CABINET MEMBERS AMONG THOSE IN ATTENDANCE THIS YEAR

For sev ors of American men and women, that special moment when their heroes of the past become heroes of the present, has arrived. Today, once again, the famous Cabinet observes the Kentucky Derby in its traditional manner. Among those attending the event were numerous Cabinet members, including former Secretaries and Advisors to the President who have been a part of the administration for years. This annual gathering serves as a reminder of the camaraderie and cooperation that exists within the Cabinet.

CANT TELL ME Mr. W. Why are you ccxle HOT

"Hot to be nice over and see it in action hotly there I thought it was a hard job",

"But not too bad, you know."

"Well, I am hot to say that if you do not know what it is."

"But not too bad, you know."

"Well, I am not sure what it is."

Notice of Change of Voting Precincts

Crittenden County Court, Regular Term, May 9, 1915.

Forrest: E. B. Morse, Judge.

We, the undersigned, do hereby report to the superior court of the county of Crittenden, Kentucky, that we have examined and verified the said list of the voting places and officers for this term, the said list having been filed by the officers, and have found the same correct and in accordance with the laws of the State of Kentucky.

This is, therefore, to give notice on the part of the officers of this court, that the boundary lines of the voting places as heretofore constituted, do not correspond with the lines of the election districts, and have been determined by the court and are hereby established as such.

The following is the list of the voting places in the county of Crittenden, Kentucky, which are hereby established as the proper voting places, and said list is marked "Voting Places, 1915." The said list is a true copy of the records of the official returns of the election districts in the county of Crittenden, Kentucky, as shown by the said list of the voting places and officers.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 9th day of May, 1915.

E. B. Morse, Judge.

Crittenden County, Kentucky, May 9, 1915.
