WAR TALKS BY UNCLE DAN

It was a severe closing, as the sun set, in the spreading shadows of the great island of Wake, which is known as Wake Island, in the great Pacific, where there is a garrison of our people. Our people have been fighting there, and when the sun set, the shadow of Wake Island was spread out over the Pacific Ocean. This is a statement of the situation, as it was reported to me.

THE LIBERTY BOND

By N. WALTER KAVITTIC

A Liberty bond is a bond issued by the United States Government to finance the war effort.

A bond is a financial instrument that represents an investment in a company or government. It is essentially a loan made to the issuer of the bond in exchange for a fixed income return, with the issuer committing to repay the principal amount at a specified future date.

A Liberty bond is a specific type of bond issued during World War II to finance the war effort. These bonds were sold to the public to raise funds for the war effort and to support the buying of war materials.

The sale of Liberty bonds was a patriotic duty and a way for individuals to contribute to the war effort. The bonds were sold at various denominations, and the proceeds were used to purchase war materials such as aircraft, tanks, and ships.

KENTUCKY WOMEN PREPARE FOR WAR

Thousands of women in the state have organized various clubs and have threatened to vote if women's suffrage is not granted. The most prominent of these clubs is the Woman's Suffrage Alliance, which has organized in several counties. The alliance is supported by many leading men, who are convinced that the granting of woman suffrage will be a great blessing to the state. The alliance is working hard to persuade women to vote for women's suffrage. They believe that women are capable of making better decisions than men and that they should be given the right to vote. The alliance is also working to organize women in other states and to encourage them to vote for woman suffrage.

CRITTENDEN COUNTY.

By Lucius Hart.

My name is written in the history of this land going back to the days when it was the land of the Indians. The old timers tell me that the first white man that was here was a Spaniard named Don Carlos de la Bois on the Red River. He built a house and a fort at the mouth of the river and then went back to Mexico. The land he had was the choice of the Spaniards and the English.

There were many stories told of the brave and cunning Indians who lived in this country. They had many enemies and many friends. The white man came and took their land and forced them to move west. They fought bravely and bravely they died. The victory was theirs.

The land that is now Crittenden County was once the land of the Indians. The land that is now Crittenden County was once the land of the Spanish. The land that is now Crittenden County was once the land of the English. The land that is now Crittenden County was once the land of the Indians.
