CHAPTER XXXI. Continued.

"Oh, my boy," she said anxiously, "the thought of such happenings frightens me, and it puzzles me to know what to do about it."

"Don't worry," he replied, "we'll find out what to do in due time."

"But what if it happens again?"

"We have to be prepared for that," he said. "It might happen again, and we have to be ready to face it."

"But what if it does happen again?"

"Then we'll face it when it happens," he replied. "We can't prevent it from happening again."

Will echo down the causeway of bargaindom as the greatest opportunity for savings ever placed before you. The entire stock will be wiped out. Not one dollar's worth must remain. Former prices will be torn to shreds—whipped into a price jelly. Thousands of dollars worth of high class merchandise will find new owners—and at prices that you want to pay. Hold off your buying, saving fathers and economical mothers! It will pay you—and pay you well—to supply your present and future needs at this mighty community benefitting sale! Pending a settlement by the insurance company the opening day of this price splintering event will be duly announced at a later date. Watch this paper. Townspeople, watch your doorsteps! Country folks, watch your mail boxes! for full particulars.

IT'S COMING--A BARGAIN RIOT!

Lower Prices in 1921

In order to sell our goods for the least money possible and to give our customers full benefit of all decline on the market, we will from this date sell only for cash. All customers that have been trading weekly or every 30 days will be allowed to trade as usual. But accounts must be paid promptly at end of month or credit will be withdrawn.

We appreciate the loyalty of our many friends and customers and by adhering to the above plan we can save money. All accounts and notices have been now due and if not paid at once we will proceed to sell. Take notice, this means you.
