THE REAL WILD WEST

Three tours Champion Cowboys And Cowgirls From The Far Western Plains

One of the greatest shows offered from the West to the East is the Wild West Show. At Waketon and Charlesville factories, a group of thirty-eight Indians, cowboys, and cowgirls, under the direction of Will Earle, are having an exhibition in the town of their annual gathering in the West. They are performing in the exhibition, which begins at 10 a.m. on Saturday, and will continue until the evening. This is a beautiful show, with some of the most skilled performers from the West, and is not to be missed. The show is open to the public, and tickets are available at the box office.

The War Committee

The War Committee of Crittenden County recently discussed the possibility of establishing a hospital in the county to serve the needs of soldiers and their families. The committee has been working on this project for several months, and they believe that it is time to take action. The hospital would be located in the center of the county, and it would provide medical and surgical services to the soldiers and their families. The committee is asking for the support of the local community in order to make this project a reality.

AMENDMENT IS INDOURED

The proposed amendment to the Constitution of Crittenden County, which has been the subject of much debate, has finally been brought before the voters. The amendment would allow the county to levy a tax on real estate for the purpose of providing funds for the support of schools. The amendment has been debated extensively, and the final vote is expected to be close. The amendment is expected to be voted on in the next election.

DEATHS

Deceased B. Cornett, an old and respected citizen of Crittenden, died Monday, Sept. 20th, of a heart attack, which he had suffered for several days. Cornett was a respected member of the Black Creek Methodist Church, and was active in many community organizations. He is survived by his wife, two children, and several grandchildren. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, at 10 a.m., at the Black Creek Methodist Church. The family requests that donations be made to the church in lieu of flowers.

MARRIAGES

CHAPTER V

THE BOOZE OF THE RAEDEL.

The next morning the boys went out to look over the country, and they were surprised to find that the fields were covered with clumps of moss. They could not account for it, and they thought it was strange that such a thing should happen. They decided to look into the matter, and they went to see the farmer and asked him if he knew what was the matter. He said that it was the result of the rain, and he advised them to leave it alone. They thought it was strange, but they left it alone.

The next day they went out to look at the fields again, and they found that the clumps of moss were getting larger. The Attack on Sam. 40

We had made up our minds to attack the fort at Sam 40, and we had determined to make a desperate effort to capture it. We had been ordered to report to our commanding officer at eight o'clock the following morning, and we were to be under arms.
