THE VALLEY of the GIANTS

Author of "Cappy Ricks"

By PETER B. KYNE

"GOD HELP US!"

CHAPTER XXI

The scattered throng was waiting for the young man to come back. They were standing in the shade of the great railroad depot. It was a fine morning. The sun was up, and the air was fresh. The wind was blowing, and the trees were rustling. The train was due at any moment, and the people were getting impatient. The old man who kept the station was at the window, watching for the train. He was a tall, thin man, with a white beard. He was wearing a black hat, and a black coat. He looked very tired.

Thaddeus and the women were standing near the window. They were watching for the train also. Thaddeus was a short, fat man, with a round face. He was wearing a red shirt, and a blue hat. He looked very happy.

"Where's the train? Where's the train?" he asked, looking out the window.

"It's coming, Thaddeus," said the station keeper. "It's coming."

"I hope so," said Thaddeus. "I really hope so."

The train came in at last, and the people all jumped up and rode away in it. Thaddeus and the women got on the last car, and they rode away too.

The station keeper closed the window, and he went back to his office. He was a very kind man, and he always had a smile on his face. He was a very good station keeper, and the people all liked him.

"Good morning, Mr. Station Keeper," they all said, as they got off the train.

"Good morning, folks," he said. "Good morning."

"Thank you," said Thaddeus. "Thank you very much."

"You're welcome," said the station keeper. "You're welcome."

The train was about to leave, and the people all got on it. Thaddeus and the women got on the last car, and they rode away too.

The station keeper looked out the window, and he watched them go. He was a very kind man, and he always had a smile on his face. He was a very good station keeper, and the people all liked him.

Voters of Crittenden County! BE NOT DECEIVED!

By Misleading Promises and “Wilson-Cox” League Propaganda!

Four years ago the Democrats succeeded in deceiving the voters with “God Bless Wilson, He Keep Us Out of War,” and by that means elected Woodrow Wilson president. And the same Democrats are again resorting to deceptive methods by giving out a false interpretation of the League of Nations. But since being so woefully fooled and having endured eight years of Wilsonism, which has almost ruined our nation, the voters are now thinking for themselves and will not be further misguided and will say by their votes on November 2d, “AWAY WITH YOUR LEAGUE OF NATIONS” and all other autocratic and un-American doctrines.

Women of Crittenden county, since twenty-nine Republican states of our union as against only seven Democratic states have been clothed with full right of suffrage. GO TO THE POLLS ON NOVEMBER the 2nd and cast your votes for the Republican ticket, as did the mothers of the state of Maine, and say by that act that you denounce the League of Nations, and that you are not willing to mortgage your boys to the European powers and that you will not sign the bloody treaty which is a first step on the life of every boy beneath the Stars and Stripes.

Hunting From an Automobile

Hunting near the entrance of Chipmunk Mountain, a band of zebras were captured off the US 29A at Hare's Corners, a small hamlet near the entrance of the mountain range. The zebras were grazing peacefully when a group of hunters,30 years young, became interested in the animals. The hunters approached the zebras and began to shoot at them. One of the hunters, a 25-year-old man, was hit in the leg by one of the zebras and died on the spot. The other hunters were able to escape and the zebras were able to return to the forest uninjured.

Irish Justice Without Jails

The Public Order Act has been repealed and all prisoners have been released from jail, effective immediately.
