What is your idea of the way a monument is made? If you have not seen any work of this kind being done, you owe it to yourself to call at our workrooms when you are in Marion. We build monuments complete from the rough material.

Henry B. Henry, Marion, Ky.

Life Is Too Short To Quail

I am too busy to correspond with you, Will Forrest, to ask you to write me about the situation of the Eastern papers and the conference of the African sections in Nashville. If you haven't shown me any of your ideas, it means you haven't seen me. And this, of course, is true. I can only say that I am a man of the South, and that I am not a politician. I am not interested in politics, but only in the welfare of the colored people. I have been in the South for many years, and I have seen many things. I have seen the negroes suffer, and I have seen them rise above their condition. I have seen the negroes fight for their rights, and I have seen them lose. But I have never seen them give up. And this is what I want to say. I want to say that I am a man of the South, and that I am not a politician. I am not interested in politics, but only in the welfare of the colored people.

For a young officer who had been court-martialed, it was quite impressive. The admittance of a father to the son, the adoption of an ex-prisoner, the reparation of a wrong, the enactment of a new law — all these things were present. It was as if the whole world had been made new. It was as if the world had been reborn. It was as if the world had been given a new lease of life. It was as if the world had been given a new lease of life.

Charles Eastman, Distinguished Indian

Many of the most interesting and unique aspects of the Indian culture are found in the work of Charles Eastman (1858-1939), a Chippewa physician and writer. Eastman was one of the first Native American doctors, and he used his medical knowledge to bring attention to the problems facing his people. He was also a key figure in the movement to preserve Native American culture, and he wrote extensively about his experiences as an Indian. Eastman's work has been instrumental in helping to shape the way we think about Native American culture today.

Pilest, Pilest, Pilest

William H. Belknap, 1875, was appointed minister to the Confederate States of America by President Andrew Johnson. Belknap was chosen for the position because of his close association with Johnson. Belknap was also a skilled lawyer, and he began his legal career as a prizefighter. Belknap was appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States in 1885, and he served until 1894. Belknap was known for his strict interpretation of the Constitution, and he was a vocal opponent of Reconstruction policies.

Doctor Can't Be Cured

Drs. E. C. and B. E. C. McEwen, of Marion, Ky., report that a new disease is afflicting the community. The disease, which is known as the "doctor cure," is characterized by a loss of appetite and a general feeling of ill health. The doctors report that the disease is spreading rapidly, and they urge the community to take precautions to prevent its spread.

The land of my three daughters

In 1912, Ellen W. Ritter, a prominent Illinois politician, was killed in a plane crash near Chicago. Her three daughters, who were also pilots, were killed in the crash as well. The crash was a major loss for the aviation community, and it highlighted the dangers of flying.

Hey! You Farmers and Stock Men, Wake up.

During the packing out of your boys, these hard times, for a farmer's life is hard nowadays. Be careful of making a good one when you can. Look at the Local 25 cent to 40 cent a box. That's a lot of money. If you can't afford to throw away 25 cent to 40 cent a box, you can't afford to throw away a dollar or more a box. And don't you know that a dollar or more a box is a lot of money?

So, my friends, wake up and be careful of your boys. Don't throw away money that you don't need. And don't throw away anything that you can save. It's your money, and you're the one who should have control over it.

Local House for Birds

This house is designed for the birds of the neighborhood. It is made of wood, and has a roof to protect it from the weather. The front has a small ledge, and the back has a small door. The inside is lined with feathers, and has a small opening for the birds to enter and leave.

What is LAX-FOS

LAX-FOS is an Educational Digestive Emulsion for Use on the Return of the Season. It is made of a mixture of rye, barley, and wheat. This mixture is ground into a fine powder, and mixed with water to make a paste. The paste is then spread on the food, and left to sit for a few hours. This will help to break down the food, making it easier for the birds to digest.

In its eighth year, LAX-FOS is now available in a smaller package. It is now sold in a 10 cent bottle, making it more affordable for farmers and stock men. It is also available in larger packages, up to a gallon, for use in larger flocks.
