FEATURES OF 1916 PROGRAM

Bird Masque and Pageant—White
Hussars—Parish Players—Killarney Girls—Schumann
Quintet—Well
Known Lecturers

Announcement has just been made by the Redpath Chautauqua management that Julia Claussen, eminent contralto of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, is to appear here on this season's Chautauqua program. Pierre Henrotte, concertmeister, and Marcel Charlier, director of French operas of the Chicago Opera Company, are the assisting artists. Mme. Claussen and her family, also the assisting artists, will travel over the Chautauqua circuit in a private car.

Julia Claussen comes from the land long ago made famous by Jenny Lind. Her versatility is apparent when one stops to think that during the Chicago grand opera season just closed she sang in German, Italian and French roles. On her Chautauqua tour she will sing a goodly portion of her program in English. It is said of Julia Claussen that she has never had an adverse criticism.

A strikingly new note is seen in this year's program in the production of Percy Mackaye's "Sanctuary"—a Bird Masque and Pageant with special costumes, and with a woodland setting secured thru a newly invented process for throwing pictures directly on the air without the aid of a screen. Ernest Harold Baynes, the well known naturalist, is to play the part of Shy, the naturalist, in this masque in the evening, and in the afternoon will give a lecture on birds and animals.

The White Hussars, thirteen in all, scheduled for two performances with Alfred Sweet, director, have developed a high standard in band music and they also appear as vocal choir of equal merit. They have appeared for four years in trans-continental tours in which they have played in nearly all the large cities.

On the third night of the Chautauqua, a half-hour's address will be given by an authority on the place of the drama in community life, and this will be followed by The Parish Players in a presentation of a strong and timely one-act drama, known as "The War Zone." "The Lady Teazle" scene from "The School for Scandal," will next be presented, then a romantic play and lastly a pleasing one-act comedy.

The Weatherwax Brothers, a vocal and trumpet quartet, who appear early in the week, first appeared in Iowa during the initial campaign of President McKinley, and have been upon the platform ever since, delighting great audiences in all parts of the United States.

The Schumann Quintet, also on the Chautauqua week program, a classical chamber music organization, with an established place in the musical world, in addition to their orchestral in-

Mr. Bennett has had the experience which enables him to talk on this subject. He started his college course with $10 and graduated with money in his pocket, having paid his way by singing.

Dr. E. T. Hagerman who has occupied the six leading pulpits of his denomination in six cities, a genius in word painting, and his thoughts emphasized by natural wholesome wit, has the gift of putting fundamental truths very simply. He will be heard on the closing afternoon.

WOMEN SHRINK FROM MODESTY

Bear Greivous Ailments Rather Than Make Condition Known.

The subjects of complaints peculiar to women is a delicate one, yet it is a plain duty to let these sufferers know that most of the derangements from which they suffer are due primarily to nervous debility.

Many a suffering woman, influenced by shrinking modesty, has borne this greivous condition without complaint rather than make a personal appeal. When many women say, "I am all run down, so nervous and weak," that means they are victims of the modern malady.

Such women, and they are a legion in every community, suffer from headaches, backaches, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. Their spirits are always depressed and their lives are not the normally happy ones of their more fortunate sisters. Often, too, there are spells of nausea, weakness, or even fainting, that make them feel insecure and to wonder when they will be embarrassed, or even in danger, because of their condition.

For such suffering women Tanlac, the tonic, tissue builder, appetizer and invigorant, is ideal. Tanlac builds up the system, promotes digestion and proper assimilation of food, vitalizes the blood and brings back healthy color to the cheeks and real sparkle to the eyes.

Tanlac may now be obtained in Marion at the J. H. Orme drug store, where its merits are fully explained.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: Blackford, A. T. Brown; Wheatcroft, Hardin Pharmacy; Clay, Kearney blue; Providence, R. G. Baynham; Sturgis, Meacham & King; Caseyville, W. E. Ames; Fredonia, W. E. Cox; Crider, L. W. Guess; Princeton, Wylie & Walker.

ATTENTION DRUGGISTS.

An exclusive Tanlac agent is wanted in every Kentucky town and village. Join the Kentucky Tanlac force of more than five hundred live merchants. For particulars address, Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio. Agency Department.

Notice to the Public

And to Contractors.

We will receive bids for repairing the old clerk's office in the Court-house yard, for the use of County Clerk, making same fire-proof.

Bids for same will be open for reception up until and including Saturday, May 6th, 1916. For plans and specifications see L. E. Guess, County Clerk or J. G. Asher, County Judge of Crittenden county, Ky.

The County Sunday school convention at the Southern Presbyterian church Saturday and Sunday, was the most interesting session and was reasonably well attended. Rev. Joplin and all the other speakers filled their places on the program and gave instructive talks to those who attended.

We feel safe in saying that the biggest day, the most-talked-of day, and in the end the most successful day in the history of the school here was last Friday—the day of the Central Interscholastic Association Track Meet and Literary Contests at Morganfield, when 105 pupils, teachers and enthusiastic school supporters of Marion climbed aboard the C. I. A. Special from Marion to Morganfield, taking with them as loyal and as truehearted young people as representatives as could be found anywhere, and a determination on the part of 105 people to win if good, clean work and loyal support could do it. The loyal, lusty and ever wholehearted Rah! Rah! Rahs! for Marion that broke the stillness of the morning at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, roused the people of the town from their slumbers and told them again that Marion still had a school, a name and young people to be proud of.

In the track meet, Owen Moore kept going higher in the pole vault until the judges awarded him first place and divided second and third honors equally between Hamby, of Marion and the representative from Morganfield. On the high jump first place was given the man from Morganfield and second and third honors were divided equally between Conyer and Hamby, both of Marion. In the hurdle race Conyer won second and in the broad jump Hamby and Owen Moore were far in the lead. Hamby first and Moore second. All the members of the team deserve credit for their faithful work. Captain Neville Moore was very much pleased with the showing of the team and the team and school were equally well pleased with his work as captain.

In the Declamatory Contest, Miss Bernice Sutherland, whose subject was "The Sign of the Cross," did her work so well that at the close of her declamation a continued storm of applause broke forth in appreciation from the entire Association and the word went round "she's from Marion" and the delegation from Marion was proud of the fair young lady who had brought such honor to Marion and to her school.

In the Oratorical Contest, Mr. Hebert Moore, of Marion, whose subject was "The Hand that Rocks the Cradle Rules the World," was the man of the hour. His splendid subject, so interestingly and so well developed, coupled with his own individual, earnest and forceful delivery not only won the decision of the judges but the approval of the audience. Not Guilty.

Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge leaned languidly over the top rail of his fence and gazed pensively at a hog lying in the road. A motor came skallyhooting down the hill and ran over the porker. Something went wrong with the mechanism, the ear swerved from the highway, plunged down into a considerable hollow and landed wrong side up with the occupants unconscious beneath it. Mr. Johnson presently strolled over and looked calmly down into the pit. "Say," he finally called. GOOD ROADS

PRAISE FOR AMERICAN ROADS

Compare Very Favorably With Highways of Many European Countries —Much Work in Progress.

"We Americans are prone to overestimate and sometimes to boast of that which we have," says J. M. Linscott, New England agent for a large motor car company. "At least that is the accusation made by our European cousins. I sometimes wonder if it is just. I wonder if we do not more often underestimate our possessions and our achievements. We really are a wonderful country, you know, and with full allowance for our shortcomings, a wonderful people, too. So I rather think we are justified in some of our boastfulness. It is an attribute of youth, and evidence of a good healthy youthful enthusiasm.

"Apropos of what?" you ask. "Well, of roads, for example. 'We are accustomed to saying that we have the worst roads in the world, and to hold up as an example of model roads the centuries-old highways of Europe.

"I have found in talking with Americans who have toured abroad that most of them will give as examples of model highways a few main traveled roads. But ask them about the general roads of any country and they will either tell you they do not know, or if perchance one has happened to lose his way and got on to one of the byways, he will admit that they are about as bad as has ever been seen in Michigan or Nebraska.

"Your traveled American will expatiate at great length on the wonderful roads of France. And they are wonderful. That is to say, some of them are. At that the total mileage of really good roads in that country is much less than most people imagine. We journeyed over cobblestone roads that would shake your teeth loose—and that in romantic Normandy, too.

"The roads in the British Isles are excellent, but after all New England has more, and they are just as good, despite the climatic conditions that favor the former. The Rhine route in Germany is all that has been claimed for it, but we have our roads up the Hudson to match it—and who shall say whether the scenery on the Rhine or the Hudson is more beautiful, since both are magnificent beyond description?

"The Texas road is made of crushed sea shells, which make a perfect surface, while the Italian road is composed of powdered marble from the great quarries of Carrara. Anyone who has traveled over this well knows he will not return that way because its beauty is deceptive. The gritty particles of marble will cut the tread off a set of tires in one trip.

"I wonder how many people realize the influence of climate on roads? I wonder how many of those who rave over the fact that the Apian Way is still in tolerable condition after more than two thousand years, have stopped to consider how long that same highway would last in Michigan, for example? The alternate freezing and thawing and heaving would disintegrate and cause it to wear away just as fast as they do our own macadam and cement constructions.

"How many of those appreciate how much road-building is going on not only in their own immediate neighborhood but throughout this country. "How many know that Michigan will build 800 miles of wonderfully good roads; that Indiana will build fully 600 miles of roads, and she already has 1,000 miles of excellent highways, which she is keeping in the pink of condition. Ohio will build fully 140 miles of roads. Some of the eastern Atlantic states—Massachusetts, Maine, New York, Pennsylvania—have thousands of miles of roads that are as fine as anything that lies under the sun. And these states are building more all the time."

Concrete Road Costly. It costs about $13,000 to build a mile of good concrete road. This makes a road everlasting, without dust, very few repairs, and good in all kinds of weather.

Stone Houses Are Cheap. Stone houses last much longer than wood, require no paint, therefore are much cheaper in the end.

Tarvin's Ear Muff Story.

Our distinguished fellow citizen, Mr. J. C. Tarvin, comes from the state of Florida, where good roads abound. Discussing the question of good roads in Crittenden county he said:

"The question of good roads in this county reminds me of the 'ear muff' story. Ever hear the ear muff story, huh? Well it goes something like this:

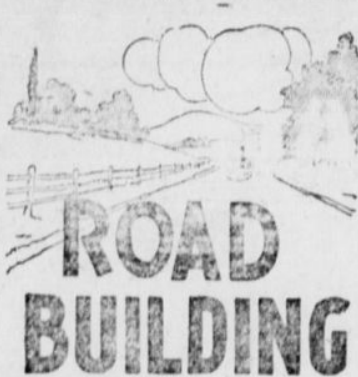

"A man with a new pair of ear muffs on was standing in a saloon with his left elbow resting on the left end of the bar counter as you face the bar keep. A very good friend of his came in and leaned on his right elbow on the right end of the bar counter, as you face the bar keep. The good friend said: 'Sam have a drink' and repeated the invitation. The ear muff man did not hear him. The good friend finished his drink and left.

"Then the bar keep polishing the top of the bar halted within two feet of the ear muff man and said: 'Sam are you sick?' 'No,' he replied, 'why?' 'Your good friend asked you to have a drink just now' said the bar keep. Sam jerked off the ear muffs and said: 'did he ask me to have a drink?' 'He certainly did.' The ear muff man walked to the stove and dropping the muffs said: 'nix on the ear muffs from this on, I'll never wear another pair as long as I live.'

"Now when the people of Crittenden get their ear muffs off, they will never have bad roads again as long as they live."

ROAD BUILDING IS DIFFICULT

Experience and Expert Knowledge Are Essential—Federal Government Offers Assistance.

Road building is a scientific problem—not a haphazard job. We believe, however, that if a census were taken tomorrow, 99 per cent of the people of this land would claim that they were amply qualified to build a road and edit a newspaper. Only a small percentage get a chance to try their hands on the blue pencil proposition, but a trip over almost any country road will convince one that most of the 99 have had a crack at road building.

Little by little the public in general and the officials charged with the responsibility for our highways are learning that road building requires expert knowledge and experience. That ridiculous, antiquated provision for "working out the road tax" which has spoiled more roads than a bombardment from all the high-calibered guns of the European armies, is gradually disappearing from our statute books. Board of county commissioners and township supervisors are giving the matter thoughtful attention and improvement will undoubtedly be rapid from now on. The federal government is offering every assistance to the forward movement. Objectless roads are constructed upon application of township or county authorities to demonstrate proper methods of construction and proper use of road-building materials. The office of public roads and rural engineering of the department of agriculture furnishes the services of an engineer, and the local communities are required to furnish all the material, labor and supplies. Experimental roads are also constructed to determine the relative merits and values of the various types of road construction, and of the various preparations and materials for use in road construction. In certain instances the office pays only a portion of the cost of these roads and the balance is borne by the county in which the road is located.

It is too bad that we had to wait for the wall of the stalled automobile to awaken us to the shameful condition of our roads. A Scotch civil engineer was imported as adviser in the matter of building a railway over our great western plains. He investigated very carefully and gravely reported that the project was unfeasible. When pressed for his reason by the astonished promoters of the enterprise, he said: "You cannot build a line of railway over that country because there's no place to run your tunnels." The "designer" of most of our country roads has been laboring under a similar twisted and contorted vision of his job—but we're on our way.—Iowa Homestead.

CONCRETE ROADS GAIN FAVOR

Highways Are Expensive to Build, but Are Proving, Especially in California, Everlasting.

Investigations by the department of agriculture have shown a wonderful increase in the popularity of roads with heavy concrete base. Such roads are expensive to build, but are proving, especially in sections like California, almost everlasting. The best investment California has made has been her good roads. There have been some mistakes; there have been disappointments because of the inability to cover all sections, but there have been enough benefits secured from the good roads to amply compensate for all they have cost.

Community Action Needed.
 In many places community action in destroying weeds is necessary, as it may not be profitable for a farmer to clear his side of the road if the other side is allowed to remain a harboring place for pests.

Add Pleasure and Comfort.
 Well-kept trees growing along the roadside contribute greatly to the pleasure and comfort of the travelers besides lending an attractive air to the grounds along the ride.

WAR'S COST PUT AT $90,000,000 A DAY.

Total Expenditure Up To Coming August 1st Estimated At $45,000,000,000.

New York, May 2.—War now is costing the nations of Europe more than $90,000,000 a day, according to estimates prepared in a booklet to be issued by the Mechanics & Metals National Bank of this city. Of this enormous total the principal burden falls on the Entente Allies. The bank estimates that the cost per hour to England, France and Russia is approximately $2,500,000, while to the Teutonic empires the cost is in excess of $1,000,000.

The total cost of the war if it is still in progress August 1, next will have been $45,000,000,000. Of this sum Great Britain's share will have been $11,600,000,000, Germany's a trifle less and France's $9,250,000,000.

Two years of the war, the booklet states, will cost six times more than the full amount expended in the Civil War; will reach a sum forty times more than the amount of our national debt and will be 120 times more than the cost of the Panama Canal.

The Following Letter Received By Citizen of Marion Settles Part of the Good Roads Controversy.

Commonwealth of Kentucky,
 Department of Public Roads,
 Frankfort, Ky.,
 April 16, 1916.

Robert C. Terrell,
 Commissioner.

Dear Sir:—

The law plainly states that roads should be built on inter-county seat roads to adjoining counties in adjacent states as well as to adjoining counties in the state. There is no reason why a road could not be built from Marion to a point on the river most convenient for crossing to Elizabethtown, in Hardin county, Illinois.

Furthermore, when other inter-county seat roads have been constructed, the money available may be used for the construction of roads that are of sufficient importance to be considered by the Highway Commissioner as available to receive State aid. When you have built your road to Union county, to Webster county, to Caldwell county, to Lyon county to Livingston county and to Hardin county, Ill., then any other roads that are of sufficient importance to receive State aid may be taken up and built. However, I do not believe that, with the amount of your bond issue, you will be able to complete any more than the inter-county seat roads and possibly not so much, but each of the inter-county seat roads may be commenced and carried as far toward the completion as the money available will permit.

Yours very truly,
 Robert C. Terrell,
 Commissioner of Public Roads.

Economy is a distributive virtue, and consists not in saving, but in selection. It demands a discriminating judgment and a firm, sagacious mind.

—Edmund Burke.

The only road to advancement is to do your work so well that you are always ahead of the demands of your position. Our employers do not decide whether we shall stay where we are or go on and up; we decide that matter ourselves. Success or failure are not chosen for us; we choose them ourselves. —Mable.

DEATHS

The infant son of Sam Le-neave, one month old, died Saturday and was buried at Sugar Grove. It's mother died two weeks ago and it was laid beside her.

James Fletcher, of the Crayne section died Thursday and was buried Friday at Crayne graveyard. He was 77 years of age. He leaves a wife and several children.

SOCIALISM AND THE FARMER

Many good but misguided people believe that Socialism means "dividing up," "breaking up the home," "against religion," and many other foolish things that have been circulated by the enemies of Socialism and those who though honest were uninformed. The same objections were hurled against our American patriots who declared that Kings were no longer needed and that the people were capable of self government by popular vote.

The conservative members of society have always opposed every thing new and believed in letting well enough alone. If this kind of advice was followed, how many rail roads would have ever been built? How many schools and inventions, for they were all equally opposed in their infancy just because they were not understood. This then is the only objection to this great humanitarian movement called SOCIALISM. Socialism is the post office, the public school, the highways, the fire department and all other socially used things which are socially and collectively owned. It requires workingmen to mine coal, but the post office could employ coal miners, pay them better wages, and yet furnish coal to the people cheaper than private stock holders do today. The same method used in operating the post office, can be applied to the coal mines and the railroads.

From the U. S. Labor report we find that it requires now with improved machinery entire labor cost, 48 hours and eighteen minutes to make a farm wagon, and the total labor cost is $7.19. It costs the farmer $65.00 for lack of Social distribution.

Time of making a pair of best shoes 54 minutes, labor cost 34c, sells for $5.00. Through the great revolution going on in Europe, nearly all of the industries are being now run by governments. That is partial Socialism. Political action will establish Socialism in the U. S., without bloodshed if the people are educated to understand its purpose. If they are kept in the dark, we can expect the same bloody war in this country. —J. L. Stark, State Secretary Socialist Party, Kentucky.

Another Petition From Fords Ferry Precinct.

Mr. Marshall Jenkins,
Editor Crittenden Record-Press:
Dear Sir:—
Seeing a notice in a recent issue of your paper where, Mr. W. H. Graves is going to petition the County Court to move the voting place of Fords Ferry precinct from Fords Ferry to Sam Flanary's, because it would be nearer the center of the precinct. Of course Mr. Graves has a petition signed by several voters of said precinct, nevertheless here comes the opposing faction with a petition signed by bona fide voters giving full and just reasons for the retention of the voting place at Fords Ferry. If we move the voting place we will be moving an old landmark of which we are justly proud. Another reason is that we are in conjunction with Post Office, telephone, store lunch counter and river, and the river is the means by which the Weston boys come to vote. If a change is affected all parties will lose some votes from Weston. Now, with information in the hands of the County Court and wide awake voters of said precinct our petitioners beg for the retention of the voting place at same old stand.

Sherman G. Ford.

Review of the Morganfield Trip.

If you didn't go to Morganfield you missed a great treat. Marion was well represented in contests, supporters and rooters. We made an excellent showing, better illustrated by what a little Morganfield girl said, than anything else. After hearing us yell she surveyed our crowd and heaving a sigh of relief said to a Marion girl, "Well you ain't got any more than us."

The track meet in the afternoon was excellent. It is inspiring to see strong young men work fairly and squarely in such a contest. Marion boys won first place in the events they had an opportunity to practice on. On account of our having no track our boys were deficient in running. We have some excellent material, all we ask is a chance and we feel sure we can win.

The contests were very enjoyable. In the girl's declamatory contest, Miss Nannie Wynn, of Sturgis, was awarded the gold medal given by the Association.

The oratorical contest was where Marion came in for high honors. Hebert Moore delivered his oration, "The Hand that Rocks the Cradle Rules the World," in his most pleasing manner. From the standpoint of oratory it is an excellent piece of work, inspiring and uplifting, and it is also a worthy representation of the excellent character and high ideals of its writer. He is a most promising young orator who is going to be "heard from" in not a distant future. When the chairman called out Mr. Moore as winner of the handsome gold medal given by the C. I. A., you should have been in the Marion crowd. We were in a paroxysm of joy. It was grand to see the hero of the evening borne from the hall on the shoulders of his young comrades. It was inspiring to see such uncurbed happiness as prevailed in the crowd of Marionites, and gave you a very agreeable sensation to know that you belonged to the same town and school of one so talented and honored. If you didn't go to this track meet and contest you will never know what you missed. If you did go you have resolved to go next year, and the next, etc. —haven't you. Now 'fess up. —One Who Went.

with a wild set, was among the visitors on "Go-to-Sunday School Day." He became a regular member of Young Men's Bible Class. Soon after he declined an invitation to go on a Sunday excursion where he knew there would be drinking and gambling, saying, "No, boys, no more of that for me. I have something so much better."

At another Sunday School none of a certain family had attended church or Sunday School for more than a year. On "Go-to-Sunday School Day" the children were permitted to go and from that day became regular members. In a few weeks the twelve-year-old boy united with the Church. The mother then sent to the old Church home for her letter. And now the father, too, often sits with them at the Church service.

The Story of the Sun. day School Dollar.

HOW THE DOLLAR WORKED
On "Go-to-Sunday School Day" in one of our Sunday Schools an old man said, "I am over seventy years old. It has been forty years since I was in a church. The man who is now Governor of Kentucky was my Colonel during the war. I always obeyed every order he issued. When my old Colonel issued the order that everybody must come to Sunday School today I had to obey. Now I am here, what are you going to do with me?" A Men's Bible Class was ready for him. Three weeks later he became a member of the Church and has lived a consistent Christian life ever since.

At another Sunday School, a young man, who had been going

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

There has been quite a lot of complaint about the spread of infectious disease among cattle and hogs about, in the county, and of recent date an especial complaint has been made, relative to carcasses of hogs, having died with cholera, and which were dumped, it was claimed into Cumberland river near Dycusburg and having floated down and lodged on the premises of people living below and thereby spreading the infection. THE ROAD BOND QUESTION

Believing that there are two sides to all questions and that each side of a public question should be discussed, is the reason that I am asking space in the RECORD-PRESS to present one side of the Road Bond subject.

I think we would first try to understand what it is we are asked to do, our present condition, and what we may expect to attain. We are asked to bond our property for $185,000.00, to rock a part, a very small part of the roads of Crittenden county, notwithstanding the fact that we already owe between $30,000 and $40,000, with the tax rate up to the limit. These two amounts would run considerably over $200,000.00, and the interest $10,000.00 or more per year. Do the farmers, earning their bread by the sweat of their brow, working and toiling on the thin hills and scant valleys of Crittenden county, feel that this would be no additional burden? Do you feel that you can spare from your already small earnings, your proportion of this big debt, this mortgage on the county, therefore on your property?

We have about 600 miles of road in our county. From the best information I can get, this would rock forty or fifty miles, probably one-tenth of the mileage of the county, leaving nine-tenth of the roads to be worked some other way. The State Aid law requires the roads along the most practical routes from county seat to county seat, to be rocked first, and, when that is done, (and I do not believe there will be enough to accomplish that much) there will be very little or nothing for any other road. When these roads are completed and accepted by the state, then the county has them to keep up.

Now, you hear a great deal about State Aid; that the state will pay half, and we can get from the state so much per year, and so on. The state does agree to pay half, after we have built the road and paid for it, and it has been accepted by the state. But what amount she will pay each year, nobody knows, nobody can know, for the amount she is able to pay depends upon the demands made on the State Road Funds, and nobody knows what these demands will be from year to year. They may be so heavy that the amount received by any county will be very small. This State aid is also paid to the counties in proportion to the amount spent by them for rock roads. Our assessed value is about $3,800,000.00.

The Fiscal Court is required to make an additional levy of 20 cents on the $100.00 to pay the interest on and retire these bonds. 20 cents per $100.00 on the above amount would be $7,600. The interest on $185,000.00 at 5 per cent would be $9,250.00. These bonds will not draw but very little, if any less than 5 per cent interest. So you see we will not only not be able to retire any bonds, but will not be able to meet the interest with the twenty cent levy. We will be paying $10,000 or more per year interest on our present debt and the bonds. None of these bonds can run a shorter term than five years; consequently, we will have paid out $40,000 to $50,000 in interest before a single dollar worth of the bonds have been paid. How are we to meet these obligations? Where is the money to come from? Don't you feel that your taxes are already becoming burdensome? Are you ready for more?

The inducement of Federal aid is held out to us, when no bill extending aid, has ever passed Congress, and no assurance that it ever will. This is not only "counting chickens before the egg is hatched," but before the egg is laid, in fact, the old hen has not even decided that she will lay the egg. Any one who imagines that the Federal government will, in any way, aid in paying these bonds, should have a prize, were it not against the law, for pure and simple, mostly simple, optimism. Time enough to take advantage of government aid after a law to that effect has been passed by Congress.

We hear a great deal about our already paying 5 cents on the $100 into the State Road Fund, and that we are losing that. Everybody knows we do not have to issue bonds to get that back. The Fiscal Court can set aside an amount equal to the amount we pay to the road fund, (for instance about $2,000 per year), and receive that much from the State, provided the sum is used in making rock or some hard surface roads. This to me seems to be a serious proposition for the farmers of Crittenden county to think about. Remember, when all other promises and pledges fail ours has to stand for these bonds, because our farms are pledged that they shall be paid whether we get value received or not.

A debt is easy made, but often it takes years of toil and labor, denying ourselves comforts and pleasures to enable us to settle it. We can have this burden put on us in one day. It may take generations to pay it off. Would it not be wiser to pay what we already owe than to add new obligations to the old?

Aged Man Takes First

Ride on Train at 101.

Elizabethtown, Ky., May 1.—James Mabe, of Upton, celebrated his one-hundred-and-first birthday by taking his first train ride to this city. The journey was made in a blinding snowstorm, but uncle Jimmie was so comfortable and tickled that he paid no attention to the flurry of the elements. He spent two hours at the county judge's office, where hundreds of his friends, who knew of his visit, called to congratulate him and wish him well.

"This has been one of the most important and happiest days of my life," he said "and I hope to repeat the trip next year."

Before leaving Elizabethtown Mr. Mabe threatened to show some of the young fellows how a real professional fox hunter conducted himself in the excitement of a chase.

"If I were just a wee bit stronger, I'd show you now," he said.

A Summer Home to Buy.

The Forestry Service will lease you a patch of ground on the National Forest, where you can build a summer cottage that will come as near your dream of outdoor comfort as your purse and building ability will take you. Go anywhere in the 300,000-mile expanse—that's six times the area of New York State—pick out a spot that suits you, ask the forest supervisor for it—and it's yours. Not exactly free, for the minimum rental is $10 a year—but all the rest of the estate is yours to enjoy.

And Uncle Sam will give you all your fuel and sell you the logs for your house dirt-cheap. If there is no mill at hand, you might whipsaw the lumber yourself; or build your cabin of logs, as plain or as fancy as your taste dictates. The stumpage will cost you $1 up as high as $3 per thousand feet. But that isn't a very expensive house; you could build a comfortable little cabin for $10 to $15.

One does not need to lease a residence site, however, to enjoy the privilege of the National Forests. One can go in, in any way he chooses—by wagon, on foot, by pack train, by railroad, by auto, or fly in, or swim—and camp or travel indefinitely, with no charge. There are no signs of "Keep off the Grass" or "No Trespassing Allowed." Fuel, horse feed, timber for repairs or camp necessities, all are free.—May Outing.

Dangers of Draft

Drafts feel best when we're hot and perspiring, just when they are most dangerous and the result is Neuralgia, Stiff Neck, Sore Muscles or sometimes an attack of Rheumatism! In such cases apply Sloan's Liniment. It stimulates circulation to the sore and painful part. The blood flows freely and in a short time the stiffness and pain leaves. Those suffering from Neuralgia or Neuralgic Headache will find one or two applications of Sloan's Liniment will give grateful relief. The soothing pain gives way to a tingling sensation of comfort and warmth and quiet rest and sleep is possible. Good for Neuritis too. Price 25 cents at your Druggist.

What Is Home?

Recently a London magazine sent out 1,000 inquiries on the question: "What is home?" In selecting the best responses the magazine was particular to see that every class was represented. The poorest and the richest were given an opportunity to express their sentiments. Out of the 800 replies, seven gems were selected as follows:

"Home, a world of trouble shut out, and world of love shut in."

"Home, the place where the great small are great and the great are small."

"Home, the father's kingdom, the mother's world and the children's paradise."

"Home, the place where we grumble most and are treated best."

"Home, the place where our stomachs get three square meals daily and our hearts a thousand."

"Home, the only place on earth where the faults and failings of humanity are hidden under a mantle of charity."—Sun.

LOYD'S BRAIN LEAKS.

By F. S. LOYD:

Carloss Oakley said: "Pa, what is difference between a vocation and a vacation?"

"A vacation consist of a lot of hard work that you're not compelled to do, my son."

Ambrose Wheeler says, Before he gets her he thinks she is a bird of Paradise. After he gets her he has a suspicion that she belongs a little further south than Paradise.

Daddy says, Did you ever notice it that the man with the least money, is the fellow who has the most places to put it.

Albert Elder says, You can't blame a married man for not wanting to listen to advice when he is down town. He gets plenty of advice when he is at home.

"There's no use talking," growled Albert Elder, "a woman can't take a joke."

"She can't, eh," snapped Mrs. Elder, "well what did I do when I married you?"

Carloss Oakley said: "Pa, what is a coupling device?"

"A preacher, my son."

Taylor Stokes says, When a man has an ax to grind he isn't very particular who he uses for a grindstone.

Uncle George Stelling says, Uncle Billy Loyd will devote six days in the week to get money, and the seventh day to keep it.

Mrs. Oakley said: "Willie, who was it in the bible that asked for bread and received a stone?" As she looked up from a magazine she was reading.

"It was some poor newly married man who let his wife have for him, I guess."

George Crider says, Never turn your back on a failure. Give him the benefit of the doubt. Once in a while a man fails because he is too honest to succeed.

The sermon was long and prosy, and Miss Imogene Wigginton was tired and worn out, was enjoying a little nap. The preacher ended his discourse and announced, "We will sing hymn No. 432." The tired telephone girl awoke with a start when she heard the number and said in a sweet voice "The line is busy."

Jim Freeman says, All our editor has to do is to sit at his desk six days in a week, four weeks in a month and each stuff like this! "Johnnie Highland, of Marion, lets an opener slip last week and cut himself in the pantry."

Uncle Dock Green says, Think before you speak and you won't say much.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Peter Radford
On Church and State

The recent action of one of the leading churches of this nation, in annual convention, demanding that the laymen vote only for candidates for office whose views coincide with those of the clergy on one of the leading political issues, and direct and indirect efforts of other church organizations to interfere with the freedom of the ballot, make one of the greatest perils of this age, and present a problem that should receive thoughtful consideration of both laymen and citizens.

Suckling babies may well squirm in their cradles when ministers in convention assembled release the hearts of men and grab them by the throat, for Christianity has broken down, religion has become a farce and the pulpit a failure. When the church substitutes force for persuasion, command for conviction and coercion for reason, the sheriff and policeman bury the dead, for why a church?

It is as dastardly a crime against government for a minister to undertake to deliver the votes of his parishioners to a candidate, as it is for a ward heeler to deliver a block of votes to a political boss, and both ought to be prosecuted, for the law should be no respecter of persons.

It is as objectionable for a convention of ministers to seek by canonical law to control the votes of church members as it would be for a convention of manufacturers to issue orders for their employees to vote for a certain candidate. Such conduct is offensive to decency, business morals and a crime against society. Any convention, whether composed of saints or sinners, rich or poor, white or black, that seeks to prostitute power and coerce conscience ought to be broken up by the police and its leaders arrested for treason.

A crime by any other name is a crime just the same. An ecclesiastical robe cannot sanctify treason, authority to preach does not carry with it license to become a political ringster, or the right to teach us how to pray give a permit to tell us how to vote. No man in joining the church should sacrifice his citizenship, forfeit his constitutional liberties or subordinate his duty to the state. The earth many times has been drenched with the blood of our forefathers fighting to throw off the ecclesiastical yoke from the state, and the suggestion of a return to these medieval conditions with their horror and their torture should not be tolerated for a moment.

Laws should be passed prohibiting any preacher, or combination of preachers, from delivering or attempting to deliver their membership or congregation to any candidate for office, and suitable legislation should be passed preserving the sanctity of the pulpit from political vandalism. It is as much a menace to church and state for a politician to occupy the pulpit as for a minister to preach a political sermon. He has no more right to preach his politics from the pulpit than a teacher has to teach his politics to his pupils. A preacher cannot make political trickery righteous by usage any more than he can make profanity respectable by practice. It is one of the ironies of fate that a preacher may become a scandal as well as a glory to civilization.

LEVIAS

Delayed from last week.

The Easter hunt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burdick's Sunday afternoon, was an enjoyable affair to both young and old of our Sunday school. There were several dozen eggs found, all colors and sizes, which afforded the children much pleasure hunting around over the wood, under trees and logs. Master Herschel Love found the most eggs and was presented with a nice Easter card by Mrs. Burdick. He also found the large china egg which was given by Mrs. Florence Price. There were forty-six at our Sunday school last Sunday and we hope to have many more next Sunday. Everybody come.

7TH S "GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL" DAY

Much Enthusiasm Has Been Created By This Annual State Event

SEEK ATTENDANCE OF MILLION

Kentucky Association Has Prepared Program to Be Furnished to Sunday-Schools Upon Application—Movement Accomplishes Much Good Since Origin.

Go-to-Sunday-School Day has become an annual affair in the state of Kentucky. The first one was held in 1914, when a great enthusiasm was aroused among the Sunday Schools of Kentucky. In every part of the state invitations were sent out to all the people, organizations were formed, and a new interest in the Sunday Schools was awakened. The attendance upon the Sunday Schools on this day was increased from three hundred thousand to six hundred thousand. Last year the goal set was one million; and so complete was the organization in the different counties and towns, the number was reached. The special direction of the day has been given to the Kentucky Sunday School Association, which is a state-wide interdenominational organization.

This Association has prepared the following program for the day, and will send sufficient copies free to any Sunday School making application for them to the Kentucky Sunday School Association, 712 Louisville Trust building, Louisville, Ky.

ORDER OF WORSHIP AND INSTRUCTION

- May 7, 1916.
- 1.—Music—Strains of sacred music played softly at the sound of which all will be silent.
 - 2.—Call to Worship.—
Superintendent—(Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name, bring an offering and come before Him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.)
School—(I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. Unto Thee lift I up mine eyes, O Thou that dwellest in the heavens.)
 - 3.—Prayer.—
Hymn—"All hail the power of Jesus' name."
 - 4.—Responsive Reading from the Scriptures.
Leader—"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer for Israel is, that they might be saved."
School—"Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."
Leader—"The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is the word of faith, which we preach."
School—"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
Leader—"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."
School—"For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed."
Leader—"For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek; for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon Him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."
Hymn—"Love divine, all love excellant."
 - 5.—Responsive Reading.
Leader—"On April 25, 1915, one million people in Kentucky attended Sunday School. This year the Sunday School of the state are trying to equal that record and in time we are all hoping that one million citizens of our state will have formed the habit of regular Sunday School attendance."
School—"Did any permanent good result from Go-to-Sunday-School Day last year?"
Leader—"Sunday School officers reported an increase of more than fifty thousand regular attendants as a direct result of that day. Many of these have become church members. In some schools, that day marked the beginning of a steady growth in membership."
School—"Is Kentucky the only state where Go-to-Sunday-School Day is observed?"
Leader—"The first state-wide Go-to-Sunday-School Day was observed in Kentucky with such splendid results that the attention of the whole country was attracted, and since that time many other states have inaugurated such a movement, and many more are planning to have their first Go-to-Sunday-School Day in 1916."
School—"How is it possible to secure the co-operation of all the Sunday Schools of this great state in this movement?"
Leader—"Because the Sunday School workers of Kentucky have formed a state-wide organization, the Kentucky Sunday School Association, which is interdenominational, reaching and helping all fields, and reinforcing the work of all the denominations."
School—"How are the affairs of the Kentucky Sunday School Association managed?"
Leader—"By an Executive Committee composed of forty members elected by the State Convention to which every Sunday School in the state may send delegates. This committee is composed of representatives from the following churches: Baptist, Christian, Episcopal, Evangelical, Lutheran, Methodist, Reformed, and Presbyterian."
School—"Is this work needed in Kentucky?"
Leader—"It is, for in our state for every one who goes to Sunday School there are four who stay away."
Teachers—"Because in some counties in the state there are no trained teachers in the Sunday Schools, and yet most of the teaching of the Bible must be done in these schools because there are so few churches where there are regular preaching services."
Women—"Because there are fourteen counties in Kentucky where there is no cradle roll, and less than one-third of the Sunday Schools of the state have cradle rolls."
Men—"Because there are still in Kentucky twenty-one counties where there are no Organized Adult Bible Classes, and twenty-one counties without Home Departments."
School—"Because there are forty counties in Kentucky in which there is no Organized Class for Teen Age Pupils, and there are thousands of these classes that should be having the benefit of class organization."
Leader—"These facts and other similar ones indicate the need of convenient, instructive, conferences, surveys, personal visits and other means of presenting standards and stimulating interest in Sunday School work."
School—"What is the Kentucky Sunday School Association doing to meet these needs?"
Leader—"It employs four workers for full time, holds about 400 district and county conventions each year, conducts about 25 institutes, visits about one thousand Sunday Schools each year to give some direct help, distributes leaflets on the best methods of Sunday School work, sends out many thousand letters and circulars, responds to every appeal from any Sunday School state.

School—"How much does this work cost?"—During 1915 the total cost was $2,300.00.

School—"How is this money secured?"—From offerings of the Sunday Schools and gifts of individuals.

School—"Go-to-Sunday-School Day each school is asked to make an offering to this work."

School—"How is it possible for any organization to do so much work at so small an expense?"—By the help of many hundred volunteer officers in counties and districts, and by the most careful management of the affairs of the Association.

School—"Let our schools do its share in this work for 'A Greater and a Better Kentucky,' strengthening the work of our own school and extending interest and help to all parts of the state."

8.—Hymn—"Tell me the old, old story."

9.—Lesson Tought.

10.—Reports—Announcements.

11.—One verse of "My faith looks up to Thee."

12.—Benediction.

The next State Convention will be held in Somerset, October 5, 6, 7, 8, 1916. Every Sunday School in the State is entitled to send delegates to this Convention, and will gain by doing so.

THE STORY OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL DOLLAR.

The result of the Go-to-Sunday-School Day has been manifest in a large increase in permanent membership of Sunday School and Church. As a direct result of the movement last year fifty thousand visitors became Sunday School members. Here are three typical cases:

An Old Soldier.

On "Go-to-Sunday-School Day" in one of our Sunday Schools an old man said, "I am over seventy years old. It has been forty years since I was in a Church. The man who is now Governor of Kentucky was my Colonel during the war. I always obeyed every order he issued. When my old Colonel issued the order that everybody must come to Sunday School today, I had to obey. Now I am here, what are you going to do with me?" A Men's Bible Class was ready for him. Three weeks later he became a member of the Church and has lived a consistent Christian life ever since.

A Young Man.

At another Sunday School, a young man, who had been going with a wild set, was among the visitors on "Go-to-Sunday-School Day." He became a regular member of the Young Men's Bible Class. Soon after he declined an invitation to go on a Sunday excursion where he knew there would be drinking and gambling, saying, "No, boys, no more of that for me. I have something so much better."

A Junior Boy.

For more than a year none of the family had attended Church or Sunday School. On "Go-to-Sunday-School Day" the children were permitted to go and from that day became regular members. In a few weeks the twelve-year-old boy united with the Church. The mother then sent to the old Church home for her letter. And now the father, too, often sits with them at the Church service.

The Kentucky Sunday School Association has been busy in many fields of service. A few of its activities are listed below:

- 1 Go-to-Sunday-School Day, bringing 600,000 visitors to Kentucky Sunday Schools.
 - 1 State Convention, bringing together representatives from 63 counties.
 - 1 School of Methods for the training of Association officers.
 - 1 City Training School, giving a twenty-weeks' course to representatives of forty-nine Sunday Schools.
 - 1 Mountain tour by an international worker.
 - 2 Older Boys' and Girls' Conferences.
 - 20 Institutes.
 - 74 County Conventions for the workers of more than three thousand Sunday Schools.
 - 104 Counties visited by a state worker, each visit bringing direct help to from one to one hundred Sunday Schools.
 - 200 Special rallies.
 - 300 District conventions with practical, helpful programs.
 - 40,000 Copies of the Kentucky Sunday School Reporter distributed.
 - 98,000 Circulars of information distributed.
 - 11,000 Personal letters.
- With this record back of it and even larger things planned for this year, the Kentucky Sunday School Association, 712 Louisville Trust building, Louisville, Ky., asks for the hearty co-operation of all people desirous of making a greater and better Kentucky in its work for the best organization, equipment and teaching in all the Sunday Schools of the state. You cannot make a better investment than by making a contribution of this Association. Do it now.
- To secure one million people in the Sunday Schools of Kentucky on May 7th, will mean that every member of the Sunday Schools must be present that day and bring somebody else. If you haven't been to Sunday School for years, this will be a good time for you to come and see what is being done in the Sunday School. In most schools you will find many changes, many improvements. You will be sure of a cordial welcome.
- Kentucky Sunday School Association,
712 Louisville Trust Building,
Louisville, Ky.
- You owe it to yourself and your state to attend Sunday School on May 7, 1916. If you find there any good for yourself, or any opportunity to do good for another, become a permanent member.

Restores Health and Costs No More Than the Conventional Substitutes.

An element which the prospective motorist seldom takes into account in his estimate of the benefits which his car will bring, is the inspiring influence which the car brings to the health and strength of himself and his family.

Many a life has been prolonged by a doctor's prescription that consisted solely of one motor car, taken in regular and frequent doses. More often than not, so doctors say, the cars advent marks the loss of many a remunerative patient who, given this added incentive to regular, pleasant outings in the open air, has been entirely cured of some real or imaginary ailment.

Especially is this benefit noted among persons of advancing age, to whom a daily outing or two in the open air often proves a restorer and an agent of prolonged life and good health.

"Pay as you ride" Stevens of the T. H. Cochran & Co. local Maxwell distributors, is fond of telling in this connection of a case that recently came under his own notice.

"I happen to know a commercial tourist," Mr. Stevens says, "whose salary is probably about $125 or $150 a month. He is middle-aged and has no body dependent on him but his wife, who was for many years an invalid.

"After trying all sorts of treatments to be restored to health, he bought a light, medium priced automobile. The car was of no use in his business, except as a means of transportation to and from work, but he told me the other day that it had already paid for itself in both happiness and in cold cash.

"Every pleasant evening this man and his wife have motored the streets and 'boulevards' of their home city. Every holiday when weather has permitted, they have enjoyed a short tour in the country. He spends his weekly vacation in the car and takes his wife with him.

"Since he has had the car, he has not incurred one cent of doctor's bill. His wife is, for the first time in years, absolutely well and radiantly happy. As for the maintenance expense, he declares that it is easily covered by the reduction in livery bills, theatres and other amusements which the car has displaced.

"The last time I saw him, this man told me that, if his car couldn't be replaced, he wouldn't sell for it for any price. It has transformed the whole atmosphere of his home."

In 1819 the Directors of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company voted $20 for a "town watch to patrol the streets and guard against incipient fires." From that day to this the Hartford has played a leading part in the development of every modern method of fire prevention and control, from the earliest attempts at fireproof construction to the latest automatic sprinkler system. You get good advice on fire prevention as well as absolute protection when insured in the Hartford.

Hartford, Conn., May 3.—On one of the coldest nights this winter Mrs. Annie Dietz, of 115 Mechanics street, prudently wore woolen sleeping hose when she went to bed. Testifying in court against Michael Arenwich, who was held in $500 bail on the charge of burglary and attempted theft from her person, Mrs. Dietz said:

"As I was placing a roll of $400 in my stocking, I heard a slight noise, and looking out, thought I saw this man stepping back from my bedroom window. The next I knew I was awakened by feeling one of my stockings being pulled off. Before I could turn on a light the intruder jumped through the window and disappeared with my left stocking."

The chief reason why Arenwich was charged merely with attempting theft was that Mrs. Dietz put the money in her right stocking.

AFTER FOUR YEARS Princeton Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Princeton story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

J. H. Thompson, plumber, Princeton, Ky., says: "I was troubled for five years with backache and other annoying symptoms of kidney complaint. During the early part of the winter when the cold weather set in, I was sure to have an attack of lame back that would make it impossible for me to work for days at a time. I tried many medicines but got no relief. I finally got Doan's Kidney Pills and in two days was back to work, feeling better in every way. I do not have backache now and my health has been greatly improved."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER Mr. Thompson said: "I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever I have had occasion to use this excellent medicine I have been greatly benefited."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Thompson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MONKEY FIGHTS ROBBERS After Being Knocked Senseless Animal Recovers And Gives Alarm.

Attacked by a large monkey, robbers who broke into the residence of L. G. Graves, 3037 Aldrich avenue S., escaped only after battling with the animal and knocking it unconscious. The encounter took place in the basement of the Graves home while the family was asleep.

Graves was awakened at about 2 a. m., by moans at his bedroom door. He found his pet monkey lying on the floor with a deep wound on its head. A trail of blood led to the basement. Mr. Graves found a window removed and the place in disorder.

"The monkey was sent me a short time ago by a friend in South America," Mr. Graves said. "He has not yet been tamed to any extent, and I believe that he would give fight if encountered in the night."

"He may have inflicted a very serious wound in biting his assailant, for the strength of his jaws is great. Not long ago he broke the neck of a cat which wandered into the basement at night, with one bite. I was watching at the time, but before I could reach him the cat was dead.—Minneapolis Journal.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body. In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamlike sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrient gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.
