WHY IS A DRUGSTORE?

Because life is too short and mankind is too modernized to go out and take the time and bother to go to the woods and gather roots and herbs for the cure of the multiplying ills of the day, as they did in ancient times.

It would take you hours, or days, or perhaps weeks to go to the woods and find what this drug store can sell you for a quarter or a half dollar. You can get many remedies here that you could never find in the woods, remedies that both cure and PREVENT sickness.

A Drug Store is the necessity of EVERY community. It is easier to keep well than it is to be cured after you get sick. We sell simple Preparations that KEEP YOU WELL.

Go to Sea on the Tennessee

CHAPTER XXX

The great Reveille was proceeding under the starlit sky, where the Tennessee was lying quiet and calm, with no sound but the regular tread of the feet of her crew as they passed along a deck lit by the moonlight. There was a sense of peace and tranquility in the air that seemed almost tangible. The men were all in their places, and as they moved about with the quiet precision of trained soldiers, it was evident that the ship was ready for any emergency.

The Rev. Mr. Thompson, the chaplain, was on the poop deck, his face alight with inspiration as he delivered a stirring sermon. The crew listened attentively, their eyes fixed on the man who stood before them. His words resonated through the ship, filling the air with a sense of hope and determination.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"="

The ship's bell rang out, signaling the start of the voyage. The crew sprang into action, each man taking his place with the utmost efficiency. The Tennessee moved slowly at first, then gained speed, its engines whirring as it broke out of the harbor and set sail towards the unknown.

The men stood at their stations, their hands on the wheels and the levers of the ship. The wind sang through the rigging, and the sea rolled and tossed beneath the keel. They were all alive to the excitement of the moment, their eyes fixed on the horizon, where the sky met the sea.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The Tennessee was a powerful ship, its hull a massive and imposing sight as it cut through the water. The deck was alive with activity, as the men went about their duties with a sense of purpose.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The men were all well-trained and experienced, their skills honed by years of service. They knew their jobs inside out, and each one was ready to do his part to ensure the success of the mission.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The Tennessee was a symbol of the nation's strength and determination. As she set sail, she seemed to embody the spirit of the American people, ready to face any challenge that came their way.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The men stood at the rail, their eyes fixed on the horizon, their hearts filled with pride and devotion. They were ready to do their duty, to serve their country, and to bring home the victory that was so desperately needed.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The Tennessee sailed on, her crew holding her steady as she cut through the waves. The men stood at their stations, their hands on the wheels, their eyes fixed on the horizon, ready to face whatever lay ahead.

"Go to Sea on the Tennessee"=

The Tennessee was a mighty ship, her presence a testament to the power and might of the nation. As she set sail, she carried with her the hopes and dreams of a thousand souls, ready to face the challenges of the mission that lay ahead.

D. O. CARNAHAN'S
STORE

The following low prices are the most decisive blow that has been struck at the high cost of shoes for years. Profits are forgotten in the effort to lighten your burden of high living costs. Some of these goods are actually priced below cost. These prices are not made on just a few undesirable oxfords that nobody wants but on every low shoe in our entire big stock of desirable high and grade shoes bought for this seasons selling.

If you have never traded at this store this is a wonderful opportunity for you to begin. Those who have traded with us know that when we sell any article for less than our regular price that it is a real bargain, and when such drastic cuts as we have applied to our oxfords stock are made the values are so unusual that we hesitate to use an adjective that would describe them for fear you would think it "hot air."

So all we ask you to do is to come in and see the values for yourself, try on a pair that suits you, and you can be the Judges. If you think the value is there, and then some, take them home and if not you are under no obligation.

And remember that we absolutely guarantee satisfactory service from every pair of shoes we sell at any time.

WILSON HILL FARM

TUESDAY, JUNE 29TH, 10 A.M.

Mr. R. M. Jenkins, having decided to retire from active business life, has contracted with us to sell Wilson Hill Farm, together with all his other holdings in and around Marion, at absolute auction, without any reserve whatsoever, on Tuesday, June 29th. Besides the Wilson Farm, we will sell the Electric Light and Water Plant, the magnificent residence in which he lives, the Park-Wilsonia Apartments, and a few extra choice residences facing on Main, Depot and College Sts.

Also the followingattle: 10 head of which cows and heifers, 2 breed mares, one with mule colt at side, 1 pr. 2 year old males, 1 wagon, 1 buggy, 1 mower, 1 wheat drill, plow harrow and miscellaneous farming machinery.

OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO YOU.

This is a genuine sale. We have no other kind. We sell no properties privately, but do an exclusive auction business. No set price, no reserve, no puffing or by-bidding. YOU MAKE THE PRICE—WE MAKE THE DEED—that’s all.

Fifty Dollars in Gold and other attractive and valuable prizes will be given away during the sale. Tickets will be distributed to each and every white person on the ground, whether purchaser or not, entitling the holder to an equal chance on all free prizes. Drawing one prize will not bar you from an equal chance on others.

The only condition required is you must be there.

This well known farm joins the town of Marion and extends along the main road to Pendleton. It will be sub-divided into tracts of one acre up.

The improvements consist of a comfortable house of modern size, with stocked library, stable, large shed, chicken etc.; there are some 30 acres in cultivation, good cellar around house and the well at barn. Various varieties of fruit, plenty of fine wood, a barn present that will furnish wood for many years and a walnut grove that is today worth consider- able money at present; and in growing more valuable on the place.

The small tracts are desirably located; most of them face on the Pendleton road. They show good workmanship. The advantages for the new or business men desiring more ground than a mere building lot.

A man may buy or build a house but it takes a woman to make a home. We extend a cordial invitation to the ladies to attend the sale. These beautiful residences that will be sold at the bidder’s prices should interest them.

There will be a band concert during the sale. The music and the presence of Col. H. L. Iglehart, an auctioneer of national reputation will make an enjoyable day for all.
