BAPTIST PLANS VIGOROUS WARFARE
ON TUBERCULOSIS IN THE SOUTH

In the South, as in the rest of the United States, tuberculosis is killing or incapacitating more people than any other disease. The Baptist Southern Home Mission Board has therefore organized a campaign to carry the Gospel and the message of health, hope and help to the South, where the disease is most prevalent. The campaign will be carried on in various ways, including the distribution of tracts and leaflets, the use of radio and television, and the provision of medical care for the poor. The campaign is expected to be successful and will help to reduce the spread of tuberculosis in the South.

If You Had A Million Dollars

You would save a small sum to keep on hand. You would use a large sum to buy real estate for income and to invest in stocks, bonds and other investments. You would give a part to your family and friends, and the rest to worthy causes.

The story of the man who had a million dollars is well known. He gave it all to his wife, who then gave it back to him.

You May Not Have A Million Dollars, but you can use your money intelligently for your own benefit and for the benefit of others. You can give a small sum to a charitable organization, or you can invest in stocks and bonds and see your money increase in value.

Elect Gov. Black Tuesday

Kentuckians! The issues are clear! On its record in State and Nation, a united Democracy asks you to answer these questions by your votes on Tuesday, November 4th.

Will a Ringing Message of Cheer go to that sick chamber in Washington, or will Kentucky go under the cloud of suspicion of those men we are seeking to debar America's Greatest Statesman, purely for partisan Reasons?

Will Kentucky go forward to four years of progress under the able leadership of Governor James D. Black, or will it become a pawn in the hands of A. T. Hirt, whose sole use for our State is the furtherance of personal ambition?

Black Fights For the League of Nations But Morrow Only Equivocates!

The Republican nominee is already listening to "the Master's Voice". To catch Black's repeated challenge to his record and against the League of Nations, he has given only evasive answers. He dare not face the issue fairly and squarely.

Yet is there anyone who doubts that the election of Morrow will be hailed by Republicans as a victory in their fight in opposition to the League of Nations. First Morrow, governor and they will come out from under cover and to grinding hard a noise against the action of the Leagues. When the League's record for criticism of policies of the past four years is thus the most vital issue facing the people of the State.

"Shall A. T. Hirt, lonely of Democrats, ever of Kentucky, be allowed to name the members of the State Tax Board? Shall he and his minions dictate the policies of the State for the next four years? This is the most vital issue facing the people of the State." (The State, November 3rd.)

"Shall Mr. Hirt, with the aid of Thirteen Republicans, the parade, and the other accredited candidates on the Republican ticket, set up an attempt to capture the State? Shall Mr. Hirt's meaning in the State be any thing but that of his master? Shall Hirt hold a foothold from the Lexington Capital to the State Capital? Shall the Louisville Republican machine succeed in its effort to furnish?"

DO KENTUCKIANS WANT TO SEE HIM USE THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION AS A STEPPING-STONE TO WASHINGTON?

Morrow's Todays Are All Yesterdays

Sincerely, he does not know that he is safe. Black who has the upshot in the present race. His entire campaign has been built on the premise that he is "clearly in." He has stepped for weeks before.

Then Commissioner Morrow then has been put into the race. Our State, as I have said, is on the record as one of the states in which there is a sufficient number of voters to make the League of Nations records as bond on the question of Morrow's nomination, which has been signed by the people of the State. The minutes since have been changed. Morrow has shown by a series of statements that he is a "clearly in" candidate. Morrow has been put into the race as a means to secure the nomination. Morrow has been put into the race as a means to secure the nomination.
