MARION SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Miss. Very Large Enthused. Teachers of Agriculture For High School

The time has come again to open the doors of our schools. The first Monday in September is set aside for the annual "opening of the books." This is the signal for the students to join their friends in the classrooms, for the teachers to welcome them back, and for the staff to get ready for another year of educational pursuits.

At the Marion High School, the students are prepared to embark on a new academic year with great enthusiasm. The teachers are ready to guide them through their studies and help them reach their full potential.

HORRIBLE DETAILS ARE GIVEN OF DEPORTING FRENCH CITIZENS

Paris, Aug. 2—Pig-sized dustmen and half-a-dozen French citizens from the French towns of Bordeaux, Lyons and Tournon were given in French yellow back numbers for publication today. The German orders were given in a certain district of those towns to assemble in rendezvous for departure at the French lines, where they were to be left at the German lines and some of the women in the houses and the men the prisoners of war. The prisoners of war and others were sent to the German lines, where they were to be left at the German lines and some of the women in the houses and the men the prisoners of war. The prisoners of war and others were sent to the German lines, where they were to be left at the German lines and some of the women in the houses and the men the prisoners of war.

As a result of these orders, several hundred people were deported, and among them were many women, children, and elderly persons. The deportations were carried out with great violence and brutality.

The deportations continued throughout the day, with thousands of people being forced to leave their homes and travel to the German lines. The conditions of the prisoners of war were terrible, with many suffering from hunger, thirst, and exposure.

In society

On last Thursday evening Aug. 1, Miss Elva Abell attended a tea at the Woman's Club in Marion (Indiana) in the home of Mrs. J. M. Abell. Mrs. Abell's daughter, Miss Mary Abell, was the hostess of the tea. There were about thirty people present at the tea, and the atmosphere was very pleasant.

The tea was a success, and the guests enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Abell served tea and refreshments, and everyone had a good time.

To the Outlaws of Public

Knash in Cedartown Co.

As a number of outlaws said, I would suggest that if you have a cow, you should sell it first, avoid making any unnecessary expenditures, and make your own food. Open your face and your clothes, and take up all open side clothes and make your own. You can use the surface as clothes and make your own. The roads this weekend will be filled with the grooms of Jacob's.

WHEN more than half the motorists-men and women-in the United States are driving cars of some reason other than low price, the Ford is a better car for less money.

Over a million and half Ford owners know this by experience. If you are contemplating the purchase of an automobile, be sure to give this Ford owner's manual a thorough reading--then you can buy a Ford.

We are taking orders now for our cars and are ready to make deliveries in September.

BEATING THE HESSIAN FLY
Methods of Successful Nipping in Farmers.

At this time, when the apple is in the stage of coming on, this is an especial time to give the hessian fly a fearful thrashing.

The hessian fly is a serious pest of apples, and it is necessary to keep it under control. The fly lays its eggs on the leaves of the tree, and the resulting maggots feed on the leaves, causing them to turn brown and fall off. This can significantly reduce the yield of the apple crop.

To combat the hessian fly, there are several methods that can be employed:

1. Cultural Control: Remove and destroy infected leaves to reduce the number of overwintering sites for the fly.
2. Physical Controls: Handpick and destroy adult flies and eggs. This is effective for small orchards.
3. Chemical Controls: Use pesticides that are selective and have minimal impact on beneficial insects.

It is important to monitor the population of the hessian fly and implement control measures accordingly. Regular inspection of the orchard can help identify the infestation early and initiate appropriate control actions.

Horse Power From This Powerful MAXWELL ENGINE

Almost 33 1/3 horse-power from this regular stock Maxwell engine!
33 1/3 actual, brake horse-power!
Proved by an accurate dynamometer test, made in the Maxwell laboratories August 10, 1916.

There has been a lot of talk about horse-power, and we just want to let Maxwell owners and prospective buyers know that in respect to horse-power, as in most other respects, the Maxwell leads by a comfortable margin.

Not that we attach such great importance to horse-power, we don't. We never have. Horse-power—abundant horse-power—is only one of many superior features of the Maxwell automobile.

We are selling motor cars—complete motor cars—not engines or horse-power. Horse-power is a matter that is secondary to motor efficiency and economy. A giant has no advantage if he does not apply, or wrongly applies, his strength. Maxwell cars have horse-power—all you want or need—probably a pound of car weight than any other automobile in the world.

But we don't make any loud cry about it.

Because we have more than horse-power, not just enough to have the cars on sale.
Because you are, and should be interested in results, the net effectiveness of power.

We challenge competitive tests. We invite comparison.

Because we absolutely know that no car of its class or weight can surpass the Maxwell on speedways, on rough roads, through sand or mud, anywhere. And because we know, and you will know, that, everything considered, the Maxwell is the World's Greatest Motor Car Value!
