NEARBY MARKET IS USUALLY BEST

Canning Clubs Should Be Able to Guarantee Packages of Different Fruits, Labels on Tin Containers

As a rule, the packages of fruit sold in the market are not guaranteed. The fruit may be damaged, and the consumer may receive a bad package. However, there are some canning clubs that are able to guarantee the packages of fruit. These clubs are able to guarantee the packages because they have a system of inspection. The fruit is inspected before it is canned, and the consumer is assured of receiving a good package.

Making German Money Invested In This Country Work for the United States, Is Important Work Being Done by The Alien Property Custodian—Citizens Urged to Help by Reporting Any Property to Their District.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—It is within the broadest terms of the national war effort that the Alien Property Custodian is engaged in its daily work. It is part of the general effort to defeat the enemy in all ways—military and economic. The Custodian's function is to hold and manage the property of enemy nationals who are living or doing business in the United States. It is a task that affects the lives of many Americans, and every cooperation counts.

LET US EAT POTATOES

Now the war has made potatoes so popular that many a woman is thinking of how she can change her menus to include them in some interesting ways. The potato is not only a fine vegetable, but it is also a great source of nutrition. The plain boiled potato is a wonderful dish, but there are many other ways to prepare it that are just as good, if not better.

Pinto Parmentier—Boil 3 lbs. of potatoes in salted water. Drain them, and cut into 1-inch cubes. Sweat 2 lbs. of bacon in a skillet, and then add the potatoes and cook for 10 minutes. Add 2 cups of milk, 1 cup of cream, and 1/2 cup of butter. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Bake in a hot oven for 30 minutes.

Kielbasa and Potato Bake—Cook 2 lbs. of potatoes in salted water until tender. Drain, and mash with a masher. Add 1 lb. of sliced kielbasa, 1 cup of diced onions, 2 cups of milk, 2 cups of diced green peppers, 1 cup of diced tomatoes, 1 cup of diced green chilies, 1/2 cup of diced green onions, and 1/2 cup of chopped parsley. Season with salt, pepper, and paprika. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 1 hour.

SHARP PRACTICE

By EVELYN LEE

We've had some great advice on how to use your money wisely during the war. Here are some tips on how to save money on your daily purchases.

1. Use coupons: Check the Sunday newspaper for coupons and use them to save money on your groceries.
2. Buy in bulk: Buying in bulk can save you money on many items, such as flour, sugar, and cereal.
3. Shop at discount stores: Discount stores often have lower prices than regular stores.
4. Use reusable containers: Bring your own containers to the store and use them to save money on food items like milk and juice.

GOOD PRACTICE FOR THE PHONE

In a time of shortage, every phone call must be made thoughtfully and economically.

Add the only words necessary to your call. Avoid using words such as "please" and "thank you" in your conversations.

Keep your calls brief. Only make calls when they are absolutely necessary.

Use proper telephone etiquette. Greet the person on the other end of the line by saying "Hello" and "Thank you."

WHEN PLANNING FROM ABROAD

Avoid buying items that are not essential. Focus on buying only what you really need.

Avoid buying items that are not on sale. Only buy items that are on sale or at a discount.

Avoid buying items that are not available at your local store. Only buy items that are available at your local store.

WHEN WANTING TO BE THOUGHTFUL

Think about the impact of your actions before you act. Consider how your actions will affect others.

Think about the consequences of your actions. Consider the long-term effects of your actions.

Think about the resources that you are using. Consider how your actions are affecting the environment.

WHEN WANTING TO BE GENTLE

Be kind and compassionate. Think about how you would like to be treated in a similar situation.

Be patient and understanding. Think about how you would like to be treated in a similar situation.

Be thoughtful and considerate. Think about how you would like to be treated in a similar situation.
