COUNTY SPENDING CONTEST

To be Held at Marion Friday Evening Dec. 11—Admission Free

Auditor: Rev. Wm. A. Cope, Chas. City
Chairman: E. T. F. Spratt, Chas. City

OLDEST MAN IN CRITTENDEN

District Clerks

Mr. William M. Gunn, probably the oldest citizen in Crittenden, was present at the meeting of the county school board at Marion this week. He is in his 80's and still active.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The Marion Methodist Church held its annual Sunday school convention on December 10th. The conference was well attended and a report of the school work in the district was made.

OAKLAND SCHOOL WIN FIRST

Miss Mary Mayla, principal of the Oakland school, and her students, won first prize in the spelling bee held in Crittenden.

Is He Headed Your Way?

Let us hope not. But he is going to a fire. Every hour there is talk of a fire—sometimes large, sometimes small. People are wondering what is going on. What is going to happen? Is it going to be a real fire? Does it cover the present worth of what it is going to take place?

If you can "say yes" to those questions you are going to be congratulated, if you say "no" you will be glad you did.

A Treasure House For Gift Seekers

So thoroughly have the wares and tastes of the patrons of this store been considered in choosing our Christmas stocks, that selection gets merely a matter of preference. So vast are the assortments that decisions may easily be made no matter whether the expenditure entailed is great or small, and the assurance that gifts chosen here carries with it the measure of the gift, which truly reflects the Christmas spirit.

Mr. C. E. Mayes Says

We want to thank our friends and customers for their patronage during the many years we have been in business in Marion. Not that we have decided to enter a new field and discontinue business here—our thoughts go back to you who have made this business possible—and it is to you we offer first choice of our big stock of disposable merchandise. We have employed a merchant this expert from Minneapolis, Minn., to close out this stock. Mr. H. C. Jones will have complete charge of the stock and sale. His instructions are to sell this stock as quickly as possible.

J. H. MAYES & SONS, by C. E. Mayes

I am the Man

I have been employed by J. H. Mayes & Sons to close out their entire stock and fixtures. My instructions are to sell and sell 'em quick. I have taken them at their word. If you will read this big circular you will see what wonderful bargains I am offering. How unusually I have cut prices with never a thought of the cost! I have wrecked prices as they have never before been wrecked in Mayes & Sons' store. It will save you more good American dollars than you ever believed possible.

H. C. JONES

J.H. Mayes & Sons Make Up Their Minds to Quit Business for Good

Quick action—Ferocious selling—Fast buying will mark this announcement. A sale where every department in this store will contribute its quota of bargains—a sale that will be a community benefit of far-reaching importance to every family in this section. J. H. Mayes and Sons are face to face with an emergency; they must sell. This magnificent stock struggles in the grip of the low price giant.

Wholesale - The prices not the goods. Staying fancy, economical markets come in this sale. All prices marked in plain figures. Sales tags on every article. You may walk on yourself. No goods sold at sale prices until Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Indispensable! This store is in the thickness of the comparable price destruction. This stock will be sold at prices lower than ever attempted in local merchandising. Stock and Fixtures all gone.

DESPERATION

The time has come—now the world is ours. The time the Fords are born. Ford have always been popular among the average mechanic, who regards them as being the best value for his money. When the Fords first came on the market, they were not so well known as the old-established makes, and the buyers were not so sure of their quality. But the Ford has been proved, and the buyers are now convinced of its worth. The Ford is the best value for the money. It is built to last, and it will give you years of service. The Ford is the car for you.

CHAPTER III

"You know, sir, if it hadn't been for my wife I'd have been a much happier man."

"Mrs. Iverson!" said the man, "I don't know what you're trying to get at."

"It's about the store."

"Well, what's it about?"

"I want to know if you'll be able to keep the store in business."

"Keep the store in business?"

"Yes, sir."

"What do you mean?" asked the man, looking at the woman with a critical eye. "I'm not the one who runs the store."

"But you're the owner, aren't you?"

"Yes, I'm the owner."

"Then why do you put up with this nonsense?"

"Nonsense?" asked the man, raising his eyebrows. "This is the only way I can keep the store in business."

"And what's that?"

"I have a good idea."

"What's your idea?"

"I want you to take over the store."

"Me? Take over the store?"

"Yes, me."

"Why me?"

"Because you're the only one who can make it work."

"I don't know about that."

"But you're the owner."

"I know I am."

"Then why don't you take over?"

"I don't know why I don't."

"Then why don't you?"

"I don't know why," said the man, "but I think it would be a good idea."
