They are asked to perform tasks that would seem impossible to those of us who have not lived in Italy and seen the war conditions there. The work is fatiguing, the hours are long, and the sanitation is not as perfect as those here. It is a place where the men are constantly in danger of disease, and yet they continue to work with all their might, to aid their fellow-men. They are the real heroes of the war, and we are grateful for their services.

Dear Sir,

I am desirous of writing to you a few lines as we are often talking about you.

We are now in the front line trenches a pretty good time. We know the folks at home are anxious, but there isn’t so much to write as we are far away. We have been in action a few days, but there isn’t any news to write about.

We are sending this letter to the Patriotic Post by the 1st of the month, and we have forgotten who gets it.

A few lines to the readers of the Crittenden Record Press from a couple of boys at the front line trenches in France. Dear reader, you started your paper the 4th of July, and have now reached the middle of the year. We are writing this letter to you, and you have been our readers for a year.

And we reached here safely as we are glad to say. And when we got here we found a pretty interesting game to play.

But you know the old Cottenden county, always had the style, and that is the reason Uncle Tom sent them to France after Eber. And so to France they gladly come and went back until they got there is now.

And what it takes to harm him, we have never the got. And when we got into a battle we couldn’t afford it.

Famer is in the one after, and the way we are going to take it is now. We got into a battle and the machines guns were running and our knife began to stick, and then the captain shouted, here’s that terrible gun.

If you are excited you will get the best of you.

And if you spread up quickly and jump right over the top.

And when the rapprochement seen us coming our legs began to sink.

And we took about 5 miles of trenches the very first thing we had.

And then the captain shouted boys don’t you see what fun we are.

And when we took the trenches we weren’t satisfied you know. We are going to go on further that the captain would not give us.

And we said, captain, it is a win for the way to do it.

For Kaiser Bill is sitting there in his cell and when we reach him it will be.

And his soldiers go wars making I am pretty well satisfied.

For peace there is nothing we have been wanting we have been looking for.

For they are getting tired of us and now they are going to.

But winter time is coming and then they will be bound to.

He said we started for a cold, as we very often do.

For the very fewestade are what we are after and we always get a snow. I am not afraid of the cranking and around on the bulletin were cranking.

So Jack and I laid out and just going, just waiting for a square head to come round.

So pretty soon we spied a bunch coming the number was twenty-nine.

And I said Jack you take your dozen and leave the balance.

Then we took the bunch without a fuss, then Jack said.

And that is the way we are going to get Kaiser Bill without a bit.

And when we get, we are coming back to the good old U. S. A. Just look for me in the Fourth Street car.
