mr. Moore led to Hyman's altar Miss Victoria Shannon, one of Grayson county's belles. She was the daughter of Mrs. T. J. Shannon, who resided two miles north of Sherman. The marriage ceremony took place at the home of the bride, the Rev. J. M. Binkley performing the ceremony, using the beautiful ceremony of the Southern Methodist church.

The father of the bride, T. J. Shannon, was dead at the time of the marriage of his daughter to Mr. Moore. He was one of the leading citizens of North Texas, and gave the first site that Sherman was located on. Fairview, the beautiful residence suburb of Sherman, was named after his farm "Fairview."

While Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been here for half a hundred years, yet one who knows them can hardly realize it, for they both are just in their prime. Mr. Moore is actively and successfully engaged in business and his splendid wife is one of the city's handsomest and most accomplished women, taking an active part in the affairs of life, being prominent in social and church circles.

They have reared a splendid family and have lived over each of their children's lives. At noon today a sumptuous dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Moore were the recipients of many beautiful presents in commemoration of the event.

Those who were present today were: Mrs. John Moore, of Sherman, Ky.; Mrs. John Moore, of Houston, Tex.; Clarence Moore, of St. Joe, Mo.; Mrs. Moore, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Moore, of Sherman, children; Mrs. Clarence Moore, of St. Joe, Mo.; daughter-in-law; John Grant Murphy and Edwin Moore, Murphy, grand children; Rev. J. M. Binkley, the preacher who married Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Among the highly treasured remembrances are a large number of flowers brought by the grandsons from Houston and fifty golden carnations brought from St. Joe, by Mrs. Clarence Moore. The Democrat joins other friends in extending congratulations and wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Moore many happy returns of the day.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic

Take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Judge Clemens, of Marion, Ill.,

Takes Own Life There.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 22.—Judge William W. Clemens, prominent lawyer and for fifty-two years an active citizen of Marion, shot himself Friday morning and died from the effects of the wound. Ill health had caused him to worry of late and on Thursday he said that he would sooner be dead than to have to suffer, and this is the probable cause of his suicide.

Judge Clemens was a near relative of Samuel Clemens, (Mark Twain), and was a native of Livingston county.

Old Black Diamond is Put to Death.

New York, Nov. 30.—Black Diamond, the aged buffalo whose likeness is printed on $10 treasury notes and is stamped on the latest 5-cent piece, was put to death here. He was more than 20 years old and the largest bison in captivity. He had been an inmate of the Central Park corral for many years. Black Diamond's hide which measured 13 by 13 feet will be made into an automobile robe. The bison weighed 1,550 pounds, from which 750 pounds of dressed meat was obtained. The teeth were in a remarkable state of preservation. The head which will be mounted, sold for a considerable amount of money.

SCARCITY OF QUAIL

In 1911, during the session immediately preceding the creation of the game laws, the Federal Government discovered that large quantities of quail were being sold in the northern and eastern markets, and that these birds had been shipped in violation of the federal laws covering interstate shipments of game.

The commission firms distributing these birds were all prosecuted, and by tracing the shipments to the firms, the Government officials discovered large quantities of the quail had been shipped from Kentucky; in fact, 150,000 were shipped out of Kentucky in 1911, 13,700 being shipped from two points in Gallatin county.

All of the parties making illegal shipments were tried in the federal courts of Kentucky, and convictions followed in every case. The United States Government knew, in a general way, that shipments were being made from Kentucky, but in this work, as in other branches of the Government, they desired to help only those states who were making an honest endeavor to help themselves.

It was the common practice of the larger hotels and restaurants in Kentucky, before the creation of the Game and Fish Commission, to annually sell large quantities of quail illegally bought and sold. A number of cases were made against one of the leading hotel companies in Kentucky, and we are pleased to say that this illegal practice has been stopped.

Cumberland River, one of Kentucky's great game fish streams, and which the Commission is restocking with pike perch and bass.

PHEASANT DISTRIBUTION

In March, 1915, a distribution of English ringneck pheasants was made by the Commission. These birds were purchased in England and shipped to Philadelphia, where they were received by a representative of the Commission and shipped in crates of fifteen birds, ten hens and five cocks, to each county in the state, where they were received and separated into flocks, two hens and a cock, and these birds were liberated by persons with whom the Commission had made arrangements, on lands controlled by them.

Reports from 73 counties show an increase of 2,656 birds, which indicates a gratifying condition and places the number of these splendid game birds at liberty in Kentucky at something above six thousand. Some of the birds were held in captivity, but in nearly every instance these experiments resulted in failure, but the birds that were turned loose and allowed to rear their own young, in practically every instance produced and raised a covey. The result of these experiments have so encouraged the Commission that another importation of pheasants is planned, and we hope to liberate three thousand more of these birds in the spring of 1916. The distribution of pheasants aroused great interest, and we received many requests for settlements of eggs and purchased 800 from a game dealer in Pennsylvania, which were sent by parcels post to those who had applied. We also shipped 265 from the Kentucky Game Preserve on Pine Mountain, in Bell county.

The reports show that a large percentage of eggs did not hatch, and where broods were hatched they soon died, so the distribution proved a failure.

It is unlawful to kill any ringneck pheasant at any time of the year, and the Commission appeals to you for your assistance in protecting them until they increase sufficiently to permit hunting.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonsful for 50 cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair a manner as the below named druggists are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just the same as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which average from 20 to 32 teaspoonsful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonsful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" if not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, Saint Paul, Minn. Guaranteed here by JAS. H. ORME, Marion, Ky.

No Place for Hatred.

To be no le, hate must be large and fierce. It cannot be personal or petty. So there is much praise to be given Sir Philip Wilbraham who has refused to sanctify hatred by giving it a place in a church. A memorial tablet for a victim of the Lusitania was offered with the words "Who was murdered on the Lusitania by the Germans." Chancellor said: "The wall of a church is not an appropriate place to perpetuate hatred." Sorrow cannot be belittled but hatred can, and how petty the hatred now seems after these words. How small and unreal the songs of hate and the retaliations, the quarrels about artists and the controversies concerning the language and literature which an enemy may enjoy. In a war which is so bitter and so devastating is there really room for spite? Is there room for hatred when sorrow must be so large?—Philadelphia Ledger.

SON MEETS TEST; GETS

CARE OF HALF A MILLION

Wins Confidence of Father by Withstanding Temptation Of Gay Life.

Kansas City, Nov. 30.—J. H. Neff used his golden rule principles in business, and he also practiced them in his own home. He applied the acid test to his son, Ward A. Neff, and did not find him wanting. Ward Neff passed this acid test and today he is one of the richest youths in Kansas City.

J. H. Neff started at the bottom rung of the ladder and amassed a fortune. Whom to trust with this vast fortune was a big question with the late publisher. Millionaire's sons are not always to be depended upon, as history shows. But Mr. Neff tested his son and heir, and the result of that test guided his hand when he wrote his will and testament.

But Ward, although bubbling with the spirit of adventure, as becomes a youth of his years, did not follow the crooked path made so plain by other boys with big bank accounts. Ward took the money to his father and told him to invest it.

Mr. Neff invested the money, and his business acumen swelled the fund many times over until it reached $97,000. When the money had been realized he took it to Ward Neff on his twenty-first birthday anniversary and placed the certified check in his hands.

"Now you have a real fortune, son," Mr. Neff said to Ward.

What a temptation that amount of money would be for any youngster! Dreams of luxury, motor cars, travel—all of them, no doubt, came to Ward Neff. No word of advice about the money was offered by the father. He was waiting for his son's next move.

Ward Neff waited a day or two before making a decision. He then approached his father. He drew from his wallet the same certified check his father had given him.

"I think you did pretty well, dad, with that first investment," said the son. "If you can swell a small legacy like mine into a fortune of nearly $100,000, maybe you can make a million out of this. Take it and invest it."

Right then Mr. Neff saw the stuff that made up his son. It was the very thing he had been waiting for. And that very day he wrote the will which left more than $500,000 in his son's keeping. Mr. Neff died soon after that episode.

Mrs. Emma Gannon, 107 E. South St., Kewanee, Ill., writes: "For fifteen years I had catarrh of the head and stomach. I could hardly walk. My attention was called to 'The Ills of Life.' I read it through. Then bought a bottle of Peruna. I am entirely well now."

FEELS RE-FRESHED THE MORNING

Oldest Railway Company employs Buoyant After Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 1. Lally, well-known inspector of the Louisville Street Railway Company and an employee of firm 37 years, has this to say about Tanlac, the premier preparation:

"I have suffered from stomach trouble which developed gradually into a general debilitated condition. I had indigestion and my food didn't taste right. When I got up in the morning I had disagreeable taste in my mouth was constipated, there was a fogginess in my head and I had no desire for breakfast."

"I was tired all the time pulled myself through my day's work with the greatest effort. As soon as I had taken a bottle of Tanlac I began to improve. When I awoke in the morning I feel refreshed. My appetite also is good and my food agrees with me. That tired feeling has left me and I am buoyant and feel like a new man."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is sold in Marion at James H. Orme's drugstore, and in Blackford at A. T. Brown's drug store. Advertisement.

Germany Asks Churches

To Give Copper to War.

London, Nov. 29.—A Copenhagen dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company says that the copper famine in Germany is so acute that requests, equivalent to demands, are now reaching the authorities of the churches to hand over all the copper in their possession as a good example to others.

The huge copper roofs of the great cathedral at Bremen are being dismantled and everything made of copper, belonging to the cathedral has been placed at the disposal of the military.

IN SOCIETY

On last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Zula Cannan gave a delightful dinner party at her home in the Cannan cafe announcing the approaching marriage of her cousin, Miss Melba Cannan, to Mr. Stanley Shaver, of Dallas, Texas, on Dec. 15th, 1915. The dinner consisted of five elaborate courses made up of the season's delicacies served in a most tempting manner.

Those who enjoyed Miss Cannan's hospitality were:

Misses Vera Conyer, Iva Asher, Virginia Flanary, Myrtle Glass, Linda Jenkins, Willie Steinhenson, Martha Wilborn, Janie Ray

McConnell, Jewell Rankin, Leona Miller, Melba Cannan; Messrs. James Howerton, Jake Mayes, Guthrie Flanary, of Honduras, Central America, Raymond Minner, Medley Cannan, Roy Cook, Marion McConnell, Earl Clement, Owen Moore, Clifton Crawford and Paul Cox, of Fredonia.

One of the most elaborate bridal festivities in honor of Tuesday's bride, Miss Maude Flanary, was a five course luncheon given by Miss Nannie Rochester last Wednesday, Nov. 24th, at one o'clock at the Rochester home on Bellville street.

The dining room was done in yellow chrysanthemums tints, with shaded candles in silver candle-sticks and yellow holders for the mints.

Miss Rochester's hospitality included Misses Maude and Ruth Flanary, Frances Blue, Katherine Yandell and Madeleine Jenkins.

In honor of the bride elect, Miss Maude Flanary, a delightful bridge party was given last Saturday by Miss Gwendoline Haynes.

A salad course was served to Misses Ruth Flanary, Virginia Blue, Frances Blue, Linda Jenkins, Katherine Yandell, Maude Flanary, Madeleine Jenkins, Eva Clement, Nannie Rochester and Louise Clement; Mesdames Jim Henry, Pres Guess and Densmore; Messrs Ray Flanary and Paul Adams.

A Thanksgiving Wedding.

On Thursday, Nov. 25th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alice Rushing, Miss Jennie Rushing and Mr. Herbert Wheeler were united in marriage by Rev. U. G. Hughes.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the family and a very few friends being present. The contracting parties are very popular young people of the Mexico community but their friends were too numerous to have them all present, so they thought to steal a march and marry without any one knowing it, but quite a number heard of it and came, but mostly all were too late for the nuptials, they having married at 9:30 a. m.

A bountiful dinner was spread by the bride's mother which was enjoyed by all who partook of it. May God's richest blessings be with this noble couple through life.

Mrs. Bettie Settle, of Sixth and Monroe streets, was advised yesterday by the receipt of the deed that Mrs. T. J. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Japanese Tea And Utility Shoppe.

The Ladies Aid, of the Southern Presbyterian church was highly successful in its "Japanese Tea," which was held last week in the Taylor building on Salem street. The parcels post department was contributed to most liberally by friends from a distance and all the articles sent in were sold to friends here at home.

The tea garden, presided over by three Marion beauties as pretty as ever "Yum Yum" dared to be, reminded one of the "Mikado" and it did not lack for patronage. The candy kitchen and the post cards were two popular departments. Last but not least the many exquisite articles of feminine apparel and of house hold and table decoration were quickly disposed of. The total receipts were upwards of $75.00, which encouraged and delighted the promoters very much. The thanks of the ladies is due to the orchestra, who furnished the music. Beside Mrs. Marshall Jenkins, Italian Harp, Miss Madeleine Jenkins, flute and Miss Linda Jenkins, clarinet, all members of the Southern Presbyterian church, there were Miss Miriam Pierce, first violin of the Christian church, Miss Lucile Pope of the First Baptist church second violin and Mr. Medley Cannan, of the First Baptist church, cello. The music was appreciated and enjoyed very much and added much to the delightful occasion. To Mr. W. M. Nunn for coal, to Messrs Taylor for the house and to Mr. S. M. Jenkins for the lights, thanks are due.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many friends who so lovingly and tenderly ministered unto us in the sad death and burial of our darling son and brother, George, whose lamp of life was so suddenly extinguished last Thursday. To lay our darling away in the freshness of his young life, never in this world to look upon again tares our heart strings that the burden of grief would be beyond human endurance, but for God's promise of the final homecoming on the resurrection morn, when we shall all gather around the great white throne in glory, a reunited family, where parting is no more.

May heaven's richest blessings rest upon you all is our prayer.

Unconvicted Wife Slayer

Completes His Sentence.

Como, Italy, Nov. 30.—Porter Charlton, the American, who recently was tried on a charge of murdering his wife and who was found guilty and sentenced to six years and eight months imprisonment, was released Sunday. He is in good health and spirits.

By reason of the time that Charlton had been under restraint and an additional one year taken from his sentence under an amnesty, Charlton was compelled to serve only twenty-nine days in prison after his conviction and sentence. Charlton killed his wife in 1910 and placed the body in a trunk and threw it into Lake Como.

France War Saddened and no Longer Frivolous and Jolly

If you have been in France when France was sunshine, you would not now recognize it; if you have coupled the word frivolity with France, you must now uncouple it. The sunshine is only the literal sunshine from heaven; and as for frivolity, I was, after about ten days in France, startled by the sound of a girl's laughter; it does not seem right to laugh! I got to feel that I was almost doing a wrong to look, just as one might do an unkindness to stare at the scar from a great burn on a human being's face. And those women and children—there is nothing for them but nursing and waiting, nothing but hiding the tears and and hiding the fears, and working from gray dawn through the gray twilight to long after midnight at the tasks of men: nursing and waiting.—Christian Herald.

Safety First In The Powder Mill.

In describing the du Pont industries in the December issue of The American Magazine Merle Crowell says:

"The larger buildings at Carney's Point, such as the dry houses, have galvanized iron chutes running from the upper floors to the ground. If fire starts, the workmen tumble into these chutes and slide to safety in a pile of sand a rod away from the base of the building. They may land on one another's necks, and even break a few bones, but it is a dirt-cheap price to pay for their escape."

Trampled Into A Grave

While Begging Mercy

Batavia, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Lugi Matroni was buried alive in the cellar of his home near Corfu in May 1914, his body being trampled into a newly made grave while he still begged for mercy, according to the story his widow late today told District Attorney Coon here.

This afternoon Antonio Boliva, the alleged murderer, pointed out the spot where the crime occurred and a body was found there which Mrs. Matroni identified as her husband's. Boliva confessed the district attorney said.

Boliva, Mrs. Matroni's son-in-law, is serving a six month's term in the penitentiary. Mrs. Matroni declared that she and her son witnessed the murder but fear of Boliva, who threatened her with a similar fate, caused her long silence. When she learned he was in prison she felt safe to talk.

WILL HAVE 4,000,000 SOLDIERS BY MARCH

Earl Kitchener Tells Greece Great Britain Can Also Supply 6,000,000 Russians

Paris, Nov. 30.—Earl Kitchener, the British secretary for war, in conversation with Greek officials in his recent visit to Athens, is said to have declared that England will have by next March 4,000,000 soldiers under arms and will be in a position to arm and provision 6,000,000 Russians and that, consequently, it would show great stupidity to think the war would end otherwise than in complete defeat for Germany.

This information is contained in an Athens dispatch to the Havas Agency, which adds that Lord Kitchener admitted that the declaration of war found the entente powers insufficiently prepared for so long a campaign, but said that the allies had known how to utilize the time that has since elapsed to complete their preparations.

Millionaire Founds Town for Orphans, Widows, Grandmothers

Sand Springs, Okla., Nov. 30.—This town was built for widows. They compose more than a fourth of the 5,000 population. The town was founded by Charles Page, multimillionaire oil producer of Tulsa. His earliest recollections were of his mother's efforts to raise her large family unaided, and he resolved that when he grew up he would take care of all the widows.

When he had made his fortune Page began to find employment for widows in Tulsa. They became so numerous he decided to build a town for them. So he founded Sand Springs. He built dozens of comfortable cottages, in which gas, fuel and rent were free. Factories he bought so the widows might have employment. He built a car line to Tulsa upon which widows ride free. There is a day nursery, free medical attendance and a vocational school. If a widow wants to get married, Page helps her do that. He likes grandmothers, too. There is a score of them here with nothing to do but knit and read and reminisce.

FRANKFORT PLANS ELABORATE ENTERTAINMENT FOR KENTUCKY HOSTS AT THE INAUGURATION

(By Roger Burlingame.)

Frankfort, Ky. (Special)—Standing on the shadow of the magnificent new $2,000,000 Capitol with his eyes resting on the statue of the martyred William Goebel, his friend and counselor, Augustus Wesley Stanley will take the oath of office as Governor of Kentucky at 12 o'clock, Tuesday, December 7, while the greatest throng that ever has witnessed an inauguration in Frankfort will be present to do him honor.

Carrying out his campaign promises Governor Stanley will once more proclaim himself the champion of economy, retrenchment and the rule of the people. Arrangements rapidly being completed for the inauguration presage the greatest spectacle it has been the lot of Kentuckians to witness and from reports received by the various committees in charge of the details incident to the event, Kentucky from the Beargrass, the Bluegrass, the Penny-rile and the Purchase will be present to lend enthusiastic acclaim to the State's new Chief Executive.

Ohio Visitors Coming.

Vieng with the uniformed marching clubs from Louisville, including the Mose Green Club, the oldest and strongest political organization in the metropolis will be the Duckworth Club, the crack Democratic marching club from Cincinnati whose members will join the throng in Frankfort for the inaugural festivities as a tribute to the former Congressman who in many times of battle has been ever ready to go to the aid of his Democratic brethren in the Buckeye state. Henderson, the home of Governor-elect Stanley will send a special train with a brass band and a thousand enthusiastic "home folks" while Covington, Newport, Paducah, Owensboro, Bowling Green, Shelbyville and Lexington will have marching clubs in the big parade that is confidently expected to eclipse that of any former inauguration.

$2000 From Louisville.

From Louisville alone 5,000 visitors are expected and it is believed the greater portion of the population of Lexington will spend the day in the Capital city. Already the advance reservations have exhausted the available supply of hotel accommodations and for days the members of the Accommodation Committee have been at the hotels and in the quarters for the thousands of visitors who will be in Frankfort for one or more days. The committee has issued a call to the residents of Frankfort asking them to report the number of rooms they will place at the disposal of visitors and has fixed a standard price of $1.00 for sleeping quarters for persons who remain over night. The committee will have the addresses of all persons who have available rooms indexed and will have members of the committee assigned to the hotels and the depots to take visitors in charge and escort them to homes where they can secure quarters, at the price agreed upon.

The Executive Committee in charge of the inauguration determined to do away with the idea of sending out invitations over the State inasmuch as the ceremony is an event of interest to the whole people and in lieu of the usual invitations has issued a general invitation through the columns of the various newspapers asking everyone to become a guest of Frankfort for the event.

Parade The Big Feature.

Naturally the parade will be one of the chief features of the inaugural day ceremonies with the inaugural ball at night as second in importance on the entertainment program. Here too will be displayed the determination of the committee to avoid any appearance of discrimination and the invitation that has been spread broadcast throughout the State includes attendance at the grand ball. The fact that a majority of the visitors will remain over night and attend the ball is giving the committee some concern and the place for holding it has not yet been decided on. Of course a majority of the visitors simply will attend as sightseers but there will be so many persons dancing that it will require a floor much larger than has been available heretofore.

Robert A. Brawner, chief marshal of the parade and the members of the Parade Committee have formulated plans for the inaugural procession which will start from the historic Capital Hotel and wind its way through the business section and across into the residence district in South Frankfort, enroute to the new Capitol. Chief Marshal Brawner has designated as aides men familiar with the duties of that office and in a majority of cases trained in the military maneuvers.

Program Not Complete.

The exact program for the inauguration has not been completed but will be announced a few days in advance of the event. Governor-elect Stanley is expected to arrive in Frankfort accompanied by Mrs. Stanley and their three sons on Sunday and they probably will be the guests of friends until they take up their home in the mansion. Governor James B. McCreary will introduce Governor-elect Stanley and Lieutenant Governor-elect James D. Black, to whom the oath of office shall be administered by Chief Justice Shackelford Miller of the Court of Appeals. The inaugural address of Governor Stanley promises to be interesting not alone because of his gifted powers of oratory but for the reason that he will outline a plan of procedure for the next four years that will accord with the wishes of all Kentuckians.

The arrangements for police protection, while the thousands of visitors are thronging the streets and the show places in Frankfort are being carefully looked after by Chief of Police Mangum and Mayor Joseph Rupert. Cincinnati will send a squad of trained men and Louisville and Lexington will furnish the bulk of the recognized ability to insure absolute protection.

Interesting Trip Promised.

Aside from the interesting incidents that will feature the inaugural plans the trip to Frankfort will be made the occasion for thousands of visitors to get a look at the new Capitol, the historic old State House, the Reformatory, the Arsenal, the Institute for Feeble-minded children, the Colored Normal School and the numerous other points of interest.

As usual Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., proprietor of the Old Taylor distillery will keep open house and incidentally will extend a general invitation to visitors to roam over his magnificent Woodford county farm and see his champion herd of Hereford cattle and other prize-winning stock. Col. Taylor's estate is destined to be the rival of the Haggin farm and already is considered one of the show places.

At Baker's distillery and the many others in and about Frankfort the welcome sign will be hung out to visitors while merchants and citizens throughout Frankfort will have the latching hanging outside. Warden Wells of the Reformatory is planning a holiday for the unfortunate incarcerated behind the grim walls of the Reformatory and thousands of visitors probably will take advantage of the opportunity to get a glimpse of the inside.

Rain Will Not Interfere.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the inaugural ceremonies at the Capitol has completed plans whereby a stand may be thrown up in a few hours either inside or out, according to weather conditions. The disagreeable weather that marked the induction into office of Governor McCreary will have little effect should there be a recurrence, for the broad corridors and galleries in the new Capitol will hold several thousand visitors and in the event of rain the stand will be erected inside and the ceremonies held there.

That the attendance will be larger than ever before is conceded. The editors of all the Kentucky newspapers have been placed on the Publicity Committee and through their papers have extended the invitation to Kentuckians to be present and participate in the inaugural ceremonies. The Publicity Committee will have headquarters in a building adjoining the Court House, equipped for the convenience of newspaper men who will be among the visitors and a cordial welcome has been extended to all of the Kentucky newspapermen to be present and partake of Frankfort's hospitality.

The beautiful scenery in and about Frankfort, the drives along the Kentucky river and the splendid roadways radiating from Frankfort will furnish opportunity for visitors to spend a portion of their time in pleasant sight-seeing trips after the inauguration ceremonies are concluded.

Cheap Railroad Rates.

All steam railroads in the State of Kentucky have published rates to Frankfort and return on account of inauguration Dec. 7th of three cents per mile plus twenty-five cents for the round trip. Tickets to be sold on Dec. 6th and 7th good returning until Dec. 9th midnight.

Mann Mine Case Finally Settled.

After the judgment the former partner started again to mine the property, which contained valuable zinc ore. Later he organized the United Mining Co., to develop the deposit. About 1,500 tons of carbonate of zinc had been shipped out when Morrison returned to Kentucky and the two partners had been decided to share the property equally in the event. Langerbach disputed it on the grounds that his partner had abandoned it. Then Berry & Langerbach brought suit against Morrison to recover his interest.

Judge Grassham conducted the case of the partners in the original litigation and it was to him Morrison came when desiring to sue Langerbach. Tribune News Democrat of Nov. 25th.

M. E. FOHS.

A Very Sad Thanksgiving

On last Thursday evening the little town of Tolu and surrounding community, was paralyzed with a shock when the awful calamity of the day was made known.

Three little boys of our vicinity, Kelley Hoover, aged 16; Geo. Highfield, aged 13; and little Ray Hardin, aged 9 prepared to celebrate and to enjoy the day shooting rabbits and birds with their rifles. After rambling over field, meadow and glen in their sport until about 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when little Ray came running in with the worst news he could have brought, that Georgie was dead. The dead boy's father was the first person to the spot, and who could imagine his sorrow and agony, when he found his own dear little boy, lifeless on the ground with a bullet hole through his brains. Dr. O. T. Lowery was summoned at once, but to no avail as death had been instantaneous and the writer held an inquest which was promptly done but the little boys that were with him being the only witnesses of any consequence, they were thoroughly questioned and examined but they were so badly frightened that but little conclusion could be reached as to how Georgie came to his death from their evidence, and the poor boy's death may be shrouded in mystery forever.

It was a sad sight to see, when our car met the poor distracted father returning from the place where he alone found the dead body of his dear baby boy, lifeless on the roadside, and we can never forget the grief and despair of his poor mother and sister when we brought his poor lifeless little form back to them, that loved and cherished him so much.

George was a fine boy of splendid physical form, easy tempered and held the highest esteem and good will of his teacher, school mates, his neighbors and every one that knew him, and no boy could be missed in our community more than him. He leaves a poor heart broken father, mother, two brothers, Jesse and Guthrie; three sisters, Mrs. Alie Sullenger, Cora and Mildred Highfield.

The people came from far and near offering their help and sympathy to the family in their trouble and bereavement.

The remains were taken to the Irma school house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by the largest procession of mourning friends known in our vicinity, where Bro. Royster, of Tolu, delivered a sincere and sympathetic talk. Then the sad and mournful procession marched to the White cemetery, where the remains of our little friend, Georgie, was laid to rest.

May God's richest blessings forever rest and abide with the bereaved family, is the sincere prayer of the writer.

CHAS. T. RILEY, J. P.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors, who so willingly and kindly assisted us in administering to our father, Joseph A. Hina, during his sickness and death. May the blessings pronounced by the Lord Jesus Christ to those who administer to the sick, be theirs.

Man Held For Stealing Auto; Makes Successful Escape.

Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 25.—Weldon Reilly, alias J. J. Dean, arrested here Monday night charged with stealing an automobile from Monticello, Ill., together with about $300 worth of supplies, escaped from the county jail here this morning at three o'clock and has not yet been apprehended. Reilly sawed one of the bars to an outer window in two, spliced blankets together and reached the ground through this manner. Bloodhounds were secured from Seebree and he was trailed to Morton's Gap, six miles south of here, where he evidently boarded a south-bound freight. A reward of $100 has been offered by Jailer Day for his capture.
