MOTHER GOOSE BIRTHDAY PARTY

An Evening of Pleasure Given the Grownups By the Little Folks.

Those who attended the Mother Goose Birthday Party at the School Auditorium last Friday evening had two assurances that they would be pleasantly entertained. First the program was to be given under the direction of Miss Lena Holtzclaw and Miss Ethel Hard and the music was arranged by Miss Lucile Pope and these young ladies never fail in any thing they undertake; second the program was to be given by our own boys and girls and they are "always there with the goods" when anything worth while is to be undertaken.

The program was to begin at 7:30 and by this time the house was filled and a minute later the program which proved to be one of the most pleasing ever given on the Auditorium platform was in full swing. All the Mother Goose people were there, dressed in the garb of those people which are so much loved by the little folks and doing their part to make the whole entertainment one great success. We cannot begin to mention the names of the little ones who for the evening made the time seem all too short to us, and we could not say just who played his part best because it seemed that every child was exactly suited to the part which he or she was to play and there was not a "hitch" from the minute the Goose Girls, beautifully costumed, appeared on the stage to tell us in those beautiful little child songs of Mother Goose land that the program had already begun until the grand finale when the entire cast consisting of sixty little tots, dressed in as many different costumes, left the stage in one of the most elaborate parades ever seen on a platform in Marion.

We knew from the first that the whole affair would be a success but to be honest it even surpassed our dreams and after we have said all that we can find words to express we must say "the half has never yet been told." Another point scored for our school which continues to grow.

One On St. Peter.

St. Peter settin' at the gate;
Nigger passin' by—
St. Peter up and sez to him,
"How did you come to die?"
"G'ix de man whut heit de gun
A-pintin' at dat roos?"
Goonx de cog what heit my foot
An' wouldn't turn it loose!"
"And so," St. Peter sez to him,
"You was ketchin' in de ac'
Dat nigger turnt an' looked at him
An' spon's: 'H'it is a fac'!"
"Down in de deep den you mus'
go,
Fer stealin' 'ud dat hen!"
The nigger scratched his head
Right hard;
St. Peter had him den!
But 'deck'y lifted up his arms
He floy 'em on his sides.
An' 'zactly like a rooster crow
Three times out loud he cries
St. Peter hung his head wid shame—
He member uv his sin—
An' grabbin' up a great big key,
He let dat rigger in!

Carl Flanary Dead.

News reached here Friday morning of the death of Carl Flanary, who died suddenly the evening before at Portageville, Mo. where he had been a cotton buyer for several years. We are not able to learn the particulars of his death as the message only contained the sad news and said that the body would be held for burial until his sons, Oral and Roy who live with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daughrey of near Hebron, could get there. Oral is attending High School here and he and his brother left on the afternoon train Friday.

Mr. Flanary was well known in the country and the news of his death came as a great shock to his numerous friends. He was married twice, his first wife being Miss Maggie Daughtrey who died about twelve years ago. He married his second wife in the town where he was living at the time of his death.

Besides his wife and two sons he is survived by one sister Mrs. J. J. May of this city.

Collecting Debts.

A doctor was called to see a farm hand. He couldn't find anything wrong with him, and so reported.

"That is what I thought," said the farmer, "go back and tell him there is nothing the matter." The doctor went back and jumped the man in bed. "There isn't the least thing wrong with you, what are you lying there for?" said the doctor.

"I know it," replied the hired man, "but that man hasn't paid me a cent for three months, and I intend to stay right here until he does pay me."

"Roll over and make room for me," said the doctor, "for he hasn't paid me anything for three years."

DEATHS

C. W. Green, Jr., the twenty months old infant son of Walter Green, (son of Dan J. Green, of this city,) died Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock, at the residence of T. R. Yates where the child and its mother were visiting. They came here from Jacksonville, Fla., before Christmas for a visit to relatives to remain until Mr. Green had removed and gotten settled at Ridgeway, Va., their new home. The child was taken ill a month ago.

Mrs. Green was a Miss Gillett, of Kingland, Ga.

The funeral and interment took place Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Revs. Short and Trotter officiating. A beautiful incident to the funeral was the four young lady pall bearers, they being Misses Nonie Beile Williams, Myrtle Glass, Miriam Pierce and Eva Yates.

Daddy's Little Boy.

You hear that little boy laughing?—you think he's all fun; But the angels laugh, too, at the way he has done; The children laugh loud as they troop to his call, And the poor man that owns him laughs loudest of all.

CHARITY.

We know so little of the hearts That everywhere around us beat; So little of the inner lives Of those whom day by day we greet; Oh! it behooves us, one and all, Gently to deal with those we meet.

Gently to deal, and gently judge, With the divinest charity That thinks no evil, but would seek

The good in every soul to see; Measuring not by what it is, But by that which it strives to be.

Narrowly Escaped Death.

Sidney Marshall, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins, was run over by the bus and two horses attached to it, Sunday afternoon at Senator Deboe's corner, but miraculously escaped any injury. He was accompanied by his parents and his father had just carried him across the street presumably out of danger, when the youngster made a dash for Judge Blue's gate across College street just as the team turned the corner out of Depot street in a swift trot. The knee of the off horse struck the child and knocked him down and two of his hoofs struck on each side of him, and the wheels of the heavy bus with four people in and on it, passed within two inches of his little body but did not touch him.

The near accident was witnessed by crowds returning from the two trains which had met here. The parents were almost paralyzed and the mother collapsed and took her bed on reaching home, where a careful examination revealed the fact that her baby did not get a scratch, his good old grandmother avowing, that the good Lord had saved his life, and all agreed she was right.

"GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL"

Sunday, May 7th. Everybody Must Be Prepared to Attend Sunday School

On last Tuesday evening a meeting of all the Sunday School officers, teachers and other S. S. workers of the town was held at the First Baptist church, to make plans for a campaign to interest the people of Crittenden county in the annual "Go-to-Sunday-School-Day" which has been set this year for Sunday, May 7th. Committees were appointed and plans made for a thorough canvass, so that every person in the county will be given an urgent invitation to visit some Sunday School that day, and every Sunday School in the county will be benefited.

It is hoped to make the attendance this year a record-breaker for our county, and keep our name along Sunday School lines where it has always been close to the top.

Armon Deboe.

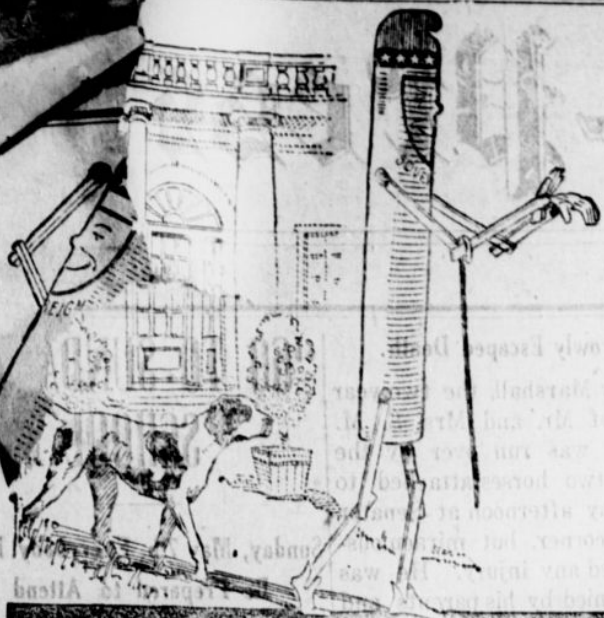

The death of Armon Deboe, on Jan. 30th, 1917, after a short illness, came as a great shock to his family and friends. He was born Oct. 13th, 1896, on a farm near Fredonia and was the oldest child of M. R., and Maude Deboe. He grew to young manhood on the farm and had the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. He attended school at Lily Dale and was a regular attendant at Sunday School and church at the Baptist church at Fredonia.

Armon was a kind, affectionate boy, gentle in his manner, noble and virtuous and ever considerate of the welfare and interest of others. At school he won the admiration of his associates and teacher, studious in his habits and aspiring. He was industrious, frugal and ambitious to succeed in life and it seemed that his prospect was bright, but for the fatal illness which soon took him away.

Hard, indeed, it was for the family and loved ones to give him up, but with a life so filled with kind deeds and with a heart of love for the things highest and best and endeavoring to follow his Lord and Master in life and service, we rejoice that his ministry was blessed, and feel that the Father must have for him a larger place Yonder. He has left to the grief stricken family and friends the rich legacy of noble youth and their lives will be the sweeter, the better because of his wholesome living and gracious ministry.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church at Fredonia and the sermon was read by the pastor, Rev. Barnett. The interment of the family lot at the new tery at Fredonia.

AUTO WEDDING

From the Brilliant Pen of Editor Tom Underwood.

Says Col. Tom Underwood in a recent issue of the Hopkinsville New Era:

The wedding of Miss Mary Cadillac and Mr. E. M. F. Studebaker was pretty vulcanized at the First Presbyterian garage last Wednesday evening. The Ceremony was performed by the chauffeur, who used the Sedan Type of ceremony, and a bank of palms formed a nice arch before which the touring party stood. The altar was nicely upholstered in black morocco, with demountable seat covers. Before the ceremony, Prof. Anthony Chalmers played "I Love You Truly" on the Gabriel horn, and rendered it exquisitely, assisted by Rudolph Packard on a Claxton. The tour was led by ushers, Messrs. William Franklin and Henry Ford. Miss Katherine Baker a beautiful six-cylinder model, was the first pathfinder, and motored in alone, followed by other bridesmaids, Miss Josephine Stutz, Ethel Renault Horstense Flade s, and Madejene Bauck. Mrs. Raach-Ling, the Matron of Honor, came in with lights burning a d exquisite demonstrating the Cherry Shock Absorbing Spring Wheel, and parked close to the altar. Miss Harriet Thomas coasted down the other speedway, followed by the beautiful roadster, Miss Gladys Hupmobile, who was the pillow bearer. Then came the bride on the fender of her father, who gave her away in marriage. Mr. Studebaker and his best driver met them at the gas oil tank. Miss Cadillac's gown was of beautiful mohair trimmed with Jiffy curtains. She carried a gorgeous demountable bouquet tied with an exquisite bow of Firestone rubber. Mrs. Raach-Lang's gown was of Roe blue with nickle trimmings and hand-forged embroidery. Her bouquet was beautiful and of standard equipment. Miss Thomas' gown was of Mercedes satin with an over-skirt of Pierce-Arrow voile. She carried a bouquet of American Underberg roses. Mrs. Studebaker's going away gown is a 1917 model on conservative lines. She wears a top boot to harmonize with it.

School Closed at Pleasant Grove

Miss Martha Wi born closed a very successful school at Pleasant Grove Feb. 15th.

There was so much sickness in the district, she didn't have any program on the last day. She had a Fox Supper during the school and secured enough to set a nice look case, a chart and a globe for the school. Miss Flora Curnel was selected Librarian. We have one of the best school-houses in the County. Some of the other teachers that have taught successful schools here are: Homer Davidson, Miss Della Stenbridge, Ewel Hardin, and Marion Smart. This was Miss Martha's first school. We certainly appreciate the interest she took in the school and would be glad to have her back again.

I believe she leaves soon for Bowling Green to enter school. We wish her much success where ever she goes.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of the woman's tonic, and I began to feel better. From the very first, I could tell it was helping me. Now, with two bottles without stopping, I am doing my work. Prominent English Statesmen Want Woman Suffrage For England

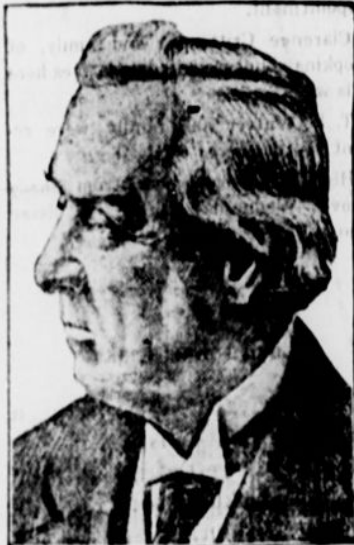

WILL ENGLAND ENFRANCHISE HER
WOMEN BEFORE AMERICA DOES?

ADMISSION FROM AN EX-ANTI
WHY PREMIER GEORGE
IS FOR SUFFRAGE

Asquith No Longer Denies Women's Claim to Governmental Recognition.

In woman's terrible fight for suffrage in England, between the years 1910 and 1913, there was just one force that defeated them. That was the force in the will of the then Prime Minister, Mr. Asquith. Parliament was converted, the Cabinet was converted, the people were converted. Mr. Asquith was not converted. Again and again he fell back on the argument of the ballot and the bullet. Only those who could come to their country's defense in war time could hope to win the franchise under his ruling. Then the war. And now, Mr. Asquith again, proving his claim to greatness by his fair-minded development.

"It is true," says this new convert, "that they cannot fight in the gross material sense of going out with rifles and so forth, but they fill our munition factories, they are doing the work which the men who are fighting had to perform before, they have taken their places, they are the servants of the State, and they have aided in the most effective way in the prosecution of the war. What is more, they say, and this is a point which makes a special appeal to me, they say, When the war comes to an end, and when these abnormal, and to a large extent transient, conditions have to be revised, and when the process of industrial reconstruction has to be set on foot, have not the women a special claim to be heard on the many questions, which will arise directly affecting their interests, and possibly meaning for them a large displacement of labor? I cannot think the House will deny that, and I say quite frankly, that I cannot deny that claim."

HERBERT ASQUITH

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS.
(And the men are beginning to learn)
That any work that needs doing is woman's work.

When the men are late coming home from market she does the chores.

When they are busy with the hay she milks the cows.

When an extra hand is needed with the harvest she helps in the field.

When the men are in the trenches, she makes the shells, runs the trolleys, handles the baggage and drives the taxis.

The Sultan of Egypt is reported to have declared: "One of the greatest results of the war to the Orient will be the complete emancipation of women. Woman should be given the opportunity of developing and educating herself in the highest possible degree."

At a Constitutional Convention held recently at Queretaro, a proposal to enfranchise the professional and business women of Mexico was favorably entertained.

THE SUFFRAGISTS' CREED

We Believe
That "governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

We Believe
That a democracy is "a government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

We Believe
That women are people and are governed.

We Believe
That no state can be a true democracy in which one-half the people are denied the right to vote.

We Believe
That women need the vote for the same reason that men need it.

We Believe
That because laws regulate a woman's life, tax her property and may even sentence her to death, she should have the right to share in the making of the laws.

We Believe
That democracy bids everyone stand up and be counted, and that on Election Day no one should be counted for more than one.

If you believe this, join the Votes for Women Movement.

Nation Needs Woman's Experience in Management of Its Affairs.

Premier Lloyd George has expressed himself as unqualifiedly in favor of votes for women, in the following words:

"I have long been a convinced advocate of woman suffrage and am now firmer than ever in supporting it. It seems to me a necessary and desirable consequence of the vast extension of the functions of government which the last century and a half has witnessed. No franchise bill can ever again be brought forward in this country without raising the whole problem of whether you are going to exclude more than half the citizens of the land. Women have entered pretty nearly every sphere of commerce and industry and professional activity and public employment, and there never was a time when the nation stood more in need of the special experience, instincts and sympathy of womanhood in the management of its affairs."

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE

WAR ITSELF HAS EXPLODED WAR ARGUMENT AGAINST SUFFRAGE.

Greatest of English Editors a War
Convert.

The conversion to woman suffrage which is the most notable in many a year is that of Lord Northcliffe, leader of Conservative forces in Great Britain and owner of the London Times and Mail, as well as other English publications. His influence through the many columns he controls is enormous. His opposition was by many considered of more importance than that of Premier Asquith. Editorially he says that the old argument against giving women the vote was that they were useless in war times, but they have shown that the war couldn't be carried on without them.

BIOLOGICALLY SPEAKING.

"It may be that woman's effort to secure the franchise is but the surface indication of a great biologic movement. Perhaps the present feminist agitation will bring a change in human destiny. When we consider that woman was evolved to preserve, to perpetuate the species; that in the course of that evolution, she developed traits—traits which are the logical results of her care for her children—it would seem that there must now also be evolved within her a great fundamental reaction against the harshness of man. This harshness, this pugnacity, this greed for killing was put into man through evolution, and it cannot be mitigated save through further evolution. Perhaps one of the influences in this further evolution will be woman's natural reaction against needless violence."

(George W. Crie, in "A Mechanistic View of War and Peace.")

A Page For Men

WHY HE IS FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS A QUESTION OF LIFE ITSELF.

"Its growth has gone on not because women are discontented. It is because women have seen the vision of duty. And that is something which we not only can't resist, but if we be true Americans, we do not wish to resist. What we have to realize in dealing with a force of this sort is that we are dealing with a question of life itself."

SEES EARLY SUFFRAGE VICTORY

President Jacob Gould Schurman, of Cornell University, views the struggle for woman suffrage in the Eastern states, as "a battle already won." Dr. Schurman says:

"The women of the East will not be content to remain permanently disfranchised while their sisters in the suffrage states of the West have it in their power to elect the president and members of Congress, and so shape the policies of the Government of the United States. I do not mean that the old arguments in favor of woman suffrage have lost any of their force. I recognize their validity today as I have accepted them for many years past. But the recent national election has brought out in a more striking way than ever before the practical circumstance that the Nation cannot remain permanently divided, with one-half of its women enfranchised and the other half disfranchised. The recent national election has given this circumstance a unique and impressive setting. And the cause of woman suffrage has gained such a tremendous momentum that unless I am entirely incorrect in my forecast the suffrage will be granted to women in all the states of the Union in the course of the next few years."

Chicago women voted in almost the same proportion as men at the last election. 95.5 per cent. of the men who registered voted and 95.2 per cent. of the women.

SOUTHERN SUFFRAGISTS SCORE
---EYE-OPENING FIGURES---

It looks as if Tennessee would be the first Southern State to get into the suffrage column. Its bill for presidential suffrage passed the House of Representatives in January. But the whole South is well to the fore in the race to enfranchise women. Bills for presidential suffrage, modeled after the Illinois equal suffrage statute, will be introduced in the legislatures of twelve southern states. In their fight for the suffrage Southern women have brought forward some eye-opening figures with regard to southern population. For instance: In four southern states, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky, the number of white women exceeds the whole colored population. In Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, North Carolina and Louisiana, woman suffrage would tremendously increase the preponderance of white votes; in Mississippi and South Carolina, where the colored population exceeds the white, equal suffrage would double the educated electorate.

Contrary to impression, the increase of white population is more rapid than the increase of colored population.

The official estimates of population for 1916, published by the Bureau of the Census, show that the white population in twelve southern states has increased 10.8 per cent. in the last seven years, while the negro population has increased only 5.6 per cent.

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES ON THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION

Is For The Federal Suffrage Amendment.

"I deprecate most deeply sex organization, based upon general obligations of citizenship borne by all. And so I want to say, women, if they are to have the vote, as I believe they are, are to come in as citizens with men."

"I believe this question should be promptly settled. I see nothing but danger to our security, to our unity, to our proper attitude toward political questions in continued agitation of this subject, and I would take the shortest cut to its solution."

"I further believe that it is a matter affecting the whole country. It is one of those matters where we must have a uniform policy. The country must decide on what that policy should be. I have indicated

my belief as to what it should be; but it is a question which affects the whole country, the composition of our electorate, and therefore I believe that the Federal Amendment should be submitted and should be ratified."

COLONEL ROOSEVELT IS FOR A GREATER AND TRUER NA-TIONALIZATION, AND THE QUICK WAY TO GET IT.

"I believe that the time has come for a greater and truer nationalism in this country. I believe in the nationalization of the issues which affect not only men but women also."

"I, therefore, heartily endorse any federal amendment which shall substantially provide:

"(1) That the right of the citizen of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, on account of sex.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

"(2) Congress shall have power, and it shall be the duty of Congress by appropriate legislation to enforce the provisions of this article."

FOR ETHICAL REASONS.

For ethical as well as for political reasons, the Democratic party should adopt a Federal suffrage amendment as a national issue, in the opinion of William Jennings Bryan.

"Equal suffrage," says Mr. Bryan, "was the one question upon which all parties were agreed in the last campaign, their differences relating only to the method of securing the reform. While the Democratic and Republican parties failed to commit themselves to a national amendment, we might as well recognize the fact that a national amendment will come when the reform is adopted in a sufficient number of states to make its adoption by the nation probable."

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

"The Democratic party, which builds upon a foundation which is essentially ethical—the doctrine of brotherhood—has that reason for welcoming the co-operation of women in the work that lies before the party and it has especial reason for regarding woman suffrage with favor at this time, since the influence of the women in the close states was sufficient to determine the result."

HON. FREDERIC C. HOWE

A COMMISSIONER WITH A WANT

Frederic C. Howe, Commissioner Immigration at the Port of New York, says he wants equal suffrage. "It is an essential part of democracy. Those who live under a democracy have a right to mould its development. They have a right to a voice in the society in which they live; a right to be heard on all matters which affect their interest. That is the essence of democracy."

"I want equal suffrage for what it will do for women. It will emancipate them. It will give them a new self-respect."

"I want woman suffrage for what it will do for men. It will change men's minds toward women. It will dignify women in men's eyes."

"I want equal suffrage for what it will do for society. Women's interests are social interests. Men's interests are likely to be individual interests. Modern society is so interwoven with industry, so burdened with wrongs of social order, that demands as never before the co-operation of women to correct these."

Nearly 200 representative citizens signed a petition which we published last week asking the fiscal court to make an appropriation to build a bridge across Butler's Creek, and we are informed that our fiscal court favors the project. This is as it should be, the bridge is needed and has been for many years. The wonder is that those good people in that section have not demanded it sooner, now let the court appropriate money to put the bridge up high enough - we mean build the people still enough and wide enough approaches to do away with danger. Don't leave it half done, good approaches are necessary part of the bridge.

I realize that each generation is destined to confront new and peculiar perils, to wrestle with temptations and seductions unknown to its predecessors; yet I trust that progress is a general law of our being, and that the ills and woes of our future shall be less crushing than those of the bloody and hateful past.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

320,817

Have been built and actually delivered to retail buyers since August 1, 1915.

These figures—320,817—represent the actual number of cars manufactured by us since August 1st, 1915, and delivered by our agents to retail buyers. This unusual fall and winter demand for Ford cars makes it necessary for us to confine the distribution of cars only to those agents who have orders for immediate delivery to retail customers, rather than to permit any agent to stock cars in anticipation of later spring sales.

We are issuing this notice to intending buyers that they may protect themselves against delay or disappointment in securing a Ford car. If, therefore, you are planning to purchase a Ford car, we advise you to place your order and take delivery now.

Immediate orders will have prompt attention. Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months.

Cold Sores and Fever Blisters

are only outward manifestations of the inflammation of the mucous surface that lines the lungs, the stomach and all the digestive tract, but they give you evidence of how sore a membrane may become as a result of inflammation, which is stagnation of the blood, rightfully called acute catarrh.

If you suffer from such conditions don't let them become chronic, don't run the risk of systemic catarrh.

Clear it Up With PERUNA

When your system is cleared of all its poisons, the membranes soothed and healed, the cold gone and your digestion restored, you will enjoy life, feel equal to all its tasks, and be at peace with the world. Let Peruna do for you what it did for this sufferer:

Mr. L. A. Patterson, 238 Utah Avenue, Memphis, Tenn. says:

"I have been a friend of Peruna for many years. I have used it off and on for catarrh of the stomach and it is a very excellent remedy. I have a small family of children. Times ago but I can scarcely afford to do without Peruna, especially during the winter when colds and coughs are prevalent. We always recommend Peruna to our friends, for the benefit it has been to us."

You needn't suffer longer with such a remedy at hand.

Peruna can be obtained in tablet form. You can carry it with you and take it systematically and regularly for a remedy, or as a powerful cathartic. Got a box today.

TO VOTE ON ROAD BONDS

$100,000.00 Bond Issue For Constructing Roads and Bridges in This County

Order calling for an election in Crittenden County, Kentucky, on the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of building and reconstructing roads and bridges.

Crittenden County Court, Regular Term, Feb. 12, 1917.

Hon. John G. Asher, P. J.

Whereas, on the 8th day of January, 1917, a petition was lodged and filed with this Court, as appears of record on the Order Book thereof, and,

Whereas said petition asks that this Court call an election to be held in Crittenden County, Kentucky, for the purpose of testing the sense of the voters of Crittenden County as to whether, or not, the Fiscal Court of said county shall have power and authority to issue and sell bonds from time to time in sums not to exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars, ($100,000.00) in the aggregate for the purpose of building, constructing and reconstructing public roads and bridges in Crittenden County, and

WHEREAS, said petition was ordered to lie over until this date for action of this Court, and

WHEREAS, the court finds that the value of the taxable property of Crittenden County, including railroad, according to the last assessment roll, is approximately $3,800,000.00, and, from proof heard, the court finds that to be a fair valuation of said property, and that 5 percent thereof will exceed the sum of the proposed One Hundred Thousand Dollar, ($100,000.00) bond issue, and

WHEREAS, the said petition having been examined by the Court, the court finds and adjudges that it is in proper form, and from his own knowledge and from proof heard, the Court finds and adjudges that same is signed by not less than 150 legal voters, who are freeholders and residents of Crittenden County.

Now Then, said petition is ordered filed, and it is filed, and it is further ordered and directed

A Strong Man.

Dr. J. D. Threlkeld, a well-known retired physician of Crittenden county, has become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative in the Crittenden-Livingston district. It is hardly probable that he will have any opposition for the nomination, as he is regarded as one of the strongest Democrats the party could put up, and it takes that kind of candidate to beat the Republicans in that district, which usually by the Court that an election be held at all of the voting precincts in Crittenden County on Tuesday, March 27th, 1917, by the regular election officers in and for Crittenden County, for the purpose of testing the sense of the voters of Crittenden County, as to whether or not the Fiscal Court of Crittenden County shall have power and authority to issue and sell bonds from time to time in a sum, or sums, not exceeding in the aggregate One Hundred Thousand Dollars, ($100,000.00) for the purpose of building and constructing and reconstructing public roads, and bridges in Crittenden County. Said bonds to bear interest, not to exceed 5 percent, per annum, with coupons attached payable semi-annually. Said bonds to be in denominations of not less than One Hundred Dollars, ($100.00) and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each to run not less than 5 years nor more than thirty years, and to be redeemed within that time at the pleasure of the fiscal court, and to be sold at not less than par value and accrued interest; and D. E. Gilliland, Sheriff of Crittenden County, will advertise said election, and the objects thereof, for at least thirty days next before the 27th day of March, 1917, in some newspaper having the largest circulation in said County, and he shall also advertise it by printed handbills posted up at not less than four public places in each voting precinct, and at the Court House Door. All legal voters shall be privileged to vote at said election, and L. E. Guess, Clerk of the Crittenden County Court, is directed to have prepared a sufficient number of ballots for holding said election on which shall be printed the question.

"Are You in Favor of Issuing One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) in bonds for the Purpose of Building Roads and Bridges in Crittenden County, Kentucky?" as is provided in the General Election Laws, Section 1459, Kentucky Statutes.

The Sheriff of Crittenden Co., is ordered to have the polls open at all of the voting places and precincts of Crittenden County, on the 27th day of March, 1917, for the purpose of holding said election.

JOHN G. ASHER,

County Judge Crittenden County.

FORD'S FERRY

Owing to unfavorable weather conditions there has been practically no winter plowing in this neighborhood during the past two months. This is somewhat of a disappointment to some of our enterprising farmers, who adhere to the theory that land broken up in the winter will retain its moisture better, withstand drought easier and yield a larger crop than the land which is broken up in the spring.

Will Alvis went to Marion Saturday.
Miss Glenna Rankin is at present visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. B. Wilborn, of Ford's Ferry.

Charley James and Miss Anice Brewer were united in marriage last Wednesday by Rev. Rufus Robinson. The wedding was somewhat unexpected even among their closest and most intimate friends, notwithstanding the fact that they have been sweethearts for over a year and have been personally acquainted with each other for a much longer period. The bride is a pleasant natured little lady with a congenial disposition, and the groom is a sterling young farmer who has been living in this neighborhood for over ten years. The young couple have been got a number of friends who wish them much happiness and prosperity
during their voyage through life.

Herman Clift went to Marion Friday.
Nolan Brewer has recently returned home from Paducah, where he spent nearly a month in the hospital as a result of some injuries he received while working on a tow-boat. Nolan still retains an optimistic attitude and hopes that he will soon be as well and strong as ever.

Walter Hughes was in Ford's Ferry
Saturday.

A citizen of this town was recently discussing the German-American situation, and during his conversation he expressed his belief that there was little real danger of actual hostilities between this country and Germany.
He declared that the Teutonic empire was so utterly exhausted in resources and so completely incapacitated by the terrible conflict which has been raging in Europe that she is in no position to fight the United States. He also confidently predicted that the German submarine campaign against England would prove to be a failure, and that the final, inevitable collapse of the Teutonic cause was only a matter of time.

BLACKFORD

March 1st, 1917

This day is the beginning of the windy month and doubtless the readers of the Record-Press may expect a "wind-jamming" epistle from Black-ford, therefore, we shall endeavor to chronicle the best that we have in our vocabulary at this date.

Since our last report of the event-which have occurred in this part of the world, there have been two communications. One Feb. 7th, Mrs.
Zizzie Hazel Brantley, a sprightly young widow, and John Phillips were married, and on Feb. 13th, (the unlucky day) Miss Della Scott and Frances Phelps were mated according to law.

Also, during the period of time called February, a number of the public schools have completed their terms.
The school at Applegate, taught by Elsie Travis, was out on Thursday,
Feb. 15th; the school at Hoods Creek,
taught by Miss Edith Davis, on Friday, Feb. 16th; and Prospect school, taught by Miss Mary Crowell, closed on Tuesday, Feb. 17th. The schools at Blackford are yet in progress.

Re Roscoe C. Babb,
F. B. Babb, of Crittenden valley, and is president of "Eureka club".
No. 1, was among the Blackfords at a recent date. Come again friend Brightman, your jovial disposition brightens our prospects for "better or worse."

Our townsman, J. A. Oakley, who is one of our leading merchants and also superintendent of the Sunday School at the Methodist church, seems to be as genial as it fresh from a "juniper" tree. The mud, changeable weather and other hindrances do not obscure his "jollification."

Dr. B. H. Price, a respected physician and pioneer practitioner, died at his home on Morgan and First streets, Wednesday, Feb. 21st, about 8 o'clock
a. m., after an illness of short duration, of neurasthenia with cardiac disturbance complicated.

Three Marionites, V. O. Chandler, deputy sheriff of old Crittenden, Clark
Bowls, proprietor of the Crittenden Hotel and H. V. Stone, who has a branch mercantile establishment at this place, were here last week puramulating around for some purpose we do not know what. Also, on the same day, Henry Blythe and J. K. Tosh, of Clay, were here, which caused some of the Blackfords to look somewhat "fastidious."

We observed in a recent item from Seven Springs where the correspondent, in referring to a paragraph in an item from this place relative to the schools not being what they could and should be, reciprocates in a very heroic manner the true sentiments of one who has the welfare of the rising generation at heart. From the spirit and drift of the ideas expressed in said item we infer the writer is sincere and the contents original. In the item referred to by said correspondent, we nerrily mentioned the dilemma into which our public schools are drifting, and the mild reprimand was given with kind thoughts and sincere wishes for all parties concerned, with hope that,
at no distant period, we may see a return to normal conditions, and in the meanwhile the teachers of our public schools may realize more fully that the requirements of a school teacher are great, and are not performed by holding a certificate and

"killing" time at a school house, regardless of the manifested in the school and the improvement among the pupils. We readily concur with the statement of said correspondent—
"much money is being paid out for the benefit of our schools and why not be benefited?"—and can suggest no better course for the present, than for the patrons of each district to elect wide-awake men for trustees, the trustees secure the services of energetic teachers, and thereby find ways and means to promote and secure strict co-operation of each of the important adjuncts that are necessary to compose a successful school. The welfare of pupils, the reputation of teachers alike depend upon results obtained. Diligence of trustees, carelessness of patrons, irregular attendance of pupils, and incompetence and inexperience of teachers, any or all of these are possibly detrimental to the management and general interest of our public schools. "By their words shall ye know them." The caption that was on the certificates were issued to teachers during the period of time when a number of us were younger than we now are, has not yet lost the incentive for which it was intended to impress. "As is the teacher, so will be the school." The great state-man, Daniel Webster, said, "Educate your children and your country is safe."

"Anything worth doing
Can be done right;
All friends of education
Should join in the fight."
—Mullins.

ceive the remainder of our

GOOD CITIZENSHIP IN THIS

Every Community Would Be Bettered
If All Would Subscribe to the Following Creed.

The man who loves his city—its people, its institutions, its churches, schools and parks, its flowers, trees and vine-clad homes—that man is the good citizen. He can, in good faith, subscribe to this creed, the author of which is now unknown. I believe in her people, in her boys and girls. I will make myself a committee of one to make my town a good place in which to live and a mighty hard place to leave. I believe in my town, I believe in her schools; in her churches; in her stores. I believe in the street broom, and the street cleaner and the paint pot. I do not believe in empty cans on vacant lots; never again will I throw waste paper or trash in its streets. I believe in trees; grass instead of ash heaps, flowers instead of weeds. God bless the tongues that give honest praise and may he doubly bless the ear that is deaf to scandal and gossip. If we cannot speak good of our neighbors, let's hold our peace! When it costs me nothing, at least, I will spend my money at home and by so doing leave a part of the purchase price to circulate in channels where its equivalent in wealth was originally created;
and to do good among the folk who are a part of the community of which I am a part in the place that I call home." And if every man would live according to the terms of this creed, how much more desirable his world be.

KEEPING UP RURAL SCHOOLS

Important Matter That Is Just Now
Engaging the Attention of Illinois
Educational Authorities.

"Many good school people are viewing with alarm the new campaign for better school buildings," says a bulletin issued by the Illinois department of public instruction. "They fear that every dollar put into new buildings and equipment takes more firmly the position of the small district and consequently postpones the time for consolidation.

"It must be admitted that there is some ground for this fear. Every improvement in the local one-teacher school district will constitute an argument against its discontinuance. However, it is manifestly unjust to the 300-500 children in these rural schools today to keep them living and working under unfit and insanitary conditions in order that children of a later generation may enjoy a better school opportunity. Everyone will agree, no doubt, that, where the people of several adjoining districts are practically agreed upon consolidation, a delay in the large improvement of existing buildings for a year may be advisable."

AIM TO HAVE MODEL TOWN

Founders of Hopewell, Va., Are Men Who Recognize the Spirit of the Times.

Hopewell, Va., is the youngest industrial city in the United States. A year ago its site was a peaceful Virginia farm a few miles from Petersburg. Then industry waved its magic wand and planted a great factory in the solitude. Now it has a population of 25,000 and is growing daily.
So metropolitan is Hopewell that numerous information is printed in five different languages. A liberal percentage of native Americans in the professional and commercial class, however, are enthusiastically aiding in planning a city capable of ideal civic attainment.

Hopewell was founded as the permanent center for a large manufacturing plant supplying munitions of war to European nations. Its plans were based upon the full recognition of the fact that the highest efficiency of the worker can only be expected under the best living conditions.

Arrangement of Home.

No more important question confronts the home builder than the ex-posure of the rooms in his prospective home, for no matter how charming a house may be, nor how convenient its interior arrangement, it cannot be entirely successful unless each room has a favorable exposure.

A living room having windows on its east and west sides may capture both the morning and afternoon sun, and if in addition it opens out on a porch facing the south, no more satisfactory arrangement is possible.

A porch facing the south makes a pleasant open-air living room in warm weather, and a cheery, glassed-in sun parlor in the winter.

For the dining room an easterly ex-posure is desirable, thus giving one a cheerful amount of sunshine for what is apt to be in many households
the most trying meal of the day.

The model kitchen will have windows facing both north and south. This makes for comfort in summer, and admits the late afternoon sun, which considerably lengthens the hours of daylight.

"South and west for the chambers is the best exposure, with windows opening in the morning and evening.

Forest Grove School.

The friends and patrons of Forest Grove School gathered there Friday Feb. 9, to enjoy the "Last Day" together. The morning was spent in a social way with various contests between old and young, with songs and marches. Then came the noon time with plenty of dinner, and a good time generally.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird were pleasant visitors and when we were called to order at one o'clock Mr.
Bird gave us an interesting talk about his work and especially urged the boys and girls to join the Agricultural and Home Econ-omic's Clubs being organized in the county.

This was followed by an enjoyable program consisting of songs drills and marches given by the School children. Miss Leo a McWhirter gave us the pleasure of hearing her give the reading which, won, for her and for us 1st honor in our Dramatic Contest as few of us were able to hear her at that time.

The entertainment was then turned over to the graduation
class of four Misses Melvel Robinson, Leoda McWhirter, Messrs.
Adali Robinson and Willie Hodge.
The papers read by class Knocker, Class Prophet, Class Historian and Class Booster were interesting to all. These were inter-persed with songs and drills, which gave us an all-around good program as these young people were handed their certificates of promotion to county High School. We were glad to give them a hearty hand shake and urge them to make good there.

With a few words from the teacher and a generous "treat"
we were dismissed after spending a good day together.

There were several children who went the entire school without missing a day, they were:
Vena Belt Thomas Belt, Leoda
McWhirter, Bertha Akers, Jewel
Graves, Ralph Burckelox and Wm. Lester Perry, Jr., considering the fact that our school is small, and the weather we've had this term, that's pretty good grit for children to show.

This finishes the second term.
Miss Emma Terry has taught for us and we hope to have her a gain.

I clipped this from a magazine and our teacher fulfills the requirements, sure.

YOUR TEACHER.

Has she ever lived in the country?

Has she gone to the country school?

Does she like country life?

Is she genuinely interested in boys and girls?

Does she usually stay in the country Saturdays and Su days?

Does she feel the responsibility of her position?

In her arithmetic class, does she make use of the problems of the country?

Does she realize that the country school offers great opportunities for the right teacher? And would she like to lead her boys and girls into the land of promise?

If you can say "yes" in answer to all of these questions concerning your teacher, I say God bless her. Raise her salary, and keep her another year.
Don't let the city get her.

Mrs. Margaret Ann Moore is Dead.
Why? Because she was too good for this world.
Anybody who knows
her will know that.

Gay from San Angelo, Texas, and company by her daughter Mrs.
Kitty Perry and her son Thomas H. Moore and were taken to the home of her sister in law Mrs.
George H. Foster and Mr. Foster on North Main street from whence they were taken to the 1st Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. B.
Trotter officiating at the funeral and at the burial in the new cemetery where the remain-were laid to rest beside those of her husband Robert A. Moore who died in Aug. 1903.

The pall bearers were J. F.
Dodge, W. T. McConnell, J. W.
Blair, C. S. Nunn, H. L. Cook,
C. A. Taylor.

There were many beautiful flowers attesting the love and esteem felt by neighbors and friends for the deceased.

Margaret Ann Klapp was born at Dycusburg, Ky., October 16th, 1858, she was a daughter of J.
M. Klappa noted wood workman who in company with the late J.
H. Clifton a skillful iron master and blacksmith made at Dycus-burg the first bargies ever manufactured in Crittenden Co., and as good ones as were ever made any where. Later after acquiring a competency at their profession, they both retired from it, disposed of their factory and entered the mercantile trade and both became successful and famous merchants. A strange and sad coincidence in Mrs.
Moore's life was that she lost her death her husband, mother and father all in the same year 1903.
Her husband dying in August a girl her mother and father in November and December of the same year.

The deceased was happily married on her twenty-first birthday, Oct. 16th, 1879, to Robert Alexander Moore, a son of James P. Moore, a noted tobacco com-planter and capitalist of his day.
The union was blessed with five children all of whom survive excepting the oldest son, Clyde, who died in childhood. The four surviving being Kitty, widow of Charles Perry, of Sheridan; Edna, wife of Roy Gilbert, of Ashland, Ky.; Grace, wife of Geo.
Lawson, Jr., also of Ashland,
Ky. and Thomas H., of Texas.
She is survived by three sisters and two brothers, Mesdames H.
E. Flannery, of Salinas, Calif., B.
E. Gray, of San Angelo, Texas;
Cora Ballard, of Jonesboro, Ark.; Wm. and Chas. Klapp, of Jonesboro, Ark.

Mrs. Moore has been a Christian for many years and held her membership here at the First Baptist church.

In her early married life in the eighties, Mrs. Moore lived at Fords Ferry where her husband was quartermaster and freight agent for Marion, that being before the days of the rail road. Three of her children were born during their residence at Fords Ferry, Clay, Kitty and Edna the latter being born however at the
J. P. Moore homestead. Mrs.
Moore left Marion last August
after visiting her home to Prof.
Boyd of Hampton, and went to Ashland to visit her two daughters there and only left there
Jan. 23rd for San Angelo, Texas to accompany her daughter Mrs.
Kitty Perry who was threatened with lung trouble and they had been there only three weeks
when the mother was stricken with pneumonia which ended fatally in a few days.

Right Place.

"Really, Kate," said the young man,
in considerable agitation, "I am very sorry I lost my head and blood you.
I didn't think what I was doing. It is a sort of temporary insanity in our family." "Well, Roy," replied the young woman, "if you ever feel any more such attacks coming on, you had better come right here where your infirmary is known, and we will take care of you."—New York Times.

He Had Been Observant.
The teacher asked the class: "Who knows what the four seasons are?"
After a spell of silence, a little boy whose mother was putting up preserves raised his hand and cried eagerly,
"Pepper, salt, mustard, vinegar!"
