Crittenden Record-Press

Marion, Crittenden County Kentucky, Thursday, Morning, Nov. I 1917

Vol. XXXX

ASKS SUPPORT

John A. Stembridge Announces For Assessor On An Independent Ticket.

To The Voters Of Crittenden

In answer to the urgent solicitation of many voters throughout the county and adherents of all parties. I have decided to enter the race for County Assessor, and the petition to that effect signed by the requisite number of voters has already been filed in the Crittenden County court were the favors. clerk's office to have my name pla ed upon the ballot as an Independent candidate.

heavy duties upon the Assessor, and it is very important to the throughout the county are con- lie Nunn delightfully entertain- sons took charge of the services amount due upon the delivery vinced that I am capable and ed five tables of bribge in Houor and conducted a Masonie buria', to the address. qualified. I will be glad if those of Miss Madiliene Jenkins The which was not concluded until Therese on drop letters on and who do not know me will make home of Mrs. Nunn was attract | dusk. i quiry among my acquaintances, ively decorated in Autumn leaves | There were many beautiful ounce, This applies to all letters and upon their judgment I am and pumpkins. The green potted if ral offerings from friends here mailed for delivery by the city, willing to have the people settle terms were used throughout the and from many parts of the rural or other carriers of such the matter at the coming Nov- living room and dining room, country where the deceased was office. The two cent drop letter and the election it will be im- napkins were decorated to carry from the active walks of life one Post cards or private mailing possible for me to see many of out the Hallowene idea, Weird of the brightest minds and ablest cards, bearing written messages. you in person but assuring you Music was played on the victro- writers it has ever been our will also be subject to two cent greater sacrifices, than this. He trees in the grounds surrounding of my appreciation for all of the la through out the afternoon. help that may be extended to A two course menu was served me, and promising you a faithful the ice cource being ice cream weary months, since the attack discharge of the office, I am.

Respectfully. John A. Stembridge.

Rural Carrier Examination

Commission has announced an Blue, Katherine Yandell, Kittle tion which his son could be stow, in all lines. examination for the county of Gray, Della Barnes. Caldwell Ky., to be held on Mesdames, J. B. White, W. V. Nov., 24, 1917 at Princeton, Ky., to fill the position of rural car- Barnet', J. Press Guess, Douglas his daughter Mrs. Kimpton in "I am very busy," said the inventor, rier at Fredonia, Ky., and vacan- Carnahan, Paul Adams, Mrs. Chicago and she gave him a devising a range finder whichcies that may later occur on W. V. Haynes, rural routes from other post offices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the · her requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offlices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commision at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the carliest practicable date.

Three Days Of Grace

On October bargain rates are allowed by the Evansvilla Courier at request of many people-Nov. 1, 2, 3. If you have not subscribed you must do so before Saturday midnight, when books close. Last chance to secure this great newspaper at October bargain rate of $4.00 daily by mail one year, $6.00 daily and

Hand your subscription to this newspaper or your postmaster or mail to The Evansville day Oct. 28, 1917. For Onio you had better heer this notice, are nine grandchildren, Valley and Tennessee: - Short period rain at out Tuesday. Fair and colder thereafter.

In Honor of Miss Madeliene. Jenkins who was married to Mr. Bruce A. Babb on Tuesday Oct , 3oth, Miss Frances Blue entertained with a Japanese juncheon Friday Oct., 26th at one o'clock.

A large open Japanese parsol just above the table, with small parsols hanging from it. A vase with of yellow chrysanthemums formed the center piece, and seated under the blossoms were miniture Jap. dolls. The place cards were hand painted Japaese scenes, Tiny Japs' umberellas

A delightful six course luncheon was served to. Misses Madeiliene Jenkins, Kate Yates, Nannie Rochester, Susie Bostoo, Kit Yandell, Frances Blue, Misdames, Paul Adams, Maurie

In the few weeks between now black crepe paper. The tallies Dewitt Clinton Roberts removes have no carrier system.

sides the guesta of Honor, Miss specialists and was hopeful to Flanary, Virginia Blue, Kate self again. The United States Civil Service Yates, Linda Jenkins, Frances

Tucker, Wm. C. Cross, Wm.

Time to Think About Your Christmas Shopping!

G. E. Beston.

A message was received here Three Cents on Letters And Two by Mr. George P. Roberts Friday night at midnight bringing the news that his father Col. D. C. Roberts had died there in Walker Sanitarium at 11:30 the was suspended from the ceiling o'clock. Mr. Roberts left here here. He returned with the office: remains Sunday morning ac- Letters and other first class heim who went with him.

> nounced for two o'clock was three cents for each ounce or postponed until 4 o'clock Sunday fraction thereof, which should afternoon to give time for the be fully prepaid. If less than arrival of Col. Roberts daughter, three cents is prepaid on a letter. Mrs. Kimpton of Chicago and or other first class matter, it her daughter Miss Marjorie, they shall be returned to the sender, having left Chicago on the first if known, for the deficit postage.

On Thursday a ternoon Oct 25 Rev. Henry V. Escott at the pistage and dispatched to it Miss Susie Hoston and Mrs. Mau- residence after which the Ma- destination for collection of the privilege to know. He had been postage each. in the sanitarium for many pumpkins. Miss Boston and Mrs. of partial paralysis 2 years ago Nunn's Hospitality included be- under a trained nurse and skilled es, Nannie Rochester, Gwendo- the last that he would recover

> while here at the Roberts home, and when in Evansville. He spent some time last year with daughter's loving care but he "Good Lord, man." said the suburban-ite, "what a waste of time. What the did nor rally permanently but world needs is not a range finder but maintained avitality and interest a cook finder that will stay when found in affairs which was the wonder by the ranges already located. of all his friends. Only last week an article he wrote appeared in these columns and within a fortnight he had written aletter | Large white variety, 121 cents pertaining to an invention of his per pound. for which patents are now pend- 1042mp ing in the patent office at Wash-and his family resided for 25 wife, of Repton. years or more and where he was was a very able writer.

man to interest capital in this for her parents in 1803.

2 years ago.

ceur in many years in this of ail, in their sadness at her un- James H. Snow. vicinity, was that of Mirs. Lockie timely death.

Cents on Post Cards. Look Over The Ruling.

New postal rates will go into Saturday morning and went to effect next Friday, Nov. 2, and Evansville to have the remains the following features should be prepared for burial and brought noted by patrons of the postcompanied by Mr. Sam Gugen- matter (except drop letters and postals and post cards) will be The funeral which was an subject to postage at the rate of The funeral was conducted by cents, be rated with the deficit line Haynes, Ruth Croft, Ruth his lost strengt hand be his olden hats, and special bargains in and 80th., Companies, will say sadness which forstailed all de-He had every care and atten. ning November 3rd. Bargains learning how to fight for the bridesmaids or groomsmen.

Jop, Look And Listen.

Moore & Pickens.

SWEET CLOVER SEED.

H. N. Lamb. Tribune, Ky.

The deceased was a member Loraine Hillyard, the girl wife be what it may, of St. Margaret's Episcopal of Prof. Fred Hillyard, and the Koon asks of no man back

Daily Times and The Globe, and 12th, of her little son, Robert having help d in defending she preceded him to the grave Repton Ky., and Mrs. Talmage The above letter was written

TUCKY KOMPANY

Komrades Kompliment Him Highly As to Deportment at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., October 29, 1917.

A few same and sensibl reasons why the voters of Critour soldier boys after the war offices, but there is no reason war is finished to do this when now have, of sending a man to he Kentucky legislature a few him to fight his Country's battles during the remainder of the time. The man who asks this favor of the people of these two counties made an honorable fight for the nomination and won it, he was drafted to, fight for the protection of the home folks and side were columns topped with draped in pumpkin yellow and known. The death of Col rate also applies to offices which went to war with a smile upon County Exemption Board, surely darkened by banks of golden will render the same kind of the bride's home. It was not services in making laws for his an elaborate wedding, as the people that he has in fighting bride preferred the simple form, the battles of his country.

A man can only be judged by short time that he has been here. erat or Republican, let his rank

Church in Chicago, where he daughter of W. K. Powell and home that which he has not already given a hundred fold in She was stricken with periton- return. He only believes that connected with the "Chicago itis soon after the birth on Oct. he can better serve the State by ras a very able writer.

He came here 15 years ago ed away Thursday evening. Oct. of his comrades of the 75th., and and was instrumental in open- 25th, at see a o'clock, in her soth, Companies, his eletion ing up the vast mineral deposits 21st year and having then left would be by acclamation, for here and did as much as any one by the stock as a Chrisamas gift there is no more popular man in our contacy tha Kon. He Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Babb of this Be id sher busbend, sor, and makes a enarges against his Dewitt Cliston Roberts was parents, she is sucvived by two opponent for he believes that ro of Chat au. Gay Cliston brot ers, Prof. Kenna Powell the lay of ditty points ha-Caunty New York, Jan 5th., who is one of the country's valued passed of the too patrio country 1844, and died Oct. 26th., 1917, teachers; and Theodore, whose would allow homsels to be subin his 74 year. He was narried pet mane is "Ted; and by three messed in attempting to dig up May 5th., 1866, to Miss Renecca sisting Miss Dowey, who is at he regretable part or delve into Wi slow of Cape Cod, Mass., home, Mrs. Bernice Spence, of the saily skele on of any man.

2 years ago.

He is survived by 2 daughters

Matting y, of Clav, Ky.

Four years ago under the Livingston and Crittenden counticable and commendable. He has There is an ordinance against. He is survived by 2 daughters these cutouts and curs keeping Mrs. E. G. Kimpton of Chicago processed faith ty soldier boys of Camp Taylor. Taylor. The has many staunch fried and commendable. He has many staunch fried and commendable. these cutouts and curs keeping Mrs. F. G. Kimpton of Chicago at Repton, she professed faith up such a noise, also runing with and Mrs. Augus S. Williams of at Repton, she professed faith R. A. Lynch, C. V. Sherer, as in his new home as evidenceout lights. This is the last rotice. Wilbur, Wash., one son George in Christ and joined the Baptist F. C. Newcom, M. B. Walker, ed by the many tokens of friend-Weather Forecast.

For the week beginning Sunbad better hear this notice. Wilbur, Wash, one son George church of which she lived a consistent member the remainder of Sistent member the remai W. H. Martin, Albert Lane, W. first born of Mr. and Mrs. S. One of the saddest dea ha to der family have the sympathy S. Farley, Harry E. Powen and M. Jenkins was born in Hender-

Babb-Jenkins Marriage Tuesday Afternoon At Southern Presbyterian Church.

The marriage of Miss Madeleine Jenkins daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins of this city, to Mr. Bruee Babb of Hodgenville Ky., was solemnized at 2 o'clock tenden and Livingston County Tuesday afternoon October, 30th should see that Duron Koon goes at the Southern Presbyterian to the next Kentucky Legisla | church by her pastor Rev. H. V. Escott in a reautiful and impres-It is a foregone conclusion sive ceremony, in the presence that our home people will honor of an audience of friends of the contracting parties which taxed with county, state and national the capacity of the cosy little church. The interior of the ediwhy they should wait until the fice had been transformed into a scene of bewildering beauty by they have the chance, as they the deft hands of friends and chums of the bride with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adam's as the designays of each year, and allowing ers. The colors were white and gold; palms, ferns, and evergreens were banked at the alter in great profusion. A golden yellow pillow of satin was in position in front of the minister on which the bride and groom kneeled in prayer. On either vases of immense yellow chryshis face asking no favors of the anthemums. The windows were he could be expected to make no autumn twigs taken from native as her brother Robert who recently volunteered in the U.S. his actions and not by his pro- navy could not attend, and that Special sale on for Children's mises. No man of the 75th., was the cause for an element of ladies and misses hats, begin- that Koon loafs on his job of sire for display. There were no protection of our country, his Miss Linda Jenkins was maid of superior officers will commend honor and walked in front of the him upon actions during the bride who leaned on the arm of her father who gave her away as He volunteered to assist in teach- the groom and his best man Mr. ing the illiterates of Camp A. A. Orender of Bul alo met Zachary Taylor, For this work them in front of the alter. The he receives no pay and asks bridal march was exquisitely none. He gives an hour of his rendered on the Vocalion by Miss resting time four days of each Sallie Woods who assisted by week to this kindly work. He Mr. Medley Cannon on the Cello drills as long as any man of the had entertained the assembling company in the day time and re- audience. The bride was gownceives no favors from any one, ed in a traveling costume of surely his actions deserve the brown chiffon broadcloth with kindly attention of any man hat, gloves, and shoes to harmoback home be he either $D_{\rm emo}$ nize and carried a white prayer book instead of the usual brides roses, Immediately aftes the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Babb departed on the north bound train at 3 o'clock for Chicago and New York on a two weeks bridal trip after which they will go to Hodgenville to reside.

> The groom is one of the proprietors and is manager of the LaRue Drug Company and is well pleased with his location and prospects. He is a sun of city and is a self made man and. finished his education on money loaned him when a young man by one of Marion's philan hropists Mr. Sam Gugenheim. All of which he appreciated and repaid with interest when he attained manhood and was earning a salary. He has exemplary habits

(continued on page 5, 4th column)

Instruments for examining conditions inside as well as outside the loaded mules into Ali Masjid fort. of the eye. Glasses scientifical- Take this chit, you. Give it to the ly fitted. Prices reasonable. Office: Paris Bldg. Marion, Ky.

King Of The Khyber Rifles.

(Continued From last week.)

CHAPTER VIII.

After a time King urged his horse to a jog-trot, and they trotted forward until the bed of the Khyber began to grow very narrow, and All Masjid fort could not be much more than a mile away, at the widest guess. Then King drew rein and dismounted, for he would have been challenged had he ridden much farther. A challenge in the Khyber after dark consists invariably of a volley at short range, with the mere words afterward, and the

"Off with the mules' packs!" he ordered, and the men stood round and stared. Darva Khan, leaning on the only rifle in the party, grinned like a post-office letter box.

"Truly," growled Ismail, forgetting past expressions of a different opinion, "this man is as mad as all the other Englishmen."

"Were you ever bitten by one?" wondered King aloud.

"God forbid!" "Then off with the packs-and Ismail began to obey, "Thou! Lord of the Rivers! (For that is what Darya Khan means.) What is thy calling?' "Badragga" (guide), he answered.

"Did she not send me back down the pass to be a guide? If she says I am badragga, shall any say she lies?"

"I say thou art unpacker of mules" burdens!" answered King. "Begin!" For answer the fellow grinned from ear to ear and thrust the rifle barrel forward insolently. King, with the movement of determination that a man

At That Instant the Moon Shone the pass!" he ordered. "Stand out of Bracelet Glittered in the Moonlight. I whistle!"

through the mist and the gold bracelet glittered in the moonlight.

"May God be with thee!" said "Lord of the Rivers" at once, And without King another word he laid down his rifle and went to help off-load the mules.

King stepped aside and cursed softty. But for a vein of wisdom that underlay his pride he would have pocksted the bracelet there and then and have refused to wear it again. But as he swented his pride he overheard Ismail growl:

"Good for thee! He had taught thee phedience in another but of the eye!"

"I obey her!" muttered Darya Khan, "Ie too," said Ismail. "So shall he before the week dies! But now it is good to obey him. He is an ugly man by a patch of silver mocolight. Athebot to disobey!"

"I obey him until she sets me free, then," grumbled Darya Khan,

"Retter for thee!" said Ismail. The packs were laid on the ground, and the mules shook themselves, while the jackals that haunt the Khyber came closer, to sit in a ring and King dug a flashlight out of one of the packs, gave it to Ismail to hold, sat on the other pack and began to write on a memorandum pad. If was a minute before he could persuade Ismail that the flashlight was harn less, and another minure before he could get him to held it still. Then however, he wrote swiftly,

In the Khyber, a mile below you. Dear Old Man-I would like to run and see you, but circumstances don

Dr. Gilchrist egards of the clarify to two mules and their packs. Make any use of the mules you like, but store the loads where I-ean draw on them in case of need twould like to have a talk with you before the clarify the clarify the clarify the clarify the clarify the clarific terms of the clarific terms o would like to have a talk with you belove taking the rather desperate step 1 in-tend, but hydon't want to be seen enter-ing or leaving Ali Masjid. Can you come down the pass without making your in-tention known? It is growing misty now, It ought to be easy. My men will tell you where I am and show you the way. Why sot destroy this letter?—Athelstan.

He folded the note and stuck a postage stamp on it in lieu of a seal. Then he examined the packs with the aid of the flashlight, sorted them and ordered two of the mules reloaded.

"You three!" he ordered then. "Take sahib in command there."

"To hear is to obey!" said the nearest man They took the saules' leading Below Farmers Bank, reins and before they had gone ten paces were swallowed in the mist that had begun to flow southeastward. The night grew will, except for the whimpering of jackals.

Ismail came nearer and squatted at King's feet. Darya Khan came closer too. King had thel the reins of the two horses and the one remaining mule tecether in a knot and was sicting on the pack. Solemn, almost motionless, squatted on their hunkers, Shey looked like two great vultures

They sat in silence for five minutes. e two hillmen shudered, although King did not but an evelid. Din burst into being. A volley ped out of the night and thundered wn the pass.

How-uit! Hukkums dar? came the insolent challenge half a minute after it-the proof positive that Ali hasjid's guards neither slept nor were

A Weird wail answered the chalfro of words, that was prelude to a shouted invitation:

"Ud-vance-frrrennen-orsss-werrul!" English can be as weirdly distorted wire, or any other supple medium, and native levies advance distortion to the point of art; but the language sounds no less good in the chilly gloom of a Khyber night.

Followed another wait, this time of half an hour Then a man's footsteps-a booted, leather-heeled man. striding carelessly. Not far behind him was the softer noise of sandals. The man began to whistle "Annie Laurie." "Charles? That you?" called King.

"That you, old man?" A man in khaki stepped into the moonlight. He was so nearly the image of Athelstan King that Ismail and Darya Khan stood up and stared. Athelstan strode to meet him. Their walk was the same. Angle for angle, line for line, they might have been one man and his shadow, except for threequarters of an inch of stature.

"Glad to see you, old man," said Athelstan. "Sure, old chap!" said Charles; and they shook hands. 'What's the desperate proposal?"

asked the younger.

"I'll tell you when we are alone." His brother nodded and stood a step aside. The three who had taken the note to the fort came closer-partly to call attention to themselves, partly to claim credit, partly because the outer silence frightened them. They elbowed Ismail and Darya Khan, and one of them received a savage blow in the stomach by way of retort from Ismail Before that spark could start an .explosion Atheistan interfered.

"Ismail! Take two men. Go down the pass out of earshot, and keep watch! Come back when I whistle thus—but no sooner!"

He put fingers between his teeth and blew until the night shrilled back at him. Ismail seized the leather bag and started to obey.

"Leave that bag. Leave it. I say!" "But some man may steal it, sahib. How shall a thief know there is no money in it?"

"Leave it and go!" King turned on Darya Khan.

"Take the remaining men and go up

Through the Mist and the Gold earshot and keep watch. Come when bellyache stand guard? His moaning wash-never worry! You'll do finely." will betray both him and me!" oblected "Lord of the Rivers."

"Take him and go!" commanded

"But-" his bracelet. But there was something | had been. started off in the mist.

sight!' he snarled. stan sat down on the mule's pack.

"Well?" said the younger. "Tell me. Hed. I shall have to hurry. You see I'm in charge back there. They saw me come out, but I hope to teach 'em a lesson going back." Atheistan nodded. "Good!" he sald "I've a roving commission. I'm ordered to enter Khinjan caves"

His brether whistled. "Yall order

"Haven't one-yet. Know more

"How? Name It!"

a come," he said. "We of that tashkar wast we ocate, under a mullah whose . igs to hange with the day of tales about the 'Heart of the Hills,' "No explanation of 'em?" Athelstan asked him.

"None! Not a thing!" "D'you know of Yasmini?" "Heard of her, of course," said his brother.

"Has she come up the pass?" His brother laughed. "No, neither

she nor a coach and four." "I have heard she's up the pass shead of me." said Athelstan. 'She hasn't passed Ali Masjid!" said his brother, and Athelstan nodded. "Are the Turks in the show yet?" asked Charles pected in." young man grinned from car to ear. he could do nothing by halves. They're working both tides under to listening!"

said Athelstan.

her. "They?" tick to the last man!", g bone fifty or sixty yards away. "I can't tell you," said Atheistan, "why we're not attacking brother Turk before he's ready. But my job is to help make the holy war seem unprofit- King repacked the loads, putting able to the tribes, so that they'll let everything back carefully into the big the Turk down hard when he calls on leather envelopes and locking the em. Every day that I can point to empty handbag, after throwing in a day in my favor. There are sure to he went to sit in the moonlight, with he raids. In fact, the more the merrier. his back to a great rock and waited provided they're spasmodic. We must there cross-legged to give his brother keep 'em separated-keep 'em swarm- time to make good a retreat through was almost that family's hereditary put two fingers in his mouth and job. Athelstan continued: whistled.

won the game. Nothing'll stop 'em!

"Sure," said Charles. "Help me with the stain now, will

With his flashlight burning as if its battery provided current by the week instead of by the minute, Athelstan he?" asked Ismail. dragged open the mule's pack and produced a host of things. He propped a mirror against the pack and squatted in front of it. Then he passed a little bottle to his brother, and Charles attended to the chin-strap mark that would have betrayed him a British of-

In a Few Minutes His Whole Face Was Stepped Back to Look at It.

Issuall departed, grumbling, and ficer in any light brighter than dusk. stepped back to look at it.

"Won't need to wash yourself for a he said. "The dirt won't menth " "But this one has a bellyache where show!" He sniffed at the bottle. "But sions, drew up his sleeves above the Ismail smote him! Can a man with a that stain won't come off if you do "Not yet, I won't!" said Athelstan. picking up a little safety razor and beginning on his mustache. In a minute he had his upper lip bare. Then his brother bent over him and rubbed King was careful now not to show in stain where the serubby mustache in his eye and in his attitude-a After that Athelstan unlocked the subtle, suggestive something-or-other leather bag that had caused Ismail so in profile, about him-that was rather more con- much concern and shook out from it a vincing than a pistol or a stick. Darya | pile of odds and ends at which his Khan thrust his rifle's end into the hurt brother nodded with perfect under- Thou! Thou!" man's stomach for encouragement and standing. The principal item was a "Come and ache out of the sahl." | piece of slik-forty or fifty yards of him. it—that he proceeded to bind into a So he stepped back until the moon So he stepped back until the moon sight! he snarled.

In a minute King and his brother him a guiding, understanding finger at his turban, changing his expression at density. Lam a man but a constant of the same stood unseen, unheard in the shadow every turn. When that was done, the the same time, man who had said he looked in the least like a British officer would have "Ma'uzbillah! (May God protect

One after another he drew on native garments, picking them from the pile "Tiec-yee-yee!" yelled Ismail, hugheside him. So, by rapid stages he de- ging himself by the ethows and begin had done. "The part to a T." "Well-take these into the fort for the is a good one-good!" "I shall go in disguise. Nobody can me, will you?" His brother caught the Three of the others stood and words when need be!"

ing pell-med to the first trap set for us! He a compra if that's the name you care to give it. You needn't tell ne you've go, orders to hunt skirmishthe week. And there are everlasting ers to a standstill, because I know better."

"How d'you know better?" "Never mind! I've been seconded to your crowd. I'm your semor, and I'm giving you orders. Hit hard when you have to, but for God's sake, old man, ware traps!"

"All right," said his brother. "Then good-by, old man!"

"Good-by, Athelston!"

They stood facing and shook hands. Where had been a man and his reflection in the mist, there now seemed to be the same man and a native. Athelstan King had changed his very nature with his clothes. He stood like a "Not yet. But I know they're ex- native-moved like one; even his voice was changed, as if-like the actor who "You bet they're expected in!" The dyed himself all over to act Othelle-prepare the tribes for it. They flatter Officers in that force are not chosen themselves they can set alight a holy for their clumsiness, or inability to war that will put limour llang to move sliently by night. His footsteps shame. You should hear my jezailchies died in the mist almost as quickly as talk at night when they think I'm not his shadow. Before he had been gone stening!"

"The jezailchies'll stand though," a minute the pass was silent as death again, and though Atheistan listened with trained ears, the only sound he "Stake my life on it!" said his could detect was of a jackal cracking

CHAPTER IX.

to a market of them in the same forts held strongly in the Khyber is a few stones for Ismail's benefit. Then A Weird wall answered the chal-lenge, and there began a tossing to and smann among 'am' time I sow other seeds the mist. When there was no more doubt that his own men, at all events. His brother nodded. Sowing seeds had failed to detect the lieutenant, he

"Hang on to Ali Masjid like a leech.
old man! The day one raiding lashcome pattering from both directions. kar gets command of the Khyber's As they emerged out of the mist be throat, the others'll all believe they've sat silent and still. It was Darya Khan who came first and stood gaping at Look out for traps. Smash em on him but Ismail was a very close sec-sight. But don't follow up too far!" end, and the other three were only a ond, and the other three were only a little behind. For full two minutes after the man with the sore stomach had come they all stood holding one another's arms, astonished. Then-"Our sahib-King sahib-where is > Even King's voice was so completely hanged that men who had been reared amid mutual suspicion could not recognize It.

"But there are his loads! There is his mule!"

"Here is his bag!" said Ismail. pouncing on it, picking it up and shak-"It rattles not as formerly! There is more in it than there was!" "His two horses and the mule are here," said Darya Khan. "Did I say he took them with him?" asked the hakim, who sat still with his almost under their eyes. back to a rock. "He went because I Should be not leave the wherewithal to make one comfortable, since I must do his work? Hah! What do I see? A man bent nearly double? That means a bellyache! Who should have a belly- tar-a hakim, who had not two assista helyache. I have potions, lotions, balms to heal all ills, magic charms | ants at the least? Have ye never seen, ye blinder-than-bats—how one man at such a little price! So small a price! Show me the belly and pay iron ready?" your money! Forget not the money. for nothing is free except air, water and the Word of God! I have paid money for water before now, and where is the muliah who will not take a fee? Nay, only air costs nothing ! For a rupee, then-for one rupee I will heal the sore belly and forget to be ashamed for taking such a little

"Whither went the sahib? Nay-Darkened to One Hue, and Charles show us proof!" objected Darya Khan; and Ismail stood back a pace to scratch his flowing beard and think.

"The sahib left this with me!" said In a few minutes his whole face was King, and held up his wrist. The gold darkened to one hue, and Charles bracelet Rewa Gunga had given him gleamed in the pale moonlight.

"May God be with thee!" boomed all five men together.

King jumped to his feet so suddenly that all five gave way in front of him, and Darya Khan brought his rifle

"Hast thou never seen me before?" be demanded, seizing Ismail by the shoulders and staring straight into his

"Nay, I never saw thee!" "Look again!"

He turned his head, to the "" "Nay, I never saw thee!"

"Thou, then! Thou with the belly! They all denied ever having seen

"Now look !!

us')'

"Now ye know me?"

veloped into a native hakim-by creed ning to dance from side to side. "Heea converted Hindu, like Rewa Gunga | co-yee | What said I? Said I not so? one of the men who practice yunani. Said I not this is a different man? er modern medicine, without a Beense | Said I not this is a good one-a man and with a very great dear of added of unexpected things? Said I not there superstition, trickery and guesswork. | was magic in the leather bag? I "I wouldn't trust you with a na pen- shook it often and the magic grew when I'm nearer Khinjan. You can ny!" announced his brother when he Hee-yee-yee! Look at him! See such cumning! Feel him! Smell of him!

but the stain on as well as you. But bundle of discarded European clothes grinned, now that their first shock of and these others shall be tention; and these others shall be tention; and for answer King gave him a follower with the tasters!

Any news and these others shall be tention; and for answer King gave him a glimpse of the gold bracelet. His brother needed. "Pleaty of the Khyber, and we can't do it by rid was little to see except glemming. We will not drink the medicines?"

eeth and the white of eyes, set in hairy faces in the mist. But Ismail danced all by himself among the stones of Khyber road and he looked like a bearded ghoul out for an airing.

"Hee-yee-yee! She smelt out a good one! Hee-yee-yee! This is a man after my heart! Hee-yee-yee! God preserve me to see the end of this! This one will show sport! Oh-yee-yee-

King watched the faces of the other four men. He saw them slowly waken to understanding of what Ismail meant by "worker of spells" and "magic in the bag" and knew that he had even greater hold on them now than Yasmini's bracelet gave him.

"Ma'uzbillah!" they murmured as Ismail's meaning dawned and they recognized a magician in their midst. "May God protect us!"

"May God protect me! I have need of it!" said King. "What shall my new name be? Give ye me a name! Khan is a title of respect. Since I wish for respect, I will call myself Khan. Name me a village the first name you can think of-quick!"

"Kurram," said Ismail, at a hazard. "Kurram is good. Kurram I am! Kurram Khan is my name henceforward! Kurram Khan the dakitar!" "But where is the sahib who came from the fort to talk?" asked the man men without eyes. whose stomach ached yet from Isman and Darya Khan's attentions to it.

with the other one!" "Went whither? Did any see him

"Is that thy affair?" asked King, and the man collapsed. It is not considered wise to the north of Jamrud to argue with a wizard, or even with a man who only claims to be one. This was a man who had changed his very nature

"Even his other clothes nave gone!" came! He left me here in charge! murmured one man, he who had poked about among the packs. "And now, Ismail, Darya Khan, ve two dunderheads!—ye bellies without brains!-when was there ever a dakiholds a patient while his boils are lanced, and yet another makes the hot march!

"Aye! Aye!"

They had both seen that often.

"Then, what are ye?" They gaped at him. Were they to work wonders too? Were they to be part and parcel of the miracle? Watching them, King saw understanding dawn behind Ismail's eyes and knew ie was winning more than a mere admirer. He knew it might be days yet. might be weeks before the truth was out, but it seemed to him that Ismail was at heart his friend. And there are no friendships stronger than those formed in the Khyber and beyond-no more loyal partnerships. The 'Hills' are the home of contrasts, of bloodfeuds that last until the last-but-one man dies, and of friendships that no For hours after that he climbed ahead crime or need or slander can efface. If in silence. the feuds are to be avoided like the devil, the friendships are worth hav-

"There is another thing ye might eagerly, in proof that no harm results. day and a night and a part of another Be ye two they!"

Ismall spat savagely. Small spat savegery.

"Nay! Bismillah! Nay, nay! I fully at the chance-met shrine of some irons;" said Darya Khan, with grim self. Men who would almost rather conviction. "It is likely that, having cut throats than gamble regard them worked for a blacksmith once, I may as sauctaaries. So a man may rest sants (Epsom salts)." He spat, too, in a very fury of reminiscence.

"Good!" said King, "Henceforward, by tattered rags Med to sticks, that then I am Kurram Khan, the dakitar, fluttered in the wind three or four and ye two are my assistants, Isman to shousand feet above Khyber level, that hold the men with boils, and Darya King drew Ismail into conversation. Khan to heat the irons-both of ye to and deftly forced on him the role of be my men and support me with questioner.

announced the man who had E o ach ache. "Nay, nay!"

But Ismail hit him with the back of his hand in the stomach again and danced away, hugging bimself and shouting "Hee-yee-yee!" until the jackals joined him in discontented chorus and the Khyber pass became full of weird howling. Then suddenly the old Afridi thought, of something else and came back to thrust his face close to King's. "Why be a Rangar? Why be a Rajput, sahib? She loves us hillmen bet-

'Do I look like a hillman of the 'Hills'?" asked King.

"Nay, not now. But he who can work one miracle can work another. Change thy skin once more and be a true

Hillman! "Aye!" King laughed. "And fall heir to a blood-feud with every second man I chance upon! Better be a converted Hindu and be despised by some than have cousins in the 'Hills'! Is that clear, thou ouf?"

"Aye! Thou art more cunning than any man I ever met The great Afridi began to rub the tips of his fingers through his straggly beard in a way that might mean anything, and King seemed to draw considerable satisfaction from it, as if it were a sign language that just then he needed a friend, and he certainly did not propose to refuse such a useful

"And," he added, as if it were an afterthought instead of his chief reason, "if her special man Rewa Gunga is a Rangar, and is known as a Rangar throughout the 'Hills,' shall I not he more likely win favor by being a Rangar too? If I wear her bracelet and at the same time am a Rangar, who will not trust me?"

"True!" agreed Ismail. "True! Thou art a magician!" But the moon was getting low and Khyber would be dark again in half an hour, for the great crags in the disince to either hand shut off more ight than do the Khyber walls. The nist, too, was growing thicker. It was line to make a move.

King rose, "Pack the mule and bring ly horse!" he ordered and they hurried to obey with abscrity born of new respect, Darya Khan attending to the niming of the mule's load in person nstead of sherling at another man. It was a very different little escort from the one that had come thus far. Like King himself, it had changed its very nature in fifteen minutes! They brought the horse and King laughed at them, calling them idiots-

"I am Kurram Khan, the dakitar, but who in the 'Hills' would believe it? "Gone!" announced King. "He went Look now-look ye and tell me what is wrong?"

He pointed to the horse, and they stood in a row and stared. "The saddle?" Ismail suggested. "It is a government anricer's saddle." "Stolen!" said King, and they nodded. "Stolen along with the horse!" "Aye!" "Shorten those stirrups, then, six holes at the least! Men will laugh at me if I ride ake a British arrficer!"

"Aye!" said Ismail, hurrying to obey. "Now," he said, gathering the reins nd swinging into the saddle, "who knows the way to Khinian?"

"Which of us does not?" "Ye all know it? Then ye all are order thieves and worse! No homest man knows that road! Lend on, Darya ann, thou Lord of Rivers! Forward

So Darya Khan led the way with his rifle, and King's face glowed in cigarette light not very far behind him as he legged his horse up the marrow rack that led northward out of the before he would dare smoke a cigar again, and his supply of cigarettes was destined to dwindle down to nothing before that day. But he did not seem

"Chelch!" he called. "Forward, men of the mountains! Kuch dar mabin

"Thy mother and the spirit of a sight ere one!" swore Ismail just in front of him, stepping out like a boy going to a picule, "She will love thee! Allah! She will love mee! Allah! Allah!" The thought seemed to appal him.

CHAPTER X.

Even with the man with the stomdo," he suggested, "if ye two grown ach ache mounted on the spare horse men are afraid to see a boil sit open. for the sake of extra speed (and he Always there are timid patients who was not suffering one-fifth so much as Always there are timid patients who hang back and refuse to drink the medicines. There should be one or among the crowd who will come drawths. When the pretended); with Ismail to urge, and King to coax, and the fear of mountain death on every side of them. forward and swallow the draughts they were the part of a night and a will hold them who have bolls, sitting holy man. The "Hills" are full of firmly on their bellies-so-or between them, marked by fluttering rags that draughts! I am a man, not a cess-streethed to find excuse, and hilling a pool!" "And I will study how to heat hot these shrines as sacred as the book ittasted medaceen! I have drunk Apsin to Khinjan, although Khinjan and peace have nothing whatever in com-It was at such a shrine, surrounded

"Aye!" said Ismail, quick to think asked, for King had hinted at his in-"How can'st thou see the caves!" be

"Aye! Well and good! But even she dure not disobey the rule. Khinjan was there before she came, and the rule was there from the beginning. when the first men found the caves Some—hundreds—have gained admission, lacking the right. But who ever saw them again? Allah! I, for one, would not chance it!"

"Thou and I are two men!" answered King. "I shall see the caves." "Aye! But listen! How many indian servants of the British Raj have set out to see the caves? Many, many aye, very many! Some, having got Khinjan, entered the caves. None ever came out again!"

"Then, what is my case to thee?" King asked him. "If I cannot come out again and there is a secret, then the secret will be kept, and what is the trouble?"

"I love thee," the Afridi answered simply. "Thou art a man after mine own heart. Turn! Go back before it is too late!"

King shook his head.

"I was in Khinjan once before my friend! I know the rule! I failed to reach the caves that other time because I had no witnesses to swear they had seen me slay a man in the teeth of written law. I know!

"Who saw thee this time?" Ismail asked, and began to cackle with the cruel humor of the "Hills." that sees amusement in a man's undoing, or in the destruction of Ms plans. "Be warned and go back !"

"Come with me, then." "Nay, I am her man. She waits for

"I imagine she waits for me!" laughed King. "Forward! We have rested in this place long enough!"

It was ten of a blazing forenoon, and the sun had heated up the rocks until it was pain to walk on them and agony to st, when they topped the last es carpment and came in sight of Khinjan's walls, across a mile-wide rock ravine-Khinjan the unregenerate. that has no other human habitation within a march because none dare build.

It was midday when at last they stood on bottom and swayed like men in a dream fingering their bruises and senreely able for the heat haze to see the tangled mass of stone towers and mud-end-stone walls that faced them, a mile away. They were nearly across the valley, bunting for shadow where corner of the courtyard came a onenone was to be found, when a shotted salute brought them up all-standing in a cluster. Six or eight nickel-coated bullets spattered on the rocks close by, and one so narrowly missed King that he could feel its wind.

Up went all their hands together, and they held them so until they ached. Nothing whatever happened. Their lid not say one word. arms ceased aching and grew numb.

the rocks on either hand, frightening When that was done, and the mule stood trembling, they all faced the the men was half delitious.

ing, whose voice was so like a wolf's the place could have contained a civil

3 6. 1

"Who Are You?" Howled a Human Being, Whose Voice Was So Like a Wolf's That the Words at First Had No Meaning.

He peered over the parapet, a hundred feet above, with his head so swathed in dirty linen that he looked like a bandaged corpse.

"What will ye? Who comes uninvited into Khinjan?"

King bethought him of Yasimini's tallsman. He held it up, and the gold hand glinted in the sun. Yet, although a Hillman's eyes are keener than an eagle's, he did not believe the thing could be recognized at that angle, and from that distance. Another thought suggested itself to him. He turned his head and caught Ismail in the act of signaling with both hands.

"Ye may come!" howled the watchman on the parapet, disappearing in-

King trembled-perhaps as a racehorse trembles at the starting gate, though he was weary enough to tremble from fatigue. But that passed. He was all in hand when he led his men up over a rough stone causeway to a door in the bottom of a high battlemented wall and waited for somebody

The great teak door looked as if it had been stolen from some Hindu temple, and he wondered how and when they could have brought it there across those awage intervening miles. High

wall, with a para

upon it, plerced for rife

As they approached a Reagar ban, not unlike King's own appear above the parapet on the ledge and voice he recognized halled him good bumoredly.

"Salaam aleikoum!" "And upon thee be peace!" King answered in the Pashtu tongue, for the 'Hills" are polite, whatever the other

Rewa Gunga's face beamed down on m, wreathed in smiles that seemed to include mockery as well as triumph. Looking up at him at an angle that made his neck ache and dazzled his eyes, King could not be sure, but it seemed to him that the smile said. "Here you are, my man, and aren't you in for it?" He more than half sus pected he was intended to understand that. But the Rangar's conversation took another line.

"By jove!" he chuckled. "She expected you. She guessed you are a hound who can hunt well on a dry scent, and she dared bet you will come n spite of all odds! But she didn't expect you in Rangar dress! No. by jove! You jolly well will take the wind out of her sails!"

King made no answer. For one thing, the word "hound," even in English, is not essentially a compliment. But be had a better reason than that.

"Did you find the way easily?" the Rangar asked; but King kept silence. "Is he parched? Have they cut his ongue out on the road?"

That question was in Pashtu, directd at Ismeil and the others, but King answered it. "Oh, as for that," he said salaaming igain in the fastidious manner of a naive gentleman, "I know no other ongue than Pashtu and my own Rajasthani. My name is Kurram Khan, I isk admittance." He held up his wrist to show the old bracelet, and high over his head he Rangar laughed like a bell. "Shabash!" he laughed. "Well done!

Enter, Kurram Chan, and be welcome, hou and thy men. Be welcome in her name!" Somebody pulled a rope and the loor yawned wide, giving on a kind of ourtyard whose high walls allowed no dew of anything but not blue sky. Through a gap under an arch in a far eyed, lean-looking villain in Afridi fress who leaned on a long gun and stared at them under his hand. After t leisurely consideration of them he ubbed his nose slowly with one finger, pat contemptuously, and then used he finger to beckon them, crooking it queerly and turning on his heel. He

King led the way after him on foot. They advanced another two hundred for even in the "Hills" where cruelty yards and another volley rattled among s a virtue, a man may be excused, on conomic grounds, for showing mercy one of the mules so that it stumbled to his beast. His men tugged the and fell and had to be helped up again. weary animals along behind him, brough the gap under the arch and dong an almost interminable, smelly wall. But they were too weary to hold maze of alleys whose sides were the their hands up any more. Thirst had walls of square stone towers, or somebegun to exercise its sway. One of imes of mad-and-stone-walled combounds, and here and there of sheer. Who are ye?" howled a human be- slab-sided cliff. Like Old Jerusalem. that the words at first had no meaning, war of a hundred factions, and still have opposed stout resistance to an outside army.

Alley gave on to courtyard, and filthy square to alley, until unexpectedly at ast a seemingly blind passage turned sharply and opened on a straight street, of fair width, and more than alf a mile long. It is marked "Street if the Dwellings" on the secret army naps, and it has been burned so often by Khinjan rioters, as well as by expefittions out of India, that a man who coes on a long journey never expects o find it the same on his return.

It was lined on either hand with motley dwellings, out of which a mot-Her crowd of people swarmed to stare it King and his men. There were Hintus-sycophants, keepers of accounts and writers to the chiefs (since litracy is at a premium in these parts). in proof of Khinjan's catholic and judiscriminate villainy, there were women of nearly every Indian breed and caste, many of them stolen into shameful slavery, but some of them there from choice. And there were little children-little naked brats with round drum tuminies, who squealed ind shrilled and stared with bold eyes,

Perhaps a thousand souls came out watch, all told. Not an eye of them all missed the government marks on King's trappings, or the government brand on the mules, and after a minute or two, when the procession was half-way down the s reproved a child who had thrown a stone, and he was backed up by the others. They classified King correcty, exactly as he meant they should. As hakim-a man of medicine-he could fill a long-felt want; but by the brand on his accontrements he wasked an openly avowed robber, and that made him a brother in crime. Someoody cuffed the next child who picked up a stone.

He knew the street of old, although It had changed perhaps a dozen times since he had seen it. It was a cul-! sac, and at the end of it. Just as on his previous visit, there stood a store mosque whose roof leaned back as a steep angle against the mountainside. It was a famous mosque in its way, for the bed sheet of the Prophet Is known to hang in it, preserved against the ravages of time and the touch of infidels by priceless Afghan raigs is fore and behind, so that it hangs like a great thin sandwich before the rear stone wall. King had seen it.

yard the alongue the one-eyed ruffian led the way, with the long, telsurely-seeming gait of a mountaineer. At the door, in the middle of the end of the street, he paused and struck on the three times with his gun butt.

nat was a strange proceeding, to is the least, in a land where the maque is public resting place for omeless ones, and all the "faithful" ave a'right to enter.

A mullah, shaven like a mummy for ome unaccountable reason—even his eyebrows and eyelashes had been removed—pushed his bare head through the door and blinked at them. There was some whispering and more staring, and at last the mullab turned his

The door slammed. The one-eyed guide grounded, his gun-butt on the stone, and the procession waited, watched by the crowd that had lost its interest sufficiently to talk and joke.

In two minutes the mullah returned and threw a mat over the threshold. It turned out to be the end of a long narrow strip that he kicked and unrolled in front of him all across the door of the mosque. After that it was not so astonishing that the horses and mules were allowed to enter.

"Which proves I was right after all!" murmured King to himself

In a steel box at Simia is a mem orandum, made after his former visit to the place, to the effect that the entrance into Khinjan caves might possibly be inside the mosque. Nobody had believed it likely, and he had not more than half favored ft bimself; but it is good, even when the next step may lead into a death-trap, to see one's first opinions confirmed.

He nodded to himself as the outer door slammed shut behind them, for that was another most unusual circum-

A faint light shone through slitlike windows, changing darkness into gloom, and little more than vaguely hinting at the Prophet's bed sheet. But for a section of white wall to either side of it, the relic might have seemed part of the shadows. The mullah stood with his back to it and beckoned King nearer. He approached until he could see the pattern on the covering rugs, and the pink rims round the mullah's lashless eyes.

"What is thy desire?" the mullah asked-as a wolf might ask what a lamb wants.

"Audience with her!" King answered, and showed the gold bracelet on his wrist.

The red eye-rims of the mullah blinked a time or two, and though he did not salute the bracelet, as others had invariably done, his manner underwent a perceptible change.

"That is proof that she knows thee What is thy name?"

"Kurram Khan, hakim." "We need thee in Khinjan caves But none enter who have not earned right'to enter! There is but one key Name It!"

King drew in his breath. He had this road!" hoped Yasmini's talisman would prove to be key enough. The nails of his left hand nearly pierced the palm, but he smiled pleasantly.

"I Slew an Englishman!"

"He who would enter must slay a man before witnesses in the teeth of written law!" he said. "And thou?"

"I slew an Englishman!" The boast made his blood run cold, but his expression was one of sinful pride. "Whom? When? Where?"

"Athelsian King-a British arriber bent on his way to these 'Hills' to spy !"

It was like having spells cast on himself to order!

"Where is his body?" "Ask the vultures! Ask the kites!"

"And thy witnesses?" Hoping against hope, King turned and waved his hand. As he did so, being quick-eyed he saw Ismall drive an elbow home into Darya Khan's ribs, and enught a quick interchange of whispers. "These men are all known to me," said the mulich. 'They have right to enter here. They have right to testify. Did ye see him slay his man?" "Aye!" hed Ismail, prompt as nd can be. "Aye! Hed Darya Khan, fearful of Ismall's elbow. "Then enter!" said the priest resignedly, as one who admits a communicant against his better judgment. He turned his back on them so as to face the Prophet's bed sheet and the rear wall, and in that mis hairy hand gripped King's arm from behind, and Ismall's voice hissed hotcreathed in his car. "Ready of tongue! Ready of wit! Who told thee I would lie to save thy skin? Be thy kismet as thy courage, then-but I am hers, not thy man! Hers, thou light of life-though God knows I love thee!

The mullah seized the Prophet's bed sheet and its covering rugs in both hands, with about as much reverence as salesmen show for what they keep in stock. The whole lot slid to one side by means of noisy rings on a rod, and a wall lay bare, built of crudely cut but well laid blocks. It appeared to reach unbroken across the whole width of the mosque's interior.

On the floor lay a mallet, a peculiar thing of bronze, cast in one piece, handle and all. The mullah took it in his hand and struck the stone floor sharply once—then twice again—then three times—then a dozen times in quick succession. The floor rang hollow at that spot.

After about a minute there came one answering hammer streke from beyond the wall. Then the mullah laid the mallet down and though King ached to pick it up and examine it he did not dare. His business was to attract as little attention to himself as possible; and to that end he folded his hands and looked reverent, as if entering some Mecca of his dreams. Through his horn-rimmed spectacles his eyes looked far away and dreamy. But it would have been a mistake to suppose that a detail was escaping him The irregular lines in the mesons began to be more pronounced. All at once the wall shook and they gaped by an inch or two, as happens when an earthquake has shaken buildings without bringing anything down. Then an irregular section of wall began to move quite smoothly away from in front of him, leaving a gap through which eight men abreast could have marched-a tunnel, split in two to right and left. Judging by the angle of the two divisions they became one again before going very far.

The mullah stood aside and mo tioned King to enter. But the oneeyed thrust himself between Darya Khan and Ismail, pushed King aside and took the lead.

"Nay!" he said, "I am responsible te her."

It was the first time he had spoker and he appeared to resent the waste of words.

The tunnel was pierced in twenty places in the roof for rifle fire; a score of men with enough ammunition could have held it forever against an army. The guide led, and King followed him, filled with curtosity.

"Many have entered!" sang the lashless mullah in a sing-song chant. "More have sought to enter! Some who remained without were wisest! count them! I keep count! Many went in! Not all came out again by

"Lead along, Charon!" King grinned He needed some sort of pleasantry to steady his nerves. But, even so, he wondered what the nerves of India would be like if her millions knew of this place.

CHAPTER XI.

The gap closed up behind them and the tunnel began to eche weirdly. Over their heads, at irregular intervals, there were holes that if they led as g presumed into caves above, left not an inch of all the long passage that could not have been swept by rifle fire. It was impregnable; for no artillery heavy enough to pound the mountain into pieces could ever be dragged within range. Whatever hiding place this entrance guarded could be held forever, given food and cartridges!

The tunnel wound to right and left like a snake, growing lighter and lighter after each bend; and soon their own din began to be swallowed in a greater one that entered from the farther end. After two sharp turns they came out unexpectedly into the glaze of blue day. nearly stunned by light and sound. A roar came up from below like that of an ocean in the grip of a typhoon.

When his wits recovered from the shock, King struggled with a wild desire to yell, for before him was what no servant of British India had ever seen and lived to tell about, and that is an experience more potent than unbroken rum.

They had emerged from a roundmouthed tunnel-it looked alread, dke rabbit-hole, so huge was the cliff behind-on to a ledge of rock that formed a sort of road along one side of a mile-wide chasm. Above him, it seemed a mile up, was blue sky, to which limestone walls ran sheer, with scarcely a foothold that could be seen. Kurram Khan the hakim. Beneath, so deep that eyes could not guess how deep, yawned the stained gorge of the underworld, many-colored. smooth and wet.

And out of a great, jagged slit in the side of the cliff, perhaps a thousand feet below them, there poured down into thunderous dimness a waterfall whose breadth seemed not less than half a mile. It spouted seventy or eighty yards before it began to curve, and its din was like the voice of all creatton.

Ismail came and stood by King in slience, taking his hand, as a little child Presently he stooped and pic ed no stone and tossed it over. "lone " he said simply. "That down there is Forth's Drink!"

"And this is the 'Heart of the Hills' men boast about?" "Nay! It is not!" snapped Ismail.

"Then, where-But the one-eyed guide beckoned impatiently, and King led the way after him, staring as hakim or prisoner or any man had right to do on first admission to such wonders. Not to have stared would have been to proclaim himself an idiot. They soon began to pass the mouths of caves. Some were above the road, it, re of by artificial stops ! wa out reached from the road by means of lad- a wolf freed from a trap. ders, that trembled and swayed over the dizzying waterfall. Most of the caves were inhabited, for armed men trances to stare.

Ears grow accustomed to the sound of water sooner than to almost anything. It was not long before King's ears could catch the patter of his men's a fight to be first! Make ready, hakim! feet following, and the shod clink of the mule. He could hear when Ismail whispered:

"Be brave, little hakim! She loves fearless men!"

At last the guide halted, in the middle of a short steep slope where the path was less than six feet wide and a narrow cave mouth gave directly onto

"Be content to rest here!" he said, pointing. "Thy cave?" asked King.

"Nay. God's! I am the caretaker!" The "Hills" are very plous and polite, between the acts of robbing and shedding blood.

"Allah, then, reward thee, brother!" answered King. "Aliah give sight to wound. King rolled up his sleeves and thy shlind eye! Aliah give thee children! Allah give thee peace, and to all thy house!"

The guide salaamed, half-mockingly, half-wondering at such eloquence. paused in the passage to point into the side caves that debouched to either hand, turned on his heel and stalked out of the cavern. It was the last King ever saw of him.

King turned back and looked into the other caves—saw the weary horse and mule fed, watered and hedded down-took note of the running water that rushed out of a rock fissure and gurgled out of sight down another one examined the servants' cave and saw that they had been amply provided with blankets. There was nothing lacking that the most exacting traveler could have demanded at such a distance from civilization. There was more than the most exacting would have dared expect. "Ismail!" he shouted, and jumped a the revolver-cracklike echo of his voice

Ismail came running. "Make the men carry the mule's packs into this cave. You and Darya Khan stay here and help me open them. Remember, ye are both assistants of Kurram Khan, the hakim!" "They will laugh at us! They will laugh at us!" clucked Ismail, but he hurried to obey, while King wondered who would laugh. Within an hour a delegation camfrom, no less a person than Yasmini herself, bearing her compliments, and l hot food savory enough to make a ber," somebody informed him, and he brass idol's mouth water. By this time King had his sets of surgical instruments and drugs and bandages all laid out on one of the beds and covered from view by a blanket.

It was only one more proof of the British army's everlasting luck that one of the men, who set the great brass dish of food on the floor near King. had a swollen cheek, and that he should touch the swelling clumsily as he lifted his hand to shake back a lock of greasy hair. There followed an oath like flint struck on steel ten times in rapid succession.

"Does It Pain Thee, Brother?" Asked Kurram Khan, the Hakim.

"Does it pain thee, brother?" asked "Are there devils in Tophet? Fire and my veins are one!" The man did not notice the eager ness beaming out of King's horn rimmed spectacles, but Ismail did; it seemed to him time to prove his vir tues as assistant.

"This is the famous hakim Kurram Khan," he boasted. "He can cure any thing, and for a very little fee!" The man looked incredulous, but ling drew the covering from his row of instruments and bottles. "Take a chance!" he advised.

but the brave wins anything;" Ismail and Darva Khan were new to the business and enthusiastic. They jan." had the man down, held tight on the floor to the huge amusement of the rest, before he could even protest; and his howls of rage did him no good, for Ismail drove the hilt of a knife between his open jaws to keep them open. A very large proportion of King's stores consisted of morphia and cocaine. He injected enough cocaine to deaden the man's nerves, and allowed time to work. Then he drew out three back teeth in quick successi to make sure he had the right one.

Ismail let the victim up, and Darya

now and then at crasy heights above Knap gave him water in a brass cup. Utterly without paln for the first time stone. Others were below, for days, the man was as grateful as-"Are there any others in pate to Khinjan?' King asked him. "Listen to him! What is Khinian? and sullen women came to their en- is there one man without a wound or a sore or a scar or a sickness?" Then, tell them," said King.

The man laughed. "When I show my jaw, there will be go ! King sat down to eat, but he had not finished his meal-he had made the last little heap of rice into a ball with his fingers, native style, and was mepping up the last of the curried gravy with it-when the advance guard of the lame and the halt and the sick made its appearance. The cave's entrance became jammed with them, and no riot ever made more noise. "Hakim! Ho, hakim! Where is the hakim who draws teeth? Where is the man who knows yunani?" Ten men burst down the passage all together, all clamoring, and one man wasted no time at all but began to tear away bloody bandages to show his wender. The desperate need of winning his first trick, made him horror-proof; and nobody waiting for the next turn was troubled because the man under the knife screamed a little or bled more than usual. When they died-and more than eas did die-men earried them out and flung them over the precipice into the waterfall below. Ismail and Darya Khan became choosers of the victims. They seized a man, laid him on the bed, tore off his disgusting bandages and held their breath until the awful resulting stench had more or less dispersed. Then King would probe or lance or bandage as he saw fit, using anesthetics when he must, but managing mostly without them. They almost flung money at him. He tossed money and clothes and every other thing they gave him into a corner at the back of the cave, and nobody tried to steal them back, although -a man suspected of honesty in that company would have been tortured to death as an heretic and would have had no sympathy. For hour after gruesome hour he tolled over wounds and sores such as only battles and evil living can produce, until men began to come at with fresh wounds, all caused by bullets, wrapped in bandages on which the blood had caked but had not grown foul. "There has been fighting in the Khystopped with lancet in midair to listen. scanning a hundred faces swiftly in the smoky lamplight. There were ten men who held lamps for him, one of them a newcomer, and it was he who spoke. "Fighting in the Khyber! Ave! We were a little lashkar, but we drove them back into their fort! Aye! we slew many !" "Not a fihad yet?" Kink asked, as if the world might be coming to an end. The words were startled out of him. Under other circumstances he would never have asked that question so directly; but he had lost reckoning of everything but these poor devils' dre ful need of doctoring, and he was like a man toused out of a dream. If a holy war had been proclaimed already. then he was engaged on a forlorn hope.

But the man laughed at him. Bull-with-a-beard "Nay, not yet. holds back yet. This was a little fight. The fillad shall come later !"

"And who is 'Bull-with-a-beard'?" King wondered; but he did not ask that question because his wits were awake again. It pays not to be in too much of a hurry to know things in the "Hills."

As it happened, he asked no more questions, for there came a shout at the cave entrance whose purport be did not catch, and within five minutes after that, without a word of explanation, the cave was left empty of all except his own five men. They carried away the men too sick to walk and vanished, snatching the last man away almost before King's fingers had finished tying the bandage on his wound.

"Why is that?" he asked Ismail. Why did they go? Who shouted?" "It is night," Ismail answered. "It was time."

King stared about him. He had not realized until then that without aid of the lamps he could not see his own hand held out in front of him; his eyes had grown used to the gloom, like those of the surgeons in the sick-bays below the waterline in Nelson's fleet.

"But who shouted?" "Who knows? There is only one here who gives orders. We be mans who obey," said Ismail. \ "Whose men were the last ones?" King asked him, trying a new line.

"Rull-with-a-beard's." "And whose man art thou, Ismail?" The Afridi hesitated, and when he spoke at last there was not quite the same assurance in his voice as once there had been. "I am hers! Be thou hers, too! But it is night. Sleep against the tell tomorrow. There be many sick in Khin-

King made a little effort to clean the cave, but the task was hopeless. For one thing he was so weary that his very bones were water. He appointed two-hour watches, to relieve one another until dawn, and flung himself on a clean bed. He was asleep before his head had met the pillow; and for all he knew to the contrary he dreamed of Yasmini all night long.

It seemed to him that she came into the cave-she, the woman of the faded photograph the general had given him in Peshawur-and that the cave be-

SUBSCRIPTION RATES 41.5 per vear cash in advance.

Advertising Rates.

50c per inch S. C. Foreign Advertising 25 per inch S. C. Home Advertising Repeated ads one-half rate. Metal bases for Plates and Electros

Locals or Readers Sets per line in this size type.

10cts per line in this size type

15cts. a line this size type. Obituaries 5e per line Cards of Thanks 5c per line Resolutions of respect 5c sline | Copy came filled with the strange intoxicatsenses in her reception room in Delhi. name. First, "King sahib!" Then "Kurram Khan!" And her voice was surprisingly familiar. But dreams are strange things." "He sleeps!" said the same voice presently. "It is good that he sleeps!" And in his steep he thought that a shadowy Ismail grunted an answer. When he awoke at last it was after dawn, and light shone down the passage into the cave. 'Ismail!" he shouted, for he was thirsty. But there was no answer. "Darya Khan!"

Again there was no answer. He called each of the other men by name with the same result. He decided to go to the cave mouth, summon his men. who were no doubt sleeping. But there was no Ismail near the entrance-no Darya Khan-nor any of the other men. The horse was gone. So was the mule. So was the harness, and every- Springs last Sunday. thing he had, except the drugs and instruments and the presents the sick

A Man Whom He Had Never Seen Be fore Leaned on a Magazine Rifle and Eyed Him as a Tiger Eyes Its had given him; he had noticed all those lying about in confusion when be -

"Ismail!" he shouted at the top of his lungs, thinking they might all be outside.

He heard a man hawk and spit, close to the entrance, and went out to see. A man whom he had never seen before leaned on a magazine rifle and eyed him as a tiger eyes his prey. "No farther!" he growled, bringing his rifle to the port. "Why not?" King asked him.

"Allah! When a camel dies in the Khyber do the kites ask why? Go in!" He thought then of Yasmini's brace- ty court day.) let, that had always gained him at least civility from every man who saw it. He held up his left wrist and knew that instant why it felt uncomfortable,

The bracelet had disappeared! He turned back into the cave to hunt fer it, and the strange scent greeted him again. In spite of the surrounding stench of drugs and fithy wounds. there was no mistaking it. If it had been her special scent in Delhi, as Saunders swore it was, and her special scent on the note Darya Khan had carried down the Khyber, then it was hers new, and she had been in the cave. He hunted high and low and found no bracelet. His pistol was gone, too, and his cartridges, but not the dagger, wrapped in a handkerchief, under his shirt. The money, that his patients had brought him, lay on the floor untouched. It was an unusual robber who had robbed him. "Who's 'Bull-with-a-beard'?" he wondered. "Nobody interfered with me until I doctored his men. He's in opposition. That's a fair guess. Now, who in thunder-by the fat lord Harrycan 'Bull-with-a-beard' be? And why fighting in the Khyber so early as all this? And why does 'Bull-with-a-beard,' whoever he is, hong back?"

Officers Named To Hold The November Election.

Precincts Judge R. Marion, No. 1, F. L. Butler R. B. Gregory J. E. Perry Silas Guess W. A. Woodall Milton Yandell Franc s J. M. Duvall Dycusburg L. H. Franklin Union O. E. LaRue Sheridan T. lu Lafe Highfield 10. J. A. Daughtery Fords Ferry 11, Joe M. Davis Be is Mines 12. Geo. P. Cook Rosebuu 13, Piney 14, J. G. Brantley Will Edwards Shady Gr'vel5,

Judge D. J. F. Dorroh J. G. Gilbert Luther Miller Geo. H. Nunn W. B. Binkley Robt, Gibbs Owen Boaz Geo. Barnes C. E. Stallion Kit Shepherd W. B. Wilborn F. L. Black Tom Walker Jno. Stembridge W. E. Todd

Sheriff. L. E. Yates H. D. Vaughn T. A. Enoch J. T. Hicklin J. N. Boone Jno M. Rogers T. J. McKinney H. B. Watson G. W. Corn Sam Lucas W. C. Truitt R. L. Gahagen J. W. Duvall W. D. Drennan W. H. Towery

Clerk. F. G. Cox H. Koltinsky W. U. Howerton R. E. Wilborn T. A. Rankin H. T. White Wint Brasher H. T. Harpending G. P. Griffith Jno. M. Guess Wathen Rankin Lacy Truitt Finnie Moore H. N. Lamb Richard McDowell

R. F. HAYNES D. E. GILLILAND. Commissioners.

FOR SALE.

Cash With A small steel range coal ing scent that had first wooed his frames, porch furniture and the side of the world allies and Galician and Italian fronts. The the Isonzo evoked shouts of triumph Postoffice Department announced senses in her reception room in Delhi.

J. D. Threlkeld.

SEVEN SPRINGS

The revival meeting closed at this place Oct. 21st, with seven additions eral millions. to the church. Bro Cunningham, our pastor, preached very earnestly for two weeks to both saint and sinner.

Mrs. Sue Brasher, of Kuttawa, was a pleasant visitor here among her many friends and relatives.

Mrs. Onie Duncan and daughter, c unty last week.

Adgie Stubblefield, of Emmaus, visited nice crop of peas, beans, potatoes, forces under arms. pumpkins, peanuts, appies, and hickogot our soldier boys, and intend to divide with them.

this vicinity Sunday. Miss Ambel Hodge, a handsome young lady of Emmaus vicinity, was public for military reasons. the guest of Miss Reva McKinney he second Sunday. Mrs. Cora McKinney has been very ick the past week, but is better at, this writing. Matthew McClure and wife, of Paducah, are guests of relatives here bis week.

Bro. Cunningham administered the ordinance of baptism to six candidates in Maple Sinks Sunday morning.

J. W. Holoman, wife and daughter, Miss Nellie, left last week for Rosiclare, Itl., to visit their son, Charley Lee Travis was in Paducah last week to be treated again for a cancer. Lots of new molarses in this beat.

Public Land Sale

Mexico. Will be sold at the zones. court-house door in Marlon, Ky .. to the highest and best bidder. at one o'clock Monday afternoon, Nov. 12th, 1917, (it being county went to Marion Wednesday.

T. A. YANDELL, Adm'r.

WESTON

Mrs. Susan Givens and son, of near Dalton, Ky., spent a few days the past week with her sister, Mrs. G. A. Fravis. of this place.

Frank Gahagen, Jr., spent "hursday 100,000 Italian Soldiers, And night with Othe I Sturgeon Miss to nkin is visiting Mrs. Kathe Mesdames Evans nt

What is LAX-FOS

at this wi

LAX-FOS IS AN IMPROVED CASCARA

38,000,000 Men Under Arms In World War Isonzo.

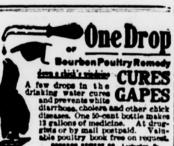

oil stove 3 burners, Davis least 38,000,000 men are bearing time of a synchromous offense sewing machine, picture arms in the war-27,500,000 on of the allies on the French, Amsterdam, Oct. 30 -The battle on enses in her reception room in Delhi.

He dreamed that she called him by same. First, "King sahib!" Then idence any afternoon.

Kurram Khan!" And her voice was a conding to latest ers in the city. The capture of a disputch from Vienna the Fremden-France that under the arrangement compilations Gorizia was one of the most im-

> 000 and Bulgaria's 300,000, are among hills of great defensive The Austro German armies under arrayed the following armed value in which there was heavy the command of Emporer Charles, forces; Russia 9,000,000; France fighting before the Italians reach- who has as his chief assistant the 6,000,000; Great Britain, 5,000, ed the city itself. Gorizia is 22 briliant Field Marshal von Mackensen. In Her Mother's Home, Says This Miss Beulah, visited relatives in Lyon 000; Italy, 3,000,000; Japan, 1, miles northwest of Triest, Aus. are shaking the entire Italian line from 400,000; U. S., more than 1,000, tria's big seaport at the head of the Julius Aips region to the Adriatic Several people from this neighbor- 000; China, 541,000; Roumania, the Adriatic, the capture of several points on Italian soil, the comhod attended services at Caldwell 320,000; Servia, 300,000; Belgi- which is one of the principal bined enemy forces now have pushed um, 300,000; Greece, 300,000; Italian aspirations in the war. forward on the Italian left win and Mrs. Nellie Perkins, Misses Ina and Portugal, 200,000; Montenegro, Rome, Nov. 1.—Units of the captured dividale, lying to the north-M. L and Patton and family last 40,000; Siam, 36,000; Cuba, 11, Italian second army retreated or week.
>
> Out: Addie Stubbleheld, of Emmans, visited 40,000; Siam, 36,000; Cuba, 11, Italian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Austremeter without fighting, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. In addition, the Australian second army retreated or plains beyond. The people here are harvesting a and Panama also have small permitting the Austro-German categor value on the Isonzo r ver has > ryauts. So we think they haven't forthese figures as entirely accurate invade Italy, says today's official munication 100,000 have been made invade Italy, says today's official prices and in excess of 200 guns but believe they represent in resport. The Italians now are have fallen into Austro-German hands, ular until the liver acted well, and Mrs. Zena Sunderland was called to round numbers the comparative retreating in accordance with The second and third Italian armies we would not be without it. Wheatcrott last week on account of strength of the contending ar- the plan prepared. the death of her sister, Mrs. Lark miss as published recently. The The announcement follows this information is not made 1800 RESERT CO., Laday For Sale in Marion Ky. Haynes& Taylor.

American Coast To Re War Zone

to news from Berlin in an un- er in chief that the army to ing upon the question of allied codated dispatch received by the which the honor and safety of operation on the Italian front. admiralty by Wireless Press, the country are confided will The D. P. Campbell farm on Germany is expected shortly to know how to fulfill its duty. the Fredonia and Salem road, declare the coasts of the United London, Oct. 28.-It is estiof 160 acres, one-half mile from Sta'es, Canada and Cuba, war mated in an Exchange Tele-

MT. ZION

Mrs. W. A. Newcom and son, Koy, Will Mayes was in Weston trading

Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Newcom and children were in Marion Thursday. The Mt. Zion meeting will begin the 2nd Saturday 1st November. Rev. Wheeler will hold the meeting.

- Watseka.

700 Cannor Captured.

Berlin, Nov. 1. The capture will and Susan of 100,000 Italians and more than y with their 700 guns is reported in the offi- united attack on the Isonz again cial communication from gene, al brought entire success yester an the sick list headquarters tonight, which & day. The Italian forces, which clares that the Italian second arm | sought to prevent our divisions third armies are in retreat.

Gorizia was captured by the Washington, Oct., 22. - At Italians on Aug 9, 1916, at the PREDICTS SERBIA'S War Department compilations Gorizia was one of the most im- blatt goes so far as to declare that ments with the French postal from published reports in various portant successes of Italy's cam- Italy will do the same way as Rumacountries. These figures do not paign against Austria. It is a nia, Serbia and Rushia, paying "a ter-service is unable to carry in the which would raise the total seviter Isonzo, halfway down the eral millions. present Austro-German front of The Neueswiener Tageblatt talks of Against Germany's 7,000,000. attack between Tolmino and the tie "sudden destruction of the en-Austria's 3,000,000; Turkey 300, sea. It is strongly situated tente's last hope on the European bat-forces to break the Italian left ben retaken from the Italians. Military experts do not regard wing on the Julian front and According to the latest official com-

them to prevent the enemy from Germans entered it.

des'royed.

our brave soldiers during two with capture.

number.

Berlin, Oct 28 -The Austrians if you are not satisfied. and Germans have forced their way through the mountains to the plains of northern Italy, capturing the town Cividale, the been captured. The number of I alian prisoners, according to the report, has been increased to SMALL FARM mor than 80,000.

The announcement follows. Rapid development of the from emerginy from the moun-GORIZIA IS CAPTURED. Name of thrown back by our Amsterdam, Nov. 1. - The oc. bi rusts. In the evening Ger-A Digestive Liquid Laxative, Cathartic cupation of Goriz a this morn no man troops o ced their way

Adriatic sea is wavering. Our troops are pressing forward on the whole line. Gorizia, the much disputed town in the ian divisions. The number of prisoners has been increased to more than to more than 600.

Natisone river along which the convince or money refunded. Austro-German forces that broke the Italian line in the Tolmino region have battered their way. Seven-Pound Packages Cividale is in the foothills of the said to have retired across the Julian Alps, beyond which lie the plains of northern Italy.

FATE WILL BE ITALY'S

are declared to be in retreat. Rome admits the falling back of the The failure to resist on the second army, asserting that cowardice, Wheeler.

Phil Clark and daughter, Miss Ina, of Pinckneyville, were pleasant visitors at the home of L. K. McClure in concerning enemy armies but the second army, which in cowardice of the foe, the Italians surrendering ment of stomach, liver and bowel the second army asserting that cowardice in the face of the foe, the Italians surrendering ment of stomach, liver and bowel the second army asserting that cowardice in the face of the foe, the Italians surrendering ment of stomach, liver and bowel concerning enemy armies, but retired without fighting or sur- or retreating without giving battle, troubles, and the popularity which it rendered to the enemy, allowed permitting the breaking of the left Low enjoys rendered to the enemy, allowed permitting the breaking of the left to spigy the first merit. If your liver is not doing its date, break into our left wing on the ing back, however, the Italians de-Julian front. The valiant efforts stroyed all their depote and stores and of others troops did not enable Cividale was on fire when the Austro-Thedrord's Black-Draught has been

drange chief's richies CURES
A few drops in the GAPES and prevents white diseases. One 50-cant bottle makes 12 gallons of medicine. At druggibts or by mail pottpaid. Valubile poultry book free on request.

Means against a contract the enemy from the sacred soil of who are declared by Rome to be retreating to prepared positions on the plains, will turn about and meet the lines according to the plan prepared. All the stores and depo's they do not, and the enemy is able to in the evacuated places were keep up westward the fast pace that Saewfall Tuesday has been maintained since the commencement of the operation the great-The record of memorable er part of the Italian forces along the battles fought with success by northeastern line will be threatened and one-half years of war is call meeting of the French cabinet has a trace of snow fell during the London, Oct. 24 - According sufficient to assure the command-

Carelessness Results in Failure.

graph dispatch from Rome that rections." DO NOT FEED IT SLOPthe Italians are opposed on the PY, but mix it with ground feed and front of the Austro-German at- moisten with just enough water to tack by forces four time their make a crumbly mass. Then each hog gets a beneficial dose. See full direc- Lack Of Charm tions on package. Your money back Sold by J. H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

Wednesday for Hot Springs, 'Ark- of Harper's Bazar attributes the war office announces. The city ansas, for the benefit of her numerous divorces that have of Gorizia on the Isonzo also has health. - Sturgis News Democrat come in the courts of late years most all to be cultivated in beg for clores. Post and has 1918. small house, baru, charm sh woman nust water in pond, also spring, happy. Be-uty does not matter. some young fruit trees. A bar If a woman has coa moshe can gain if taken at once. Store secure whatever she wantsschool and church 1-2 mile. love, success, or power." and Liver Tonic. Contains Cascara Bark, Blue Plag Root, Rhubarb Root, Rhubarb Root, Rhubarb Root, Senna Leaves and Pepsin. Combines strength with palatable aromatic taste. Does not gripe. 50c from Vic. na. The Line is the

The Italian front as far as the Farmer Near Marion Has Terrible Experience.

"I don't think anybody ever suffered more pain than I have. Twice I was Isonzo battles, was taken early operated for gall stones and a third this morning by Austro-Hungar- operation was advised. A friend in Iowa wrote me how he was cured by takieg Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I took a bottle on his advice with good results and have also taken the full 80,000 and the number of guns course. My pains are all gone and I feel I am permanently cured. It is a Cividale is a town of about five simple harmless preparation that rethousand in Friuli, nine miles moves the catarrhal mucous from the northeast of the important rail intestinal tract, and allays the inflam-mation which causes practically all road center of Udine. It is near stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, the entrance to the valley of the including appendicitis. One dose will

1

Haynes & Taylor, druggists.

Limit For Army Gifts.

Christmas presents and other gifts from home for American soldiers in France must be restricted to parcels of not more than seven pounds each. The

MEDICINE

Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Also in my mother's home, when I When any of us child complained of headache, usually for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these his life purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper regulating the liver to its propose impurities. Try it. Inelat on Thed-tord's the original and genuine. E 72

Earliest Since 1912

Although very light, the snowfall Tuesday Oct., 23 was the the 20th and 21st of October. In 1906, on October 10, there was a slight snowfall, and the following year on October 12 there was a slight trace of snow, but not enough to register any depth. The first snow of last year fell on November 14. - LaRue County Hearld.

Cause Of Divorce

Madame Sarah Berchardt, the great French actress, in a signed Mrs. Alf John of Henshaw left article in the November issue to the lack of charm in the women concerned.

"If I stood at the hr-hold of FOR SALE. "asking of it southing with Nice little farm, 50 acres which to buy happened, I should

> Piles Cure ! our druggist will DINTMENT fails to Blind, Bleeding or Pro-

E. L. Harpending, Notary Public

Lost pair of Glasses double vis- Fox, who is critically ill. ion, on road from Crooked Creek Hughes.

Go to George W. Stone for for Mayfield Ky. your glasses in rims or rimless, hours 8 to 12 and 1 to 5 on Mon-field Hughes on the Piney road. days and Saturdays. Other week days in the afternoon only Office lower floor of Press Bldg.

den had a very s vere attack of W. Young near Mexico. He appendicitis and has been real now has a fine position with a sick since Friday. She was taken big coal company, to Evansville this week for an ep:ration arrived Friday for a fifteen days car. a handsome soldier.

Haynes & Taylor pays (or pay) the cost of a trial by cough or cold you have.

road for the week end.

Miss Mary Elizabeth McAdams left Tuesday for Louisville where she will be operated on and her adnoids removed, after which she will go to Ashland, Ky., to visit her uncle Jack Lawson and Mrs. Lawson.

Mrs. Sam Gugenheim has returned from Memphis where she was the guest of Mesdams B. J. Hartfield and Morris Clark.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Irruggists refund money if it falls to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 500

Mrs. Rose Mayes of Caldwell Springs, was in the city accompanied by Miss Franke Matthems Thursday, while here they visit- My dear Sir:

places he assisted in conducting this great gathering south on account of health and vital interest in the moral and

Revival begins Saturday Nov. 10, for two weeks at Mt. Zion Church, James Renfro pastor. Everybody welcome.

caughters Misses Francis and will find it convenient to attend. My dear Mr. Sackett: Virginia Nunn have returned to their home in Lou sville, after an extended visit with Mrs. W O. Tucker and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Nunn and other relatives. Mrs. Eady was the recipient of many social functions thinking of buying is really marked during her stay here. Mr. Eady down in price, the announcement to is superintending construction of accompanied by the depressing infor-Aerial Cantonment at Lake -Ohio State Journal. Charles, La.

M. H. Cannon of Bowling Green arrived Sunday to visit his parents and to attend the Babb-Jenkins nuptials Tuesday

Mrs. Noah Fox, an old citizen of this county who lives with Dempsey Kemp and family in Missouri, arrived here Sunday afternoon enroute to Iron Hill section to attend her son. Hamp

H F. Hammock the popular church to Mari n. Finder please salesman for Belknap Hardware return to me. Rev. U. G. Co., who spent the week end with his family, left Monday

L. J. Allison of Johnson City prices will surprise you. Office the guest of his sister Mas, Win-

Allen Young of West Va., was here last week on a visit to his Mrs. J. C. Brown of Critten- his parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Durham and daughter Lois. and Mr. and John V. Hughes of Camp Mrs. W. H. Ward motored to furlough. John has gained 15 Mr. Durham had the misforpounds in weight and will make tune to break his arm, Monday breeding stock. while cranging his car.

Stugis News Democrat.

Maxey Jackson son of the late refunding your money if Hy. Frank Jackson and grand son of octogenarian, visited her and and his step mother Ida Belle Mrs. Pearl James and her sis- McCain and other relatives here Orchestra ter Miss Thelma, and her broth- last week. Maxey has completed Talk er Ollie Rice all of Paducah were his education at colleges in New Female Quartet guests of their parents, Mr. and York and Washington and now Mrs. W. W. Rice on the Fredonia has an army position and is Talk, - "Talent of the Hawaiians." for which point he departed Saturday morming.

Mayor Frank Dodge Honored.

Governor Stanley has honor d Orchestra-"Aloha Oe." the head of our city government by sending him his commission as delegate from the State of nor's letter follows: Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 29, 1917. Mr. Frank Dodge, Marion, Ky.

The World's Purity Federation

we hope they may all be restored spiritual betterment of your countrymen and feeling that you will most cre is ably represent! this Commonwealth, I have this Mr. F. M. Sackett, day enclosed to you a commission Food Administrator for Kentucky, designating you as a delegate o Speed Bldg., Mrs. G. orge M. Eady and her this body. I sincerely hope you Louisville, Ky.

> With kindest regards, I remain, yours very tru y A. O. STANLEY.

Depressing Thought. mation that this sale is strictly cash.

Big Hog And Cattle Sale

To be held at Fredonia Saturday November 3, 1917, consisting of 50 head of Regis-Duroc Jerseys bred tered any kind you want His low Tenn, arrived last week and is SOWS and boars. Registered and grade Hereford and Short many school day friends and to Horn cattle, mostly bulls and heifers, several Jersey milch cows and heifers.

This stock will be consigned by R. J. Rice, Paul Jones at Great Lakes Ill., Clay Sunday in Mr. Durham's Chas. Wilson, Jr, R. L. Beck, T. Y. Ordway, G. W. Hill and others. Come and buy some good

SPECIAL! SPECIAL!

omei fails to relieve that aunt Sarah Travis the co'ored Girls' Literary Society Program Next Friday Afternoon, Nov. 2nd. "Hawaiian Musical."

> "They're Wearing Them Higherin Hawaii." Camp Zachary Teylor. He is (in costume.)

Leoda McWhirter. stationed at Chillicothe, Ohio, Chorus, - "O'Brien is Trying to Learn to Talk Hawaii." (in costume.)

> Instrumental Quartet-"Hawiian Butterfly." Female Quartet-"Yacky, Hacky, Wicky, Wacky, Woo." Chorus-"Yacky Hoola Hicky Dula."

Preparedness.

Kentucky to the "World's Puri- This is the slogan of the wise man. ed out. ty Federation, "which convenes stock are continually exposed to cuts, wounds, scratches, etc. The man who that we are succeeding in preventing plim nt of which Mr. Dodge Farris' Healing remedy is Highly An- first hand the facts in the case. should feel proud. The Gover, tiseptic. It is economical. One 50c bottle makes $2 00 worth of healing oil or ointment. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. - Jas. H. Orme, Ma-

Headquarters 84th Division, Camp Zachary Taylor,

Kentucky. October 29, 1917.

ing to say that I am quite encouraged in results obtained along this line at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Whenever anything we have been upon subalterns to thoroughly instruct at all times. their cooks and dining-room help as to the necessity of preventing waste and sure myself, through this means and others, that the orders are being carri-

Very sincerely yours. (Signed) HARRY HALE

Major General, N. A. denial of any intention on the part of luncheon was seaved. the government to restrict or confishands of the citizens. He issued ter out on Morganfield street. at Louisville, Ky., on Nov 8th, housewives of Kentucky will not be story that is being given circulation, Nannie Rochester. Sallie Woods, Rev. W. B. Yates returned to 14th, inclusive. I am advis d in vain so far as the co-operation of by persons unfriendly to their coun- Virginia Blue, Messrs. Bruce hist week from an evangelical that delegates from all parts of the army is concerned is assured in a try's cause, that signers of the Pood Babb, Oirender' Virgil Threl- them strong, manly, self-reliant, quick tr p to Flemingsburg Ky., Green- the United S stes and the Do- letter from the commander of Camp Conservation Pledge Cards this week ville Tenn., at each of which minion of Canada will attend places he assisted in conducting this great gathering.

Zachary Taylor here made public to-day by F. M. Sackett, Federal Food canned goods confiscateed by the Gov-my, Bob Cook, Misses, and Administrator for Kentucky. This ernment. This rumor has been re- Mesdams. Paul Adams and I have been requested to ap- letter shows that the army training peatedly denied by the Food Adminis- Maurie Nunn. J. H. Stanly and his eminable point a number of delegates from camps are doing everything science tration, but apparently it persists. It family left Thursday fou Quanab the State of Kentucky for that can suggest to prevent waste in the is pro-German propaganda, and per-Texas to reside. They wen occasion. Appreciating your seeding of hundreds of thousands of sons circulating it are giving aid and comfort to the cause of America's sailors 99 cents, nieellarge felts son where her parents lived when first married, she moved to Chicago with them and later to Eddyville. The family located Revival Meeting at First Knowing of the vital conservation hocated here in 1903 and have and economic use of food, I am writ- since resided here and she has been her fathers assistant in the clerical department of this paper When I first come here this matter and of the Electric Light Co., was taken up and it was impressed and was accurate and dependable

> "F. M. SACKETT. "Federal Food Adm'r., Kentucky.

She finished her education at as to the methods of securing this re- Cox College, at College Park a suit. Since that time, in daily inspec. Suburb of Atlanta, Ga., and later tions of the camp, I have taken pains attended the Cincinnati Conserto inspect the garbage cans and as vitory of Music, and is a gifted flutist. She will be greatly missed in the home circle where she d creatly in the household d in the care of her other who is devoted to ove and esteen in and bemarful gifts sent by in Ke tacky.

Opossum Supper Great Success

The opossum supper, with Miss Iris Guess as "chef", given by the Red Cross was a success in every way.

The "eats" which consisted of opossum and baked potatoes, chicken, salmon salad, fruit Military Training Necessary for Safety salad, o'ives, pickles, celery, hot biscuit, coffee, and pie were delightful. Each was bounti- mie and I have been looking up about fully served and only those who partook of this sumptious supper can really appreciate what our girls can do when it comes to cooking and serving.

given by the young people of the town and High School. The girls quartette and male quartette each give some splendid selections. The double quartette give an enjoyable number also, and that's why France lost the war Musical readings and other readinus were given by Prof. Frank-

Every one had a splendid time and we think the girls have found, that not only "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach; but the way to help our boys and others who have gone to the front, is the way to a man's pocketbook is through his stomach.

We do not know the amount that was took in but feel sure that it was a good sum.

Daron Koon Here

Duron Koon, Democrat nom-"Hawaiian Dreams." inee for the Legislature arrived "The Hawaiian People." here Wednesday morning from home on a furlough to see the voters and will see as many as possible before the election next Tuesday. There is no doubt of his being able to serve when elected, and his friends are doing all they can ts refute the impression which is out in some localities that he could not serve.

Miss Katherine Yandell was hostess Monday evening at a Hallowe'en party at her home in Louisville, Nov. 8th, for a is prepared has his healing remedy on waste at this camp, and I am writing on Belville street in honor of Miss week's meeting. This is a com- hand to stop all chances of blood poison. to inform you that you may know at Jenkins, the bride to be. The decorations consistee of Hallwe' en suggestions artistically arranged throughout the entie Mr. Sackett also reiterated today his house. A delightful three course

Those who enjoyed the party ed Mrs. Maggie Owen and daughholds its next annual convention the food economy practiced by the "There is absolutely no truth in the Katherine Yates, Susie Boston, Linda Jenkins, Fannie Blue, > Hat sale, nice black velve at 99 cents. White feits 49 cts. Bargains of all kinds at Lottie Tinsley Terry's, Come early get choice.

Bargains in suits, cloaks , shirt waist at Lottie Tinsley Terry.

Presbyterian Church.

A protracted meeting will begin next Sunday, Nov., 4th at First Prebyterian church. The pastor, Rev. Henry V. Eacott will conduct the service Sunday. Rev. E. E. Smith of Owensboro, will arrive Monday, Nov. 5th and preach that evening and thereafter every afternoon at 2 o'clock and evening at 7 o'clock. A cosdial invitation is extended off. to all to attend these services.

The Quintre That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXA-TIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary friends here and from many oth. Without it we should be savages. When er parts of the United States, ness in this world is practically at an some coming from California, end. Work is a good, old-time word, Georiga, Alabama, Missou i, conceived in honesty of purpose. Work Tennessee, Texas, Washington the working man and sorrow for the drives the devil away. All honor to and m many cities and towns working man who is ashamed of his title.-Pittsfield Engle.

In Praise of Work.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN Number Four

"Say, Uncle Dan," said Billie, "Jimwar in the encyclopedia at school. We found that in the war between Germany and France in 1870-71, Germany lost in killed and wounded 28,000 soldiers while France lost about six times as many, and besides that, she lost An excelent program was every battle. We asked Professor Slocom why this was. He said that the German army was highly trained and ably commanded, while the French soldiers were poorly trained; and that their war department was honeycombed with jealousy and politics; that the officers were not much good, and so many men. What do you think about it, Uncle Dan?"

"Well," said Uncle Dan, "Professor tin and Misses Hardy and Shutte- Stocum is right. By inefficiency France lost that war, together with two of her best provinces-Alsace and Lorraine and had to pay a billion dollars indemnity money. France today learned her lesson by that sad experience, so she put in universal military training, and as a result, her soldiers now know how to fight and how to protect themselves. They are losing ess men in the war than the Germans. France also put politics out of her war department, so that expert authority. instead of bureaucratic stupidity, now directs the army. The result is, France has one of the best and most efficient armies every assembled, and this shows what thorough training and good leadership means in warfare. This saved France in this crisis, as well as the liberties of the world."

> "As war is now conducted, there is no place for an untrained man. A body of 10,000 well trained soldiers properly handled could defeat five times their number of raw recruits and do it every time with comparatively small loss to themselves. Proper train ing alone will reduce the death and casualty rate one-third of what it otherwise would be, and right here is an unanswerable argument for universa military training.

"Our government has no moral right to force her men into war service without properly training them for it To do so is simply murder, hence th frantic effort that is now being madto give her soldiers some training be fore they are sent to the front. If we are to win this war, it will take trained men to do it, and it will take traine men to win any other war that may come upon us in the future. If w must fight, let us fight to win and no

"That's the stuff," said Billie.

Continuing. Uncle Dan said: "Ou government has expended about $300,-000,000 to put up cantonments and training stations in order to train the men called by the selective draft. When these men are trained the training stations should be immediately filled with younger men, say those in bill. This will be of immeasurable benefit to them individually. It will do them more good than any other two years of their whole life; it will make to see and quick to act; it will equip them for a successful life. In short, it will rebuild American manhood and will also give the government a body of trained men to draw from in case it is necessary to defend our flag and country. We must settle this question of universal military training immediately, otherwise these training camps may be demolished. The adoption of universal military training will be notice to the world that from then on we will be prepared to defend ourselves promptly and efficiently, and this will do more to keep us out of war in the future than anything else we could do.'

"Do you think, brother," said Mrs. Graham, "that there will ever be another war?"

"I have no doubt about it," said Uncle Dan. "So long as men are selfish, so long as nations are ambitious to acquire territory, so long as population presses and demands more room, so long as there remains a scramble for world trade—so long wars will be. When the time comes that we reach the high plane for which we hope and dream, when all will recognize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, then, and then only, will wars cease. When that day comes doors will need no locks, banks will need no vaults to protect their treasures, but that day is a long way

"The only safe and sane plan is to be able to defend ourselves at all times. Therefore, every citizen should insist that senators and congressmen shall provide for universal milkary training, so that never again shall the country be caught so completely unready as this war found us. Fortunately, in this case, our enemy has been held back, so we have had a for mouths in which to prepare. This advantage probably will never come today.

"Because she was ready, Switzerland is an island of peace in a sea of war. Safety first is good, but safet always is better. In strength there safety. You never saw a tin can tled to the tall of a bulldog. There is a reason.

The County Fair has been called off on account of the cold weather and also on account of the Fredonia farmers stock sale to be held on same date.

J. Robt. Bird, County Agent.

VOTE FOR THE CONSOL DATION OF CUAL PHONE SYSTEMS

The voters of this county, in commen with voters all over the state, will find on their ballots at the comag November election, the line for natification of the constitutional thendment passed by the last legislature, providing that telephone lines in Kentucky may absorb other tele phone lines, for the purpose of eliminating the double system of phones wherever it is deemed advisable. First, public endorsement of the amendment has come from the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce, and similar commercial bodies all over the state are taking up the matter in the hope of securing a big affirmative vote. There is so little argument to be presented against ratification of the amendment that such efforts are being made for fear that the voters may neglect to vote on it, rather than for fear of any substantial opposition. The dual system of telephones is not feasible. It is expensive and annoying and absolute ly destructive to the proper function ing of the long distance system. It forces business houses to keep two telephone rents going, and puts people who have only the one line out of touch with those who have the other whereas the prime purpose of the tele phone is to knit communities and ter ritories together by means of its facili ties. The legislature was quick to realize the need of remov ing present restrictions which prohibit the absorbing of competing lines, and it is impossible to conceive of the people opposing the idea.

The amendment passed by the Sen ate with only one dissenting vote and encountered no opposition whatever in the House. The representatives of both parties recognized that only by means of this amendment to the Con stitution could the state be saved the annoyance and expense of two tele phone systems in the same community.

Some of the larger cities, particularly Cincinnati, New York and Washing ton, early recognized that two tele phone systems were an unnecessary burden on the community and never granted to more than one company a franchise for a telephone system, with the result that every telephone user in each of these cities is in direct communication with every other sub

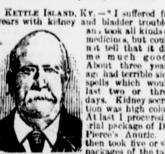

In Kentucky, in the early stages of the development of the telephone business, numerous small companies were organized. They did not connect, different kinds of equipment were used and the standard of maintenance was not universal, which retarded the advancement of telephone development in keeping with other states more progressive. Nearly every community in Kentucky has, at some time in its history, experienced a telephone war that engendered hard feelings, as each side had its partisans, and the public has been deprived of the convenience and economy that one telephone system

The public interest is thoroughly protected under the proposed constiutional amendment can be made without the consent of the city council. The passage of the bill providing for the constitutional amendment and the practically unanimous vote it received in the General Assembly is evidence that it was pass ed in response to a wide-spread and popular demand for relief from present telephone conditions.-Paducah (Ky.) Evening Sun.

Killed by Poisons

All scientists agree that poisonous products in the blood are eliminated by the kidneys and liver. The kidneys act as a kind of filter for these products. When the kidneys are changed or degenerated, by disease or old age, then these poisons are retained in the body. If we wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if we want to increase our chances for a long life, Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., says that you should drink pienty of sater daily between meals to flush the kidneys. Then procure at your nearest drug store Then procure at your nearest drug store Anuric. This Anuric drives the uric acid out. Scientific men have learned that in gont, also rheumatism, poisonous uric acid crystals are deposited in or about the joints, in the muscles — where in-flammation is set up.

If we wish to keep our kidneys in the best condition a diet of milk and vegetables, with only little meat once a day, is the most suitable. Drink plenty of purwater, take Anuric (double strength) three times a day for a month. Anuric is many times more potent than lithia.

and can truthfully say they did me re good then all the other medicines much improved in every way I sufferers from kidney troubles to Anuric' and learn for themselves its len't It So? A husband usually hangs around the ing it during the daytime. house too much or not enough to satisfy his wife.

SUFFERING FROM COLD

has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth, for charging summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs. The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable.
Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 17-12

Democratic Ticket.

For Senator in the 4th district Crittenden, Caldwell and Webster counties. - C. S. Nunn, of Marion.

For Representative of Critten den and Livingston districts, Duron Koon, of Dycusburg.

For County Attorney-Trice Bennett, of Marion

For Sheriff-John H. Nimmo

For Jailer-Chas. W. Love.

Republican Ticket.

For Senator in the 4th district crittenden, Caldwell and Webster Counties. - W. J. Deboe of

For Representative of Crittenden and Livingston district-W Paris, of Lola.

For County Judge-Robert L.

For Sheriff-V. O. Chandler.

For County Court Clerk-L. E. Guess.

For County Attorney-John A. Moore.

For Superintendent-James L

For Jailer W. E. Belt.

LAX-FOS IS AN IMPROVED CASCARA A DIGESTIVE LAXATIVE

CATHARTIC AND LIVER TONIC LAX-Fos is not a Secret or Patent Medi cine but is composed of the following CASCARA BARK

BLUE FLAG ROOT RHUBARB ROOT BLACK ROOT MAY APPLE ROCT SENNA LEAVES AND PEPSIN

u Lan-Postile Cascara is improved by he addition of these digestive ingredi-uts making it better than ordinary Cas RA and thus the combination acts of y as a stimulating laxative and eather but also as a digestive and liver tonic mo lixetives are week, but Lax-Formbines strength with palacable, aro stomach. One bottle will prov. Fos in invaluable for Constipation.

Darkest Africa.

Nearly one-fourth of the earth's land surface is comprised within the continent, of Africa, and it is as far around the coast Send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., of Africa as it is around the zen cents for trial package of anuric. world. Every eighth person of KETTLE ISLAND, Ky.—"I suffered for years with kidney and bladder troubles an took all kinds of medicines, but could not tell that it did dub'e 'heir number every forty me much good, years and the whites every age had terrible sick cigh.
There 843 language days, Kidney sere, and the whites every days, Kidney sere, and the whites every days, Kidney sere, and the whites every days, Kidney sere, and the class of Africa, but a value of them written,—

> The name "moonshiners" was given to the illicit distillers in the mountains of North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia, from the fact that they to most of their work at night, on account of the danger attend-

THE MANLY MAN

The world has room for the manly man with the spirit of manly cheer; If you shiver in frosty The world delights in the man who smiles when his eyes keep back the tear; weather, if you have cold hands It loves the man who, when things go wrong, can mke his place and stand and feet, if colds are stubborn With his face to the fight and his eyes to the light, and toil with willing hand and frequent, then your blood The manly man is the country's need, and the moment's need forsooth, may be thin and impoverished. With a heart that beats to the pulsing tread of the allied leagues of truth, The world is his, and it waits for him and it leaps to hear the ring Of the blows he strikes and the wheels he turns and the hammers he dares to

> It likes the forward look in his face, the poise of his noble head, And the onward lunge of his tireless will and the sweep of his dauntless tread Hurrah for the manly man who comes with sunlight on his face.

And the strength to do and the will to dare and the courage to find his place! The world delights in the manty man, and the weak and evil fles When the manly man goes forth to hold his own on land or sea.

Many Advantages Found to Result from the Daylight Saving Plan

By Representative William P. Borland of Missouri.

Credit for the discovery of the principle of daylight saving must be given to the late William Willett, the noted scientist of England. He was accustomed to take an early morning ride in the parks of London, and conceived the idea that in the summer season, between the vernal equinor and the autumnal equinox, the sun rose from three to four hours before the usual opening of the business day. This had the effect of projecting the business day into the late afternoon and the hours of leisure and rec- stored by it. Let one dose of Mayr's and he reports that they are in excess reation into the night. In other words, a great portion of the sunlight hours of the day were actually wasted.

In casting about for some method by which this evil could be corrected, he became convinced at once that it could not be done by individual effort. There must be some way of changing simultaneously and uniformly the habits of the entire community. He hit upon the method of advancing the hands of the clock one hour during the summer months.

While Mr. Willett was extremely industrious and somewhat successful in placing his views before the British public, and while bills were introduced in parliament each session, beginning as early as 1908, no tangible result could be accomplished until the pressure of war made the change imperative. The plan originated in England, but it was first actually adopted by Germany, where it went isto force April 30, 1916. run-awsy hors - kicked him inteligence whose politeness and good Germany was immediately followed by Austria-Hungary and Holland, through the plate front of a manners have won him a large number In these countries the law began its operation simultaneously on April store. He bled to death from which he has lived in old Crittenden. 30, 1916. Denmark followed on May 15, 1916; Great Britain on May 21, 1916; Norway on May 22, 1916; Italy on June 3, 1916; France on after being taken to a happen and gette young man who was born and June 14, 1916; Portugal on June 18, 1916.

The business public and wage earners of Great Britain welcome the change in the law, and after a full year's experience with it there are only two lines of business which are affected adversely in the slightest degree. One is the business of artificial lighting and the other is that of the public houses. As to the gas and electric companies, they are confronted with a shortage of fuel, congestion of transportation and high out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and prices of supplies, which makes them quite willing to reduce their output. The public houses complain that the hour which they lese at night on closing time is not compensated in their line of business by the hour gained in the morning. With these two exceptions, according to the report of the British commission, the beneficial results have been universal.

Among the many advantages are the reduction of the amount of artificial lighting with an enormous saving of public and private expense; a reduction of the consumption of coal for light and power, and the consequent relief upon the congestion of transportation; an increase of efficiency in the productive power of the nation; a lessening of eye strain; an increase of outdoor life, with enlarged opportunities for athletics, for home gardening, for walking, driving and motoring, for military training and for the use of public parks and playgrounds; a general improvement in sanitation and health; a greater participation by citizens in public affairs and a reduced expenditure for indoor amusements. The indirect effect upon public morals has been noticeable. Wholesome outdoor life has taken the place of artificial indoor life.

Cheering Someone On

Don't you mird shout the triumples Don't you worry after fame; Don't you grieve about Succeeding. Let the future guard your name. All the best in life's the simplest, Love will last when wealth is gone Just be glad that you are living. And keep cheering someone on.

Let your neighbors have the blossome. Let your comrades wear the crown Never mind the little setbacks Nor the blows that knock you down.

You'll be there when they'erforgotte You'll be glad with youth and dawn, If you just forget your troubles And keep cheering someone on

There's a lot of sorrow round you. Lots of lone someness and tears: Lots of heartactes and of worry Through the shadows of the years. And the world needs more than tri-

Hr. a Wonder cures kidney and bi- ider troubles, disselves gravel cur-mabetes, weak and lame backs, rheums

"Oh, doctor! I do hope yeu'll let father smoke again soon. We simply can't get a cent out of him!" - judge.

Hughes Chill Tonic

d ub'e their number every forty Better than Calomel and Quinine The Old Reliable

Contains no arsenic

Exclient General Tonic

hands of Africa, but As well as a remidy fir chilis and fevers, malarial fevers, swamp them written, - fevers and bilous fevers. Just what you need at this season. Mild Laxative, Nervous Sedative, Splendid Tonic

Don't take any substitute Druggists 50c and $'.90 a bottle

Prepared by kobin a-Petint Company,

....

meorporated,

Weston in The Lead

Weston won the long blue ribbon again this year, for having the best general exhibit, won first place; Post Oak came sec-

Below are the number of rib-ins won:

	Blue	Red
Weston	20	7
Oakland	. 15	7
Hood's Creek	7	2
Applegate	3	. 9
Walnut Grove	. 3	2
Seminary	1	6
Post Oak	1	. 4
Moore		0

Bad Stemachs Business Fallures

In this day of high efficiency more failures are due to disordered Stomachs than to any other cause. Nothing undermines the body and mind si quickly as Stomach Trouble. It say zen of this neighborhood, has recently the energy and reduces ambition and returned home from a visit to Camp vitality to a slow ebb. Cathartics fre- Zechary Taylor where he enjoyed the quently aggravate the trouble. Over- privilege of seeing thousands of the Intestinal Trouble with Mayr's Won- their training excercises. Mr. Ains derful Remedy, as it reaches the seat worth seen a great many of the Oritof the disease. Millions have been re- tenden county boys during his trip. Wonderful Remedy convince you today. Int spirits and progressing picely in For sale by Haynes & Taylor.

Kicked Through Plate Glass

John McBride o Pinenix, 62 not cause any great surprise smong years of age, federal mediator their friends and acquaintances. The in the Globe-Miami copper strik bride is a splendid young lady of estroubles and the only expresident timable character; and Jimmy is to be congratulated for winning the beart of the American Federation of and hand of one so worthy. The Labor, was killed today when a groom is a young man of exceptional several severed arrives son Fines Hoghes, a tright and ener-

chili Tonic is equally valuable as a stives that he is now a member of General Tonic because it contains the

Lost Jewel Found In

Banville, Ill., Oct. 23. - That mission truth is stranger than fiction was | The new schoolhouse at 'Possum demonstrated at Hoopeston when Ridge has recently been completed Hay Tilton, a young farmer, re. after several weeks of busy work on ceived a letter from Peoria, say- the part of the carpenters who coning a diamond ring valued at The gentlemen who did the work stomach of a fish which had the artistic beauty and splendid apbeen caught in the Illinois river. pearance of the house which has been

The owner sent the check to throughout the county. the Peoria man.

A Year Of Cheer

A lot of good fortune is in store for those families who are on The Youth's Companion subscription list for 1918-a year of

There will be 12 glorious ser ial or group stories, ranging from a girls' war story by Grace S. Richmond and Indian a lyentures by James Willard Schultz, to the unrivaled tales of former days by C. A, Stephens.

The charm of Companion stories lies in the fact that weether they are especially written for boys or for girls, everyone enjoys them to the full. Then there are special pages for the Family Boys, Girls, and even for little Children-while the Editorial Page. Current Events and a Doctor's Corner supply all the requirements of the family for good reading. And this particular feast can come from no other source.

The Companion alone is $2.00 but by special arrang ment new s bscribers for The Companion can also, by adding only 25 certs have McCall's Magazine for 1918 both publications for only $2.25.

This two-at-one-price offer in-

1. The Youth's Companion-25 issues in 1918. 2. All remaining 1917 issues of

The Companion free. 3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1918. 4. McCall's Magazine -12 fashion numbers in 1918.-All for only $2.25 THE YOUTH'S COMPANION Commonwealth Ave Boston Mass New subscriptions received at this office.

FORD'S FERRY

(delayed from last week.)

Seldon Ainsworth, a prominent cit ome quickly your Stomach, Live and young American recruits go through 3 t eir training

Jimmy Ra kin, of this place, and Miss Nay McDowell, of Cave in-Rock, It , have recently been united in the Window And Killed hory bonds of matrimony. These two young people have been sweethearts Globe, Ariz, O.t. 16 -Judge for a long time and their marriage did raised about two miles from Ford's Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's.

Ferry, and who volunteered into the United States army last apping has The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless recently informed his friends and rel-Pershing's immortal . my which has noble work of suppressing Prussian Builds up the Whole System. 60 cents. barbariam. Finis belongs to the heavy artillery and he has written many interesting things about the giant guns which he is helping to operate and Stomach Of Fish which will eventually participate in the task of pounding the fee into substructed and erected the new building. $250.00 had been found in the should be congratulated on account of In July Tilton was at Peoria, modeled along the lat st and most apand while rowing on the river one at 'Possum Ridge has been a laughthe ring dropped off his finger. ing stock for many years on account He never expected to see it of its smallness and somewhat dilapiagain and was much surprised to sated appearance but it is certainly a receive the letter. The writer fact that a large number of splendid said he caught the fish and while dressing it saw somethics, and the crowds which have gathered in the old school house have some bright fall out of the stomach times been so large that the people He also said he would be glad to were packed together like sardines. send the ring to Hoopeston if The new house which has recently been Tilton would send the reward rected is one of the nicest and best hooking school buildings which can be offered in a Peorio newspaper. Tound in any of the rural districts

Keeping Yourself Well

That Lingering Cold is a steady drain on your physical stamina. It impoverishes the blood, distresses the digestion, and exhausts your vigor. It affords a fertile field for serious infection and is likely to become chronic.

You Needn't Suffer

from it if you will take Peruna and use prudence in avoiding exposure. Pernna clears up catarrhal conditions Thousands have pro. This to any fair person. Go box of the tablets today-prove it your-

At your drug-

THE PERUMA

FOOD PLEDGE IMPORTANT FACTOR IN WINNING WAR, SAYS SACKETT

Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky Explains Reasons for Card Campaign Next Week

To the Housekeepers of Kentucky:

URING the week beginning Sunday, October 28th, a campaign will be conducted in all parts of the United States for signatures for the Food Conservation Pledge prepared by Mr. Herbert C. Hoover, the National Food Administrator.

The canvass will be made during the week in question by the patractic women who have joined the organization of the Food Conservation Division of the Council of Defense in each county of the State, and the object of this address of the Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky is to explain exactly what will be asked of the housekeepers of the State of Kentucky, why it is asked and what may be accomplish-ed for our country and our-selves.

We wish to say at the cutset that the campaign is city wide, state wide and nation wide. No state-wide and nation wide. No sectarian or denominational lines are involved. The campaign is endorsed by the clergymen of all the churches of the state, by our leading professional and business men, by all who understand the importance of food conservation as a factor in winning the war

Form of Pledge. It is best to state exactly what will be asked by the canvassers of the housekeepers of Ken-tucky. They will be asked first. United States Food Administra tion. What does that card bind the housekeeper to? Here it is, so all may judge for themselves.

I am glad to join you in the service of food conservation for our nation, and I hereby accept membership in the United States Food Administration, pludging myself to carry out the directions and advice of the Food Administrator in my home,

F. M. Sackett.

This is the pledge and the entire pledge. There are no dues of membership. Signers will then be used to hang in the from windows of their homes cards bearing the shield of the United States in colors attesting the fact that they are members of to aganization.

Insofar as my circumstances permit.

What the Fledge Means,

It is wise, we think, to say a few words in regard to the pledge. It means no more and no less than it reads. It will be observed that signers of the pledke are not asked to bind themselves to any particular things. They are not asked at this time to promise to observe meatless days or to abstain from using any particular kind of food. They simply agree to carry out the directions and advice of the Food Administrator "insofar as their circumstances permit." We are aware that conditions differ in different homes; that what is only a sacrifice to one may, under unusual cirferent homes; that what is only a sacrifice to one may, under unusual circumstances, be an impossibility to another. Therefore the qualifying clause 'insofar as my circumstances permit' appears in the pledge. This qualifying clause brings the execution of the Food Administrator's advice down to the individual conscience of the housekeeper who signs the pledge. It is not expected that because of this qualification the piedge will go as nothing. It is, in fact, our hope and belief that those who sign this pledge will consider themselves units in a great army of American housekeepers who propose to serve their country and themselves by following as closely as may be possible the directions and advice of the Food Administrator, knowing as we do that those directions will be reasonable. be reasonable

It seems hardly necessary for us here again to contradict the foolish rumors that have been circulated that it is the plan of the Food Administration to seize food found in private homes. No such thing was ever contemplated and will not be contemplated. Such a report is enemy propaganda purposely designed to defeat the objects of this great conser-

Importance of the Work.

jects in regard to the importance of food conservation during the coming winter, and yet, as a housekeeper, speaking to housekeepers, I wish to say that we understand the importance of this work and believe that the housekeepers of the state will understand it.

housekeepers of the state will understand it.

Our country is engaged in a great war. Our sons are going out to give, if necessary, their lives for our country. These brave boys are willing to make, if necessary, the supreme sacrifice, that American ideals may endure, that American homes may be kept safe from the invader. All of us have work to do at this time and the work that may be done in the individual homes of America in avoiding waste and saving food may prove not the lease effective move in winning the war.

Kentucky goes into the present winter in some ways well prepared Employment is general, but prices are very high. The less that is wasted in the average household the less will have to be bought. The prices of foodstuffs ofter an inducement to prudence, but unless there is organization and cooperation, the food that is saved in one home will be wasted in another.

Real Emergency Exists.

The men who are patriotically working in Washington for the country and in charge of this mobilization movement of our food know that a real exigency exists. The 1916 harvest left us no surplus. The 1917 harvest is in and they can count on the food that can be used for ourselves, for the allied nations and for our men at the fighting front. They know that if the same prodicality in the waste of food continues in America, if the hospitality and lavish use is maintained in our own h there will not be sufficient available tomaintain the armies who are fight-Ing our battles on the western front of Europe.

They do know, however, that it there begins at once a concerted movement in all American homes to eliminate all unnecessary waste, a movement to follow the advice of the Food Administrator for the substitution of some foods for others which we are short, that the cumulative effect of that movement, covering throughout the country 23,000,000 American homes, will provide during the coming winter the food that will be necessary for us to export, in order to keep the civilian populations of France and England supplied, the arm'rs upon the battle line and the wonderful army now being prepared by the Multed States, in their befighting condition.

It is a real emergency in which the appeal to us, an emergency which can be met in no other way, and they are bearing this call to the women of America to look upon this matter in all seriousness and to be assured that the sacrifices they will make during this coming winter will provide the food which the President of the United States has said is one of the three great elements necessary to winning the war.

No suggestions will be issued that are not felt by those in authority No suggestions will be issued that are not type by those in admerica to be extremely necessary, but they do hope that the people of America will respond to these suggestions as patricial determined to do their bit for the cause of civilization throughout the world and the maintenance of F. M. SACKETT, Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky.

L. F. WATERS

Veterinarian

ffice at Sisco's Livery Stable Phone 289 Prepare now and immunize your herd against blackleg and hemorrhagic.septicamia in Cathle; Weite Scours in calves; Navel ilis alts; Cholera in trads; Also see me about White darrhea in young chicks; Bowel ailments and blackhead in turkeys

How to Know, Prevent and Cure Quickly patied the trigger and fell dead, Leaves Goat Raiser Nothing to Do but Market Animals and Collect Money.

Portland, Ore.-F. A. Pierce, a goat raiser of Canyonville, Ore., has little to do except market his goats and collect the money. His collie dog "Shep" does all the work and shoulders the responsibility of herding and protecting the animals.

"Shep" has a method all his own in taking care of his charges. Instead of driving them, "Shep" leads the goats. At sunrise "Shep" is stirring around trying to get someone to open the gates. After that he starts his flock scampering along behind, high prices, prevailing and prospective All day he leads them to the choicest to plant 20 acres of potatoes, a prespots for feeding.

Late in the afternoon "Shep" gives, the signal and the procession starts. Five years ago while returning to his for home. If he arrives before the manch from a trading visit to Seward children of the household have come ole unexpectedly came upon a brown home from school, "Shep" leaves the bear and her cub at a turn of the trail goats at the gate and rushes to the on Resurrection river and, being schoolhouse to notify the children wise to the general habits of brown the goats run to "Shep" for protec- his back. As something just had to raised the champion goat exhibited part of those neighbors who criticize at the San Francisco exposition. The his action in hurling at the mother animal's hair measured 41½ inches

...... SKULL SO HARD THAT IT FLATTENED BULLET ;

Atlanta, Ga,-Harriet Owing, nine-year-old negro girl, would be safe at the front without a steel helmet. Hospital doctors : extracted a bullet from her forehead which had not penetrated the skull. The bullet was "22," and was mashed perfectly flat. It had been a stray shot. The girl at once returned to her home.

·-----43 YEARS OF LIFE IN JAIL

When Old Man Returned to Home Town in Kentucky No One Knew Him.

Owensboro, Ky.-After 43 years spent in the Arkansas penitentiary at Little Rock, Joseph F. Jones has returned here to pick up the thread of life that was broken when he was sent to prison.

When a young man Jones went to Came Upon a Brown Bear and Her Arkansas to work on a farm. He met and loved the daughter of the farmer bear the bundle of papers he was carother admirer, who was the son of a hear in the start of the affair by a wealthy farmer. He did not relish the intrusion, quarreled with Jones and fought a knite duel with bira at the gate of the girl's home. When the fight ended Jones' rival was dead.

victed of murder in the first degree by discovered that Oh a heart was still and sent to prison for life. After 43 benting, and more surprised an hour years his case was laid before the later when he regamed consciousness. governor. A pardon was granted. These two good Sugaritans rigges up Old man Jones walked out of the a kind of litter and packed Ole into prison. The girl for whom he had Seward to Doctor Rotaig's office. Docfought had never married, but she for Rotale was not surprised at Ole's had long since been dead. Penniless, arrively never is save when Ole ar-Jones walked from Little Rock to rives intact. Owensboro. No one remembered him. Possibly the most peculiar of the He is a stranger in his own home innumerable accidents which have to town.

be died.

companions with a revolver, Joseph Sykora, twelve years old, placed the gun against his own head and asked

THIS DOG HAS SOME KILLED MOSQUITO, BROKE HIS NOSE

Ole Bergstrom Has Prospered in Alaska Despite His Many Disasters.

OFFERS NO COMPLAINT

Thinks All Accidents Are Work of Providence-Seward Physician Only Surprised When He Shows Up Intact.

Seward, Alaska.-Ole Bergstrom is tired in boy's clothing. an intensely religious homesteader who has lived in Alaska for twenty in her Cleveland home with her fati years or more and prospered both financially and spiritually despite the fact that the misfortunes he has endured make Job's numerous troubles trivial and inconsequential by comparison.

The whole period of Ole's residence in Alaska is plastered over with a network of overlapping and interlocking ills such as cloudbursts, destructive windstorms, stock diseases, depredations of wild animals and other disastrous incidents which would drive the ordinary man to distraction, but which Ole accepts without complaint and in he firm conviction that they are visiations from Providence in punishment for sins of commission or omission; although if Ole ever committed a really wrongful act in his life it is unknown his neighbors.

Recently a mosquito perched unexectedly on Ole's nose, whereupon a ell-directed blow from his ham-like alm effectually disembodied the pirit of the mosquite, but unfortu-nately broke Ole's nose. Dr. J. H. Romig, the physician in attendance, says that Ole will be about his business again in a few days, but with a nose robbed of its original symmetry and a firm conviction that the pe "Shep" Has a Method All His Own, cullar misfortune was a direct rebuke from providence for his avarice-Ole off for the mountain pastures with having been tempted by the sinfully viously unheard of acreage in Alaska.

Bear Upon Him.

that it's time to open the gates. hears, knew it was folly to run, partic-If molested by animals or strangers 'ularly as he had a heavy pack upon happen to Ole it shows lack of both Pierce, with the aid of "Shep," understanding and imagination on the

Cub.

who employed him. The girl had an rying in his hand. Ole merely beat the shade, for, according to his own vis-

m was lowered from the throw. Some time later Harry Hoben and After a hasty trial Jones was confallen Cle occurred last summer on the remels of Erick Lucas. Lucas was Parson Dies as He Sounds Warning. having some land cleared and Ole was Amite, La.-Warning his congrega- on the job in pursuance of a work tion of the uncertainty of life, during swapping agreement with Neighbor n series of protracted meetings here, Lucas, when he sank his double (Rev. C. J. Burgess, a Methodist min-bitted and in a sprace log in an effort Ister, fe8 dead in the pulpit. He had to split in. The log did not split and been christened, joined and was or-dained a minister in the cauch where the bandle was useless in removing it. Whereupon Ole , cked up a wlub to knock at out and succeeded at the first. Man's Arm Nailed Up Like Basket. Boy Killed Self to Show Bravery. blow. Unfortunately the axe glanced Laurel, Del,—Twenty-three wire sta Cleveland, O.—After frightening against the side of an adjacent tree, ples were driven through Fred Wilkin the bear episode.

FORCED TO CRIME

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Joins Banr of Robbers and Lands in Jail.

Fremont, O .- A girl without love is her heart is paying for the sins of he father, John Sherry, a wife slayer serv ing a penitentiary term.

She is Frances Sherry, sixteen year old, who came from Cleveland a month ago and who threw in her fortune with those of Stephen Narmeth and Milton Tonsing. The trio then plun dered many houses before arrest came. She probably will be sent to home for girl delinquents.

Frances operated with the boys at Eight years ago the girl was happy

Saw Her Mother on the Floor.

er and mother. But one night the parents quarreled. The little girl la in bed and listened. Then there wa a dull thud and a woman's scream and another thud. She lay awake untidaylight and then her father came into her room and dressed her for school. She looked into the front room and saw her mother on the floor. The facame to the house.

In the days that followed she was shifted about from home to home. All being struck by lightning. So I had love was gone from the girl's heart with her mother dead and her father n the "pen." She had loved them both Now she is being tried as a bandit.

HIS STOMACH IS A MUSEUM

Padlock, Chain, Nails and Hooks Among Articles Swallowed by Philadelphian.

Philadelphia.-More than 450 pieces of metal, weighing three and one-half pounds and including nails, screws tacks and safety pins, were found in Joseph Quinlin's stomach, when he was operated upon for gallstenes a the Philadelphia hospital. In addition, 250 gall stones were removed.

Among the other articles found were a small padlock with a three-incl. chain, a cigar cutter, tenpenny nails 34 spoon handles, one dozen safets pins, 40 pieces of type and the same number of lead slugs, two three-incihooks for screen doors and severa American medals, coins and badge Dr. E. L. Eliason of the hospital staff who operated on Quinlan, said h would probably survive.

GIRL ASKS MAYOR FOR "MAMMA NOT CRANKY"

New York.-"Wanted-A good mama, not cranky," This modest request comes by mail .o Mayor Mitchel from "C. O. S., Tucson, Ariz." "C. O. S." is ten years old, so.

n a way, the does not need a only five, so according to the writer's way of thinking he ight to have at least a couple of parents. Here is her letter: "Dear Sir, I read your ad. in the paper. Press confer on me a favvr. I am a little girl ten years old going to school. I've got a brother five years old. Pappa works so brother has only neighbors to look after im through the day. Please. Mayor Mitchel, get some good mama, Wright my Pappa. He is a good Pappa. $5.50 per day, he 35 Years old. I like good Mama Irish-American. My maon is dead long. I would like good Mama, not cranky. I den't like tell full name and rebounded to enother tree, and then son's arm and clinched, while he was becomeranced back to Ole, striking operating a basket machine. The If his playmates would dare him to him severely, again broke one of those matic nailer and it was necessary to shoot. When they knucked the boy four ribs Doctor R mais fixed up after take the anothine apart to release the ...jured member.

"Yours Respectfully, "C. O. S."

BY FATHER'S SINS RAIN SPOILS HER STAY IN WOODS

Michigan Co-Ed Fails in Her Attempt at "Mother Eve" Stunt.

ONE NIGHT ENOUGH

Starts Out to Spend Week Unclad in Wilds of Colorado-Heavy Rainstorm Makes Her Change Mind.

Denver, Col.-Miss Agnes Lowe, a beautiful co-ed from the University of Michigan, who failed in her thrilling attempt to spend a week in the Rocky Mountains National Park, at Estes Park, unclad and without food or shelter, told today how it feels to spend a night in the mountains in an altitude of 11,000 feet, with no clothing. no fire and a terrific rain and thunderstorm raging.

"My start was all right," said Miss Lowe. "It was clear and warm and beautiful when I said good-bye to my family and a few friends and plunged nto the forest. The plunge consisted of running as fast as my bare feet would permit until I was well beyond any chance of being followed and pied upon by chance tourists.

"The Wild Basin country, southvest of Long's Peak, is one of the wildest spots I am sure, on the North American continent. I was headed through the worst of it—for the beauiful and almost unvisited Thunder Lake region, a land of mammoth primeval forests, stupendous peaks and placid, crystal lakes. Here no ourists were likely to bother me.

"It was miles to Thunder Lake. On the way I weaved a pair of rough andals of grass and bark. Long be fore I got to Thunder Lake it had clouded up and started to pour rain. It had been raining furiously for several days through parts of that Thuuder Lake country, and to save my life I couldn't find any wood that was bone dry, which was the only way I could start a fire with my Indian "ire drill,"

"It kept on raining and raining and raining and I kept on hunting and hunting and hunting. I had neglected all day to get anything to eat and I was desperately hungry when darkness came. Then the thunder ther had slain the aunt, too, when she and lightning began. I couldn't take refuge from the wet and cold under trees because there was danger of to lay flat on the open ground and face it.

"It was a bitter cold night-for you must remember I had almost nothing over my body. I shivered and shook or hours and hours. I learned from my father, who was a great woodsman, that shivering keeps the skin varm, That was one good lesson hat helped me. was med in the

It Kept on Raining and Raining.

And the Flood Came.

"The storm kept up all night. And ext day, except for about one hour, he rain continued to fall in torrends I tried, wandering through the rain o find berries. But there must be ears in the Thunder Lake regions, or there were no berries on the ushes. By the middle of Monday-I had entered the forest Sunday morning-I saw I was going to be strictly up against it. I was beginning to get a bad cold. So, regardless of the aughter I would cause, I decided to give up and go back to civilizaton.

"It was almost dark when I stumbled onto Mrs. Babcock's cabin. She took me in and undoubtedly saved me a terrible spell of sickness from my xposure. But I'm not sure I may not ackle the adventure again. When he weather clears permanently I may to out again to be a 'Modern Eve,' I know the country better now,"

Angry Bees Stung Horse to Death. Colmar, Pa .- A swarm of bees stung to death a horse belonging to Charles Gerkler of this place after a mower had cut into their nest. The bees also seriously injured the other horse in the team and stung the drives, a farm hand, so bally that he was removed to a hospital.

To The Voters of Crittenden And Livingston Counties.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., Oct. 22nd.

As you all know I have been called out of the district and have been draft now. ed into the National Army to fight for the protection of YOUR Country and mine. I am now in training at Camp Zachary Taylor laboring by the side of plea for exemption for I felt that the cause is a just one and that every man should do his part to make the world handed to us by our forefathers.

I take this method of making an appeal to each of you; stop, think of it -if it were your brother, your son or the doss a chance and there is WERE YOU, would you not be proud to go fight for your country if your people back home had shown their confidence in you and that they were behind you and were willing to back I will clee you up to the last notch. I assure you that nothing that you could do would be a greater honor to me than for you to elect me to the Legislature. I promise that if I am elected to this office, I will treat the office with honor and due respect. But on the other hand should you be rejected by your people and have them say, "No, we do not want to honor you with a seat in the Legislature, we want to keep that honor among ourselves; we be lieve that you should only protect on homes " Would you not go to the front feeling discouraged.

But allow to say in conclusion, tha I have too much confidence in the people of Crittenden and Livingston counties to believe that, that will be their decision. I believe that you as going to elect me to this honorable office. What one among you would no covet this double honor of fighting for your country and sitting in the halls o the Kentucky Legislature, dressed in the uniform of your country. Again ask you to consider my case carefully and if you think me worthy of this honor I will greatly appreciate you vote and influence at the coming election. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Respectfully Submitted, DURON KOON.

Barb Wire Cuts and Wounds

Are troublesome to cure. Get a bot tle of Farris' Healing Remedy-costs 50 cents-make it at home. Heals rapidly. A sore never matters where this remedy is used. We sell it on the money back plan. - J. H. Orme, Ma-

2,208 Kentucky Negroes In Draft

A total of 2,208 negroes are are still at home. All told, the moved to their town home from district boards have certified to the farm recently. He rode given by the Girls Literary district boards have certified to the farm recently. He rode given by the Girls Literary such kindness shown Adjt. Gen. J. Tandy Ellis 15,900 north on Walker street and came Society last Friday afternoon. May God's blessing be yours on thousands, and perhaps millions, of names. This embraces the ex to a pair of iron gates which he counties to a pair of iron gates which he members of the boy's society earth, and may you wear a crown first-class soldiers in the buttle line. cess in a majority of the counties opened and rode right in saying to provide for men subsequently to bimself "Dad has sure fived to be considered by the bimself "Dad has sure fived to be considered by the bimself "Dad has sure fived to be considered by a society of Glory with her in the upper of Glory with h discharged. Out of the 120 up his house. Well he always Sutherland, Hardy, Guess, and her husband and parents. counties the total quotas from was a dandy! Say what you Yates. Origin of Hallowe'en- F. H. Hillyard and Mr. and of the farm in the war plans of our showing the partners, sand of the farm in the war plans of our here they are. They tell their own dress.

FOR SALE.

Miss Nettie Grassham, Caddo, Okla.

Letter From a Soldier Boy.

Crittenden Record-Press. Marion, Ky.

Dear Editor:-

I received the Record-Press a fee days ago and sure was glad to get it. It makes me feel like I was at home. You don't know how good a soldier feels when he gets his home paper, espicially the Record-Press.

We soldier boys from Marion send you our best regards and want to thank you for your space in the Press, and hope while we are getting ready to go to the front we will be re- Mrs. H. F. Hammork who pointer white with black spots. membered by the good people spent several weeks in New I will pay a reward for any inat home.

giving our attention to this little book, which I think is my best Winter Tourist friend. It took me a long time to get on the right road; but I am living up to my little book

We do not hear much about the boys from home that were your own sons and brothers, to fight joying good health and having a the common foe of all. I made no good time. The longer they stav in the army the better they fares. will like it' They can go to church and Sunday school every ture generations those great principles week. They have all kinds of reading material; in other words it is a pleasure to be in the army your intimate companion. IF IT always a promotion for the boys who try.

As it is about drill time and I want to be the first to fall in line

Truly yours, James Byford, Co. A. 149th V. S. Inft. Camp Hattiesburg, Miss. Shelby,

AS WE GROW OLD

Marion People Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of life. Is hard on the kidneys, and in later

The kidneys call for help.

Urinary ills frequently add their weight of woe.

Give the help the kidneys need. Aid the kidneys with Doan's Kidney

T. C. Guess, E. Depot St., Marion, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a splendid remedy for kidney weakness. For a long time I have been subject to backaches and at these times, my back is stiff and sore The kidney secretions pass too frequently so that I can hardly get any sleep at night. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Haynes & Taylor's drug store, never fail to give me relief and I 1917 wouldn't be without them. I think they are a fine medicine for old peo-

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy-get Doan's Kidney Pills-the same that Mr. Guess used. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sigshee Lowery received word recently about his father David Into service and 2,796 white men ents, sisters, and brother, who Cook, and Gladys Graves.

in the yard and called for some Witches scene from Macbeth, one to open the door and let him "Up to Date," Witches-Miss- Lovers of amusment must not service?" Two frame business houses voice, opened the door of his on Main Street, in Salem, home (which was across the large of the same Ky. For particulars, ad- street) and informed Sigsbee Nellie Stone, Vivian Stone, Mil- Going Springs school house, An have no chass legislation. The duty to taln says he is twice the man he was that he was in the wrong yard.

The editor who lived there was asleep and did not hear any of the commosion and did not know any thing about it until the commosion and by the first surrounding each case. In the first surrounding each case, In the Hattlesburg, Miss., Oct., 22, '17 latch string was on the outside well Park Saturday Nov. 3rd. Recitation

York with her daughter Mrs. formation to his where abouts. We all have a Testament and Galen Dixon and Mr. Dixon, while we are not drilling we are returned home last week.

Tickets

To the South, Southeast and Southwest via has decorated the Sultan with drafted, but hope they are en- ILL!NOIS CENTRAL R. R. at greatly reduced The honors are even, the hero

the most direct line to donors and recipients. - Sun. seriously, put yourself in my position The officers are willing to give Memphis, New Orleans,

> Call on ticket Home Companion. agents I. C. R. R. for tickets and further neighborhood, were guests of friends The Kidneys Should Receive Help. information of Mr. Lamb, of Crayne, attended matical calculations and highly trained write.

> > G. W. Schelke, TPA.

Evansville, Ind.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

Last Friday evening the teachers of the school each re- - W. H. Bigham, Phone 47-2 ceived a tiny card, decorated Our fall meeting is progressing nice with the emblems of Hallowe'en ly. We are having some fine sermons | Japan; his emmissaries have blown u bearing the following:

Where bogeys and bogles and ple up. spooks will be seen, one "clean" out of sight. mystical night.

School Auditorium, Oct., 31st

Friday morning is "Surpise vous Day" in chapel each week, and PILLS. They renew the normal viso make life worth living. Because of the pills. Proable surprises were given by Mott's Nerverine Pills ? pupils of the fourth and sixth williams MFG. CO Props., Clavelevs, Oblo grades. A splendid "Surprise Booster Program" was given by the girls of the High School included in Kentucky's first draft ening up his new home on names were omited from the tered to the wants of our daughof 14,236 men. None of the Walker street and came in one High School Honor Roll-Glena ter. Lockie Hillyard during her negroes have yet been called night recently to visit his par-

> Miss Forest Hammock. Duet- Mrs. W. K. Powell. He dismounted from his steed Messrs. Billy Joe and Ray Foster and hitched to one of the trees "The Black Cat," Zula Threlkeld but Sigsbee didn't get hold of it. The Patriotic Rahy at the Music School Auditorium Wednesday Recitation night was well attended.

----CORN WANTED.

Marion Milling Co. Incorporated.

Reward Offered

Having lost my Bird Dog, a Jas. H. Orme

As Une Murderer To Another.

The Sultan of Turkey has graciously conferred on the German Kaiser the diamond star of the Iftichar Order, Turkey's highest war decoration, and the Kaiser the star and chain of the Hohenzollern Order with diamonds.

of the Belgian and Lusitania have been waiting for you." murders honors and is honored Good returning up to by the hero of Armenian mas- Uncle Dan. "Your mother has been perpetuate and hand down to the fu- Sunday and to the show twice a and including June 1st., sacres. No one will question the telling me how bashful I used to be. 1918. Illinois Central is respective fitness of the mutual minded her of the time your father deserving of the honors or the

> We shall come out of the war and the South and South a poorer people, a more solemn want to talk more about the war, do west and affords the people, but a people that have you? Well, war methods have underlearned in the hardest school in changing. No two wars are fought most convenient sched- the world the lessons of dis- alike. In early times, the weapons were cipline, and of fregality and stones, clubs, spears, bows and arrows, seif-denial and thrift. - Woman's swords, etc. In this kind of warfare,

CHAPEL HILL

George Conditt and wife, of Dean's and relatives here recently.

Bro. Lamb.

Miss Nelle Pogue, of Frances, is the Miley Hill left a few days ago for

We'll show you a good time, Arkansas Miley is a bright boy and is that he is crazy. is well-liked by those who know him So join us at eight, on that We wish him success wherever he

W. henyou feel can

Card of Thanks.

in honor of the Football Team. To the many friends who extend-A. Lowery painting and bright- By mistake the following ed their sympathy and minis- Lord help the kalser!" every means in their power to alleviate her pain, we hereby shipping by the German submarines, Pie And Box Supper.

in. His father recognized his es Reed. Minner, Paris, May, fail to come to the pie and box "No. a thousand times no," said Un- and Uncle Sain took him in charge

Auc ion sale of boxes. A good time is promised all who come. - Iva Bigham.

> C. S. NUNN Attorney of Law MARION, KENTUCKY Post Office Building.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Three

How War Methods Have Changed Everybody Must Help.

"Hello, Uncle Dan, Jimmie and I

"Sorry if I have kept you long," said she said if a girl spoke to me I would first came to see her and the joke we played on them, so I guess that will bold her for a while."

Continuing, Uncle Dan said: "You victory was with the strong right arm. Men of enormous size and strength were the great warriors. The invention of gunpowder, however, has changed all this. It has enabled men to kill one another at a considerable distance, and do it wholesale. The war, as we know it now, is a combination of chemicals, machinery, mathe church here Sunday. Come again, men. Just think of it! Airplanes, submarines, armored tanks, or caterpillars, poison gases, and curtains of friend who employs hundreds of young fire are all used for the first time in men. He always gives boys having

"The methods followed by the be-or honor. The most charitable view

"One thing is certain," continued Uncle Dan, with great emphasis, "Our liberty, the safety of our homes and our country, and the security of the world demand the speedy and absolute overthrow of the kaiser and crushing out once and forever the sign you need MOTT'S NERVERINE reign of Prussian brutality."

"How about the German people," said Billie.

Uncle Dan replied: "The splendid German people were happy, thrifty, prosperous and contented. They have been tricked into war and made to suffer the tortures of the damned: they have been cruelly and systematically deceived. God grant that the real facts may get to them, and if they do,

"Of course the allies will win," said to provide for men subsequently to himself, 'Dad has sure fixed lows: Girls Quartet - Misses and better world is the wish of our against hunger. It has been said

Mrs. Graham interrupted by saying: "In view of the importance of farming, has a discouraged look; he has seen

ers ought to be exempted from war

Everet: Terry
Wiefield Lamb
Wi Eva Lancia prompt action.

Joke Paper ... Everett Cook a country, and it is our highest duty and the individual to preserve it unimpaired and pass it better man for the country. on to posterity, no matter what the "If the Chamberlain Bill for Mülancestors came from all parts of the It is the daty of everyone to stand squarely back of our country and he bill." he prepared to defend the flag. Every one in this crisis is either pre-Ameri | will see Judge Brown,eff, Mr. Buckett, era or pro-German. Great as the cotry is, there is not room enough for

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Two

Jimmie Collins Tells What He Saw-What Military Training Does

for Boys. "Well, here we are!" exclaimed Bitlle, presenting his chum, Jimmie Collins. "Very glad to see you, Mr. Collins," said Uncle Dan with a smile.

"Aw," said Billie, "Just call him Jimmie. That's the only name he knows. He's the pitcher of our baseball nine, and he's some pitcher, too. Just feel of his arm."

"Well," said Uncle Dan, feeting, "That's a mighty good arm!" "Now, boys," said Uncle Dan, "what do you want to talk about?" "Well," said Jimmie, "I was down to Galesburg a few months ago when the boys came home from the Mexican border. They looked fine. Everybody was surprised to see how straight they stood and how manly they were. The boys seemed proud to wear the uniform. I tell you their muscles were as say that the training and discipline the boys had had was exactly what every boy in the country ought to have, and that now these boys could get a better job at higher pay than they could have had before, think that's so, Uncle Dan?"

Uncle Dan replied: "I have a young man. The first was taken the day he enlisted and the second after

"Billie, if you will go up to my room and bring my small bundbag, I will the Mexican border did for him." story and it is a mighty interesting one. The young man, before training don't you think, Daniel, that the farm- but little of the world. There was very little in his surroundings to brin. him out. When he loined the colors

I. W. Jensins do it fairly. Safety now and safety its boys military training. It is com Hughie Simpson do it fairly, safety now he legislation, but forceafter demands such legislation, but forceafter that it is the duty of everyone to help demands and legislation, but forceafter demands such legislation, but forceafter demands such legislation, but forceafter demands such legislation. Percy Lam | friends get busy with your congress | fend his country; and as war is now Franklin Simpson man and senators and urge them to carried on, no one can do much unless CORN WANIED.

Debate—"Busics Are Bless.
We are in the market for ings"—Aff., Wm. So e and shacked e.r., at Charles Terry. Nex., Ed Stone only due to the loyalty, sacrifice and protect themselves. By this plan a second with the great country of ours costs occurs of blood and treasure and it is configurately appeared to the loyalty, sacrifice and protect themselves. By this plan a configuration has trained man to defend by protect themselves. By this plan a configuration has trained man to defend by service of our forefathers that we have nation has trained men to defend he > cost may be. Our citizenship and their tary Training is passed by congress, ancestors came from all parts of the world to make this country a hore and order its blooming and order its bloomi and enjoy its blessings and opports | men throughout the land. Everybody nities; hence, in the crisis before va ought to demand of his congressman and senators the passage of this > > and Professor Flocura, and go. 11. 3