EFFICIENCY OF SALVATION ARMY TO BE INCREASED

The Salvation Army, according to Brigadier Roberts of Cincinnati, O., Divisional Commander of the Western Ohio and Kentucky Division, is preparing to make a revolutionary departure in its work, which probably will be the most epochal in the Army's forty years of service in the United States. In his announcement, Brigadier Roberts says:

"A plan has been evolved to increase the efficiency of the Salvation Army and its agencies coping with social and economical problems throughout the nation. The activities as outlined in our 1921 Home Service Program, are intended primarily to be of a preventive nature. Instead of waiting until the damage has been done, we shall try to check social evils at their very source. To effect a cure it will be necessary for us to enlist the services of the influential and sympathetic citizens of every focal center, who will be the social representatives for every department of the Salvation Army. This will bring about the extension of the sixteen major activities of the Army from the city to the rural communities. Already this is being accomplished through the formation of Community Advisory Boards composed of representative citizens in every community."

In twenty-six of the Western States our organization has been completed. In twenty-two Eastern States are now being organized. Before July we expect to extend the helping hands of the Salvation Army to every hamlet, every house in the United States.

For this is distinctly a home service designed to supplement the activities of local welfare agencies and place at their disposal in an organized way the wealth of experience and training possessed by Salvation Army officers.

The Community Advisory Board, whose names we print below, is a small volunteer organization of men and women who have distinguished themselves by their community leadership and by the confidence and trust reposed in them by the people at home.

JENNINGS-HIGHAM

Mr. Bell Higham and Miss Alma Jennings were united in marriage Saturday evening at Crayne. The marriage ceremony was performed at the home of George Scott at 6:45 in the presence of several friends. Both of the young people are popular in their section and have many friends who wish them well. Rev. W. T. Oakley performed the ceremony.

The date for the Carnival which was to be at the School Auditorium on April 1st, has been postponed indefinitely.

ADA JONES CONCERT

The concert given at the School Auditorium Tuesday evening was in every respect a huge success. The concert was given by Ada Jones and her Company under the auspices of the School Improvement Club.

The program opened with a musical selection rendered by Esther Almahagan, violinist and Marie Hartman, pianist. Miss Almahagan is, no doubt, one of the most talented violinists ever heard in this city. The pianist, Miss Hartman, is one of the most accomplished artists that ever appeared before the public. Her solos were especially good. James Allan Troke, cartoonist and magician, proved highly entertaining. He had at his disposal not only a number of unusual tricks but also kept the audience amused with a ready flow of wit and humor.

Ada Jones, of Phonograph fame, and the star of the evening, needed no introduction. She has a beautiful voice and her selections were rendered in her own original and charming manner. Her command of both Negro and Irish dialects was excellent, in these roles she was at her best.

The entertainment reached the highest expectations of a large and appreciative audience. The proceeds amounted to about $205. Of this amount the school received $75.

MRS. GEO. P. ROBERTS DIES

Mrs. George P. Roberts died at her residence, the Thierman Apartments, in Louisville, Monday night at 11:30. She had been ill for six weeks of chronic nephritis. She was 37 years of age.

She was a direct descendant of Isaac Shelby, the first Governor of Kentucky, and was Treasurer of the League of Women Voters of Kentucky. She was also prominent in the Woman Suffrage movement in this State and was the first woman to hold the office of School Trustee in Crittenden county.

Mrs. Roberts was the wife of Geo. P. Roberts, the President of the Gugenheim Mining Co. and the Roberts Fluor Spar Co. Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Evalyn and Ethel, and one sister, Mrs. J. W. Wilson, of Louisville and one brother, A. M. Shelby of this city. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

The funeral services were held at Louisville and the remains were brought to Marion Wednesday morning. A short service was held at the Maple View Cemetery at 2 P. M., interment following immediately. Rev. Price officiated at the cemetery. A beautiful floral offering was given.

CABIN BURNS

On Monday night about 10:20, some young ladies passing along Main Street discovered that the one room cabin on the lot adjoining G. M. Swishers residence on W. Depot Street was in flames. The alarm was turned in but too late to save it. However had it not been for the prompt and timely action of the Fire Department, the residence of G. M. Swisher would have been destroyed, as the roof was in flames several times. Fire Chief Elzie Moore received severe burns on his hands caused by falling sparks.

NEW ARMY STORE

Mr. F. X. Ballis arrived in Marion last week bringing with him an attractive stock of Army goods, both new and reclaimed. Mr. Ballis located his store on the South side of the Public Square and is now offering his goods at attractive prices.

Mr. A. M. Henry was in Madisonville recently selling monuments.

Actual Center of Population

This photograph shows, left to right: Prof. W. A. Cogshall of the University of Indiana, and Lawrence Wheeler of the Indianapolis Star, beside a tree on the farm of Melvin Sims, two miles west of Whitehall, Ind. As the inscription carved on the tree shows, this is the exact center of the population of the United States. The spot was determined by Professor Cogshall, who is an astronomer, after taking observations of the sun and making complicated calculations based on the 1920-21 census figures.

HON. E. D. STONE

Mr. Stone is a good, honorable citizen and a self-made man. His father died while he was quite young and since then Mr. Stone has made his own way in the world. FIRE AT PROVIDENCE

A fire was discovered in the basement of Birchfield & Hunter's restaurant Saturday night shortly before midnight. It threatened the entire business district of Providence for several hours before it was extinguished. It was finally put out by flooding the basement with water. The loss to the restaurant was about $3,000, partially covered with insurance. The owners, Birchfield and Hunter were formerly of this city, moving to Providence a short time ago.

EYE TALKS

By Susie E. Gilchrist, Oph. D.

The brain and not the eye is the organ of sight. The eye is simply a small camera, the retina or inner coat serving as the film upon which the picture is made and the cornea, lens, aqueous and vitreous humors being the refracting agents which bring the rays of light to a focus upon it. The picture is made upon the background and the optic nerve convey the impression to the cuneus in the back of the brain where vision actually takes place.

The ennetropic or normal eye is physically perfect in its refracting qualities, bringing rays from distant objects to a focus upon the retina with no demand upon the accommodation or nerve supply, and is physiologically perfect in its other functions, such as retinal acuteness, rotation of the eyeballs, action of the lids, lachrymation, pupillary adjustability, accommodation, nerve supply and blood circulation.

Mr. J. B. Carter was in the city Monday and reported that his flock of 100 White Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds are laying 600 eggs per week.

DIPHTHERIA DEATHS IN STATE INCREASE

With complete figures on the number of deaths caused in Kentucky last November and December by diphtheria now available, the State Board of Health has issued a new warning against this disease. In November of last year there were ninety fatalities due to diphtheria, which number was seventeen in excess of the 1920 deaths. Similarly, for December, 1920, there were 63 fatalities or 18 more than in December of the preceding year.

Every death caused by diphtheria, the Board of Health's warning states need not have occurred, as antitoxin administered early enough and in sufficient quantities is a sure cure for the disease. The warning also states that this antitoxin may be obtained from the board at cost price by the physicians in the State and calls attention to the fact indigent persons, unable to pay for antitoxin even when it is for them at cost, may obtain it free from their county health officers.

NOTICE

All persons having claims against T. E. Griffith, deceased, or indebted to same, see the undersigned for settlement. G. P. GRIFFITH, Administrator

The Press this week carries the announcement of Chas. T. Riley of Tolu, as candidate for jailer in the August Primary. He has served the county efficiently as Magistrate for several years, and no doubt he would make a capable jailer and custodian of the county's property.

The state of Kentucky may be forced to refund several hundred thousand dollars to former saloon keepers whose licenses were terminated by war-time prohibition. The question will be decided in the case which is before trial in the Franklin County Circuit court. Hugh Odum is suing the State.

In last week's issue of the Press, there appeared an item which gave an account of the death of Mrs. Jesse Woodsides. This should have read Mrs. Jesse Wood.

Building bids fair to be on the boom in Marion during the next few months.

Four new two story store buildings will be under way as soon as the weather gets better. The First Baptist Church is to build an addition to their already commodious building. The New High School Building for Marion seems to be a thing assured.

Mr. Candidate:

You have decided to make the race for some county office, perhaps, but have not made public announcement of the fact through the paper. Your friends are wondering why. Your friends are anxious to have you tell folks that your "hat is in the ring." They watch the columns of the Press every week to see if you have made your announcement. Don't wait until someone else has gotten the voter who was undecided, but announce in the next issue of the Press and let your friends know that you are in the race "to the finish."

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

An election has been called for the voters of Crittenden county to decide whether they will have the finances of the county under the jurisdiction of three commissioners and County Judge or whether they will leave it as it is, eight Magistrates and the County Judge.

As we understand it, the county would be divided into three districts, according to the number of voters and each district would nominate a candidate or candidates in the regular primary and the Commissioners to be elected at the regular election in November, to serve a term of four years.

These Commissioners, with the County Judge would compose the fiscal court and therefore have charge of the county finances. The Magisterial districts would remain the same as at present and the Magistrates would have charge of the legal business in their respective districts.

The salaries of the Commissioners would be fixed as are the salaries of the other county officers.

The only question to determine is, will the commission form of government be to any better advantage than the present form of government, if so, what advantages. If these men can manage the county business with more efficiency and more economy, then give us the Commissioners. If the Magisterial form can do the best, then let us continue as before.

The Press "is from Missouri" and will have to be shown.

HOLD ON TO YOUR SHEEP

It is generally recognized as sound live stock policy to get in when everybody else is getting out. There is a general tendency from farm to ranch to sell sheep. The ranchman may be forced to sell sheep and his sheep business may be large enough to mean financial ruin to him at this time. There are scarcely any farmers who are obliged to sell sheep. Why close out now on one of the worst slumps the market has ever known?

The United States consumed five million more pounds of mutton last year than ever before. Mutton is healthful meat.

Wool is cheap and slow sale compared to last year, but still higher than some years ago. The public must be clothed and fed. Wool is necessary. And we may reasonably expect congress to increase wool tariff.

The average price for lambs for the last ten years has been $11.55 and for sheep $8.15. Hogs $10.65 and cattle $9.65. (Drovers Journal)

Central Europe is working toward a restoration of its industries and with this restoration will come increased buying power. Australia and New Zealand mutton will go to these countries and our own market will be restored to something like its normal balance. The wool pays the board of the ewe—the lamb is monthly profit.

Why sell the sheep?

BILLBOARD THAT HAS MERIT

If There Must Be Out-of-Door Advertising This Is Less Offensive Than Most.

This suggestion of happily wedded art and advertising, is one that may prove of value in ending the guerrilla warfare that has long raged between artists and the artistic-minded public on the one hand, and outdoor-publicity men on the other.

The upright supports of this sign are made from old telegraph poles sunk into the ground; the smaller round pieces, which form the ornamental braces, are furnished by straight saplings. The curved top pieces are made by nailing planks to a framework of

Art and Advertising Are Happily Wedded in This Attractive Outdoor Advertising Sign in Japanese Effect

2 by 4-inch material. The signboard proper, the part that contains the advertising announcement, is made by riveting together several sheets of galvanized iron. The corners are reinforced with heavier metal, so that the whole sign may be held by chains from each corner, as shown in the drawing. By exercising a little care as to location and with tasteful arrangement of inexpensive shrubbery about the base, the appearance of the whole will be decidedly pleasing and the Japanese effect of the signboard will be considerably heightened.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

LITTLE FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Some Community Hints That Will Repay the Few Minutes They Will Take to Read.

Some men will not pay $1 a year to support a commercial organization but will cheerfully hand over $100 for a hunting dog.

If town building was like scoundrel, everybody would push it along.

Agassiz says a full-grown man can live ten days chewing the leather of a boot. But no full-grown town can live chewing the rag.

Job, according to historical belief, was a patient man, but he never was a commercial secretary and had an important committee out.

Some towns don't do things to please themselves but to worry their neighbor.

More dangerous than any foreign foe is to endeavor to make one citizen hate another.

A community is much like an egg. Keep it in hot water and it is bound to become hard.

An optimist is a commercial secretary with a $5,000 deficit in his organization and a state convention on his hands.

There is a wide difference between the best known and the known best men of the community.—The Nation's Business.

Woman and Civic Responsibilities.

In so far as one can generalize from the experience of the last few years, women are taking all their new civic duties with commendable thoroughness. The widespread activities of the women's citizen associations have done much to arouse the female voter to the realities, and more especially the responsibilities of civic life. And these excellent bodies have worked on likely material, for those women who have thrown themselves into public affairs have not erred on the side of underrating the value of hard work. Tutors who have to teach adult students of both sexes have rarely been able to censure women students for lack of industry.—Manchester Guardian.

Bathtub Five Feet Deep Unearthed.

In demolishing one of New York city's old houses recently, a bathtub eight feet long, four feet wide and five feet deep, made of wood and lined with zinc, was discovered by workmen. "To get into it," says the writer who tells of it, "one had to ascend a flight of steps. It had no hot water connection and was used by an old woman born in the house who remembered that it always was there. There were 20 rooms in the house, and this bath in one of them on the third floor was the only bath in the house. It is said this bathtub was one of the first bathtubs in New York.

The Better Part.

"How much have you left of your week's salary?"

"Oh, the better part."

"Impossible! I know you have spent more than half."

"True, but I have part of it left and what isn't spent is certainly the better part."

Our Methods Are Modern

We do not hesitate to change the methods of handling our accounting and other clerical work, if by so doing increased efficiency and economy will result.

A large part of the work that once was done slowly and painstakingly by hand is now handled rapidly and with far greater accuracy by machines. A much larger working force than we now have would be required to handle our business if we still employed old-fashioned methods.

We do not aim, however, to let the increased use of machines cause us to grow machine-like in dealing with our customers. In this respect we always intend to remain intensely human.

Titan Tractor

Back to the Old Price

$1,000

WE have reduced the price of the Titan 10-20 to its former low price of $1,000 f. o. b. Chicago. This is the same Titan tractor which 75,000 farmers have put into remarkably successful service — the same tractor, plus 1921 improvements and additions.

A full set of removable extension angle lugs sold as extra equipment under the former $1,000 price is now included without extra cost. Fenders, Platform, Angle Lugs, Throttle Governor, Friction Clutch Pulley, Wide Range Adjustable Drawbar, Water Air Cleaner—all are included in the $1,000 price.

International 8-16 and 15-30 Tractors

Also Reduced in Price

Farmers who want a lighter tractor, built like a high-grade automobile but with the same sturdiness and reliability of the Titan, can now get the International 8-16 at $1,000 f.o.b. Chicago. We have long restricted the sale of this model to a limited territory, but increased production enables us to release it to all sections of the United States.

The International 15-30 tractor has been reduced to $1,950 f.o. b. Chicago.

Bear in mind that we give unequalled service, made possible through 92 branch houses and thousands of local dealers, to every International tractor owner, no matter where located.

Prices of Other Lines Reduced

Prices have also been reduced on chilled plows, tractor plows, cream separators, kerosene engines, seeding machines, International threshers, harvester-threshers, wagons, hay presses, and a number of other lines on which your dealer can give you full information.
