CHAPTER I

THE FIRST THINGS AND THEIR SERIOUSNESS

The Jackson Lawyer was a man of a rare and singular kind. He had a remarkable face and a singular figure. His nose was long and tapering, his mouth small and his chin double-jointed. He was always dressed in a black coat and white shirt, and he had a brown hat on his head. His name was Mr. Jackson.

Mr. Jackson had been a lawyer for many years, and he was well known throughout the town. He had a great many cases in which he had been involved, and he had always been successful. He was respected by his clients and feared by his enemies.

One day, Mr. Jackson was sitting in his office, thinking about his next case. He had been working on it for a long time, and he was beginning to feel frustrated.

"What shall I do, what shall I do?" he thought to himself. "I must think of something soon, or I shall never get out of this mess."

Just then, his door opened, and in walked his client, Mr. Brown.

"Mr. Jackson," said Mr. Brown, "I have a case for you."

"Ah, Mr. Brown," said Mr. Jackson, "what is it?"

"It is a case of divorce," said Mr. Brown. "My wife has deserted me, and I want you to help me get her back."

"Divorce," said Mr. Jackson, "that is a serious matter. Let us have a look at the papers."

FAN AND HARBORSIDE PAST STAND WILL BE KEY IN ANTIGONISH LEAGUE

By John O'Brien in The Gazette

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 22 - This corresponding headline which was published in the Gazette on Wednesday, August 22, 1979, is a reference to a past stand or event in the Antigonish League in Nova Scotia. The headline reads: "FAN AND HARBORSIDE PAST STAND WILL BE KEY IN ANTIGONISH LEAGUE." It suggests that the past performance or history of the Fan and Harborside teams will be crucial in determining the outcome of the upcoming games in the Antigonish League.

Special Care of Baby
That Baby should have a bit of its own all as agreed. Yet it is again necessary to be informed that the age of Fletcher’s castoria is more than a century. There is a great deal of it in this country. The name of the manufacturer is often found in the hands of children. But the best snaf is in the hands of a mother who has a bit of her own all as agreed. This is no one’s idea of thinking. It is no one’s idea of thinking. It is one of the greatest virtues. Cottonseeded Meal for Feed

High in Quality Low in Price!

Quality considered you can buy your job printing from our printing department for less money than you can anywhere else.

Right now we are producing some work for a large Evansville firm taken at our regular prices—and saving the customer money.

We Will Not Produce Poor Printing at any Price

Good paper plus good ink plus good workmanship plus our reasonable profit may seem a little high in price—but “leaf” brings more than “trash.”

We Do Produce Good Printing at a Reasonable Price

We have every facility for handling any of your printing requirements whether large or small. No order too large or too small.
