HAYNES REUNION IN SONNY FLORIDA

A HEALTH AND WELFARE LEAGUE

All the Brothers and Sister of R. F. and H. A. Haynes, of this City, Present at Dinner.

Mr. W. C. and D. A. Haynes, and Mrs. Sam Gomard gave a dinner for the Haynes family on the occasion of the reunion in Sonny Florida, in honor of the great-grandparents of the Haynes family.

On Sunday evening, March 12th, Miss Ernest Harr of the Salvation Army, to whom the care of the guests was assigned, opened the meeting with prayer, and then介绍了 some of the activities of the Salvation Army.

The meeting was continued with a program of songs, prayers, and testimonies from the guests.

Miss Harr emphasized the importance of unity and cooperation among the Haynes family, and the need to continue to support the activities of the Salvation Army.

The meeting concluded with a prayer for the Haynes family and friends, and for unity and harmony in the community.

We also have our new son, Ford Motor Company, for the Ford car, sold on the same guarantee as the Ford car.
CASH FOR EVERY CUSTOMER
NO DRAWING CONTEST. NO LOTTERY. NO GAME OF CHANCE.
These Prices Include Fore Carriages.

These articles will give you the idea of saving the saving that for those who patronize our store before April tenth for every ten articles we carry will have a special price during this special sale period. Buy now and save money on what you will have to have later.

Mattox’s Bank, Mattox Success. Our Permanent Success.

PROVIDED TO THE AMERICAN

COMMENDATIONS LAID DOWN FOR ALL TRUE AMERICANS

Written by J. Howard Silverman. Rabbi of Temple Emanuel. 20 New York City.

From an exchange are clipped these commendations for true American leaders. Rabbi Silverman, rabbi of Temple Emanuel, 20 New York City.

First——The United States of America, is a nation which has brought forth the land of Democracy, out of the House of Bondage.

Second——The United States is a nation which has brought the land of freedom, out of the House of Bondage.

Third——The United States is a nation which has brought forth the land of Democracy, out of the House of Bondage.

Fourth——The United States is a nation which has brought forth the land of Democracy, out of the House of Bondage.

Fifth——The United States is a nation which has brought forth the land of Democracy, out of the House of Bondage.

These commendations are laid down for all true American leaders.

LOAN ON FARMS

For five, ten or fifteen years, in the counties of Crittenden, Marshall and Caldwell.

Valuation made.

No loans for less than $2,000.00.

We will go on your land. See us. We will write all kinds of farm insurance, including farm installment insurance. One of the oldest and strongest agencies in Western Kentucky.

CRIDER & WOODS.
Office Over the postoffice.
Marion, Kentucky.

A CASH PRESENT FOR EVERY CUSTOMER

PREVIOUS CASH OFFER—FREE POSTAGE

HERE ARE SOME STANDARD ARTICLES THAT WILL GIVE YOU AN IDEA OF THE CASH PRESENTS WE GIVE

JOHN DEERE TWO-ROW PLANTER

Always sold for $22.50. Our price $21.75. Cash Payment $5.

TWO HORSE, SELF DUMP HAY RAKE

Always sold for $12.50. Our price $11.75. Cash Payment $5.

Every Article Guaranteed.

MOORE & DAUGHTREY

4 North Main Street.

STANDARD ARTICLES FOR ALL TRUE AMERICANS

MEETING OF THE CABINET AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D.C., February 28, 1916

I. The President of the United States,Mr. Woodrow Wilson, called a meeting of the CABINET at the White House.

II. The President announced that the United States would recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands.

III. The President also announced that the United States would recognize the independence of Brazil.

IV. The President stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Argentine Republic.

V. The President further stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Dominion of Canada.

VI. The President concluded the meeting by saying that the United States would recognize the independence of the Republic of Ecuador.

STANDARD ARTICLES FOR ALL TRUE AMERICANS

MEETING OF THE CABINET AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D.C., February 28, 1916

I. The President of the United States, Mr. Woodrow Wilson, called a meeting of the CABINET at the White House.

II. The President announced that the United States would recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands.

III. The President also announced that the United States would recognize the independence of Brazil.

IV. The President stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Argentine Republic.

V. The President further stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Dominion of Canada.

VI. The President concluded the meeting by saying that the United States would recognize the independence of the Republic of Ecuador.

STANDARD ARTICLES FOR ALL TRUE AMERICANS

MEETING OF THE CABINET AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D.C., February 28, 1916

I. The President of the United States, Mr. Woodrow Wilson, called a meeting of the CABINET at the White House.

II. The President announced that the United States would recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands.

III. The President also announced that the United States would recognize the independence of Brazil.

IV. The President stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Argentine Republic.

V. The President further stated that the United States would recognize the independence of the Dominion of Canada.

VI. The President concluded the meeting by saying that the United States would recognize the independence of the Republic of Ecuador.
The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

LUCILE FISCHER

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.

The President's Wedding Cake

- an example of December 1917

For the opening of the first day of the National Industrial Conference at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, Mrs. E. F. Fisk, the wife of the President of the Conference, and Mrs. J. H. E. Fisk, the President's daughter, served a large wedding cake which they had made the previous day. The cake was a two-tiered structure, with a large wedding cake on the top tier and a smaller one on the bottom. The cake was decorated with white icing and had the initials "P.W." on the top tier. The "P.W." stand for "President's Wedding Cake." The bottom tier was smaller and had the same decoration. The cake was cut into pieces and served to the guests at the conference.
SPRING OPENING

New Lines of Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings now ready. See the New Styles for Spring, from YANDELL-GUGENHEIM COMPANY

We have gathered together for the Spring of 1916 a grand collection of Fine Clothing, the best we've ever seen. Famous makers have contributed their most powerful efforts; the mills, here and abroad, have given us their newest and handsomest fabrics.

Here is Style galore; a wonderful variety, a grand sampling, unmatched by any other store in town. . . . Come and see this show of beautifully tailored garments. It is here for you to see, without the slightest cost or obligation. Come and get posited on the new Styles for 1916 — you know the old saying, "If it will be out of style in the Spring, you'd better have it now." So come in and have your sartorial habit made here, no matter where you are. (If you do not care to buy anything just yet, come in anyhow, we will gladly reserve anything that you may fancy.)

No Higher Prices

"On Account of the War"

Full Lines of Spring Furnishings Ready at the YANDELL-GUGENHEIM COMPANY

Marion, Kentucky.
When you pay your bills, give your grocer first money.

He can't pummel you for the most necessary things in life—food.

The most important thing in the world is getting something to eat. If you must put off paying anyone, there's ONE person you should PAY BEFORE THE GROCER. BUT the grocer.

He is not wealthy, and has no more money than you do, plus in the bank. His money is all invested in merchantable goods. He asks you favors—no favors, but is entitled to a square deal—be fair—be just. Don't double your account.

Pay Your Grocer First!

You can make a Better Garden if you have the best tools. We have them.

If you want full value for your money trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

Miss Gladys James leaves tomorrow the Courthouse to become the latest creation in military.

S. F. Post a famous frontier hero has announced aJsonian and the city of the Century.

I am sorry I have not a clue as to what you have in mind.

Gladys James was in Esquimalt on business Fri and Saturday with her mother, Mrs. S. F. Post, and sister, Miss烧

FORBIDDEN—a pair of spectacles seen in the Public Library.

California beerhekke

Makes that good old fashioned beer that needs no further comment. Some of the best beer in the world can be obtained at the H.C. Cooper Store, 1193 Main St.

Mrs. Harry E. Leighty entertained her mother and a number of friends for several evenings. F оllowing the meal and music the guests were shown the new addition to the Leighty home.

Bale—In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

Mrs. W. A. Chouinard, 26, of Cranbrook, Ky., was killed.

By the evaporation of sugar in sugar in the sun, which provided food for the Indians, who had not reduced it to sugar.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

A distinctive drawer box put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture and Furniture Co. It is now being exhibited at the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

A distinctive mirror put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

The next step in the evolution of sugar is to be the production of a new sugar.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

To the Editor:

Council is planning a special election in the near future to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to build a new city hall, which will be one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

For Egging

Two hundred mules of various ages are in the stables at the Linnville Hotel. The hotel is now getting along, a $100,000,000 railroad and many other

Another mule was brought in by the Linnville Hotel, which is one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

The Daily Post

In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

A distinctive drawer box put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture and Furniture Co. It is now being exhibited at the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

A distinctive mirror put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

To the Editor:

Council is planning a special election in the near future to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to build a new city hall, which will be one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

For Egging

Two hundred mules of various ages are in the stables at the Linnville Hotel. The hotel is now getting along, a $100,000,000 railroad and many other

Another mule was brought in by the Linnville Hotel, which is one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

The Daily Post

In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

A distinctive drawer box put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture and Furniture Co. It is now being exhibited at the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

A distinctive mirror put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

To the Editor:

Council is planning a special election in the near future to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to build a new city hall, which will be one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

For Egging

Two hundred mules of various ages are in the stables at the Linnville Hotel. The hotel is now getting along, a $100,000,000 railroad and many other

Another mule was brought in by the Linnville Hotel, which is one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

The Daily Post

In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

A distinctive drawer box put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture and Furniture Co. It is now being exhibited at the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

A distinctive mirror put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

To the Editor:

Council is planning a special election in the near future to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to build a new city hall, which will be one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

For Egging

Two hundred mules of various ages are in the stables at the Linnville Hotel. The hotel is now getting along, a $100,000,000 railroad and many other

Another mule was brought in by the Linnville Hotel, which is one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

The Daily Post

In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.

A distinctive drawer box put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture and Furniture Co. It is now being exhibited at the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

A distinctive mirror put up by the Cranbrook, Ky., Furniture Co.

W. E. Holeda and Mrs. E. E. Leighty, of Cranbrook, Ky., are entertaining.

To the Editor:

Council is planning a special election in the near future to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to build a new city hall, which will be one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

For Egging

Two hundred mules of various ages are in the stables at the Linnville Hotel. The hotel is now getting along, a $100,000,000 railroad and many other

Another mule was brought in by the Linnville Hotel, which is one of the most necessary things for us to have. Let the good work go on.

The Daily Post

In Cranbrook, Ky., a small boy was run over by a railroad train and killed.

You are sure to be pleased if you trade with H. L. Lunds, Inc.
THE COTTONLAND RECORD-Press
March 16, 1916

Maintaining Earth Roads
Drainage of Some Important-Drug Should Be Put on a Duro-Resistant-Flow
To Operate Road Drug

(Prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture)

Why bear those pains?
A single bottle will convince you
Sloan's Liniment
Purifies Infammation
Prevents scute complications. But put a few drops on the painful spot, and the pain will disappear.

SLOAN & FRAZIER

The opening of our new spring goods means the showing of the latest cloths of fashion, we invite every woman, man, girl, boy and child to come and see us. Our styles are right; our prices are right. You will look no further for what you want for spring when you see our new goods. You will buy.
Get a Fresh Start!

For men who get away to a false start on a pipe or homemade cigarettes Prince Albert has a word or two for what all their smokehoppers.

Forget you ever read to triumph, for Prince Albert is no different, such a fine flavor, so cool and cheerful, you'll get a new class of smoke joy! The patented process feeds that — and cuts out bits and parch!

And this little preachment is also for men who think they're on the right track. All he be said is that the sooner you lay out a nickel or a dime for a supply of Prince Albert, the sooner you'll make a discovery hadn't be worth to your price of mind and body.

Get the idea of smoking you want without a comeback—that's P.A.J.

R. E. MANOLLITOS CO., Woman, S.C.
There Are Nine Ideal Figures

Which is Yours?

All are shown Correctly Corrected in a
Gossard Corset

SELECT the dressing that represents your figure best. You have but one. In your size, just the Gossard. It is made in the latest, newest, most desirable styles. Each Gossard is designed to accentuate the natural beauty of your figure—your figure—no matter how you wear it, or how you are built. Each Gossard is designed for your comfort and to meet your needs. Select any style you like and order your new Gossard today. Remember it is a Gossard.