Meanderings in the Court House, by Mrs. B. F. Cartwright

Falcons and doves in court house of old.

Mr. J. D. Jones of Clinton is in the court house, his wife and daughter visiting the latter. The doves and falcons are being kept in a cage in the office. The falcon is a native of the United States, and the dove is a native of the United Kingdom.

One of the first things a bird does when it comes to a new home is to build a nest, and the falcon is no exception. The nest is made of pieces of paper, straw, and other materials, and is built in the corner of the room where the bird lives. The falcon is a very clever bird, and is able to find its way about in the dark.

The nest of the falcon is a very small one, only about the size of a mouse's nest, and is made of very thin materials. The falcon is a very neat bird, and always keeps its nest clean.

HAS ENTIRELY RECOVERED
Dr. Thomas L. Dunn, Wittenstein of Fort Worth, Texas, March 20.

Dear Mr. Dunn:

Thank you for your letter of March 10. I am glad to learn that you are entirely recovered. If there is any way of my doing anything more to help, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

T. L. Dunn

To the People of Canton Co.
Be ready to meet this renewed war call.

The World has changed. The home life we knew is gone. We are in a new country, a new world, and a new war. There is no time for idleness or half-hearted effort. We must be ready to meet this new challenge. The call to arms is out. We have a duty to our country and our countrymen. We must be ready to defend our homes, our families, and our liberties. We must be ready to fight for our country, our cause, and our future.

We have a lot of work to do. We need men and women to help. We need volunteers to join the army and navy. We need teachers to help educate the young. We need doctors to help care for the sick. We need workers to help build the war machine. We need everyone to do their part.

We are in a time of crisis. We are in a time of danger. We must be ready to meet this new challenge. We must be ready to fight for our country, our cause, and our future.

Sincerely yours,

BELLMONT

The last President of the Empire Coal Company.

Some men have succeeded in their business ventures. It is said that Mr. Johnson was one of these men. However, the details of his success are not known to the public. It is said that he was a shrewd businessman, with a good understanding of the coal industry. It is also said that he was a good family man, with a large family to support.
