KATHERINE AND ELLIS WIN

Former in Declamatory, Latter in Oratorical Contest.—Marion's Best Contest.

From the time the High School Orchestra struck up the first notes of the lively march which told us that the contestants were entering, until the medals were awarded, there was not a dull nor an uninteresting moment in the entire program at the auditorium last Friday evening.

The Declamatory Contest of the Marion High School is an annual event of importance in the school calendar and is looked forward to with eager anticipation not only by the contestants but by all the people in town who appreciate good wholesome entertainment. The contest this year was one of the best, if not the best, ever held here and the young people who entered the contest, should be proud of the honor they made for themselves and for their school in the work they did.

There were five young ladies in the Declamatory Contest, Misses Katherine Reed, Nellie Stone, Wilma Wright, Viva Shuttleworth and Gladys Hardy and each speaker with that distinctive individual grace, and with that ease of manner which comes from the knowledge of efficient training, added her part to splendid program and kept the audience wondering just what the result would be.

It was a battle royal and the rapt attention given by the audience showed the appreciation which the people of the town had for the splendid work of these charming young girls.

The winner of the medal in the Declamatory Contest was Miss Katherine Reed the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reed, her subject being, "Gazelle and Swan." The plot of her declamation centered about an American girl who had been made captive to the king of Algeria. The girl was given a test for her freedom and won, and could have been queen of all Algeria but she chose the land of her birth and "loved America still."

Miss Reed's voice was smooth and captivating; her gestures were perfect and she perhaps more than anyone else realized what perfection must be attained in order to win. The school is proud of her and of her speech and the train load of school supporters which go to Sturgis for the Central Interscholastic Association next Friday evening is confident that she will be a winner.

There were two young men, Mr. Owen Davenport and Mr. Ellis Boaz in the Oratorical Contest and both of them were entitled to the hearty applause which they received. Our only regret in the boys contest is that we do not have more such noble young men as these who are willing to do more than their part in order to make affairs of this kind successful.

Mr. Boaz who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Boaz, was awarded the medal in the Oratorical Contest, his subject being "Weighed in the Balance and Found Wanting." He will represent Marion High in the Ora-

Oratorical Contest of the C. I. A. at Sturgis, Friday evening, and those who have set their eyes "Sturgisward" are sure that the Marion-Sturgis Special which leaves here at 11 o'clock Friday morning and return at midnight will for the second time give the Illinois Central Railroad Company the honor of carrying to Marion another medal in the Oratorical Contest of the Central Interscholastic Association of Kentucky.

T. H. Cochran gave the medal in the Oratorical Contest and S. M. Jenkins the medal in the Declamatory Contest.

SCHOOL TEACHER IN WASHINGTON

R. E. Jagers A Rural School Teacher Of Hart County Tells Of Trip To Washington.

I left Bowling Green, where I am enrolled as a student of the Western Kentucky State Normal on Sunday, February 25. At Frankfort, the State Capital, I was met by a delegation headed by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, president, and the Hon. V. O. Gilbert, secretary treasurer of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission. This delegation greeted me and bade me God speed, on my trip.

My stay in Washington extended over one week, which was occupied in meeting the notables there and in seeing the wonderful sights of the most wonderful Capital in the world. I saw Congress in session and saw it die in the throes of the most noted filibuster in history. I saw the Supreme Court, Mount Vernon, the home of Washington; the Smithsonian Institute, the Corcoran Art Gallery, and finally sat in the grandstand and saw the inauguration of President Wilson for the second term.

The moonlight schools, I found were the pride of Kentucky's statesmen at Washington. Many other leaders in Congress are champions of the cause which Kentucky is leading.

President Wilson was never busier during his life, and could not see many of the visitors then through the Capital, but he stopped amid the perplexities of the international crisis, and the stress of the closing days of Congress, to greet a moonlight school teacher. He has kept up with the progress of the work he said with great earnestness. The President read with deep interest the letter which I presented to him from a young man, aged 21, who had learned to read and write within three weeks time. He was much impressed with both the spirit and legibility of the letter.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, simply bubbled over with enthusiasm on the subject of moonlight schools. It is one of his favorite themes and he has made speeches on the subject from New York to California. He has made one in Washington a few evenings previous to my visit there. I was escorted to his office by the Hon. John W. Langley, and the Speaker sat down and talked to me as familiarly as if I had been a Congressman. The moonlight school work is the most wonderful work going on in the world, I believe he said, and said it with a Camp Clark vim that left no doubt of his sincerity.

Senator Ollie M. James is proud of the fact that moonlight schools originated in Kentucky.

Senator James has a bill pending in Congress which is designed to wipe illiteracy out of the United States and to do it after the Kentucky plan. The bill is popular and will pass, and it will give Kentucky another page in the country's history. Senator James believes in keeping Kentucky in the lead.

Congressman Hughes, the veteran chairman of the Education Committee in the House of Representatives, met me with extreme cordiality. He has been an advocate of moonlight schools for several years, and through his and other influences has started a State-wide campaign against illiteracy in his native State of Georgia.

One of the best informed men in Washington on moonlight schools is Congressman Towner, of Iowa. He wrote a flattering report on the movement three years ago, and commended the plan to other States. His is the State that stands at the top of the scale of literacy, but he would like to see the other States move up the scale.

Every one of Kentucky's Senators and Representatives is an ardent supporter of the moonlight schools. They have all given prizes in their districts and in the State at large, and have traveled at their own expense and made speeches for the cause, and they feel that it is every Kentuckian's duty to help.

W. J. Fields, of the Ninth district, feels especial pride in the fact that the moonlight school originated in his district. He says that the demand upon him for literature from Rowan County exactly doubled after the operation of the moonlight school there. He has charge of the same bill in the House that Senator James is fathering in the Senate.

The newspapers made much comment on the work while I was in Washington, all of it being favorable. I was interviewed, entertained and escorted and accorded every possible courtesy by the nation's leaders and the press.

Finally, I was invited to stop in Lexington on my return as the guest of the Southern School Journal, the State educational organ. Here, with the genial editor, R. S. Eubank and Miss Mattie Dalton, I spent the last day of the most wonderful trip that any rural school teacher in the world ever had.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS FORCES

For The Prevention of Tuberculosis Among Soldiers and Sailors Will Meet Here

The anti-tuberculosis forces of Crittenden County will be mobilized for federal services according to a statement made public today by Secretary E. L. Harpending of the County Association.

The local association received today the plan of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis for mobilizing the country's resources for the prevention of tuberculosis among enlisted soldiers and sailors.

In view of the urgent request of the President of the United States for the utmost co-operation by everyone with government forces says the communication from the National Association, "we cannot urge you too strongly to give us your most faithful support in carrying this plan into execution. As soon as military expediency permits other details of the national program will be sent to you."

In its memorandum to the local association the national society points out that it has undertaken this far reaching work at the request of the Council on National Defense. Thus, through the National Association, the local anti-tuberculosis forces will be brought into direct contact with a national problem that has called for the most enlightened and strenuous service in Canada and in the European countries at war.

The keynote of the National Association is practical service with as little duplication of effort as possible. The bulletin for example urges: all local societies to leave the matter of relief for tuberculosis soldiers and their families to the civilian relief committees of the American Red Cross which are being organized in connection with chapters. Where there are no Red Cross chapters local tuberculosis agencies may take up the question of civilian relief with the Department of Civilian Relief in Washington.

Visiting nurses engaged in tuberculosis work either exclusively or on part time, to the number of more than 5,000, will be made available for home treatment and for preventive educational work among the enlisted men.

White House Lot is Now a Garden Plot.

Washington, April 28.—The National Garden Commission has presented to Nelson P. Webster, of the White House Executive Staff, seeds valued at $100, with which to plant the vacant lot opposite the White House.

The plan of the White House office force is to raise a food garden and thus set an example to the country in the nation wide campaign for vacant lot gardening which was urged by President Wilson in his recent proclamation to the American people.

Miss Lillian Cromlein, secretary to P. S. Riddsdale, secretary of the food garden commission, took the seeds to the White House and presented them to Mr. Nelson in the name of the commission of which Charles Lathrop Pack is president. The commission which is sending garden planting lessons free through out the country, sent a letter which told of the fine example set by the White House staff and expressed the assurance that the example would be widely followed.

Germany's Inventions.

"Germany never had the slightest intention of attacking the United States of America, and does not have such intention now. It is the Chancellor of the German Empire who says this. He neglects to state, however, that before Germany can attack the United States, except by long-range submarine warfare or by traitorous plots upon our own soil or in Latin-America it will be necessary to overcome the grand fleet of Great Britain, which, for two years and a half has stood between us and German aggression just as much as it has stood between German invaders and the territory of the British Isles. Neither does von Bethmann-Hollweg say that Germany has no wish to attack the United States—for there is a great difference between wish and intention. What Germany wishes to do to the United States has already been shown by her assaults upon our shipping, by her insults to our diplomatic representatives, and by her attempt to array Mexico and Japan in a Teutonic coalition against us. The question, however, is rather academic so long as the British fleet is afloat and stripped for action. A much more interesting and pertinent problem relates to our intentions toward Germany. —New York World.

HANDICRAFT FOR BOYS

By A. NEELY HALL

Author of "The Handy Boy," "The Boy Craftsman," "Handicraft for Handy Boys," etc.

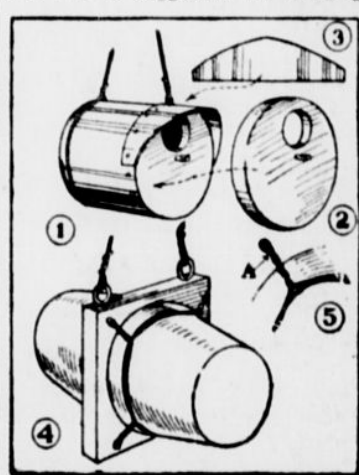

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

HOMES FOR BIRDS.

It is every one's duty to look to the protection of our rapidly disappearing birds, and I want every reader of this article to put up at least one nesting box this spring in some place secure from cats and other bird enemies.

Tin cans, flower pots, boxes—I could name a hundred pick-up materials that can be used. The house in Fig. 1 requires a tomato can. Cut a wooden disk to fit snugly in the opened end of the can (Fig. 2), and bore a hole through it for a doorway—seven-eighths inch in diameter for a wren house, or one and one-half inches in diameter for a bluebird house. Fasten the disk in the end of the can with short nails. Then make a canopy out of a piece of tin of the shape shown in Fig. 3, and fasten it over the doorway.

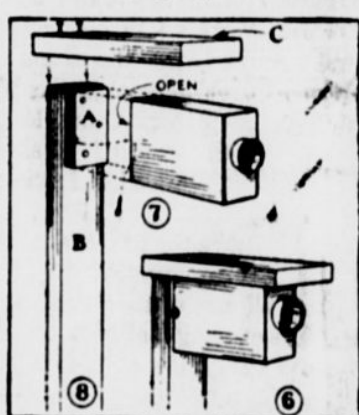

The double apartment bird house in Fig. 4 is a suggestion for utilizing flower-pots. Get two pots of equal size. The bottom holes must be large enough for doorways, and can be enlarged with a file or by chipping away the flower-pot.

Cut a square piece of board a trifle larger than the pots, to fasten the pots to (Fig. 4), then pass a loop of wire around each pot, making the loop large enough so it can be twisted in four places into straps (A, Fig. 5).

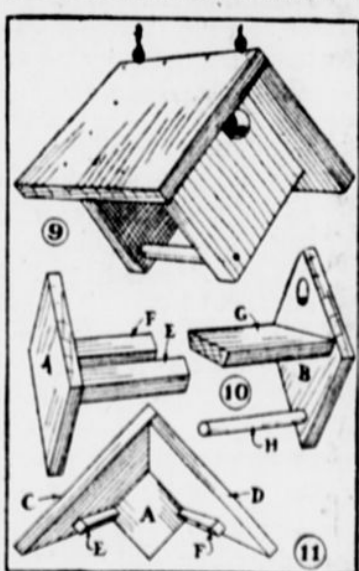

The mouth of a varnish can is a splendid opening for a bird house doorway, as you can readily see by the house shown in Fig. 6. Any painter will give you an empty can. Remove the bottom (Fig. 7), cut a block of wood to fit in this open end (A, Fig. 8), nail this block to the side of a long pole support (B) about one-sixteenth inch below the top, and fit the varnish can over this block. For a roof, nail one end of a short board to the top of post B (C, Fig. 8).

Pierce a hole through each side of the can, and in block A, for a short nail, to hold the varnish can in place (Fig. 8).

The wooden house in Fig. 9 is simpler to construct than the illustration might lead you to suppose. Cut end pieces A and B (Fig. 10) eight inches square, and roof boards C and D 12 inches wide—C 11 inches long and D enough shorter to allow for the lapping of C over the edge of D (Fig. 11). Nail C and D, then nail the two to end A, allowing a projection of 2 inches. Do not nail the roof to end B, because that end is to be removable to provide for cleaning the inside of the house. Cut E and F (Fig. 11) six inches long, and nail them to the under side of the roof boards with their ends even with the corners of end A. Then cut the floor board G with beveled edges to slide between E and F (Fig. 10).

Cut the perch stick H to fit between ends A and B, and fasten it with screws.

"TANLAC SMILE" GREET'S FRIENDS

Old Hotel Man Tells How He Got Back Good Humor.

"TANLAC DID IT," HE SAYS

"You're sure looking good these days. Where'd you get the smile?"

"That's the way his friends now greet Joseph Kolb, who lives at the Sherwood Hotel in Cincinnati. Mr. Kolb was in the hotel business in Cincinnati for 20 years and is well known all over Ohio and Kentucky.

JOSEPH KOLB.

"That's my 'Tanlac Smile' and I got it after Tanlac had built up my run-down system," is Mr. Kolb's answer.

"But I couldn't always smile this way," Mr. Kolb said. "For several years I was bothered by a dropping of mucus in my throat. It made me 'grouchy' because I couldn't get rid of it. It got on my nerves, too, and kept me awake nights.

Began Losing Weight.

"My stomach went back on me, and naturally I lost my appetite. I couldn't eat much without being sick afterwards. I suffered from bloating and belching gas after eating. I had that tired, heavy feeling, too, and it seemed as if I just had to drag myself around. When I began to cut down on my meals I started to lose weight, too, and my friends got worried about me.

"One of them suggested that I try Tanlac and I did. I am glad to say that it helped me back to health. I've got a man-sized appetite now and can eat anything I want without suffering afterwards. I don't have that heavy feeling in my stomach after meals. My food digests without any trouble and I know it is because Tanlac has fixed me up.

Glad to Praise Tanlac.

"I am glad to pass the good word along to anyone who is suffering like I did. I know Tanlac will do them some good. It sure fixed me up. That's why I'm wearing this 'Tanlac Smile.'"

FORMERLY ENGAGED IN MINING HERE

Marquis de Charette, is Now Tank Driver.

News has been received from "the front" that Marquis Antoine de Charette has been transferred from the French aviation corps to the position of "tank" driver handling one of the new British engines of war which have proved of vast value to the allies. Marquis de Charette, whose mother was Miss Polk, of Tennessee, married Miss Suzanne Henning, of Louisville and New York, six years ago. His wife is the daughter of Mrs. Sue Mercer Henning, of Shelby Co., and has a number of relatives in this city. "Tony" Charette, as he is known by his intimates, has been in active service since France's first call to the colors, his first duties being in the artillery driving a motor cannon wagon. The Marquis offered her services as a Red Cross nurse and did hospital work during the early months of the war. —Louisville Post.

Editorial note: The Marquis was engaged in mining here a while with Chester Norton and Saunders Bros., and is remembered by many of our citizens.

SEA RAIDER'S WORK TERRIBLE

Horses' Frantic Efforts to be Saved;
Hundreds of Animals
Shot.

Copenhagen, April 28.—What happens when a German raider is scouring the Atlantic, sinking merchant vessels, is graphically portrayed in the story of the destruction of shipping by the German commerce-destroyer Puyme, as related to a Reuter correspondent by Capt. A. Anderson, of the Norwegian steamer Haltbjør which was sunk by the raider while on her way from New York to a French port.

It was the Puyme, according to Capt. Anderson, which sank the British steamers Voltaire, Georgic and Mount Temple and accumulated her prisoners on board the Yarrowdale, on which vessel they were taken to Germany. Among them were many Americans, since released.

Pathetic scenes attended the sinking of the Mount Temple and the Georgic, both of which carried hundreds of horses, Capt. Anderson said. "The Mount Temple," the Captain said, "had on board 750 horses and a number of dogs. When she was sunk it was painful to see and hear many hundreds of horses and dogs struggling and swimming about, a confused mass in the foaming sea.

"Another appalling sacrifice of animal life took place with the sinking of the Georgic, which carried as part of her cargo 1,200 horses. The horses were maddened by the explosion of the torpedo which heeled the Georgic over, wrenched themselves loose and, uttering terrifying sounds, plunged into the sea. Some of them reached the Puyme and beat with their forefeet on the vessel's side in a frantic attempt to climb to safety. At last the crew was ordered to shoot the horses with their revolvers. This shooting continued for half an hour."

WANTED-STRAW-BERRY PICKERS.

The State Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky is going to conduct a camp for boys near Bowling Green during the strawberry picking season in Warren County, and the boys of this community are urged to get under the influence of this camp and its Christian leadership, if they desire to go to Warren county for strawberry picking purposes. Berry pickers will be in great demand this year in Warren county and the State Y. M. C. A. is going to conduct the camp with regular activities for all the boys who come to their center. These boys will be located on the Clagett & Covington farm and will do their picking primarily for these growers, but it is stated that all boys can get work in the community whether they are needed by Mr. Clagett or not.

The pickers make from $1.50 to $3.00 per day and are boarded by the growers for 30 cents a day. The Y. M. C. A. camp will be conducted in tents and all the boys will be under proper and helpful influence while there. The school teachers of our community have received letters from the State Y. M. C. A. and also contracts which the boys may sign if they wish to go. The Y. M. C. A. camp will very likely be crowded so that those who are going should get in their names early. Any boys who are interested in going can get information of the teachers, or can write to Mr. Stanley A. Harris, State Boys' Work Secretary, 345 Y. M. C. A., Louisville, Ky., for further information.

The Y. M. C. A. camp boys will play baseball, tennis, play ground ball, volley ball, and will have swimming lessons, and it is also expected that they will take a hike to Mammoth Cave some time during the strawberry season. Parents need have no fear of their boys getting with the wrong crowd or under the wrong influences if they stay in the Y. M. C. A. Camp while picking strawberries.

REGULATING HOURS OF LABOR

Another Opinion Added to the Already Large Number That Has Been Given to the World.

That the length of the working day should not be fixed arbitrarily but should rest upon the results of a rigid scientific study was the conclusion reached by Prof. F. S. Lee in his late address to the American Public Health association. Some kinds of labor are more exhausting than others and laborers are not all alike, and the study should aim to classify work and workers on the basis of the physiological effects of different occupations and the physiological capacities of different laborers. Such an inquiry, which is believed to be not impossible, would probably lead to an elastic system, in which the work would be adapted to the worker and the workers to the work. In one industry the duration of labor might be eight hours, in another it might be more or less than eight hours and in a single industry one worker might labor longer than another. Such a solution could be made to satisfy both economic and social demands, and lead to the maximum of individual and national efficiency. Any formal regulation of the day is only for those employed by others. As a man leaves this stage he is free to choose his working time, and it is a noteworthy fact that the daily task of the world's leaders is limited by no consideration of 8, 10, 12 or 16 hours.

In Loving Memory.

After many years of affliction and suffering, Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Campbell, was relieved by death Thursday morning, April 12th, 1917, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Mayes, near Shady Grove, this county. She was the daughter of W. A. McClesney, who was a prominent Baptist preacher in his day, and was born April 12th, 1839, being seventy-eight years old on the day of her death. She was married to G. R. Campbell in 1856, who preceded her to the grave more than seventeen years ago.

At the age of fifteen years she professed faith in Christ and for more than sixty years had belonged to Clear Spring Baptist church at Shady Grove, always being a faithful and loyal Christian and church member until recent years when her health would not permit her attending church and then her delight was in reading her bible and with feeble voice singing praises unto her God who was her strength and comfort to the end.

Only two children survive her, Mrs. H. H. Mayes, of Shady Grove; and Mrs. J. B. Hubbard, of Marion. She leaves one brother, J. M. McClesney, of Marion; two sisters, Mrs. William Beard, of Shady Grove; and Mrs. Tom Simpson, now of Marion, also a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren, with a host of friends who will miss her and mourn her loss, but our loss is her eternal gain for we know she has gone where no sorrow ever comes, to meet again those she had loved and lost, and see her Savior face to face.

Her funeral was preached by Rev. Isaac Tally from the Baptist church at Shady Grove, after which her body was placed beside that of her husband to await the resurrection morning.

Dear grandmother how we miss you, Tongue can never tell; But we know our Heavenly Father Doeth all things well.

LINIMENT

The Farmer-Man And The Farmer-Boy.

Just at this time more farmers either have a big bank account or a big roll of "long green" in their breeches-pockets than ever before in the history of the country. It has not been uncommon to have a farmer with a small crop of tobacco and a dozen or two of hogs and a few bees to throw down a check for $1,500 to $2,000 and then hunt up the editor and tell him of his good luck. The editor being glad of the news item, publishes the fact to all the world and the farmer's friends, who used to live in "Old Trigg," but moved, hoping to do better, read the facts in the far away West and say, "Times are better in Old Kentucky than they was when I was there nigh on to forty years ago." These fellows know that the Trigg county people are doing well. But the sad part of the business is that the farmer boys are being lured away by the flattering offers of the cities, and having the best chance of their lives. There's more than one farmer's home where the boys have "hiked out" for some metropolitan city to make a fortune, when the fortune was right in the field at home and much nearer to land than in the over-crowded factory, where head and happiness is laid on the altar of a god for money-making. There is at this time no better field for a young man than the farm. It pays in health and happiness. It is the most independent life, and is destined to be profitable years to come. —Cadiz Record.

Crittenden County Boy

Will Teach in New York

Allen Foster of this county has accepted a position at the head of the English department in Peeks Hill academy, N. Y. a preparatory school for Princeton University at $1800 salary per annum.

This School was established in 1833 and has for its pupils the sons of the rich in New York City and vicinity. It is the same old story. The world is calling for men of brains, sobriety, and accomplishments to train the young. Our Crittenden County boys are called to the metropolis of the world, but this is not remarkable especially, for our President is now training the crowned heads of the old world and will be called on to send Americans of the right calibre and of intellect to teach the down trodden nations of the earth, self government such as exists in this land of the free and home of the brave and we confidently expect to see this wave of liberty extend, not only around the globe but to the remotest corners there of and men of ability, who have taken advantage of their opportunities will be in demand every where.

Probing The Teuton Mind.

If there are any Germans who are still capable of disinterestedly analyzing the moral and practical relationship of Germany to man kind what, we wonder, are there honest thoughts about the existing plight of the Fatherland?

German political strategy has finally succeeded in uniting practically the whole of the civilized world in opposition to the central powers. Do thoughtful Germans really believe that their government has done nothing to deserve this enmity? Do they believe that the union as such a conglomerate mass of peoples and nations against them is a conspiracy of the unscrupulous and the predatory? Can they figure out any possible permanent benefit to their own country from a policy which at best will purchase some small territorial gains with the suspicion and hostility of all the more advanced and progressive nations?

If so, they must either be verging on madness themselves or they must be the only sane, upright and inoffensive people in a world of crazy cormorants.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, and deafness out of you are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for catalogue free.

Anti-Tuberculosis Forces.

Educational work, the furnishing of literature to men in camps, the furnishing of lecturers, motion picture exhibits and other educational equipment for men in camp and co-operation with federal and state officials in furnishing special placards and certain sanitary supplies which the government would not ordinarily furnish, are among the concrete suggestions made by the National Association to the local society.

No other groups in the United States are so familiar with the principal men who are qualified to diagnose and handle tuberculosis as the anti-tuberculosis association, both state and local, says the National Association. These organizations will be called upon to suggest men who can qualify as experts, particularly in the diagnosis of tuberculosis. As the demand for enlistment increases, the experience of other countries at war demonstrates that the supply of skilled physicians who are competent to treat and diagnose tuberculosis will be taxed to the limit. Every effort will be made to protect the enlisted men of the United States Army from the fatal experience of some European armies in relation to tuberculosis.

In relation to the food supply visiting nurses and other agencies are urged to instruct their communities in the proper use and conservation of food. It is also suggested that tuberculosis societies co-operate with boy scouts and federal and state departments of agriculture in taking boys to the country for farm work. The utilization of the labor of arrested cases either in connection with sanatoria or in farm colonies is also suggested. Whether this government is called upon to send a large expeditionary force to Europe or not, says the National Association, the mobilization of hundreds of thousands of troops will without doubt greatly increase the seriousness of the tuberculosis problem both in the military and the civilian population. Anti-tuberculosis associations are urged therefore not to curtail their normal functions any more than absolutely necessary, but on the other hand to press forward, utilizing the war interest as a channel for focusing, more clearly than ever before the attention of the public upon the problem of tuberculosis.

In commenting on the request of the National Association Secretary E. L. Harpending, of the Local Association said: "mean while, may we not urge upon all those in our country who are interested in tuberculosis as a patriotic duty the fullest possible co-operation in the utilization of the tuberculosis forces in our country. By working together, we can present a solid front and can be most useful to the Government in this time of emergency."

While making a landing at Salty Point last week, ferryman Charles Zanone found the bust of George Washington made out of brass, the high water having uncovered it, after it had lain buried for probably 100 years. The metal relic is about 5 inches in diameter and round with no wording engraved, but has a hole on either side by which it had been fastened to some object. Mr. Zanone values his find very highly because of its age and being the likeness of the first President of the United States.

DEATHS

Mrs. James Stallion aged 81 years of Carrsville died Sunday afternoon at Princeton at the home of her daughter Mrs. W. H. Archey, and was buried Monday afternoon at Carrsville Cemetery. Rev. W. H. Archey her son-in-law officiating. She is survived by her husband and 3 daughters Mesdames Archey, Worten Thompson and one son Ernest Stallion of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. E. E. Browning of Hopkinsville mother of Mrs. J. D. Threlkeld is her sister. Mrs. Threlkeld being her niece. Mrs. O. S. Denny of this city is her grand daughter.

Miss Mabel Kevil, daughter of the late J. Bell Kevil, died Friday night at her home in Sikeston, Mo., of acute indigestion. Her death was a great shock to the family as it was quite unexpected. The remains were brought here on the three o'clock train Monday evening, and taken to the Methodist church of which she was a member for many years—where Rev. H. R. Short preached the funeral. The interment followed at the new cemetery beside those of her mother, and her father the latter of whom died only so recently. Her three brothers, David, Kay and Jamie, accompanied the remains from Sikeston also her sisters, Mesdames D. E. Woods, of St. Louis, and A. F. Crider, of Shreveport, La. The only member of the family not present being Mrs. Dell Sanders, of North Carolina, who on account of the distance could not reach here in time.

Miss Kevil and her father removed to Missouri last year, but prior to that had spent her life in this city and county.

She was born near Dycusburg when her father operated the mill there and moved with the family to this city, when the railroad was built and has since resided here.

There was a strong affection existing between her father and herself, each always thinking of some way to shield the other from any hardships. Judge Kevil's greatest thought was of "Mabel" in his last illness, and she was quite bereft when he was taken.

The deceased was a member of the Eastern Star, and the Order paid honors to her memory at Sikeston and also here. There were many and beautiful flowers sent in token of the affection and great respect in which she was held.

THE KENTUCKY GIRLS' QUARTET

Greeted With Enthusiasm by Large
Franklin Audience

The Kentucky Girls' Quartet, the attractive name selected by Miss Lipps, of Louisville; Miss Rippy, of Lawrenceburg; Miss Jenkins, of Marion; and Miss Wimberly, of Franklin, to designate their organization with a repertoire consisting of high class instrumental music on piano, violin, clarinet and drums, piano violin, clarinet and drums solos, together with attractive readings and sketches, entertained a large audience at the Franklin Graded School Auditorium on last Monday evening.

The young ladies, who are of the best families of Kentucky, have been attending the Louisville Conservatory of Music and their remarkable talents in their respective lines naturally brought them together.

Miss Lipps is an exceedingly gifted vocalist and besides uses the trap drums artistically in the musical choruses.

Miss Rippy approaches the professional as a piano accompanist and solo concert player and is equally entertaining as a dramatic reader.

Miss Jenkins, clarinetist, seems indispensable and performs her part with ease and grace.

Miss Wimberly, beautiful and attractive, is an artist on the violin, and her future success as a concert player is well assured. Her rendering of "Hejre Kats," by Hubay, came up to the most enthusiastic expectations of her friends and critics and her interpretation of Kreisler's "Rondino" was received with a storm of applause.

As we grow older, and the shadows begin to lengthen, and the leaves which seemed so thick in your youth above our heads grow thin and show the sky beyond, and as those in the ranks in front drop away, and we come in sight, as we all must of the eternal life pits beyond, a man begins to feel that among the real precious things of life—more lasting and more substantial than many of the objects of ambition here—is the love of those he loves and the friendship of those whose friendship he prizes.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED!

So Can Lumbago, Gout, Sciatica and Uric Acid Complaints.

Thousands know what Kampfmüller's Rheumatic Remedy will do for rheumatism, lumbago, gout and kindred diseases caused by excess uric acid in the blood or joints.

Read what Mr. W. A. Wilson, 515 West Chestnut street, Louisville, Ky., says:

"For the benefit of others who are afflicted as I was, I want to add a word of praise on behalf of your wonderful medicine. I was suffering with rheumatism, my blood was in bad order and general health very much run down. Was induced to try your medicine, which I did, but with some reluctance at first (as other recommended remedies had failed to benefit me) and found it to be just what I needed, and am glad to say that K. R. R. cured me of all my ailments and I feel well and strong again."

We are facing a perilous condition with perfect confidence, and to the heart of man nothing is so appealing as this twenty-third Psalm, so let us read:

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.
3. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
5. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

UNITY, STAY AND THINK

(BY CORA A. GRAVES.)

Can we not feel that the clouds that are gathering over our "native" universe, is, perhaps our Divine Lord's way of bringing His children to Him, who have been so wayward, so thoughtless, so ungrateful of His manifold blessing, so absorbed achievements—in a satanic love of luxuries. But can we not, in brotherly love, screen in the mantle of charity this forgetfulness of our wayward brothers and ask him to stop and think.

Let us recall the words at our mother's knee and her good-night kiss and her precious words—"My child who made you? God—Why did He make you? My cherub? To know Him, to love Him and to serve Him in this world, that we may be happy with Him forever in the next." Oh, if the teachings of this little five year old could be so indelibly impressed all through life, would there have been any cause for the poor unfortunate Kaiser to allow his heart to become so renowned in the thought of such ambition, power, domain, despotism, that has so dwarfed that fine intellect that was given him for God's glory. "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul." Can he not be awed by Angels morning, noon and evening, does not his heart appeal to the Divine Heart of Jesus? For I am the Prince of Peace, and my heart is wrung and bleeding. O, my children of this universe are you My maximums bedding? Remember He is a jealous

IS IT "JUST A COLD"?

Marion People Should Ask Themselves This Question.

Don't say: "It's just a cold." It may turn into backache, rheumatic aches, aching joints.

Or other serious sickness that comes from weak kidneys.

Colds are due to congestion. Congestion makes the kidneys over-work to filter the blood.

Colds often leave the kidneys weak. First break the cold; Then use Doan's Kidney Pills to avert the kidney dangers.

Let this Marion resident tell you about them.

Mrs. Callie Cook, E. Depot street, says: "About five years ago I suffered considerably with kidney trouble. It came on after a severe cold, which settled in my kidneys. My back was in a terrible condition, aching constantly and was so sore and stiff that I could hardly get up when down. As another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, I tried them. This medicine soon cured me and I can say that it is the best remedy I have used for kidney trouble."

Germany Offered Schwab Bribe Of $100,000,000.

Boston, Mass., May 2.—Mayor Curley has created a sensation by declaring in a speech at a patriotic mass meeting that an emissary of the German government offered Charles M. Schwab $100,000,000 if the Bethlehem Steel Co. should cease making munitions for the allies.

The mayor said he had received this information from Mr. Schwab himself about two weeks ago at the launching of an Argentine steamship at the Fore river yards at Quincy.

Mr. Schwab told him, he said, that the offer was made two days before congress declared that a state of war with Germany existed. And this great big American, who stood for the great principles of the republic, refused, the mayor added amid applause.

The meeting was for the purpose of stimulating recruiting, and after it was over Mayor Curley was asked for further details of the bribe offer to Schwab but he said he had told all he knew about it.

U Boat Campaign Has But Little Effect On Commerce Of America.

Washington, May 2.—Despite the German submarine campaign American exports in March reached a value of $551,278,000, which has been exceeded only once, last January, the best month in the country's history. Imports of $270,484,000 set a new American record.

Foreign and domestic commerce bureau statistics announced to-day show the country's foreign trade increased in March $156,000,000, over February totals.

Exports for the nine months ending with March were valued at $4,634,900,000 against $2,995,500,000 for the corresponding period in 1916, and $1,931,100,000 in 1915. Imports for nine months ending with March were valued at $1,818,320,000; at $1,504,663,000 in 1916, and at $1,213,614,000 in 1916.

Import records show that the proportionate amount of goods entering free of duty has been increasing steadily.

The net balance of gold imports for the nine months period was $651,108,000.

ALL CATHOLICS AFFIRM FEALTY

Loyalty Of Hierarchy, Clergy And People Pledged Stand Ready To Co-operate

Baltimore, May 2.—The archbishops of the United States have addressed a letter to President Wilson pledging the loyalty of the Catholic hierarchy, the clergy and people of that faith in this country to the President and the Government and accepting wholeheartedly and unreservedly the decree of Congress proclaiming this country to be in a state of war.

The letter which was adopted by the archbishops at their annual meeting in the Catholic University at Washington yesterday, is signed by all of the archbishops who were present, eight in number, the remaining six being unavoidably absent. It was sent to the President to-day by Cardinal Gibbons, chairman of the meeting.

We stand ready, the prelate unites in saying, we and all the flock committed to our keeping, to co-operate in every way possible with our President and our national Government, to the end that the great and holy cause of liberty man triumph and our beloved country may emerge from this hour of test stronger and nobler than ever.

The letter follows:

Mr President:

Stand firm upon our solid Catholic tradition and history from the very foundation of this nation, we reaffirm in this hour of stress and trial our most sacred and sincere loyalty and patriotism toward our country, our Government and our flag. Moved to the very depths of our hearts by the stirring appeal of the President of the United States, and by the action of our national Congress, we accept wholeheartedly and unreservedly the decree of that legislative authority proclaiming this country to be in a state of war.

We have prayed that we might be spared the conflict. But now that that has been declared we bow in obedience to the summons to bear our part of it, with fidelity, with courage, add with the spirit and sacrifice, which as loyal citizens we are bound to manifest for the defense of the most sacred rights and the welfare of the whole nation.

Acknowledging gladly the gratitude we have always felt for the protection of our spiritual liberty and the freedom of our Catholic institutions under the flag, we pledge our devotion and our strength in the maintenance of our country's glorious leaders in those possessions and principles which have been America's proudest boast.

Inspired neither by hate nor fear, but by the holy sentiments of truest patriotic fervor and zeal, we stand ready, we and all the flock committed to our keeping, to co-operate in every way possible with our President and our national Government, to the end that the great and holy cause of liberty may triumph, and that our beloved country may emerge from this hour of test stronger and nobler than ever.

Our people now, as ever, will rise as one man to serve the nation. Our priest and consecrated women will once again, as in every former trial of our country, win, by their bravery, their heroism and their service, new admiration and approval.

We are all true Americans, ready as our age our ability and our conditions permit to do what ever is in us to do, for the preservation, the progress and the triumph of our beloved country.

May God direct and guide our President and our Government, that out of this trying crisis in our national life, may at length come a closer union among all the citizens of America, and that on enduring and blessed peace may crown the sacrifices which war inevitably entails.

A Kansas editor has noticed that when a man finds fault with his local paper the chances are ten to one that he has't an he never gave it a job of work;

three to one that he is delinquent in his subscription and reads somebody else's paper, even money that he never did anything to assist the publisher to make it a good paper, forty to one that he is most eager to see it when it comes out, although not a subscriber, slips some one else's paper long enough to read it.

Look To Your Company.

Every man and woman, both old and young, should look well to the company they keep. Every person is entitled to a certain character of company, but if the company is below what it ought to be, it will pull the better element down with it.

Bad company has destroyed the character and influence of thousands of men who could have been useful and prominent in the counsels of their country.

The same rule applies to young women as well as older ones, because the history of the country demonstrates that bad company destroys the good name and character of more men and women than everything else combined.

Even a person with a bad character can redeem that character by associating with those better than himself or herself, and finally have good characters and stand well in the community among the best of people.

It requires a brave and courageous effort to avoid bad company and stand aloof from it, and save your own good name.—

Keeping Yourself Well

THE FIRST STEP

Usually the first indication of a lowering of health is found in the bowels and liver. Something goes wrong—we eat too much, or work too hard—and the bowel action weakens or the liver is sluggish.
That heavy feeling on arising in the morning, dryness of the throat, with bad taste, a slight headache, dull eyes—all show that food has fermented in the intestines, and that the body is manufacturing poisons instead of good blood.

Clear it all out. Give the stomach and bowels a fresh start.
Encourage the liver to go to work. Maltin does all of this without gripping or weakening.
It's the ideal laxative and liver tonic, because it follows Nature's plan, without discomfort, inflammation or forming a habit. Constipation may be overcome with its use.

Liquid or tablet form.

lets taste

they are safe. Sold 25 cents.

Don't be afraid to try out a new idea. Westinghouse was called a fool for trying to stop a railroad train with wind. When Cyrus Field started to lay the Atlantic cable, people said "a fool and his money are soon parted." Then Congress considered Morse a nuisance. Howe's first sewing machind was smashed by a Boston mob; and fellow townsmen of the Wright brothers spoke of them as the crazy Wright boys.

HARP RECITAL

At the Academy of Our Lady of Mercy, April 17th., by Mrs. Marshal Jenkins, of Marion Kentucky.

A rare treat was enjoyed by the teachers and students of the Academy of Our Lady of Mercy, April 17th., when Mrs. Marshal Jenkins, of Marion, Ky., gave excellent Harp Recital, that afforded the keenest enjoyment, not only for the ear, but the eye. Mrs. Jenkins' touch is exquisite, and the selections, including the very best compositions for the Harp, were performed with a finish and grace that were charming indeed.

One always associates the harp with celestial choirs, and Mrs. Jenkins truly makes her listener feel, that "Music for the time, doth change his nature."

Washington, May 2.—Guatemala has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany, handed to the German minister his passports, and canceled the exequaturs of German consuls there. Official advices of the break, coming from the American legation to Guatemala City, say President Estrada Cabrera assigned as the reason for his act his desire to stand with the United States in the fight for democracy and the preservation of the international law.

Letter From Phillipsburg, Kan.

Phillipsburg, Kan., Apr. 28, 1917
Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Mr. Jenkins:
I am sending you one dollar for the Record-Press.

Some of the farmers are plowing and fixing the wheat land for corn. There was quite a lot of wheat that didn't come up. We haven't had any rain to amount to any thing since August till April 19th, we had a good rain; on the 26th it rained all night. I think there will be quite a bit of wheat made this year if nothing happens. What wheat is left is greening up nicely.

Sorry to hear of so much sickness and so many deaths there. Will close with best wishes.

Yours truly,
L. L. Hunt.

Obituary.

Robert Alexander Dowell was born in Lebanon, Smith county, Tenn., October 29, 1837 and died at his home in Wellsford, Kan., April 11th, 1917, at the age of 79 years, 5 months and 12 days.

At the age of nineteen years he moved with his parents to Crittenden county, Kentucky and spent about 30 years in that place.

He was united in marriage November 11, 1857, to Mary E. Hill. To this union were born eight children, one of whom died in infancy. The seven who are living were all present at the funeral. They are: Martha E. Young, of Wellsford, Kan.; Mary E. Elder, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, W. E. Dowell, of Tolu, Ky.; Robert E. Dowell, of Hutchinson, Kan.; Lida E. Hopper, of Wellsford, Kan.; Frank Dowell, of Wellsford, Kan., and Elva Wood, of Wichita, Kan.

About thirty years ago Mr. Dowell emigrated with his family to Kansas and came directly to Wellsford where he lived until his death.

His wife died in July 1907 and in November 1908 he was united in marriage to Molly Dugan of Haviland who remains to mourn his death.

While living in Kentucky in war times Mr. Dowell served as deputy sheriff and at its close was elected as sheriff of Crittenden county. He served the people in that office six years. In 1880 he was elected as judge and served in that capacity four years. He was best known in this community as "Judge" Dowell.

As a pioneer of Kansas he suffered many hardships but being of a determined and optimistic character he endured the drouth and grasshopper period unflinchingly and as a result came to be one of the most prosperous citizens of this county. When the Wellsford State Bank was organized in 1911 Mr. Dowell was chosen president of that organization and held that office till death.

The deceased had been in poor health for two years and for eight months had been bedfast. Although he suffered much in that time his passing away was without pain. Mr. Dowell professed Christ as his Savior in early manhood and claimed Him to the end. Rev. Poore, of Conway Springs, who was pastor here in the early days had charge of the funeral services. Six grandsons acted as pallbearers and loving hands performed the last service for him who left us. A large company of relatives and friends accompanied the remains to Haviland where they were taken for burial—Wellsford, Kan., Correspondence, Greensburg, Kan., paper.

The beautiful month of May has again come this way, our town is yet hopeful, business affairs are moving along smoothly, we are yet among the living and are willing for the readers of the Record-Press to know it.

The May-day celebrations were not much in evidence Tuesday in this part of the world. Too much work on hand.

DEMOCRACY AND MILITARY SERVICE

A Wise Nation Demands Universal Training of Its Citizens.

By Hermann Magedorn of Vigilantes.

DEMOCRACY is based on service. Democratic institutions depend for their very existence on the willingness and ability of each and every man, woman and child in the land in some fashion to serve the common good.

Democracy is based on universal service.

What kind of service is demanded of men and women who live under democratic institutions? In time of peace democracy demands on the part of each individual an intelligent interest in civic and national affairs and a conscientious attention to the conduct of the people's representatives who constitute the government; it demands knowledge of conditions, understanding of the nation's institutions and patriotic devotion in the conservation of those institutions. It demands these qualities not merely of our high minded and high spirited men and women who volunteer to protect democracy from foes within, but of all; inasmuch as only a few respond to this demand, inasmuch as the majority remain selfish and uninformed slackers, democracy again and again goes down to defeat before special privilege and corrupt politicians. In peace democracy to be even remotely successful demands universal service in citizenship. A wise nation demands more. It demands universal training and service in citizenship.

A democracy that is a true democracy, self respecting, vigorous and pledged to high principles, will at times inevitably find itself in a position in regard to a foreign nation when it must either fight or lose its self respect. Now and again, as at the present hour, the nation's very existence as a democracy may be threatened. Democracy has its foes within and its foes without. Democracy meets and defeats its foes from within by means of an alert and conscientious army of citizens whose weapons are the tongue, the pen and the ballot. Democracy meets and defeats its foes from without by means of an army made up of those same citizens armed with guns. We know what happens in democracy's battles against corruption within when a minority only takes an interest in good government and the rest remain indifferent. Corruption wins. In the case of war against a foreign power, is the result likely to be different if we depend only on the high spirited but untrained few who volunteer?

In our hearts we know, though in our minds we may not admit, that if government shall be by all the people then the defense of that government must be by all the people likewise. In a democracy logic and consistency demand universal military service. Intelligence, prudence and a study of the experience not only of our own nation, but of all other nations which have been forced to plunge into war unprepared, demand furthermore that that service be preceded by thorough training in time of peace. An untrained soldier under modern conditions of war is nothing more useful than a carnivorous target, and he is less expensive dead than alive.

The logic is clear—if we believe in democracy, if we believe in government by the people and believe sufficiently in government by the people to be willing to fight for it against the imposition of a foreign will, then we must believe likewise in a citizenry trained and accustomed to arms. But "citizenry" does not mean only Jack and Dave and Isidor. "Citizenry" means everybody. And since there are slackers even in the U. S. A. that means a friendly but resolute "You must." It means universal military service compulsory on all who are physically fit to be their country's defenders.

TO AMERICA.

By Lee Wilson Dodd of the Vigilantes.

YES, mother, it is true; Bad daughters and worse sons We've been to you— Taking all, giving naught— Till we have brought You down to this. . . .

You need A starker deed To cherish you and guard, Keep watch and ward, Or strike if strike they must! Mother, our shameful heads are in the dust— Before you. . . .

Too mild, too patient—yet now more forgetful Our faithless greed, young folly, old neglect! For, though we perchance forget you, you shall live— Mother—through humiliated daughters who respect, Through chastened sons who serve you and adore you.
