THE GREATEST ICE GORGE

Ever Known On The Ohio River.
Barnett Estate And Charles
Donakey Heavy Losers.

The river at Rosiclare rose 25 feet Friday night as a result of a great gorge which formed there in the afternoon. The people of Rosiclare and Fairview were greatly alarmed and fled to the high places, and every one was quickly hoisted from the mines. The gorge broke how ever without over flowing the Illinois towns and mines, but not until it had created great havoc on this side. Barnett's lower farm occupied by Charles Donakey suffered the loss of 65 or more head of cattle and many acres of corn and much valuable timber. The water was twenty five feet deep Saturday morning, where the cattle were feeding the evening before.

The ice cakes washed out into the fields were acres in extent and as big as houses. Giant trees were cut off as by a mowing machine. On account of the terrific weather the corn had not been gathered and in order to save it the cattle and hogs had been turned into it, no one ever thought or heard of such a gorge or so precipitate a flood. The Owensboro, Ky., wharf boat floated over into Barnetts corn field and is still lodged there.

An Agreeable Surprise Party.

On Monday evening, Feb. 11th while Mrs. Harlan was sitting around the fire, reading to her little son, and while Rev. Samuel E. Harlan, the new Pastor of the Christian Church, was calling on his next door neighbor, the members of his congregation made real the Fairy Story that she was reading.

Bundles and baskets of all manner of good things to eat were deposited on the dining room table. In an instant, the house was well lighted and merry games were going. Every one enjoyed themselves seemingly as much as though this had been planned for three weeks.

Every one present contributed to the delight of the entire party. We felt that the time was all too quickly spent. After a happy "good-night," they left Mr. and Mrs. Harlan feeling that it must be "The Night Before Christmas," and that it is good to have their lot cast with such fine people. Those present were:

Mrs. Cavender, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Finley, Miss Anna Lue Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Mick, Mrs. Spees, Mrs. Croft, Mrs. W. V. Haynes, Mrs. Tom Evans, Mrs. Elaine Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Miss Mary Lou Wilborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nimmo, Mr. William Sullenger, Mr. Jim Sullenger, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Broner and sons, Joe Nimmo, Freeman Elder, Mr. J. R. Sowders, Miss Zilpah Hughes and Miss Bertha Graves.

McAdoo Annuls Railroad Passes

Legislative and political agents and all attorneys not engaged in the performance of necessary legal work are ordered by Director General McAdoo to be dropped from the payrolls of the railroads. The law regulating free passes is also to be strictly observed. Thousands of dollars are expected to be saved as a result of this first economy.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

It Was A Delightful Affair. Well
Planned And Splendidly
Executed.

Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, there assembled in the main auditorium of the Methodist Church an audience of some 200 representative citizens of this city, half of them were men, and the other half boys, and they awaited the music of the Marion Orchestra which was the signal for them to march in pairs. (Father and Son) to the Banquet Hall, where a most tempting menu was served, and where many anecdotes of youth were related, and some splendid talks were made, which, could not but help the boys there, big, little, and young. This pleasant communing of kindred spirits, for we are all only boys after all, was the result of a proclamation made by our enterprising and big hearted Mayor, J. Frank Dodge, who like all good men, loves all the boys, and was given under the auspices of the local Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. Associations. The following was the program.

"Toast Master." Mayor Dodge,
"Invocation" Rev. Renfro
"America" Audience
"My funniest experience when a boy." Responded to by Chas. Hina, Will Cannan, Rev. Price, Dr. Frazer, Mayor Dodge and others.

The Marion High School Orchestra which delightful furnished music at intervals is composed now of the following pupils under the direction of Miss Lucile Pope musical director of the Marion High School, they were loudly applauded after each number. Harry Moore, Nellie Stone, Russell Moss, Elizabeth Cook, Melba Williams, Eva Yates, Dorothy Dean, Hubert Orider, M. Y. Nunn

The male Quartette composed of W. J. Foster, G. W. Yates, L. E. and Neal Guess, sang some favorite and familiar songs, and were called back after each one. "If I were a boy" was ably handled by County Attorney Moore.

"The Son Worth While" was indeed a sermon well delivered by Judge Blue.

"The kind of a dad a boy likes" was a most interesting paper read by Harry Moore. "Our boys who are now under the colors in the army and navy" was feelingly discussed by Judge Henderson.

"Little Brother to Big Brother." Dialogue by George Newman McAdams and Rev. Harlan, they were enthusiastically cheered at the close.

"The parable of the prodigal father" was recited by M. Y. Nunn and no doubt brought pangs to the conscience of many present.

The benediction by Rev. T. C. Newman closed one of the pleasantest social gatherings we ever knew of. Thanks are due to Prof. Christian and Franklin and to the ladies of all the churches, who ably directed by Mrs. W. J. Deboe, served the following tempting menu in three courses during the evening.

Baked chicken, with dressing, creamed white potatoes, French peas butter sauce, bread, butter and coffee, apple salad, cherry, apple and coconut pie.

PATROL AMBUSHED IN NO MAN'S LAND

ONE AMERICAN IS KILLED AND FIVE ARE WOUNDED IN THE ENGAGEMENT.

GERMANS HAD LAID A TRAP

One Survivor Wounded in the Chest
Unable to Talk—Encounter Occurred in Isolated Spot and Details Are Meager.

With the American Army in France. One American artilleryman was killed and five artillerymen were wounded Saturday night by shell fire when an American patrol was ambushed in No Man's Land by a superior force of Germans.

The Americans sprinkled the enemy trenches with shrapnel all during the day. There was considerable patrol activity, but no further clashes were reported.

The spot where the encounter occurred is an isolated one and reports concerning the casualties inflicted by both sides are meager.

Only one American is known to have escaped the trap of the Germans, which was laid in front of our wires. One survivor, who crawled back to the American lines with a bullet in his chest, is unable to talk.

Our artillery immediately laid a barrage around the ambushing Germans and some are believed to have been accounted for. The infantry accounted for others, as it is certain the attacking patrol fought to a finish, according to information trickling in from the front line.

Our patrolling soldiers were working in front of our wire entanglements when a big enemy patrol that had been divided into parties which took up concealed positions opened fire at close range. The night was clear and the forms of the Americans made the best possible targets for the hidden Germans. There is no doubt but that the Americans battled gallantly until completely overpowered.

GAINS MANY NEW MEMBERS

Red Cross Adds Approximately Seventeen and One-Half Million in Recent Big Drive.

Washington.—Figures now available on the Red Cross Christmas membership drive show a total enrollment of 23,475,000, or 22 per cent of the population of the United States.

Of this total the Red Cross had about 6,000,000 members before the Christmas drive started, so that the gain from the drive was approximately 17,475,000 new members. The central division, of which Chicago is the headquarters, leads the other twelve divisions of the country in the number of new members enrolled Christmas week.

By divisions, the gains were as follows: Atlantic, 2,800,000; Central, 3,600,000; Gulf, 384,000; Lake, 2,300,000; Mountain, 276,000; New England, 670,000; Northern, 658,000; Northwestern, 693,000; Pacific, 327,000; Pennsylvania, 1,600,000; Potomac, 250,000; Southern, 670,000; Southwestern, 3,250,000.

From the fourteenth division comprising all of the territorial insular and foreign possessions of the United States the new members added numbered 48,000.

Unprecedentedly unfavorable weather prevailed during the drive so that the showing is considered exceptionally good. These figures are not expected to change the foregoing estimates to any considerable extent.

One of the chief benefits anticipated from the enlarged membership is the addition of thousands of active workers to Red Cross chapters where supplies are being prepared for our army and navy and the military forces and civilian populations of the allies.

HOLD JOBS FOR EMPLOYEES

Senator McKellar Introduces Bill Retaining on Eligible Rolls Enlisting Employees.

Washington.—The first bill to care for government employees whose enlistment has added another star to the service flag of some branch of the nation's forces was introduced in the senate by Senator McKellar of Tennessee, provided that any soldier or sailor who leaves the government service and enlists or accepts a commission in the army or navy within six months after leaving the government employ shall be retained on the eligible rolls and restored to his old position after he leaves the army or navy, provided he is still able to do any part of the work upon which he was originally engaged.

The committee on military affairs of which Mr. McKellar is a member, and the civil service retirement committee, of which he is chairman, are both favorable to the passage of such a measure.

Rintelen Is Guilty.
New York.—Franz von Rintelen, German naval officer and a reputed member of the German war staff, was found guilty with 10 other defendants in federal court here of conspiracy to destroy food and munitions ships of the entente allies by placing "fire bombs" in their cargoes.

AMERICAN AVIATORS RAID GERMAN TOWN

AMERICAN OBSERVER WITH
FRENCH PILOT DROPS BOMBS
ON MANNHEIM.

ANOTHER BOMBS BALLOON

Third American Flies Low and Turns
Machine Gun on the Germans—
German Plane Is Brought Down.

New York.—The World prints a special from the American front in France stating that for several days American observers flying with the French pending the arrival of American pilots on the American front, have had some thrilling experiences. One of the observers participated in the recent French raid on Mannheim on the Rhine, which was the first time an American has helped bomb a German city.

Another flew among the German trenches opposite our lines at a height of a few hundred feet, seeking a chance to spatter bullets on German infantrymen. He was hindered by misty weather, and the Germans kept out of reach in their bunkers, so he got no chance to shoot before enemy "archies" forced his French pilot to climb out of the way of the shrapnel.

One reckless youth tackled a German sausage balloon and actually obliged it to return to its nest on the ground, although this is a job generally reserved for the best scout machines. When an American observer is aloft he is in command of the airplane and can direct the pilot to go where he wishes.

Participating for the first time in a night bombing raid, a young second lieutenant of coast artillery temporarily assigned to a French air squadron as an observer, shot down an enemy plane far behind the German lines. The destruction of the German craft, which was one of the battle fleet sent over to prevent French bombers from getting back home, was attested by several pilots who witnessed the fight. The lieutenant thus achieved the distinction of being the first American observer to bring down an aerial adversary. It was not only his initial trip into German territory at night, but the first time he had used a machine gun from an airship winging its way back to its own lines from a successful bombardment of certain German military establishments.

POUR SHELLS OVER HUNS

American Tactics Anger German Artillery—Enemy Batteries Silenced by U. S. Guns.

With the American Army in France. The American artillery is keeping up a harassing fire on the German lines, bombarding batteries, trenches, crossroads, dugouts, light railways and houses in which enemy troops are billeted.

Evidently the American tactics angered the Germans, for they started a vigorous shelling of our batteries with 77's, the firing stopping only when the American heavy guns silenced the German artillery.

Observers saw a body of enemy infantry, estimated at two battalions, near a forest. A heavy fire was directed on the spot, scattering the Germans. It is felt certain that the enemy sustained numerous casualties. Later American shells started a fire in a German town, which burned for an hour.

American artillery and infantry have succeeded in cleaning out a majority of the snipers who caused considerable annoyance since the sector was occupied.

Snipers' posts in buildings have been destroyed by knocking down the shelters over the heads of the Germans with shells. Snipers, hidden in bushes or shell holes, have been routed by American sharpshooters. Night patrols have succeeded in locating some of the positions and the Germans in them have been finished off later.

FRANCIS NOT EXPELLED.

Message Received From American Ambassador at Petrograd.

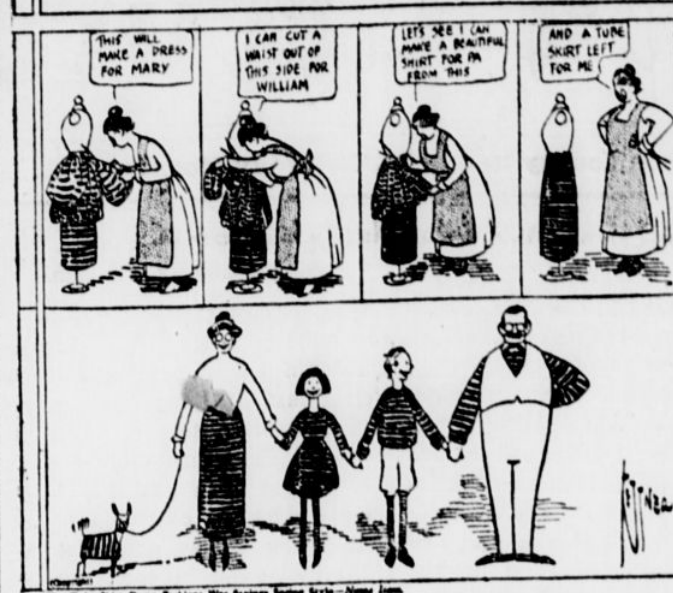

Washington.—All fear that Ambassador Francis might have been expelled from Petrograd by the Bolsheviks was dispelled by the receipt of a cablegram from the ambassador dated February 5. The rumor that he and other diplomats were being sent out of the country began to circulate prior to that date. In his message the ambassador made no reference to any conflict with the Petrograd authorities.

TOWN IS TERRORIZED.

Chihuahua City Residents Fear Streets After Nightfall.

Juarez, Mexico.—Conditions have grown so bad in Chihuahua City few venture from their homes after dark, report passengers arriving here. Robberies and murders occur almost nightly and there is an organized league which has terrorized one section of the city until all the police and gendarmes in that district have resigned for fear of them.

War Savings Spring Style

TUSCANIA DEATH TOLL NOW PLACED AT 145

THE BODIES OF 126 AMERICAN TROOPS HAVE BEEN RECOVERED.

TROOPS CONDUCT PRAISED

London.—The British admiralty informed the Associated Press that the latest figures available on the Tuscania disaster showed that 2,235 persons had been saved and that about 145 were missing.

The saved, it was added, included 113 American officers and 1,917 men, 16 officers and 183 men of the crew and six passengers. The bodies of 126 American troops have been recovered. Of the 145 survivors landed on the Scottish coast, 134 belonged to the United States army, including seven officers. Of these one officer and 25 men are remaining where they landed to attend to the funeral arrangements for the American dead.

How American soldiers behaved when they found that the boats assigned to them on the Tuscania had been smashed is told by an American officer who landed at an Irish port. The officer said his men behaved as he had expected them to. Two full boat loads under his command assembled on the deck when the torpedo struck the liner and marched to the boats assigned them. Arriving at their station, they found that both boats had been destroyed.

"The men lined up on deck at attention," said the officer, "and all preserved the utmost composure until a destroyer came alongside and effected the transfer from the gradually sinking deck."

"We stood alongside until the last man was taken off, who, as might be expected, was the commander of the ship. The patients in the ship's hospital, including several cases of scarlatina and fever, were among the first taken off."

Submarine Was Also Sunk.

Londonderry, Ireland.—The submarine which torpedoed the Tuscania was attacked by a destroyer. An American officer gave an intimation that the submarine was destroyed. This officer was one of the last to leave the Tuscania. The second torpedo fired by the submarine missed its mark, he said. Thereupon a destroyer, which was near behind the liner, dashed off toward the submarine, using a bomb-dropping device. The claim is made that the submarine was "done in" by the bombs thus exploded.

HEATLESS MONDAYS CEASE

The Monday Closing Order All Over the United States May Be Revoked.

Washington.—With the abandonment of heatless Monday throughout all the states south of Virginia, fuel administration officials were hopeful that continued warmer weather and improvement in railroad traffic would permit relaxation of the order all over the United States.

The states affected by the order revoking "heatless" Mondays are North and South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. First section of the closing order establishing a preferential list in coal distribution, and the section providing a penalty for non-compliance will continue in force.

It was announced also that in all other states in which the order is still operative fuel may be furnished on future Mondays to heat and light lofts and workshops occupied by the members of the International Allied Garment Workers' union.

Punish Grocer.

Washington.—Suspension of his license for 24 hours was imposed by the food administration on Philip Applebaum, New York grocer, charged with asking extortionate prices for sugar.

Hoozier Reformatory Burns.

Jeffersonville, Ind.—Five of the 13 buildings in the group comprising the Indiana State Reformatory were destroyed by fire here entailing an estimated loss of $1,000,000.

ENDS GREEK MUTINY.

Former Premier Skouloudis and Others Under Arrest.

London.—Complete order has been restored at Lamia, northwest of Athens, where soldiers of Greek infantry regiments mutinied, according to an Athens dispatch. Former Premier Skouloudis and Lambros and other former cabinet members under impeachment, have been ordered to consider themselves under arrest in their own homes, where they are watched closely by police.

LABOR IS NEEDED BY MANAGER PIEZ

EMERGENCY SHIPPING BOARD
NEEDS 60,000 WORKMEN IN
SHIPYARDS AT ONCE

TO RUN THREE SHIFTS A DAY

Native Born American Workmen
Have Not Responded to Appeal
To Build Ships—Quarter Million Mechanics Needed.

Washington.—Responsibility for success or failure of the government's shipbuilding program was put on labor by Charles Piez, vice-president and general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, in an appeal for shipyard workers.

"The shipping board has necessary yards, material and money," he said, "all that is lacking is a spirit in the nation that will send a quarter of a million American mechanics into the yards to give the best and most efficient work."

The fact that shipyards are working only one shift six days a week was characterized by Mr. Piez as "monstrous."

"If we are to keep ahead of the submarine campaign," said he, "we must run three shifts a day, 52 weeks in the year."

Mr. Piez's statement continues: "Within 60 days huge government yards will be completed, and soon more than 60,000 workmen will be required to furnish the three eight-hour shifts necessary. The shipping board now has 116 shipways, 302 for wooden ships and 414 for steel construction."

"Our program calls for the construction in 1918 of eight times the tonnage delivered in 1916 at a cost of more than $1,000,000,000."

"I am sorry to say at the present time the native-born American workman is not the mainstay of the shipyard, for he is there only to the extent of 35 per cent of the men employed, and to the extent of 65 per cent we are forced to depend on foreign-born labor."

"We all honor the men in uniform and the same honor must be given to the men who go to work in the yards. Just as the navy is the first line of the British empire, and just as Germany depends upon her submarines, so must America depend for victory upon the shipbuilders in the American yards. To the women of America I say: 'Send your men to the shipyards, for they will be doing there no less a service than in the army or the navy and they will be returned to you safe and well paid, after having performed a duty that is a primal necessity of this war.'"

WILL MAKE U. S. MORE EAGER

London Papers Commenting on Disaster, Believe Sinking Will Prove Harmful to Germans.

London.—That the sinking of the Tuscania will stimulate the United States to even greater resolve and sterner efforts on behalf of the fight for democracy is the opinion generally expressed by morning newspapers. Satisfaction is expressed and congratulations extended that this, the first disaster to many American transports, shows the emptiness of the German boast that the submarines would render the transportation of the American armies impossible and would intimidate the Americans.

ROOSEVELT RESTING EASY

Ex-President Has Abscess Removed Which Has Bothered Him for Twenty Years.

New York.—Theodore Roosevelt's condition is reported as splendid. The former president, whose operation for an abscess a few days ago was made public after his removal from his Oyster Bay home, is resting comfortably and it was predicted he would be out within a few days.

The abscess developed from a fever contracted during the Spanish-American war, becoming malignant on his Brazilian journey, has since troubled him. It was said the operation would effect a permanent cure.

Troops Healthier.

Washington.—Health conditions at all camps and cantonments in the United States showed continued improvement in the last week with decreasing death and hospital admission rates. The measles epidemic is generally declining and pneumonia shows a decreasing ratio. There was a marked decrease in the number of new cases of meningitis.

WILL NUMBER EACH MAN.

Washington.—To insure prompt identification of enlisted men of the army who may be killed or wounded, a numbered tag system similar to that in the British and French armies has been adopted by the war department. Adj. Gen. McCain announces that a number will be stamped on the metal identification tag each soldier is required to wear and that a similar number will be placed opposite the man's name in the war department roster.

WASH THE KIDNEYS!

All the blood in the body passes thru the kidneys every few minutes. This is why the kidneys play such an important role in health or disease. By some mysterious process the kidney selects what ought to come out of the blood and takes it out. If the kidneys are not good-workmen and become congested—poisons accumulate and we suffer from backache, headache, lumbago, rheumatism or gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed at night. So it is that Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., advises "Washing the Kidneys," by drinking six to eight glasses of water between meals and then if you want to take a harmless medicine that will clear the channels and cure the annoying symptoms, go to your drugstore and get Anrilic (double strength), for Dr. N. ## HANDBOOK BETS BILL POSTPONED

BOLON FAILS TO HAVE MEASURE PLACED IN LINE FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION.

ACT WOULD PERMIT BOXING

Contests to Be Legalized in Kentucky Under Proposed Act Introduced in the House—Tax Measure Is Made Special Order of Business.

—Frankfort.

Charging that the members of the house were aiding the gamblers of Kentucky by postponing the passage of his bill to prohibit handbooks, Representative John T. Murphy, of Covington, was defeated in his effort to take his anti-handbook bill out of the orders of the day and put it on its passage. Representatives Hudson, Spurrier and Meyers protested against Representative Murphy's proceeding on the ground that it would be a dangerous precedent to begin making special orders of bills now in the orders of the day. This argument was answered by Representative Murphy that the house had been considering a bill that had been taken from the orders of the day and made a special order.

Representative Rodcliffe, of Newcastle, introduced a bill permitting boxing contests in this state. The bill does not repeal the statutes prohibiting prize fighting.

The bill of Representative Arch L. Hamilton to levy tax of 40 cents on the $100 for state purposes, 15 cents for general expenses, 18 cents for the common schools, 1 cent for the sinking fund, 14 cents for the State University, five-eighths of a cent each for the two state normal schools, and 3 cents for the state road fund, was the special order of business.

The Frost amendment was introduced by Representative Phelps, and it provided 19 cents for the common schools, 3½ cents for the state road funds, and deducting $50,000 annually from the State University and $25,000 each from the two state normal schools. The amendment occasioned a lengthy debate and was lost by the vote of 36 to 52.

The amendment of Representative Musick to take 1 cent from the general purpose fund and add it to the common school fund was defeated without a roll call.

Representative John T. Murphy, of Covington, introduced a bill to provide two assistant attorney generals and a law clerk and to prohibit the employment of more legal assistants in that department. The bill increases the salary of the attorney general to $5,000 a year.

A bill to place the policemen and firemen of cities of the first, second and third classes of Kentucky under a state civil service board, at which the state fire marshal shall be the head, was introduced by Representative Harry J. Meyers, of Covington.

A new judicial district, comprising Breathitt and Lee counties, to be numbered as the Thirty-seventh Judicial District, is a bill offered by Representative R. C. Musick.

Representative Klair introduced a bill giving the state fire marshal authority to compel municipalities to establish better fire protections.

A new job, the superintendent of the state prison farms, is provided for in the bill of Representative Winn. The job pays $1,500 a year and traveling expenses.

The budget bill of Senator Harlan was referred back to the committee on revenue and taxation after several hours' consideration and debate, during which Senator Clem Nunn, a former member of the appellate bench, attacked the constitutionality of the measure.

The house bill of Representative A. J. Oliver, to appropriate $50,000 annually to the state tax commission, passed the senate, 25 to 4.

Ask For New Dog Tax.

Kentucky's sheep and cattle and swine breeders and feeders are saying to Kentucky's General Assembly: "If you will protect our flocks and herds from destruction by dogs we will increase the wealth of the state by sheep alone $16,000,000 within a year from the date an adequate dog law is enacted."

"We live stock men frame what we thought was a very reasonable bill," said Mr. Well, one of Kentucky's ablest and best posted live stock men. "We do not ask for the destruction or the excessive taxation of dogs. We are merely asking that dogs be restrained from the destruction of sheep; that the owner of the dog be required to keep his dog on his own premises; that a tax sufficient to make it worth while in each county to see that the law is enforced and to indemnify the owners of sheep for any that may be destroyed be imposed; that the number of dogs to be maintained in the state be limited to the useful breeds, and that the worthless cur be cast off."

"Kentucky now has within her boundaries only 411,000 sheep. It is not because sheep are not profitable under normal conditions that there are in this state so few of them, for we know that at the present price for mutton and wool a profit of $16 per sheep can be made. There are unoccupied lands in the mountains of Kentucky, unoccupied in a sheep-breeding sense, that would produce the hardiest, most desirable of breeding ewes in such abundance that Kentucky soon would have the people coming in droves from the plains states for their stock. It would produce such ewes as could readily be sold for $15 each after shearing time.

"I say it without fear of successful contradiction that within a year after we secure a law that will guarantee the land owner and the farmer who operates the land of others on rental or shares there shall be reasonable protection from the devastation of flocks by dogs, that the sheep census in Kentucky will be greater by 1,000,000 than it is today.

"Aside from the wool, think of the increased production of excellent meat, and do you know that we are facing a meat famine in this country as certainly as we are living to talk about it, unless we do something practical and swift to avert it. Yes, sir, there is an appalling shortage of beef cattle in the country, as well as of sheep and hogs."

A delegation of live stock men were in Frankfort to meet with Governor Stanley, Attorney General Morris, Chairman Logan, of the State Tax Commission, and others relative to the proposed law.

Legislation Taking Form.

After three weeks of the 1918 session of the General Assembly the general character of legislation proposed is taking form. There are fewer than usual measures of a local nature and more tendency toward the enactment of programs of legislation.

For instance, there is the revenue and taxation suite. First is the proposed budget system, by which the General Assembly every two years will have laid before it the expenses of all departments since the last session and an estimate for the ensuing biennium and will make all appropriations for that period with a knowledge of departmental needs and prospective revenues.

The appointment or the election of county tax commissioners, instead of assessors, qualified by examination under the State Tax Commission, and eligible for more than one term; an increase in their pay and a change in the time of making assessments to July 1, giving them two months longer to do their work thoroughly, are all of a piece with the general reformation of the state's fiscal policy.

The educational suit has as its purpose increasing the pay and standard of teachers. It begins with the county superintendent, placing educational qualifications on him and increasing his pay and requiring him to earn it.

The road department plans to protect the roads with wide tires and make it mandatory on a county to maintain up to standard roads built with state aid.

The department of Agriculture is planning a bill to strengthen the hand of the Live Stock Sanitary Board against live stock diseases in the war emergency, when food stuffs count more than anything else.

For the teacher a reduction of the maximum school age from 20 to 18 years, automatically increases the salary; because the pay of teachers is based partly on the average attendance and young folks over 18 don't go to common schools much.

The Banking Department is devoting its attention to perfecting means whereby State banks can become identified with the Federal Reserve Banks to strengthen the Government's financial facilities.

Few municipal measures are under consideration. Louisville is asking almost nothing; second class city bills affecting Covington, Lexington, Newport and Paducah, include an 80 cent levy allowance for their school boards; regulations concerning railroads paying their proportion to abolish grade crossings, and the disposition of the sinking fund surplus.

The extension of the civil jurisdiction of magistrates in first, second and third class cities to a maximum of $200; an increase in their criminal jurisdiction and authority of county court to try all misdemeanors are provisions of the most numerous of county and district measures.

Bills to make circuit clerks trustees of the jury fund in counties having less than 75,000 population, somewhat in accordance with the suggestion of State Inspector and Examiner Nat B. Sewell some time ago, and to have all testimony in equity proceedings by depositions taken before the master commissioner, also are in committee's hands.

Compensation Board Ruling.

Compensation has been granted to Miss S. Clare, an employee of the Kaufman-Straus Company, Louisville, who was scalded by the overturning of a pot of tea in the company's lunch room at the noon hour.

The insurance company contested the claim on the ground that the injury did not arise out of her employment, but the workmen's compensation board took the opposite side of the case.

In the opinion of C. F. Thomas, the board holds that intervals of leisure such as taken for meals, especially on the master's premises, do not break the continuity of employment.

The board issued a new rule that under Section 4 of the compensation act, if an employee calls a physician to give first aid in any emergency and that physician takes charge of the case and the employer desires to avail himself of his right to select another physician, the employer must notify the employee in writing of his intention to change the physician.

YOU COOK YOUR FOOD—WHY NOT YOUR TOBACCO?

YOU know what broiling does to steak, baking to a potato—and toasting to bread.

In each case flavor is brought out by cooking—by "toasting."

So you can imagine how toasting improves the flavor of the Burley tobacco used in the Lucky Strike Cigarette.

BLUE FLAG ROOT
RHUBARB ROOT
BLACK ROOT
MAY APPLE ROOT

AND PEPSIN

In LAX-FOS the CASCARA is improved by the addition of these digestive ingredients making it better than ordinary CASCARA, and thus the combination acts not only as a stimulating laxative and cathartic but also as a digestive and liver tonic. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

One of the saddest and most pathetic deaths which has ever grieved this community was that of Clyde McConnell, of Nampa, Idaho, which occurred in a hospital at Kansas City, Mo., last Sunday morning, Feb. 10th, at 1:30 o'clock, after a month's illness of erysipelas and bronchial pneumonia. With him when the end came were his wife, his brother, Walter McConnell, of this city; his father-in-law, David Allen, and his brother-in-law, J. W. Allen, of Denver, Colo.; and his friend and neighbor Myrtle McDowell, of Nampa, Idaho, all of whom had hastened to his bedside when they heard he was critically ill.

The remains accompanied by his widow and the relatives named, arrived here Tuesday morning and were taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McConnell, where the funeral was preached Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock by Rev. T. C. Newman, assisted by Rev. W. T. Oakley.

The interment took place at the new cemetery under the auspices of the Woodmen of The World of which he was a member. There were many and beautiful floral offerings, as evidence of the esteem in which the deceased and his family are held here where he was raised and grew to young manhood.

The deceased was born near Deanwood on the Shady Grove road May 20th, 1883, and was therefore in his 35th year.

He professed faith in Christ at Sugar Grove in 1901.

He was married to Miss Ora Allen, daughter of David W. Allen, Sept. 2nd, 1906, and she, with three children survives him. He is also survived by his parents and three brothers, Walter and Marion, of this city, and Charles, of El Paso, Texas, a soldier in the U. S. army. Five sisters survive, they being Mesdames Annie Lemon, of Providence; Florence Handlin and Olive Planary, of this city, and Miss Carrie, of Detroit, Mich.

Clyde McConnell has been living in the west for the past 8 years. He lived one year in Kansas and then moved to Nampa, Idaho, where he owned a good farm and was esteemed highly. He is remembered and greatly beloved here and in the Iron Hill section where he was born, reared and attended school, and many friends will be grieved to hear of his untimely death.

WHILE AT WAR

Women of Ky. Suffer at Home.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.—"I can never thank Dr. Pierce enough for what his medicines has done for me. When my third child came I had nursing sore mouth and was so weak I could hardly walk. My baby also suffered. I got medicine from our family physician but it did me no good; I grew worse instead of better, so almost in despair I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken half a bottle I felt like a different woman and when I had finished taking one bottle I was almost well. I believe I would be in my grave had it not been for this medicine."—MRS. EMMA PEAK, R. R. A, Box 314.

LONGSTREET, KY.—"A few years ago my health failed. I suffered with ulceration, inflammation, heart trouble, hysteria, nervousness and sleeplessness. No tongue can tell how I suffered. I consulted two physicians but neither seemed to do any good. Finally I quit the doctors and sent to Indiana for some medicine, but it also failed to give relief. Then a neighbor advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery, which I did, and soon was able to do my housework. I have forgotten exactly how many bottles I used, but I gained twenty-five pounds. The 'Prescription' is the best remedy in the world for women."—MRS. ELIZA BROWN.

"Favorite Prescription," the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and "Golden Medical Discovery," the great general tonic, are both put up in liquid and tablets, and are to be found in nearly all drug stores. They have enjoyed an immense sale for nearly 50 years, which proves their merits as well as the statements made by users. If not obtainable at your dealer's send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail trial package of either tablets,

FRENCH MAKING A TRENCH RAID IN THE SNOW

The snowfall in France has been unusually heavy and the soldiers in the trenches are experiencing, besides, the rigors of the weather, which in many cases are harder to bear. As this photo shows, the Follies are not letting up on the Boches, despite the snow and the cold. They are making a raid on the enemy trenches over the snow-covered fields in the Oise district. The men in the foreground are evidently trench cleaners.

"COMFORT SPOTS" AND "COZY CORNERS" FOR THE FIGHTERS

"Comfort spots" and "cozy corners" are the by-words of the many church organizations working to make the soldiers fighting on the western front more comfortable when they are sent behind the lines to rest up from their trench duties. Numerous tents with plenty of nice fuzzy blankets to warm up the troops, and wooden huts have been set up, to get the men back into shape and to make them feel at home. These "comfy" spots are situated not a great distance behind the lines, but they are not within the range of gunfire.

HE IS A GERMAN PRISONER OF WAR

Philipp S. Page of Brookline, Mass., with Kopf, a German Red Cross dog captured at Solson. Kopf was trained to carry food and drink to the wounded Germans in No Man's Land and he became a familiar figure to the Follies in the front line trenches. In a recent surprise engagement on a German trench Kopf was found in his kennel and made prisoner. Mr. Page, who has been driving an ambulance on the western front for some time, brought Kopf over on his return to this country.

DR. VAN DYKE A CHAPLAIN

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former United States minister to the Netherlands and one of the most noted literary figures in the country, is now serving as chaplain at the Charlestown, Mass., navy yard. Dr. Van Dyke was appointed by Secretary Daniels and honored with the rank of lieutenant commander. He will visit all the naval stations in the East and hopes to be assigned to a fighting ship. The noted author plans to deliver a short series of sermons to the boys at the various stations.

About Two Tons.

Joseph Conrath makes and repairs violins and other musical instruments, relates the Indianapolis News. The government had him on its list as a manufacturer and sent him one of its formal inquiries as to how much coal he uses annually. In the proper place he wrote down "About two tons." That is really more than he uses, but he disliked to put down the exact truth. His manufacturing is done by hand and though he has to heat his two rooms in a Virginia avenue business block, the floors, ceilings and walls absorb so much heat from rooms below, above, and back of him that his fuel cost is nominal.

HIS LABORS ENDED

People's Acclaim of Washington as Their Hero Journeyed to Annapolis to Lay Down His Sword.

[Poem written for the unveiling of the tablet at Severn Cross Roads, where Washington passed on his way to resign his commission at Annapolis.]

THIS roadside sings again today—
Here where the barren branches sway
And keen December winds sweep by
Beneath a cold and azure sky—
The old road echoes to some tread
Of morning in a vanished hour
When here the red-cheeked courier sped,
And here the young land's pride and flower
Of glory and achievement came
To add fresh glory to his name.

The villages had all come out,
To hear the news, to watch about
To catch some glimpse far up the way
Of Washington—who from the fray,
And from the council and the crest,
Was riding down his sword to lay
Once more upon his country's breast—

While he stepped back to that sweet rest
He yearned for. Yonder sounds a call!
A bugle's note, mayhap the fall
Of horse-hoofs on the old State road—
From every hamlet and abode
Men, women, children, hurry forth:
The wind is sweet, though west by north,
And keen with that sharp chill that comes
When on the hill the partridge drums.

This way they look, this way and that!
They'll know him by his coat and hat;
They've seen his face in pictures, so
There won't be any doubt they'll know;
But deep within their hearts they sigh
They'll know him by his forthright eye,
His noble mien, his lofty frame,
His fitting in with road and sky
As nature fits all great forms in,
And signs the portrait with her name.

The young folk chatter, smile and grin,
The old are prone to be severe.

And stretch each vortice of the ear
To catch that first sharp clicking sound
Of the stage coach thundering on its way,
The hoof-beat on the frozen ground
That knows the kind of tune to play.

Some in small groups together drawn
Wait on the green bench of a lawn,
And these—in some more sequestered place—
The wisdom of his act debate.
One rises who defends the sire
Of his great land, and vows with ire
'Tis only a great man's way, indeed,
To give up lofty place, secede
From honors of such high degree,
Putting ambition aside, and fame,
Upon the altar whence they came—
His country's heart—and stepping down
From all the lure of high renown,
Take his old place in life again,
One with all kindred gentlemen!

Some tell the story of his trip,
While others hark with hanging lip—
That parting at old Frances inn
With those who'd been his aids at war,
Tears in his eyes, and in his heart
That aching that they feel who part
With comrades and with friends
Who've spent
Hours with them in the battlement
Of life, of fate, of hopes and dreams,
And brave adventures long before.
Then to the barge they see him go
At Whitehall Ferry, bowing low
In all that stately form of grace
At each bowed head and tear-stained face.

And then that silent, sweet adieu
At Paulus Hook—sad words and a few,
A silent waving of the hand
Back to his high and faithful band,
Then with his face set hither—strong
In the high purpose he had made
To heed no imploring of the throng
But lay at his country's feet his blade.

And stretch each vortice of the ear
To catch that first sharp clicking sound
Of the stage coach thundering on its way,
The hoof-beat on the frozen ground
That knows the kind of tune to play.

Some in small groups together drawn

And these—in some more sequestered place—

A silent waving of the hand
Back to his high and faithful band,
Then with his face set hither—strong
In the high purpose he had made
To heed no imploring of the throng
But lay at his country's feet his blade.

Then the triumphant jaunt begun—
Those days of journeying in the sun;
The plaudits of a nation's best
Poured round him at each stopping place,
And on the roads from mile to mile
Always some patriot in whose breast
Involute love had left its trace,
Coming to bow by the road he'd take
And kiss the cold ground for his dear sake.

Philadelphian's loud acclaim,
Then Baltimore—her royal bounty
Poured as 'twas never poured before,

By every county seat and county—
To pay due homage to his name,
And give him a welcome at this door
Of Maryland he'd remember long
As life should last or dreams prolong
Their memories in his noble soul.
Then once again the coach wheels roll,
He's coming—down the General's Way!

The old State road is God's today!
God's—and beneath his sparkling sun—
God's and the General Washington!
Ten miles beyond the cross roads lies
The capital; o'er yonder rise
The Severn smiles 'neath azure skies,
Where Indian Landing sleeps beside
The murmuring music of that tide,
Whose song—as light as beauty—cheers
The silencing romance of the years.
He'll pass here soon; and this way rings
The music of the morn'! Had kings
Such love from those they rule as he—
Ah well, what kingdoms we should see!

But he has struck down kings; his sword
Had fought for freedom and the Lord.
And now the cross roads teems with life,
The hour has come, the keen wind's knife
Is cutting under skin and bone,
But who cares for the cold—that lone,
Grave figure shall rewarm each heart!
An echo; see how sharp ears start,
It is the General—hooray!
And down the General's Highway
The yeomen who have seen him pass
Follow in cheering groups—one mass
Of burning and of patriot zeal
To be first followers at his heel.

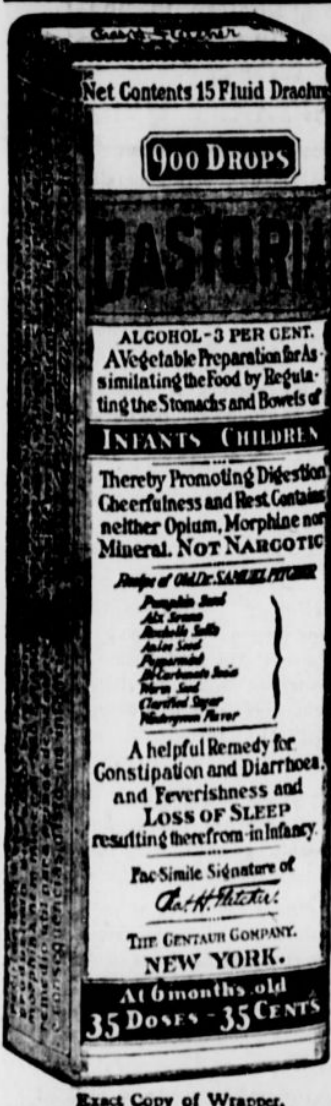

It is the General—hooray!
This roadside sings again today,
This nation sings, its heart still bowed
Before him in those dreams that crowd,
The moving canvas of the years.
There, like a peer among his peers,
The vision looms again, and he
Stands in that room we still may see,
One hand behind his back, and one
Laying that sword his bravery won
Upon the table. A shaft of light
Across the senate chamber steals;
A prelate in the foreground kneels,
A consecrated hour, indeed,
That hour of high, exalted need,
That noble and immortal act—
Its spirit gleaming above its fact,
Its soul of beauty so made one
With the high soul of Washington!

DOLLIE'S CAREER

By MILDRED WHITE.

(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union.)

"Jack," said Dollie suddenly, "has it ever occurred to you that I ought to give serious thought to preparing for my future?"

"Dollie," I answered reproachfully, "how many times have I tried to persuade you to let me care for your future?"

"But I don't want to marry and settle down, like everyone else," Dollie answered impatiently. "I intend to be famous—to have a career. Besides—"

she added—"suppose we did marry—you might die any day, and what would become of me?"

There was no gainsaying this cheerful possibility. "No," she continued firmly, "I must learn to provide for myself, and strictly in confidence, Jack, I do not mind saying that I have decided upon literature as a profession."

"Write novels?" I questioned. "Write stories," said Dollie. "Now, I happen to need a new frock, but unfortunately daddy does not think so. If I should write a story say today—"

Dollie wrinkled her brows—"the editor would get it tomorrow, Tuesday, then if he sent my check Wednesday, it ought to reach me before the latter part of the week, don't you think so?"

"If he sends the check Wednesday," I agreed.

"Well," said Dollie, jumping up and running over to her desk, "keep very quiet like a dear, and I will write the story now, then you may have the privilege of reading it before you go, and may also drop it into the mail box upon your way home."

There was silence for a few moments. I pretended to read while Dollie scribbled furiously. Presently she raised a flushed and troubled face: "Such a horrid, difficult character," Dollie exclaimed petulantly. "Everything she says looks queer on paper, you see, Martha—that is her name—is supposed to be a little country girl living in some far-away, desolate place."

"Under those circumstances," I suggested, "perhaps she doesn't know any better."

"Why, that is so," said Dollie, encouraged, and the pencil flew again. "If—" a small voice remarked a few minutes later—"if one knew positively just how the people talk in that part of the country, one might call their language—dialect."

"Call it any old thing you like," I comforted, "and if the author doesn't know, no one else will."

Dollie looked at me a bit suspiciously, but was soon absorbed in her story. "What is the matter now?" I asked, as a deep frown appeared between her beautiful eyes.

"It is the lady," Dollie complained, "the refined, cultured lady from the city, she is just as impossible as the other one and—I can't make her talk dialect, can I?"

"Dollie," I began soothingly, but was quickly interrupted:

"Jack," she burst out, "I wish you would cease calling me by that ridiculous name, it is very unsuitable."

"Unsuitable!" I cried, and drawing nearer, dared to speak in a manner which is usually silenced by Dollie. I compared her to all the radiant, beautiful things of earth—her eyes were "two violets steeped in dew," her cheeks had stolen their soft pink from the rose petals. Dollie was evidently carried away by my eloquence, for she regarded me long and attentively, with a sweet, dreamy expression that was most encouraging.

"Jack," she asked, as I finally paused for breath, "I have been trying to think, how do you spell apologetically?"

"Good heavens!" I exclaimed, and collapsed in my chair. Dollie's eyes twinkled.

"I forget whether it has one or two I's," she said.

But I sulked on in injured silence; the sound of tearing paper caused me to look up. Dollie was furiously consigning her first literary effort to the flames.

"I am not going to write stories for a living," she announced, "it spoils one's temper."

"But the check for your new dress—" I reminded.

"Oh, well, there are other things," Dollie answered serenely. "I might teach music, for instance."

Immediately she was at the piano running her fingers up and down the keys. "I believe," she said over her shoulder, "that I shall only take mere pupils, you see, they are not so critical as women, a man would sit beside me on this bench for instance, exactly as the book directs."

"No doubt of it," I answered sulkenly.

"Dorothy Dart, Teacher of Music for Young Men Only," Dollie quoted musingly, and began to play a jolly little waltz. After the last note had died away, she turned slowly about upon the piano stool. "Perhaps it would be well," she said, "to have at first just one pupil." Silence. "Jack," asked a very humble little voice, "where would you like to begin your lessons?"

And after a long time, oh, a long and blissful time, Dollie raised her curly head from my shoulder. "Dear," she said, "dear, you are such a dense old stupid, that I think I shall have to take you as a life pupil." And she did.

Tonight! Take Dodson's Liver Tone! Better Than Calomel For Liver

Calomel sickens! If bilious, constipated and head-achy read my guarantee.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

Closing a contact sets them honking all up the line and conveys a signal to the men, which may be heard above the din of battle.

Could Not Eat or Sleep Made Well By PERUNA

Mr. William E. Denny, 1023 Park Ave., Springfield, Ohio, writes:

"I find great pleasure in writing you and thanking you for what Peruna has already done for me. I have been troubled with catarrh for years, and it had affected my head, nose, throat and stomach, that I could not eat nor sleep with any satisfaction."

"I have just taken three bottles. I can eat most anything and am greatly relieved of nervousness, so that when I lie down I can sleep without the least trouble. I recommend it to all those who are sufferers of that dreadful disease, catarrh."

Letter From Hattiesburg, Miss.

Hattiesburg, Miss.

Feb. 12, 1918.

Dear Mr. Jenkins:

I will write you a few lines to see how every body is getting along at Marion, I hope these few lines will find every body well and enjoying life fine.

I am well and getting along nicely in the army.

The weather here is very pleasant but you sometimes can't tell when we are going to have a warm day or a cold one.

How is the weather at Marion cold, I'll bet it is colder than it was last winter.

I know there has been a big snow there this winter. We have not had but one snow since we have been down here and that did not amount to anything.

Everybody here from Marion and Crittenden County are all well and getting along fine.

Forest S. Barnes has left us and I have never heard from him since he has been gone, and I do not know where he has gone but they transferred him somewhere.

We have moving pictures nearly every night at the Y. M. C. A. library, games and other things to make things look more like home.

Everybody from Crittenden County join me and sends their best regards to every body in Crittenden.

It is about time for retreat so I will have to close hoping these few lines will find every body well.

Yours truly,
Homer Oliver,
Co. B. 149 U. S. Inf.,
Hattiesburg, Miss.

PROMINENT CLAY WOMAN

Found Dead in Out of The Way Place by Friends--Three Men Under Arrest.

Clay, Ky., Feb. 7.—One of the most sensational crimes that has ever been committed in the county was brought to light Thursday morning at 11 o'clock when the dead body of Mrs. Joey Vance Sparks was found in an old livery barn or stable on the I. C. railroad near the court house in this city.

Jake Hicks, a white man of about fifty years of age, who, together with his son, Heber Hicks, aged about 19, have been selling cultivators here for the past several months, are thought to be connected with the crime. Young Hicks skipped the country about a week or ten days ago. Jake Hicks, and two negroes, Jim and Casey, they are called, were placed under arrest this morning.

Mrs. Sparks was thought to have been visiting relatives in some nearby town by her mother. She had not been at home for the past two or three weeks. Being away a little longer than usual, her mother began to make inquiries about her.

Mrs. Vance asked some friends to find where her daughter was with young Hicks. Young Hicks being out of town, these friends asked Jim, one of the negroes, where Hicks and Mrs. Sparks were. He said he did not know. Jim stated that something had been buried in the old stable about twelve days before; that young Hicks had returned that morning about four o'clock with something in a buggy, calling it whiskey, and ordering him to town.

These friends, together with the negro went to the barn and upon removing the planks, digging into the grave found the body of Mrs. Sparks.

The grave was dug in an old office room in the stable and the planks in the floor were sawed and were nailed back. This room was very dark and enclosed an old well. The barn was rented and used to keep horses belonging to the Hicks'. Over the grave were placed old rags and sacks of every description.

The body was carried to an undertaker's establishment in this city to await a post-mortem examination and inquest.

Upon examination a bullet was found to have gone through her body just under the left arm, ranging toward the heart, and is thought to have been a .38 calibre. Her body was powder burned over the heart.

When she was found her body was not in a very decomposed state. Her third or ring finger on the left hand was nearly severed. She was nicely dressed in a coat suit and on her hair was a veil. She had on a glove on one hand and her diamond and ruby rings were gone.

Jim, one of the negroes, who was hired to dig the grave by young Hicks in which Mrs. Sparks was buried, said that Heber Hicks told him that he was going to bury some government whiskey which he had stolen.

Physicians say the body has the appearance of not having been dead over 24 or 48 hours; that her joints were not stiff; that the body was not entirely rigid, which in most cases indicate a recent death. They also state her neck was red which shows she was possibly choked. However, the negro (Jim) states the body was dead and buried January 21.

Young Hicks went to Vance home about two weeks ago and told Mrs. Vance that he and Mrs. Sparks were going to Madisonville, and that was the last time she was seen alive by her mother.

A telegram has been sent to Cynthia, Hicks and his son lived at Cynthia, Ky., before coming here. The elder Hicks had been a lover of Mrs. Sparks, and his wife was here during the holidays and tried to keep him from going with Mrs. Sparks, but without success, and returned home.

The Hicks' men had a Winton Six automobile and were high rollers. Hicks, together with the negroes were carried to Henderson over the I. C., this afternoon for safe keeping, as mob violence was feared.

Coroner's jury did not return a verdict, owing to the absence of one of the negroes who was taken to Henderson, and will not be finished until his return.

son, and will not be finished until his return.

Young Hicks was arrested late this afternoon at Cynthia.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Vance of this city and a sister of Charlie and Sam Vance of Providence. She is 24 years old.

Mrs. Sparks has been a widow about two years, her husband died at Morganfield. She has two children, a boy and a girl, about four and six years of age. In every way she was beautiful and was one of the most attractive girls of Clay. The entire town was profoundly shocked at the tragedy and the news was rapidly carried to every home in the city. The sincere sympathy of the town has been extended to the aged parents of the deceased, who are heart broken.—Dixon Journal.

Letter From Missouri

Blodgett, Mo., Feb. 4, 1918.

Editor Record-Press,

Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:—

I wonder if you would allow me a small space in your paper. We take the Press and I sure enjoy reading about my old Kentucky friends. I shall never forget the nice people I met while at Salem, especially Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowery, whom I lived with and I extend each of them my love and best wishes.

I live in a mile of Blodgett, have a nice way to go to church and Sunday school. The population is about 500; two churches, Baptist and Methodist. We have had an awful winter. Never before did I ever witness so much snow. We now have a 25-inch snow and the roads are impassable. Six men took eight mules and a snow plow to open the roads.

I like Missouri, but I want to see the land blow. The Red Cross is doing wonderful work out here. They have made up $400.00 in the last two months. It is a grand thing.

Mrs. Minnie Patterson.

Headache Stopped

Headaches are Nature's danger signal. Find out what is the trouble. Cure that and you won't have any more headaches. Most headaches come from indigestion. Bowels fail to act properly. Poisons accumulate in the body. The blood becomes impure, and headaches and more serious troubles naturally follow.

H. S. Cope, a glass molder at Alton Park, Tenn., says that he suffered constantly from headaches, but that Vin Heald's restored him to health so that he was able to go back to work.

All such headaches are stopped by Vin Heald's, the great Nature medicine and universal system purifier. It contains eight herbal remedies which tone up the bowels and kidneys, purify the blood and thus make that kind of headaches impossible.

We surely recommend this wonderful remedy. Come in and get a bottle on our recommendation that it will help not only your headaches, but will regulate your bowels and kidneys so that you will find your health better than you have known it for years.

WILL IT PLOW RIGHT AFTER YEARS OF USE?

Is a question that occurs to you when you come to buy a new plow.

AVERY CHILLED PLOWS

Do good work "to the end of the chapter" because.

Share, moldboard, landside and standard are locked together so rigidly by "The Lock That Locks" that the plow holds its correct set and pitch no matter how hard the plowing or how long plow is used.

When you come to put on new wearing parts, they slip into place with ease and "fit like a glove," retaining the original shape and pitch of the plow.

Write us today for a free circular that describes these plows in detail.
