MARION MEAT MARKET
MOVED TO MAIN ST.
J. R. SOWERS

PREVIOUS occupant of the Marion Meat Market, formery owned by Mr. W. C. H. Farm, has sold the business to Mr. J. R. Sowers, who will operate the store.

Mr. Sowers is well known in the community and has a good business standing.

The store is located at the present location of the former Meat Market.

A PLEASURE OF GOOD FORTUNE.
In these days of high prices it is remarkable to find onearticle that has been sold for the same price as it was a year or two ago. The saddle of the pine mule, which is in the store, is the same price as it was when it was first offered for sale.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER, Bertie

Dear Bertie,

I trust this will find you in good health and spirits.

Yesterday I received your letter, which I read with great interest. I am glad to know that you are well and that everything is going as well as it can.

I have been thinking a lot about you and how you are doing. I hope you are happy and healthy.

I would love to hear from you again soon. Let me know how you are doing.

Your loving brother,

J. R. Sowers

P.S. I am sending you a small gift with this letter. I hope you will like it.

COFFER'S SPRING
Miss Mary Boehm, who has been a regular contributor to our columns, has accepted a position in the city and will leave us soon.

She has been a valuable member of our staff and we will miss her greatly.

We wish her the best of luck in her new endeavor.

LIBERTY BONDS—WHAT THEY ARE AND HOW OBTAINED

The bonds of the second issue of Liberty Bonds are to be issued under the act of Congress approved by the President September 1, 1918.

The amount of the issue will be $1,000,000,000. The United States will purchase $750,000,000 of the bonds at par, and the remainder will be held by the governing bodies of the various States for the purpose of making loans to farmers and others in need of credit.

The bonds will be sold at par, and the proceeds will be used to purchase land and other property for the benefit of the public. The bonds will be payable in four equal annual installments, and may be redeemed at any time after one year from the date of issuance.

The bonds are not a direct obligation of the United States, but are secured by the personal property of the holders. The United States will purchase the bonds at par, and the proceeds will be used to purchase land and other property for the benefit of the public.

The bonds are not considered as a direct obligation of the United States, but are secured by the personal property of the holders. The United States will purchase the bonds at par, and the proceeds will be used to purchase land and other property for the benefit of the public.
