FORMER TOLI TOULI COURT CITIZEN WINNER

KATHERINE AND ELLIS WINS

Former in Dedication, Author of "Oriental Cart," Marion's Best Citizen.

From the time the High School Orchestra struck up the first notes of "Rock of Ages," which was no doubt the best part of the program; the entire audience sat spellbound on the auditorium seats.

The dedication of the Marion High School is a certain event of importance to the school community and in honor of those who are here to witness the opening of a new era of educational opportunity not only for the students, but for all the people in town who appreciate good wholesome entertainment. The concert at the high school was the first of its kind in the town and the audience was large.

Ellis W. Wins was chosen by the students as the best boy in the class, and the selection was unanimous. He is a very popular student, and the students always look forward to his performances.

The orchestra, under the direction of Miss Katherine B. Reed, played a selection from "The Beggar's Opera," and the audience was thoroughly impressed with the quality of the music.

Miss Wins was chosen as the best girl in the class, and her selection was also unanimous. She is a very talented student, and her music is always enjoyed by the audience.

The school was formally opened by the state superintendent of schools, who addressed the assembled students,勉励他们要努力学习，为社会发展做出贡献。

TANLAC SMILE! GREETS FRIENDS
Old Hotel Men Tells How He Got Back Good Health.

"You're now looking good there, sonny," said the old hotel man to Johny, his trusted employee.

"What's the matter with you today, Johny?"

"Oh, I don't know, boss," replied Johny. "I feel fine now."

"I'm glad to hear it. You used to be a regular catch around here."

"Well, I guess I've been working too hard lately."

"What about your health?"

"Oh, I'm not so bad, boss," said Johny. "I've been taking some fresh air and getting plenty of rest."

"That's good, Johny. You've got to take care of your health."

"I know," said Johny. "I'm going to try to take it easy from now on."

"Good for you, Johny," said the hotel man. "You're a good employee, and I don't want to lose you."

"Thanks, boss," said Johny. "I'll do my best to take care of myself from now on."

The hotel man then turned to his trusted employee and said, "You're a fine employee, Johny. I'm glad to have you around here."

NOTICE
I want to ask the people of the County to help their neighbors. In this time of trial, those of you who are able can do a great deal of good by offering a helping hand. Please do not let anyone go hungry. We are all in this together.

WANTED-STRAWBERRY PICKERS
The State Young Men's Christian Association is sponsoring a campaign for the collection of strawberries in the counties of Marion and Clay. These strawberries will be sold at the local markets and the proceeds will be used to aid those in need. If you or someone you know is interested in picking strawberries, please contact the local YMCA.

Card of Thanks
We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to our neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted us in the treatment and care of our loved one. May God bless you all.

A Warning

We are Advised by the West Ky. Coal Co.

That the car situation is very serious and that labor at the mines has advanced 20 percent and more, so that coal would be higher than at present. The Virginia Press tells us that the people have been getting in for next winter, now. We said to them, "Can you furnish all the coal we would need, if the people here should get in, or put in their winter coal?" He answered, "Yes, we can take care of the people more time in which to get a supply." We assure you that this is a scheme to sell, we are only doing what we feel our duty, in giving you this timely warning.
