CREATURE'S BAND IS BIG FEATURE

The Big Redpath Chautauqua band, which opened here yesterday, and is to remain here for the next three days, presents a most unusual feature in its program this afternoon. The band is composed of 52 members, and is under the direction of Mr. R. P. Mangan, who has spent the summer in the study of music and band management.

The band consists of the following: 40 skilled instrumentalists, 14 skilled vocalists, and 15 canteen workers.

In rehearsal, the band is said to have worked very hard and to have developed a fine ensemble.

The band is composed of the following:

1. Cornets
2. Trombones
3. Drums
4. Saxes
5. Clarinets
6. Accordion
7. Piano
8. Violin
9. Cello
10. Bass

The band is under the direction of Mr. R. P. Mangan, and is said to be one of the finest in the country.

SUNDAY EVENING

The Big Redpath Chautauqua band will present its first concert tonight at 8:30. The program will consist of a variety of music, including spirituals, marches, and modern songs.

The band is under the direction of Mr. R. P. Mangan, and is said to be one of the finest in the country.

The Great Creature and His Band Will Be Here
On the Seventh Day of the Redpath Chautauqua

Since the days when we followed our fathers across the land, the historical narrative of the evolution of music has been recorded in the song of the sea, the rhythm of the drum, and the melody of the voice. This tradition continues to this day, as we honor the memory of those who have gone before us and pay tribute to the legacy of music.

MEETING THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Time Topic to Be Discussed at Chautauqua Here by One Who Has Made a Close Study of Foods and Labor Conditions.

Whether the time has come to raise the minimum wage from $1 to $1.50 a day, as proposed by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, was discussed by a speaker who has made a close study of the subject of foods and labor conditions.

The speaker, who asked to remain anonymous, said that the minimum wage of $1 a day is not enough to provide a living wage for workers.

He cited statistics that showed that the cost of living has increased significantly in recent years, making it impossible for workers to earn enough to cover basic necessities.

The speaker called for a raise in the minimum wage to $1.50 a day to ensure that workers can afford to live decently.

The meeting was held at the Chautauqua Assembly Hall, where a panel of experts discussed various aspects of the cost of living.

The panelists agreed that the minimum wage needs to be raised to keep pace with inflation and ensure that workers can afford basic needs such as food, housing, and healthcare.

The meeting was well-attended, with many attendees expressing their support for the proposed increase in the minimum wage.

In conclusion, the speaker emphasized the importance of raising the minimum wage to ensure that workers can live decently and contribute to the economy's growth.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

Indianapolis, Ind., May 15th, 1937.

The live stock market was lively today, with prices fluctuating throughout the day. Cattle prices were down, while hogs and pigs showed some gains.

The corn market was quiet, with no significant changes in prices.

The wheat market was mixed, with some buyers still looking for bargains.

The cotton market was steady, with no major price movements.

The news for the week ahead is uncertain, with traders waiting for more information on the crop and weather conditions.

SUNDAY, APRIL 25TH

Mr. Smith left his family at home and went to his farm to tend to his crops. He had been working hard all week, and was eager to get the field ready for planting.

As he was working, he noticed a unusual object in the field. It was a mysterious object, and he decided to investigate further.

He approached the object cautiously, wondering what it could be. Suddenly, he heard a voice calling out to him from the object.

The voice was that of his wife, who had been waiting for him at home. She had been worried about him, and had decided to come out to look for him.

Seeing his wife, Mr. Smith was relieved and happy. They embraced each other, grateful to be reunited.

The couple then returned to their farm, determined to work harder than ever to make a better life for themselves.

The end.
